

Alberta Woman Is Victim of Vicious Killing

Area Is Being Searched For Companion

PRINCE RUPERT (CP)—Police last night combed an area around an east-end auto court for W. D. Henderson, a companion of Yvonne Ledesque of Edmonton who was killed in a vicious killing.

Henderson was found in a ditch near the auto court. He had been beaten and his body was found with several wounds.

ANNUAL TRIP TO CHURCHILL

WINNIPEG—Tourists from twenty-six of the forty-eight states of the United States, as well as a large representation of Canadians from east and west, were passengers on the thirteenth annual Churchill special which left here over Canadian National Railways today.

The Americans come from California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, The District of Columbia, Idaho, Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Michigan, Massachusetts, Montana, Maryland, Missouri, Nevada, New York, Nebraska, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Wisconsin, Oklahoma, as well as the neighboring states of North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota.

The Canadian party is mainly from Ontario and Manitoba points.

Included in the party are many from both the United States and Canada who have made previous trips.

During the week's tour of Manitoba's northland, the party will visit Dauphin, Flin Flon, Sherridon, The Pas, and will spend thirty-six hours at Churchill. At each stopover point, the party will be guests of the local Chamber of Commerce and will have the opportunity of seeing wonderful farming country, the northern lakes, mines and Manitoba's seaport where ocean ships are now loading and unloading.

Churchill Is For Freedom

Leads Fight in Council of Europe's Nations Against Control by Foreign Ministers

STRASBOURG, France, (CP)—Led by Winston Churchill, the new council of Europe's first assembly today fought for greater independence from control by twelve member governments.

Churchill, fiery advocate of a United Europe, called for the assembly today fought for greater independence from control by twelve member governments.

In one of the first speeches to the 101-member assembly yesterday, Churchill rapped what he called "crippling limitation" on the assembly debate imposed by the council's committee of foreign ministers.

Soviet Union Calls Yugoslavia "Enemy"

SOPHIE'S A SISTER NOW—During a visit to the Six Nations reservation at Oshwekan, near Hamilton, Sophie Tucker, "the last of the red hot mommas," was given a new title. Now she's Ka-ge-ja-waks which means Sister of Flowers. Here Sophie, in her Indian head dress, beams with three chiefs after the honor was conferred upon her. Left to right: Chief Jerry Blue Eyes, Chief Little Bear and Chief Pale Moon. (C. P. Photo)

Something Is Added At McClymont Park; Police Seeking Bear

Something was added to the early afternoon entertainment of the Gyro playground at McClymont today and it was all very unexpected. A bear hunt is now under way. A mother bear and two cubs were on hand immediately after lunch when the juvenile crowds began to gather. Some of the younger folk, completely unafraid of nature in the wild, thought to chase the dear little cubs about. But about this time, more mature park visitors had arrived and notified the authorities. Provincial police and game wardens were soon on the scene and at 2 p.m. were pursuing Ma Bruin and her children through the bush. A little gunning was planned.

Tommy Long, 9, reported to a Daily News reporter that he saw the bears playing near the pool and he called a milkman, Lloyd Stephens, who in turn, told the police.

Another youth, Fred Johnson, Eleventh Avenue East, said that bears were no strangers in that part of the city. He had often seen them in the park—and even in his own back yard—a mother bear and two cubs.

The cubs were quite mature, spectators reported.

Fred Johnson added that the timber wolves were also frequenting the Eleventh Avenue district. In fact, he had been chased by them.

Sgt. L. A. N. Potterton and Constable Harold Turner answered the police call and were soon joined by Game Warden Ed. Martin and his deputy, H. R. Walmesley, who took up the hunt.

THE WEATHER

(Synopsis)
Cloudiness is still present in many areas of British Columbia but clearing skies and somewhat higher afternoon temperatures should bring more pleasant weather to most regions during the next 24 hours. A very weak disturbance moving into the Gulf of Alaska will bring occasional light rain to the northern coastal areas tonight or early Saturday. It is not expected to affect the remainder of the province.

(Forecast)

North Coast Region—Clear, becoming cloudy during the afternoon and overcast tonight. Overcast with occasional light rain Saturday. Little change in temperature. Lows tonight and highs Saturday—at Port Hardy 43 and 62, Massett 48 and 60, Prince Rupert, 45 and 65.

HAMILTON DROWNING

HAMILTON (CP)—One man was drowned and his wife and a neighbor were rescued when a small boat capsized in a squall on Hamilton Bay. Officers are dragging for the body of Bert Philpott, aged 29. Mrs. Philpott, 28, and Thomas Taylor, 32 were rescued. The three were 1000 feet from shore fishing when the squall overturned their boat.

BANK HOLD-UP ARREST MADE

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police said yesterday that Anthony Schlosser of Vancouver has been charged with robbery with violence in connection with Saturday's $6000 holdup of a Bank of Nova Scotia here. It was said by the police that Schlosser had been picked from a line-up by four bank employees. A second arrest is expected soon.

NEW BRITISH JET THREATENS AMERICAN SUPREMACY IN AIR

WASHINGTON, D. C. (CP)—British development of the world's first jet airliner was interpreted today as a threat to the United States superiority in the aircraft manufacturing field. An analysis given by Delos W. Rentzel, Civil Aeronautics administrator at the Senate Commerce committee, said the British DeHavilland Comet was expected to cut flight schedule times in half.

