

Outright Wage Increase Denied Railway Workers

Conciliation Boards Find against Workers

Compromise Plan Deemed Unacceptable To Unions Involved

OTTAWA (CP)—Railway union demands for higher pay and shorter hours were sliced to a fraction in federal conciliation board findings made public today. Rejecting the claims of seventeen unions for outright pay increases, majority reports of two boards recommended a formula that would give about 124,000 employees a shorter work week, higher hourly rates but generally less in weekly pay envelopes.

The findings brought an immediate blast from Union leaders and it appeared certain that a strike vote would be ordered. "The railway workers asked for bread and have been given a stone," said A. R. Mosher, president of the 30,000-member Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees (CCL).

Under the award non-operating employees—those who do not run the trains—would get an average additional 6.8c in a general hourly rate of $1.03. The Unions had asked for pay boosts of from seven to ten cents an hour.

The Unions had also asked for reduction in the work week from 48 to 40 hours with a five-day week and no loss of take-home pay.

The board settled on a 44-hour week rather than the requested 40-hour period and worked out a compromise on the Unions' demands for 48-hour pay for the shorter week. The findings, if accepted, would mean that the bulk of the employees would take a weekly wage cut to get shorter hours although not as large a cut as the reduction of working time.

Frank H. Hall, spokesman for fifteen international railway unions, said it is a "foregone conclusion" that the majority of the findings will be rejected by the workers.

The only major group that would get a wage increase would be some 20,000 "back shop" employees now on a 44-hour week. They would continue working the same hours with a higher hourly wage.

Sanders Trial Set April 21

John Barrie Sanders is back in Prince Rupert under police escort to face trial on a charge of theft by a clerk in the sum of approximately $10,000 following his recent arrest in Ontario. He was brought back here from the eastern city by Constable Ed. Anderson of the provincial police. Preliminary trial has been set for April 21 before Stipendiary Magistrate H. F. Glassey.

The charge arises out of the coincident disappearance of Sanders and the money from the Canadian Fishing Co.'s store at Butedale about three years ago. He was pursued by police but, flying east, kept ahead of them. Finally he was picked up for the British Columbia police after having become involved in the East with the authorities. He has been serving time at Burwash for an offence in Hamilton.

LOCAL ENTERPRISE—

Air Sea Rescue Service Started

An air sea rescue service is now in operation in Prince Rupert. Personnel of the CPA, QCA and the Prince Rupert Aero Club have banded together to form an arm of sea rescue operations. Five names were handed to the city detachment of the B.C. Police here and these people, all connected with air services, would be contacted in the event of a disaster or near disaster. The move was initiated following the Easter Sunday near tragedy when Dr. William S. Kergin came close to being lost in cold Chamham Sound. Each member of the ASR has a specific job to do if an emergency call comes. All would assemble at the C.P.A. hangar at Seal Cove.

Sgt. Lance Poterton, on hearing about the service, lauded the idea and added that police would only be too glad to assist the service by listing the persons that would need to be contacted. The five persons, police or the general public would contact are A. Shuberg, dispatcher for CPA; Bob Kelsey, instructor at the Aero Club; Bill Priest, manager of QCA; Capt. Bob McInnes, pilot with CPA and Dr. W. S. Kergin, president of the Aero Club.

New Plan On Douks

VANCOUVER—A plan to end a half century of strife in Doukhobor districts of British Columbia may be made public next week following the renewal of terrorism yesterday in the Kootenays with the burning of several houses by fire raiders at Brilliant, 250 miles east of here. Property damage was estimated at $50,000.

Hymn chanting, Doukhobors, reported by the police to be members of the radical Sons of Freedom, put the torches, their symbol of protest, to the home of the late Peter (The Lordly) Verigin, gasoline-fed flames spreading to nearby houses. Thirty-six of the raiders, all young men, were taken into custody and herded into their own cars, under police escort, to be taken to Nelson pending investigation.

JOINT ROAD ACTION—

Highway from Juneau to Tulsequah and on to Atlin Meets With Favor

VICTORIA—Possibility of joint action by the United States and British Columbia governments to construct a highway linking Juneau, Alaska, with the Alaska Highway was seen today. The public works department is interested in building a 40-mile road from Taku, Alaska, to Tulsequah, British Columbia, to serve mining operations. United States officers are also reported interested because it is only a short distance from Tulsequah to Atlin which is now linked with the Alaska Highway. At the other end Juneau could be linked with a short ferry service.

