British Parliament Problems

BRITISH PARLIAMENT is to meet again next Tuesday, January 18.

The next ten weeks or so will bear much discussion of fiscal, financial and economic policy generally until Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, opens his second Budget in April. His first, last April, established the policy of disinflation which is still at work. On whatever side of the House they sit, Members of Parliament are examining this very carefully. The considerable surplus that the Chancellor budgeted for may turn out to be markedly diminished by a variety of causes, not all of them within the government's control. And some successful wage claims will be held in the argument to have shown that the stabilization policy could not everywhere be successfully maintained.

In fact, there has been justification, within the limits announced by the government, for most if not all claims granted. Another factor is that the cost of subsidies on food has continued to rise far beyond the limits proposed from time to time. The government's supporters are, at any rate, able to argue that these have been an indispensable instrument in keeping the cost-of-living index steady, and that all of the population, even the poorest, are able to buy their essential foods. Of such necessities there is no rationing by price, and the normal rationing schemes have been able to be kept up.

Much discussion these coming months will centre upon the changes that may come to be needed to harmonize the long-term program of the United Kingdom with those of other countries that share in the Marshall Plan's benefits. These benefits carry great responsibilities with them, and among the chief of these responsibilities is to make the best use of the country's own resources so as to reduce and eventually end their dependence on gifts of United States dollars. The programs that were lately sent to Washington by the Organization for European Economic Co-operation have inevitably been drawn up by the 19 countries, each without the knowledge of what the others were doing.

This month all are examining the report of the others' programs and re-examining their own. They are to tell the organization at the end of the month the first results of their studies. That is the point at which the governments must have their minds made up to face the tasks of leadership involved in making possibly very formidable changes in their programs, in the interests of recovery, of the Marshall Plan countries and of Europe as a whole.

UNFRIENDLY CITY?

A MAN, half dead from the effects of trying to end his life by taking gas, was saved in Vancouver last week. A note, written by him, declared Vancouver to be "the most unfriendly city in the world." An extravagant and undeserved charge, surely, even allowing for the circumstances! The same might be said of any city, anywhere, the size of Vancouver. On the other hand, Prince Rupert is known as a small, new town where about everyone is kindly disposed. Few people are disregarded. They are glad to be able to assist. It is certainly fine to be known as that sort of community and long may it continue. Probably the same could have been said of Vancouver half a century ago. If and when Prince Rupert has a population of a quarter of a million, what then? Doubtless, another Vancouver! Cities change, but human nature doesn't.

STRANGE INCIDENTS

ON OCTOBER 20, in Washington, Marvin Smith, attorney in the Solicitor-General's office, his name mentioned in a spy investigation, hurtled to his death in a circular stair well in the Department of Justice.

Last week, Lawrence Duggan, a former trusted employ of the State Department, jumped, fell (or was thrown) from the fifteenth storey of a New York office building.

On Christmas Day, Sumner Wells, former Under-Secretary of State, who had come to the defence of Duggan, is found half-frozen off a road near his state where he had gone after midnight.

In our world of today, with its tangled webs, its long hands of vengeance, its undergrounds and terrors, strange things happen. What Washington seems to need at the moment, is not further investigations of un-American activities but a super-class detective.

Reminiscences and Reflections

By W.I.

It's so easy to recall that warm, sunny afternoon in '45, when it was officially made known that the war had ended! Prince Rupert told business to be gone and gave way to rejoicing! No more wail of the "alert!" No more extinguishing of lights. No more telegrams and sinking hearts. No more weary waiting and sharp anxieties. Peace! Hardly four years ago. The glad new world. Peace? The bright new world. Been looking it over lately?

Since the Supreme Court of Canada ruled that prohibition of margarine is illegal and always has been, it is not at all strange that people are wondering how many more rules and regulations, in a legal sense, have no right whatever to be on the statute books. In wartime, Canada accepted, without question whatever Ottawa chose to do. The war is supposed to have ended in 1945. There's room for a shake-up to see what's constitutional!

