B.C. Yards To Get Warship Contracts

$12,000,000 Jobs Coming

VANCOUVER—A Vancouver newspaper said today that contracts for $12,000,000 worth of new warship construction will be announced for British Columbia yards within a week or ten days.

A new type of craft will be a "baby destroyer" costing $8,000,000.

There will also be a new type of minesweeper.

Named Head Of Chamber

BANFF — Francis G. Winspear of Edmonton was today elected president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce at the annual convention here. He succeeds Robert A. Bryce of Toronto. Mr. Winspear is the head of a firm of chartered accountants.

Provincial appointments include Thomas Braidwood of Vancouver as vice-president, and J. L. Paethorpe of Penticton and Thomas Robertson of Chilliwack as directors. These are British Columbia's representatives.

Fruit Waste

Shoppers in Prince Rupert about buying fruit to the high prices, and apples are being thrown away around Victoria. Fruit farmers cannot pay the high costs of the fruit.

William Rance, local fruit grower, has returned from Victoria where he went to see the way fruit is being handled. There is a heavy loss of fruit, he says, that they have thrown away.

There were three weeks in which the condition is much better.

Organize For Blood Clinic

Canvassing areas for the Red Cross blood donor campaign September 25, 26 and 27 were allotted at a meeting of representatives of organizations at the Civic Centre last night. About 20 organizations were represented.

Time schedules for the mobile clinic are:

Monday, September 25—7 to 9:30 p.m.

Tuesday, September 26—1:30 to 4:30 p.m. and 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Wednesday, September 27—1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Wednesday, September 27—7 to 9:30 p.m. at Port Edward.

In outlining procedure for this year, T. Norton Youngs, chairman of the campaign committee, said last year the response had been better than expected and he hoped this year to do even better. There had been only two volunteers last year who were not permitted to make donations. This was a low average when compared with other parts of the province.

Donors will be met by receptionists on entering the clinic and will be given refreshment before the donation. After the donation they will also receive refreshment. The hospital will supply beds, but the clinic will supply bedding for donors. There will be ten beds for donors and another ten for resting after the donation. There will be two typing blood instead of one last year.

Cards will be filled in with donor's preference of an afternoon or an evening appointment. Appointments will be given by the co-ordinating committee so that donors will lose the least possible amount of time. Time required for the actual contribution is from three to seven minutes with a ten minute resting period afterwards. The blood is flown each day by plane to Vancouver. Blood for Prince Rupert is flown in each week. In that manner a constant supply of blood goes out to all points, although the clinic calls only once a year.

Donors who have given several times receive buttons to that effect.

Mrs. Don Llewellyn leaves tomorrow night on the Prince George for Westview, where she will visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rowe, and her mother, Mrs. E. Roberts, for a week before proceeding to Vancouver for the remainder of her holiday.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis

Most of the province continued to enjoy clear skies again this morning and indications are that this fine weather will continue through tomorrow. Much of the coast is covered by low cloud from the ocean. The cloud moved into the Vancouver region and through the Lower Fraser Valley during the early morning. This cloud will disappear over most land areas during the late morning but will persist over the water and along the more exposed sections of the coast. The cloud will reform in most south coastal regions again tonight.

A weak disturbance forming slowly off the coast is not expected to have any effect on the weather over the province in the next 48 hours.

Forecast

North Coast: Regions—Extensive banks low cloud and fog in southern sections. Mostly sunny northern sections. Little change in temperature. Winds light. Lows tonight and highs tomorrow at Port Hardy 48 and 55, Sandspit, 48 and 60, Prince Rupert 48 and 64.

General Marshall Named to Succeed Louis Johnson
WASHINGTON, D.C. — Secretary of Defence Louis Johnson resigned yesterday as Secretary of Defence and General George C. Marshall, former United States Army chief of staff and later Secretary of State, was nominated by President Truman to be his successor. The change takes effect next Tuesday.

There will have to be a special act of Congress to validate the appointment as, under the Constitution, any person who has been on active military services within ten years cannot be Secretary of Defence.

Mr. Johnson's resignation did not come as a complete surprise as he has been under fire for lack of military preparedness in connection with the Korean campaign.

"It is inevitable that, in the conscientious carrying out of one's duties, one must make more enemies than friends," Johnson said in announcing his resignation.

President Truman, in accepting the resignation, expressed the conviction that Mr. Johnson had been imbued with the utmost patriotism. "I salute him," he said.

Mr. Johnson recommended that General Marshall be appointed as his successor.

