Lard Take Price Subsidies Dropped

Lard and shortening blew upward 10 to 15 cents at Prince Rupert Monday with the price of the federal government of removal of those products.
The ingredient of which is vegetable oils, has risen substantially in price immediately following the dropping of the subsidies.
Lard went up 10 to 15 cents a pound to 32 cents a pound.
Salad oil, another vegetable product, climbed nine cents a pint while soap is due to go up any day. Most grocers are fairly well stocked with soap, they say, and they plan to sell their present stocks at the old price.
"But when they are gone, you can look for a price increase of a cent a cake on toilet soap, two cents a cake on laundry soap and three cents on large cartons of soap chips," a third grocer forecast.
Egg prices which have climbed steadily in a series of small jumps since last June, took a two-cent increase Monday. They are now retailing in the neighborhood of 70 cents a dozen.

The train, scheduled to leave at 9 p.m., daylight time, waited half an hour, leaving shortly before the Adelaide came in sight.
The Canadian Pacific office here arranged for a taxi to take the six passengers to Tyee. They arrived there in time to catch the train.

The newspaper said that the mines were carried in the current down past the Japanese coast, across the Pacific, up the United States side to British Columbia, tailing off at the Aleutians.

What Transpired Is Close Guarded Secret

Momentous Meeting Lasted Two Hours and Everybody Was Happy Afterwards

LONDON (CP)—The Foreign Office today received a report from Frank Roberts, special British envoy, on the conference in Moscow last night with Premier Joseph Stalin. A spokesman said the report was being studied but declined to divulge the contents.

London received with cautious optimism news of the momentous Moscow conference. Morning papers told news of American Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith and French Ambassador Yves Chataigneau and Roberts ending their meeting in high good humor.
The conference lasted for nearly two hours and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov was in attendance.
A conference of Stalin and Premiers Attlee and Marie of France and President Truman of the United States, it is expected, to be the sequel.

FISHERMAN SAVED AS BOAT SINKS

Cries of a shipwrecked fisherman perched precariously atop the pilot house of his half-sunken gillnetter Sunday night brought rescue in the form of the fish packer St. Nicholas which saved both man and boat in the treacherous water off the Skeena mouth.
The fisherman, whose name was not available, managed to climb on top of the pilot house of his small vessel when it capsized in a heavy blow Sunday night. His shouts attracted the attention of the crew of the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Co. boat St. Nicholas who took him aboard and then towed the half-submerged gillnetter to port here.
The gillnetter was raised Monday at the British American Oil dock.

Magazine Photographer Driving Here To Win Publicity Medal

New York Man Taking Pictures for Holiday Magazine Enroute
A professional photographer of New York City is on his way to Prince Rupert with a triple objective, one of which will publicize this city by putting it on the pages of the Curtis Publishing Co's travel magazine Holiday.
His name is Abbott Sydney, and he left New York July 29 with the aim of driving to Prince Rupert to pick up the Public Relations Council's gold medal which is to be awarded to the first motorist to arrive here from the eastern metropolis.
"Incidentally," wrote Mr. Sydney to the Public Relations Council, "this is part of my honeymoon. I was married on July 18."
Annually, for the last three years, the Prince Rupert Public Relations Council has posted a gold medal for the first motorist to drive to Prince Rupert from a distant point. The 1946 starting point was Halifax, the 1947 point of origin, Tampa, Florida and the 1948 New York City.
It is possible that Mr. Sydney may have some competition. A week ago, Public Relations Council Secretary T. E. Applewhite received a letter from Stanley Filon, of Newark, New Jersey, stating that he planned to drive here to collect the medal.
But whether or not Mr. Sydney wins the medal, Prince Rupert is assured of a good publicity spread, because Mr. Sydney has been commissioned by Holiday Magazine to take photographs enroute.
"I will certainly include many pictures of Prince Rupert, which I am sure, will be most interesting," he wrote.
Like Mr. Filon, Mr. Sydney read of the gold medal competition in the New York Times of July 20. He has notified the Associated Press of his departure date and has given assurance that he will comply with the publicity regulations enroute.

Time to be Watchful

IT IS TO SPECULATE whether the easing of the tension in the international situation following the conferences between the representatives of the western powers and Premier Joseph Stalin and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of Russia is solidly based. We hope that to throw any doubt upon the assurances of good intentions by the Soviet leaders is unjustified skepticism. Yet we have had such assurances from others before and have complacently accepted them, only to find out later that we did so to our sorrow.

