Truman In Bitter Attack on Russia; Sees Soviet Aggressive, Warlike

Obstacle To Peace

Bitter Accusation By U.S. Chief Executive

ST. LOUIS — (CP) — President Truman today bitterly accused Soviet Russia of preaching peace while "denoting aggression and preparing for war." Using language like a prosecuting attorney, he said Russia's leaders, "with a cynical disregard for the hopes of mankind," have been an "obstacle to peace." At the same time, he said Russia's threat of a third world war is being "offset" by the growing strength of the free world "and the United States is enlisted "for the duration" in the struggle to preserve peace.

Two Convicted On Revolver Charges

Yesterday Walter Carlson was convicted on two charges, carrying an unregistered revolver and selling an unregistered revolver. He was fined $15 on the first and $10 on the second count.
A similar Nelson convicted on two charges, carrying a loaded revolver, and carrying an unregistered revolver. The first charge drew a $25 fine, the second $10.
A charge against Jack Caron heard Thursday of keeping liquor for sale was dismissed.

Big Number Is Lucky One for Girl-Refugee

Twelve-year-old Dace Epermanis (holding flowers, left picture) gets a special send-off at Bremerhaven, Germany, when records of the U.N. International Refugee Organization (IRO) disclosed that she was the 150,000th displaced person to be admitted to the USA under its DP law. Her mother and father, leaving an IRO camp with Dace for their new home, stand with her in front of the sign. At right, Dace is shown aboard an IRO-chartered ship just after she first saw the towering buildings of New York. Large numbers of refugees from European lands have also received new homes in Israel, Australia, the United Kingdom, Canada, France, Argentina and Brazil.

Flash

CRUSHED IN SHOVEL

VANCOUVER — Angus McCauley, 24-year-old diesel mechanic, died in hospital yesterday five hours after being crushed, then trapped in the gears of a power shovel. A doctor amputated McCauley's partially severed left leg to free him.

APPEAL RESERVED

VANCOUVER — The appeal of red haired Frederick Roger Ducharme sentenced to be hanged June 30 for murder, was reserved yesterday until June 19. Ducharme was convicted of slaying 45-year-old Ferné Blanche Fisher last December.

ATHLETICS FOR SALE

PHILADELPHIA — Connie Mack, for the first time in 50 years as boss of the Philadelphia Athletics, said yesterday the American League club is for sale "for the right offer." Son Ray said "I think $5,000,000" is the price tag.

TO TALK AIR DEFENCE

LONDON — Three top officials of Britain's air ministry, including an expert on atomic research, are flying to Washington next Wednesday for secret talks on co-ordinating air defence under the North Atlantic treaty.

RUSSIAN ROULETTE

MCKEESPORT, Pa. — The dangerous game of Russian roulette took the life of a 15-year-old school boy today while three friends watched. Killed was Anthony Petrulli.

GALE WRECKS RESORT

COPENHAGEN, Denmark — A gale whipped fire laid waste the centre of the fishing resort of Hundsted today and caused damage estimated at $175,000.

SINGAPORE INCIDENT

SINGAPORE — Six British soldiers were killed and three wounded when a gang of 40 Communist guerrillas attacked an army patrol today in Perak. One guerrilla was killed.

Russo-German Peace Treaty

BERLIN — Allied officials predicted Thursday night that Russia will make a separate peace with Western Germany late this year after "civilianizing" the Soviet zone to serve as a satellite of Moscow. They see no likelihood of Soviet troop withdrawal, however.

Spadework will include the replacement of the General of the Army by a career diplomat as chief of the Soviet control commission, Allied sources say.

From Vancouver (Friday) — Mrs. Sparrow, A. Morgan, Mrs. Mield, A. W. Waller, N. A. Beketov, J. Bruce, Mrs. A. Coutts, B. Suzuki, E. Nahanee, W. Osborne, J. McCamy.
From Sandspit (Friday) — Mr. Findlay, Mrs. F. Fortier, Mr. Brown, C. R. Choquette, G. Greene.

Jap-Canadian, Natives, White Fishermen Meeting

Japanese-Canadian, Native Brotherhood and fishermen of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union will meet together to discuss their problems Sunday afternoon at Port Edward.

Buck Suzuki, chairman of the fisheries committee of Japanese-Canadian Citizens Association, and Ed Mahaney, southern business agent of the Native Brotherhood, arrived here by plane yesterday and met the local branch of the brotherhood last night. Nothing for publication came from that meeting. The two call this an introductory trip.

The Sunday meeting is to discuss fish prices for the season and vote on latest company offers.

Suzuki joined the Canadian Intelligence Corps during the war and was later seconded to British Intelligence Force 136, with whom he served in India, Burma, Ceylon and Malaya. In Malaya he was newscasting and commentating over the radio on broadcasts beamed at Japan. After the war he was with naval intelligence screening enemy personnel, and later still with the war crimes investigation team with headquarters at Kuala Lumpur.

Mahaney became a longshoreman in 1923. From 1932 until 1946 he was a foreman with Empire Stevedoring Co. In that year he was elected to his present position, which he has held since that time. His son, Ed Jr., was killed on active service with the United States Infantry under General Simpson in the 9th Army near the Rhine.

THREE MISSING IN FREIGHT WRECK

WINNIPEG — Two C.N.R. freight trains collided yesterday near McIntosh in Northwestern Ontario. Three crew members are missing and one seriously injured. Thirty-two freight cars were derailed. Missing are Engineer E. Mahoney, Fireman E. L. Ruston and Engineer Dillon.

Second Murder Try Report Also Fake

TOKYO — A new plot against General MacArthur's life — the second in ten days — was reported and brushed aside by key American officials, who called it a fake. A letter was said to have been intercepted mentioning vaguely a plan to kill the supreme commander.

Fine Week-End For Province

Almost all regions of British Columbia will enjoy sunny skies over the week-end. Afternoon temperatures are expected to reach 75 to 85 over the interior and 60 to 70 near the coast. Some thin cloudiness will drift into the southern coastal areas from a disturbance in southern Oregon but this is not expected to prove a threat to generally pleasant weather. It will be cloudy and a little cooler in the northern regions of the province tomorrow.

Forecast

North Coast Region — Drifting fog banks over the water though cloud and fog patches over the shorelines lifting during the day and forming again at night today and Sunday. Little change in temperature. Winds light except north-west (20 m.p.h. over the exposed areas of the Queen Charlottes. Lows tonight and high Sunday — At Port Hardy 45-65. Sandspit 45-55. Prince Rupert 47-63.

Teen-Age Gangs To Be Considered

VANCOUVER — Whether teen age gangs under proper leadership have any right in a community or whether they are a menace in any form will be one of the questions debated by some of the keenest minds in Canadian and American social work at the biennial Canadian conference on social work here starting June 11.

Delinquency And Child Guidance

A Child Guidance Clinic from Vancouver spent four days in Prince Rupert during the middle of last month and many cases chosen by the Social Welfare Branch were examined by the skilled staff. It was revealed in a May report of the Prince Rupert Public Health Unit. Errors in training of the child were pointed out and treatment recommended.

