IMPRESSED BY ST. LAURENT

C. A. Berner, who returned to the city from the East Saturday night, reported to the Chamber of Commerce on attendance at the annual convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce at Montreal. E. T. Applewhite M. P., had been there with him part of the time.
Mr. Berner met many distinguished personalities including Prime Minister St. Laurent who, Mr. Berner said, had a "surprising grasp" of Prince Rupert affairs, being well acquainted with the strategic location of the port, the fine harbor, the proximity to the Orient etc. Mr. Berner was thanked by the President for his attendance at the convention and his excellent report.

Capt. Quinn Coming Here

To inspect Naval Reserve in His Old Home Town This Month
Captain Howard L. Quinn, D.S.C., R.C.N., Director of Naval Reserves, is carrying out his annual inspection of Western Naval Divisions and will be in Prince Rupert November 24. He is accompanied on the trip by Cdr. W. A. Childs, R.C.N. (R), Assistant Director of Naval Reserves, and Lieut.-Cdr. (E) A. H. Graham, Engineer Officer Naval Reserves.
It is Captain Quinn's first inspection tour of Naval Divisions in Western Canada since his appointment as Director of Naval Reserves on September 7.
Capt. Quinn's visit to Prince Rupert will be of particular interest since he started his naval career with the old Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve here 25 years ago.

Wants to Know Of Coastguard

The Chamber of Commerce has sent a communication to the Department of Transport expressing surprise at a proposal to break up old minesweepers at Vancouver which it was felt may be used as coastguard vessels. Information is being sought as to what steps are being taken to provide the coastguard.

Lewis Orders His Coal Miners Back To Work

CHICAGO (CP)—John L. Lewis today ordered his striking soft coal miners back to work after a resolution had been adopted by the 200-man policy committee of strikers to go back to work until midnight of November 30 under terms of a United Mine Workers contract which expired July 1, 1949. Lewis said: "This is done as an act of good faith designed to contribute to public convenience." He believed, however, that chance of a settlement of the dispute were remote.

INSPECTION OF FISH PRODUCTS

Copy of a bill now before Parliament at Ottawa pertaining to inspection of fish and marine plants for export has been sent to the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce by E. T. Applewhite, M.P., and has been referred to the fisheries committee.
The bill provides that "no person shall import, export, sell for export or have in his possession for export any fish intended for human consumption unless the fish is wholesome and fit for human food."
Further it provides that no person shall export any marine plant or product thereof unless it is inspected, graded, marked or designed and labelled in accordance with the regulations.
The bill provides for full inspection of fishery products and all steps of production as well as the prescribing of grades, quality and standards of fish.

Commerce Chamber To Elect Officers

Nominating committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce consisting of President G. R. S. Blackaby and past presidents Dr. R. G. Large, G. A. Hunter, W. F. Stone, J. W. Scott and G. C. Mitchell, will draw up a slate of nominations for 1950 officers of the Chamber. New officers take over the first meeting in January.

Northern Territory Presents Cases Before Royal Commission

TAKES OVER IN POLAND

WARSAW (CP)—One of Russia's top Army commanders, Marshal Constantin K. Rokossovsky, has quit the Red Army to enter the Polish cabinet as minister of national defence.
Rokossovsky was born in Poland 53 years ago. His appointment to the important council of state post is expected to give him a strong voice in governmental as well as military affairs of this Soviet orbit country.
Rokossovsky commanded one of the Soviet army groups that liberated Warsaw. Since the end of the war he has commanded the Soviet western army in parts of German territory occupied by Poland.

INJURED MINER FLOWN TO CITY

The re-opened Premier Mine claimed its first accident victim Tuesday when James Grievess, a 45-year old miner was flown to Prince Rupert for treatment for a fractured leg, sustained in an mishap in the mine tunnel.
Grievess was flown to Prince Rupert by a Queen Charlotte Airlines Norseman, piloted by Doug McQueen who landed the craft at Seal Cove at 4 p. m. Tuesday. The plane, under charter to the Department of Fisheries, had been drafted into service for the emergency flight.

