Britain, States and France Taking Firm Stand With Russia

PARIS (CP)—Great Britain, United States and France warned the United Nations Security Council today that any scheme for settlement of east-west German problems is doomed to failure as long as the Soviet blockade of Berlin continues. Sir Alexander Cadogan, speaking on behalf of the three western powers, led off the western attack with an indictment of the tightening Soviet blockade. He declared that no negotiations of any phase of the Berlin problem would be entered into under any circumstances as long as the blockade continued.

CONSULT SEAMEN ABOUT PLACING OF LIGHTHOUSES

The Department of Transport marine service will make an investigation into the placement of navigation lights on the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands, according to word received by H. G. Archibald, Member of Parliament for Skeena.

The investigation will take the form of an opinion poll among fishermen to determine the best spots for locating lights to guide vessels along the west coast, which now has no lights except at its extreme northerly and southerly ends.

Looking for Long Strike

Anchorage Business Man Refers to Bad Effect of Continual Disputes

Any change in the strike situation on the west coast, involving American shipping and waterfront workers, appears highly improbable until after the presidential election, said W. M. Mellish of Anchorage, Alaska who was in Prince Rupert yesterday on his way south accompanied by F. J. Lewis of Selah, Washington.

Mr. Mellish, a pioneer of the north, and Jarvis H. McLeod, collector of customs here, were friends together in Dawson during the stampede of '98.

"To say," remarked the visitor from Alaska, who talks readily and to the point "that, as a result of the strike, there is quite a scarcity would not be quite correct. Nevertheless, transportation by air costs money and this naturally contributes to the expense of living." He emphasized that the economic difficulties are having a direct and unhappy effect on Alaskan communities.

"A strike comes along," he said "and is finally settled. But the time between its adjustment and the appearance of a new strike is all too short. In Skagway, Juneau and Ketchikan and other ports they are still suffering from the consequences of strikes settled months ago. But we can't look for anything different until it's known how the election goes."

"What's the population of Anchorage?"

"Around thirty thousand."