While we may have some justification of relief at any tractability that may be shown on the outside by the hard bargaining and realistic Russian leaders, we would be well justified also in not letting down our guard. We have been fooled before and very brazenly and treacherously. Maybe if, while hoping for the best, we are not too enthusiastic, we may be pardoned.

As a matter of fact, the record of Stalin in keeping promises has been none too good. There have been others in the past who made promises and treaties which they respected only so long as they could be exploited in their own ends.

NOT SO RAINY

PRINCE RUPERT has enjoyed 740 hours of bright sunshine since the first of the year. For a city where, according to oft repeated libels, it rains all the time, that's pretty fair weather. But then, the old wheeze is commencing to die. And no one believes it, anyway. They have other subjects of conversation.

VALUE OF SWIMMING

WISE ARE THE PARENTS who teach their children how to swim—not only is it a good sport, but often it is a means of avoiding a drowning tragedy later on.

Many summer drownings occur annually in Canada. A little time and a little practice beforehand could prevent such hear-breaks. For your sake, learn to swim; and for the sake of others learn approved methods of life-saving and artificial respiration.

POPULATION GROWING

IF EVERY NOW AND THEN, local residents, through choice or circumstances move somewhere else, persons from the outside, and for similar reasons, come to Prince Rupert to dwell. This city is growing. If some families leave, arrivals new to the community appear before long. A gradual increase is noted. There should be, say a year from now, by which time very substantial developments at Port Edward may be expected, distinct evidence of further growth here.

LIQUOR ADVERTISING

IN SOME OF THE MOST widely circulated of magazines, more particularly in the United States, the proportion of liquor advertising, while not heavy, is nevertheless sufficient to be of decided value, from the standpoint of revenue. It is not that the number of different liquor advertisements amount to much. It is the size and lavish treatment of each. It must be admitted that outstanding artistry is given publicity of this nature. It is liquor, and all a matter of dollars and cents to get the business, but yet, it is art.

PIONEER PERSONALITIES

GEORGE W. MORROW

George W. Morrow, who strolled over the townsite of Prince Rupert long before a tree was ever felled, would not know the city today. Ranking among the very earliest of the settlers, he lived near here before the Grand Trunk Pacific was heard of.

Mr. Morrow, who hailed from the Maritimes, served for five years as Collector of Customs and Indian Agent at Metlakatla. As far back as 1904, he accompanied the first G.T.P. reconnoitering party to Tucks Inlet and Kalen Island. He was in business with George Frizzell at Port Essington from 1900 to 1905 and following this established the first retail business in Prince Rupert, a meat market on Centre Street, in 1906. He took an active concern in local affairs and business generally. He was identified with the establishment of the Hotel Prince Rupert. He was a charter member and first vice-president of the Prince Rupert Club. His family numbered six. For many years now he has lived in Vancouver.

 Skis were first devised for utility by Norwegians, Swedes, Lapps and other northern inhabitants who had to travel over snow.

BATTERED BARREL The New Westminster Rotary Club uses in its annual Barrel Contest down the Fraser River from Lytton on Labor Day undergoes repairs at the hands of Chairman Fred T. Yates, head of the New Westminster B.C. Electric Co. Granulated cork, which should keep the barrel afloat if it were ripped open during its 171 mile trip, is spilling out of the keg. Fastest time ever made by the barrel was 64 hours, 36 minutes, 33 3-5 seconds in 1943. Proceeds of the contest go to the children's camp fund.

ENGLISH IS MORE COMMON

LONDON—A newspaperman who had learned Arabic during the war addressed an Iranian Olympic athlete here in halting Arabic.

The Iranian's reply was: "Speak the lingo. I can talk plenty dam English."

He had similar experiences with other aliens. Practically all had the same reply: "Joined it from Yankee sojers."

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

Carrying 96 passengers, Union Steamships cruise boat Chilcotin, Capt. A. E. Walsh, docked here at 2:30 Monday afternoon, northbound for Alaska. All the passengers were round trip tourists and with only a few exceptions were Americans.

La Salle, the great French explorer of North America, was murdered by his own men in 1687 while on an expedition.

BRITON'S WILL INVALIDATED

LONDON, ©—The will of a man who left the whole of his property to his country, directing that it should be used by the British Exchequer "for the secular good of England," was invalidated by the Probate Court.