Would Take Woodworth Lake Water

Heated discussion followed the presentation by Ald. George Casey to the city council Monday night of a resolution by which the city would take for its own purposes all the water from Woodward Lake from which the Northern B.C. Power Co. has for years also taken water for its Shawatans Lake hydro plant. The resolution:

"Whereas Paragraph 31, page 12, in the agreement between Northern B.C. Power Co. and the City of Prince Rupert provides a procedure to follow in case the City of Prince Rupert, at the termination of the agreement in 1954, wishes to regain any portion of the power company's assets in the city or Woodward Lake area:

"Therefore be it resolved, in meeting assembled, that formal application be made to the power company to repurchase all land and water rights, dam, penstock and the 45 inch pipeline from the dam to the power plant along with what buildings the city may require."

In presenting the resolution, Ald. Casey said the city needed all the water in Woodward Lake for its own uses. He thought it advisable to repurchase the property and asked for support of the resolution.

Ald. T. B. Black asked if the city had ever been denied water when it was needed.

Ald. Casey replied that there was a proviso that at any time the water was running low the city could force the company to cease taking water but that sufficient water was not always available by gravity flow.

Ald. W. J. McLean said: "We waste a certain amount of water today" and, if there was no power developed, water would have to be released anyway.

Ald. Casey referred to the Bonnycastle report which stated a new line would have to be built back from the power plant to the dam to insure sufficient flow by gravity.

Ald. Black said the agreement was to keep the lake at certain levels and that the company had done that. He said he thought the resolution should have been shown to the city engineer before it was presented to the council. He said there was an enormous margin of safety between the flow into the lake and consumption by both the city and the company.

The resolution was referred to the board of works for investigation and, on advice of the city clerk, the motion to refer it back included a proviso that legal advice be obtained before it was re-presented to the council.

Secretary of Defence Quits

Election of officers was the principal business of the first meeting of the Conrad Street Parent - Teachers Association which was held in the school Tuesday evening.

The slate of officers for the coming season is as follows:

President—Mrs. John F. Denning.

Vice-President—W. D. Griffiths.

Secretary—Mrs. Martin Hansen.

Treasurer—Mrs. Leslie Murdoch.

Social Convener—Mrs. C. Johansen.

Retiring President Harold Thom, in handing over the reins to the new president, proposed hearty thanks to outgoing executive for excellent co-operation and untiring work during the past year. He listed as definite achievements in which the P.T.A. had played an active part, the obtaining of additional playground space for the school, the setting up of a new school zone on Sixth Avenue East in order to avoid the dangerous corner at sixth and Donald and several successful social functions.

T. G. Bateman, school principal, in addressing members praised the work done by past P.T.A.'s, and expressed the hope that past accomplishments would serve as incentive for this year's P.T.A. to follow.

He also urged all parents with their children's school welfare at heart to attend and to take active part in P.T.A. work. He promised the work would prove not only helpful, interesting and educational, but would be relaxing socially as well.

It was the highlight of the day's action on the whole 125-mile front which was whipped by the edges of a typhoon.

To the west the South Korean Eighth Division punched several miles ahead in a drive-east of Yongchon. It had thrust twelve miles in three days.

North and northwest of Taegu the situation was described as "continuously fluid."

Red Koreans pushed First Cavalry Division elements off a hill nine miles northwest of Taegu but the cavalry elements seized high ground "north of Waegwan area" Tuesday night, a communique reported. "They made gains and we make gains," a spokesman said. "They push us and then we push them."

TO TAKE OFFENSIVE
Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker told his Eighth Army at Pusan today that it will "take the offensive in a very short period of time."

In a fighting talk to front-line troops, Walker said: "Soon we are going to give up the attitude of defence which delaying action has forced upon us. As soon as we start forward and break the crust in front of us, the enemy will fold. We can feel enemy weakening now."

Walker said that, in some positions, the North Koreans are actually pulling out now."

Shipyard Activity

PRINCE Rupert's fine shipyard, which played such an important part in ship construction during World War II and to a lesser degree in World War I, will, doubtless, participate in the new program of naval ship construction which Defence Minister Brooke Claxton told the Canadian Chamber of Commerce is to be undertaken. That such ships will be built here is to be accepted as a matter of course since an essence of the present defence preparedness campaign is the speed with which it is carried out and the full advantage that must be taken of all facilities.

It is too bad that our local shipyard should have to depend on wars or war scares to give it a full measure of usefulness but, unfortunately, that appears to be the situation.

However, its capabilities are well known, if sometimes overlooked, and, in another emergency, such as now appears to be developing, full advantage will, doubtless, be taken of it.

Ere long we should be hearing again the clang of the steel platens and the rattle of the riveters as Prince Rupert, too, plays its role in the spurred defence program.