Urges Extension Of Lines Into Populous Area Not Now Served

OTTAWA (CP)—Arguments for the extension of railway service into the Peace River area of Northern British Columbia and Alberta were presented today before the Royal Commission on transportation. Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce of the Peace River Block advocated construction of railway lines to link the area more directly with the Pacific Coast than by the present circuitous route to Edmonton.

LAST RITES FOR CITY PIONEER

Rites of the Roman Catholic Faith were solemnized yesterday morning at the Church of Annunciation by Rev. Father F. Rayner O.M.I. for George E. St. Clair, one of Prince Rupert's real old timers who came here from the Yukon in the very early days, was engaged in the clearing of the townsite and for a few years operated a hotel (the old Houston, long since disappeared) on Second avenue. He was particularly well-known in the French Canadian colony and in Catholic Church circles. He passed away Sunday morning in Prince Rupert General Hospital.
The late Mr. St. Clair was born in Quebec City eighty-seven years ago. He is survived, besides his widow, by a son, Wilfrid.
Following the solemn requiem mass at the church, interment was made in the Catholic section of Fairview Cemetery where Rev. Father E. Mohan O. M. I. officiated. The pallbearers were Henri Letourneau, Joseph Garon, Louis Amadio, C. P. Balagno and A. G. Turcotte.

"Red" Union Breaking Up

PITTSBURGH (CP)—The United Electrical Workers, expelled from the C.I.O. only last week for its left wing policies, was threatened today with loss of more than 107,000 members. Most of these, a survey showed, intended to string along with the right wing C.I.O.
At the same time the C.I.O. announced a new union of electrical workers, organized to supplant the U.E.W., had won first employer recognition in a contract signed by two firms employing 1,075 workers in Yonkers, New York.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
A deep low pressure centre remains stationary this morning 250 miles southwest of the Queen Charlottes. A storm front associated with this centre passed over the coast last night and was crossing central B.C. this morning and weakening rapidly. Twenty-four hour rainfall amounts on the west coast of Vancouver Island were generally over an inch. Cloudy weather with scattered showers will be general today. Parts of the interior will be sunny on Thursday but little change is expected on the coast.
Forecast
North Coast Region—Cloudy with scattered showers today and Thursday. Little change in temperature. Winds easterly (15 mph). Lows tonight and highs tomorrow—at Port Hardy, Sandspit and Prince Rupert, 40 and 46.

DR. GREENE IS SPEAKER

Modern medical and surgical processes and treatment of various maladies were included in a discourse of much professional interest which was delivered before the Prince Rupert Chapter of the Registered Nurses' Association of British Columbia at its monthly meeting last night in the Nurses' Home of Prince Rupert General Hospital.
A film on the administration of oxygen treatment was also shown with Pierre LeRoss handling the projector.
Miss Margaret Steeves, P.H.N., president of the Chapter, was in the chair and there was a good attendance of twenty-nine members.
Refreshments were served.

TRYING TO KEEP CUT-OFF OPEN

Correspondence between Duncan K. Kerr, secretary of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia, and the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce includes a letter telling of representations which were made by the Associated Boards with a view to having the Canadian section of the Haines Highway kept open during the winter. The chamber was advised that the highway had now been closed for the season.

FOR INDIAN HEALTH—This aerial view of Moose Factory Island on the Moose River, a few miles from James Bay, shows construction site of the new $2,000,000 Indian hospital being built by the federal government. In the background are the buildings of the historic fort, Moose Factory, one of the oldest settlements in Ontario, dating back to 1673. The multi-million dollar hospital will serve 900 Indians who trap and hunt in the James Bay area. Tuberculosis has been a big killer of the natives and one of the aims of the new medical establishment is to reduce this death toll. (CP Photo)

Bulletins

ALASKA VESSEL MISSING

JUNEAU—The 63-foot vessel Salmore of Juneau, with five persons aboard, is missing after being unreported since leaving Cordova October 5 for Seattle with five persons on board. The Coastguard says it has checked all southeastern Alaska ports.

CANNOT PYRAMID RENT

OTTAWA—Minister of Finance Douglas Abbott states that landlords will not be allowed to pyramid by 20 or 25 percent rents which may have been increased by ten percent two-and-a-half years ago. The increase will be on the basis before that advance.