Sharper Verbal Attack Levelled Against Tito

LONDON (CP)—Russia today called Marshal Tito's government an "enemy and foe of the Soviet Union." It was the first time the Kremlin had hurled the term "enemy" against Tito although it bitterly denounced the YugoSlav regime last year.

TOOK OFF ANYWAY

HALIFAX—The Royal Canadian Air Force said here today that one of its planes, detailed to escort Mrs. Richard Morrow-Tait, would-be world flier, from Goose Bay, Labrador, back to Bangor, Maine, was investigating report of a single-engine aircraft heading east towards Greenland. Mrs. Morrow-Tait had flown to Goose Bay but was denied a permit to fly the Atlantic. It is thought she may have taken off notwithstanding.

REDS CUT TRAFFIC

BERLIN—Russian Army guards cut down west German truck traffic for eight hours early today, United States military sources reported. Passage through the Soviet check point at Helmstedt was cut down without warning at 2 a.m. to four trucks an hour. Eight hours later the slowdown order was lifted and truck traffic began returning to normal.

Stewardess Is Heroine

Saved 27 Passengers From Flery Death in Maine Airliner

PORTLAND, Maine (CP)—A plucky stewardess was the heroine of a Northwest Airlines crash from which twenty-seven persons escaped safely last night. Pretty Patricia Donnellan, aged 23, rookie at the job, calmly herded the passengers out of a rear door a scant two minutes before the plane was enveloped in flames at the Portland Municipal airport.

Capt. Roderick Cote, aged 40, of Melrose, Mass., the pilot, said that the propellers of the twin-engined Convair accidentally reversed 15 or 20 feet above the runway.

HEAFNER IN GOLF LEAD

CHICAGO (CP)—Clayton Heafner, 240-pound Charlotte, North Carolina, professional, was burning up the trail to golf's biggest bonanza today with a one-stroke lead on entering the second round of the Tam O'Shanter, "world" championship. Heafner grabbed the lead yesterday with a sizzling six under par 66 for a slight edge over Johnny Palmer of Badin, North Carolina, and Henry Ransom, the Texan. Both banged out 67's.

Cynthia's Win

CONGRATULATIONS to Cynthia Norton and Terrace! There is something of the fairy tale flavor to this pretty English girl's victory in the contest at the Capitol Theatre here this week for the honor of representing Prince Rupert at the "Miss P.N.E." finals in Vancouver a couple of weeks hence.

While the seven Prince Rupert girls—Cynthia was the only contestant from out of town—each had their friends and admirers, there is some satisfaction in the outcome of the Terrace girl having won. It shows that the local people were able to recognize a good thing when they saw it and to do the fair thing in their selection of the out-of-town girl.

Local girls are also to be commended for their spirit of good sportsmanship. They will join heartily with the rest of us in wishing Cynthia the best of luck as she goes on to the wider competition in the south. May she do as well as our lovely Margie Brain did just a year ago!

OFF TO SPOKANE

THIRTY-ODD Prince Rupert girls set out on "high adventure" this afternoon as the Job's Daughters' drill team leaves for Spokane to take part in a colorful international contest of teams from all parts of Canada and the United States in marching and precision routine. Probably for the most of them it is the first trip so far abroad and the circumstances are particularly interesting. Having seen them in action, we are sure they will give a good account of themselves and probably bring honor to Prince Rupert.

In any case, the home town will get a deal of publicity out of the expedition and the girls will have a memorable experience.

Prince Rupert may be appreciative of the good work which Laura and Alex Mitchell have been doing among the girls through the Job's Daughters' organization these years past. The trip to Spokane is but a spectacular culmination to a fine job which through those years has exacted much effort, enthusiasm and organization.

DOWN TO DEFENCE BUSINESS

SOUTH AFRICA'S Minister of Defence, Francois Erasmus, and his top military man, General Beyers, have been in Ottawa. Yesterday, Lewis Johnston, U.S. Secretary of Defence, General McNaughton, the Minister of Defence Mr. Claxton and other notables were deep in discussion. The national leader of the Philippine Islands has arrived in Washington to talk over the wisdom of a West Pacific Pact. Everyone getting down to business?

PARLIAMENT SEPTEMBER 15—Seat of legislation and government of Canada where members will soon foregather again, among them E. T. Applewhaite, Prince Rupert's new representative.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Anyone who would steal gasoline from the tanks of a passenger seaplane has a family resemblance to the party who would have no objection to slipping a time bomb in the hold of an Atlantic liner.

The difference between Prince Rupert and Port Churchill, this fall, will be that here, we have an elevator and no ships. At the Hudsons Bay terminus, there is also an elevator and not enough wheat to give a cargo to the boat expected. Where to hang the blame, this time?

Saw Captain Nedden's photo in The News, the other day. The Skipper we've known for many years and he's a thorough sailor and a good scout. He saw long service with the C.N.S.S. on this coast. He knew news and would cheerfully pass it along. He commanded the steamer that carried the King and Queen between Vancouver and Victoria 10 years ago. Since then, came retirement but his knowledge of the coast and general seamanship could not go disregarded. Capt. Nedden has been around and as master of the beautiful yacht Corsair, once owned by J. Pierpont Morgan, he is the right man in the right station.

