Water Supply Vital

MAYOR RUDDERHAM is not long installed in office before there is concrete confirmation of his statement at the initial meeting of the 1950 city council that the maintenance of the city's water supply system is the principal problem that will face the city this year.

It appears to be a two-barrelled problem—first the putting in shape of the present main line, which everybody admits is in shaky condition and in danger of a major breakdown at any moment, and, second, augmentation of the water-carrying capacity to adequately meet all the city's normal and special requirements which will increase during the years of industrial and business expansion which lie immediately ahead.

Dry, cold weather conditions of the past three weeks have focussed thought and attention on the vital necessity of a good and adequate water supply guaranteed at all times with sufficient elasticity to meet such emergencies as that of abnormal weather conditions. Scarcity of water in a city not only makes the place unlivable. It is attended with the spectre of the community's possible destruction by fire.

Yes, Mayor Rudderham is right. Water comes first.

PACIFIC DEFENCE POLICY

ONE WOULD THINK that with our lines being drawn back in the far east we would strengthen our Alaskan bases as the first line of defense and offense in the north Pacific, observes the Ketchikan Chronicle. But the withdrawal of the air force from the Aleutians and possibly from Marks field at Nome indicates we are going home again just at a time when the Pacific becomes the hot spot of the shifting cold war.

Mr. Truman must be given credit for bringing the western world through a very trying year, with the siege of Berlin a thing of the past the Russian threats to oil-rich Iran easing and the North Atlantic treaty going into effect. He thinks a period of stability can be maintained on the foreign front if we do not meddle too much in things that don't concern us. It is important to adopt a progressive program for the far east, but our economic aid could not help China the way it was wasted away. Chiang could not hold his regime together because of corruption and the communists may not be expected to do any better for a long time. But we must face the inevitable problem of Japan's population increase, the need for capital in the Philippines, for education and leadership in Indonesia, for capital and industrialization in India and for more food in China, and formulate a policy for the orient that is humane and realistic. On every side are great problems and their solution will decide whether the white and yellow race live peacefully or end up in a new and deadlier struggle for living space and control of the Pacific world.

Baptist College Seen In Action

An interested audience at Regular Baptist Church Friday evening saw impressive views of how a theological training school is operated and learned of various activities in connection therewith. Rev. Leonard Thorpe, pastor of Regular Baptist Church here, showed numerous colored slides of Northwest Bible College at Port Coquitlam, a residential training school for clergy, missionaries and workers. Scenes included classroom surroundings with the students in action—at work in recreation and in life generally.

The Coquitlam college was started by the Regular Baptist

AIR PASSENGERS

Due to the late arrival of the C.P.A. flight from Vancouver yesterday, the Sandspit-Prince Rupert flight was held up at Sandspit overnight and arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning.

Wide-Open vs Blue Sundays Dynamite-Laden Argument—Better Old Age Pension Needed

As if the government didn't have enough headaches without the argument of "Wide-Open vs Blue Sunday"—that argument is now going full swing. It all started when Toronto voted in favor of commercialized sports on Sunday. Promptly B. C.'s church leaders got up in arms and warned they would fight commercialized Sunday to the last ditch.

A commercialized Sunday, it appears, is up to the attorney-general, personally, or the Legislature. The Federal Lord's Day Act rules against commercialization of Sunday but, before there can be a prosecution, the Federal Government must have a fiat from an attorney-general. If the attorney-general refuses, nothing further can be done. There is no higher authority to crack down on him.

A provincial legislature may override the Lord's Day Act. For instance, the B. C. Legislature could allow commercialization of Sunday and Ottawa authorities could do nothing about it.

Thus, the subject of Sunday, and how it should be observed, is charged with political dynamite. There could be a referendum and if a majority of the people voted for paid sports on Sunday the attorney-general could close his eye to the Lord's Day Act. But this might well be politically dangerous. The people might approve a commercialized Sunday in theory, get fed up with it in practice, pitch the attorney-general and his cabinet colleagues to the wolves at the next election.

The government will never give its blessing to the attorney-general and tell him to close his eyes to anything that faintly resembles a wide-open Sunday. The Legislature, while it will discuss the matter at next month's session, will turn a cold shoulder to any law that will allow paid entertainments on Sunday.