The testator, John Sedley Buckle, of Blackpool, died in December 1943. His will was dated December, 1921.

His nephews and nieces alleged that Buckle was not of sound mind, memory and understanding when the will was made. The court agreed. Counsel said Attorney-General Sir Hartley Shawcross, who had intervened in the suit, was supporting the will as made by Buckle.

Buckle, it was said, was a teetotaler and non-smoker and left investments of about $50,000.

LOCAL COUPLE LEAVE IN OPEN BOAT TO MAKE HOME AT VICTORIA

With little more concern than a traveller would show beginning a voyage on the Prince George, Harry and Betty (Olie) Edgar stepped into their 18-foot boat, waved good-bye and set out for Victoria. Their tiny craft, named the "Olie E" in honor of Mrs. Edgar, left her moorings at Armour Salvage about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. A clinker-built rowboat with a 5-foot beam the "Olie E" is powered with a Champion 4 1/2 h.p. outboard. Under the canvas, that stretches from the stem of the white and green hull and protects the voyagers' equipment that occupies almost two-thirds of the boat's space, there is a 3 1/2 h.p. Evenrude for emergency use.

Harry was born in Prince Rupert and has spent most of his life here. Numerous fishing and hunting trips have conditioned him for the type of experiences he is likely to meet on this trip down the coast. His wife Betty is also fond of outdoor activities and since their marriage in February, she and Harry have made several week-end boat trips.

The young couple expect to take 3 to 4 weeks on the trip. Lowe Inlet was to be their first camp site. They plan to sleep in a tent on the beach and, if the trout were biting, Harry calculated fried fish would be on the menu the first night out. At Butedale they will get any supplies they need and spend the second night at the hot springs just across the channel. Harry had the courses all charted before they left but, after Butedale, they will take things easy, travelling when the weather is fine and camping when it is adverse. A portable radio will keep them in touch with weather forecasts and a reliable compass is part of their ship's gear.

Harry hopes to tie into some fighting salmon during the trip and has taken along his rifles in case he gets within range of any bounty-bearing wolves.

When they pass Cowichan Bay they plan to make their first social call at the home of John Currie, sr., formerly of Prince Rupert and now residing at Jerry Point. From there they will cut across Sateklite Channel to visit Dr. W. S. Kergin and family who are spending a holiday at the home of Dr. Kergin's father near Fulford Harbor on Salt Spring Island.

The young couple intend to make their home in Victoria where Betty's father lives. Harry has a position waiting for him at the Pacific Sheet Metal Company.

"GIL" REVISITS PRINCE RUPERT

Numerous Changes Noted After Absence of 23 Years

After an absence from Prince Rupert of 23 years, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilhuly are revisiting the city. They arrived yesterday afternoon by plane from Vancouver, Washington, and will be here until Saturday when they will return south by air.

Former local tobaccoist and prominent sports promoter, "Gil," after leaving here, spent some time in Kelso, Washington, and then removed to Vancouver.

He notices great changes in the city which, in many ways, is hardly recognizable. He also notes the absence of many of the people who lived here in his day, some by death, others by removal.

Mrs. Gilhuly is a sister of Mrs. P. M. Ray, local woman barrister.

MORE BOYS AT LAKELSE CAMP

Final Group of Season Leaves at First of Week

To many of the nine and ten year old boys whose applications were accepted for Kinsmen Kiddies' Kamp at Lakelse Lake it seemed that July 31 would never arrive but now their summer dream has come true, they are commencing their 10-day outdoor holiday.

Another thing that had them worried was that the Sunday rain was never going to stop and, when the first rays of sun came down as they neared the lake, the boys let out a mighty cheer.

R. G. Moore, who accompanied the party, said the boys hardly got their gear into their tent-cabins before they were opening their bags in a search for fishing tackle and swim trunks. They were all looking forward to exploring the immediate area and to being taken for a boat ride.

The 30 girls who made up the second Kinsmen camp returned in the same bus that took the boys up and were accompanied by Miss E. Kinnaird of the Social Welfare Branch who had acted as supervisor during the 10-day stay. A spell of hot weather during the last week had permitted many of the girls to acquire a healthy tan.

The 19 boys who are now in camp are Van Newfield, Gerald De Santels, George Howe, Earl Gamblin, Frank Kilborn, Clyde Trudeau, Robert Downing, Leonard Downing, Gunnar Dalgreen, Jack Rowbotham, Bob Jensen, Glendon Smith, Don Way, Allan Johanson, Jimmy Faulkner, Wayne Crowe, Arthur Turcotte, Fenton Williams and Richard Forward.

