Russians Reduce Germans To Cannibalism

Season's Coldest Weather Is Followed by Epidemic of Fires

Coldest weather so far this winter—a brisk 13 degrees of frost—set many a Prince Rupert householder thawing his water pipes this morning and gave the city fire department its busiest morning in weeks as shivering citizens wielded blow torches and stoked their heating plants too exuberantly.

Overnight official minimum, which has set a winter's record to date, was 19 degrees above, seven degrees lower than Sunday night. However, Sunday night's frost was abetted by light breeze that penetrated homes and made heating a greater problem. There was no wind last night.

Four fires, one a boat blaze, kept the city fire department in action between 5 o'clock and 10 o'clock this morning. One of the three house fires was caused by a blowtorch being used to thaw water pipes, one by an overheated stove and one by an exploding water jacket in a kitchen range.

At the Imperial Oil dock at 4:55 this morning, an overheated oil stove in the galley of the halibut boat and packer Mitkoff, operated by Nelson Bros., started a fire that badly damaged the forecastle and engine room before it was put out by the fire department after a two-hour fight.

Efforts of the fire department confined the blaze below decks on the Mitkoff, Capt. Oscar Petersen, but interior damage was considerable. The pilot house was paint-blistered from the heat. The vessel is now at the dry dock.

A defective oil stove caused flaming oil to ignite the bulkhead between the engine room and forecastle and the flames spread to both compartments. There is believed to be no serious hull damage.

At 8:45, an overheated oil range caused a blaze in the kitchen of the residence of R. H. Joyce, 420 Fourth Avenue West. It was put out by the firemen before much damage was done.

Frozen water pipes in the home of Clarence Thomson, 729 Sixth Avenue West were responsible for a fire which did slight damage in the basement. A blowtorch, used to thaw the pipes started a blaze that burned part of the basement floor and wall before the department got it under control.

EXPLOSION IN KITCHEN RANGE

Mrs. John Negreiff, of 1430 Eighth Avenue East, escaped possible serious injury at 10 o'clock this morning when an explosion damaged the kitchen range in her home. The water jacket in the stove, its circulation shut off by frozen pipes, exploded shortly after Mrs. Negreiff let the room. Parts of the stove were shattered but no fire ensued. However, the fire department answered the call.

Complete lack of snow in the city eliminated traffic hazards from that source although more than one motorist found himself walking to work because of the action of extreme cold on vehicles that were not sheltered.

Skates were in evidence, draped over the shoulders of young people taking advantage of the cold snap to get in some skating on frozen ponds around the city.

COMMENT UPON POST ARTICLE

Both Vancouver Afternoon Papers Have Something To Say

"Prince Rupert has brought North American fame to British Columbia through a full length Saturday Evening Post article by Richard L. Neuberger," says the Vancouver Sun.

The writer tells his large American audience that B.C.'s north settlement has supplanted Seattle as the gateway to Alaska. Until 1942, he says, Prince Rupert did not realize its key position in world trade. Then Americans realized they could save money and time by using it as an outlet for supplies to Alaska and the Far East. Seattle regards the mushrooming port as a nightmare, the author says.

The Vancouver Province also has a write-up on the Neuberger article.

Seattle Is Found 'Soaking' Alaska

SEATTLE — The terminal tariffs which went into effect on the docks of Puget Sound a year ago have now been found by the United States Maritime Commission in a decision signed in January to be both unjust and unreasonable and in violation of the law. The new increased scale of charges was opposed by Alaska interests.

Increase In Wages

Recommended By Majority Report In Coal Miners' Dispute

EDMONTON (CP)—Report of a three-man government-appointed board, released today, while not unanimous, at least takes a step towards clarifying the wage dispute which has made 10,000 miners in Alberta and British Columbia idle since January 13.

A flat wage increase of $2 per day retroactive to December 3 is recommended in majority report of the board with the employers' representative, W. C. Ives, dissenting.

MINE DISASTER IN ARKANSAS

Eight Men Killed In Blast—Investigation Is Proceeding

GREENWOOD, Arkansas — Investigators are today going into the nearby Sunshine coal mine, seeking the cause of an explosion that killed eight miners, three of them brothers.

The blast occurred yesterday afternoon as day and night shifts were preparing to change. All the dead were day workers.

Veteran Newsman Suffers Collapse

OTTAWA—P. D. Ross, proprietor of the Ottawa Journal, and still active in its daily production, took a weak turn recently while walking along the street. He was taken to hospital but managed to be up and about again before long. He was apparently as well as ever.