CATS LOAFING ON JOB

MANY cities in Canada are making a special effort to curb the activities of a rat population that is steadily increasing and causing millions of dollars damage annually. They are not utilizing the services of cats but are depending largely on traps of one sort or another to do the work.

A member of the United States biological survey accuses American cats of loafing on the job. And to prove it he cites the fact that rats, which cats are supposed to exterminate, annually cause a property damage of at least $126,000,000 in that country.

The biological survey evidently expects every cat to do his or her duty.

Whether the failure of cats to live up to this expectation is due to indulgent owners stuffing them with canned salmon and other delicacies, which takes the edge off their predatory instinct, we leave to the pro-catters to write about.

The biological survey contents itself with observing that "the cat is not a very satisfactory control to the rat situation."

KNOW YOUR GOVERNMENT

EVERY Canadian should have a general knowledge of how the government operates, because every Canadian of voting age has the opportunity of taking a hand in running the country, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce declares in a new publication "Know Your Government," which has just been issued.

"The function of government is reaching deeper and deeper into our lives every year," the Chamber publication says. "The work of government gets more complicated every day. But there are a few fundamental facts about our political way of doing things which still remain true, and they are worth reviewing now and again."

The booklet "Know Your Government" covers some of these facts in broad outline, dealing with the Canadian Constitution, relations between the Dominion and the Provinces, the functions of Parliament, the Cabinet and the Courts. The duties of the Governor-General, the Senate and the House of Commons are examined, and the machinery of passing a law. A short outline of the work of the various government departments is given, and a brief survey of provincial and local governments. Lists of Cabinet members, and members of the House of Commons and the Senate are also included.

In announcing publication of the booklet, the President of the Canadian Chamber, Robert A. Bryce, commented: "The strongest protection for democracy is an informed electorate. The voters must be informed on the issues of the day, but equally important, they should understand how the democratic machinery of government works. The Canadian Chamber is trying with this booklet to provide a popular, short outline of Canada's governmental processes. There are, of course, some excellent scholarly studies in this field, but not, we believe, enough works suitable for wide popular distribution. We hope that 'Know Your Government' will stimulate wider interest in how democratic government works in this country."

By ELMORE PHILPOTT
Why Wives Work

HERE IS THE KIND of letter I love to get, because it packs a real punch:

"Dear Sir:
"A few days ago you were discussing the reasons for married women working. But you left out the main point, no doubt because you didn't want to hurt the ego of the male species as they have so successfully pulled the wool over the eyes of John Q. Public these many centuries.

"Hundreds and thousands of wives are working because of no-good husbands. Some husbands are earning good wages but are perfect tight-wads. Others are too lazy to work.

"I am working out because my husband raises h— over $50, $60 or $85 a month. On that I am expected to feed, clothe, buy fuel, pay for fire insurance, etc., etc., for a family of five.

"What are Old Age Pensioners beefing about? They are having a sweet time compared to myself and others.

"There is another woman working in the same place with me because of a no-good man who has money to spend on drinks and women but none on his wife and children. I dare you to write a column on the true facts of women and what they think of these male rats."

Signed,
"ONE WHO IS FED UP WITH THE BEASTS"

NO DOUBT SOME WOMEN work because their husbands are no good "rats" as this lady writes. But my impression is that the percentage of male no-gooders is no higher than it was forty or fifty years ago.

As a newspaper carrier-boy in Hamilton, Ontario, back about 40 years ago I went into four bar-rooms every day. In those days you could always see drunks, and husbands drinking away their pay envelopes.

There is far less of that nowadays. On the other hand I have the impression that the percentage of no-good wives and mothers has somewhat increased.

The only difference that I see in this respect is that nowadays wives find it easier to get good jobs. Also, they are far more independent economically—what with Children's Allowances and so forth.

I WOULD LIKE TO HEAR from readers—especially housewives—telling whether it is easier to run a house now than it was in the old days.

I have a hunch that some wives must have old account books that will show how much they paid out for groceries and rents, and how much they have to pay out now.

Names will not be published, if such is not desired.

MY IMPRESSION is that the average family is no better off now than it was around 1910. The wages LOOK higher and maybe dad does not have to work so many hours per week as dads did say in 1910, 1920 or even 1930 or 1940.

But if you figure out what the average pay envelope would buy in 1910 and what it will buy today I think you will see that our "advancement" is more imaginary than real.

We have far more gadgets in our houses. Vast numbers of families have cars. But my impression is that the average family is not so well fed as was the case in 1910. The girls are more fashionably clothed—the men not so well, for today's suitings are pretty shoddy stuff.

Am I right or wrong that more and more wives HAVE to work to make ends meet?