An Admirable Move

PEOPLE OF THE CANADIAN PACIFIC AIR LINES, Queen Charlotte Air Lines and Prince Rupert Aero Club, getting together to organize a voluntary and unofficial air rescue service, show a spirit of initiative and enterprise which is to be highly commended. Incidentally, it seems to us that their action is one of the most important sequences in the current campaign for the establishment of an effective coastguard service pointing up to rather than relieving the government responsibility in the matter.

This is one case where admirable local initiative is being taken against an admitted and immediate need. The local air-rescue facilities may be none too extensive but to have them, such as they are, ready to spring into action when an emergency arises is a very desirable thing and affords an added measure of security until the required permanent service is established. On the spot for instant action, they can later co-ordinate with what wider and more extensive facilities may be made available.

We hope that what is being done locally may be a spur to the proper authorities to speed up the filling of an urgent need in the way of protection for the increasing number who traverse the seas in this vicinity.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

IN A DISCUSSION PRECIPITATED by a motion emanating from the Prince Rupert Association, members of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, in their annual convention at Vancouver, have debated whether school teaching should be considered a "trade" or a "profession" which definition, it appears, would appear to have some bearing on the matter of "union" affiliation. Actually, we do not see a great deal of point in whether teachers are to be classed as "profession" or "trade", any distinction being in word only, one being as honorable, necessary and vital as the other.

The whole aim of the teachers is, we suppose, to improve the conditions of the "profession" or the "trade" in which they work. No matter whether or not they are a "profession" they are already "unionized" and there need be nothing odious about that word although it may be often misunderstood or misinterpreted.

CONSERVATIVES NEEDED

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION which meets April 17 is of very real importance for all Canadians concerned with the health and stability of this country.

For the sound functioning of our political institutions, our democracy needs an opposition party which can periodically oust the governing party and form a new administration.

The announced purpose of the Conservative meeting is to "proceed with reorganization of the party to the end that it would be prepared to successfully contest the next election."

That sounds fine. How well will the conventioners achieve that goal? The won't get far if they merely fuss around the edges of their problem; if they spend their time on recriminations.

What all responsible Canadians will sincerely hope is that the coming convention puts some spirit back in the Conservative Party so it can fully live up to its national responsibilities; so it will make an effective appeal to all Canadians in all provinces.

Conservatism in the true sense of the word is just as honorable and it is just as necessary for the welfare of our society as liberalism. It is the interplay between the two which is our best guarantee for continuing stability.

Services in the Church

SATURDAY SERMON

INDISPENSIBLE CHRIST

(By Pastor Leonard A. Thorpe, Regular Baptist Church)

The words that Christ Jesus spoke white on earth are well worth studying. His was no common wisdom. His was not mere human knowledge. When He taught in the Jewish synagogues, the people were amazed and the opposition silenced by the power and authority of His words. He spoke as none other man spoke. He revealed His Deity by His teaching just as surely as He did in His miracles. The disciples testified to the potency of His speech by claiming: "Thou hast the words of eternal life." His own claim was that they were Spirit and they were life.

Does this not rebuke us for taking the narrative out of the gospels so lightly, and not pausing to reflect upon the teachings of Christ? This truly would be a pause that refreshes. Instead, we carelessly read a chapter, then put the Book away without a thought!

Often the remarks that Christ made in the course of ordinary conversation are so weighty that few people can gain their true significance until they have taken time to look beyond the apparent or the surface meaning. These remarks are like icebergs that show only a tenth of their mass until one looks beneath the surface.

If we come across an interesting picture we stop and take time to examine its detail. Let us do likewise with the words of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

In the fifteenth chapter of the Gospel according to John the Lord says, "Without Me ye can do nothing." By this sweeping statement He claims with all the authority of deity to be THE INDISPENSIBLE PERSON IN OUR LIFE!

Some of us may think that our wife or our wife to be is the indispensable person in our life. Maybe she is, humanly speaking, but the life that we are considering is not human life but divine.

When our Saviour said that His words were Spirit and life to us, He used the Greek word which means eternal life—life that extends beyond the grave. Entrance into this eternal life —the only life that is worth the name—is the first place where we need the Indispensible Person. Without Him, this entrance is an impossibility "Without me ye can do nothing"—not even BECOME a Christian. Yes, let this solemn warning be known in every home—CHRIST IS INDISPENSIBLE TO SALVATION.

When our Saviour said, "I am the Door" he also taught that there were no other doors! When He said, "I am the Way," He also said "No man cometh unto the Father but by me" . . .