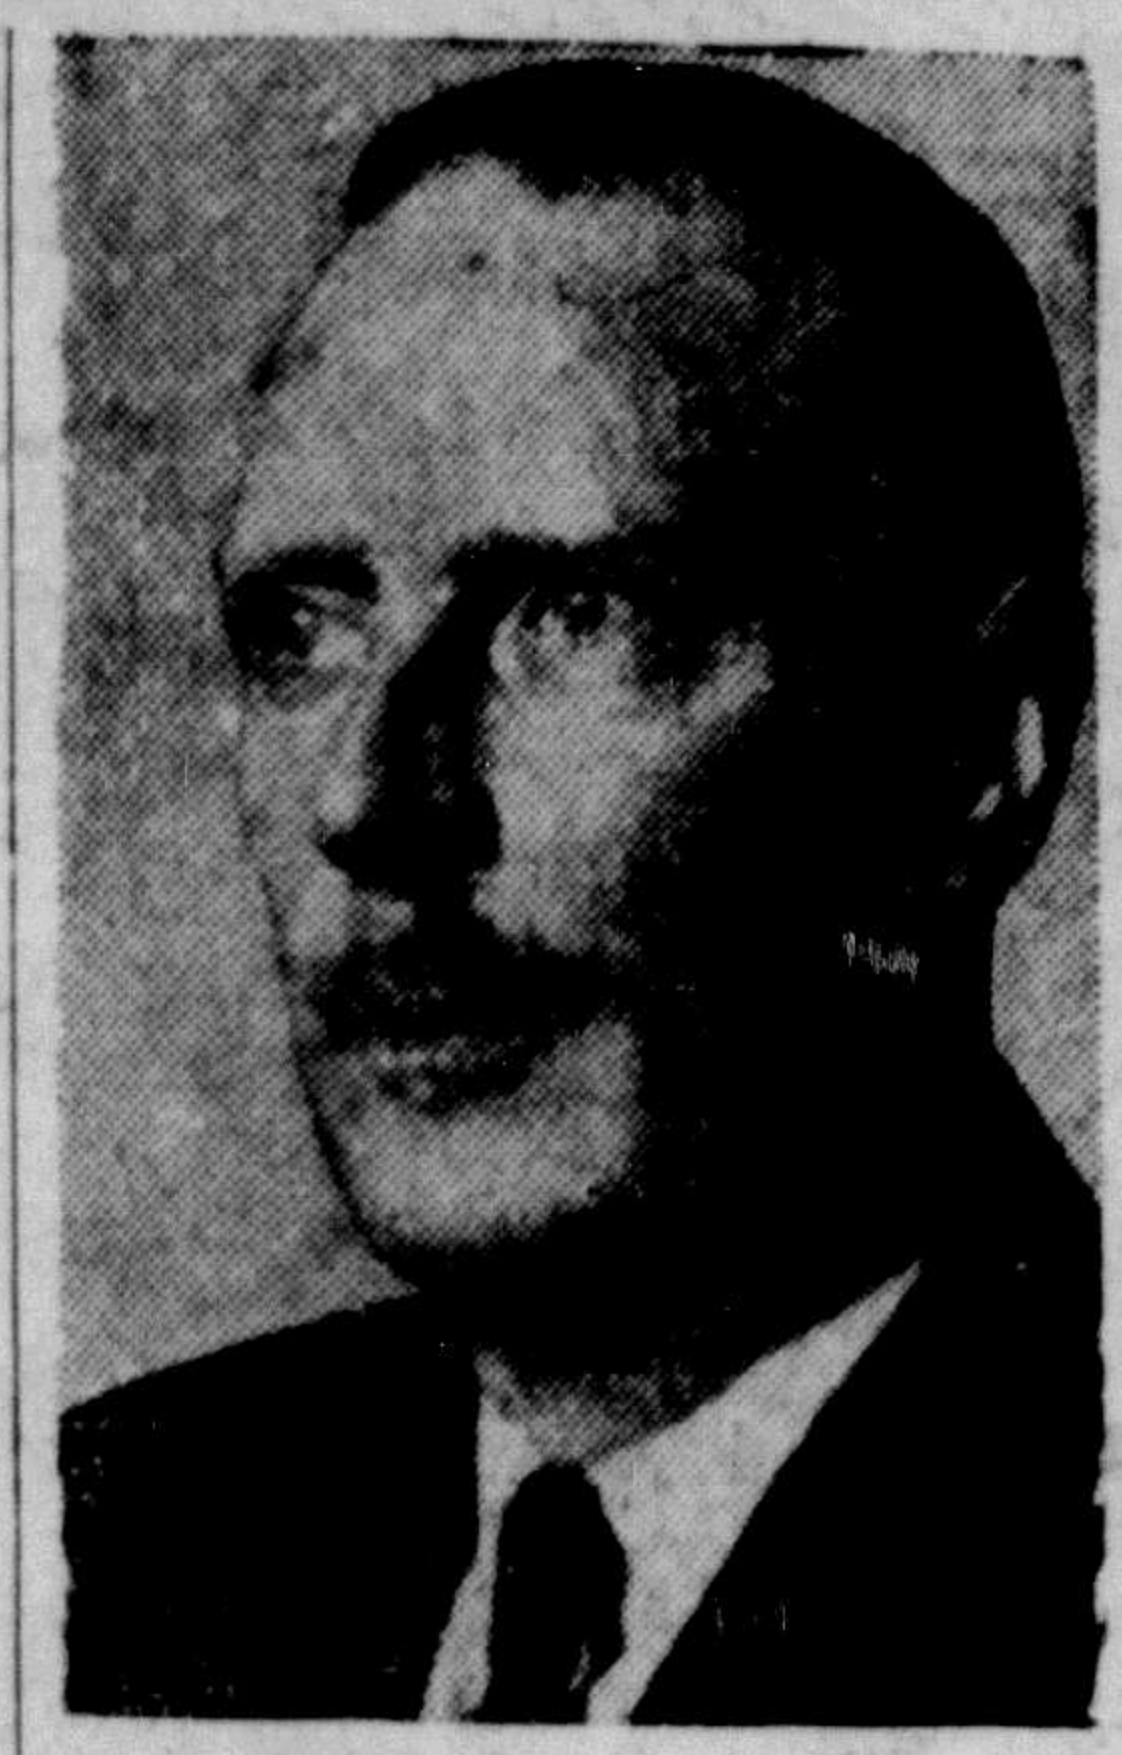

He was asked what there was, in the way of industry, to support a city of that size. He did not reply immediately. He led up to it with casual references to the general trend of international affairs, at last summing it all up this way:

"I should say our chief industry is the United States Army."

Mr. Mellish is a business man of prominence in the northern city.

COMMISSIONER FOR U.K. HERE TOMMORROW

Disturished visitor to Prince Rupert in the form of a tour of all important points in Western Canada will be Hon. Sir Alexander Clutterbuck, M.C., High Commissioner for the United Kingdom in Canada, who arrives tomorrow morning aboard the steamer Prince George.

Jews Defy Cease Fire

Fighting in Holy Land Centred Against Egyptians—Cairo Raided

TEL AVIV, (CP)—Jewish troops in night actions stormed and captured heights dominating the road through Negev in defiance of United Nations cease-fire orders.

An Israeli communique said that large scale air activity was also continuing. Bombing by the Israeli air force roared into its fourth straight day with the attack centred in and around Gaza, the main Egyptian military base in Palestine and capital of the newly proclaimed Arab government of the Holy Land.

