Advised Spinsters, Now Deserts Them

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pretty, red-haired Jean Van Evera, the girl who wrote "How to Be Happy While Single," is going to be married, her friends say. Miss Van Evera, a former Kansas City newspaper writer and now a free-lance woman here, wouldn't say yes and she wouldn't say no. But friends say she'll say yes before long. The day her book was published, Miss Van Evera told reporters: "I have nothing against marriage."

Desolation of Ecuador

Pillaging by Indians Adds Further to Terror

QUITO, Ecuador (AP)—New earth tremors and pillaging by unruly Indians spread fear and panic among thousands of survivors left homeless by Ecuador's destructive earthquake.

Official government estimates of the death toll in Friday's quake rose to 6000.

Fresh tremors yesterday tumbled weakened walls in Ambato and other cities, adding to the terror of some 150,000 homeless.

Groups of workers, attempting to dig their way through the blocked highway to Pelileo, 100 miles south of Quito, are reported to have been buried under a landslide loosed by new tremors.

Shoot to kill orders have been issued troops guarding Pelileo against looting by the wild tribe of Salasaca Indians.

In an effort to stay the spread of disease in wrecked cities, water filters and supplies of DDT are being rushed in by plane.

FIFTEEN DIE IN BUS CRASH

BLOOMINGTON, Indiana (AP)—Fifteen charred bodies were recovered after dawn today from the wreckage of a greyhound bus which exploded and burned early in the morning after hitting a bridge abutment near here. None of the dead have as yet been identified.

Driver Wayne Cramer of Indianapolis, one of the survivors, said a front tire may have blown out, causing him to lose control of the bus. After striking the abutment down the winding highway and the vehicle skidded 150 feet came to rest on its left side, blocking the emergency door.

At left is Thelma Brewis, 17, who came second, and at right, Bette-Jane Pike, third in judging. Irene will compete in the Miss Canada contest in Hamilton, Ont.

NOT WANTED IN BRITAIN—Ousted by the British government for reported "Communist affiliations," Louis Goldblatt (right), 39, secretary-treasurer of the C.I.O. International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, and John Maletta, 43, a member of the National Maritime Union executive committee are shown during a press conference in Paris. The ouster of the two men followed the ending of London's dock strike.

First Woman Doctor May Have Memorial

HASTINGS, Eng. (Reuters)—Antiquarians want to save the home of Britain's first woman doctor, Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell, who worked here for 30 years and died in 1910. On the Regency building, damaged by bombing, is a tablet which reads: "Here lived and worked for 30 years Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell. Born at Bristol, 1821. Died at Hastings, 1910. The first woman to graduate in medicine in the United States in New York, 1849. The first woman to be placed on the British Medical Register, 1859." The house, overlooking the English Channel, has been unoccupied for 20 years. The antiquarians hope some move for preservation, besides anything they may themselves do, may come from British and United States medical societies.

NEW DOCTOR FOR TORBRIT HOSPITAL

ALICE ARM—Dr. Buschlen arrived last week from Toronto to assume the position of company doctor for the Torbrit Silver Mines. Dr. Buschlen replaces Dr. T. Groszman who has resigned to go into consulting practice in Vancouver. Also last week, the new X-ray unit for the hospital was installed which, with the enlarging of the hospital laboratory, makes for better and modern facilities to take care of those in need of medical help.

Once Doomed Boy Recovers Health

VANCOUVER (CP)—Ten-year-old Philip Burgess, doomed to death by a kidney disease a year ago, is now a happy, active member of the neighborhood "gang." He hovered between life and death for eight months in hospital, victim of nephritis. He would lie in bed dreaming of a bicycle of his own. "But I guess it's silly to even think about it," he said to nurses. "I couldn't ride it anyway." Today he has a bicycle and has chucked up 1.149 miles in three months. He runs as fast as other children on the street and can scramble up apple trees with the best of them. Doctors who thought there was no hope for the lad worked tirelessly in the effort to save him, and were rewarded last Christmas when he took a turn for the better and finally recovered.