HIGH MASONIC OFFICER HERE

Dr. Benjamin Bailey of Winnipeg, Supreme Grand Master of the Knights Templar for Canada and Newfoundland, highest order of freemasonry, arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon to pay an official visit to Kincolith Preceptory here. He will remain here until Friday evening when he will leave by train for Edmonton.

Dr. Bailey, a retired dental surgeon of the Manitoba capital, was guest of honor at a dinner given by members of the Preceptory at the Broadway Cafe last night, after which he paid his official visit to the Preceptory at the Masonic Temple.

A visit to the Civic Centre yesterday left Dr. Bailey amazed at the extent of its community services and the spirit which maintains it.

LETTERBOX

SPEEDY POLICE WORK

Editor, Daily News:
On Monday afternoon we had occasion to call the City Police in connection with a shoplifting suspect.

We do not know those responsible but from the time we called the office until the suspect was apprehended was a matter of minutes. We would like to express our appreciation at the speed and dispatch with which the whole case was handled.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the use of your valued space,
JOE SCOTT.

When they are prepared to spend between three and four thousand dollars for uniforms, the members of the Greenville Concert Band in the Naas Valley take their music seriously indeed. An outlay like this contributes to the welfare of their village, and to their own improvement. Far larger sums are thrown away and not by the natives either.

How come, these ominous threats and fresh alarms direct from the storied land of Palestine? Air raids, and explosions, and hatreds and hangings, and diplomatic sleight-of-hand. Well, sentiment aside, there are a couple of pipe lines extending across the Holy Land and reaching the sea at Haifa. The pipes tap oil fields of immense importance in international affairs and within convenient distance. Suppose there was not enough oil with which to light a lamp, nearer than ten thousand miles? How often would names like Beercheba, Jerusalem, Jericho, Lebanon, Negev and Bethlehem flare on the world's front pages?

Reports on Christmas activities were made by Mrs. J. Stewart and Mrs. F. M. Kempton. Mrs. Stewart reported on local work and Mrs. Kempton on overseas parcels.
Christmas hampers were delivered to the Pioneers' Home and to private homes in the city. Mrs. Stewart said. She told of an eight-year-old girl who, hearing of a needy family, wrapped up some of her own Christmas presents and joined the Queen Mary ladies in delivering them.
Mrs. Kempton read several letters from grateful recipients of overseas parcels. They acknowledged their receipt in

LEGION PLANS FEBRUARY DANCE

Initiation of five new members and discussion regarding a proposed dance which may be held early in February were matters considered at the monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion in the Legion Hall last night. The entertainment committee was charged with investigating the feasibility of a dance to replace the periodic "Bring the Missus" entertainments which have been held in the past. The meeting was attended by 50 members and First Vice-President James Nicoll was chairman in the absence of President R. P. Smith.
New members initiated were W. D. Griffiths, W. R. Kennedy, Donald Thompson, J. A. Zamboni and Miss A. N. Tompkins.

BABY'S COLDS
Help Nature To Fight Them Off
Medical Science shows there is no such thing as a cure for colds—only Nature herself can do it. So when baby's sniffles, or stuffy breathing warn you of a cold's presence—cooperate at once with Nature. See that baby is kept warm, gets plenty of sleep and take extra care that the towels are thoroughly cleared of harmful bacteria. To do this without upsetting baby's whole system and further weakening it, try Baby's Own Tablets. Mild yet act promptly in getting rid of the irritating materials that make baby restless and feverish. Mrs. George McBride of Scarborough says: "My baby of 25 months caught a nasty cold so I tried Baby's Own Tablets and she threw this cold off quicker than ever before. I certainly am for Baby's Own Tablets from now on." Effective also in teaching troubles, constipation and other simple baby ailments. 25¢.