The Arab population of Gaza was reported in flight. United Nations observers have already left the port city. The Egyptian air force was hitting back today for the first time and is reported to have bombed the Jewish settlements of Nir Am and Dohot.

Late today the ground fighting appeared to be slackening. Cairo had on one-hour air raid alarm as five enemy planes attempted to raid the city.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
Considerable cloudiness covers the western portion of the province today while the eastern section continues clear. Temperatures in most sections remain near normal. A storm centre, which is developing southwest of the United States coast, is expected to move rapidly northward bringing rain to the B.C. coast tomorrow.

Forecast
Queen Charlottes' and North Coast — Overcast with showers today. Overcast Wednesday with rain commencing in afternoon. Wind, southeast (20 m. p.h.) little change in temperature. Lows tonight and highs tomorrow: Port Hardy 42 and 52, Massett and Prince Rupert 47 and 52.

OFFERED MONEY TO KILL REUTHER

DETROIT (CP)—A witness testified today that Carl Bolton, 39, offered him $15,000 to kill Walter P. Reuther, president of the Automobile Workers Association of America. The C.I.O. witness was John Miller, 45, who testified at Bolton's examination on a charge of assault with intent to kill. The witness also said that Kenneth Banyon, director of unions for the Ford Motor Co., was scheduled to be assassinated. Reuther was shot at his home last April 20 but is recovering.

SERIES EVENED UP

TORONTO (CP)—Hamilton's battling Tigers evened up the best of five-game series for the Canadian senior lacrosse championship at two games each Monday with a bitterly fought 9 to 7 victory over New Westminster Adanacs. The deciding game will be played Wednesday night.

City Counters Request For Gravel Contract Extension

Seeks $2,200 Refund Under Old Agreement In Exchange For Extension For Highway Construction Company

City council is seeking a $2,200 refund from Highway Construction Co. on the cost of transporting machinery from Vancouver to Prince Rupert more than a year ago following an application by the company here for an extension of its current street gravel contract.

Decision to ask for the refund on the basis of an old contract was made by the aldermen at a special council meeting Monday afternoon during which they considered a suggestion by R. R. Hankey, local Highway Construction Co. superintendent, for an extra 30 days in which to deliver a high quality gravel to fulfil the present contract.

Whether or not the company will consider the refund depends on its Vancouver officers who were expected to make their decision today following telephone conversations with their local manager and City Clerk H. D. Thain last night.

At yesterday's council meeting, Mr. Hankey said that he is in a position to complete deliveries of gravel of the proper quality and size by November 13 when the contract terminates. The material would come from a stockpile already in the city.

However, he asked for an extension in order to bring in a better grade of gravel from deposits which he has recently opened up at Denise Arm. The uncrushed gravel which is now stockpiled, could be disposed of rapidly, he said.

Since the city entered the contract with Highway Construction Co. last May for 10,000 cubic yards of gravel, only 4,000 yards have been delivered. Of the remaining 6,000 yards, 4,000 are to be of three-quarter inch specifications, suitable for top road dressing. The other 2,000 yards are to be of two-inch dimension for base material. It is for delivery of the 4,000 yards of fine material that Mr. Hankey asked the extension.

"I have enough uncrushed gravel stockpiled to make proper delivery by November 13, he told council. "However, I now have a better grade of gravel at Denise Arm and have taken it on myself to offer it to you."

City Engineer Don Stewart said that the gravel at present stockpiled would meet specifications providing it was washed and screened. Washing, he added, however, increased the moisture content and slowed down the hot mixing process in the asphalt plant.

"The gravel now being worked at Denise Arm is much cleaner and 'cooks' much better than that already delivered," he declared. "I am willing to go along with Mr. Hankey."

Lateness of the season prohibits the start of any street construction program before spring, he added, and there is now enough material on hand to look after winter repair work.

The aldermen agreed that, "since the summer was wasted," the city should try and obtain the best quality material in

Recruiting Drive Features Chatham's 25th Anniversary

Prince Rupert's naval reserve division, H.M.C.S. Chatham, will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary this week-end with an "open house" Saturday afternoon at which the public will be invited for refreshments and a view of the establishment and its equipment.

The "open house" also will be held in conjunction with the current recruiting drive which is the feature of Navy Week which began Monday and will conclude Saturday.

"We would like to see everyone come down and inspect Chatham. We are planning a wholehearted welcome to the public of Prince Rupert," was the invitation of Lieut. Commander T. A. Johnstone, reserve training officer who is in command during the absence in Ottawa of Lieut. Commander J. D. McRae.