Miss A. Smalley, formerly of the nursing staff of Miller Bay Hospital, sailed this afternoon on the Camosun for Victoria where she has taken a position on the staff of Royal Jubilee Hospital.

United States Away In Lead

Has Wide Margin of Points So Far in Olympic Games

WEMBLEY STADIUM, @ — United States was far out on top up to last night in the total point count so far in the Olympic Games which was as follows:

United States 189
Sweden 53
Turkey 50

Canada and Jamaica were tied in sixteenth place with six points each.

United States Olympic forces, led by the ebony comet, Harrison Dillard, swept three of the coveted track and field championships to grab undisputed leadership in that phase of the games.

Dillard, who almost missed a place on the American team, streaked to victory in the 100-metre dash.

United States also captured the 400 metre hurdles and broad jump.

New records were made yesterday in the 500 and 8000 metre events and the discus throw.

Ted Haggis of Toronto was eliminated from the 200 metres.

In a swimming relay the Canadian team, of which Allan Gilchrist of Ocean Falls was a member, was outclassed. France finished first with Yugo-Slavia, Sweden, Mexico, Great Britain and Canada following in order named.

Canada's defeat by Hungary in basketball yesterday was as surprising as it was disappointing. Half time score was 20 to 17 for Hungary and final score 37 to 36. The Canadians will next meet the Brazilians and defeat by them would mean their elimination.

C.N.R.A. MOVE TO LEAGUE PEAK, DOWN 99 TAXI

C.N.R.A. 11, 99 TAXI 10

99 Taxi toppled from its almost traditional place at the top of the city fastball league and C.N.R.A. Athletics moved up to snuggle alongside General Motors in the place vacated by the taximen at the league pinnacle as a result of a 11-10 C.N.R.A. victory over 99 Taxi at Gyro Park last night.

The taximen, who were once well up in front on the strength of an early run of victories, had to move over and make room for General Motors in the league leadership race Saturday night after Motors defeated Co-op.

Then, last night, they lost their joint claim to the top spot when C.N.R.A. slipped in a ninth inning score to break a 10-all tie.

Any suggestion that, because they have slipped a little, 99 Taxi will not be an important factor in the forthcoming league playoffs, would be a mistake, because they still have plenty of power as was witnessed last night.

C.N.R.A. made a powerful beginning last night and in the first two innings, rolled up a 5-0 lead. The taximen, however, responded mightily in the third inning to score four runs off three hits against C.N.R.A. pitcher Lloyd Lahti.

The taximen found it prudent to change pitchers in the second inning after C.N.R.A. had clouted three hits, a single, a triple and a double off Jack Rosedale. Rosedale was replaced by Bebak who carried the load to the end of the game.

C.N.R.A. relieved Lahti in the eighth, replacing him with Lorne Vanetta who hurled one and two-third innings.

In the third, after 99 Taxi had begun breathing down the backs of their necks, C.N.R.A. pulled ahead on the strength of four runs, only one of which was the result of a hit. They increased this lead by another run in the

BIG SCORE IN MAJORS

St. Louis Cardinals Make 21 Runs In Defeating Giants

NEW YORK @ — St. Louis Cardinals piled up the biggest score made in a single game so far this year in the Major Leagues to defeat New York Giants 21 to 5 yesterday and it brought the Cardinals to within half a game of second place which is now shared by the Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers with all but a mathematical tie.

fifth and the score stood at 10-4 until the seventh.

Then, 99 Taxi made a break that netted three hits, following it up with a similar spurge in the eighth, tying the score.

C.N.R.A. remained scoreless in the bottom half of the eighth, but in the ninth, Nick Pavlikis singled and Lorne Vanetta slugged a double that brought Pavlikis home.

CITY FASTBALL PLAYOFFS NEAR

With only three rained out games left to be played to complete the current softball schedule, the top three spots in the league are still subject to possible change.

The three remaining games are scheduled to be run off this week with a game on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evening. General Motors with two, C.N.R.A. with two and 99 Taxi with one game yet to play, the standings can change considerably with the first three places depending on the outcome of these games.

These postponed games are scheduled in this order:

August 4—C.N.R.A. vs. General Motors.
August 6—Gordon and Anderson vs. C.N.R.A.
August 7—General Motors vs. 99 Taxi.