HORSE STORY IS COLORFUL

Another in the series of popular "Thunderhead" horse pictures is showing for the rest of this week at the Capitol Theatre and the opening last night was applauded by two large audiences. The picture is "Green Grass of Wyoming" from the book by Mary O'Hara. Photography is in delightful technicolor.

The film combines several attractive features such as a heartwarming youthful romance, thrills of harness racing training and track and wonderful outdoor scenery.

Peggy Lewis is a new and attractive girl lead while Charles Coburn, Lloyd Nolan and Geraldine Wall play important parts. "Green Grass of Wyoming" provides wholesome and diverting entertainment. It is a refreshing picture which can be commended to all. One feels happier after having seen it.

Mrs. R. B. Skinner is sailing tonight on the Prince Rupert for a trip to Vancouver and elsewhere in the south.

SKI NOTES— SKI-ERS CARRY TOW GEAR TO MOUNTAIN TOP

Prince Rupert Ski Club members are mingling the pleasure of fast runs with the hard work of installing a ski-tow above their cabins on Mount Hays, a labor that has been complicated by the heavy snowfall which has made excellent skiing.

Club members had planned to send the ski-tow engine and other equipment partway up the mountain from the base on the motor trolley but, because of heavy snow conditions, this was found impossible.

Instead, at the week-end, volunteer workers packed the 97-pound engine and other parts of the ski-tow by hand, a rigorous labor which, however, did not prevent them from enjoying the skiing which followed.

First efforts to install the tow will be made in the near future. Saturday evening, a small party was held at the club cabin in honor of the birthday of one of the members—Brick Eby. Because of the fact that he refused to divulge his age, the birthday cake was garnished with only a single candle.

Perfect skiing conditions prevailed on Sunday and the morning found the experienced skiers on the main run with novices confining themselves to the "kindergarten" slope. The sport continued throughout the day.

Last week-end saw the first real activity on the mountain since before the New Year, although half a dozen members spent a week-end there during the year-end holiday.

George Mostad, Harold Eldsvick, Odd Eldsvick and Bill Whalen enjoyed a day's skiing on Mount Baker, Washington, while they were in the south over the Christmas holidays but bad weather prevented them getting in as much of the sport as they would have liked.

Trevor Hill is sailing tonight on a business trip to Vancouver.

A Mother Writes, "They ought to call this wonderful cereal 'All Gone' instead of 'All-Wheat', because a bowl disappears so fast! Just imagine a circle of chery, grinning faces at your breakfast table! No more 'early-morning gloom' when you put a bowlful of crisp Kellogg's ALL-WHEAT at everyone's place! Yes, more and more mothers agree that All-Wheat is a family favorite in their homes. Everyone from Tiny Sue to Big Tom will love these crunchy, toasted flakes... topped with fruit-sugar! There's good whole-wheat cereal nourishment in a bowl of All-Wheat with milk. Try it soon mix's best! Sherrill's Canada's whole wheat in delicious ready-to-eat flakes—m-m-m-m!—Kellogg's All-Wheat!

Here's a Midwinter Moisture-Builder if ever I've seen one! Feed and look your lovely best, try the beauty magic of the NEW WOODBURY POWDER. Did you know that in a recent test thousands of American women from Coast to Coast voted New Woodbury Powder the 4-to-1 favorite over all the other leading brands! And no wonder. New Woodbury Powder contains a (sh-h-h) secret ingredient that gives a smooth-as-Satin finish to your skin! This exciting new powder covers tiny skin flaws better too, and it has an incredibly fine texture that makes the powder cling like shades! Well—here's more excitement! Woodbury's new "whirls color into powder and powder into color with a force tornado would seem tame in comparison. Result—the shades are richer... have more warmth, more glow, more color! 69¢, 39¢, 20¢.

Whether it's a Special "company" dinner or the simplest far HEINZ CREAM OF TOMATO SOUP is always delicious! You see, to make it "Aristocratic" they use the finest ingredients and then, as a touch—just the right amount of fragrant... Yes, you can enjoy the flavour magic of "Aristocratic" cooked, September-picked "Aristocratic" tomato long... In Heinz Condensed Cream of Tomato Soup! Ask pack—at your grocer's now!

