ON RAMPAGE—Swollen by the combination of three heavy rain and melting snow and ice, the Passaic river burst and wild through the falls at Little Falls, N.J. Rivers in upstate New York, New Jersey and New England burst their banks, isolating hundreds of communities and millions of dollars of property damage.

ARMEN AND GERMANS HAIL NEW ROLE IN BERLIN AIRLIFT

Planes flying the supply to Berlin are asking that their part in the airlift in history should be widely recognized.

Record to date is a proud noon of June 28, 1948, when food-carrying DC-4s from Wunsdorf in the zone, and noon Dec. 10, 1948, when British civil aircraft flew 32,382 pounds of gifts sent to Berlin. 139,285 tons of supplies to the former German figures are only a third of the total but, taking into account the vast difference in the two countries, present a maximum ef-

CAPACITY SMALLER

As the British are still large number of twin-engine aircraft with only 2½ per cent, the Americans are four-engine Skyliners, capable of carrying 10 tons, a list of gifts sent to Berlin tells plainly of the apathy of the Germans. The British part of the airlift is officially known, like an antique shop, the list includes hand-embroidered prayer beads, Ming vases, carved jade, Ropercelain and chinaware, silver, paintings, jewel topped dolls, and assorted toys of every conceivable shape and color.

GIFTS RETURNED

Except inexpensive gifts like pens and pencils, are returned with a note to the donor, but the British of Berlin's western sector the western zones continue to send preservative day in increasing press her appreciation, a girl recently sent a brooch which had been a heirloom. An accompanying explained that it was valuable she possessed. "Please give this to the air lift pilots. They don't think we are ungrateful at they are doing for us."

Letters are longer. Some written in illegible English, are perfect examples of can slang. But, whether written in German or in English, they all say practically the same thing—"Ich danke"—I thank you."

GIFTS MERGED

British air lift effort is recognized by United States Government, as was Oct. 15 when "Operation" and "Operation Plain" were merged into a unified F-RAP command known as Combined Air Lift Task Force, United States Maj. Gen-

DREW HITS AT SOCIALISM

CALGARY ©—Canadians must do "everything in their power to ensure that the stifling of Socialism does not come to Canada," George Drew, national leader of the Progressive-Conservative party said in an address here last night.

Speaking to 1,500 at a public meeting, he made a spirited appeal for support of his party and urged his listeners to take "vigorous political action" to safeguard their economic and democratic freedom.

Mr. Drew stopped here after a visit to Vancouver earlier this week.

Nine-Month Surplus Set $600 Million

OTTAWA ©—Canada's budgetary surplus for the first nine months of the current fiscal year was set at $609,949,698 by the Federal Department of Finance last night. Revenues for the period from last April 1 to December 31 amounted to $1,956,208,479 and expenditures were $1,346,258,780.

Canada Has Food To Give Britain

OTTAWA—British officials still seem obsessed with the idea that Canada is unable to provide the United Kingdom with as much food as they need, the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. J. G. Gardiner, told a press conference here, on his return from the United Kingdom.

"I told them that other countries had let them down, and that Canada had not."

KEEP CLEAR OF DOCTORS

Except When Really Ill, Urges British Medico

LOS ANGELES—So long as a man feels in good health, he should not go near a physician. That's what Dr. James F. Brailsford, noted British medical man says.

He is founder of the British Radiological Association and holds to the view that periodic medical examinations for tuberculosis and cancer do more harm than good.

"People should go to a doctor when symptoms develop," he declared, "but stay away when they feel well and fit. If people seek advice when they feel sick and not worry when they feel well, lives, money and time will be saved. Mass examinations of persons without symptoms in cancer clinics are of doubtful value."

Dr. Brailsford's home is in Birmingham, England, and he is making a tour of U.S. medical centres. He mentioned that even X-ray experts make mistakes. Careless diagnosis, he said, either gives a sense of false security or creates worry, without reason.

