MURDER-SUICIDE ATTEMPT IS SEEN

EDMONTON, B. C.—A young couple are near death in hospital here today after what police describe as an attempted murder and an unsuccessful suicide.

Mrs. Mary Walsh, aged 26, is in only fair condition with a bullet wound in her left side and her husband, Richard, 21, is shot through the head and not expected to live.

Police say that Walsh shot his wife and later attempted suicide following a family quarrel in their small suite at Leduc, Alberta, 20 miles to the south.

UNEMPLOYMENT BEFORE HOUSE

Minister of Transport Answers Questions of Vancouver Members

OTTAWA—Answering questions of Howard Green, Progressive Conservative member for Vancouver South, in regard to the unemployment crisis in Vancouver, Hon. Lionel Chevrier, minister of transport, said yesterday that the situation was under investigation by Hon. R. A. Mayhew, minister of fisheries, who had gone to the coast especially for the purpose. Mr. Chevrier said that the government had no plans for the subsidizing of the shipbuilding industry but would do everything possible to encourage and assist it.

Canada Relieving Palestine People

OTTAWA, B. C.—Canada is sending immediately 600 tons of wheat flour to Palestine refugees in the Middle East and will follow with 50,000 cases of canned fish and 50,000 bushels of white beans. Hon. L. B. Pearson, minister of external affairs, said today.

FOUR FACTORS

To four factors the club speaker attributed the new era in world history:

1. The dissolution of the old concept of British Empire holding the balance of world control.

2. The resurgence of Russian imperialism under the guise of communism with its bid for world power.

3. The emergence of the United States as the principal world power—militarily, financially and economically.

4. The discovery and utilization of the vast power of atomic energy, the possibilities of which for good or evil beggared all description.

In the centre of all these factors stood Canada midway between the two new poles of world influence and control—Moscow and Washington—with Alaska as the vortex of possible explosion.

Israeli and Egypt Sign Up Armistice

Canadian Minister Gives Credit to United Nations and Dr. Bunche

OTTAWA (CP)—Hon. L. B. Pearson, minister of external affairs, today described the Egyptian-Israeli armistice as something to be "chalked up on the credit side" of the United Nations. The armistice agreement was signed today on the island of Rhodes and it is expected will be followed by similar agreements with Transjordan, Syria and Lebanon.

Mr. Pearson said that the successful negotiations were "a great personal achievement" for the American negro, Dr. Ralph Bunche, who stepped into the role of mediator after the assassination of Count Folke Bernadotte last summer.

PILOT FIGHT WITH MANIAC

ANCHORAGE—Donald Dorothy, 35-year-old air pilot had to struggle with Laredo Bellow, an insane sailor, high over Alaska mountains. The two were the only ones on the plane.

Bellow attacked Dorothy soon after leaving Anchorage. The latter had to handle the plane and stand off Bellow at the same time. He finally landed enough blows on Bellow's head with a fire extinguisher, to knock him unconscious. Then, he landed at Seward.

BULLETINS

MORE HOSPITAL BEDS

OTTAWA—The wide-ranging Throne Speech debate brought forth the government statement from Minister of Health Paul Martin yesterday that Canada was getting another 13,000 hospital beds and an opposition statement that taxation was stifling domestic and foreign trade.

KENNEY REALISTIC

VICTORIA—Lands Minister E. T. Kenney, in a sober review of British Columbia timber resources, warned yesterday that "serious" depletions exist in coast lumber reserves while market prospects for low-grade timber were not bright. He said that, if policies laid down by the government were rigidly adhered to, future supply of timber was reasonably assured. Nevertheless, with production costs at their present high level, it was obvious that even lower grades cannot be produced at other than a high price.

PHONE FEES GOING UP

VANCOUVER—Gordon Farrell, president of the B.C. Telephone Co., told the people of B.C. today that they will soon have to pay more for the use of telephones due to greater cost of materials, wages and interest. There will have to be a general increase in rates, Farrell said.

Workless Crowd Pacific Coast

OTTAWA—More than half the unemployment insurance benefits paid in November, December and January went to Vancouver, the Minister of Labor, Hon.

Humphrey Mitchell informed the House of Commons. He was answering a query from Angus McInnis (CCF-Vancouver East) on the consideration given employable unemployed in that city.

Mr. Mitchell said many families moved to the west coast in winter because of the climate and the government could not be responsible if they failed to find work and were ineligible for insurance.

Mr. Mitchell remarked that 691 families had moved into British Columbia in January and they came from all over Canada.

"I am sure," the Minister observed, "my honorable friend will agree with me that British Columbia is a pleasant place in which to spend the winter."

"Sometimes," interjected M. J. Coldwell, the C.C.F. leader.