The current drive for recruits has brought in 10 new members in the last two weeks bringing the current strength of the division to about 40, according to Lieut. Walter Smith. This, however, is only half the required complement and more are needed.

The drive coincides with the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of H.M.C.S. Chatham as a reserve division at Prince Rupert. It operated as an important part of community life during the period before it went active in the Second World War.

A number of other reserve divisions were established at the same time, and these, too, are holding "open house" Saturday in various parts of the country. Training program now being conducted under Lieut. Commander Johnstone is designed to coincide with the courses studied in the active navy and reserve members who complete the courses receive credits which would entitle them to comparative ratings if they went "active."

"It used to be that reserve training bore very little relationship to the training given in the R.C.N.," Lieut. Commander Johnstone said. "That is changed now and, if the reservists do join the regular service or are called up, they will hold the ratings for which they qualified in the reserve."

The training courses are conducted by the fourteen permanent force staff men at Chatham.

They include general field training and squad drills for newer members and such technical courses as torpedo work and anti-submarine tactics. Equipment also is on hand for the study of radar, loran and other technical training.

'COLLABORATORS' STAYING

OTTAWA—The case of alleged Vichy collaborators, so far as the Canadian government is concerned, remains closed and will not be reopened. This was made clear yesterday by Acting Prime Minister C. D. Howe when he said a statement he had already made was the "official story." The statement said the case was "closed as far as the cabinet is concerned." The collaborators have been given refuge in Canada with the consent of Royal Canadian Mounted Police and immigration authorities.

PACIFIC COAST SALMON PACK

Pacific Coast salmon pack up to October 9 totalled 1,155,142 cases, as compared with 1,446,959 for the same period of 1947, according to the latest bulletin issued by the Chief Supervisor of Fisheries, Vancouver.

Pack in the Naas and Skeena River areas was 431,085 cases, almost double that for the same period of last year, and the largest since the 1945 season. Pink salmon dominated the Skeena River pack, followed by sockeye.

"Of the total coast pack, chums provided 357,441 cases, while there were 321,117 cases of pink and 259,498 cases of sockeye."

Here is the Skeena and Naas River pack by varieties up to October 9.

Pinks, 152,915; sockeye, 121,745; chums, 106,496; coho, 41,425; springs, 4,755; steelheads, 3,749.

FRANCE SEEKS EXTRADITION

So It Is Said in Case of Four Refugees Given Haven in Canada

PARIS, (CP)—The French government has asked Canada "several times" to start extradition proceedings against four alleged French collaborators now reported to be living in the province of Quebec, it was learned yesterday. (Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, Acting Prime Minister, said yesterday in Ottawa that no requests had been received by the Canadian government for extradition.)

"The French government wants these men," sources close to the government said. Warrants are still in force against the four who are identified as George Benoit Montel, surgeon; Julien Gaudens Pabedan, cabinet maker; Andrew Charles Emmanuel Bousset, surgeon, and Jean Louis Huc.

The Canadian cabinet has announced that it will not reconsider the case of the four refugees who have been granted residence in Canada by special order-in-council.

Why Woo Spain?

SPAIN HAS SUDDENLY become a centre of interest in the plans of the western democracies for the checking of Russia in Europe. American politicians, business men and military leaders have been seeing General Franco at the Prado Palace in Madrid and returning to urge that Spain be re-admitted to polite society—and given money and munitions.

There is something sickening and morally weakening about the spectacle of Americans even suggesting that a partner should now be made of the dictator who was so recently aligned with Germany and Japan. For this is the Franco Spain which Hitler and Mussolini used as a training ground for the legions they later threw at the western democracies. This is the dictatorship whose record in persecuting political prisoners and denying genuine freedom of speech and worship parallels Russia's. This is the fascist regime which even the United Nations voted unworthy of diplomatic recognition by member nations.

Fortunately, it seems that only in the United States is such advocacy on behalf of Spain taking any hold. In Britain Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin is still most ardently urging the continued ostracizing of Franco. In France such proposals are doubly distasteful.

In addition, the whole project would appear to be highly reckless. Its certain result would be to further wreck the United Nations by alienating the neutral nations. Even from a military standpoint it is to be questioned for who knows how unstable Spain might be herself in time of turmoil? How much could one authoritarian state be depended upon as a bulwark against another? Why should the United States or any other country become the bed-fellow of one form of totalitarianism in order to curb another?

HOWE CHANGES HIS MIND

IT'S A GOOD MAN who can change his mind and so we take off our hat to Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce, who goes so far as to admit that he has been "seized with the economic importance" of a TransCanada Highway as a national project. This is the same Mr. Howe who not so long ago expressed the opinion that construction of a TransCanada Highway should be reserved until times got hard when work would be needed to relieve unemployment. Since making that statement, however, Mr. Howe has been gradually coming around to a different point of view until now he unreservedly admits that a TransCanada Highway is something that could well be considered. Accordingly a conference on the matter will be held in the near future. Now that Mr. Howe has seen the light we may expect some action before long since his views had for some time been considered as constituting one of the major obstacles in the campaign to induce the federal government to do something about a general national highway program.

