BRITONS ARE TURNED BACK
MAMORONECK, N.Y. (P)—The cream of Britain's amateur golfers were repulsed 10-2 in the Walker Cup clash here against the United States team. The only British win was that of Ronnie White, the 28-year-old English captain, over United States titleholder Willie Turnesa by 4 and 3. The United States won three of the four Scottish foursomes and seven of the eight singles matches.

Is Not Being Kicked Around

Labor Member of British Parliament Warns United States
LONDON (P)—A Labor Member of Parliament said Monday night that Britain might be tempted to prefer Communism to being "kicked around by unlettered pot-bellied money magnates or the United States." He accused American big business of "conspiring to overthrow the Labor government."
Tom O'Brien, Union leader and member of the House of Commons for Nottingham West, made the statement in a political speech in London's Finchley district.
"What the Americans do not realize," said O'Brien, "is that the British Labor government and not their dollars is the only effective bulwark against Communism domination of Europe."

FOREST FIRE IS UNCHECKED

TORONTO (P)—Planes and bulldozers are standing by to aid nearly 400 weary firefighters in halting Ontario's biggest forest fire which is still blazing out of control in Snowdown township, about 185 miles northeast of Toronto.
The blaze, one of 129 in Ontario, is sweeping over more than 7,600 acres of bushland unchecked in the northeast section of the area, forestry officials said late yesterday.
Army and civilian fire fighters won a last-ditch battle against the forest fire early Tuesday and saved the Laurentian foothills villages of Terrebonne Heights and Poncaré from threatened destruction.
Exhausted, terrified residents of the bush town of Terrebonne, twenty-three miles north of Montreal, began to relax with the hope that the ring of fire which gripped the district yesterday is about tamed thereabouts at least by a change of wind. The blaze had roared through bone-dry spruce and pine bush country and came within a whisker of demolishing the town. The desperate efforts of hundreds of members of army and civilian fighters coupled with a shift in wind saved the town and the nearby village of Poncaré. The fire is still smouldering on three sides of Terrebonne but watchers felt that trenches eased the threat unless a sudden shift of the wind started the blaze again. Cottages, buildings and thousands of acres of bushland were destroyed but no lives were lost.

CDR. STORRS IS PROMOTED

OTTAWA (P)—Commander Anthony H. G. Storrs, 42, of Victoria, has been appointed to the directing staff of Canada's national defence college. The former Esquimaux barracks head, with the acting rank of captain, will be naval member directing the staff of the college at Kingston. He also formerly commanded the frigate Antigone, Naden, minesweepers and corvettes during the war.

FRENCH MASTERPIECE—"Le Pont de Narni" by the 19th century French master Corot is included in the exhibition of paintings which will be on display at the Canadian National Exhibition. The canvas had been loaned by the National Gallery at Ottawa for the exhibition, arranged by the C.N.E. Association and the Art Gallery of Toronto. (C. P. Photo)

TAKES POST AT PRINCE GEORGE

John Martin Succeeds Hon. Harry Bowman
John Patrick Martin has arrived at Prince George to succeed Hon. Harry Bowman, now provincial minister of agriculture, as district superintendent, department of Colonization and agriculture, Canadian National Railways.
Land settlement has been a life work with Mr. Martin since he returned from overseas after the First World War. Following a spell with the Soldier Settlement Board, he joined Canadian National in 1927 as land settlement representative in Prince Albert and went from there to Grande Prairie as district superintendent in 1931. In 1933 he returned to Edmonton to undertake farm appraisal and settlement work for British and other immigrants brought in by the C.N.R. He has been there until his new appointment.
In addition to his duties with the railway, Mr. Martin has served with the Edmonton advisory committee under the Veterans' Land Act during the past few years. He is a member of the Appraisal Institute of Canada.

MUNICIPAL DELEGATES ARE NAMED

Two aldermanic delegates to the annual convention of the Union of Central B.C. Municipalities at Terrace were selected by city council Monday night to join Mayor Arnold as voting representatives of the city.
Council members chose Alderman H. S. Whalen and J. N. Forman to join Mayor Arnold in representing the city at the meeting of regional municipalities which is scheduled for September 1 and 2, just prior to the annual meeting of the province-wide Union of B.C. Municipalities.
Regional policy on resolutions to come up at the Harrison Hot Springs convention will be decided at the Terrace convention. Mayor Arnold and City Clerk H. D. Thain, who is secretary of the Union of Central B.C. Municipalities, are also delegates to the provincial municipal convention.
Alternate delegates to the Terrace meeting will be Aldermen George Rudderham and Wilfrid McLean, whose names were put up for consideration Monday night.