"Not lately," remarked another member.

"If I went to live in British Columbia," said Mr. Mitchell, "before leaving Ontario to live there, I think I should make sure that I did not become a charge on the state when I arrived there."

PASSENGER EMBARGO STILL ON BUT RAILWAY FREIGHT SERVICE RESUMED

Embargo on passenger train movements between Prince Rupert and Terrace continued in effect today on the railway line but freight service along the treacherous, snow-banked stretch of track was still being carried on following the arrival here of two commodity-laden freight trains Wednesday afternoon.

Danger of further snowslides in the Kwinitsa-Salvus area are responsible for continuation of the embargo on passenger service. Railway officials fear that further snow obstruction may occur any day and they decline to resume scheduled service until the danger is passed.

Meanwhile, a freight train of 20 cars, preceded by the rotary for snow plow, left for Terrace and Pacific at 5:30 this morning, the first eastbound train since Saturday night.

Snow conditions at the Terrace air port caused cancellation of the earlier flight. The air line office here hopes to get a flight through tomorrow.

JEWS LEAVE FOR ISRAEL—Jews of military age are allowed to leave their camps in Cyprus if the Jewish government provided the transport, it was announced. This picture shows one of the first Jewish refugees having his papers checked on the docks at Cyprus before boarding a ship for Israel.

DAYLIGHT TIME TO BE EXTENDED

OTTAWA—Ottawa will extend daylight saving time two months this fall if Toronto adopts the power-saving recommendations of its Hydro Commission. The extra two months would be tacked on to the end of the normal five months' period. Daylight saving now goes into effect the last Sunday in April and continues to the last Sunday in September.

ASSESSMENTS ARE CONFIRMED

Court of Revision Rejects Appeal of C.N.R. Against Dry Dock Valuation

Civic Court of revision today confirmed the city assessor's valuation of $300,000 on the Canadian National Railways dry dock against an appeal entered by the railway company.

Appeals of Robert Kelcy, Fifth Avenue East, and Albert L. Stiles, Eighth Avenue East, were also rejected and the assessments sustained.

The assessment roll was then finally confirmed by the court with one small reduction previously granted.

He appeared in court with his right arm in a cast.

Constable White and Constable George Redhead, who was at the police station when van Wallegham was brought in, both testified that the accused smelled of liquor and acted in an unsteady manner before being put into the cells about 5:45.

Mr. Brown suggested to the court that his client's apparent unsteadiness might have been a result of shock from the intense pain resulting from a fractured arm.

Van Wallegham testified that he told the police that his arm was broken but the constables denied that he had made any mention of it.

Mr. Brown said that he had visited van Wallegham in the city jail at 9:30 a.m. about four hours after his arrest, and that he had showed no signs indicating a hangover.

The practice of counsel giving evidence in behalf of a client is not unknown but is considered rare in the history of courts in this province.

CRASH AT HONG KONG KILLS 23

HONG KONG—A Cathay Pacific Airways passenger plane from Manila crashed and burned near here early in January by a truck driver in an effort to obtain traction for his empty vehicle which got stuck in the snow while going (and this is a fact) down hill.

It was eyed longingly yesterday by a procession of passing citizens whose own coal stocks were probably, even smaller than the deposit on the road.

Again, protruding through the wilting snow blanket in many spring cleaning debris behind?

Is Mum About Royal Romance

George of Denmark Linked With Princess Margaret

By RICHARD TOMPKINS
LONDON, (AP)—It is strictly business before pleasure or even romance, with young Prince George of Denmark.

The girls may be after this highly eligible, 28-year-old bachelor, but he's not after the girls. London's top royal society is like water on a duck's back to him.

And when it comes to romance—his name has been linked with a famous princess—he's not talking at all.

He puts his work—as acting military attaché at the Danish embassy even ahead of royal functions.

There was speculation at the time of Princess Elizabeth's wedding concerning a possible romance between this prince of Denmark and Princess Margaret. He was her partner at the bridesmaid's wedding night.

The prince won't even be questioned on the rumors. At the time of the wedding he denied them. When he is asked about them now he is mum. His friends answer for him with an emphatic "no." They go on to say: "He is not thinking of marrying. He is quite happy as a bachelor."

Prince George himself says: "I would like to follow my military career. I shall stay in London as long as the Danish office keeps me here. I made no request to be posted here."

Combines Duties

George explains that his father, Prince Axel—first cousin of late King Christian, sec-

Athenagoras, born in Turkey 62 years ago, became a naturalized American citizen in 1939. Now he is again a Turkish citizen.

ond cousin of present King Frederik—once was a merchant ship's captain and submarine officer. He is now managing director of the East Asiatic Company.