'FAIR DEAL' WINS

NEW YORK—Smashing Democratic victories in New York's United States Senate race and the city elections in many parts of the country yesterday set President Truman and his party high command chortling today over the outlook for 1950. Democrat Herbert H. Lehman easily knocked out Republican John Foster Dulles of the United States Senate seat Dulles has held down since last July on an interim appointment. Mayor O'Dwyer was re-elected in New York. The only Communist member of the city council, Ben Davis, was beaten by a coalitionist.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED

VANCOUVER—Possibility of foul play is being investigated by city police in the case of a woman, Ferne Blanche Fisher, whose body was found floating in False Creek last night near Burrard bridge. There was a wound on the forehead of the 45-year-old downtown store clerk.

"UNFAIR" LAWS CONDEMNED BY NATIVE GROUP

KITWANGA — Skeena River branch of the Native Brotherhood of B. C. will continue its fight for revision of provincial laws which its members feel work unfairness on the struggling Indian population.
Harold Sinclair, vice-president of the Skeena River district, outlined representations made to Premier Byron Johnson for redress from "unfair" legislation and urged members to continue their insistence at a Brotherhood meeting here.

Damage to registered native traplines resulting from the Department of Lands and Forests policy of granting timber rights to logging companies in areas being trapped was deplored by Mr. Sinclair.

Immediate Benefit

EVEN if Central British Columbia, more than anywhere else in America, is found to be best suited for making aluminum, it will be ten years more at least before it will be possible to manufacture on a marketing scale. This is what those in authority say. Yet the beneficial effects will be immediately apparent because of the more complete way in which Canada, and especially the new north west, will become known to the United States. Nothing would more surely fasten the attention of Americans on Central B. C. and keep it there, than an announcement telling of the proposed launching of such a huge industry, and the progress of each stage of development. It would make Skeena and Central British Columbia better known to our nearest neighbor than ever before.

NO FOG, ANYWAY

THOUSANDS OF SHIPS have called at and sailed from Prince Rupert. As a factor to be expected some have been overtaken by misfortune while in the north. But looking back, over past decades, losses have been comparatively light.
This port is not free of fog but it is of little real consequence. Here, the thick, chilling, long-continuing obscurity common to so many cities is next thing to unknown. The grey, blinding density is still one of the numerous menaces of the sea, although there is greater defence in modern navigational devices.
Fog's destructiveness has sunk fleets and cut short the lives of multitudes.
Prince Rupert has always been discussed because here there happens to be a generous rainfall—little more than occurs elsewhere on the coast. Near absence of fog is never mentioned. But rain never sends shipping to the bottom.

Chamber Favors Library Grants

The Chamber of Commerce Monday night endorsed a campaign of the British Columbia Library Association which is seeking provincial aid for public libraries. Ald. Black referred to the free provincial library service which rural areas were getting from the government and felt that municipalities were entitled to a resumption of grants which had been discontinued in 1932.

Prince Rupert Gyro Club was in monthly business session at its regular weekly luncheon today with President Maurice Brydges in the chair. Various matters of club business were dealt with.

Ray Reflects . . . . . . and Reminisces

Twas a month before Christmas
And, squeezing a cent,
The landlord thought darkly
Of raising the rent.

Several score veterans and auxiliary members took part in the annual church parade last Sunday, and the turnout was in every respect, smart and creditable. Yet, we cannot resist suggesting that, with a single exception, everyone was more or less out of step.

A resolution has been submitted to the federal Parliament concerning a badly needed coast-guard. Approaching the question, it says: The present distribution of marine responsibilities among several government departments would seem to be less efficient than a unified co-ordinated service. It is not in accord with national dignity to be repeatedly obligated to the United States Coastguard. You said it old-timer. But what's really wanted is less dignity and more action.

Says General Ike Eisenhower: The best example of perfect security is a man serving a life sentence in a federal prison. He does not, of course, mean it precisely that way. But anyone can catch the drift. Too much "security" can indeed become permanent punishment.