The clinic explained that much is heard nowadays about juvenile delinquency and that we are apt to forget that the delinquent is a young person, very much confused and afraid, worried by the adult world. We think of him as someone who can be cured by punishment.

Mental health begins at home. Medical men know that the foundations of good mental health are laid in childhood. We must remember that a juvenile delinquent is a misdirected and misguided child, one needing aid, encouragement and help and assistance.

Busy Week In Police Court

Magistrate's court Thursday was a busy place. Stanley Johnson was convicted on two charges of supplying liquor to Indians and was fined $50 and costs on each count, in default 2 months prison.

Two were convicted on drunkenness charges.

Four natives were convicted on charges of possession of intoxicating liquor.

After Friday and Saturday nights, cell block in the city jail was crowded. Police reported that 36 broke His Majesty's laws on those nights. And as the Ruler was celebrating his birthday Monday, it was not fitting to prosecute anyone. Prosecutions started Tuesday.

A total of $540 was shelled out in fines and $99 in costs after convictions by Magistrate W. D. Vance in city police court Tuesday. Eight of the total were prosecuted under the Government Liquor Act and 23 under the Indian Act. The remaining five were miscellaneous cases such as causing disturbances.

Don K. Llewellyn, local fireman, left by plane Saturday for Vancouver as a Prince Rupert delegate to the B.C. Provincial Association of Firefighters in Vancouver June 13, 14 and 15.

BOMB MAKER — Watchmaker Genereux Ruest, 51, described himself as a "wizard with his hands," hobbles along on crutches to a waiting police car after being arraigned on a charge of complicity in the Sault au Cochon air disaster which claimed 23 lives. Ruest, 51, Albert Guay, convicted of plotting the time-bombing of the plane to kill his wife, is scheduled to be hanged Jan. 12. Guay's sentence was originally set for June 23 but it is believed he will be brought to testify against Ruest, who admitted making the bomb when, he said, Guay wanted to blow up tree stumps.

Strike Results Coming Mid June

OTTAWA — Results of a strike vote taken among the two Canadian unions involved in the railway wage-hours dispute will be made known about the middle of the month, union officials said here. The unions are the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and the Brotherhood of Express Employees with a total of 34,000 members.

Five Lose Lives In Express Fire

BEATTOCK, Scotland — Fire broke out Thursday night on a speeding Birmingham-Glasgow express train, killing a man, two children and two women.

Fanned by the speed of the train, flames spread through the first three coaches. These were ablaze when the train ground to a stop near this village 60 miles southeast of Glasgow.

Caretaker, Horses Perish in Fire

CHICAGO — A watchman perished and between 17 and 22 racing horses burned to death last night in a fire which destroyed a huge barn on the Emil Denmark farm near suburban Hinsdale. Denmark estimated the loss at $700,000.

Among the horses that died was Centric, which last year won the $57,850 futurity at Washington Park. Lightning struck a room of the barn during an electrical storm, setting fire to some 200 tons of hay in the loft.

Donation to Pay On Flood Damage

OTTAWA — Hon. Douglas Abbott, Minister of Finance, announced in Commons that the Dominion government will bear 75 per cent of diking and other remedial measures in the Manitoba floods as was done with the Fraser Valley floods of 1948. General flood losses total some $26,000,000.

Two Arrests Made In Mine Robbery

TIMMINS, Ontario — A second suspect in the $75,000 robbery at Delnorte mine, 22-year-old Morley Latham, was arrested today.

Police say Latham and Edward Clements, arrested Sunday, were employed at the refinery and assisted in pouring the gold bricks. Both men are charged with breaking and entering.

Talking About Stewart Drawl

Kissless Pictures Becoming Popular

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jimmy Stewart's lazy drawl is one of the most famous products of Hollywood, but says the lanky star, "I don't know exactly how I got it."

"Nobody noticed it much until I got to Hollywood," said the actor. "People seemed to like it, so of course I didn't try to get rid of it. It couldn't be geographical. I'm from Pennsylvania, and they don't have a drawl there. They do have a few peculiarities of speech, though. You don't notice them until you get away from home. I get tickled when I hear my mother sometimes; she'll say she is going to 'rid' a room, that means she's going to clean it."

About his speech habits, Jimmy added, "I think it's a combination of slow talking and stuttering. It has been a handicap to me at times. When I have to speak rapidly and forcefully, I have trouble."

"But, I guess I can't complain." CHAPLIN AND CHAPMAN Charlie Chaplin is working far into the night on his new movie script. He has cancelled all social engagements in order to get the new film ready for early production. It could be that he is heartened by the success of the "City Lights" re-issue, following his disappointment with "Monsieur Verdoux." Chaplin believes the latter was his greatest effort, but the public felt differently.

Marguerite Chapman announced she was retiring from films two years ago. She tried two other careers, marriage and interior decorating, and gave up both. Now she's back in pictures, making "Kansas Raiders." She says: "That's the last time I'll retire."

ODDS 'N' ENDS Kissless pictures are becoming prevalent in Hollywood, which is getting more unromantic by the day. Rhonda Fleming and Quebec's Glenn Ford exchange no kisses in "Beyond the Sunset," nor do William Holden and Nancy Olson in "Union Station."

"The Men" (U.A.) is a profoundly moving film, mainly because it bears a resemblance to life that is rare in Hollywood films. It tells about the treatment of war veterans who are paralyzed from the waist down. The theme is filmed in such a human manner that it becomes entertainment. The cast, many of them real veterans, is uniformly excellent. Marlon Brando's debut is strange but provocative.

English Artist Moves to Canada

HALIFAX—An English artist whose work has gained considerable fame in Britain and has been exhibited in the Royal Academy in London and in Paris Salons, yesterday became a Canadian.

She is Mrs. Jean Floyd (John Manning Saunders) who arrived here yesterday with her two children, John, 11, and Christopher, 4, in the Cunard liner George and is now enroute to Vancouver in a Canadian National Railways boat train to establish her home there.

"I hope to be able to continue my work in Vancouver," said Mrs. Floyd. "It may be possible for me to do commercial work there, but that all depends upon how I find things when I get settled and whether there is a demand for such paintings."

Mrs. Floyd emigrated to Canada through the interest of Mrs. C. E. Findlater, of Vancouver, a friend of many years, whom she met in England last year during a British tour of the Elgait Junior Choir which Mrs. Findlater conducted last year.

The family was among more than 300 persons to arrive here in the George. On its way westward the CNR boat train will take 45 persons to Maritime destinations, 56 to Quebec, 143 to Ontario and more than 100 to Western Canada.