IS SECRETARY TO MINISTER

According to an announcement just made in Ottawa, Arthur H. Sager, of Hazelton, has been appointed private secretary to the Federal Minister of Fisheries, Hon. Robert Mayhew. Mr. Sager, who formerly was in charge of Public Relations at the University of British Columbia, was a Spitfire pilot in the Great War and won the D.F.C. At the time of his discharge he held the rank of Squadron Leader.

Move Seen as Blow to Industry On Both East and West Coasts

Tariff is Increased By Forty Percent On Express Shipments

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian railways today served notice that they are increasing express rates on fish by amounts ranging up to 40 percent. The higher tolls have been filed with the Board of Transport commissioners and will affect several million pounds annually of fresh and frozen fish moving from points on the west and east coasts.

HEALTH INSURANCE IS GIVEN HIGH PLACE IN TRUMAN POLICY

By GEORGE RONALD
Canadian Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON—High on President Truman's long list of social security proposals—which have brought cries of "state socialism" from the opposition—is a national health insurance plan.

The opposition, it is believed, will be led by the American Medical Association, though many individual doctors are expected to support the Truman administration.

Shortly after Truman's state-of-the-union speech, January 5, a group of Democratic congressmen set the stage for a new legislative battle by describing the health-scheme proposals they will urge.

"Our health is far behind the progress of medical science," the president said. "Proper medical care is so expensive that it is out of the reach of the great majority of our citizens. The present coverage of the social security laws is altogether inadequate, and benefit payments are too low. We need—and we must have without further delay—a system of prepaid medical insurance which will enable every American to afford good medical care."

The congressional group—Representative John D. Dingell of Michigan and Senators James Murray of Montana, Robert F. Wagner of New York and J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island—said their legislation will benefit 125,000,000 persons—85 percent of the population.

VAST FUTURE FOR CANADA IS SEEN

NEW YORK ©—Finance Minister Abbott said last night that Canada "by discovering vast supplies of important raw materials, is on the threshold of further tremendous expansion of production and economic power."

In a speech prepared for delivery at the annual luncheon of the Women's Canadian Club in New York, he said that this economic power would lead "to strengthening of our trading position with the United States."

He said that the important discoveries were "iron ore in northern Quebec and Labrador, uranium in the northwest, oil in Alberta and titiniferous ore in Quebec."

FINE POINT IN DENTISTRY

PHILADELPHIA—The Pennsylvania Supreme Court rules that "jurors cannot be required to decide what amount of force is necessary to extract a tooth."

Marie T. Bierstein charged Dr. Franklin Whitman had fractured her jaw while extracting two teeth and sought damages. "The degree of force," said the Court, "is an integral part in the technique of extracting teeth. This is developed only after study and experience."

Negligence may not be interfered by laymen, merely because the jaw was found to be fractured. A jaw could be broken even if there was no lack of care and skill."

Newfie's Money To Disappear

THE WEATHER

Synopsis

Cloudy skies over the interior of British Columbia are expected to clear during the day. Snow which was still falling over the southeastern corner of the province at daybreak this morning is expected to end by noon. Clear skies over the southern coastal regions are expected to give way to increased cloudiness tomorrow as a flow of relatively warm and moist Pacific air establishes itself over the district.

Forecast

Queen Charlottes and North Coast—Overcast today and Sunday. Fog patches forming over night and persisting through Sunday. Occasional high drizzle early Sunday. Winds light today and southerly (20) Sunday. Little change in temperature. Low tonight and high Sunday at Port Hardy, Massett and Prince Rupert, 35 and 42.

HEALTH UNIT NAMES OFFICERS

Annual meeting of the Prince Rupert and District Union Board of Health was held Friday in the Health Unit office. Members present included A. S. Nickerson, retiring Chairman; Aldermen W. F. Stone, W. J. McLean and J. N. Forman; and Mrs. E. W. Becker, representing the Prince Rupert School Board.