Mark Twain spent a few hours in St. John, N. B. during a summer afternoon years ago. Up from New York he was guest on a hot weather yachting trip. A cub reporter undertook to interview him. The author of "Tom Sawyer," "Huck Finn," "Puddin'-head Wilson" and other racy yarns wore a somewhat baggy suit. He had a great mane of restless white hair, twinkling eyes and an old briar pipe, with authority. He talked slowly, and in a lazy way. He did most of the interviewing. But it was pleasant being with him. There are many anecdotes concerning Samuel Langhorne Clemens. Some years after his death, President Woodrow Wilson visited Hannibal, the Mississippi river village where Mark lived as a boy. He strolled casually along and inquired if anyone knew where Tom Sawyer had lived.

"Never heard of him."
As for the Finns, remarked another, a family from Finland had been living in Hannibal a while. The visitor asked about Puddin'head Wilson.
"Oh him," said a man who had been quietly listening in. "Sure I knew Puddin' Head. Voted against him twice."

76 MEMBERS IN CONRAD P.T.A.

Membership in Conrad Street Parent-Teachers' Association now numbers 76, the monthly meeting of the group, held in the school, was informed by the membership committee last night. An increase in membership is expected within the next month.

Under chairmanship of P. Downing, who acted in behalf of President H. H. Thom, who was absent, the meeting held general discussion in matters effecting the school. Acting Secretary Mrs. Darrow Gomez reported on the latest meeting of the Parent-Teachers' council, which she attended as delegate.

The meeting heard an address by M. F. Stuart on the great pyramid of Cheops in Egypt, after which two films, one on the visit last spring of the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team. The meeting concluded with the serving of refreshments.

Committee Not Coming to City

A federal committee on pilotage, which is coming to this coast this month ago decided to ask the committee to visit here so that it will be unable to accept an invitation of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce to visit Prince Rupert, the local Chamber has been advised. The Chamber a month ago decided to ask the committee to visit here so that the need of pilotage service at this port might be established.

LOOKING BACK

25 Years Ago

November 9, 1924
Archbishop Frederick H. Du Vernet, Metropolitan of the Anglican Church in British Columbia, died at his home in the city at the age of 65. He was one of the pioneer churchmen of the coast.
C. E. Herron, of Seattle, publisher of the Alaska Weekly, said during a visit here that Prince Rupert people were not "alive" to the opportunities which surrounded them, particularly in the field of mining.
Unless a new ore body could be found in the near future, the Belmont-Surf Inlet Gold Mining Co.'s mine at Surf Inlet would close down, C. D. Heller, president of the company, said.

November 9, 1939
First of a weekly series of entertainments planned for naval and military personnel stationed in the district was held at the Canadian Legion club rooms. A number of local entertainers took part. About 60 servicemen attended.
A company of the Sixteenth Canadian Scottish arrived in the city to join garrison troops already here.
A. S. Nickerson was elected president of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. Ross Ingram was elected vice-president and T. J. Williams, secretary.

P.E.I. SETTLER RETURNS EAST

Having established a western outpost for his family at Tiel Queen Charlotte Islands, Beecher Court, of North Rustico, Prince Edward Island, headed east Monday night to spend the winter. Things are in pretty tidy shape in the west.
Mt. Court, accompanied by his four sons, Quentin, Emard, and Veard, came west in September to establish a family beachhead on the Queen Charlottes which, they felt, offer a more substantial future than Prince Edward Island in the fishing line.
To prove the seriousness of their intentions, they brought their own 31-foot boat along, shipping it by rail and steamer to the Queen Charlottes. The boat, with an added trunk cabin is now part of the family capital on the west coast.
His eastern interests—he runs a fish-curing plant in addition to being a fisherman—were responsible for sending the elder Court back east and he took one of his three sons—

Quentin—along with him when he boarded a train Monday night.

The other two sons are remaining at Tiel to consolidate the new home and prepare for fishing on this coast next year.

Junior Chamber of Commerce has officially advised the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce of the invitation it has sent to Donald Gordon, new president and chairman of the Canadian National Railways, to visit Prince Rupert at an early date.

PYLTON did not get such an amazing record of success through accident. Chamber Backs Health Board

The Chamber of Commerce Monday night endorsed representations which are being made by the Prince Rupert District Unit Board of Health with a view to the appointment as soon as possible of a full time medical director of the unit and a fully qualified pathological laboratory technician. Communications from Victoria referred to the difficulty of obtaining personnel for these positions but Dr. K. A. Taylor said that the outlook was now brighter as far as a doctor was concerned and within a couple of months one might be available.