CANADIANS FOR UNION SOON

IN RECENT speeches in parliament Hon. Lester Pearson has made it clear that:

1. Canada is eager to transform the Atlantic Alliance into an out-and-out federation in which there will be an actual pooling of sovereignty, but

2. Canada refuses to take seriously the new and powerful U.S. press campaign to absorb this country into the U.S.A.

NATURALLY THIS cautious but clear advocacy of outright federation of all the western democracies is gratifying to me personally. I had the honor to be the first journalist in Canada to campaign in support of Clarence Streit's 1938 proposal for "Union Now." In 1939, 1940, 1941, I spoke in every nook and corner of this vast country in support of that plan.

Everywhere the response was the same:

"It would be wonderful for Canada if we could get it, but it sounds too good to be true."

CLARENCE STREIT'S proposal of out-and-out federation was "ahead of its time" when first made in 1938. I remember speaking in favor of it to American audiences in the first months of the Hitler war. As a Canadian, I could almost feel the suspicion in the air at the beginning of my talks. The average American was desperately afraid that the "wily British" were going to fix things to drag them (the Americans) into another war.

At that time Hitler had plenty of paid agents in the U.S.A. who were — fanning the always-smouldering fires of anti-British sentiment in the Republic. Their "line" was that this was another sinister British plot to make a sucker out of poor old Uncle Sam. In Canada and the rest of the British realm they used precisely the opposite argument — that this was a cunning Wall Street plot to gobble up the British Empire.

BUT I TOLD Clarence Streit in 1938 that there was one country which would be absolutely certain to support American-British-Canadian federation if and when that became practical politics. That country, I told him, was Canada. For federation would solve most of our chronic problems for us.

To show him the potential support for that plan I myself organized a Canadian National Committee for Union Now. Looking back over the list of those who signed in 1940 in favor of that plan of out-and-out federation of the western democracies I see the following:

The late Rev. George MacDonald of Edmonton, and the beloved padre of the First World War, Canon Scott; Mayor John Queen of Winnipeg, and Agnes MacPhail, both key CCF stalwarts; Murdoch MacPherson of Regina, and Arthur Ford of the London Free Press; two of the most influential Conservatives in Canada, Brigadier General Hill of Fredericton, N.B. was another signatory.