NURSING ANNIVERSARY

THE MODERN NURSE is so skilful in helping the physician that many medical functions are now relegated to her, according to the American Nurses' Association, sponsor of this year's nationwide Diamond Jubilee, from November 14 to 20, marking the 75th anniversary of professional nursing in the United States.

"In many cases today," the ANA declares, "it is the nurse who administers anesthetics and medicines, assists at operations, washes out the stomach, gives hypodermic injections and enemas, and makes metabolism tests and cardiograms. She is the physician's colleague and aide, but her salary and status have not caught up with the importance of her present duties. Nurses are still paid only slightly more than $35 to $40 a week; they work 48 to 54 hours a week; and are victims of the split shift, which prevents them from leading a normal social life."

In connection with this year's celebration of the 75th anniversary of the profession, the ANA urges an economic security program for nurses. This calls for an 8-hour day and steps toward a 40-hour 5-day week; salary adjustments for evening, night and on-call duty; extension of forms of social insurance to include nurses' sick leave and vacation with pay; removal of restrictions on place of residence and greater recognition of professional and personal status.

It is to be noted that the above comment is applied particularly to the nurses of the United States. In British Columbia the nursing profession appears to be operating under much better conditions than in the United States having already won several of the items which the ANA is still seeking.

Pacific Comes Back After Floods —Power Wasting At Hagwilget

Pacific was one of the points along the Skeena River, during last summer that rising waters did not overlook. The flood spread over the yard and tracks and around station and cafe. Today, however, there is nothing to remind one of this. Station lawns and ornamental shrubbery are trim and neat, affairs move along as usual and Mrs. Anderson, pioneer hotel woman, looking hale and hearty, greets all guests.

Hagwilget is an old native village standing on spacious, gently sloping ground where the lofty, high level bridge links the frowning cliffs of Bulkley River canyon. Here, the water foams and roars forever and a day, incidentally wasting power on a major scale. The remote ancestors of the Hagwilgets are said to have come originally from across Behring Sea. Looking out from where they dwell, natural grandeur flaunts the changing, vivid tints of October. Forty miles away, along the shores of the Skeena, the silvery summits of the Seven Sisters rise sharply in the clear, cool air. Behind the gray, ramshackle village is what Nature perhaps intended to be golfing ground. But the Hagwilgets do not play.

It's more than five years since R. J. Morrison, in the employ of the public works department, New Hazelton, has been in Prince Rupert. A former resident of this city, where he will be remembered by many old timers, his interest in the coast centre remains keen and he had many questions to ask about local progress and people.

Albert Mercer, handy as hunter and mountain climber, who thinks nothing of scaling the dizzy crest of Rocher de Boule (peak of the rolling stone), is now located at Copper River, nearer the coast.

Gust Christianson, New Hazelton hotel man, has recovered from the effects of severe burns that last December made it necessary to receive months of rest and special treatment. His son, Carl, is now personally managing the hotel. The establishment has been modernized, the improvements including hot and cold water in the bedrooms.

J. H. Willan recently bought the business of W. J. Larkworthy, pioneer merchant at New Hazelton. It is here the post office is located. It will be recalled that Mrs. Larkworthy died some time ago, being survived by her husband and young daughter.

People find reason for deep interest indeed, in the recent confirmation of a report that uranium ore had been found at Rocher de Boule, the spectacular looking peak that once seen, is not so easily forgotten. All agree that, if the strike is something genuine, it can have far-reaching results.

Poles, poles, poles—thousands and thousands of them, fresh from the wilderness and now awaiting shipment to various destinations, from railway points of assembly such as Terrace, Kitwanga, Nash and New Hazelton.

Rancher Bill Little of Woodcock had not harvested his apples up to last week. From the railway station, it did not appear that the orchard trees had been disturbed. Mr. Little has been located at Woodcock for a good many years, and developed a fine property. During the war some of the land was sold for air force purposes.

A chip on the shoulder indicates there's wood higher up.

future deliveries but still balked at allowing Mr. Hankey an extension.

Alderman T. E. Black made reference to the refund clause in the city's original contract with Highway Construction Co. for construction of the Fairview Bay road more than a year ago and his suggestion was caught up by Alderman Casey and Alderman McKay.

DEPENDS ON REFUND

"I think that extension of the present contract should be contingent on us getting a refund on the Co-op road contract," Alderman Black declared. "The company would not be asking for it if it were not to their advantage."