Government officials here say that, if commercialized sports are allowed on Sundays, there would be constant pressure for other types of paid entertainments—movies, beer parlors, dances, even circuses. The government will have nothing to do with that sort of thing. At the moment it is safe to say there

Cold Weather Holds Building

Continuation of the long cold snap is holding up new building construction work in Prince Rupert and projects are running behind schedule. Contractors Mitchell & Currie have not been able to do a tap for three weeks now on the two principal current downtown undertakings—the new Totem Theatre and the new Daily News building, both of which are approaching the concrete pouring stage. The normally mucky excavation sites are now deeply frozen.

Skiing On Mt. Hayes

At a meeting of the executive of the Prince Rupert Ski Club this week in the office of Allan Armstrong, the president, George Mostad stated that the ski tow should be in operation this coming week-end.

Last week-end about thirty-five members of the club enjoyed skiing on Mount Hayes. Some of the more ambitious members went to the top run while others remained at the "Kindergarten Run" which has been renamed "Sitsmark Flats." The trails to the ski runs have been marked by some artistic signs designed by members of the Club.

Regardless of the bruises received by most people last week it is hoped that on Saturday night they will be back for another week-end of chills and spills.

Of the 625,000 Canadians over seventy, 275,000 now receive old age pensions.

Poetess To Speak Here

Gifted Nanaimo-born poetess who has been an invalid for much of her life, Audrey Alexandra Brown is coming to Prince Rupert next week to address a dinner gathering on Thursday night of the Women's Canadian Club. She will travel on the steamer Prince George, arriving Wednesday morning and leaving Thursday night on her return south.

Miss Brown made her first impression in the literary world with the publication in 1931 of a book of fresh poetry entitled "A Dryad of Nanaimo" since which she has contributed to magazines and other publications with poetry and prose.

The Truman Bull Market

Progress • Prosperity • Opportunity
For several months I have been predicting that we are facing a few years of speculation and a bull market. I am calling it the Truman Bull Market. Write for memorandum in which my reasons are given for predicting an era of prosperity and a bull stock market.

Prince Rupert Jets Beat Conquerors Of Canada's Hoop Best

Locals Down U. B. C. Chiefs 47 to 43 In Opener Of Two Game Basketball Series

Prince Rupert Jets won a 47 to 43 victory over the University of British Columbia Chiefs in the first game of their two-game total point series at the Civic Centre last night. Wednesday night in Vancouver the Chiefs won a 63 to 62 decision over the Canadian Champion Cloverleafs team, the first team to beat them since they won the Canadian title. This makes the Jets the unofficial, Canadian champs, a decision, of course, that won't stand up in basketball circles but is very nice to dream of at least. Anyway, if they can't lay claim to a Canadian title, the fans will long talk of the night that the Jets beat the team that beat the Cloverleafs.

It was a good game, with the Chiefs starting out strong, putting their first 6 shots without a miss and ending the quarter with a 16-10 lead.

In the second quarter Prince Rupert started to come up and were only lagging at the half by a 23-22 margin. Again in the third quarter Prince Rupert led the way, outscoring the Chiefs by six points to lead going into the last period 37-32. With two minutes and ten seconds of the game remaining, the Chiefs had tied up the score by some brilliant shooting on the part of Raptis, at 43-43, but the Jets outplayed them to score 4 more points, to the unbounded joy of the fans, who were all too willing to concede a U.B.C. victory at the end of the first quarter. U.B.C. had no excuses to offer.

The Chiefs expected to win and Coach Ole Bakken had told the boys they could attend the after game dance if they won by ten points. Instead they were bundled off to bed and were out this morning for a workout at the Centre. Bakken was well satisfied with the refereeing and declared after the game it was better than Vancouver arbitering with the game being called according to the rules. Twenty-one personal fouls were called on the Jets and 18 on the Chiefs by referees Comadina and Dominate.

This is the third game for the Jets this season, and they played it as a team, with no outstanding stars; their victory being won by good all-round team play. Rupert Holkestad was high man with thirteen points, and every man on the team contributed to an earned victory.