'Quake Fever' Grips Islands

Further Disturbance Is Felt In Prince Rupert

"Quake fever" still grips the Queen Charlotte Islands today and elsewhere along the British Columbia coast and people at Prince Rupert, as elsewhere, are wondering: "Is there a bigger one coming." At 1:31 p.m. Pacific Daylight Time yesterday British Columbia survived its second 'quake within forty hours. Only a few people in Prince Rupert noticed it. Including the woman who, as reported in the Daily News heard her kitchenware rattle. A hardware store reported that goods on the shelves moved. However, it was nothing in severity like that which was recorded Sunday night.
Queen Charlotte Islands reported feeling the afternoon shock distinctly as well as other tremors at intervals during the day. The people there, reported Mrs. Stewart-Burton to the Daily News, are still nervous although becoming somewhat inured to the repetition of the disturbances. They are not sleeping in their clothes any more, Mrs. Stewart-Burton said, but "we do wish things would quieten down."

Seismographs at Ottawa, Victoria, Seattle, Berkeley and Pasadena recorded yesterday's tremor as "large." However, there was no record of anything but slight damage to property. Like Sunday night's coast-length tremors, the fury of the earthquake was somewhere out in the Pacific far below the surface.
WOULD WIDEN DIVORCE LAWS
VANCOUVER (P)—Canadian Federation of University Women passed a resolution yesterday urging widening of divorce laws to admit desertion, cruelty and insanity as grounds. The triennial conference rejected an additional clause asking restrictions on applications of divorce to first three years of marriage and remarriage of divorced persons.
Quebec delegates said that the resolution would weaken divorce laws to a point where they were as elastic as in the United States.

OLYMPIC BROCHURE—Rt. Hon. Francis M. Forde, Australian High Commissioner to Canada, presents Prime Minister St. Laurent with a leather-bound brochure of Melbourne, site of the 1956 Olympic Games. The presentation was, in effect, a token of thanks for Canada's two votes which helped Australia get the 1956 games by a 23-21 margin. (C. P. Photo)

NEW SCHOOL AT HOUSTON

Having completed his duties as supervisor for the board of school trustees of construction of a modern stream-lined schoolhouse at Houston, R. C. Mutch, local builder, is now moving to Terrace to supervise the construction of a new garage building on Lakelse Avenue for Little, Haugland & Kerr. Mr. Mutch has also been at Burns Lake in connection with the remodeling of the community hall there.
Increasing of the school accommodation at Houston from one to two rooms is a reflection of the general expansion in that area, one of the factors of which has been the arrival of many new Dutch settlers who are making a notable success of farming there. Ninety pupils for the Houston school are now enrolled.
Mrs. C. L. Youngman and two daughters returned on the Prince Rupert this afternoon from a visit to Vancouver.

NO TUNA CAUGHT OFF CHARLOTTE

There are no reports of any tuna being caught off Queen Charlotte Islands yet. The Fisheries Patrol boat Kitimaat has been on the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands and is heading south. There are reports that the fish are there but they are not biting yet.

Course Of Events In Yugoslavia, Russia May Culminate Soon

BELGRADE (CP)—Marshal Tito's government says it is ready to end the feud with Russia, provided Russia keeps hands off Yugoslavian affairs. In a stiff note to Moscow, the Belgrade regime declared its preparedness to reach a settlement with Russia on "all disputed questions."

HOPES FOR UNDERSTANDING
SWANSEA—If bickering and hard words are to be used instead of sympathetic understanding in negotiations between United States and Great Britain, only Moscow will benefit, declared Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden here today. It was unthinkable that United States would change her policy of aid towards Britain, he felt. No country had been more loyal to Britain in time of stress than Canada, he declared.
Diplomats expected today that Tito's fate in the dispute with Russia would be known within the next few days and that the course of Premier Joseph Stalin of Russia would also be known. These appear to be Stalin's alternatives:
1. To go to war with Yugoslavia.
2. To incite revolution within Yugoslavia.
3. Continue the propaganda and boycott campaign.