Officers elected were Alderman J. N. Forman, Chairman; Miss C. Balagno, Treasurer; and Miss J. Leslie, Senior Public Health Nurse—Secretary, pending the appointment of a full-time Medical Director for the Unit.

Treasurer's Report showed a balance on January 1, 1949, of $734. Expenditures during the year included $102.50 for signs for the Clinic building and constructing a shelter beside the building for baby buggies; also $2.50 for membership in the Prince Rupert Film Council.

Miss Leslie reported upon a meeting of Senior Public Health Nurses, held recently in Victoria to acquaint field staffs with new developments in the provincial health program. Federal grants, over and above normal provincial expenditures, have made it possible to expand present services, add new ones, provide post-graduate instruction for members of the staff, and conduct field and laboratory research. Short-term and long-term projects are being embarked upon which should result in greatly improved health services for the people of British Columbia.

While in Victoria, Miss Leslie conferred with Doctor J. A. Taylor, director of local health services; Miss M. Frith, Director of Public Health Nursing; and Mr. R. Bowering, director of Division of Environmental Sanitation. Policies for the Prince Rupert and District Health Unit were discussed and an itinerary worked out whereby outlying parts of the district might be visited more regularly.

It is hoped that during the next year, every outlying school in the area extending up the Portland Canal and across to the Queen Charlotte Islands and inland as far as Houston, will be visited at least once. Regular monthly or weekly visits are already being made to all readily accessible areas; it is hoped that now a limited amount of service can be provided to even the most isolated parts.

C.P.R. EXPECTS BIG INCOME

OTTAWA ©—Income of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. is expected to jump $35,000,000 this year over 1948 without any increase in rates, the company today told the Board of Transport Commissioners.

A C.P.R. estimate of 1949 revenue from rail operations under present rates figures placed it at $391,532,000, but the company said the figure is very optimistic and could decline with a business recession.

Because of the danger of a slackening of business, a company spokesman said, it is unlikely that the company would go over the 1948 estimate without a new rate increase.

It has asked the Board for a 20 per cent boost.

TERRACE BOARD ELECTS OFFICERS

Trend Of Economy

FEW IF ANY PROPHETS were bold enough a year ago to predict for this country the degree of prosperity which it actually enjoyed in 1948—near capacity production, nearly full employment, record national income, record corporate earnings and high profits, expanding capital investment. It is true that the picture had its darker side. Price increases continued throughout the most of the year so that part of the gain in personal income was illusory. Yet even this trend appears to have been abating as the year ended, reflecting the trend of supply to catch up with demand in an increasing number of lines.

High taxes were another disturbing factor and one which it can be hoped will not plague our economy for too long. The contribution these taxes have made to higher prices is apparent. Then the internal situation, occasioning fears and doubts, has had its depressing effect.

All these factors have not only dampened enthusiasm about last year's prosperity but have engendered a mood of caution about the prospects for the coming year. The anticipated post-war recession has not yet materialized, perhaps because the changeover from a seller's to a buyer's market has been fairly gradual and progressive and there has been time for adjustment to be made. Further this trend has not yet hit some of the most important durable goods industries. The fact that there is still great backlog of demand for such products as steel and low-priced automobiles encourages confidence that the recession predicted first for 1947 and then for 1948 may not come in 1949 either.

While business groups, union labor and farmers have been able to raise their income as prices rose, civil servants, office workers, pensioners and non-union laborers have fallen behind in the race against living costs. The experiences of the '20's showed how the general prosperity could be undermined if the purchasing power of any large group—at that time it was the income of the farmers that suffered—was seriously impaired. It is hard now to assess the strength of inflationary factors but it is well to be aware of the dangers that may threaten us if they should prove dominant.