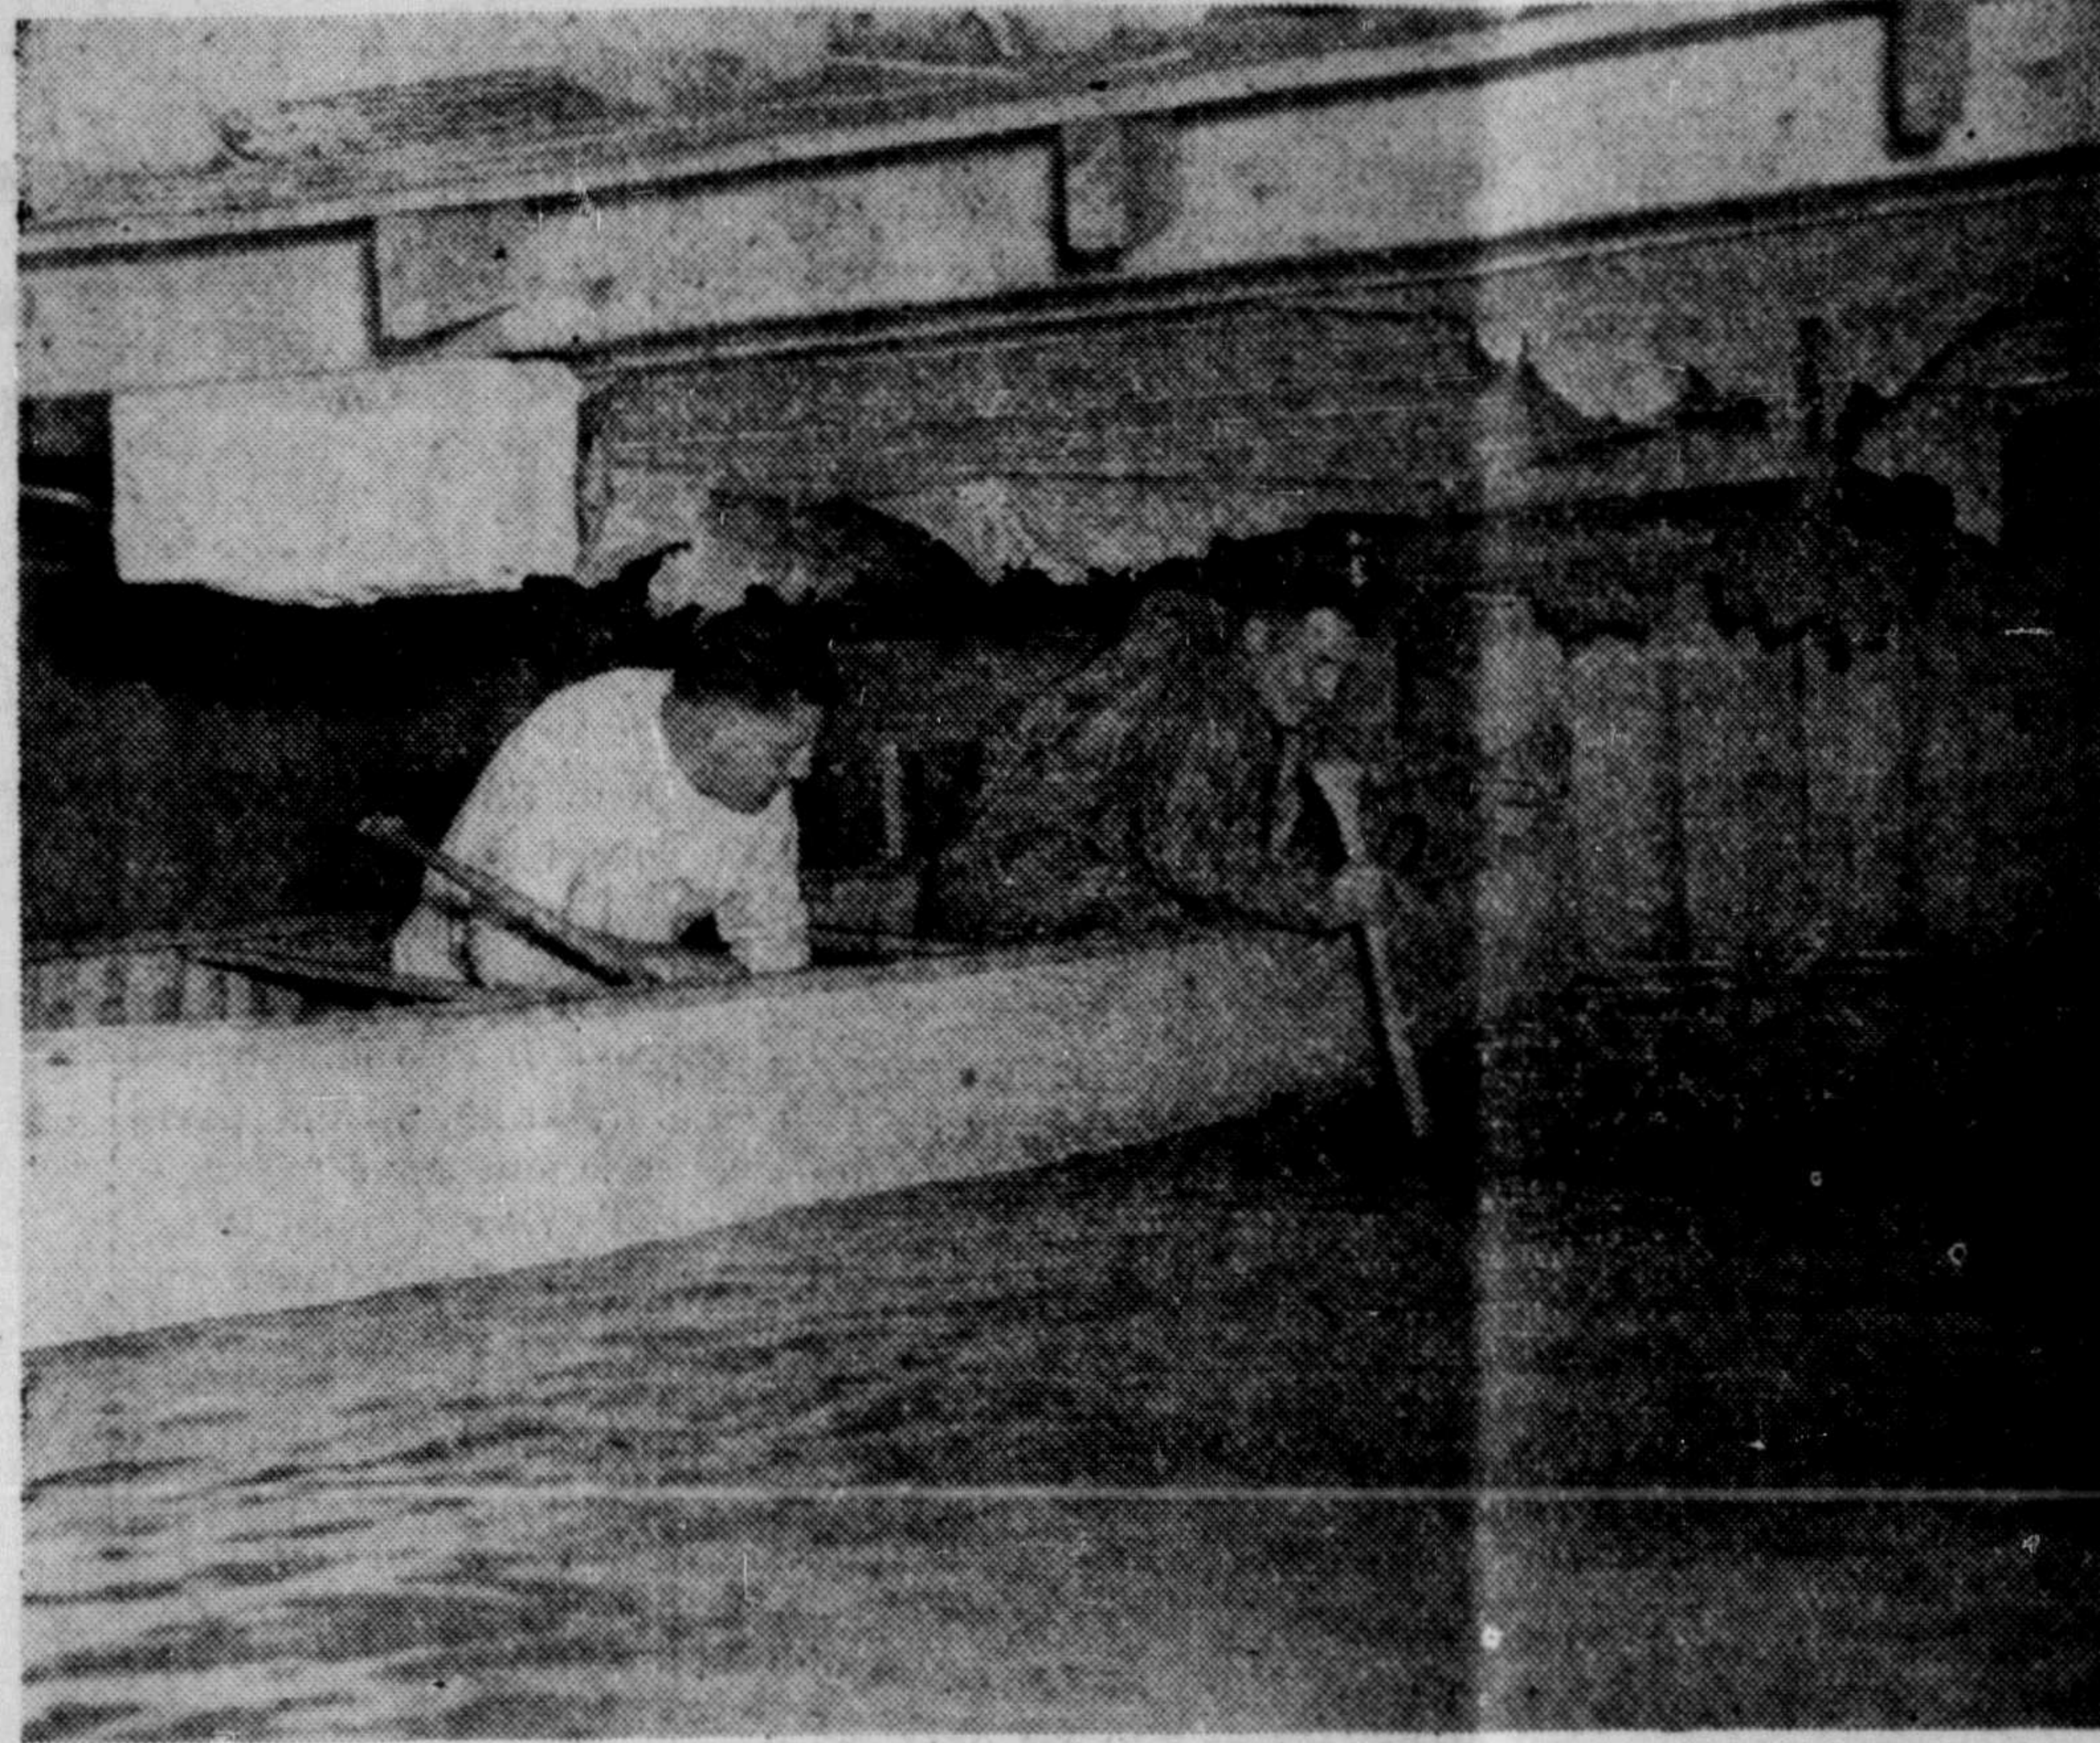

IN LATER YEARS DR. H. L. Stewart of Halifax and myself were the right and left wings on the three man C.B.C. panel of the Weekend Review. Both of us signed in favor of "Union Now" in 1940. I see Willson Woodside of Toronto Saturday Night has now come out strongly in favor of the same principle.