ROYAL GIFT—The picture was taken recently when Chief Heber Lewis Clifton, on behalf of his people of the Hartley Bay Indian village, presented two carved gold bracelets to Indian Agent F. E. Anfield for transmission to Princess Elizabeth as a wedding gift. The engravings recall a legend of the coming of royalty to the natives of the north coast. The picture shows Mr. Anfield and Chief Clifton.

Priest Advocates Canal In Alaska

SANTA CLARA, Cal.—Father Bernard Hubbard, the celebrated "glacier priest" from Alaska, in a recent interview here, advocated the construction of a canal, so that sufficient materials could reach the interior of Alaska, enabling the completion of defence work "in case of conflict with northern Asia." From here, Father Hubbard intends going to Washington.

VANCOUVER IS BURIED

Traffic Tied Up On Lower Mainland and Vancouver Island

VANCOUVER — Heaviest snowfall of the winter tied up traffic throughout the Lower Mainland of British Columbia this morning.

Nearly two inches of wet snow was reported in lower sections of Vancouver. By 8:30 a.m. the snow was deeper, ranging up to nine inches in suburban Burnaby.

Three-quarters of a foot of snow was also reported at Abbotsford in the Fraser Valley at 4:30 a.m.

Over on Vancouver Island deep snow caused the closing of schools in the Parksville area.

Coast Storm Is Subsiding

But Not Before Five Men Lose Lives and Much Damage Done

VANCOUVER, —The blinding blizzard and gale, which has been whipping 700 miles of the Pacific Northwest coast since the week-end, sinking the fish packer Amaryliss in Queen Charlotte Strait and drowning a total of five men as well as battering 11 ships, is subsiding today.

Heavy seas from Oregon to Queen Charlotte Strait brought up distress calls from shipping, disrupted communication lines and did thousands of dollars damage to property.

Darrell Huson of Alert Bay and Frederick Bates and Jacob Olsen of Vancouver were drowned when the Amaryliss sank on Saturday after being swamped by 20-foot waves.

Peter Anderson of Astoria was drowned when a dinghy capsized as he was taking a pilot from a freighter at the mouth of the Columbia River.

A fifth unidentified seaman was washed overboard from the tanker Tidewater at Near Bay, Washington.

The tug's Rosalie, Belmont Wireless and Dola each radioed "SOS" messages as a 75-mile an hour gale further swelled the mountainous seas. All are now reported safe.

The Dola's tow, a scow carrying $100,000 worth of lumber, cut loose and adrift, was lost off Egg Island in Queen Charlotte Sound.

SYNAGOGUE WAS ARMED

British Army Communique Reports Bombing of Sniper's Nest

JERUSALEM —The British Army announced today that a synagogue in the Tel Aviv-Jaffa border area was damaged when military forces blew it up as well as an adjoining house suspected of being a sniper's nest.

The Army said: "A demolition bomb did some damage to the synagogue the adjoining wall of which was found to be reinforced.

"On searching the synagogue four sten guns, eleven magazines and four grenades were found beneath the rostrum."

HINDUS KILL 2000 MOSLEMS

Invaders of Kashmir Reported To Have Been Slain

NEW DELHI —The Indian Press said today that Indian troops in northern Kashmir state have killed "well over 2,000" Moslem invaders in a major battle including two officers who appeared to be foreigners.

Stories, date-lined Jammu, capital of Kashmir's southern Jammu Province, said the slain were among probably 11,000 invaders attacking in waves in a major drive on Naoshera, about 50 miles northwest of there.

The attackers were put to flight with machine-gun fire and hand-to-hand fighting, dispatches reported, and the Indian troops undertook an aggressive mopping up.

Ottawa Teachers Threaten Strike

OTTAWA—Two hundred separate Ottawa school lay teachers are insisting on salary increases and, if some action is not taken, there will be a strike. Teachers say they are thoroughly "fed up" with delays and half promises and excuses. The teachers expect the School Board to make definite and immediate provision to increase salaries on the basis that onus had been up to the board in making its estimates.

Terrible Story Is Given Out by Frankfurt Police

FRANKFURT (CP)—Bernhard Oehme, 65-year-old German of Chemnitz in the Russian zone, was reported by police today to have said he killed, cooked and ate his sister, Maria Oehme, 26, Dena (German) News Service said today.