We often illustrate to the children this great truth by the means of a flannelgraph. This device consists of a flannel background and flannel-backed picture that cling mysteriously on the board. This particular picturegraph is placed across the bottom of the board. Across the top, we place heaven which is pictured with as much of its glory and pleasantness as possible. Then we have a series of ladders by which we try to reach Heaven; one is called "good works", another "our righteousness" and another is called "church membership" and yet another is called "Christian parents."

Without exception, these ladders have a common fault. They are too short! They will not span the distance between Sin and Heaven. This shows the ways that will not save them. Then we show them what will span this great gulf, and it is the blood-stained Cross of Christ.

This is the primary truth that every mind should grasp, that apart from a personal acceptance of Christ, of a personal appropriation of His sacrificial death as our atonement for sin, of believing with all our heart that Christ died FOR us, we cannot enter into eternal life.

God's Word reveals time and time again, "He that HATH the Son, hath life, and he that hath not the Son, hath not life."

It is logical to accept, and it is according to Script, that this acceptance of Christ as Saviour, is the starting place for all Christianity. Unless we know His saving power and have experienced the joy of having our sins washed away, this is the message for us. Our great need is to enter into life. Jesus Christ is the only entrance. Behold Him there on the Cross, bearing on His spotless shoulders OUR sins. When we fully realize that He did that JUST for us, let us confess to Him our sinfulness and thank Him for dying in our place. He will come into our hearts and reveal Himself to us in all His saving power and deity of Person. Always remember that without Christ "ye can do nothing" for your salvation.

It is not necessary to go all the way to Hollywood to see real and not simulated drama. The novel "Ulysses," banned in Canada for seventeen years, is back in the Vancouver public library—and can be had on application. Presumably, the same might become true of other libraries. It does not always follow that because a story is forbidden public circulation, it has lost popular interest. Often it is, or seems to be dull. Sometimes people jump at wrong ideas.

Planning to settle in Canada another large party from Holland has arrived in Halifax. More power to them. They were in fine health and spirits and didn't have to learn how to smile. That's half the battle. You know it takes a lot to beat the Dutch. They have had considerable to do with peopling North America. Right now, they are rounding homes in the Bulkley Valley and around Terrace. Speaking of founding, there is a town they started, back east, somewhere south of Montreal, ever so long ago. The place is called New York.

Farewell Party For Peterson

Captain Of Alberni Being Transferred to Victoria

About one hundred friends gathered in the Valhalla Hall on Wednesday evening to honor Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Peterson with a farewell party who are moving to Victoria.

Capt. Peterson has been a valued employee of the Department of Transport Aids to Navigation Branch for the past 30 years. His first command was the motor vessel Rhona, followed by the lighthouse tender Birnie and for the past four years he has been the captain of C.G.S. Alberni. Capt. Peterson is leaving at the end of this week for Victoria to take over command of another vessel there.

Guests were received by Mrs. J. W. Eastwood, Mrs. N. S. Brewer and Mrs. John MacLeod, and escorted into the hall to the tune of the pipes, played by Piper William MacKay. James Hadden was master of ceremonies and music for dancing was furnished by Mr. Smilie and Mrs. Thompson.

Jack Eastwood, Jack Evans and Jack Leeming were in charge of the punch bowl. Refreshments were served at midnight, after which N. S. K. Brewer, with a few appropriate remarks, presented Capt. and Mrs. Peterson with cabinet of a complete set of flatware for eight.

Mrs. Norman MacKay and Mrs. J. W. Webster were in charge of the kitchen. Servers were Mesdames Jack Lee-

'Canadian Pacific' Colorful, Exciting

Romantic action drama inspired by incidents in connection with the construction of Canada's first transcontinental railway, "Canadian Pacific" is the colorful feature picture which opened at the Capitol Theatre last night and will be repeated tonight. Filmed in color and, replete with drama, excitement and mountain spectacle, the film is in natural color with locations in the Canadian Rockies and foothills easily recognized.

The story is centered about Tom Andrews, a surveyor, who becomes a trouble shooter in the battle to span the Rockies with chains of steel. Highlighted is an unusual romance between Andrews and Cecile, a tempestuous mountain girl, who risks her life to help his dream come true. Randolph Scott plays the role of Andrews while Nancy Olson, University of California co-ed, makes her screen debut in the role of Cecile. Jane Wyon plays a pioneer lady doctor; J. Carroll Naish is the indomitable "powder monkey"; and Victor Jory, appears as a villainous fur trader.

ming, Jack Evans, Jack Eastwood and the Misses Heather Brewer, Norma and Julia MacKay and Mrs. Norman MacLeod. The evening was brought to a close with the singing of "They are Jolly Good Fellows."