If these games can be played this week the commission announces that play-offs will get under way on Monday August 9.

Teams playing in the play-offs will be allowed to use only players properly signed and who have appeared in at least two league games prior to the opening play-off game.

Larry O'Connor of Toronto's West End Y.M.C.A. track club flashed over the 110-yard hurdles to a Canadian record at the Ontario track and field championships nine years ago. He broke the tape at 14.2, cutting 2-5 of a second from the mark held by Earl Thompson.

The baseball world was shocked by the suicide death of Willard Hershberger, 29-year old second string catcher of the Cincinnati Reds of the National League, eight years ago. Hershberger, serving his third season with the Reds, was apparently despondent over his recent play and was found dead in a downtown Boston hotel.

The Experts Say - -

SWIMMING—When planning on going in for a swim, first of all get someone to accompany you. Stay out of the water if exhausted from fatigue, or from any other cause. Avoid bathing within one hour after a meal. Don't go in swimming when the body is cooling after perspiring.

Avoid bathing altogether in the open air if, after having been in the water a short time, there is a sense of chilliness with numbness of the hands and feet.

When taken with cramp while swimming, the Royal Life Saving Society offers the following advice: Keep calm and, turning on the back, rub and stretch the affected limb.

If seized in the calf of the leg, turn up the toes, straighten the leg, and stretch the muscles; apply friction and kick the surface of the water until they relax.

FIRST AID—Health experts warn families to take along a supply of first-aid materials and medicines when they start off on that camping holiday.

At a cottage the following articles should make up the kit: a clinical thermometer, first-aid dressing, including sterilized gauze for wound dressings, gauze bandages to hold dressings in place and a roll of adhesive plaster; alcohol for use externally to relieve the pains of strains, sprains and bruises; aromatic spirits of ammonia (one-half teaspoon in water, for faintness); boric acid (one teaspoon in a glass of water for an eyewash); phenol ointment for external use in treatment of small burns; tincture of iodine; oils of cloves for toothache; and milk of magnesia or mineral oil.

SUMMER HEALTH—This is the season for enteritis which health and welfare officials warn is the fourth ranking cause of death of children under two years of age.