Among the parliamentarians Senators Athanase, David, Euler and Crearer have recently spoken in favor. It seems to be profoundly significant that these leaders, one of French, one of German, and one of British racial origin should also fervently favor the same plan.

Even more significant is that the multi-millionaire industrialist, E. P. Taylor and C. H. Millard, key CCL Labor leader are both strong advocates of such western federation.

GAME CANCELLED FOR CHURCHGOERS

NEW YORK — Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler yesterday ordered Fred Saigh, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, to cancel the proposed Sunday night game with Brooklyn because it "would not be in the best interests of baseball." Chandler said playing the game Sunday night would "cause us to forfeit the respect and goodwill of thousands of religious people of the country." The game was a postponed contest.

The anguished expression on the face of John Hoffman, (right) speaks of the catastrophes he has witnessed—fire which completely destroyed his home in 1947, and now a flood that has wiped out the new cement block edifice that replaced it. Entering the living room of their Morris, Manitoba, home by canoe, he and his son, Bill, probed for furniture and found that it had all been swept away by the reckless Red River. The battering of floating telephone poles against the house demolished the wall and made possible their entry by canoe. It is to help the Hoffmans and thousands of others like them that the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund has been established. Contributions may be sent directly to the Fund in Winnipeg or paid into any bank in Canada.

Legion And Motors Tie

Fast Game of Football Ends One Goal Each

In last evening's North Star football league competition General Motors and Canadian Legion played to a one-all draw. The score is a fair indication of the play. It is the second time that these teams have played to a draw and the third draw the Legion has had.

For the first part of the game General Motors were the better team and Pat Wilson went close. Price was effective and then Murray was just wide. Hornwell shot narrowly past and Currie drove wide. Smith was stopped in time by John Wilson. From Pat Wilson's pass Ford opened the score with a neat shot. Towards the end of this half the Legion pressed but it was the Motors' half.

It was a different story in the second half and Murray had several chances but missed the openings. Smith and Baxter made headway and Boulter saved with difficulty. Then an ordinary long shot by Murray gave the Legion the equalizer when Boulter lost the ball in the sun. Just after another long shot beat Boulter but John Wilson cleared from off the goal line. Bowman shot over. Sunberg stopped Ford and then Krause was lucky to clear. Price drove a long free just over. The Legion attacked again and Smith missed from Murray's cross but there were no further goals and the game ended one goal each.

Canadian Legion: Krause; C. Sunberg, Eby; Alexander, Yelland, McAfee, Greer, Shore; Baxter, Wyatt, Smith, Bowman, Murray.

COMMENTS
Krause did well. Eby and Sunberg played their usual strong defensive and aggressive game. They are a good pair. Yelland and later Greer was strong in defence. McAfee improved while Alexander did a good job in the first half. The forward line missed Armstrong. Baxter and Wyatt were held in check more than usual but Baxter was dangerous. Smith was checked hard. Bowman tried hard and Murray missed good openings. He got the only Legion goal.

Boulter was sound and was unlucky to be beaten by a shot that he lost in the glare of the sun. He saved an otherwise certain goal. Wellens again was a rare stumbling block with time to feed his forwards. Currie was very sound and fast, checking his wing well.

Hornell opened the game nicely and played well all through. Price did better in the first half and was good in the second, too. Pat Wilson, fast and persistent, combined with Ford for the Motors' goal. Ford, a real find, turned his goal neatly past Krause. McKay was not aggressive enough.

New Train For Newfoundland

MONTREAL — Effective June 18, another "name" train will be added to the roster of Canadian National Railways passenger trains, S. F. Dingle, vice-president of operation, announced yesterday. Train No. 1 westward, and train No. 2 eastward, operating between St. John's and Port Aux Basques, Newfoundland, will be known as "The Caribou" and its frequency will be increased from a tri-weekly service to a daily service. "This will also mark the first time in the history of Newfoundland that a daily passenger rail service has been operated across the island province," Mr. Dingle added.

The new "name" train schedule will appear in the June 18 issue of a C.N.R. time table folder for Newfoundland, and will show departure from St. John's at 5:00 p.m. Newfoundland time, and from Port Aux Basques at 9:00 a.m.

Concurrently, the Gulf Steamship Service between Port Aux Basques and North Sydney will be increased to daily, commencing June 17 from North Sydney.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyerhoff of Penticton are visitors in the city. Mr. Meyerhoff, who comes from Penticton, is owner of the Crescent Shows and is here on business. He also has considerable property holdings here.

Dr. R. H. Ball, manager of the cellulose division of the Celanese Corporation of America, left the city by plane yesterday after completing one of his periodical visits at Watson Island.

Dr. Arthur Barner, Churchman, Passes

Mrs. F. Earl Anfield left by today's plane for Vancouver to attend the funeral on Monday of her father, the late Rev. Arthur Barner, who was for many years superintendent of Indian missions for the United Church of Canada. Dr. Barner passed away yesterday in Vancouver where he had resided for the past ten years since his retirement. His former headquarters had been in Toronto.

Dr. Barner was very well known throughout Prince Rupert district to which, during his long service as superintendent of missions, he paid frequent visits.

Eighty-two years of age, he was born in Ireland and came to this country as a young man. He ministered at several points on the prairies before becoming superintendent of missions.

Deceased is survived, besides the daughter here, by his wife, also living in Vancouver, and a son, Dr. H. D. Barner of Vancouver.

Hank Snow Pays Hospital Visit

Hank Snow, singing ranger of radio and record, during his brief stay in the city, paid a personal visit Friday morning to the Prince Rupert General Hospital to serenade the patients there.

Just outside the children's ward, mobile patients were assembled and Hank entertained them with a program of his more popular and better known selections. Seven songs were greatly appreciated.

Don Forward, Civic Centre director, accompanied Mr. Snow to the hospital. He was welcomed by Miss Elizabeth Clement, the lady superintendent, and was thanked for his visit by D. C. Stevenson, the hospital administrator.

Had Humble Beginning

The firm of Philpott, Evitt and Company Limited started from a very humble beginning in Prince Rupert in 1920, first as a partnership and then in 1924 as an incorporated company.

The partners—Hugh Philpott and Charles Evitt—opened with an office on Third Avenue and a coal yard at Cew Bay later moving to the waterfront where Kelly Douglas now stands.

In 1925 the firm moved to its last location at the Wharf where it expanded into all lines of building materials.

And today the firm moved to its modern roomy location on the corner of Eighth and Second Avenue.

Pierre LeRoss Is General Manager

The general manager of the Philpott, Evitt Co. Ltd. is Pierre Le Ross who joined the company in 1945 after his discharge from the Canadian Army.

Mr. Le Ross in 1938 joined the reserve army which became part of the permanent force in August 1939. He served more than six years in the Royal Canadian Artillery rising from the rank of Gunner to Captain.

With Mr. Le Ross at the Philpott, Evitt office and warehouse there are fourteen more regular employees to handle distribution and supplies.