Finland Has Labor Crisis

Communists May Try to Tie Up Offensive Metal Industry

HELSINKI (P)—A serious split in Finland's powerful Trade Union Federation appeared imminent last night when five Communist unions refused to obey a Federation ultimatum and started wild cat strikes. While the intra-union struggle raged, observers feared that Communists would try to extend their strike to the offensive metal industry. This would endanger Finland's war preparations.

Earthquakes

AN EARTHQUAKE is a new experience for Prince Rupert but, there is no reason to be jittery about it even if the shocks do become recurrent on nearby Queen Charlotte Islands and we are told that the centre of disturbance is close to home.

After all, what was Sunday evening's little earthquake shock in Prince Rupert compared with man-made terrors such as the bombings of war and the atomic horrors which have been perfected?

We have a good deal more to fear from the man-made instruments of destruction, far more terrible than Nature's ravages of flood, wind, earthquake or disease. And those are things that man is capable of doing something about.

So why worry or become alarmed about the earthquakes or the possibility thereof? There is little that we can do about it, anyway.

A GOOD IDEA

THAT WAS A GOOD IDEA that the city council developed Monday about the possibility of acquiring the United States administration building for civic purposes. Certainly we need a new City Hall as we do a Fire Hall and the problem building, which we would regret so much to see demolished, could provide plenty of room for both and have something to spare in the bargain.

Of course, the expense of reconditioning and re-modelling would be much more than the original cost which, possibly, might be nominal enough. In any case, the city is going to be up against the necessity of providing a new city hall and a new fire hall in the not far distant future. Present buildings are bordering on dilapidation and are no credit to the community.

== If the city could get this building for $5000, as suggested, it would appear to be pretty good business to pick it up.

EXPLOSIVE SITUATION

THERE ARE AGAIN the sparks of warfare amid the perpetually explosive Balkans. The present snarling between Tito's Yugoslavia and Stalin's Russia could easily develop into something more serious than the current hot words. The Soviet has been making some rather threatening and ominous remarks—all of which reminds us of those fateful events just prior to 1939 when Adolf Hitler was sounding off and finally took over. Yugoslavia could be the Poland of 1939.

Unfortunately, there is still aggression in the world despite the protestations of high and good intentions.

On the other hand, we have had anxious moments of this kind quite regularly since World War II and it may pass over. It is to be hoped, however, that the passing off will not involve too much aggrandizement on one side or appeasement on the other.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE

A MARKED DECLINE in industrial strife has taken place in Canada since 1946, when strikes idled more manpower and caused loss of more production time than in any year in our history. These national figures on strikes and lockouts show the trend:

Year	Workers involved	Man-working days lost
1946	139,474	4,516,393
1947	104,120	2,397,340
1948	43,820	885,793

Serious strikes have occurred this year in ocean shipping and in asbestos mining, but the over-all trend of industrial strife is still downward. In the first four months of 1949, some 357,000 man-days were lost through strikes and lockouts, 28,000 fewer than in the corresponding part of 1948.

The decrease in labor disputes has been accompanied by higher individual productivity. A Star report based on a survey of leading industrial concerns states: "Workers are turning out more production than before. Their output is of better quality, there are fewer 'rejects' per man. Big reduction in labor turnovers means they are sticking longer to their jobs. And lateness and absenteeism have been cut away down."

Facts like these have led representatives of both management and labor to the belief that Canada is entering a comparatively peaceful era in industrial relations—subject to the all-important condition, "if times stay good."

IN MEMORIAM—Canadian veterans, visiting their old battleground of Dieppe, paused to pay tribute to the fallen of another war. Maj.-Gen. J. H. Roberts, Canadian Graves Commissioner and commander of the Dieppe raid, is shown placing a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier at the base of the Arc de Triomphe in Paris as his former troops parade at the First World War memorial. The Daily News

One evening I did notice
That scarce a moment passed Without a door being opened on the street;
The householder would look about his step, then farther out.
Then disappointed indoors would retreat.
For each was waiting to peruse
His copy of the "Daily News."