The refund clause referred to, stipulated that if Highway Construction Co. obtained work for its machinery within six months after completing the road, the city would be refunded the $2,500 cost of transporting the equipment from Vancouver to Prince Rupert on a pro-rata basis.

The clause specified that the amount of work on future contracts—let within six months of the completion of the original contract—must equal the original contract price—$34,000.

The city already has received $200 back on the cemetery ditching job last winter. Pro-rata refund on the current $30,000 gravel contract would be about $2,200.

The aldermen chose to disregard the fact that the six-month time limit on the refund clause had expired two weeks before the present contract was signed last May. Alderman McKay referred to the time lapse as a "technicality."

Alderman Casey had similar views, charging that the city had lost out at every turn of the road in its dealings with the company.

"Because they could not deliver the gravel, we have missed the best summer we've had in 40 years," he asserted. "It might be another 40 years before we get another like it."

Alderman Casey said that he would be willing to move an extension be granted providing Highway Construction would grant a refund.

When the motion was put, the aldermen supported it unanimously. The company's response was expected to be learned today.

LOCAL BANKER IS TRANSFERRED
W. J. Pfeffer, who has been with the local branch of the Bank of Montreal for the past couple of years as assistant accountant, has been transferred to Duncan as accountant and will be leaving within the next few days for his new duties on Vancouver Island. Mr. Pfeffer's successor here is to be E. V. Ardagh who comes from New Westminster. Mr. Ardagh is a married man with two children.

Moose Whist Drive And Dancing Party
Large turn-out of members and guests was present at the weekly whist party and dance of the Moose Lodge Saturday night. Winners at whist were Mrs. A. Dumas and Mrs. Leah Berg for the ladies and Gillis Royer and J. P. Moller for the men. Music for dancing which brought the evening to a close was by the Moose Lodge and Carl Brechin was master of ceremonies.

CLELAND IS PRESIDENT
At the first business meeting of the year of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association, R. D. Cleland was elected president of the local association of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation and T. B. Bateman, vice-president.

Other officers elected were Miss E. Ball, secretary; John Jenkins, treasurer; Miss E. Moxley and J. S. Wilson, executive members.

Committee chairman are: Salaries, P. Adlem. Publicity, F. R. Wright. Education Week, Mr. Grasdahl. School Planning, A. M. Hurst. Refreshments, Miss M. Anstey, R. G. Moore, Miss H. House and F. Moore.

Mr. Cleland, delegate to the British Columbia Teachers' Federation central executive, reported on a meeting recently held in Vancouver. Close cooperation with the local Association is indicated by the executive's prompt action in following up the case of the teachers from outside the province who, after being engaged this year by the Prince Rupert School Board, failed to live up to their agreements.

August Wallin, president of the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council, returned to the city Monday afternoon by air from Vancouver where he attended a meeting of the Provincial Carpenters' Council and the national convention of the Canadian Congress of Labor.

● CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., — Prince Edward Island's 1948 apple crop may be a poor one — about 30 per cent below normal — according to one estimate. Nova Scotia's Annapolis Valley crop also shows marked decrease this season.

Reminiscences and Reflections
By W.I.

After you put about a hundred miles between yourself and Prince Rupert that long lost animal, the horse, begins to reappear. Also, the gentle and blameless cow. Sometimes one finds them wearing bells, and as they leisurely crop, in field and byway, the distant tinkle has a soothing, homey sound. For once, the hard-boiled, gleaming automobile is not omnipotent. It's a refreshing change to see a stock-saddle, hear the creak of leather and soft thud of hoofs on the turf.

An Alaskan visitor, here yesterday, remarked that Anchorage has a population of thirty thousand, if not more. Asked if he could say what industry there was, to support that population, he replied briskly: "I can. 'It's the United States Army industry."

Looking back over the eventful days of 1942-43 many Prince Rupert people will feel like agreeing with him. A somewhat similar situation existed here then.

Local old timers who have not been in town since before the war can be found here and there between Prince Rupert and the Bulkley region. Some think, should they re-visit, that they will find the city quite unchanged. There would be a few surprises. That gigantic and unused warehouse will be Exhibit No. 1.

The average rental for a dwelling in Canada, is $27.43 says a government announcement. This has official prestige and all that, but the average consumer and rent-payer can't bring himself to believe it even though born of government wisdom and perception. Somehow $27.43 does not seem quite natural.

About everyone up country, has a garden. And there is always water handy, and wood for the taking. A well-built shack can be made comfortable. And so, any number of men are managing quite well on the old age pension. What they don't want and won't have is to live in a home or any sort of institution. A life-time of being "on their own" has made them very resourceful. With something coming in regularly, they get by. They are as free as the wind and that is what suits.