Albert Thorson of Portland is at least trying to give British Columbia something to think about. He speaks of the limitless water power going to waste among the provinces mountains. Electricity, he emphasizes, should be her cheapest commodity and the one most widely used. The Aluminum Co. of Canada is making a first rate start in the general direction of Mr. Thorson's ideas.

Batoche, on the Saskatchewan River between Saskatoon and Prince Albert, where the rebellion of '85 came to its unhappy end, is the centre of a pleasant countryside. The territory has long since been well settled. Wheat is grown as well as prairie produce. That far north, one begins to be in touch with forests. Lumbering has long been an industry, out of Prince Albert. Further north, today, a strike of what is thought to be uranium is arousing hopes and more or less guess work.

LOOKING BACK

25 Years Ago

August 12, 1924

J. D. McDougald, a director of the Canadian National Railways, said in an interview that construction of a terminal elevator here which was planned for the near future "would bring ships to this port, the railway would be busier, the dry dock and all other institutions connected with the port would get business."

Charges of wastage and inefficiency in the city engineer's department were contained in a letter placed before city council by J. W. Jorgensen, a former employee of the department who had been discharged. The letter was referred to the board of works without being read in council.

Tests were conducted to determine the feasibility of radio contact between the Seal Cove wireless station and the fisheries patrol plane which was operating in this area. Although the tests were made at close range, it appeared that the results were satisfactory.

ROTARIANS AT CARNIVAL GATE

Volunteer workers from the Rotary Club will take tickets at the gate of the Civic Centre carnival during the next week as their contribution to the fund-raising enterprise. The volunteers will work in shifts of three every evening from 7:30 to 11 p.m. while others will look after one of the games inside the building. The call for volunteers received a wide response at the club's weekly luncheon meeting Thursday afternoon. Visitors at the meeting, welcomed by Club President R. G. Van der Sluis, were Elmer Garnet of Alto, Oklahoma, Louis Nelson of Selma, California, A. M. Warren of Winnipeg and D. R. Hay, Prince Rupert.

BASEBALL—

Merchants Moving Up

John Rosedale Sets Commercials Down 6 to 1

Merchants climbed to within half a game of the second place Commercial last night when big John Rosedale hung up a brilliant two-hit pitching performance over the Hotelmen. The score was 6 to 1 and 'Rosie' himself drove in two important second inning runs with a clean single over second base.

Letourneau, on the mound for the losers, was unsteady at the start and Merchants hit freely to build up a 3 to 0 lead by the end of the second inning. Thereafter the young right-hander had the Merchant sluggers under control until the ninth when Cornwell behind the plate, threw line-drives into right and left field to clear the bases and give away three unnecessary runs.

Commercials scored in the fourth when Windle's line drive to left field went for three bases. He crossed the plate on an outfield error.

The two hits off Rosedale were drives to the outfield that might have been caught. Thus the big lefty missed a chance of pitching a no-hitter.

His six strike-outs were two less than Letourneau's record but 'Rosie' had the hitters coming to him as he assisted on seven put-outs.

PRETTY HARVEST—It's harvest time in Essex County and there's nothing like a pretty girl to display the crop to its best advantage. In this case it's the beautiful Jean (Butch) Brodie, 17-year-old Kirkland Lake lass, now working at the Ontario Farm Service Force camp at Ruthven, in Western Ontario. The crop? Oh yes, they grow luscious peaches, melons and tomatoes in that part of the province. (C. P. Photo)

Sport Shots

Tommy Loughran, the former light-heavyweight king, thinks Ezzard Charles is probably the most underrated heavyweight champ in ring history. "Charles is a great boxer," Loughran declares. Loughran held the light-heavy crown two years, giving it up in 1929 to campaign as a heavyweight. But he never made the grade in the top class and finally quit fighting in 1937. Loughran is now connected with a New York sugar brokerage firm.

Loughran admitted Charles "looked bad against Jersey Joe Walcott, but didn't Walcott also make Joe Louis look bad?" Walcott is known in boxing as a spoiler. He was never a great boxer but he has always had the ability to make a good fighter look bad against him.

Loughran admits that today's crop of heavyweights—including Charles—would be no match for those of the Dempsey, Tunney, Sharkey and Louis eras. Charles, then, would have been just a good light-heavyweight, Loughran says, because "he wouldn't have had the punch to fight the heavyweights."

Drill Team Goes South

Job's Daughters Party of Forty Leaving For Spokane

Thirty-three members of the Job's Daughters drill team and seven supporters will leave tonight on the Catala for Vancouver enroute to Spokane where they will compete with teams from the United States and other parts of Canada in an international drill competition.

Months of training and hours of work in designing and sewing their smart costumes lie behind the girls who have been trained and directed by Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mitchell.

No time will be lost in getting the team to Spokane. Travel plans call for arrival in Vancouver at 9 a.m. Monday. They will immediately transfer to a bus which will land them in the interior Washington city that evening.