It brings us telegraphic press
From all parts of the earth,
United Nations, Britain, U.S.A.,
The Chinese War, the Communists, U.S.S.R. and Greece.
All information comes without delay.
That's why we always hate to lose
Our copy of the "Daily News."

It tells too of our city life,
The happenings every day,
Engagements, weddings, births—news sad or gay,
The record of activities of churches, lodges, clubs
Of culture, sport or crime are on display.
You'll find the many readers' views
Expounded in the "Daily News."

Of course some like to grumble
As they read the paper through,
"I didn't like the editorial," they say. Some want their names left out,
And some would want their names put in.
So it doesn't please all people every day,
But still no one would ever choose
To be without the the "Daily News."

POLICE FIND MISSING CAR

Fast police work was responsible for the recovery of an automobile within ten minutes after it had been reported missing by a taxi driver Monday night.

The vehicle, owned by Pat Mazzei and driven by Clarence Bussinger of Telkwa, was taken from the C.N.R. wharf at 7:45 Monday night after Mr. Bussinger had taken several people to the wharf. He left the keys in the ignition while he helped his fares with their hand baggage.

Seeing the car disappearing up the ramp, Bussinger telephoned Mr. Mazzei, who relayed the call to the police. Corporal A. H. Taylor and Constable Fred Gibson and A. H. Ward went looking for it in the patrol car.

Within a matter of minutes the missing vehicle was found in the 100 block on Eighth Avenue East. As the police rushed up, a man started to run away. He was pursued by Constable Taylor and Ward who quickly caught him.

Later, David Bain, 24, a recent arrival from Vancouver, was charged with joyriding.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Mr. King gives denial to the report current in Ottawa that there is a possibility of his acceptance of the office of next Governor-General. He repeats that, when he announced retirement, he meant it. He will not however, cultivate leisure. For one thing, he will write his memoirs. That decision will be of much more interest to fellow citizens than to picture him presiding at Rideau Hall. He will hardly do both.

The production of motor cars and champagne in Soviet Russia is reported to be growing. More power to you, Uncle Joe! Atomic bombs never put any joy in life!

Speaking of earthquakes, one morning in Prince Rupert years ago, a light hued ash, soft and smooth to the touch, kept coming out of the sky, evidently from a great height. Not until next day could anyone say just where the discharge came from. The ash, noticed as far south as Puget Sound, actually originated in a crater far to the north. A lofty volcano, somewhere in the Aleutian region of Alaska, was stepping out.

It won't be long now! On September 21—that's on Wednesday—the doubtful blessing of Daylight Saving will end for 1949. This timely information comes from a federal source and there is not the slightest reason to suspect anything other than to think of it as the cold and rigid truth. It's easy, and natural enough for us, to regard "D. S." mainly as a nuisance. So do plenty of others, who would let total enforcement or complete abolition decide. Anything is better than half and half.

Prince Rupert girls, representing Job's Daughters, went to Spokane and are now coming home with the bacon. They marched their way right into the goodwill of a sizeable city and neighbor State, where they know merit when they see it. It was all a happy gesture. Prince Rupert was given the kind of an advertising one can't buy with the signing of a publicity contract or a bushel of booklets. This was "different." This was fresh, eloquent and attractive and here they were direct from that growing town way up the coast, Prince Rupert where big money is being spent. Most of the girls were born and bred up there. Smart, and dainty step-pers, too!

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

Public and press were excluded at the request of Ald. Black, from Monday night's city council meeting while the aldermen deliberated on the replacement of a local firm as city auditors with a Vancouver company which two years ago reorganized bookkeeping methods in the city hall.

Council finally voted to employ the Vancouver firm of Crehan, Meredith and Co.

The position of city auditor carries a salary of $1,600 a year, $1,400 from the city and $200 from the district School Board. Crehan, Meredith were employed for two years—in 1945 and 1946—to reorganize bookkeeping methods in the city hall. G. L. Rorie and Co., which had done the work previously, was re-appointed in 1947.

RADIO LICENCE BOOST OPPOSED

City council will protest any move by the government to increase radio license fees "until adequate service is provided" for listeners in this area.

This challenge to any proposal to increase radio license fees to $5 annually was hurled by the aldermen Monday night after Alderman T. B. Black told them that he had heard that such a move was anticipated.