THE PRESS AND THE PUBLIC

UNDER THIS HEADING, the Barrie (Ont.) Examiner discusses the question of the rights of the public in attending meetings of the local council in connection with a ruling which makes it lawful for the mayor "to order the doors of the council chamber to be closed and when the doors shall be directed to be closed, all persons, except the members and clerk, shall retire."

Says the Examiner:

"When this procedure is carried out at every meeting, it seems to be getting a long way from democratic practice. It would appear to be contrary to the Ontario Municipal Act which states: 'The ordinary meeting of every council shall be open and no person shall be excluded therefrom except for improper conduct.'

"Some of the councillors believe they have more freedom of discussion and can handle the town's business better when the ratepayers are not present."

When any government, whether a village or town council or a national parliament, begins to feel it can handle the business of the people better behind closed doors, it's time for the people to protect their business, or they may find themselves "bankrupt."

The Barrie Examiner's action is a classic example of a nation's free press serving its public by giving the warning signal against autocracy in government.

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Despite a decrease in revenue of more than $21,000, the city's annual surplus in 1923 was greater than 1922. Economy measures by council and city departments were given as the cause.

The Whalen Pulp and Paper Co.'s tug Frances Cutting and the Canadian National car ferry used to transport pulp between Swanson Bay and Prince Rupert went aground at Watson Rock, 25 miles south of the city.

Nineteen candidates entered their names as aldermanic candidates. C. H. Orme and W. E. Wilson were elected by acclamation to the School Board.

Thirty-Five Years Ago

Keen interest was being shown on the eve of the 1914 civic elections. The entire front page of the Daily News was devoted to campaign news with the exception of two short stories—one telling about a strike and martial law in South Africa and the other about a volcano in Japan.

K. Ikeda, a Japanese mining man from the Queen Charlotte Islands, was in the city. It was reported that the Granby Co. was interested in his properties.

Herring were running in large schools in the harbor and several boats were making catches. One Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. boat got 50 tons in one day.

Collection of Minerals Taken

A Ketchikan old timer, C. F. Harrison, reports what he thinks is an unusual theft.

He had a trunkful of valuable mineral samples it had taken him 50 years to collect. He had a special lock made. There were specimens from famous mines, now worked out; also samples rich in free gold.

Harrison says he cannot understand what anyone outside of a university collector, would want with the property.

The lock was picked. The collection has vanished.

Services in the Church

SATURDAY SERMON

LIFE ETERNAL

(By Rev. G. E. Sendall, First Presbyterian Church)

"Tis life whereof our nerves are scant,
 "More life and fuller, that I want."

The Christian gospel is about this: the life more full, richer, deeper, life of an enduring quality which will never pass away. Jesus said: "I am come that ye might have life and that ye might have it more abundantly." I John 5:12, reiterates the statement: "He that hath the Son hath life, he that hath not the Son of God hath not life."

The underlying message of the New Testament is this proclamation of a life taken up in the enduring fellowship of God through His Holy Spirit dwelling in the hearts and lives of those who acknowledge the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

This is a tremendous chain. That the Creator of Heaven and earth comes to dwell in our hearts by faith; that we can be partakers of the divine nature; sons of God and heirs of the Kingdom of Heaven. "Know ye not," said St. Paul, "that your bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost, whose ye are." This affirmation then that Eternity enters time and life's human lives onto a higher plane is constantly made.

We judge life by its highest possibilities not by its lowest alone. And the best we know of human personality, of heart and mind and will, has been revealed to us by Jesus, the Revelator of God. God, we say must be like Jesus, the best we know. When men are confronted with God in Christ and a transformation in their personality occurs, they are quite certain His deathless life has been made available to them.

Some men go through life without ever becoming aware of the world of beauty and color which he may hear about but never enter. Nor can a deaf person thrill at the rise of a symphony. Likewise one must become alive, aware of spiritual life, or remain dead to its reality.

Coming alive is being born spiritually, the awakening of the highest part of man's nature to God in Christ and his redemptive work in saving man from the deadening effects of a secular nature.