The international meet opens Wednesday with lodge work which will be followed Thursday by the drill competitions. These consist of standard military drill and selected routines.

Accompanying the girls are Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and their children, Pat and Bobby, Mrs. L. W. Kergin and Miss Dorothy Kergin and Mrs. Robert Gordon.

Churchill Is Master Hand

By ALLAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (C.P.)—Now it's Winston Churchill, rewrite man.

To an already formidable array of activities—he rides to the hounds, races horses, paints landscapes and keeps live butterflies—Britain's bald-domed cigar-puffing old warrior adds a new talent.

It develops that he's as handy with an editor's blue pencil on other people's copy as he is at creating his own.

At 74, Churchill naturally plays a less ardent role in politics than he used to. His infrequent appearances in the House of Commons depend on his health and the importance of the occasion.

MASTER HAND

But he is still the leader of the Conservative Party, by acknowledgment of all, and he is still the master hand in policy-shaping.

Others did the donkey work on the recent Conservative election manifesto, "That Right Road to Britain." But it was Winston Churchill, working his usual midnight hours, who edited the final draft.

An excerpt from the edited text, with Churchill's changes in a small, neat hand, shows an insistence on simple, declarative English.

For instance, he draws an angry pen through "to achieve the desired object," and substitutes "to succeed." For the negative "we have never accepted the principle," he writes, "we have always believed."

He notes the redundancy of the phrase "the size and magnitude of all modern societies." In the document, "Magnitude" becomes "complexity."

Adjectives are dynamite.

SIGHTED SUB, MISSED SAME—No, war has not broken out in Halifax harbor as this photo might indicate. It is merely the British submarine Tally-Ho undergoing a mock attack from aircraft based at the Royal Canadian Navy fleet Air Arm base at Shearwater, N.S., during navy week demonstrations. The sub prepares to submerge as practice bombs straddle the hull. This demonstration is a daily feature of the week-long celebrations in which 14 ships from three nations and 10,000 sailors are taking part.

laden. Instead of "excessive imports," long a favorite example of officialdom, he inserts the bolder "destructive imports."

MUSIC, MAESTRO, PLEASE

Associates needed no proof that Churchill is still acutely alert. In a recent foreign affairs debate, Foreign Secretary Bevin made an unexpected reference to the "unconditional surrender" policy announced from Casablanca in January, 1943.

Churchill intervened, without any possibility of rehearsal, and parliamentary observers agreed his unstudied speech was a model of phrasing and delivery.

He still smokes a daily cigar before breakfast and retains his love of rare port and brandies. His health seems as good as ever.

One ambition remains unsatisfied. Long ago, perhaps with tongue in cheek, he confessed that as a youth he always wanted to play the kettledrum. He also wanted to lead the school orchestra.

"But that could not be arranged either," he said. "And so eventually I rose to be the conductor of a band whose music resounded throughout the world."

The Experts Say - -

Baby Shoes—If Mother isn't careful Junior's first baby-shoes may cause him a peck of trouble in later life.

Shoe experts say that even tucking the bedclothes too tightly over baby's feet may prove harmful. Booties or socks too short in the foot also should be avoided.

When it comes to keeping a child healthy, his feet are just about as important as his eyes, ears, nose and throat. Here are some rules it has drawn up for proper shoe fitting:

1. Choose a last that conforms to the child's foot.

2. A soft, flexible box toe, so that you can feel where the end of the toe is.

3. A cloth lining over the toes to absorb moisture during the daytime and to allow for evaporation at night.

4. A flexible inner and outer sole to keep the shoe in shape and to allow the toes free action. The sole should be heavy enough to protect the foot from hard pavements.

5. A rubber heel to absorb the shock of pavement pounding.

6. Snuggles around the heel, under the arch, over the instep where the laces tie. There should be freedom at the ball of the big toe, the top of the toes, at the little toe to prevent curling, and one inch growing room.

Laced shoes giving ankle support are recommended for infants and small children. However, oxfords may be worn by older children with well-developed feet and legs. Slippers should be avoided because they do not give good support. They also interfere with development of the foot.

When shoe-buying time comes around Mother should first of all make sure that the child's socks are the right length (half an inch longer than the longest toe). She should also see that the salesman measures both feet for length and width with the child standing, his full weight on his feet.

EYE ON FEET

For that well-dressed look milady should keep an eye on her feet—at least when she goes shoe-shopping.

Long, slender shoes make feet and legs appear longer, whereas short, stubby footwear creates the opposite effect. Wide horizontal lines (such as straps) make ankles and feet appear wider. Intricate arrangement of cross straps, bold single colors and ornaments centre attention on the feet.

Light-colored footwear makes the figure appear shorter and also provides a less solid foundation to a dark costume.

Opera and V-shaped pumps add length to the foot and the figure. A pronounced color contrast between shoes and costume makes the feet appear larger and the figure shorter.

SYDNEY HERE WITH SHIPMENT

The Ketchikan fish packer Sydney was in port Thursday to unload three carloads of fresh fish for rail shipment to the eastern United States. The boat was under command of her owner-skipper Osmund Hendrickson.

S. B. Roberts, chief engineer for the Celanese Corporation of America, arrived in the city on the Coquitlam this afternoon from New York on business in connection with the Corporation's celanese mill construction at nearby Watson Island. Mr. Roberts is accompanied by Mrs. Roberts and child.