The young prince is a chip off the paternal block. His career is the army, and he intends to follow it. He represents his family, when called upon, at court doings, but he will not exercise any royal prerogative nor give any title to crown circles.

His job here has been mainly making arrangements for the return of Danish volunteers in the British army to their homes. Originally there were about 5,000. There are only a few hundred left. He also is studying military equipment and army training methods.

When war ended the Prince found himself unexpectedly in Oslo with an unofficial party, taking an official bow. The story not generally known, is told by an official Danish spokesman:

Prince George who had taken an active part in Danish resistance work, joined a party of underground workers who took off for Oslo on May 8, 1945, the day the Germans capitulated in Norway. The party was the first Allied representatives to arrive in the Norwegian capital.

German officers at Oslo airport, mistaking the group for the official Allied mission, surrendered to the underground group. Prince George stood on the balcony of the Grand Hotel with the underground group, receiving the enthusiastic welcome given the Allied party by the people of Oslo.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

EVERYBODY LIKES PIE—EVEN EMPEROR CLAUDIUS HAD 'EM

In the writings of Emperor Claudius in 46 A.D. he speaks of a dish made from apples, honey and spices. In translation this is called pie but it is doubtful if pies, as we know them, were common in those days.

Old English lore refers frequently to "pies made of kidneys, pigeons, rooks and mutton" but fruit or other dessert pies were evidently unknown. In the latter part of the sixteenth century, apple pie won a place in the desserts of America and today most men like any dessert, so long as it is pie.

The pastry in the early "pies" was made with suet and was short but inclined to be hard. There are standards of perfection in pastry and, whatever the filling of the pie, the pastry is the important part. Too much shortening makes it dry and crumbly. Too much liquid makes it heavy and soggy. Too much handling or rolling makes it tough.

When the pastry is tender and light and the filling flavorful and well cooked the pie is considered perfect.

Home economists say that all good cook books give full directions for making pastry but there are possibilities for great variation in fillings. Here are several that they recommend.

Fairy Apple Pie

6 medium apples
2 tablespoons water
1/4 cup sugar
2 egg whites
1 9-inch baked pie shell
Peel, core and slice apples. Add water, cover and cook until egg whites and 3 sugar. Pour into shell and chill. Yield: one 9-inch pie.

Deep Dish Plum Pie

1 quart fruit (canned sugar)
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup sugar
1/4 cup flour
1 teaspoon almond
1 tablespoon shortening
Pastry

Drain fruit, heat boiling. Mix salt, flour. Stir slowly into juice, add almond flavoring. Place drained fruit in baking dish. Pour syrup over fruit and shortening. Roll pastry to 1/4 inch. Make several slits in it. Fit pastry over the top, down well over the edges. Bake 30 minutes. Yield: six servings.

Happy Home! Well-planned, interesting meals certainly help! And it takes just a little thought to transform any meal into something a bit on the "special" side. I find every day that more and more women are letting JELL-O supply the dessert excitement in their family meals—plain, or in some such variation as the favourite of mine: Chill Cherry Jell-O in a shallow pan. When firm, break into bits with a fork, and—delicious, with that wonderful "locked-in"

Closed Rooms Needn't Be Stuffy! This is a home-making discovery that's worth a lot of repeating, I think. Know how to keep Winter-closed rooms fresh-smelling? It's quick, inexpensive and quick-as-a-wink the VAPAIR way!

Simply unsnap a bottle of this wonderful new room deodorant and in a jiffy the room will be free of stale cooking or tobacco odours—bird-cage or "doggie" smells! Yes, Vapair will banish the odours of cooking cabbage and your husband's stale cigar smoke—and it costs less than a cent each time to use! So why not ask for the big value 10-oz. size at 8¢ or get the money-saving 16-oz. refill bottle at $1.49?

Dandruff About It—it's the "little things" that count in dandruff! That's why I took this modern feminine hygiene is so important a factor in our daily life. Women who want a comfortable method of feminine hygiene use Zontons are effective... greaseless, stainless and yet absolutely safe to delicate tissues.

HOPPER INVASION IN WEST EXPECTED WORST IN HISTORY—Farmers in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are busy preparing to ward off what is expected will be one of the worst grasshopper invasions in the history of western Canada's agriculture. The year 1948 saw millions of dollars in damage to crops in the prairies and it is expected that the invasion this year might even equal the 1940 plague when hoppers caused $9,000,000 in crops. Agricultural authorities have launched an educational campaign to help the farmers in their fight. Here a homemade poison bait spreader made from the rear end of an old car is operated and pulled across the field by farm truck.