Maria was missed by relatives in mid-January.

Search of the Oehme house revealed that meat in pots, buckets and dishes was human flesh.

Reopening Of Canal

WASHINGTON — Announcement is made by the army that another section of the Canol pipe line is being reopened to enable the pumping of diesel oil from the port of Skagway to Fairbanks. The reopening of the section between Whitehorse and Big Delta, Alaska, will cost $5,000. This reopening of the line will ease the whole oil transport situation in the north.

HAD ACCIDENT IN CALIFORNIA

Syd Hamblin Recovering After Collapse of Parade Stand

Syd Hamblin, during his recent holiday visit to Southern California, suffered an accident that, although painful enough at first, was not serious. He is making a satisfactory recovery and is able to be up and around as usual. In Los Angeles, Mr. Hamblin was watching a rose carnival parade. To get an unobstructed view, he was sitting on an elevation that suddenly gave way and next moment he found himself on the ground with an injured shoulder but no bones were broken.

Mr. Hamblin says that during the time he was south, there was not the slightest suggestion of winter. Southern California was experiencing the hottest weather in more than thirty years. Speaking of the cost of living, he mentioned that markets are well supplied and he was unable to see much difference in the cost of staples here in Northern British Columbia and in Los Angeles. In quite a few lines, one is liable to pay more in California but not to any great extent.

FORCE FOR PALESTINE

Palestine Partition Commission Hopes to Get Approval Granted

LAKE SUCCESS — A strong and urgent appeal for a United Nations armed force is reported ready for final approval of the Palestine partition commission. The five-member commission is said authoritatively to have agreed on vital sections of the document.

Members hope to approve the final draft today and to speed it to the security council.

Lost $1000 In Cash As His Home Burns

COLUMBIA, Pa.—It cost 79-year old Jerry McConly $1,000 to get warm here lately. He lighted an auxiliary oil heater to warm his home, for the mercury dipped to seven below. The house owner, 78 had hidden a wallet containing $1,000 in the heater oven. Smoke refreshed his memory but it was then too late.

So We Are Defeatist?

WE ARE AFRAID that Prince Rupert people will not be very appreciative of an article appearing in a Seattle newspaper last week, in which Ralph Browne, former American soldier stationed at Prince Rupert and now engaged in newspaper work at Ketchikan, declares that "it can be seen that Prince Rupert offers no more threat to capturing Alaska trade than does San Diego" and that Prince Rupert's dreams are being shattered largely "because of a strange attitude which has hovered over the city for almost forty years" and which, it would appear from the article, still persists.

Browne's article contains various statements which cannot be said to make very favorable publicity for Prince Rupert although he does suggest that Prince Rupert could have been different if the people had been different. The former G.I. suggests that a spirit of defeatism in Prince Rupert is general.

Rather than being defeatist, we would call the attitude of the people of Prince Rupert one of buoyant confidence in the future. In fact we would say that practically all are in agreement with the sentiments of one of the real old timers who said a couple of days ago that "The basis of the city's future progress is doubtless sounder than ever before—As I see it there is no place that offers a better opportunity today."

The energy with which the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, the city council go ceaselessly on with the fight for the recognition, development and use of the port, trying to be reasonable and realistic in their approach and claims, cannot be taken as defeatism surely.

The Seattle paper, of course, seized on the Browne epic of "the rise and fall of Prince Rupert's postwar hopes" as "timely" after Richard L. Neuberger wrote an article picturing Prince Rupert as "threatening Seattle's Alaska trade."

ANOTHER GOLD RUSH?

A CENTURY AGO last month, gold was discovered in California and, on that basis, was built in industry, and enterprise, a great and thriving State of the American Union.

Half a century ago, the Klondyke strike, like that of California, brought people from the ends of the earth. But they did not stay. Dawson was too cold and far away. The general idea was to make a stake and leave—although some are there yet.

Will there ever be another major stampede? Even should it take place, could there be a third rush, such as the days of 'Forty-Nine and the creeks of the Yukon?

SOROPTOMIST CLUB

PRINCE RUPERT never suffered from a dearth of organizations. In fact, it has been often said to be over-organized. Notwithstanding this, the newly organized Soroptomist Club, which comes into official being with inauguration and installation of officers tonight, is welcome. Its distinction is that it is an organization of classifications of women in business for themselves or holding positions of executive nature.