COMMIE SPIES AROUND WELLAND

ST. CATHARINES—Col. Sam Hughes, grandson of Canada's Minister of Defence when the First Great War broke out, asserted Thursday that several top Communists are checking up on Canada's canal system, notably Welland.

EZZARD NOT RECOGNIZED

RICHMOND, Virginia (C.P.)—The Virginia Boxing Commission voted yesterday not to recognize Ezzard Charles as the world's heavyweight boxing champion. He is recognized by the National Boxing Association of which the Virginia Commission is a member. New York State Boxing Commission also refuses recognition.

Arrivals in the city this afternoon on the Coquitlam included Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Roberts and child, J. P. Pierrero, J. Browne, H. Wallace, Mrs. R. Coburn, E. A. Mortimer, D. H. Milne, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Roy Wheeler, Mrs. P. R. Buchan and child and Mrs. N. Dobson.

SMITHERS CHURCH PICNIC ENJOYED

SMITHERS — One hundred and twenty members of St. Joseph's Parish had a most enjoyable picnic Sunday afternoon at the farm of Ben Hug, sr., some five miles out of Smithers on the banks of the Bulkley River.

Messrs C. Spicer, K. Warner and G. Adomeit, with Mesdames W. Duff, W. Bovill and A. Goodwin, were in charge of the arrangements. Buck Morris helped to transport the crowd.

There were races for the children, treasure hunts for the adults, horse shoes, golf and see-saws, round-a-bouts and teeter totters for the little ones. A well served buffet lunch with tea, coffee, lemonade and ice cream was enjoyed by all.

At the close, Father E. M. LeRay of Smithers and Father O. Mohan of Telkwa, thanked all those who had contributed to the success of the enjoyable afternoon.

TERRACE IS BUSY TOWN THESE DAYS

Good times continue at Terrace with sawmilling still the vigorous industrial backbone of the community. It is reported by Charles M. Adam, theatre operator there, who has been a visitor in the city during the past couple of days. Building keeps active with projects under way now including a new store structure, sawmill, a garage building, new forestry department structure, two new school rooms in the old army camp and several new houses.

"There is not an empty house in the town," says Mr. Adam. Twenty-five men are employed at Salvus by Columbia Cellulose in preparation for the drying of timber down the Skeena River for the Port Edward, celanese mill.

Pretty English Cynthia Norton Captures Rupert in Short Order

A few months ago pretty Cynthia Norton was quietly following her work as a hairdresser in her native city of Swindon, Wiltshire, England. Today, as candidate for the title of "Miss P.N.E." at the Pacific National Exposition in Vancouver, she is Prince Rupert's nominee for beauty queen honors of British Columbia. And this may be considered quite an accomplishment.

Cynthia, who came out with her mother from England to visit with her sister, Mrs. Dick Dubeau at Terrace, was the winner of the local Capito Theatre eliminations this week. She goes to Vancouver next week to participate in the finals. Her progress so far might be considered a "came and conquered" story.

Cynthia and her equally charming mother were interviewed by the Daily News yesterday and it was thus that Cynthia's life story, that has culminated so spectacularly, was revealed.

Cynthia's home town of Swindon, a railway centre of some importance in Wiltshire, with population of about 70,000, was one of the Nazi objectives during the blitz days of the war but the Norton home was never hit although many houses in the immediate vicinity were and the town sustained considerable damage. So Cynthia and her folks had their war experiences but Cynthia continued school without interruption after which she went through her hairdressing course and started work. Fond of athletics and outdoor activities, Cynthia was captain of the girls' netball team of her school.

The older sister, now Mrs. Dubeau, a war bride, having moved out to Canada, the mother and daughter decided to come to Canada for a visit. Cynthia decided to stay in Canada. Now she is employed in the telephone office at Terrace.

PROUD MOTHER

Also sold on Canada is the proud mother who confided in an interview that she liked it so well that she hoped to induce Mr. Norton, who is in the civil service at Swindon, to come to this country and settle. Meanwhile, Mrs. Norton is returning to England next month, being booked to sail from Montreal September 28.

Grandmother at forty-five, Gloucestershire-born Mrs. Norton is even more youthful appearing than the age which she admitted. She has only two daughters—Cynthia and Mrs. Dubeau. There are two grandchildren—Gail Dubeau, one year and nine months, and an infant grandson, born only on Sunday last to Mr. and Mrs. Dubeau at the Red Cross Hospital in Terrace.

Mrs. Norton spontaneously accounted for her youthful appearance to "having a good husband. That's the reason."

Cynthia has two surviving grandparents—her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Florence Clarke, and her maternal grandfather, George Watkins of Swindon.

Mr. Adams took Cynthia and her mother back to Terrace today. Cynthia will be back here next Wednesday to prepare to leave next Friday on the Catala for Vancouver and the Pacific National Exhibition with Mrs. Don Norton as chaperon.

 2. Pronounce ka-ot-ik, a as in cake unstressed, o as in not, accent second syllable.
 3. Supplement.
 4. Void of sense or intelligence; pointless, useless. "Vague and inane instincts prompted his action."
 5. Plaintive.