A Year "Round Favourite" are these Brazil Nut Slices, UNSWEETENED CHOCOLATE giving them delicious flavour and luscious, deep-brown color.

BRAZIL NUT SLICES

- 2 squares Baker's Unsweetened 1 cup maple syrup
- Chocolate 1/2 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons butter 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 cups nuts 1 cup Brazil nuts
- Dash of salt 1/2 cup raisins

Melt chocolate and butter in saucepan over hot water; add sugar. Add salt, syrup, milk, mix well. Place over low heat, bring to boil, constantly, boil, without stirring, until a small amount (one or two water cubes) is left. Remove from heat; add vanilla. Use to fill paper-lined mixture begins to thicken and loses its gloss. Add nuts, stir in diagonal slices.

Today in Sports

The Intermediate League basketball game Tuesday night was over High School and sent them down to a 26-11 defeat, the win giving Kinsmen first place. Fashion defeated Morgan's by the score of 32-29. Morgan's had the edge in scoring the first half and came out with a 20-17 lead at the half. Team play and ball handling by both teams were good. In the second half Morgan's fell down as their scoring punch went off while Fashion kept pecking away at their lead. With 4 minutes to go, Fashion had tied it up 29-29; only 3 points were scored and they were all dropped in by Joe Haugan. This gave Fashion the victory which they gained by coming from behind.

John Haugan made his appearance as a player for Fashion and led them in scoring with 12 points. He turned in heads up ball and set up the play for his team. Gill worked hard in the pivot but was not helped by his team. Morgan's had a fine passing attack but their shooting was way off the mark. All the scoring was evenly placed among the players.

Morgan's took 63 shots and canned 10. They made 9 of 17 foul shots tried. Fashion made 13 field goals from 58 shots. They took 17 free throws and made 6.

ANDREW THOMPSON, Deputy Registrar of Titles. (18)

In the Ladies' game Dom's took an overtime victory from the runner-up High School. The play was smooth with both teams using passing plays to open the way to score. Dom's built up an 8-0 lead at the beginning of the game but High School got rolling and tied it up 8-8. The play saw-sawed with Dom's getting the edge in baskets and taking the lead as the half ended 15-11 in their favor. High School opened up the second half with fast breaks and with Currie leading the scoring they crept to within 2 points 22-20 as the final quarter opened. The fourth quarter was all floor play with very little scoring. With a short time left Neil Pavich scored a one-hander from the key to send the game into overtime. The only score in overtime was the winning basket by Betty Hamilton who went the length of the floor unchecked and scored a lay-up for the winning points.

Both teams showed fine team work and passing. Some of their passing could be taken as a lesson by teams in the other leagues.

High School took 41 shots and made 10. They made 4 out of 17 free throws. Dom's took 54 shots and scored 12. They made 2 out of 10 free throws.

Teachers

MRS. ANDREWS

Mrs. Andrews, one of the Grade Seven teachers, came from Wells, where she has spent the last two years. She is a graduate of the Calgary Normal School.

Mrs. Andrews says she likes Prince Rupert very much, especially this winter season. Her favorite pastimes are knitting, reading and playing bridge—no, she's never had a perfect hand. In food her weakness is chocolate cake, and the food she dislikes most is spinach.

Mrs. Andrews is quite a book-worm so she can't tell her favorite author.

MR. WRIGHT

The last but not the least of our new teachers for the 1948-49 team is Mr. Wright, the school's Senior English teacher.

Mr. Wright hails from Ontario. He is a graduate of University of British Columbia. During the war while he was in the Royal Canadian Air Force, he was an instructor in Ontario.