Seen At ... Civic Centre

The keen manner in which the younger Civic Centre members have been selling the tickets for the raffle of the hand-made ladies' purse which is one of the big features of the coming Hobby Fair has prompted the committee in charge to offer a prize to both the boy and girl who sell the most number of tickets. A handsome wallet will be presented to the winners who prove to be the best sales promoters. Several youngsters have already sold as many as three books.

The prizes for the raffle are on display at the Vance Home Art shop together with an exhibit of handicrafts which will be put on sale at the Hobby Fair.

The beautiful hand-woven afghan which the Junior Girls have made is also to be raffled and this will be displayed in the same manner through the coming week. A special prize will be given to the person selling the most tickets on this article. Most of the classes in crafts will wind up very shortly and everyone wishing to enter their work in the Hobby Fair will have time to give it a final touch-up this coming week in preparation for the display.

POPULAR FOR SMALL TOWN—This 1½-storey house is very popular, especially in small towns and rural areas. It combines a pleasing exterior appearance with a simple and practical floor layout. Designed for comfortable living throughout the year the plans include two porches and large, airy rooms, including three bedrooms. The large living room (15'0" x 11'8") is well lighted by two wide windows. A small central hallway connects the living room with the 'country' kitchen. One entire wall is devoted to shelf and sink space. A rear entrance connects the kitchen with the back porch. Another door leads to the basement where there is ample space for storage, laundry and heating facilities. The large master-bedroom completes the first floor layout. On the second floor there is one large bedroom on each side of the house. Each bedroom contains a large stand-up closet. There is also an additional linen closet near the bathroom. The front dormer window provides light for the completely equipped bathroom. For estimating purposes the total floor area is 1,964 square feet; cubic contents 15,399 cubic feet. Working drawings may be obtained from any office of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation at minimum cost.

Church Bazaar Bright Affair

Formally opened by Mrs. James B. Gibson, wife of the Bishop to whom due honor was paid, the annual spring bazaar of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Cathedral was held Thursday afternoon in the Cathedral Hall and, throughout the afternoon, drew an attendance of many ladies.

Business was brisk and the gaily decorated stalls, adorned in spring colors of mauve, yellow and green, attracted many purchasers. The flower covered tea tables were filled to capacity. Pouring were Mrs. J. B. Gibson, Mrs. E. Hodgson, Mrs. A. Rivett and Mrs. W. J. Greer. The pouring table was centred with irises, tulips and daffodils flanked by candles, the arrangement being the subject of much admiration.

Tea conveners were Mrs. T. D. Johnston and Mrs. T. B. Black assisted by Mrs. L. M. Gordon, Mrs. W. J. Scott, Mrs. W. M. Watts, Mrs. W. A. McLean, Mrs. A. M. Budinich, Mrs. Hitchcock, Mrs. Flood and Mrs. E. H. Mortimer who acted as serviteurs. Mrs. Bacon and Mrs. Bulger assisted in the kitchen. Mrs. Eric Faure was cashier.

Mr and Mrs. E. Pettenuzzo Leaving Next Week

Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Pettenuzzo, pioneer residents of Prince Rupert, will be Holy Year visitors to their native Italy and will visit the Vatican in Rome where they expect to see the Pope. They are leaving the city next Monday and expect to be away until September. It will be their first visit to their home land in thirty-seven years. Mrs. Pettenuzzo will take part in a family reunion in her native province of Padua of which Venice is the principal city.

Mr. Pettenuzzo has two brothers in Padua, one of whom Eugenio, lived in Prince Rupert from 1909 to 1921.

In addition to Rome, the Pettenuzzos will visit Milan, Turin and Pisa as well as Lugarno, Switzerland, where Mrs. Pettenuzzo's mother died five years ago. Paris may also be included on their tour before they return home, sailing from Genoa for New York on the steamer Brazil.

Mr. Pettenuzzo is one of the early pioneers of this city, having first come here in 1909. In 1912 he went back to Italy to be married and he and his bride returned here in 1913 and have not been back to their native land since then. Bruno Pettenuzzo, their son, will be home shortly from University of British Columbia to take charge of their Fulton Street store while they are away.

Also leaving next Monday for Italy will be Mrs. G. Vachner who will spend at least a year and possibly remain in her native Udine province.