News of Francois Lake

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Breir of Lewiston, Idaho, friends of the C. Snyder family, are staying at the Tchesinkut Lake Auto Camp.

Mrs. Green, the former Mary Calder, is visiting with her parents to recuperate after an operation for appendicitis in the hospital in Prince Rupert.

Mrs. T. Ridler and family returned to their home in Gisborne on Tuesday's train after spending some weeks at the Landing in the Forestry Cottage.

Frank Clark, who works for the public works road department, was chopping firewood at the camp at Grassy Plains when he cut his right thumb off with the axe. He was taken to the Burns Lake Hospital by taxi for medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. William Abilt and four small sons are on their farm now, expecting to remain until school re-opens in Vancouver where they make their permanent home. They came up by car.

Regis De Malasse of Le Pine, Oregon, has been staying for a few days at the Curtis home. Mrs. James Gibson of Vancouver has also been a guest there and will later go to the Omineca Cafe in Burns Lake.

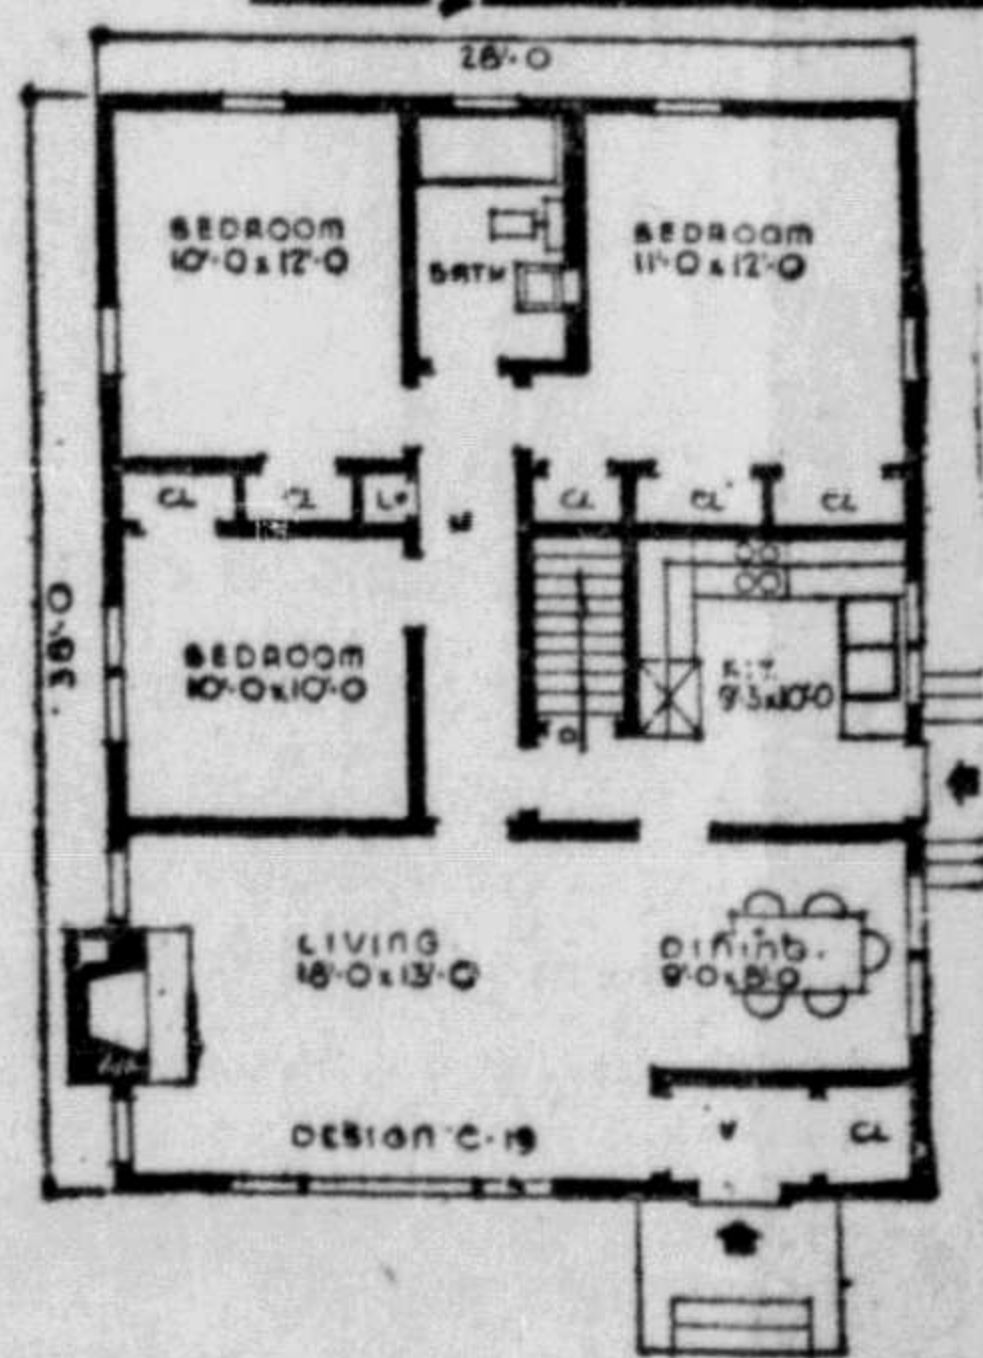

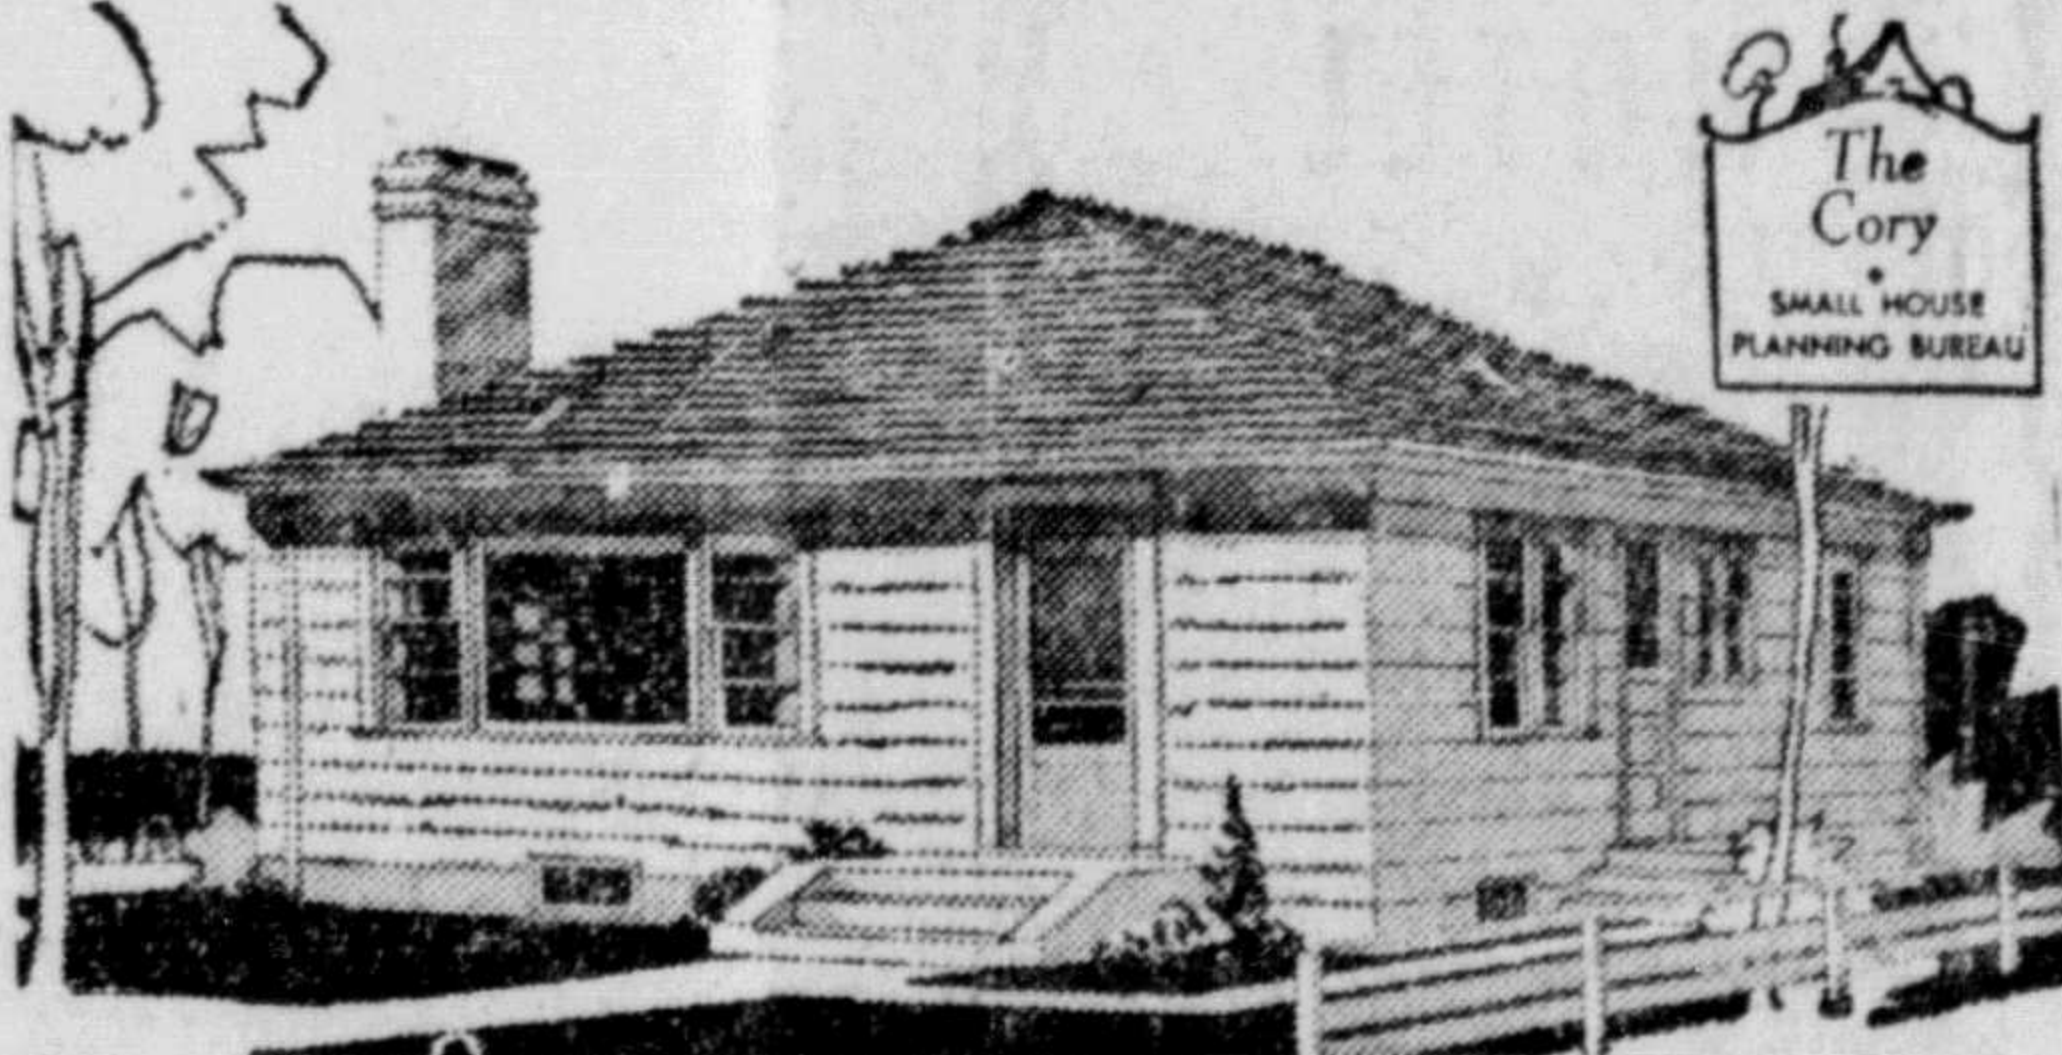

Richard Morgan from Prince Rupert, is staying with his sister, Mrs. Weise, and her daughters at the Log Cottage at the Landing. He came by car from Prince Rupert.

Mrs. C. E. Lobley has started a Sunday School Class in the Neave home on Sunday mornings at 11 o'clock and seven youngsters attended on Sunday.