BRAVES' CASUALTY SAW SERIES—Star outfielder for the Boston Braves, Jeff Heath arrived at Boston to attend the World Series, which he saw from his wheelchair. With him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Heath. The slugger was injured in a game with Brooklyn, where he broke an ankle. He liked what he saw in the first game—his team beat the Indians 1-0—but he didn't like the outcome on the whole.

Smiles and Chuckles

The Gladstone Rangers and Celtic football match is always an event to stir the emotions of the crowd, and rivalry runs very high. The Protestant vs. Catholic element is an important factor.

At one match a spectator loudly cheered when Celtic scored, and threw his cap in the air. Later, when Rangers scored, he was equally delighted. This conduct puzzled the man next to him.

"Here," he asked, "which side are you supposed to be for?"

"Oh," replied the other, "I'm not supporting either side. I'm just here to enjoy the game."

Whereupon the questioner remarked to the friend next to him: "H'm, blinkin atheist."

G-man: "He got away, did he? Didn't you guard all the exits?"

Village Constable: "Yep. He must have gone out one of the entrances."

The small boy went into the lounge to see a visitor who was with his father.

"Well, my little man," said the father's friend, "why are you looking at me so hard?"

"Why," replied the boy, "Daddy told me you were a self-made man, and I wanted to see what you look like."

"Quite right," said the gratified guest, "I am a self-made man."

"But why did you make yourself like that?" asked the boy, with surprise.

DETROIT IN PUCK LEAD

TORONTO, (P) — They gave the Stanley Cup to the Toronto Maple Leafs Saturday night but less than two hours later the Boston Bruins took some of the shine off the silverware. The Bruins belted the Leafs 4 to 1 in Toronto's first game of the season.

Montreal Canadiens took over the league leadership briefly, beating the Chicago Black Hawks 8 to 2, but dropped back to second place Sunday when Detroit Red Wings hammered the crippled New York Rangers 7 to 0. Elmer Lach topped the scoring race with two goals and Max McNab, Detroit rookies from Saskatoon, was right beside him.

The league standing to date:

	W	D	L	F	A	P
Detroit	2	0	0	10	1	4
Montreal	1	1	0	9	3	3
Boston	1	0	0	4	1	2
New York	0	1	1	1	8	1
Toronto	0	0	1	1	4	0
Chicago	0	0	2	3	11	0

Next National Hockey League games will be Chicago at Boston Wednesday night and Toronto at Montreal Thursday night.

STAMPEDERS WIN AGAIN

WINNIPEG, (P) — Calgary's powerful Stampeders last night swept to their eleventh straight victory in the Western Inter-provincial Football Union competition by downing Winnipeg Blue Bombers 21 to 8. The Stampeders now hold a 16 point margin over the second place bombers.

Sport Shots

Kingston football fans were given a look at Interprovincial rugby competition seven years ago in celebration of the centenary of Queen's University. Toronto Argonauts clinched a play-off berth, eliminating the Montreal Bulldogs with a 12-1 victory.

Burly Pat Egan, New York American who now wears Boston livery, raced in on Montreal Canadiens' goalie Bert Gardiner and scored to complete the first major penalty shot in National Hockey League history in New York seven years ago today.

ALLAN AND BRETT WIN IN BILLIARDS

Two games were played last night in the Canadian Legion billiard tournament. Jack Allan, who has taken the place of Bob Moxley in the tournament with a handicap of plus 15, defeated J. A. Teng (plus 30) by 150 to 140 after a very closely contested match.

G. R. Brett, playing scratch, had a much stiffer game than the score would indicate, winning from Neil Cameron, playing 15 or no count, by a score of 150 to 107. Neil Cameron was always dangerous although frequently missing his count by the odd point.

Paterson Knocks Out O'Sullivan

LONDON, (P) — Former fly-weight champion Jackie Paterson knocked out Danny O'Sullivan of England in the seventh round of a scheduled eight-round bout last night. Each weighed 118 pounds.

BASEBALL GATE OFF THIS YEAR

NEW YORK, (P) — The National League drew 9,822,502 baseball fans during the 1948 season, a decrease of five per cent, unofficial figures showed yesterday.

NATIVE WOMAN IS BURIED AT INTERIOR HOME

KITWANGA—Villagers from along the upper Skeena River paid final tribute to the late Mrs. Hazel Stacey at funeral services held here following the arrival of the remains from Prince Rupert where she died two weeks ago.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. Hayhurst with Mrs. Hayhurst playing the organ during the singing of the hymns. For three days prior to the burial, community gatherings were held in tribute to the deceased. Criticism of the manner in which she died in the Prince Rupert city jail was levelled at the authorities by speakers.

Chief Harold Sinclair suggested to a gathering that native parents should keep their children away from the city "in the interests of self protection."