TINY HALIBUT LANDED HERE

Prince Rupert boasts of its big halibut, but one appeared today which probably will rank among the smallest ever caught.

It was a four-inch specimen, brought to the Daily News office by Joe Feller, to whom it was given by a fish worker at the Atlin Fisheries dock.

Mr. Feller did not know where it came from, but he believed that it had been part of the diet of a larger fish which was being processed on the fish floor.

The fish was completely formed, was about two inches wide and four inches long.

Collapse Of Mine Strike

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Australia's striking coal miners will be ordered to resume work next week, R. Hamilton, acting president of the Miners' Federation, announced today. He said Union leaders will issue the order Friday.

This announcement followed country-wide rejection on a vote of two to one by the strikers of a request by their communist-dominated national council for a mandate to renew negotiations with the federal and New South Wales governments.

Both sides had announced earlier that they would not negotiate with the miners.

Vampire Executed

Perpetrator of Ghastly Killings In England Pays With Life

LONDON (AP)—John George Haigh, self-confessed vampire slayer of nine persons, was hanged today at Wandsworth Prison.

The handsome 39-year-old business executive was convicted July 19 of murdering a well-to-do widow, Mrs. Olivia Durand-Deacon, for her money.

The jury rejected a defence plea of insanity and sentenced Haigh to be hanged.

At the 10-day trial the prosecution introduced a statement in which Haigh confessed to the police that he had killed eight other persons besides Mrs. Durand-Deacon and drank their blood.

After drinking the blood of his victims, Haigh told the police that he dissolved the bodies in bubbling-acid baths.

The dapper killer did not testify in his own defence.

Aluminum Plant Site At Kitimaat, Dean Channel

Formal Application Being Made for Nechako River Power Head

The Aluminum Co. of Canada is definitely going ahead with its plans for the development of the great hydro-electric power potential near the headwaters of the Nechako River for utilization in connection with a huge aluminum manufacturing plant on the coast.

REDS NEARING CANTON CITY

CANTON, (AP)—The communists today threw fresh forces into the fierce battle on the approaches to this nationalist capital, as the Kiangsi provincial government fled Kanhsien, only 215 miles from Canton.

The big battle raged northwest of Kanhsien in south-central Kiangsi province, perhaps as near as 50 or 60 miles from Canton.

Estimates here were that Canton would continue as the nationalist capital for another three to six weeks. Under present plans the seat of government will be re-transferred to Chungking, but the reins will be held by Chiang Kai-Shek at Taipei, the capital of the redoubt of Formosa.

TO REPORT UPON CHINA

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP)—Ambassador John Leighton Stuart arrives today from China to give a first-hand report on what the United States is confronted with there. He will talk directly with President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Stuart's report, following publication of the Truman administration's "white paper," is expected to have an important bearing on the development of new American policies towards China. The white paper wrote off the Nationalist Chinese government as a failure.

A site on Dean Channel, further down the coast, is now being considered in addition to Kitimaat as the location of the plant.

Legal advertisements appearing in the Daily News today make application for water licenses on the Nechako River above the Grand Canyon.

One proposed power plant site is on the Kemano River. This would supply a Kitimaat aluminum plant with power.

The alternative power site is on the Kimsquit River and would tie in with a Dean Channel manufacturing plant.

FEDERAL AID TO HIGHWAY ACROSS CANADA

OTTAWA (AP)—First session of the new parliament, due to begin September 15, will be asked to ratify legislation providing for construction of a $1.2-billion highway, it was learned today.

Reconstruction Minister Winters said in an interview that the legislation will provide for a federal financial contribution toward a multi-million dollar project of this nature.

No financial agreement has yet been reached with the provinces. Mr. Winters estimated that the federal contribution will run between $150,000,000 and $200,000,000. The total cost of laying down the 5,000 mile hard surfaced highway is expected to run about $400,000,000.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
A weak disturbance lying over northern Vancouver Island is moving slowly southward along the coast. Cool unsettled weather is expected over most of the province for the next two days.