With everybody busy haying and having other duties it was found impossible to have the Women's Auxiliary monthly meeting this month as was arranged at Mrs. Cassidy's home at Colleymount. The meeting has had to be postponed until next month.

The weather has been cooperative for the haying during the week with days of sunshine and not too hot for comfort so that it has been possible to get in quite a good percentage of the hay. Nell Kelly is putting up hay on the Stretch farm with the tractor.

Mrs. Virginia O'Meara (nee Keefe) underwent an operation in the Vanderhoof Hospital on Thursday morning and is doing well.

THE CORY has a simple plan with a simple exterior. It is designed to get the maximum amount of space without waste. The Cory is planned to include three good sized bedrooms, each with plentiful coat space. There is a compact kitchen and a large living room with a dining alcove. The alcove adds to the room size and also provides additional light and cross ventilation to the living room.

The lack of projections in the rectangular lines of The Cory's plan, makes this house particularly adaptable to the use of concrete blocks in construction.

The ease of framing floor and roof helps to considerably reduce the cost of construction of The Cory.

The closets in every one of The Cory's three bedrooms are wardrobe type. They have double doors and are equipped with overhead storage space. There is also a convenient storage closet above the stairs and a handy coat closet in the front entrance vestibule.

The dimensions of the Cory are 28 feet by 38 feet. There is an area of 1064 square feet and a volume of 21,280 cubic feet, including the full basement.