Victoria Report

by J. K. Nesbitt

Where M.L.A.'s Hail From - Coalition Is Still Problem

VICTORIA — There are more native British Columbians in the Legislature than ever before in our history. This shows we are growing up.

In the present House, elected a year ago, 13 members were born in this province. Time was, and not so long ago, when the House had but a handful of native B.C.'ers.

Twenty years ago, for instance, but six members were native British Columbians. Vast majority came from eastern Canada.

Native British Columbians today form the biggest block of members. Ontario is second, with 11. England is next, with eight, followed by Scotland with four. Only provinces not represented are Alberta, Quebec and Newfoundland. Two M.L.A.'s were born in the United States, one in New Zealand.

Present House, according to birthplaces (though they are all now firm British Columbians) divides as follows:

British Columbia — Premier: Byron Johnson, Hon. John Cates, Hon. E. C. Carson, Glen Barden, Frank Calder, J. G. Gould, Randolph Harding, Alex Hope, A. W. Lundell, Leo Nimsiek, Mrs. Tilly Rolston, H. J. Welch, Andrew Whisker.

Ontario — Hon. Gordon Wismer, Hon. W. T. Straith, Hon. Harry Bowman, Hon. A. D. Turnbull, Charles T. Beard, Don Brown, Maurice Patrick Finnerty, Thomas King, A. J. McDonnell, Charles W. Morrow, Sydney Smith.

England — Hon. Herbert Anson, Madame Speaker Nancy Hodges, George Pearson, A. J. Turner, Thomas Uphill, Opposition Leader Harold Winch, Ernest E. Wineh, D. J. Proudfoot.

Scotland — Hon. R. C. Macdonald, Angus MacLean, James Mowat, Arthur B. Ritchie.

New Brunswick — Reg. Macdougall, Leigh F. Stevenson, W. A. C. Bennett.

Manitoba — Hon. L. H. Eyres, Arthur Ash.

Nova Scotia — Hon. E. T. Kenney, B. M. MacIntyre.

United States — Walter Hendricks, J. D. McRae.

Saskatchewan — R. C. Steele.

Prince Edward Island — Dr. J. J. Gillis.

New Zealand — Rupert Haggen.

Dr. Clifford Carl, head of the Provincial Museum here, is worried about the priceless totem poles in Thunderbird Park. Unless they're soon moved inside, says Dr. Carl, they're going to rot away. Insects and the weather are now taking their toll and there's no way of stopping it. Dr. Carl hasn't much faith in the modern plastics and so-called preservatives.

There are practically no totem poles left in British Columbia. There are a few in the villages of the north, but they are slowly rotting and new ones are being carved. The art has died out. That's what makes the Thunderbird Park totems so valuable — they just could not be replaced today, in millions of dollars were spent.

Everyone is wondering what the politicians are going to do about Coalition. There's no doubt now the Government won't go to the people three years from now as a Coalition. Some way will be found to untangle Liberals and Conservatives.

B.C. Liberal Association president H. G. T. Perry, on a recent visit here, said he saw no possibility of the Coalition continuing, and indicated that it must break up before the next election. Tory chieftain Anscomb has said a break-up in Coalition is inevitable. Mr. Anscomb is now on an extensive tour of the province. His office announced he would visit government agencies throughout B.C.; he is doing this, of course, but he's also mending some political fences, addressing Conservative associations, talking to the boys and girls, making sure he's not ousted as leader at the Conservative convention in the Autumn.

This observer would bet right now Mr. Anscomb will come out of the convention stronger than ever.

The only one who keeps absolutely mum on the awkward subject of Coalition is the boss of the whole works — Premier Johnson. He is pained by the whole discussion, but he knows

Cambrai Tea Pretty Affair

Mrs. Jack McRae's beautiful home at 406 Fourth Avenue West was the scene Wednesday afternoon of a tea under the auspices of Cambrai Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire. Mrs. McRae welcomed many callers.

The tea table was covered with a lovely crocheted cloth, centred with a bowl of tastefully arranged tulips and apple blossoms, flanked by long pale yellow tapers. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. T. W. Brown and Mrs. C. G. Withers. Servers were Mrs. Jens Munthe, Mrs. Mark Gormely and Mrs. D. R. Black. Giving general assistance in connection with the tea tables was Mrs. G. P. Lyons.

A beautiful hand made Italian straw shoulder bag was raffled and won by Mrs. N. R. Young.

Afternoon Tea-Evening Social

Catholic ladies staged a bright tea in the Annunciation Hall on Thursday afternoon, and the day's activities extended into the evening when the last of the season's bridge, whist and cribbage parties was held. Both events were well attended.

Mrs. Ed. Coughlin, president of the Catholic Women's League, was convener of the tea. Mrs. J. N. Forman was in charge of the tea room and Mrs. R. E. Moore and Mrs. J. L. Blain presided at the pouring table which was covered with a handsome white lace cloth and centre with a silver basket containing beautiful tulips and white baskets. Serviteurs were Mrs. W. A. Pierce, Mrs. Robert Armstrong and Mrs. L. Colussi and Mrs. J. Richards was cashier. Tea room assistants were Mrs. J. Basso and Mrs. G. P. Lyons. The home cooking table was in charge of Mrs. Louis Amadio, Mrs. Stephen Dumas and Mrs. J. A. Smith.

Winners for the season in the card tournament were announced at the evening affair. They were Mrs. Stephen Dumas in whist, Mrs. M. J. Saunders in cribbage and Garnet Hull in bridge.

Prize-winners for the evening session of cards were: bridge Miss Mary Astori and Mrs. A. Turcotte; cribbage, D. Pollock and Mrs. L. Larsen; whist, M. J. Saunders and Mrs. F. Miller.

Raffle winners were: chiffon cake D. Pollock; crocheted doilies, Mrs. L. Dolron; hamper of groceries, Mrs. Robert Armstrong. The raffles were in charge of Mrs. E. Telseth. Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. G. R. Brett, Mrs. D. Mulronev, Mrs. C. Schaeffer and Mrs. Pierre Le Ross.

REFRESHING SUGGESTIONS FOR THESE WARMER DAYS

COTTAGE CHEESE IN SUMMER MEALS

Miss Muffet has long been a friend of children who picture her sitting on her tuffet eating her curds and whey. Unfortunately the children of today do not realize that the curds and whey which were considered such a treat by Miss Muffet were actually cottage cheese.

Perhaps many of these children do not know what a treat cottage cheese can be. They may not even know the taste of cottage cheese.

Cottage cheese is an excellent food for children and adults alike. Commercially it is made from skim milk to which a culture is added to produce a curd. After heating at low temperature, to separate the curd, and pressing as much whey as possible from it, cream is often added to give that nice smooth texture. Cottage cheese so made contains approximately the same amount of fat as whole milk, as it takes approximately one gallon of milk to make one pound of cottage cheese, one ounce or two tablespoons of the cheese is about equal in food value to an 8 ounce glass of milk.