"Thumbing" Decried By Youth Official

BERKHAMSTED, Hertfordshire, England — Hitch-hiking can be harmful, says E. St. John Catchpool, secretary of a British youth movement.

Criticizing what he called the "false rumors" spread by praising the spirit of adventure in hitch-hiking, Catchpool told an International Youth Hostel conference that people who travelled "on their thumbs" were made to appear almost heroic in the newspapers.

He suggested a country-wide "youth saving for travel" scheme and cheaper rail-and-boat fares would counteract the trend.

Otherwise, he said: "Hitch-hiking may, if not faced squarely, lead to a 'something for nothing' attitude and loss of self-respect."

Anscomb Has Fight on Hands—Fight for Space at Parliament Buildings

VICTORIA—It looks as if Finance Minister Anscomb is getting an issue ready to split Coalition should next month's Conservative convention tell him to do so.

He's going about the country telling the public British Columbia is spending too much money on the public service.

This seems a strange statement from the man who's in charge of the money bags. He's doing the spending. But he can say that his group is only a minority of the cabinet and must do what the Liberal majority tells him.

"We are spending too much money to operate our business properly," he is saying. "If an economic recession comes along we shall have to trim our sails."

At the moment, however, the public wants the government to spend all the money it can on the public service. The province is prosperous, wages are good, employment is at a good level.

Mr. Anscomb wouldn't get very far with a "cut to the bone" campaign at this time.

The Minister of Finance, as B.C. Tory chieftain, is going to have two battles on his hands at next month's convention. He's going to have to fight to retain the leadership and he's going to have to fight to have the Conservatives stay in Coalition with the Liberals. The element in the Tory group that wants to get rid of Anscomb also wants to break Coalition.

This observer would say, just now anyway, that both Anscomb and Coalition will be endorsed.

Ministerial Association Ponders Anti-Religious Activities

One pastor told the Prince Rupert Ministerial Association, at its monthly meeting this week, of nocturnal activities which bordered on the sacrilegious with liquor consumption on the very doorsteps of his church.

Another referred to building activities which even disturbed worship at Sunday services.

The meeting pondered on what might be done to check such activities and decided to pursue the subject further in quarters that might bring some relief.

The meeting, held in the Civic Centre, marked the resumption of the season's activities after the summer suspension.

Rev. Earl Soiland was commended for his work on the committee for the placing of Church Directories in hotels, at the docks and other places.

Secretary, Rev. L. G. Sieber, was asked to draw up the radio Saturday sermon and Daily Scripture schedules for the balance of the year 1950.

Arranging the Bible Study Course to be offered to High School students was left in the hands of the director, Canon B. Prockter.

On the agenda for the next meeting, October 2, was placed the election of new officers of the Association.

Commercials Win Over Clothiers, Tie Play-offs

Commercials, playing heads up ball, took Abel and Odowes into camp last evening by a score of 5 to 1, thus evened up at two wins each the senior baseball playoff series. The final game will be played Sunday afternoon.

With Letourneau, on the mound for Commercials, pitching four-hit ball and Sharpe, hurling for Abel and Odowes, also turning in nice ball and allowing only six hits, it was a close game all the way.

Commercials started off the scoring in the second inning with two runs when Morgan, first man up, grounded out and S. Scherk came through with a hit followed by Sinclair's nice hit. Spring then lined one out to score Scherk. Letourneau was safe on an error with Sinclair scoring. Then Commercials tried the hit and run and Spring was out score Scherk. Letourneau safe caught off first to end the scoring with Commercials ahead 2-0. Abel & Odowes could not do very much against Letourneau, getting no more than one hit in any inning.

In the bottom of the fourth Commercials went further ahead when D. Scherk, first up, was safe with a nice hit and Morgan, next, was safe on an error. S. Scherk was also safe on an error with D. Scherk scoring. Sinclair then filed out and Spring was walked to load the bases. Letourneau was walked to force in a run. Simondson then came through with a hit with S. Scherk scoring. With the bases still loaded Marshall struck out and Shier grounded out to end the inning with the Hotelmen ahead 5-0.

Abel & Odowes threatened in the top of the seventh when Abel, first man up, was safe with a line single but Lindsay struck out and Hartwig was walked. However, Dunbar grounded to the third baseman who threw to second for the force out. Sunberg was hit by the pitcher and Sharpe struck out to end the uprising.

Abel & Odowes got their only run in the top of the eighth inning when Cornwall, first man up, came through with a nice Texas leaguer and stole second. Dahl, next up, struck out and Pavlikis fanned. Abel was safe on an error with Cornwall scoring. Lindsay fied out to end the game.