BUMPER CROPS—Grain crops promising bumper yields are the exception rather than the rule in the prairies this year. In the area around where irrigation has been used to supplement natural moisture, indications are the yield will be high. Here W. R. Hughes and John Hocken are seen examining a heavy stand of wheat on the former's farm, nine miles north of Lethbridge. This field has grown to a height of four feet and promises to yield 50 bushels an acre. (C. P. Photo)

Modern Etiquette

By ANNE ASHLEY

- Q. How can I get relief from hiccoughs?
- A. They can usually be stopped very quickly by taking a teaspoonful of granulated sugar and vinegar. If this does not give relief, repeat the dose.
- Q. How can I make a fertilizer for plants?
- A. A little ammonia added to the water efforts a rich fertilizer for the plants, and also aids in preventing bugs.
- Q. How can I make a good prune salad?
- A. Stuffed prunes make a delicious salad when stewed, then chilled and seeded. Stuff with cream cheese and nuts.
- Q. What should a person do who is invited to a bridge party and would like to go, but does not play the game?
- A. In fairness to the other guests, you should decline the invitation and give your reason for doing so.
- Q. Should a man rise when a stenographer or other woman employee comes into his office?
- A. No; but he must stand to receive a woman visitor.
- Q. Is it proper to thank a maid when she passes food to you at a dinner?
- A. No; thanks are not necessary for this service.