Cottage cheese is excellent at any season but is particularly good in hot weather meals. The slight tartness lends a zest to the appetite and makes it a refreshingly cool as well as nutritious food for inclusion in daily menus during the summer months.

Here are a few suggestions which come from the home economists.

hold garage and storage space with a special two story rack for storing kiln dried lumber.

The second floor of the building will house the various special departments of the company and will be under the supervision of warehouseman Reg. Wagner. There will be a Paint Department, Roofing Department, fire extinguisher and recharging room and a logging equipment and supplies department.

At the side of the building will be the retail lumber yard measuring 140 feet by 100 feet. The coal department of the business will remain at the old location on the wharf. But the old building at the wharf will be removed as soon as possible.

The culmination of this latest new building program will provide Prince Rupert and district with supplies of lumber, machinery, building supplies—paints, etc., for almost every requirement.

CHARLES V. EVITT

Mr. Evitt distinguished himself during the 1914-18 war while serving with the Middlesex Light Infantry Regiment.

Returning to the city in 1929 he took a very active interest in political and civic life here. He served as President of the Chamber of Commerce, President of the Rotary Club, Chairman of the Civic Association, Alderman, and was the Conservative candidate for this district in a federal election.

Both Mr. Philpott and Mr. Evitt have been in Prince Rupert for the past two months supervising and assisting in the construction of their new building.

Cottage cheese salad platter may combine cucumbers, carrots, green peppers, cress, radishes, parsley and celery. All fruits blend with cottage cheese so that the salad may be varied as the various fruits are in season. Fruits set in gelatine may be very appealing if set in ring moulds and the centre filled with cottage cheese.

Cottage cheese with jam or fruit jellies and crisp crackers make a welcome and easily assembled dessert at any time of the year.

Cottage cheese is fine in many hot foods. Added to scrambled eggs it is a good luncheon dish. Tasty fillings, dumplings and pancakes using cottage cheese as an ingredient are also delicious desserts. These tested recipes are worth trying.

Lemon Cheese Tarts

- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons flour
- Pinch of salt
- 2 egg yolks
- 1 1/2 cups creamed cottage cheese
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 lemon (juice and rind)

Heat milk. Add sugar, flour and salt. Cook mixture until thick, stirring constantly. Pour some of mixture into egg yolks, blend and return to remaining mixture. Cook 3 minutes longer. Add cheese, butter, lemon juice and rind. Pour into baked tart shells. (Fills 10-12 med. tarts).

Variations:
1. Cover tarts with meringue and bake until lightly browned.
2. Fold 2 stiffly beaten egg whites into filling after it is cooked, then pour into baked tart shells.
3. Place 1 teaspoon of grape or currant jelly in bottom of tart shells before filling with cheese mixture.

Cottage Fruit Salad
1 1/2 tablespoons gelatine
1/4 cup cold water
1 cup sweetened syrup from canned pears
3 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 cup cold water
3 cloves

Few drops green coloring
1 cup creamed cottage cheese
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
1 cup diced, canned pears
2 cups diced, unpeeled apple
Soak gelatine in cold water for 5 minutes. Bring pear syrup, water, vinegar, and cloves to boiling point. Boil for 2 minutes and remove the cloves. Add the soaked gelatine and stir until dissolved. Add green coloring. Chill until partially set. In the meantime, blend the cottage cheese and mayonnaise. Add to partially set gelatine mixture and beat with rotary beater until light. Fold in pears and apples. Turn into moistened mould and chill until firm. Unmould on crisp lettuce leaves. Yield: six servings.

CARDIFF, Wales — Wales expects to have 8,000,000 acres of forest in 50 years time.

Seeding Near Completion

WINNIPEG—Seeding of the western spring crop is virtually completed and rapidly nearing completion in all major crop areas except central and southern Manitoba, according to the weekly crop report of the Department of Agriculture of the Canadian National Railways. In the latter areas coarse grains and flax are still being sown, with some farmers declaring their intentions to continue seeding until June 15 or 20, if necessary.

Good rains were received within the past 24 hours in southern Saskatchewan and western Manitoba and rains also occurred earlier in the Edmonton territory.

Earlier sown wheat is well above ground in all provinces. Weather has been windy with quite variable temperatures.

In the Okanagan weather continued dry with strong winds and cool nights. Flood damage is considered about over with most of the snow in the mountains having melted with a gradual run-off. No change in previous fruit prospects is indicated but the season is about three weeks later than usual.

LONDON — Postmaster-General Ness Edwards says steps are being taken to raise the standard of cleanliness in telephone kiosks. He said he would not introduce "no smoking" notices in booths—they would be ineffective.

Terrace Church Receives Gift

TERRACE—Knox United Church recently received a gift of two turned red birch collection plates from H. V. Haight of Sherbrooke, Que. Wood-turning is a hobby of Mr. Haight and he is giving similar plates to other newly erected United Churches.

Last week at the meeting of the Young People of Knox United Church, Lorna Melvin and Colleen Sites were chosen to represent the group at the Camp Council to be held at Keats Island near Vancouver at mouth of Howe Sound from June 29 to July 8. This camp is for selected girls from the various types of teen-age groups in the church.

July 10 this year marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the United Church of Canada. Special services will be held throughout the country next Sunday. The anniversary service at Knox United Church will be held in the morning.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

News gathering in Prince Rupert in early days was not unlike what it is now. There were the same old routine assignments. There was no assignment book. Such a thing was unheard of on Rupert Road. John Houston kept everything under his soft black slouch hat which he wore, as a rule, set well back on his head. The first time we ever saw him was Sunday forenoon, following arrival. He was sitting at a large table pasting subscribers' addresses on copies of his paper.

"Oh," he remarked, at the end of the chat, "there won't be so much to take care of. Just go around and see what's doing. That's about all. I know quite a few in this town, and some don't like me, but you needn't worry over that. I don't."

MR. NEWTON BUYS
It was about this time the usual preliminary rumor, always circulating in a new city, was heard and repeated. And for once, it was correct. Someone had bought The Empire. His name was Newton. He hailed from Ontario, and within another few days, Mr. Newton appeared. He was middle aged, of average height and build. He had grey eyes, was smooth shaven, and dressed quietly, with a preference for blue suits. His hair was black, and inclined to be heavy. He had a clear, resonant voice, and a deliberate, unhurried platform manner. He came from Kingston, and previously had lived in Whitchy. He was a son of Canon Newton, pioneer missionary.

much older when he came to the end of his days. Driven south, with Nelson his objective, he succumbed to illness in the Cariboo district.

LONELY 2RD A-VENUE
Once plank streets were built Newton erected the Empire premises on Third Avenue, installing therein a modern plant the two chief items being: Miehle press and linotype. These alone cost a pretty penny. Other buildings were few indeed. On McBride Street, easterly, and toward First Avenue, it was large, a lonely looking stretch of newly cleared, burnt over muskeg.