His colleagues offered no objections. "It's only a proposed increase, but we should protest against it," Alderman Black said.

TO TRY EAST-WEST LINDBERGH—John Brondello, 36, Italian engineer, waves from the single-engine plane in which he hopes to make the first east-west single-engine plane crossing of Atlantic, accompanied by co-pilot. This photo was taken before plane was dismantled and flown to London aboard DC-4. Extra fuel tanks and navigation aids have been installed for the hop which will start at Lisbon, Portugal.

Miss Frances Cross returned to Prince Rupert this afternoon on the Prince Rupert. She has returned from Penticton to rejoin Kelly-Douglas staff here.

PLAY BALL

The Savoy baseball team are a downhearted lot. While they were winning most of their games, the deep freeze treatment of fans could be taken, there was even some satisfaction for them winning in spite of no support from the stands. Now that they are taking their share of setbacks the doghouse silence from the paying customers is getting hard to take. Following the announcement recently that Alex Bill had just completed six hitless innings, the applause was almost audible.

What makes a winning team an unpopular one is a mystery beyond analysis. It's the same with basketball here. The underdog get the cheers while the winner takes the jeers.

Savoy's dilemma might go beyond just being consistent winners. They have led the league continuously since 1946. Some fans think they do too much squawking. However, a bit of beefing is the right of any team when they believe they have grounds for it. But it is true that some of their players are inclined to bring up old scores that should have been healed. One fan said he liked to see the Savoy beaten because "they think they are 'too smart.'" Well that seems to be a poor reason for unpopularity. They couldn't play good ball and act like a bunch of morons.

By all reasonable calculating they should be a favorite team. They are all local young fellows and play a good aggressive type of ball. It is the team of rookies that Carl Zarelli ordered four years ago. They have stuck together and by practice have built a proficient squad.

There are three sets of brothers on the Savoy roster at present—two Simundsons, a brace of Arneys and a pair of Scherks. Bruce Simundson plays in spite of an incapacity that would keep a less enthusiastic player on the sidelines. He has a hip, injured in the recent hostilities that keeps him tied up and it is remarkable that he plays as well as he does. Miner has an alibi for everything that does not go just right and that is the main reason the fans give him such a ribbing, but he always comes back for more. Ted Arney is probably the best third baseman in the league, he has committed only two errors in 45 chances so far this season and he covers a lot of ground. Brother Don has been responsible for breaking up a couple of games with his bat in the few contests he has been in. The Scherk combination still have their best baseball to play and they appear to have natural assets to make them stars.

Manager Alex Bill cannot be accused of hogging baseball ivory. His line-up is little changed from the one of 1947. He even allowed Joe Davis to be signed by the Merchants this year and that is one reason why Savoy's are not winning all the time.

No fan is to be told who he is to root for but, in the sense of fair play, there's no harm in giving credit when a good play is made—even when the Savoy team does it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Good and family are sailing tomorrow night on the Prince Rupert for Victoria where they will spend the next three weeks while Mr. Good is taking a course at H.M.C.S. Naden.

Player Benched Game Forfeited

League Fixture Comes to End After Argument With Ump
Last night's City League Baseball game ended in a fiasco when a Merchant player was ordered out of the game and the team could not field nine players. The game was forfeited to the Commercial by the official score of 9-0. They were leading by a 4-2 score at the time.

Two were out in the seventh inning when Don Hartwig, at bat, questioned the umpire's call on a pitched ball. Umpire Letourneau exercised his authority and ordered the player out of the game for misconduct. Merchants did not have another player to put into the line-up and were therefore, forced to forfeit the game under section 7 of rule 24 which requires nine players in the line-up.

While the official score is recorded as 9-0, actual statistics will be credited to the players.

BRITISH BULLFIGHTER IN ACTION—Vincent Charles Hitchcock, 21-year-old son of a London, Eng. jeweller, and Britain's only bullfighter, was awarded two ears and the tail of the bull he subdued in this ring near Gibraltar. He also rated the plaudits of enthusiastic fans for his formidable work with cape and little red flag, and was carried from the plaza on their shoulders. In this scene, Vincent is starting a "pase de pecha" with the red flag held in both hands. He finished the charging foe off with a well-aimed sword thrust.