October 18—Bank of Montreal vs Great West Life, Blow-Outs vs Sons of Norway, Scuby's Furs vs Cloverleafs, Cantels vs Contrads, Washouts vs Pushovers, Bulkley Market vs Headpinners, Health Unit vs Shentons Sheet, Metal, Wallace's Dept. vs McCallum's, Pioneers vs Flying Saucers, Miller Bay Hospital vs Booth School, Social Welfare vs P. R. Plumbing, Overwaitea vs Fashion Footwear.

Heating New Legion Club— Guide Leader Honored— Many Entries for Fair

A special meeting of the Canadian Legion was held in the Legion lounge on Friday last, to discuss heating for the new quarters. Jack Barman presided and it was decided that he and Sam Kirkaldy make enquiries at Prince Rupert concerning furnaces. Accordingly, they travelled to Prince Rupert for that purpose on Monday. Mr. Barman staying and Mr. Kirkaldy returning the same day. The new Legion premises, on Appley Street, will be opened when the club license is granted. Work is almost completed on it, and when finished will be the only one of its kind in Terrace. It is approximately 140 by 28 feet. There will be men's and ladies' cloak-rooms, men's and ladies' beer parlors, a billiard room, ladies' recreation room, ladies' lounge, library and kitchen.

Mrs. Carmen McIlroy, Captain of the Girl Guides, was the recipient of a hand carved pheasant brooch and earrings at Friday afternoon's meeting of the Girl Guide Association which was held at the home of Mrs. W. Martin. Mrs. McIlroy will be leaving next week for Winnipeg to which point her husband, Pat McIlroy has been transferred. The presentation was made by Mrs. Norrington who spoke of the good work accomplished by Mrs. McIlroy with the girl guides and the great regret felt at her leaving. Modern medical science knows the internal cause must first be removed. The new PYLTONE TREATMENT is the result. ### Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Fifty years ago, Jan Christian Smuts, who died in Pretoria on Monday, was a young lawyer with a fight on his hands. The Boer war had broken out, and, from start to finish, he was very much in it. He could ride and shoot, was naturally handy and adaptable and it was not long before he was directing the movements of a commando.

Born and raised in South Africa, he had a good working knowledge of the country. So had the Boer armies that swarmed across the borders of Transvaal (beyond the Vaal River), and Orange Free State, into Natal and Cape Colony. Ladysmith became besieged. A British General was shot dead in the field. Soon, some of Britain's crack fighting battalions became perplexed and beaten along the Tugela. It became generally admitted that Kruger had started something.

Commandos often outmanoeuvred or outmanoeuvred the enemy. To the former, much of the wide, sunny land they rode across did not look unfamiliar. One could see long distances in such crystal air. The expression Boer, means "farmer." They were tireless riders, brave, and good shots. Many were whiskered and their dress could hardly be called military. Yet, it was mighty serviceable. It can safely be said of Smuts that he never dreamed the day would come when, instead of being equipped with tunic or jacket with bandolier full of cartridges, riding breeches, heavy boots, spurs and dusty slouch hat, he would wear the uniform of a British Field Marshal. That, when he was thirty, was unthinkable.

COST OF LIVING — Living costs in Canada moved up again during July, boosting the cost-of-living index to a record high of 168.5—an increase of 1.0 points over the previous month. This Dominion Bureau of Statistics graph shows in heavy black line the trend of index since Jan. 1, 1948. The light-dotted line shows the trend of the United States cost-of-living index up to May 15. The U.S. figure jumped 4.4 points, from 168.1 at May 15 to 172.5 at June 15. These are not comparative figures but merely indicate the trends of the two indices. (CP Photo)

While a youthful lawyer from Pretoria was doing his bit at the front, a young fellow from England named Winston Churchill was busy digging up news, not so far from where Smuts was operating. Winnie hopped an armored train one day. It was wrecked and he was captured. However, he slipped out of jail, hid in train freight and made his way to the east coast, as well as to freedom and fame. Smuts also gained fame, but doing it differently in certain important respects.

There are two classes of Boers, similar to what is found among all nationals. One can cultivate a broad and tolerant outlook. The other is narrow and hopelessly prejudiced. The fires of war died down in South Africa after nearly three years of conflict. Jan Christian Smuts was alive to the sharp issues in his native land. He supported Union, and became a great aid to General Botha, later becoming Premier himself. From this point and with no lack of bitter differences, his renown grew. His services and influence meant much to the British Empire in both the first and second Great Wars. It is said it was Smuts who first uttered the words "commonwealth of nations." As a statesman he ranked among the world's greatest. As a soldier, he gave distinguished service.
