Plane Downing 'Regrettable' Incident Only

HOPE EXPRESSED THAT TRUCE WILL NOT BE HAMPERED

WASHINGTON, (CP)—The United States today urged Great Britain to treat the shooting down of five Royal Air Force planes as a "regrettable incident only."

The planes were shot down Friday by Israeli fighters near the Israeli-Egyptian frontier.

Great Britain made a strong protest and concentrated military and naval strength in the eastern Mediterranean.

At Tel Aviv an official Israeli statement said tonight that all Jewish troops have been withdrawn from Egyptian territory.

Key British cabinet members and defence chiefs in London today heard Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin give a detailed report on the Middle East crisis.

A session was called by Prime Minister C. R. Attlee, presumably to consider Britain's next move and perhaps how far she will go in strengthening land, sea and air bases in that part of the world.

This move came on the heels of Britain's strong protest to Israel against the shooting down of the planes.

The Foreign Office denied again all published reports that Britain had supplied Egypt and other Arab states with munitions since the arms embargo was laid won last summer.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis: A severe cold spell has settled over most of the central and western areas of the North American continent.

In British Columbia Cranbrook had the lowest overnight temperature with 27 below.

Street car and trolley bus services will be the last to suffer under any curtailment measures, the company assured.

An independent daily newspaper devoted to the upbuilding of Prince Rupert and all communities comprising northern and central British Columbia...

That Load Line

IT IS DISAPPOINTING to learn that, after all these years of working on the matter, no action has yet been obtained from the international convention on safety of life at sea...

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce thought its case was well in hand and that the necessary action would have been taken at the decennial conference in London last year...

This load line question is a vital matter as far as development of the port from a foreign shipping standpoint is concerned. As long as the discrimination stands, it will constitute a major stumbling block to any move along this line...

REMOVAL OF SNOW

THE SERIES OF STORMS felt in so many different parts of North America bring a common problem to scores of cities, Prince Rupert included. This is snow filled streets.

Ports north of here are having their own troubles. The scrape of the snow shovel is heard in Ketchikan and Wrangell.

Juneau is concerned particularly, in keeping the streets cleared sufficient to allow the swift passage of fire department equipment. Blocked fire trucks while a building was burning could wind up in a catastrophe.

From all over Canada come similar reports of coping with the unusually heavy and numerous falls of snow.

Ottawa, for example, has been struggling with all sorts of the disagreeable kinds of winter weather. On a recent day there, the engineering department had pieces of equipment and 267 men clearing streets and sidewalks of heavy, wet snow.

In New York City recently, the removal of snowfall required 12,000 men, 34 snowplows, 12,000 large trucks and scores of scoommobiles working a full day, to make traffic possible.

THANKS, POWELL RIVER

PRINCE RUPERT, Canada's Gateway to Alaska, is subject of a brightly illustrated feature article in the latest issue of "Powell River Digest," two-monthly magazine published by the Powell River Co. Ltd. with J. A. Lundie as editor.

In part the article says: "Today the conception of Prince Rupert as the gateway to Alaska is gaining headway. The impetus accorded by war conditions is being carried on. The development of Canada's central plain and northland is inexorably gripping Prince Rupert in its orbit."

A "first class job" being done by an "active and alert" Chamber of Commerce in keeping Prince Rupert in the public eye is mentioned and reference is also made to the Prince Rupert Daily News, only daily on the B. C. coast north of Vancouver.

"Powell River Digest" has a widespread distribution in the pulp and paper industry as well as to the metropolitan newspapers of the world and the article it contains is another publicity shot which is appreciated.

Only 40 per cent of Canadians have access to free public libraries, and these Canadians read on the average about five books per year.

In 1946—excluding Quebec—there were five thousand (1 in 10) employed school teachers in Canada who lacked the minimum professional qualifications.

WORLD'S NEED OF DIVINE CALLING

Presbyterian Sees Need and Function For All Christian Denominations

Growing lack of the old sense of divine calling and a consequent impairment of righteousness and integrity in everyday life was deplored by Rev. George E. Sendall in his morning sermon at First Presbyterian Church yesterday.

The pastor cited as a "common fallacy" the belief that all religious troubles would be solved by a universal church. With Christ and His principles as the trunk, he saw the various denominations as useful branches.

To Investigate Radio in North

At long last the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation is sending one of its principal executives to the central interior to investigate radio conditions. The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, which has been pressing the matter for a long time, has been advised that late in February or early March Kenneth Caple, British Columbia representative of the Corporation, will visit the district between Prince Rupert and Prince George.

FIRST PHONE TALK, BUT WAS A LONG ONE

Mrs. Robert Forman of Peterhead, Scotland, spoke over a telephone for the first time on Saturday. It was a real long distance conversation with her son, Pat Forman of Prince Rupert, some 9,000 miles.

It was the first time Mrs. Forman had conversed with her son since 1937 when he was last home.