Tables Turned From Reverse Earlier in Season—Other Results

In the senior basketball game Tuesday night, fans saw Co-op avenge an opening game defeat by Bo-Me-Hi, turning the tables 58-53. Only in the first quarter was play slow, with poor shooting showing up in the score. High School was on top 9 to 7 going into the second quarter when both teams started to hit the hoop and rack up points. Co-op came out the better and led at the half 27-24. In the second half Co-op took a leaf out of the High School book, and with fast breaks, poured through the Students' defence to catch them flatfooted. They took a lead of 12 points but Bo-Me-Hi fought back and cut it to 8 points 43-35 at the beginning of the final quarter. Co-op again gained a 12-point edge which stood until the Students fought hard to cut it down but the closest they could come was 5 points as the final bell went.

INTERMEDIATE

In the intermediate game Fashion went into a first place tie with Merchants when they handed them their first defeat of the season. The score was 27-24. The game was close with Fashion having to come from behind an 8-5 deficit in the first quarter. From then on they held to their 4 point lead until the final whistle. Play was rougher than usual and several players had to be warned. Fashion had the height on rebounds and this help added to their point score.

Sid Scherk was strong on defence for Bo-Me-Hi, also topping them in the scoring with 14 points. Danny Bill came up with 8 points while playing good ball. Rup Holkestad and Joe Davis came through with one of their better games on offense. Morgan again was the clutch player. Arney, although held scoreless in the first half, broke through in the final half for 10 points. Flaten played a driving game from his guard post.

In the Women's game, Peoples copped their opening game by downing Dom's 17-13. The score was close until the final quarter when Doms were shut out while Peoples scored 4 points to break a 13-all score.

The generosity of the referees was evident. In all women's games the refs take the attitude that the calling does not need to be a strict as the other league games. This tends to lead the game into a wild scramble which is trying to be done away with, and good clean basketball take its place.

Premier Johnson, had duly registered their trap lines when such regulations were imposed. At that time they were assured that their livelihood from this source was protected. However, the Forestry branch then put up many of the areas for timber sale and some have been logged off to the detriment of the trampoline owners.

"For this, the registered trampoline owner gets nothing, except the ruin of his livelihood which is destroyed with the removal of the timber," Mr. Sinclair said.

His appeal to the Premier urged that the timber in those areas should be reserved for the protection of fur bearing animals and that owners of trampolines should be compensated where timber has already been logged off.

Relaxation of Fisheries regulations which now make it punishable for Indians to catch salmon in the rivers for other than their own private use, except in commercial fishing areas. Last season, also was subject of complaint to the Premier.

Fisheries regulations allow Indians to catch fish in the upper areas of the rivers for their own use, but make it punishable for them to sell such fish.

"These regulations were imposed on the assumption that we are still a primitive people whose sole diet is fish," Mr. Sinclair declared. "Now, however, our diets are much the same as the white man, but our income is far less." Dealing with Indians, said that some get pensions of $8-$7.50 a month in the Indian Department. "Most of these people are able to do any work and live on $15.50 a month."

MRS. CAMPBELL NEW P.T. HEAD

TERRACE—Mrs. Alice Campbell was elected president of the Terrace Parent-Teachers Association at Thursday night's monthly meeting following the reading of a letter of resignation from Mrs. James Stevenson. The meeting was held in the Credit Union Hall and there was an excellent turnout of members.

The date of the Christmas concert was set for December 16, to be held in the Civic Centre. The association undertook to make the costumes, if any are needed, for the children and Mrs. Haugland offered her services as convener of the costume committee.

The post of temporary treasurer until the return of Miss Booth in January, is being filled by H. F. Noakes.