Soroptomist is Prince Rupert's first service club of women. If it were only a social organization, it would be unnecessary. But, with community service and betterment as its prime aim while being a link in an international organization, it should fill a place of useful function.

Service clubs are not new to Prince Rupert. There are the now venerable Rotary and Gyro Clubs and the comparatively youthful Kinsmen, each of which have long since justified their existence through the works they have done or are doing. Soroptomist will, no doubt, soon commence to justify itself in similar manner.

CANADIAN APPEAL FOR CHILDREN

I am happy to endorse the Canadian Appeal for Children for I have witnessed with my own eyes the privation and suffering which the children of war devastated countries are enduring.

These children are helpless to help themselves and it is a duty which everyone owes to humanity to do all in his power to alleviate their sad plight. The future of the world depends on these children of today; their welfare must be protected.

I know that all Canadians will do all that they are able to support this worthy cause.

LETTERBOX

IN A DAZE

Editor, Daily News:

I note with surprise and pleasure the move to have postal rates reduced. We had the rates jacked up to pay for the last war, as well as the first one. Next thing it will be five cents.

The same applies to stamps on checks. With taxes of all kinds there is little left—after paying tribute to Ottawa.

On top of these things we have the many reports, statistics etc., to make out for the government—since the present bureaucratic system was invented. It seems to be time to cut down on these things but instead they get worse and there is no pay for this work.

Recently we were deprived of cabbage and sundry luxuries in order to save dollars. This seems like straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel when compared to the millions we send across the line for coal, oil and gas.

That feature of the matter is very small when we consider just what position Canada would be in were the States to put an embargo on those things completely. How many more centuries are we going to go along in this trance? Imagine the situation if we were cut off of these imports for a week or two. Think of what would happen. I do not suppose anything will be done about that, any more than has been done, by our great statesmen.

With Russia finding it necessary to cut the cost of production, and they are now using millions of slaves, just where does Canada and the States stand in the world situation and foreign trade when we are paying up to $2.99 an hour for labor. Possibly all these things will make it necessary to revert to the old way of each one producing for his own needs alone as the first settlers did. The present generation could not take the gaff, however.

These, and many other matters could be discussed indefinitely, to their final conclusions and ramifications, but why waste the time? All that now remains to complete the picture is to see King as Governor General.

LEGION LADIES JOIN LOCAL FILM COUNCIL

Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion have joined other organizations in the city in becoming members of the Prince Rupert Film Council, the organization responsible for distributing National Film Board and other films in the city. Decision was made at the monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary Thursday night.

Arrangements for the annual banquet on March 15 and for the spring sale were made at the meeting. A well-filled cedar chest will be among the prizes at the sale.

Three new members were initiated and the various committees reported visiting Miller Bay Hospital and the Pioneer Home. Usual donations to institutions supported by the W.A. were approved.

The business meeting was followed by the playing of bingo and the serving of refreshments. Chairman of the meeting was Mrs. J. S. Black, W.A. president. There was a good turnout of members.

Mrs. R. J. Sprott, after spending the past couple of weeks in the city on Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, and Soroptomist Club organizational work, is sailing by the Princess Adelaide tonight on her return to Vancouver.

Yours, in a daze,
D. T. GREENE.

FEATHERED TRIANGLE

Rave the Raven Still Presses His Suit

'Rave the Raven' has apparently become a part of the eternal triangle. Nothing, not even the risk of catching pneumonia, will prevent him from doing his utmost to win an approving look from "Gertie the Gull."

Bathing isn't something one usually associates with the Raven clan but at the week-end the tide was again exposing the mud flats of Hays Creek and Rave, knee-deep (or whatever a bird's first leg joint is known as) in the fresh-water stream, was at least going through the motions. Churning the water with his large beak, he made a great act of cleansing himself. He was daring about the whole thing. He even ruffled his feathers to let the water penetrate but when a splash of icy water hit his body his immediate reaction was an undignified hop to dry land.

Gertie, under the watchful eye of a boy friend, sat leisurely dowsing herself with water nearby. Occasionally she would give Rave a glance over a feathered shoulder which appeared to be all the encouragement he needed to brave the icy water again. Rave's actions, while in the water, were an awkward imitation of Gertie's but although figuratively speaking, he might have been floating on air, in reality his feet were very securely planted on the mud bottom. Of course his now-I'm-in-now-I'm-out routine bore no resemblance to any actions of his favored lady, that was just something beyond his control.