For U.B.C., Raptis played a fine game, sinking nine long shots, and topping the evening's scoring with 22. The Chiefs were only able to convert 7 of their 24 foul shots, Rupert getting 15 of theirs from 24 possible, actually winning the game on their superior shooting from the foul line.

Lineups:
CHIEFS—Raptis 22, Wother- spoon 6, Hindmarsh 7, Bertram 4, Mitchell 2, Briggs, Brown 1, Desaulniers 1, Gutteridge. Total 43.
JETS—Holkestad 13, Flaten 5,

Beynon 2, Arney 5, D. Sunberg, S. Scherk 4, Spring 7, Morgan 4, J. JUNIOR LEAGUE

In the preliminary Scouts swamped the Stones by a 28 to 12 score. Becker getting 12, and high for the winners. SCOUTS—R. Webber 1, Hodgekinson 1, Scherk, Kristianson 2, Findlay, Becker 12, Parnell 2, Marshall, J. Atkins, Jeffery 2, Brown 6. Total 12.

SOMETHING NEW IN THE WAY OF SPORTS—The newest contribution to winter sports stems from Vienna, Austria, where bicycle racing on ice has been introduced. The weird contraption used in the game is part bicycle-part blades. The bike is equipped with a regular ice skate instead of a front wheel, and the rear wheel has a rubber tire with extra deep treads for gripping the ice surface. As soon as a sufficient number of enthusiasts can obtain the necessary machine and the skill, ice-cycle races will be inaugurated for the winter in Vienna. Wilhelm Pohnetal of Vienna demonstrates the new ice-cycle which is gaining a foothold in the Austrian capital.

Mill Fire Is Spectacular

NORTH VANCOUVER — It was a spectacular fire which levelled the $100,000 sawmill of the Lions' Gate Lumber Co. here on Thursday night. Sheets of flame sky-rocketed for 150 feet and were visible or miles around as the fire raced into the sawdust pile in the mill and mushroomed around. Other mills and a small residential section were blacked out when the blaze seared a 4,000-volt power line.

Ten-inch Ice Blasted at Alice Arm so Tanker can Land—New Smokehouse Here Described

Last night, the Imperial Oil tanker Imperial Nanaimo, again set out for Alice Arm with a cargo of oil after a telegram had been received by the skipper stating that the ice conditions there would be liquidated by repeated charges of dynamite. It was at 10 a.m. Thursday that the Imperial Nanaimo made an effort to crash a 10-inch thick barrier of ice stretching one-half mile out to sea from the dock. Three blasts of dynamite only made a series of small holes in the ice, the captain stated, so the vessel returned to Port Edward and finally for Prince Rupert, arriving here Friday night.

The tanker pulled into port with a layer of ice, six inches thick on some sections of the bow. While the vessel was moored here, blasting of the ice was under way at Alice Arm. If the tanker is not able to unload the oil, the supply at Alice Arm will diminish in five days resulting in a shortage of heat and power closing down of Torribit mine until emergency deliveries can be made.

The new vertical conveyor-type kiln for smoking fish which is now being operated by the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association at its plant at Prince Rupert is discussed in an article by A. W. Lantz, associated research engineer, in the latest issue of progress reports of the Pacific Coast Stations of the Research Board of Canada. The new air-condition tunnel is an integral part of this plant on the Prince Rupert waterfront which was recently described in detail in the Daily News. This commercial kiln is the first application of principles employing vertical, continuously-moving conveyor racks to the smoking of fishery products.

A $1,000,000 ship dedicated to the safety of Canadian mariners on the west coast and to be operated out of Port of Prince Rupert slipped into Vancouver from her builders on Thursday afternoon of this week. It was the motor vessel Alexander Mackenzie, Canada's third new lighthouse tender. Mrs. Ian Mackenzie, widow of the late senator and longtime cabinet minister, officiated at the launching of the 150-foot vessel, twin screw and shallow draft, which will ply northern waters out of Prince Rupert with six officers and a crew of nineteen.