One morning, out scouting, we noticed a tall man sitting in the GTP Inn lobby, engrossed in a map of the townsite, then just out. His name, the clerk said was W. J. Alder. There seemed to be something about Mr. Alder that suggested an interview. He cheerfully gave it and the conversation was the commencement of a friendship lasting many years. Little could either foresee the time would come when he would serve here as City Commissioner for a full five years.

The muddy mess that Roy Recksiedler, of Morris, Manitoba, is inspecting was once a linen chest, containing bedding, towels, and other useful household articles. Mr. Recksiedler's furniture, clothing, and personal possessions have been churned up by the rampant Red River until they are almost unrecognizable, and a total loss. Replacement of these articles is the responsibility of the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund. Contributions may be sent directly to the Fund in Winnipeg, or paid into any bank in Canada.

New Moscow Cafe Opened

To Spur Rivalry In Choice Foods

By TOM WHITNEY

MOSCOW ☉—The finest new restaurant to be opened in Moscow since the end of the war started business a few days ago. It is called "The Ararat" and is operated by the government of the Armenian Republic of the U.S.S.R.

The opening of this new restaurant began a heated competition in the field of Middle-Eastern foods. Moscow already has a large number of restaurants which specialize in Georgian, Armenian, Azerbaïdzhian and Central Asian dishes. They include several outstanding eating places opened in the last year, such as the "Uzbekistan" and "The Baku."

However, the outstanding place where Muscovites could get the best "shashlyk" (broiled spiced lamb), "pilaf" (a dish of lamb and rice) and the like has always been the Georgian restaurant, "The Aragvi."

That restaurant, which derives its name from a famous fast-flowing river of Soviet Georgia, occupies a fine establishment just off Moscow's main stem—Gorky Street.

GEORGIAN ORCHESTRA
"The Aragvi" has a fine Georgian orchestra and several times each evening presents a Caucasian male dancer in the traditional Caucasian uniform in a dagger dance. It has been visited by many famous American guests in the Soviet capital.

Now, however, it seems "The Aragvi" is going to have to share its laurels with "The Ararat."

The Armenian Republic has made strenuous efforts to see that its restaurant in Moscow will be in no way inferior to "The Ararat" in the service of Armenian and Middle-Eastern foods and wines.

The best Armenian cook in Erevan has been engaged, according to report, to take charge of the kitchen of "The Ararat," and the cream of Armenia's select wines and its famed high-quality cognac were brought in to stock the wine cellars of the establishment.

On the other hand, "The Aragvi" is prepared to meet the new situation. It is improving its already excellent cuisine and service and is counting on the loyalty of its old and favored customers.

Muscovites who love Middle-Eastern foods stand only to gain from the competition. The prospects are that there will be plenty of customers to keep both restaurants full.

Halibut Landings Are Falling Off—C.P.R. Operating Three Ships Now

With the closing of Area No. 2 on June 1 halibut landings at this port have dropped heavily as larger vessels work in Area No. 3. The small amount of landings is due to the fact that many of the boats in the latter fishing ground, transfer their catches to American or other Canadian ports. On Thursday and Friday not a single halibut's head was looped off at fish plants along the waterfront. Total landings at this port up to and including June 7 were 11,394,300 pounds, almost one million pounds more than in 1949 when Canadian and American halibut skippers brought in 10,543,500 pounds to Prince Rupert. Of the total this year, 9,581,800 pounds was landed by Canadian vessels. American boats brought in 1,813,000 pounds.

Total Area No. 2 catch this year amounted to 9,347,800 pounds as compared to 1949's total of a lesser 8,380,000 pounds. Last year Area No. 2 closed June 3 so it is apparent more halibut has been brought in along the entire coast.

Landings from Area No. 3 up to and including June 7 totaled 2,046,500 pounds. In 1949, a slightly larger amount was landed here—2,170,000 pounds.

The Canadian Pacific Steamships are now operating three vessels along this coast and stops will be made here every Monday and Friday. The vessels are the Princess Kathleen, Princess Norah and Princess Louise. On Friday at 10.30 a.m., Capt. F. C. McGraw, brought the Princess Norah into port with a capacity complement. Only a few persons embarked and disembarked for the city. Embarkees were H. Anderson for Whitehorse and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Heibert, C. Heibert, Miss P. J. Heibert and Miss M. D. Heibert for Petersburg. The vessel, sailing from Vancouver for Alaska points, continued its journey at 12.30 p.m.

The Misses Frances and Joan Cross, pioneer local girls, prominent in business circles, are going boating. During the week they purchased a 12 foot clinker built boat with 2 1/2 h.p. engine from W. M. Watts who is leaving the city. The boat is moored at the floats of the Prince Rupert Rowing and Yacht Club.

W. J. Scott will leave on Monday's plane for Port Hardy where he will join the commercial power cruiser Cariboo which is coming up the coast on one of its periodical trips. Rivers Inlet will be among the areas visited and the party aboard the Cariboo expects to get in some good fishing. As for Joe, his ambition is to tangle with a record-breaking spring salmon wherever he can find it.

Union steamship Camosun, Capt. William McCombe, arrived in port Friday at 2:15 p.m. from Vancouver and waypoints, and sailed for northern Queen Charlotte points at 10 p.m. She returns here tomorrow evening southbound. Disembarking here from the Camosun, were more Japanese fishermen for canneries and camps up the Skeena River. Other passengers disembarking here were O. Ervinson, L. A. McNichol, H. Lileeno, D. Hunter, John Chappell, O. Hilder, Mrs. J. Eckert, Mrs. M. Wilder, John Wilson, F. Berg, B. Latham, Mrs. W. H. Doran, A. C. MacMillan, E. Linnborn, W. Nelson, L. Nelson, Mrs. G. Eckert and three children.

First Trip To Alaska

Although there have been numerous Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce parties here in past years, very few of those arriving with this now well established annual party yesterday, had been here before and they were keenly interested in seeing Prince Rupert—the Gateway to Alaska—and going on to the territory itself.

A stay of three hours here gave them some opportunity to see the place. They will be back here for four hours next Tuesday evening on the steamer Prince George, Capt. E. B. Caldwell, which they have specially chartered.

It is the seventh Alaska tour which has been led by Charles P. Bayer, assistant to the President of the Los Angeles Chamber, who was here again today. The cruises started first with the Alaska Steamship Co. and in 1936 the steamer Prince party.

Robert started bringing parties north. There was a disruption during the war. This is the third cruise on the George.

Past President G. R. Babay and Secretary P. headed a delegation to Prince Rupert Chamber here which greeted them.

Prominent members of Angeles party include Barker, architect K. D. banker, Olin E. Darby, president; Herman building and loan president; Frank machine manufacturer; Hartley, electric company; Dr. Elizabeth woman physician and Jacob L. Martin, pipe tractor; M. D. McMonie, belt manufacturer; Frank air conditioning engineer; M. Newhouse, ball ducton manager; W. machine manufacturer; Wentz, gift manufacturer; S. M. Greene, general agent, Canadian Railways, is accompanying party.