Whether or not Rave is making an impression on Gertie's affections is doubtful; chances are if he survives love's trials he will have only a broken heart to show for it.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Prince Rupert's Job's Daughters celebrated its fifth birthday anniversary Friday night with a social evening which followed the regular business meeting of the organization. Part of the business included the granting of majority degrees on seven members who had reached the age of 20. They were Marie Boulter, Glenys Lashmar, Bernice Eastwood, Jean Clark and Dorothy McLeod.

In honor of the Bethel's birthday, Queen Solveig Mork cut a large birthday cake which had been donated by Miss Molly Frew. Entertainment took the form of community singing and vocal solos by Miss Joanne Langridge. Accompanist was Miss Laverna Linney. The function took place in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. John Linney continues to make splendid recovery at the Prince Rupert General Hospital but will be a patient there for at least another few days, to Vancouver.

Miss Glenys Lashmar is sailing tonight on the Princess Adelaide for Vancouver enroute to Courtenay, Vancouver Island, where she will join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lashmar, who moved south recently, and take up future residence.

THE WORLD'S FUTURE IS BEING DECIDED NOW GIVE TO THE CANADIAN APPEAL FOR CHILDREN.

OUR TOMORROWS depend on what happens to the world's children TODAY. In ruined lands around the globe there are millions of them in misery—scrambling for shreds of food on garbage dumps, shivering in rags. On the continent of Europe, half the children born since the war are already dead of malnutrition. Those who survive—there and elsewhere—are desperately in need of food and clothing. They need schooling, too, for their neglected minds grow as sick as their withered bodies...

"They are the future
If they are not saved, our world is lost"

Canadian Appeal for Children commences its campaign on February 9th to meet the challenge of these desperate and immediate needs. This is a campaign by the people of Canada, with a minimum objective of $10,000,000, to provide food, clothing and school supplies for the children—safeguard the health of expectant and nursing mothers—in devastated lands around the world.

Wherever possible, all donations will be used for the purchase of Canadian goods, which will be distributed under the direction of responsible United Nations operating agencies.

Organizations across Canada are co-operating in this campaign. It has national approval; is supported by industry, agriculture, education, labour, service clubs, cultural and other organizations.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED NOW. Your contribution—received at any Canadian Bank—will mean life instead of death for the children—and hope for the future peace of the world. You sympathize. You want to give. But good wishes and good wishes are not enough. Since you cannot be canvassed don't let failure to act on your conscience—turn your sympathy into good wishes into a tangible contribution—your bank NOW and GIVE.

If you as an individual or as a member of an organization are anxious to take an active part in this campaign, please get in touch with:

Good Ship of Soroptimism Launched With Impressive Inaugural Party

Twenty of Prince Rupert's representative executive women pledged themselves to promoting ideals of security of friendship, joy of achievement, dignity of service, integrity of profession and love of country that a larger fellowship in home, society, business for country and God might be the result. Taking of the pledge was one of several striking incidents in impressive ceremonies at a dinner in the Civic Centre at which the city's first women's service club, the Soroptimist Club of Prince Rupert, came into formal being. A gathering of forty-five persons, including representatives of various organizations, who came in testimony of their good wishes, were in attendance to see Mrs. Anna E. Sprott of Vancouver, past president of the American Federation of Soroptimist Clubs, conduct the proceedings, presenting the charter to Mrs. Willa W. Ray, the president, and installing the officers and pledging the members.

The invocation was by Rt. Rev. James B. Gibson, dean of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral, who also gave a spiritual message, admonishing the organization not to build without God and to realize that, in serving God, one served one's fellowman. Toast to the port of Prince Rupert was proposed by Miss Mary Morton, R.N., lady superintendent of Miller Bay Hospital, who expressed her pride, although she had not been here long, at being a resident of Prince Rupert, some of the fine attributes of which she enumerated. Through Soroptimism, she hoped to play some part in community life.

"Prince Rupert just gets in one's blood," declared Mayor Nora Arnold in responding to the toast. "I suppose it's because there is such a good feeling here, no prejudices, beauties of the scenery and such a spirit of buoyant optimism." She bestowed success for the newly installed club of which she was herself proud to be a member.

C. G. Ham spoke on behalf of the Gyro Club and other service organizations of the city in welcoming the Soroptimist Club on its inauguration and wishing it all success. The co-operation of these organizations in all work and projects having community betterment in mind could be counted upon.