Official Appreciation To Metlakatla In Kergin Rescue—Japanese Flocking Back To Salmon Fishery

Official appreciation of the Department of Indian Affairs was extended to Chief Councillor George Ryan and the village of Metlakatla on Thursday afternoon of this week by Indian Superintendent F. E. Anfield for the signal part they played on Sunday afternoon last in the rescue of Dr. William S. Kergin in the episode of the power cruiser Full Moon. Mr. Anfield made a special trip to Metlakatla with the departmental cruiser Naskeena and met with the village council to convey the official commendation. He also carried the formal appreciation of Dr. and Mrs. Kergin who, in a letter delivered by the superintendent, promised that, as soon as the doctor's health was sufficiently restored after the arduous experience, they would pay a personal visit to the village. Present at the meeting, besides the members of the village council, were Henry Ryan, central hero in the rescue operation, who picked up Dr. Kergin as well as the Full Moon; Elvin Leask, who had an active role in the saving of the Full Moon, and Mrs. George Ryan, who gave shelter and sustenance to Mrs. Kergin and her three children during their harrowing experience.

Four Nisei-manned gillnetters have already left Vancouver for friends not only along the local waterfront but all along this part of the coast and especially among the people of the light-houses whom he has served so faithfully and well. Capt. Arthur Davidson, chief officer of the Estevan, senior lighthouse tender on the coast, operating out of Victoria, will be Capt. Peterson's successor as master of the Alberni.

Relieving the Camosun for one week, Union steamer Chilcotin, Capt. Harry McLean, arrived in port at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and waypoints and sailed at 11 p.m. for Masset Inlet points whence she will return here tomorrow afternoon to sail south at 9 p.m. On her northbound voyage the Chilcotin had some prominent passengers including Hon. J. H. Cates, provincial minister of labor; H. J. Welch, M.L.A. for Comox, and W. S. Arneil, commissioner of Indian Affairs for British Columbia, who disembarked at Bella Bella to attend the annual convention of the Native Brotherhood of British Columbia now in session at that village. William Scow, president of the Native Brotherhood, also arrived at Bella Bella on the Chilcotin.

The Chilcotin will be making one more relief voyage on northern runs when she arrives here April 23, a week from tomorrow, in place of the steamer Coquitlam which will be withdrawn for one trip from the Vancouver-Prince Rupert-Alice Arm-Stewart route. This completed, the Chilcotin will then start making ready for her summer tourist run to Alaska which will be extended to Juneau, Skagway and Sitka this year.

While no official confirmation is yet available, it is understood

C.N.R. steamer Prince George will be coming into service earlier than usual this summer. Her first voyage is expected to be the third week in May when she will bring north a goodwill tour party of the Vancouver Board of Trade. Other large important early season groups coming north on the Prince George this year will be the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the Portland Journal parties whose trips north are now becoming an institution.

Negotiations to cover hours of work, wages, overtime and working conditions, between the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union and packing companies have commenced in Victoria. The companies include the BC Packers, Canadian Fishing Co. Ltd., Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. Ltd., Atlin Fisheries, Northern Fishermens Cold Storage Co. Ltd., Edmunds & Walker Ltd. and J. M. Todd and Sons Ltd.

New Freight Service
In order to take care of added seasonal business, Union-Waterhouse Steamships have commenced a scheduled freight service to visit Prince Rupert and northern points. The service officially opened today as the motor vessel Island King left the Vancouver dock to arrive here Tuesday morning.

Two vessels will be engaged along the northern coast in the new type of freight service. The second ship will leave Vancouver next month. Skeena River canneries will have the advantage of receiving the weekly service. Frank Skinner, agent here, said the service will not reduce freight carried by the company's passenger vessels plying to Prince Rupert and northward and the occasional freight vessel will continue to dock here.

On Easter Sunday, Dr. W. S.

Kergin, came close to drowning when his yacht Full Moon struck a reef in Chatham Sound. Police here were notified and the P.M.L. 15 went to the rescue. Meanwhile other vessels were engaged in a search for the physician. The doctor said he sat on a rock for four hours watching the search boats. No one notified any of the airlines here or the Prince Rupert Aero Club of which Dr. Kergin is himself president. Following the near disaster, a few members connected with the flying business here got together. They worked out an Air Sea Rescue plan which they think will greatly aid in the search for any missing craft or person.

Search Force Is Cut Down

COPENHAGEN — After search crews had run down in vain a new tip on the possible fate of a missing United States patrol plane that the Russians now hint was the target of Soviet fighters, it was announced that the search force had been reduced from 25 to 15 planes. The hunt had received a temporary lift when reports said wreckage had been sighted by a German steamer. However, nothing was found.