ATOMIC CENTURY

and conclusions of deep seriousness with interpolations of smiling wit and intriguing humor, Mr. Hills paid high tribute to the "foresight" and "enterprise" of the people of Prince Rupert in having "scoped" the rest of the country in obtaining their Civic Centre which might well be the envy of any community or city in British Columbia or Canada. That was something which could be boasted of far and wide and, as for himself, he would not neglect to mention it in his travels.

IMPRESSED BY YOUTH

The speaker told how he had first been impressed with the new Canadian spirit and its possibilities of contribution by the thousands of young Canadians—men and women alike—Independent, enthusiastic, strong and open—with whom he had come personally in contact during his service as a naval chaplain. "It was there where I saw how Canada could make its voice heard and where I received a new concept of the contribution the people of this nation could make to the stability of the world."

True it was that the world had witnessed the dissolution of the former concept of the British Empire, admitted the speaker, timed with a tremendous shift in world power and the advent of the atomic age. Yet it was not to be forgotten, particularly in Canada which had sunk its roots deeply and strongly under British sovereignty, that Britain through one hundred years had kept the world stable in a great era of peace.

A great fight in Canada today was to keep alive the principles of responsible government. And Canada, which had let the rest of the Empire in the demand for freedom, must be ready to stand on her own feet. "We stand in a perilous position and we cannot longer run to Whitehall or Washington, D.C."

The best way in which Canada could say "Thank You" to Britain was to provide her own defences and be at all times ready to pour out her aid to the old Mother Land.

Expressing the fear that the United Nations was going the way of the League of Nations, the speaker saw in Soviet Russia a new Frankenstein colossus of solid Imperialism. He gave personal incidents of Communist activity even in his own city of Victoria. Ever since the western allies had accepted Russia as an ally, the Soviet Republic had adopted a policy of imperial aggression on a scale which left the dreams of Peter the Great, against which even Karl Marx had remonstrated, in the backwash.

COMMUNIST BAND WAGON

"Communism," declared Mr. Hills "is being used today as the band wagon for Russian aggrandizement." She was the only nation in the world which had gained territory following the war. Yet there were even some Canadians who today, unconcerned about the real social problems, would rise at the least excuse to the defence of Russia and communism.

As for Canada, Mr. Hills prescribed a great increase of population by immigration of people who would learn and

Mindzenty Judge Flees From Hungary

VIENNA—United States authorities say they have received a tip that one of the judges in the trial of Cardinal Joseph Mindzenty has fled from Hungary.

Here's Yo Happifyin'
Shrove Tuesday Treat!

EASY AS

TO FIX!

How to Make Perfect Pancakes

1. Measure ingredients carefully. All measurements are level; use standard measuring cups.
2. Stir only until flour is moistened. Over-stirring makes a less tender pancake. The little lumps in the batter will come out in baking.
3. Be sure griddle is correct temperature. The griddle is just hot enough when a drop of water will bounce for a second before evaporating or when a spoonful of batter browns on one side in one minute.
4. Grease griddle very lightly using an unsalted fat. Pancakes will not stick to a griddle that has been properly seasoned. Turn a griddle, cover it with a thin layer of unsalted fat or heat griddle until fat begins to smoke; turn off heat and let griddle stand overnight. Remove excess fat before baking pancakes. Never scour a griddle without seasoning it again.
5. Pour batter for each pancake on the griddle quickly. Spooning the batter is not recommended, because the first spoonful starts to bake before the second one can be added.
6. Turn pancakes only once. Bake until cakes are covered with bubbles and edges look dry. Turn cakes and bake until brown on other side. Don't pat cakes or turn them more than once.
7. Serve pancakes "hot off the griddle". Stacking the cakes and letting them stand tends to make them soggy.

Next Tuesday's your Happy Pancake Day! The day you delight your family with stacks and stacks of fluffy, golden brown Aunt Jemimas... right hot from the griddle... all glistening with butter and dripping with rich appetizing syrup!

Aunt Jemimas are so easy to fix, too... just add milk or water... stir, and pop 'em on the griddle! Serve Aunt Jemimas often—a plate of 4 delicious Aunt Jemimas costs less than 5¢!

FIVE-CENT CIGAR BOX

Its Return from "Good Old Days"

NEW YORK - The cigar is creeping back into circulation and the feeling better about the cent stogie stands as a blemish of a simple life, less complicated and worry. It marks the an era when men's affection to trusting and never tossed aside by thoughtless assessments and old debt.

When the five-cent cigar reigned supreme it was a $2 a year for those not owning. Anyone who talked taxes was laughed at as a fool or a nut or both. "Questionnaire" was a question in America was salvation. One could talk out to dinner for a few cents to get a smile.

One can't think of a five-cent cigar without the days when the village was the only one who thrifit. It was a fellow could meet a bill without outside and denounce tricking and cheating without fear.