Mrs. Caroline Parkin had been intrigued by Soroptimism because it was so far-reaching in its scope. She stressed the great help that women could be to men in dealing with difficult problems. She commended the promotion of bursaries for study in foreign languages as a service project.

Miss Barbara Smith saw two phases of activity in organizational work—routine and special occasions. She saw opportunity for inspirational activities within the community and opportunity for the Soroptimists to supplement the service work of the other clubs.

Lee M. Gordon, Rotary President, saw plenty of room for a women's service club in Prince Rupert. If the Soroptimists ever ran out of ideas for an objective, the Rotary Club could give them some. "Work that service clubs have done in Prince Rupert through the years have actually kept down the taxes," declared Mr. Gordon.

Mrs. D. C. Stuart, representing the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, and Miss Frances Cross, Business and Professional Women's Club, spoke briefly, adding their congratulations and felicitations.

An impressive incident was the candlelighting ceremony in which Mrs. Elizabeth MacKenzie, Miss Anne McLeod, Mrs. Rhena Ham, Miss Myrtle Vincent and Miss Mary Nelson recited briefly on the respective ideals of tolerance, wisdom, sincerity, friendship and service.

In presenting the charter, Mrs. Sprott expressed confidence that this most northwesterly club in Canada would keep up the high standards of international Soroptimism. She also presented as her personal gift a perpetual president's pin. The recipient, Mrs. Willa Ray, spoke briefly but appropriately.

SAILING ORDERS TO "GOOD SHIP"

Mrs. Sprott, in delivering the "sailing orders" to "Good Ship" Soroptimist, enumerated concepts of service for "a happy band of workers."

She told something of the history of Soroptimism which in England was an adjunct of Rotary but was not confined to such relationship in this country. In unity of thinking and towards the goal of international peace, she felt there was a great field of work for such organizations with ideals of "good friends, good fellowships and good work." Here in Prince Rupert, where with such an accomplishment as the Civic Centre had made this a fine place in which young people could live, there seemed to be a great opportunity for co-operative service.

Mrs. Sprott also made presentation of a handsome gavel from the Soroptimist Club of Greater Vancouver, a minute book, the gift of Lillian Lilloco, the secretary for Western Canada.

A long list of congratulatory messages from international officers and from other clubs were read—among them London, Eng.

Moose Card Party-Dance Is Enjoyable

The weekly program of card playing and dancing in the Moose Temple under auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose Saturday night was the usual enjoyable success. Card playing, which took up the early part of the evening, was under the direction of William Terry. Winners for the ladies were Mrs. B. J. Bacon and Mrs. A. Turcotte with W. Grindstrand and George McWhinney tallying high scores for the men.

Dancing to music provided by Steven's orchestra commenced at 10:30 with Carl E. Brechin as master of ceremonies. During intermission refreshments were served and prizes distributed to the winners at whist.

Mrs. Ross Richardson is leaving on tonight's train for Montreal. According to word received here her uncle, Dr. T. E. Donnelly, is critically ill. She expects to be away for six weeks.

International Basketball Series Wound Up Saturday

In a very dull finish to the International basketball series Saturday night at the Civic Centre, the Ketchikan All Stars easily defeated the local All Stars 55 to 43. The game was billed as an exhibition affair after the first two games which had decided the issue in Prince Rupert's favor.

The locals took the lead early in the game and at the end of the first quarter lead 13 to 9. They fell apart from then on and the visitors never had to extend themselves after they had captured the lead in the second quarter.

Rupert Holkestad was off with a sprained ankle and Jack Lindsay only played a few minutes of the game. These were, no

Canada Wins Olympic Ice Hockey Championship; Beats Switzerland

SHORT SPORT

Remember "National Velvet," that Hollywood opus of a few seasons back? It was based on a novel about a little girl who rode her horse to victory in the Grand National and then was disqualified because of a fuddy-duddy rule that bars women from riding at Liverpool's Aintree. Britain's movie-going race fans recalled the film when they read recently of the training program of Lovely Cottage, Irish-owned 1946 National victor, currently getting in shape at Bognor, Sussex, for this year's renewal. Regular rider for the Cottage as he practices for the thrills and chills of Becher's Brook is Caula Cleveland, 20-year old gympanka expert. In the evenings she works as a hotel receptionist but every morning early she's up and off over the jumps and along the sands with Lovely Cottage. Stablemen say they have rarely seen a horse so fond of its rider. Owner J. Morant says: "If Lovely Cottage wins this year, it will be largely through Miss Cleveland's efforts."