Miss Sargent, public librarian of Prince George, addressed the meeting on the work of the Travelling Libraries Commission. Books sent out by them will be collected every four months or every two months if the collection is large, all expenses being met by them. However there must be 10 representatives to sign the application form to assume nominal charge. It is customary to form

United Church Has Visitor—Mrs. West Bereaved—Guides and Brownies Active

Last Wednesday evening a large gathering of United Church members and adherents met in the Oddfellows Hall to hear the United Church field secretary for Christian Education for British Columbia, Rev. Robert Morris. Speaking primarily to the Young People and the members of the Young Women's group, Mr. Morris delivered a challenging message which will be long remembered by all. A short musical program included piano selections by Constable Brue, and Rev. P. Mallett; vocal solos by Mrs. R. Squires and Jim Proctor; and a vocal trio by Misses Margaret Kennedy, Colleen Sites and Lorna Melvin, accompanied by Miss Flora Melvin. Mrs. Harry Seaman was accompanist for a brief period of community singing. Following a few games, refreshments supplied by the Yettes were served. Mr. Morris has been accompanied on his tour of the North by his wife and young son, Donald. While in Terrace they were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Percy Mallett, arriving from the interior by car on Wednesday and leaving for Prince Rupert on Thursday's train enroute to Vancouver.

Late on Thursday afternoon Mrs. Bert West received the sad news from Vancouver of the sudden passing away of her mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Griffiths. Though she has been ill for a considerable time her passing has come as a shock to her family. Mrs. West left on Thursday's train for Prince Rupert where she explained on Friday for Vancouver.

The last meeting of the year of the Girl Guide Association was held last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. McIlroy, Mrs. Head presided. The Credit Union Hall will be hired for the meeting of the Guides and Brownies on Mondays, one group to have the afternoon and the other the evenings. The guides will hold a candy sale on November 19 in Michael and Johnston's Store and also in the bakery, the girls to meet at various homes to make the candy. The next meeting of the association will be held on January 10.

Harry Menzies of Prince Rupert is spending a week's holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curley Bailey. Last Wednesday he drove to Prince Rupert for the day accompanied by Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Marie McDonald.

Work is going ahead on the United Church with Carl Wold in charge and Mr. Magnus assisting. It is hoped to have the building ready for service by the end of this year.

HAZELTON NOW HAS LIBRARY

HAZELTON — The Hazelton Public Library is well established now, in its new home at the back of the United Church. It has on its shelves some two hundred books on loan from the Public Library Commission in Victoria, and more than eight hundred books of its own, some new purchases, others, donations from local residents. More new books are on order and donations are still being received.

To handle these books and make them easily available to the public, Miss Joyce Leslie has been appointed Librarian, with Miss Alice Marshall acting as her assistant. The library will be open from 3 to 5 p.m. on Wednesdays, and from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 8 p.m. on Saturdays. It is felt that these hours will make it possible for residents of all parts of the Hazelton District to call in and borrow books.

Committees in charge of the work are active. The Book Selection Committee is meeting weekly to study the present stock and make plans for new purchases. The Board of Management is meeting as frequently to study ways and means of raising funds and making the service more efficient.

All signs point to the fact that the Hazelton Library Association is rapidly building up a service which should prove to be of value to every resident of the Hazelton District.

DOUBLE WELCOME 1950 IN TERRACE

TERRACE—Terrace will have two dances this New Year's Eve again as the Civic Centre Association and the Canadian Legion who for 19 years have sponsored this dance, were unable to get together and hold one big community dance or cabaret in the Civic centre. There will be the second annual New Year's Eve Cabaret at the Civic Centre and the Legion dance in the Oddfellows' Hall. The matter came up for discussion at the directors' monthly meeting of the association with the receipt of a letter from the Canadian Legion requesting the rent of the hall for that night.

No Legion delegates being at the meeting a general meeting was called for Friday evening last to deal with this matter. Though in need of funds to advance the work on the building, for the sake of harmony in the town the association offered, at Friday night's meeting to cooperate with the Legion to the extent of sharing 50-50 with them the net proceeds of a New Year's Eve Cabaret jointly sponsored. This, the Legion was unable to accept, nor did a further meeting of the two executives clear up the matter, so now, each organization will go ahead and make their preparations for a grand New Year's Eve.

Hon. E. T. Kenney, minister of lands and forests, arrived in the city on the Prince George today after a brief visit to Powell River. While in the area, Mr. Kenney will also pay a visit to his home town of Terrace.