Maser Murray Neilson, who has been visiting his mother, returned on the Camosun yesterday to New Westminster where he is attending school.

Smithers Bank Wall Cracked

SMITHERS — Earthquake shocks were felt here about 9:15 Sunday evening. Pictures were tilted some five or ten degrees out of the perpendicular, electric lights swayed violently back and forth for several minutes, and houses rocked, especially those which were "jacked up," but no great damage was reported.

The side wall of the Royal Bank of Canada was visibly cracked and bricks were jarred loose at the round-house.

There were two shocks—sufficiently far apart to give people time to grab some clothes and rush outside, or to neighbors' houses—trying to recollect just

SHRINE PARTY ENTERTAINED

A party of Nobles of Aahmes Shrine Temple at Oakland, California, and their ladies arrived on the steamer Chilcotin yesterday afternoon. They were met by members of the local Shrine Club who organized bus and sight-seeing tours for the visitors. In the evening the visitors were guests of the local club at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Music was furnished by Andy McNaughton at the piano and the visitors provided many items of entertainment in the form of skits. A skit arranged by Noble Van Meer who was in charge of the program was much enjoyed. Words of welcome were spoken by Noble A. C. Berner on behalf of the local Shrine Club and responded to by illustrious Potentate Lester A. High of Aahmes Shrine Club.

The visitors are expected back in Prince Rupert on Tuesday afternoon next and it is hoped that the local Shrine Band will meet them and escort them in a parade to the grounds where the local Shrine Club is sponsoring the Crescent Shows which are appearing during the week and the proceeds of which will be used for Shrine charities. The Oakland party will leave on their return south midnight of that day.

The Oakland party was conducted by Cruise Manager Past Potentate Herman Engelhart of Aahmes Temple who was here last year with a party of Shriners from California.

GARR WORK—"Beaver Totem Pole," typical of Emily Carr's work when she lived among the Indian tribes of Canada's west coast, will be shown at the Canadian National Exhibition. Miss Carr, who died in British Columbia four years ago, produced numerous paintings and books portraying primitive Indian life in Western Canada. The work was loaned for the exhibit by C. S. Band of Toronto. (C. P. Photo)

Alaska Traffic Mounting—
Chris Parkvold Stricken—
U.S.S. Head Is Coming

Alaska traffic should provide a busy day on the local waterfront tomorrow extending into the week-end. Motorships Sidney, Dagney and Robert Eugene are all due tomorrow from southeastern Alaska, the first two bringing in canned salmon and the Robert Eugene, frozen fish. Also due by tomorrow is the Ocean Tow tug Shinn with the barge P.T. and B., arriving from Haines, Alaska, to pick up fourteen cars of perishable goods from the United States for delivery to Haines and delivery in refrigerated trucks over the Haines Cut-Off and Alaska Highway to central Alaska. Some of the fourteen cars have already arrived over the railway.

With a full list of passengers, including many round-trippers enjoying their cruise in north coast sunshine, C.N.R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. William Eccles, arrived in port at 1:15 this afternoon, from Vancouver, Westview and Ocean Falls, and will sail at midnight for Ketchikan when she will return here tomorrow evening southbound.

G. McBean, managing director of Union Steamships Ltd., will be a visitor here during the coming week-end in the course of a northern inspection trip. He will arrive Friday afternoon on the Catala from Vancouver and transfer here to the steamer Chilcotin to make the round trip to the south Queen Charlotte

THE CASEY is a three-bedroom house suitable for a narrow lot. The liberal number of closets in this plan should delight the homemaker whose problem it is to find sufficient storage space. A closet at the grade entrance of The Casey and a general closet in the hall are available in addition to the usual vestibule coat closet, the linen closet and large wardrobes in each of the bedrooms. All of the rooms in The Casey, including the kitchen open into one central hall. This arrangement eliminates the need of passing through one room before entering another. The Casey's modern kitchen is arranged in an efficient U-shape. There is a large well-lighted dining area at one end of the room. The Casey has a full basement. Its exterior walls are of frame construction with siding. The roof is covered with asphalt shingles. Dimensions of The Casey are 26 feet by 27 feet with a 4-foot front projection. The house has an area of 1,026 square feet and a volume of 20,642 cubic feet.