Accompanying the remains from Prince Rupert were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tait, parents of the deceased, and Chief and Mrs. Robert G. Harris. The casket was taken by truck by Chief Fred Johnson from the station to the village. Chief Philip Ryan, Harold Sinclair, Solomon Bryant and Harold Daniels acted as pallbearers.

Then an assembly was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tait, where refreshments were served and an address given by Harold Sinclair. Villagers from Kitsegukla, Kitwano, Cedarvale and Hazelton attended the funeral service. Speeches of welcome featured the proceedings which preceded the funeral service. Among the speakers were Chief Fred Johnson and Chief Stanley Williams.

During the church service, Chief Robert G. Harris addressed the congregation on the evils of liquor among the native population. Liquor, he declared, had been responsible for many so-called accidental deaths.

Floral tributes from the Upper Skeena, coastal villages and the Naas River settlements attested to the esteem in which Mrs. Stacey was held among the native people.

GABARDINE AND NYLON—The latest in women's fashions—a classic suit and coat of a worsted type gabardine made by blending nylon staple fibre with wool. Addition of 20 per cent nylon staple to woolen yarns imparts crease-resistance and greater strength to the finished fabric, it is claimed. Apparel shown is considered superior in quality and costs less than garments of pure worsted. Nylon staple was introduced in Canada for the first time this year.

New Hazelton Sawles Have Anniversary

NEW HAZELTON—Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sawle of New Hazelton were thirty-nine years married on Saturday. Their wedding took place in Ontario and they came west during the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. After residing in Prince Rupert for about a year they moved to New Hazelton which has been their home town ever since. Mr. Sawle is proprietor of the well known weekly, the Omineca Herald, and to himself and wife numerous friends have been extending sincere congratulations and best wishes.

JOSEPH SANKEY MARRIED HERE

Mrs. Elsie Sankey and Joseph Sankey, both of Port Simpson, were married late Saturday afternoon in First United Church by Rev. R. A. Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. E. Kelly of Port Simpson were the attendants of the couple. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sankey. After the wedding ceremony, there was a wedding supper at the Commodore Cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Sankey sailed Sunday night on the Camosun for a trip to Vancouver after which they will return to Prince Rupert to reside.

Belief In God Is Logical Conclusion

"In the days when Christ was teaching, it was not necessary for Him to convince people of the existence of God, they already believed," said Rev. R. A. Wilson during his sermon at First United Church Sunday morning. "But Paul commenced travelling and teaching outside the borders of his native land and he found many people that had to be shown that there was one God." Mr. Wilson went on to urge how important it was for modern people to have a firm belief in God based on logical conclusions derived from observation and study. The junior choir, under the direction of F. Huber, acting in the absence of J. S. Wilson, was in attendance. Mrs. L. Dakin supplied the organ accompaniment.

SCHOOL VOTING RESULTS TODAY

The proportional representation method of balloting was used Monday by Booth Memorial High School students in election of officers for the Student Council and, because of the involved method of counting the votes, results were not expected to be available until late this afternoon.

Under the proportional representation system, the voters mark their ballots as to first choice, second choice, and so on. In order to be elected, a candidate must have a given number of votes and, if he cannot obtain this number on first choice, the lower candidates are dropped and the second choice votes for the remaining candidates are counted.

Normally, the time required to tally the votes in a proportional representation election is much greater than in a straight balloting and the Booth election is further complicated by the fact that some candidates are seeking more than one office.

For the ten offices open, 33 candidates were named. Those seeking presidency of the School Council are Diane Kennedy, Eric Moore, Laila Husoy and Joanne Langridge.

The proportional representation system is used regularly in Alberta provincial elections and in many American "state and civic elections.

KIN PLANNING FOR HALLOWE'EN

Community Bonfires Again—Other Fall Activities Considered

When the goblins, broomstick-riding witches and black cats converge on Prince Rupert again this year they will find the Kinsmen tending three blazing beacons in the same locations as last year. At their regular meeting held last night at the Commodore Cafe, the Kinsmen voted to plan their Halloween entertainment along lines similar to previous programs.

A suggestion was put forth which called for one central fire on Roosevelt Hill and a large scale fireworks display but the majority of members present felt that, in the long run, the children would get more enjoyment out of treats, prizes and entertainment provided at fires in their own neighborhoods.

Herb Young, chairman of the T.B. seals committee, reported that the appeal letters have been prepared and will shortly be in the mails.

In the matter of uniforms for the Kinsmen junior basketball team, the members of the club decided to refer the matter to the manager and committee in charge.

Entertainment at last night's meeting was organized by R. E. Montador and Stan Saville. To start the merriment off, three members were asked to attempt reading a tongue-twisting test used on aspiring radio announcers.