Mr. Wright is a family man—he has two children, one a Grade Seven student of this school and the other in Grade Four attending Borden Street School. He likes Prince Rupert—not rain, though. His favorite recreations are baseball, golf, bowling and bridge. (He and Mrs. Andrews should get together on that).

When asked about the New Year he says the women look very smart but as far as being stable—nothing doing.

I.O.D.E. Municipal Chapter Putting Up $100 Scholarship

Municipal Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, has established an annual scholarship of $100 for a student at Booth Memorial High School who is going on to further study. The scholarship will be given to that student who has the best scholarship record and shows during his school course the highest qualities of citizenship.

Looking Backward

September 13—Won't someone take pity on us? How can we study with an airplane buzzing above our school. Bill and Fred Kergin, Gordon Kerr, Rosario Soriano and Russell Bulger were among those from the High School who went up in the plane. (A Junkers all-metal monoplane piloted by G. A. Thompson).

September 28—The students assembled in the Junior Room to elect officers for the Students Council, Literary Society and Magazine Staff. Results were:

President of Students' Council, Lee Gordon.

Vice-President, Bill Kergin. Secretary, Fred Kergin. Chairman of Literary Society, Pete Tremayne.

Chairman Boys' Athletic Association, Bill Cavalier.

President of Girls' Athletic Association, Margaret Palmer. Secretary Gordon Kerr.

October 20—A second meeting of the magazine staff was held in the Commercial Room. The name "Aurora" was proposed by Principal Brady and seconded by Miss D. C. Ryan and carried unanimously.

Editor—Irene Hansen.
Reporters—Margo Brown, Joan Moller, Donna Kerrigan, Mary McAfee, Esther Harrison, Kathleen Smith, Deshka Peneff.

TOP TEN TUNES OF THE DAY

- Buttons and Bows.
- On a Slow Boat to China.
- My Darling, My Darling.
- A Little Bird Told Me.
- All I Want For Xmas.
- You Were Only Fooling.
- Until.
- Far Away Places.
- Lavender Blue.
- Cuanto Le Gusta.

Kay Starr has made a recording that could hold the honored spot in any collection. It is "You Were Only Fooling," current hit parade favorite, backed by "A Faded Summer Love." This latter song is really a honey and should reach a great height of popularity. Miss Starr gives this record the justice it deserves. Dave Cavanaugh's Music provides a tricky and delightful accompaniment for both sides.

"Columbus Stockade Blues" exemplifies very clearly the trend which some popular music is following—the western style. The title of this tune is somewhat misleading as it is nothing like the "St. Louis Blues" and hasn't even a mournful note in it. Vaughn Monroe, assisted by the Sons of the Pioneers, does the vocal honors. One reason why the disc is good is that Vaughn doesn't try to sing too much. His voice gets quite boring at times. A violin in the background proves very effective in bringing out the hill-billy style of the song. There is one criticism and that is the jazz interlude that comes half way in the record seems very much out of place. The other side of this record, "My Own True Love" is hardly worth mentioning. Vaughn Monroe can't seem to decide whether the piece is to be vocal or instrumental and these two forces seem to be trying to outdo each other. It's all very confusing.

In the next few weeks some western and classical pieces

Personalities

Mona Lykegaard

Mona is Vice-President of the School Council. She was born on May 13, 1932 at Atlin, where she lived for about four years. She has lived in several different places in British Columbia and came here from Vancouver. Mona attended Borden Street School and then came to Bo-Me-Hi in Grade Seven. She takes an active interest in sports and plays forward on the girls' High School basketball team. Her favorite sports are basketball, skiing and ping-pong. Her favorite hobbies are reading and sports. She intends to be a secretary or stenographer.

AMPLIFIERS IN PARLIAMENT

OTTAWA (C)—An amplifying system will be installed in the House of Commons as soon as satisfactory equipment can be found. Speaker Gaspard Fataeux said yesterday. He said that he was "most anxious" to find equipment that would overcome poor acoustics of the House of Commons without disfiguring the Chamber.