Eternal life is fellowship with the Eternal God and as spirit transcends time, it is not limited by temporal sequences, the final of which is death; we now enter the life of eternity. It is a mutation, if you will, into a higher kind of existence, a higher stage in the development of personality.

How do we know what we have eternal life? I John tells us: "Hereby know we dwell in him and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be Savior of the World." "We know that we have passed from death unto life because we love the brethren."

HEALTH INSURANCE

It would give insured persons free choice of doctors, plus "local grass-roots administration and full use of voluntary plans providing medical services."

OLD-AGE INSURANCE
The same group also is sponsoring an extension of federal old-age insurance to another 25,000,000 persons and a doubling of old-age benefits, which Mr. Truman said now averages $25 a month.

Dingell and the three senators said in a statement that their health bill will include these points:

1. Employed persons, self-employed persons and their dependents would be eligible.

2. Insured persons would be entitled to medical and dental service from general practitioners and specialists, home nursing and hospital care, laboratory services; X-rays, expensive prescribed medicines, eye-glasses and appliances such as artificial limbs.

3. Every qualified doctor, dentist, nurse and hospital would be guaranteed the right to participate or not, and to accept or reject patients. No participating hospital would be subject to government control.

4. The insurance fund, not the patient, would pay "fair and adequate" fees to participating doctors and dentists.

Oscar Ewing, federal security administrator, whose main job is national health, favors a payroll-deduction plan starting at one-half of one percent on the first $4,800 of annual income, rising to three percent for top-bracket employees. Employer and employee would pay equal shares. Ewing would administer any health scheme. It presumably would not go into operation for several years, until a sufficient fund had been accumulated.

ORANGE LADIES PLAN SOCIAL

Appointment of a committee to convene a social evening to be held on February 10 was a feature of the business session of the Ladies Orange Benevolent Association during the meeting held Thursday evening in the Oddfellows Hall.

Appointed to the entertainment committee were Mrs. F. Barber, Mrs. William Denton, Mrs. Frank Ellison, Mrs. J. F. Feasby, Mrs. A. Hamilton, Mrs. A. Lund and Mrs. C. McIntyre.

The meeting also heard a report by Mrs. M. Viereck regarding the Christmas party, for which Mrs. Viereck and her committee received a vote of thanks.

Chairman of the meeting was Mrs. W. Way, Mrs. H. Paulsen, Worthy Deputy Mistress. The meeting concluded with refreshments. Date of the next regular meeting is January 27.

ARMSTRONG, B.C. — Shareholders of the Armstrong Co-operative Society have decided to replace their present quarters with a modern department store. They voted to authorize a bond issue not to exceed $100,000 at four percent.

IT WAS NO PICNIC FOR 'MR. ZERO'—The league-leading Detroit Red Wings went on their wildest scoring spree of the National Hockey League season when they whipped the second-place Boston Bruins 10-2, in a recent encounter played at Detroit. It was a goal feast for the Wings off Goalie Frank Brimsek, Boston's veteran "Mr. Zero" (above), who turned back only 24 of the 34 shots fired at him while yielding 10 markers. It was the worst rout the lads from Bean Town have suffered all year.

"MR. HANDS"—Ted Strong, guard and playing coach of the Harlem Globetrotters, who will be here with the championship professional team on January 24-25. Six feet, three inches tall and weighing 215 pounds, Strong can handle a basketball like the average person handles an orange—his hands have a 12-inch span, said to be the largest in the game. What he can do with a basketball on a court is unbelievable. In addition to his hoop prowess, he is one of the best hitters in Negro baseball, in which he plays right field in midwest pro leagues.

ONE MAN SHOW—Jesse Owens, 1936 Berlin Olympics sprint star, who will be one of the added attractions to come here with the Harlem Globetrotters on January 24-25. His work at Ohio State University and the 1936 Olympics has made him probably the most famous sprint and jumping star of all time. Touring with the Trotters, he is giving exhibitions of his specialties—demonstrating starts and hurdle-jumping and other racing techniques. He will, if he can get a couple of hurdles, put on a real show for the fans.