Capt. Chris. Parkvold, well known halibut boat skipper, who suffered a heart attack at his home last evening, was taken to the Prince Rupert General Hospital in the city ambulance.

A. J. Whitmore, chief supervisor of fisheries, arrived on the Howay, Captain Walker Redford, on one of his periodical visits of inspection. He left by plane morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Frank left on Monday for Burns Lake and the Co-operative Convention.
Other delegates going were A.
Gillanders, A. Olsen and Mrs.
Kofoid. They were met here by George Viereck of Prince Rupert, who drove the party to Burns Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Kerr are expected back this week from Prince George district where they motored following the conclusion of the Associated Boards of Trade Convention at Smithers on Saturday.

Delegates returning from the Associated Boards convention at Smithers reported a very interesting and enjoyable time.
The hospitality of the interior town was unsurpassed and the meetings were packed with interest, so much so, that the lady delegates found it hard to leave for the coffee hour at Mrs. Collison's home on the lake shore and the garden party at the beautiful home of Olof Hanson at Lake Kathlyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Little drove to Smithers on Friday to take part in the banquet and dance arranged for the delegates and guests to the Associated Boards convention.

Terrace people settled down on Monday after the exciting events of Sunday evening when Terrace was shaken by an earthquake tremor which lasted a little over one minute. There were many who were driving in cars who did not feel the quake and disappointment has been expressed by them all at having "missed something."

Mrs. V. L. Hansen returned on Tuesday's train to Prince Rupert after spending the past few days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sikler.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fisk with their son and daughter-in-law drove into Terrace this week from California. Mr. Fisk was obliged to enter hospital for treatment and the members of his family are awaiting his recovery in order to continue their journey to Prince Rupert.

Dr. George Lamont, doctor in charge of Red Cross outpost hospitals in B.C., spent Monday in Terrace as the guest of Dr.
F. E. B. McGilvery, later returning to Prince Rupert to continue his journey by boat to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy returned on Monday from the south where they have been on a holiday tour.

Two bus loads of Prince Rupert people drove into Terrace on Sunday morning for a picnic at Lakelse Lake, returning to the coast in the early evening.

STEWART LIKED DANCE DISPLAY

STEWART—Climaxing a successful season, the Misses Joyce and Juanita Hawkinson presented their tap dancing class in an excellent display in the Legion Hall on Friday. The first item on the program was "Kamarin-skia," a Russian folk dance
featuring Daphne Woodford, Gloria Lawrence, Barbara Lawrence, Joanne Rothnie, Frances MacLeod and Beverly Lawrence.
It was very well done and enthusiastically acclaimed by the audience.

"La Cucaracha," a Mexican number by Shirley Lawrence and Miriam Haahti, had a professional touch and was well received.

An Irish jig and Irish lilt by Barbara Lawrence and Joanne Rothnie received well merited applause.

"Sailor's Hornpipe" by Deana Geddes, Frances MacLeod and Gloria Lawrence had the audience tapping the floor in sympathy.

A number of folk dances representing Scandinavian countries proved a big hit. Miss Miriam Haahti sang "Purple Gold Band," a Swedish folk song and "Fly, Birdie, Fly," a Danish folk song.

this clever couple danced themselves into the hearts of their audience. Billy Orr intrigued the youngsters with two songs entitled "Dear, Dear" and "At-black face tap, was a knockout.

The hall was packed to cap-

It's so different today

PIRACY on the High Seas was, no doubt, exciting until it came to breakfasting on salt pork and ship's biscuit. Nowadays that delicious cereal, Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes, is eaten joyfully on both sea and land. It's made from not one but TWO grains — sun-ripened wheat and malted barley.

Bold buccaneers of today come aboard with scent when Grape-Nuts Flakes are in the offing.
And a good thing too, because these honey-golden flakes provide nourishment they need
... useful quantities of carbohydrates, protein, phosphorus, iron and other food essentials.
Say "Ahoy, Mr. Grocer! Grape-Nuts Flakes, please!"

Do your ironing the simple, modern way—with an electric ironer—and say "good-bye" to tiresome standing, to backache, to slow, tedious work. You cover wider areas in less time, and have more heat and pressure without leaving your comfortable chair.