Up to early Friday morning when seining operations ceased

Present extreme weather conditions in this area is making seining operations difficult. At present catches are being made at Kwakshua Pass, Fitzhugh Sound, Helmecken Inlet and Surf Inlet by 45 seining vessels. Crew of the Azurite, Capt. Tommy Dalzell, who brought in the first catch for the Fisherman's Co-operative plant at Fairview yesterday, have quite a story to tell about seining in Surf Inlet in 10 below weather.

One of the seining vessels had 300 tons set yesterday when the lead line of the net snapped. The crew spent six hours mending the net before seining operation could proceed. "The boys were just about dead," one of the crewmen remarked.

The Azurite brought in 40 tons for bait and will leave again this evening.

A gala film with seven new tunes, "It's a Great Feeling" is the story of a pretty waitress in a major Hollywood studio who wants to become a star. She appeals to Jack Carson, a director whom no star wants, and the eventful race to stardom is then on. The picture which Carson must direct to keep from going broke has Dennis Morgan for its star but no feminine star. Morgan and Carson try to persuade the producer into "discovering" Miss Day but succeed only into harassing him into a nervous breakdown and it is through their antics around the studio that they meet up with the various stars mentioned.

Miss Day aspires to sing and ride in the picture and Morgan to sing and dance.

LEARN A. B. C.'S WHILE FATHERS LEARN ELECTRONICS—Children of service personnel at the RCAF's big radar and communication centre at Clinton, Ont., learn their A-B-C's only a few yards away from classrooms where their elders struggle with advanced electronic studies. Shown here is the school established on the station for families of officers and airmen, and operated by the RCAF. Teacher is Mrs. J. M. Chambers, who formerly taught school at Hope, B. C.

Ray Reflects . . .

. . . and Reminisces

There is nothing we would like to do better this very Fourteenth of January, than put aside something for a rainy day.

In past seasons, when a spell of weather long and cold enough to encourage ice sports in Prince Rupert came along, one could depend on it there was no delay. There were hockey matches on Morse Creek. A good-sized rink lay in front of where the Court House now stands. Skating parties went out Shawatians way and over to the Salt Lakes. Snow on ice was swept off. Of course there was no Civic Centre then and skate owners cheerfully made the most of what Nature sent.

NO SCREEN STARS ON FASHION POLL OF BEST DRESSED—Fashion authorities annual poll placed Mrs. William Paley of New York at the head of the list of the world's 10 best-dressed women. Others were the Duchess of Windsor, actress Mary Martin and the Duchess of Kent. Hollywood actresses were conspicuously absent from the list.

Juvenile delinquency has decreased steadily in Canada since 1942. Last year 7,378 juveniles appeared in courts, compared with 11,758 in 1942.

Where do all the birds go, as blasts turn bitter, snow whitens the landscape, shade trees become bare, flowers vanish, and there's no soft, kindly earth to examine closely? For it's a fact that in summer or even during an easy, open winter our little winged friends remain. However, it takes more than near-zero to dismay that black, burly old flier, hopping around, seeking or stealing whatever's in sight and hoarsely cursing to himself.

Bingo, long popular in Prince Rupert, has sometimes been described as a game in which you try to win a turkey you do need and get a pickle dish you do not want.

Women, Children
Killed in Blast

VINCENNES, Indiana (C)—Two young mothers and three young children were killed yesterday in an explosion at a federal housing project. The explosion apparently came from a room occupied by a gas furnace.

It costs $100,000 to drill and equip an oil well for production at Alberta's Leduc oil field.

Teaching him the meaning of dependability and responsibility. He soon knows that his customers expect to receive their newspapers regularly and on time, and he soon realizes that the full production force of the newspaper depends on him to see that the readers get the product of their labors.

Teaching him sound business methods which he can use throughout his life—salesmanship—how to keep books—extend credit—collect—manage money—increase volume. In a simplified form, yes, but adapted perfectly to the development of a teen-age mind.

Teaching him the value of developing good traits of character such as courtesy, thrift and honesty.

Teaching him how to meet people and hold his own, and to play and work successfully with his fellow men.

Teaching him that the Canadian way to get things you want is to work to earn the money needed to purchase them.

Teaching him the value of education both at school and at home to enable him to be a real success.