Today in Sports

BABE BETWEEN

Fate and Father Time finally caught up with George Howe and his league-leading Co-op seniors in their last game against Bo-Me-Hi Rainmakers and today finds Don Fitch, first string guard, looking towards that ole rockin' chair. Don became entangled with a few arms and legs of the student outfit and in the scramble came up with a rather painful knee injury that will end his playing days. Mind you, Don never did kick about anything as small as a crooked knee but God gave him but two of those valuable joints and this is the only good one he had left. He has bought himself a brand new auto to make matters easier and will now watch his buddies toil with that old college try until they also decide the court is getting much too large.

Tonight Brownwoods will attempt to gain a victory, their first over the fishmen, and they should do so. They are playing their best ball since their entry into senior ranks last season and with their youth, have a definite advantage over their much older opponents. In their last meeting with the Co-op, they were minus Jim Forman who makes a great difference to their general effectiveness on the court.

Savoys suffered a great loss this week when Joe Davis decided to try the fishing banks again and latest reports are that Eddie Ciccone will also follow the sea lanes in the near future. The hotelmen dropped their last two starts by a mere point, one to Brownwoods and the other to the High School boys after taking a win from the Co-op just previous to their slump, they are taking a bit hard. Poor free throw work was their downfall in both their recent losses with a percentage of somewhere around fifteen.

Fashion Footwear, intermediate league leaders will meet the cream of that division at Port Simpson tonight.

Bob Woods and George Brown, popular sponsors of Brownwoods, are hosts tonight to their team at a get-together and it might be just the time to do their part and have a victory to talk over in the course of the evening.

Harlem Globe Trotters are still favorites to take the locals here January 24 and 25 by a slight hundred or so points but when it is considered that we will be short Fitch, Davis etc., they won't have so much to crow about.

Vancouver papers mentioned this week that the Trotters will be out this way soon but they make no mention of any showings in Vancouver by the popular negro quintette. It is hoped that the fifteen or sixteen hundred fans that will witness the show here will appreciate the fact that they will be in on nothing less than the top show in the world in its line and a show that has been featured in Madison Square Garden and other large centres in the U.S.A.

Before closing we might mention that Sonny Beynon is again a pappy and looks right proud these days.

LONGBOAT DEATH RECALLS FEATS OF FAMOUS RUNNER

TORONTO—The death of Tom Longboat, Canada's famous long-distance runner of almost a half-century ago brings many memories to sportswriters. Ivan (Hamilton Spectator) Miller relays this story about the lanky Indian marathoner from Hamilton's well-known runner, Bobby Kerr.

It was in Buffalo in the 17th Regiment Armory, back in 1909, I believe. Longboat, a marathoner, willingly agreed to run a three-mile race against George Bonhag, one of the greatest all-American middle-distance men. On the one side was Bonhag, trained to a fine finish and running a distance that was natural for him.

"On the other was Tom, a marathoner, wearing old sneakers and ill-equipped, apart from his natural ability and determination, to run against a highly trained, experienced and outstanding star.

"However, the two started, and for every inch of the three miles they ran stride for stride. As they neared the finish, eyes bulging, Bonhag tried in vain to edge in front. Longboat hung on evenly, so close, they crashed into the tape in a dead heat."

NEGRO PLAYER PUT ON SPOT

ATLANTA—Jackie Robinson, Negro second baseman says he will play baseball for the Brooklyn Dodgers if they tell him to, despite opposition from the Ku Klux Klan.

That was his reaction last night after the Klan questioned whether he and Dodger catcher Roy Campanella, also a Negro, could legally play against the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association.

The Dodgers are scheduled to meet the Crackers here April 8, 9 and 10 in exhibition games.