Time To Be Cool

BRITISH COLUMBIA timber operators, on the one hand, the union loggers on the other, do not appear to be entering arbitration proceedings on the question of wage adjustments with much cordiality. Instead of entertaining any wage increase proposal, the operators would cut wages by thirteen percent. The I.W.A. dubs the proposal of the operators as preposterous.

Meantime, the continued activity of the logging industry is seriously threatened. It would not take much, it seems now, to result in a general closing down of an industry which is currently employing many thousands of men, thereby causing a major economic reverse.

The industry is in a shaky enough position as it is what with loss of foreign markets and the market situation none too stable, without being shaken at this time by a major wage dispute.

It is to be hoped that both sides will be reasonable and forbearing. It is no time for unreasonable obstinacy or ill-considered decisions along arbitrary lines. It is a time for both sides to keep cool and steady.

TRANSCANADA HIGHWAY

IT IS AN IMPORTANT and gratifying announcement which the minister of reconstruction, Hon. R. H. Winters, has made in Ottawa that the government is to call at the first session of the new Parliament for the authorization of between $150,000,000 and $200,000,000 as the federal share for a trans-Canada highway. This would provide fifty percent of the cost of the work which would be carried out by each of the provinces.

Ottawa has been blamed for some time with failing to do something about the TransCanada Highway question. Now it appears disposed to meet the issue in a decisive and large scale way. With employment in the country generally showing signs of dropping off as industry finds it more difficult to carry on, the construction of the TransCanada Highway, which is timely in any case, might soon be doubly welcome in stabilizing a possible era of falling employment.

COASTING ALONG

SURVEYS HAVE SHOWN that the majority of wage earners in Canada prefer comparatively low wages and security to drawing a far larger income but with the ever-present possibility of having the job suspend or cease. There are reasons. Some cannot forget the dismal thirties. Some contemplate war—its consequences and dire lessons. Others are worried over the present economic outlook. And many feel a return of mass unemployment is not impossible. And others feel discouraged over the "too old at forty" edict. They prefer to jog along until pension time, making the most of what they have and all for the good of the peace of mind of themselves and families. The same outlook, it is said, prevails in Australia. Yet, it is an attitude that if supported long enough can lead to state control.

GETTING ROADS

NORTHERN British Columbia, after long last, is gradually coming into its own in regard to roads. Until after the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway this half of the province was almost roadless, so far as an organized and comprehensive system of transfer was concerned.

But today, what have we? It's not so long ago that to be able to drive a car from Vancouver to Hazelton was considered quite a feat of skill, judgment and endurance. Today, the highways that follow the Skeena River that pass through the Cariboo region, that serve the sections of country in Central British Columbia, the long road to Alaska, and now the announcement of a highway to Atlin, as well as what the Haines Cut-off will eventually mean, all reflect the resolve to open up a magnificent territory of fertile land, suitable for settlement, replete with industrial possibilities and with tourist attractions.

The cab office, hearing Matte's life threatened contacted police who rushed to the scene, rescued Matte and arrested two Windsor youths. A third escaped but later surrendered to police. (C. P. ASSUMES MINISTRY—Rev. L. G. Sieber, for the past six years stationed at Revelstoke, has assumed the ministry of First United Church and preached his first sermon here Sunday morning. The induction will take place in September. A 1933 graduate of University of Alberta and of St. Stephen's Union College at Edmonton, Mr. Sieber commenced the ministry in Alberta and Prince Rupert is his second charge in British Columbia. He has taken up residence in the parsonage with Mrs. Sieber and two sons.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Leave it to the Navy to think up the appropriate "touch." Not long after the sloop-of-war Amethyst completed her dash to the sea, those aboard heard the band of a certain cruiser briskly playing "Rolling Down the River On a Sunday afternoon."