Trinidad's Olympic working committee has brightened Britain's track prospects for the Games by ruling that ace sprinter E. MacDonald Bailey may compete for the latter country at Wembley this summer. The West Indian R.A.F. veteran holds the A.A.A. 100 and 220-yard championships and the British record for the 100. The Trinidad body said it would not deprive Britain of Bailey's services since he had been "trained and encouraged" in England.

Rugger fans surveying the international teams whose members' average age is 28, frequently wonder where are the up-and-coming stars of the game. One who may have a big future in the game is 19-year old C. M. Wilkinson capped for the English Schoolboy teams of 1945-46. Wilkinson isn't playing rugged this season, but is training hard for the Olympic Games, in which he is considered a "probable" for Britain's track team. Fans in Canada and Australia are sending him regular food parcels and Wilkinson, weighing 161, figures he'll be in top form by July.

TERRACE SCHOOL STORY RECALLED

Interesting Addresses Feature Founders' Day Meeting

TERRACE — Founders' Day was observed at the February meeting of the Terrace Parent Teachers' Association in the Primary School on Thursday evening with two special speakers taking part.

Mrs. Moore, past president of 20 years ago gave an interesting talk on the meetings and work of the organization at that time when the school sport's equipment was purchased by the Association.

Mrs. Dover, who came to the district in 1911 as a teacher when the first school was opened at Kitsugakum, gave a very interesting talk on school work at that time. She recalled how, as the district grew and with it, the need of a larger school, there was quite a lot of contention between the residents of Kitsugakum and Terrace. At the meeting which was to decide the location of the new school the vote was evenly split and it was one man's casting vote which decided that the school should be built exactly halfway between Terrace and Kitsugakum.

Mr. Barr, high school principal, moved that Mrs. Dover's address should be kept in the files as belonging to the history of the district.

With Miss Annie Lips in the chair, the routine business of the meeting was quickly disposed of. A donation of $25 to the School Board towards the installation of electric lights in the elementary school was moved and a further donation of $25 will be given when the P.T.A. funds are replenished.

Mrs. McLeod is dressing a doll which she will donate to the P.T.A. to be raffled at the Easter tea.

Mr. Barr undertook to make all inquiries concerning a dental clinic which, it is felt, should be established in Terrace.

Mrs. Gavan was instructed to write to the Department of Health concerning iodine and calcium pills for the school children.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served and the usual Founders' Day silver collection was taken.

"I guess I know that Father Harry knows more than your Rabbi," the little Irish boy insisted.

"Sure he does; vy not?" replied the Jewish boy. "You tell him everyting."

HOW CAN I ???
By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Is washing soda ever harmful to the clothes?
A. Yes. Washing soda is a household necessity, but when used on laundry day if it is not rinsed out of the clothes thoroughly, the fibre of the goods will be weakened when the hot iron is applied.
Q. How can I keep the waffle iron clean?
A. It should be cleaned after each using, but do not use soap or water on it. A wire brush or a stiff-bristled kitchen brush is best for this purpose.

Reminiscences and Reflections
By W.J.

Some papers seem to have all the luck in the world. Here's the weekly News of St. John's, Quebec, which last week celebrated its centennial. In a hundred years of service, it has never missed an issue despite a couple of fires. No editors or reporters were ever beaten up, either. One of the fires broke out a couple of hours before press time but even then the News came out on time. With the exception of L. G. Gage, who rustles the news, staff members are French and speak French. Printed in a French province it circulates mainly in an English community. And everything appears to work fine through the succeeding generations.

Ben Sampson, who went to Southern California about a month ago, with the intention of possibly remaining there, says he is coming back! Intimated he is returning to God's country. Others, before this, have discovered that Skeena is not half so much of a hardship as some folk would have you believe and that it is not at all difficult to dwell in this part of Canada and enjoy life. One can really live in Northern B.C. without soliciting sympathy.

The old saying of "the first fifty years being the hardest" is not without a certain grim truthfulness. Back in 1904, Canadians first began hearing of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. By 1914 the line was built through to Prince Rupert. The next 30 years was something like a fairly well oiled treadmill. And now there are, at last, signs and indications of the real start being under way.

The thermometer placed at the Empress Theatre corner (Third Avenue and Sixth Street) has been smashed, much to the inconvenience and indignation