Two-year old Karen Marie Forman "hello-ed" her 70-year old grandmother for the first time.

SNOW-CLEARANCE WARNING BRINGS GREAT ACTIVITY

Prince Rupert's Third Avenue business district burst into a spasm of arm-tiring activity this morning as merchants and other property owners acted on a warning by the city that the snow removal bylaw will be enforced.

The bylaw terms it "unlawful for any person to permit any accumulation of snow or ice to remain upon any plank or paved sidewalk in front of, or abutting, any premises owned or occupied by him after 10 o'clock, except Sunday in the district described as Fire Limit No. 1."

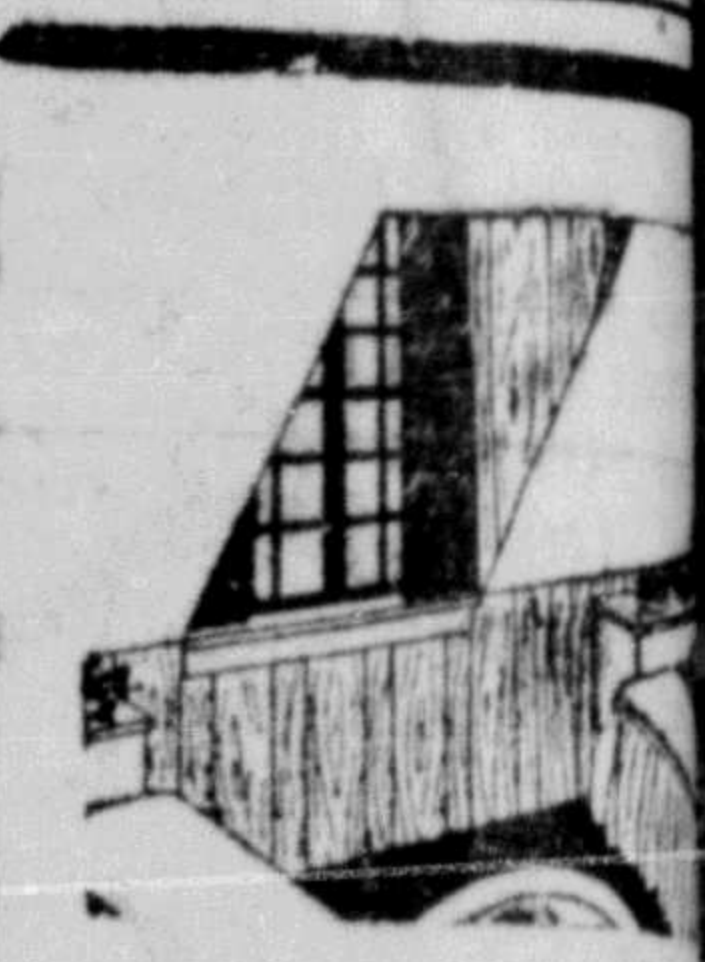

Decision to enforce the bylaw was made at the week-end by the 1948 city council's police committee which instructed the police force to take action against those failing to comply.

At the City Hall, it was pointed out that property owners responsible for snow removal on their own property are under the bylaw as are those who have vacant lots as well as those who own lots.

Intermediate—Merchants, 37; Stones, 35.
Ladies—High School, 29; Miller Bay, 11.
Junior—Kinsmen, 21; Rupert Hotel, 22.

Before a cheering crowd Saturday night, Brownwoods came back from the brink of defeat and won a thrilling Senior League basketball contest from Savoy, Pierce scoring the winning basket with less than ten seconds remaining in the game. The final score was 57 to 56. Another contest decided in the last seconds of the game was the Intermediate game which saw Merchants coming out on top 37-35 over Stones.

Brownwoods opened the scoring and quickly built up a 9-2 lead. Savoy started slowly and, with a big deficit staring them in the face, proceeded to cut it down to 15-14 at quarter time. Doug Shier spearheaded the shoemakers' attack with 10 points. His heavy scoring continued as the game went along. It was a ding-dong affair with each team taking turns as the lead. Brownwoods offense bogged down slightly and Savoy kept pouring it on. The half ended 27-26 with Savoy on top.

There was no break in the offensive of either team as the second half opened. It was a wide open game with good passing and fine ball handling. Savoy played a passing game while Brownwoods used fast breaking forwards and long passes. Brownwoods garnered the edge in scoring in the third quarter and held a 41 to 38 lead going into the final ten minutes.

The playing in the last quarter was hard and fast. Arney and Ciccone took charge of the Savoy scoring and threatened to make a runaway of the game before Ciccone fouled out. Rupert Holkestad also left the game in the early minutes of the quarter. The score went to 56-53 for Savoy with several minutes remaining. Shier capped his

TROTTERS FUNNY BUT OUT TO WIN

Besides their greatest line-up of stars in 22 season of play, the Harlem Globe Trotters basketball unit will bring its finest comedy show to Prince Rupert January 24 and 25 as part of their appearance against the cream of city basketball talent.