With refreshing candor, a former United States Secretary of State and military man to boot told Chiang Kai-Shek that he was the world's worst General. It seems the former secretary felt annoyed when he discovered some time ago that Washington aid for Nationalist China was permitted to become the property of the Communists. Small wonder! It was time to suspend the language of diplomacy.

It would be interesting to know how many lives were saved in Ecuador, through the prompt flying of plasma to that stricken land. An earthquake's upheaval made blood flow but blood transfusion halted the fleeting vitality of helpless victims. Prince Rupert people, and all others with blood to spare, may well feel satisfied with the service given so freely a few days ago. The tragic story from another continent is an object lesson.

It's not that Atlin is so far away, although the average Canadian, if he ever heard of the place, might think of a settlement away back of beyond somewhere between the Great Lakes and Dawson. But British Columbia, where we know all about Atlin, receives this road building news with solid satisfaction. Where's Atlin? Surely you know but like enough you've never been there. It's that way with so many. This lake of enchantment lies just over the coast range from Skagway and hard by the B.C.-Yukon border. The train you quit at Carecross carried you from Lynn Canal to follow the trail of '98 and the shores of Lake Bennett with the little old tumbledown church at one end. Carcross! But why ramble longer over "that great big land, way up yonder?" It makes a fellow homesick.

Royal Canadian Navy men agree that Prince Rupert has a reputation as a first-rate port to visit. This is a city where hospitality blossoms like the rose and all enjoy the thought of dropping anchor here. But they might drop it more than once every year or so.

The story of Saskatoon goes back as far as the northwest rebellion and that's 64 years ago. Founders of the city of the future wanted to establish a temperance community. Liquor was forbidden. Liquor, in every shape and form, was discouraged. At least, so the early legends read. The idea made no headway. Evidently the pioneers all had a healthy thirst. It was not until after the coming of the Barr colonists and railway activities were taking shape that the town was reckoned any more progressive than its neighbors. Up to then, Saskatoon was just another prairie small town. Boosters arrived. It was discovered that here was a natural distribution centre. More boosting and boosters. Real estate stiffened. Saskatoon went all-out for the provincial university—and landed it, too. You would not know Saskatoon today.

lands villages of Masset, Port Clements, Queen Charlotte City and Cumshewa Inlet centres and that weekly service be available to Stewart and Alice Arm.

While it mentions no air line specifically, Queen Charlotte Air Lines have been operating non-schedule service to those points and would be the logical choice in the granting of air mail contracts.

The company presently operates daily service to the Queen Charlottes, but, because of the unpredictability of winter traffic, the Junior Chamber resolution asks only three-times-a-week airmail deliveries.

Weekly flights are made to Stewart and it was thought that air mail deliveries on that basis would amply supplement the weekly boat mail service which has been in effect for years.

The resolution recognizes the granting of air mail contracts as a method of aiding the expansion of civil aviation in Canada as well as providing convenient mail service to points where frequent mail deliveries are lacking.

NEW SCHOOL AT NEW HAZELTON

Board Taking Steps—Teachers in Terrace Area Appointed

TERRACE—After hearing George D. Parent, on behalf of the New Hazelton Citizens' League, set forth the need of a new school building at New Hazelton, the Terrace and District School Board, at a meeting last week, decided to commence action by obtaining drawings and specifications from the Department of Education for consideration.

Mr. Parent urged that, in view of the likelihood of expansion of the Terrace district, any plans make provisions for additions at a later date.

After many months of consideration another important decision was reached, that plumbing and sewerage should be installed at the Terrace Elementary school. The interior of the school is also to be redecorated, which will be much appreciated by the teachers, and pupils, and should be a very great improvement in the lighting, as light colors will be used.

Resignations of Miss Chester, Miss Larson and Mrs. Campbell as teachers were accepted.

The following appointments have been made:
Wm. Berke, Terrace High School.

Russell Hayter, principal, Hazelton Senior High-Elementary school.

Miss Kathleen Masich, Senior Division New Hazelton Elementary School.

Miss K. Baker, Junior Division, New Hazelton Elementary School.

Miss Leona Derksen, Hazelton Primary division.

Mr. Gerald Lepine, Kitwanga School.

Mrs. M. A. Hutchinson, Usk School.

Lloyd Mangrum In Tam-Shanter Win

CHICAGO (AP)—Lloyd Mangrum won the Tam O' Shanter golf tournament yesterday with a 13 sub-par 276-stroke triumph. Sam Snead finished one stroke behind Mangrum.

FORMER CUB HURLS FOR WESTERN CANADA TEAM—Baseball interest in western Canada is at an all-time high and teams are outbidding each other for top-notch batteries and slugging outfielders in an effort to win the lion's share of the more than $50,000 being offered in tournaments across the country. One of the big reasons for the baseball boom in Saskatchewan was the arrival of former big league pitcher Mort Cooper, 1943 world series star, who has joined up with Moose Jaw Purity-Canucks. Cooper was released from Chicago Cubs this spring after developing arm trouble, but the 6'2" hurler still has plenty on the ball and continues to fill the parks out west. Here Mort is seen right with George W. Smallwood, Purity-Canuck president.

DICK LETOUNEAU IS LEADING CITY BASEBALL PITCHERS

With the weatherman doing his best to interfere with the baseball schedule the official scorer has had an opportunity to get up to date on pitching records, and the facts reveal some controversial points. "Workhorse" Dick Letouneau has the most wins, four, but at the same time has the greatest number of losses, along with Rosedale.
In winning only one league game Rosedale has the best earned run average among pitchers with a substantial number of innings to their credit. The earned run average is judged on the number of earned runs scored against the pitcher on the basis of a nine inning game. In this respect Lindsay is at the bottom of the list with a figure of 4 runs per game, this in spite of a record of 16 strike-outs in one game.
Maundrell has the distinction of having won and lost a game without having an earned run scored against him.

Timely Recipe

CHERRY RICE

Cherry Rice can bring your meal to a colorful, refreshing conclusion. One word of caution: Don't combine the whipped cream mixture with the cherries until you're ready to serve. Add the cherry juice sauce last.

Ingredients:
1 No. 2 can pitted tart cherries (2 1/2 cups home canned)
3/4 cup heavy cream, whipped
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

1 1/2 cups cooked rice
For Sauce:
1 cup juice from cherries
1/2 cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
A dash of salt
Preparing the Rice:
Put 1 cup of white rice, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 cups cold water in a two-quart saucepan. Cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils vigorously. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and simmer for 14 minutes more. During this time the rice will absorb the water and come out tender. Remove the lid to permit the rice to steam dry. Lift rice with a fork to test its consistency. Never stir rice while cooking—and the grains will be separate and tender. Makes approximately 3 cups rice. Keep left-over cooked rice in a covered bowl in refrigerator—you'll find it handy next time you're in a hurry to fix a quick meal.

Method:
Drain cherries. Whip cream until stiff; beat in sugar; add vanilla. Fold in rice and chill. Fold cherries into chilled cream mixture and serve in sherbet glasses with cherry sauce.

Cherry Sauce:
Heat 1 cup juice from the canned cherries. Combine 1/2 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon cornstarch and a dash of salt. Stir into the boiling juice and cook stirring constantly for several minutes, until clear. Chill if desired. Serves 4 bountifully, and is a real treat.

EXERCISE EAGLE—Canada's biggest peacetime army manoeuvres were held during the week-end and military observers are still assessing the results. The operation was designed to test the country's ability to defend far northern places against the enemy. One of the points of attack was the Peace River bridge near Dawson Creek, B. C. Here in the top Canadian Army photo, glider-borne troops of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry are taking over the approach to the bridge seen in background. In the bottom photo is one of the gliders used to land troops near the bridge. Soldiers can be seen taking cover after landing. (C. P. Photo)