Their visit here will be the first stop on a tour which will include several Alaska cities and army bases.

For the last 21 years, sports writers have been saying that the clever court jesters did everything with a basketball but make it talk and the more imaginative are scouting the idea that that may be possible this season, too.

The merriment starts the moment the Globe Trotters saunter onto the floor for their warm-up practice. Forming a circle under the basket, they start moving the ball around in a manner that usually has the crowd off on a laughing spree immediately.

This "sleight-of-hand" is continued hilariously into the game.

The Globe Trotters will make three appearances at the Civic Centre here, an afternoon performance for school students and two evening games for adults. The afternoon show will be exactly the same as the evening ones — only the price will be less.

Although the Trotters "clew-

Reminiscences By W.J. and Reflections

The last of the wartime shacks on Sixth Street between First and Second Avenues is being dismantled. Back in 1942-43, that whole area — on each side of the cinder pathway — from Second Avenue almost to the waterfront was one of the busiest centres in the city. Covered with offices, shacks and cottages, and thrown together in rough and ready style, it swarmed with soldiers and civilians. It was a hub, within a hub—Soon there will be hardly a stick left.

world this year? Meanwhile, keep in mind, the plaque on the wall of an old Chinese garden that reads: "Enjoy yourself: it's later than you think." After such an honest-to-God winter everyone will be in the humor for an early and sunny spring. But that might be just too bad. When mountain snows start melting, under strong sunshine, watch out! It was all right when B.C. was an unpeopled wilderness. But not today.

A ruling by the BBC says bagpipe playing is not music. And so, logically enough, Scotland has its wind up.

Did you make a resolution, providing you can manage it financially, to see a bit of the Why lobsters thrive on the Atlantic coast of Canada but cannot make even a satisfactory start on Pacific shores is to have more serious attention. It's worth the effort. The man who solves what appears to be a sea food problem will accomplish something.

Masset Is Busy Place

MASSETT—With an expansion of logging operations in Massett Inlet due to the opening by Pacific Mills of its new camp at Juskatla and other impending developments, Massett gives promise of jumping into the position of the Queen Charlotte Islands No. 1 industrial centre. Already the village is crowded with its 300 inhabitants and there would be more were housing not so scarce. A local sawmilling concern has been difficulty in getting men for its operations.

The 300 white residents are in addition to some 500 natives who reside at the old Massett village nearby.

Another interesting development that is being rumored here is that of a major tourist resort in the vicinity of Rose Spit. One of the coast steamship companies, according to local report, is interested.

The Dominion government wireless station, for many years operated at Dead Tree Point on the east coast of Graham Island, is due to be moved to Delkatla Inlet about two and a half miles from Massett, it is understood.

ter ended. The rest of the game saw Miller Bay's defense fall apart with the Rainbirds breaking through to score. Many of Miller Bay's passes were intercepted and this gave High School several baskets. The Rainbirds' passing attack worked off and on. Nellie Pavich was the high scorer of the game.

Miller Bay canned 5 out of 18 field shots attempted and one out of three foul shots tried. High School made 12 out of 41 shots and 5 out of 13 penalty shots.

KINSMEN WIN
Kinsmen scrapped through with a 24-22 win over the up and coming Rupert Hotel quintet in the Junior League opener. The hotel boys surprised Kinsmen by taking the lead right away and at one time held a 7 point advantage in the first quarter. Kinsmen started to hit the hoop in the second quarter and the half time score was 12-8 for Rupert Hotel. Kinsmen broke through in the second half to come from behind and take a 20-18 lead as the final quarter started. This 2-point edge they held the rest of the game. McKay led the way in scoring for Kinsmen with 10 points, 6 of them coming in the important third quarter. Rupert Hotel had a smooth team passing attack that gave every player a chance to score.

Rupert Hotel scored 10 out of 29 shots taken and 2 out of 7 free throws. Kinsmen took 52 shots and made 11. They had 9 penalties and canned 2.

"This is for every Canadian parent..."

says Professor R. A. Mahoney.

"As a professor in the Department of Commerce at the University of British Columbia, I've studied the relationship of education to our free enterprise way of doing business, and here's what I've concluded:

"Competition forces industries to try, all the time, to bring down costs and improve products through new techniques and methods.

"To do this business and industry search for and offer unlimited opportunity to well-trained, well-educated young men and women.

"And that's important to every youngster. It gives him a reason he can understand for educating himself for a particular field of work in high school, technical school, or university."

"What's more he knows that, if he makes the most of his education and his talents, he can rise to the top in business, industry or a profession.

"I know Canadian parents desire the finest possible education for their children... the greatest opportunity for them to make their way in the world... Because it makes that education worthwhile... and offers unlimited opportunity to succeed, I believe every Canadian parent has good reason to support our free enterprise system of business and industry."