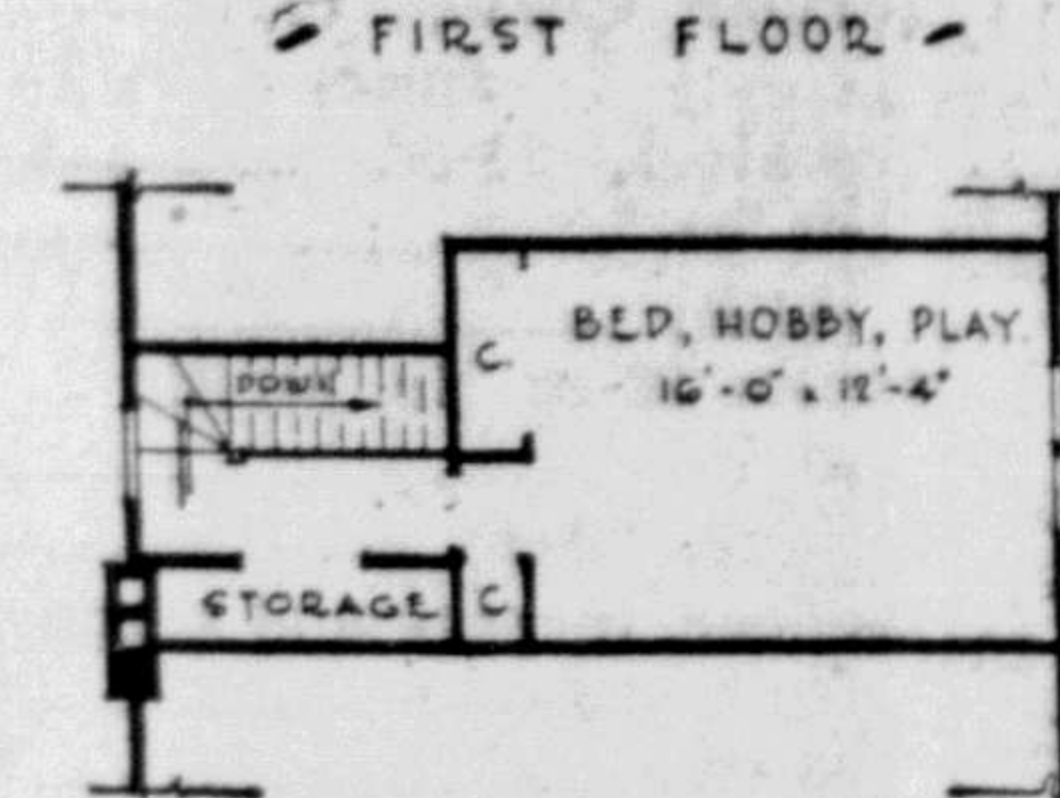

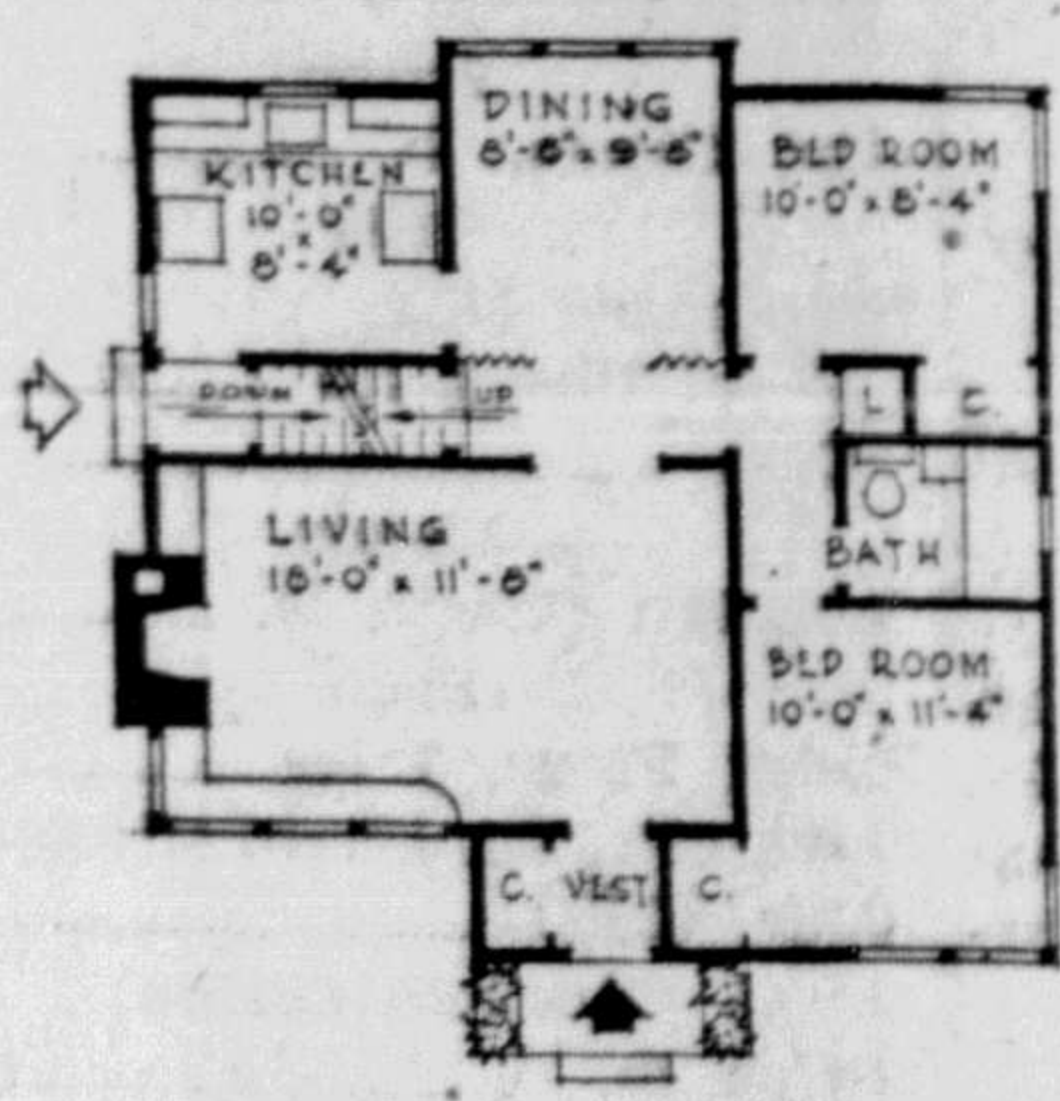

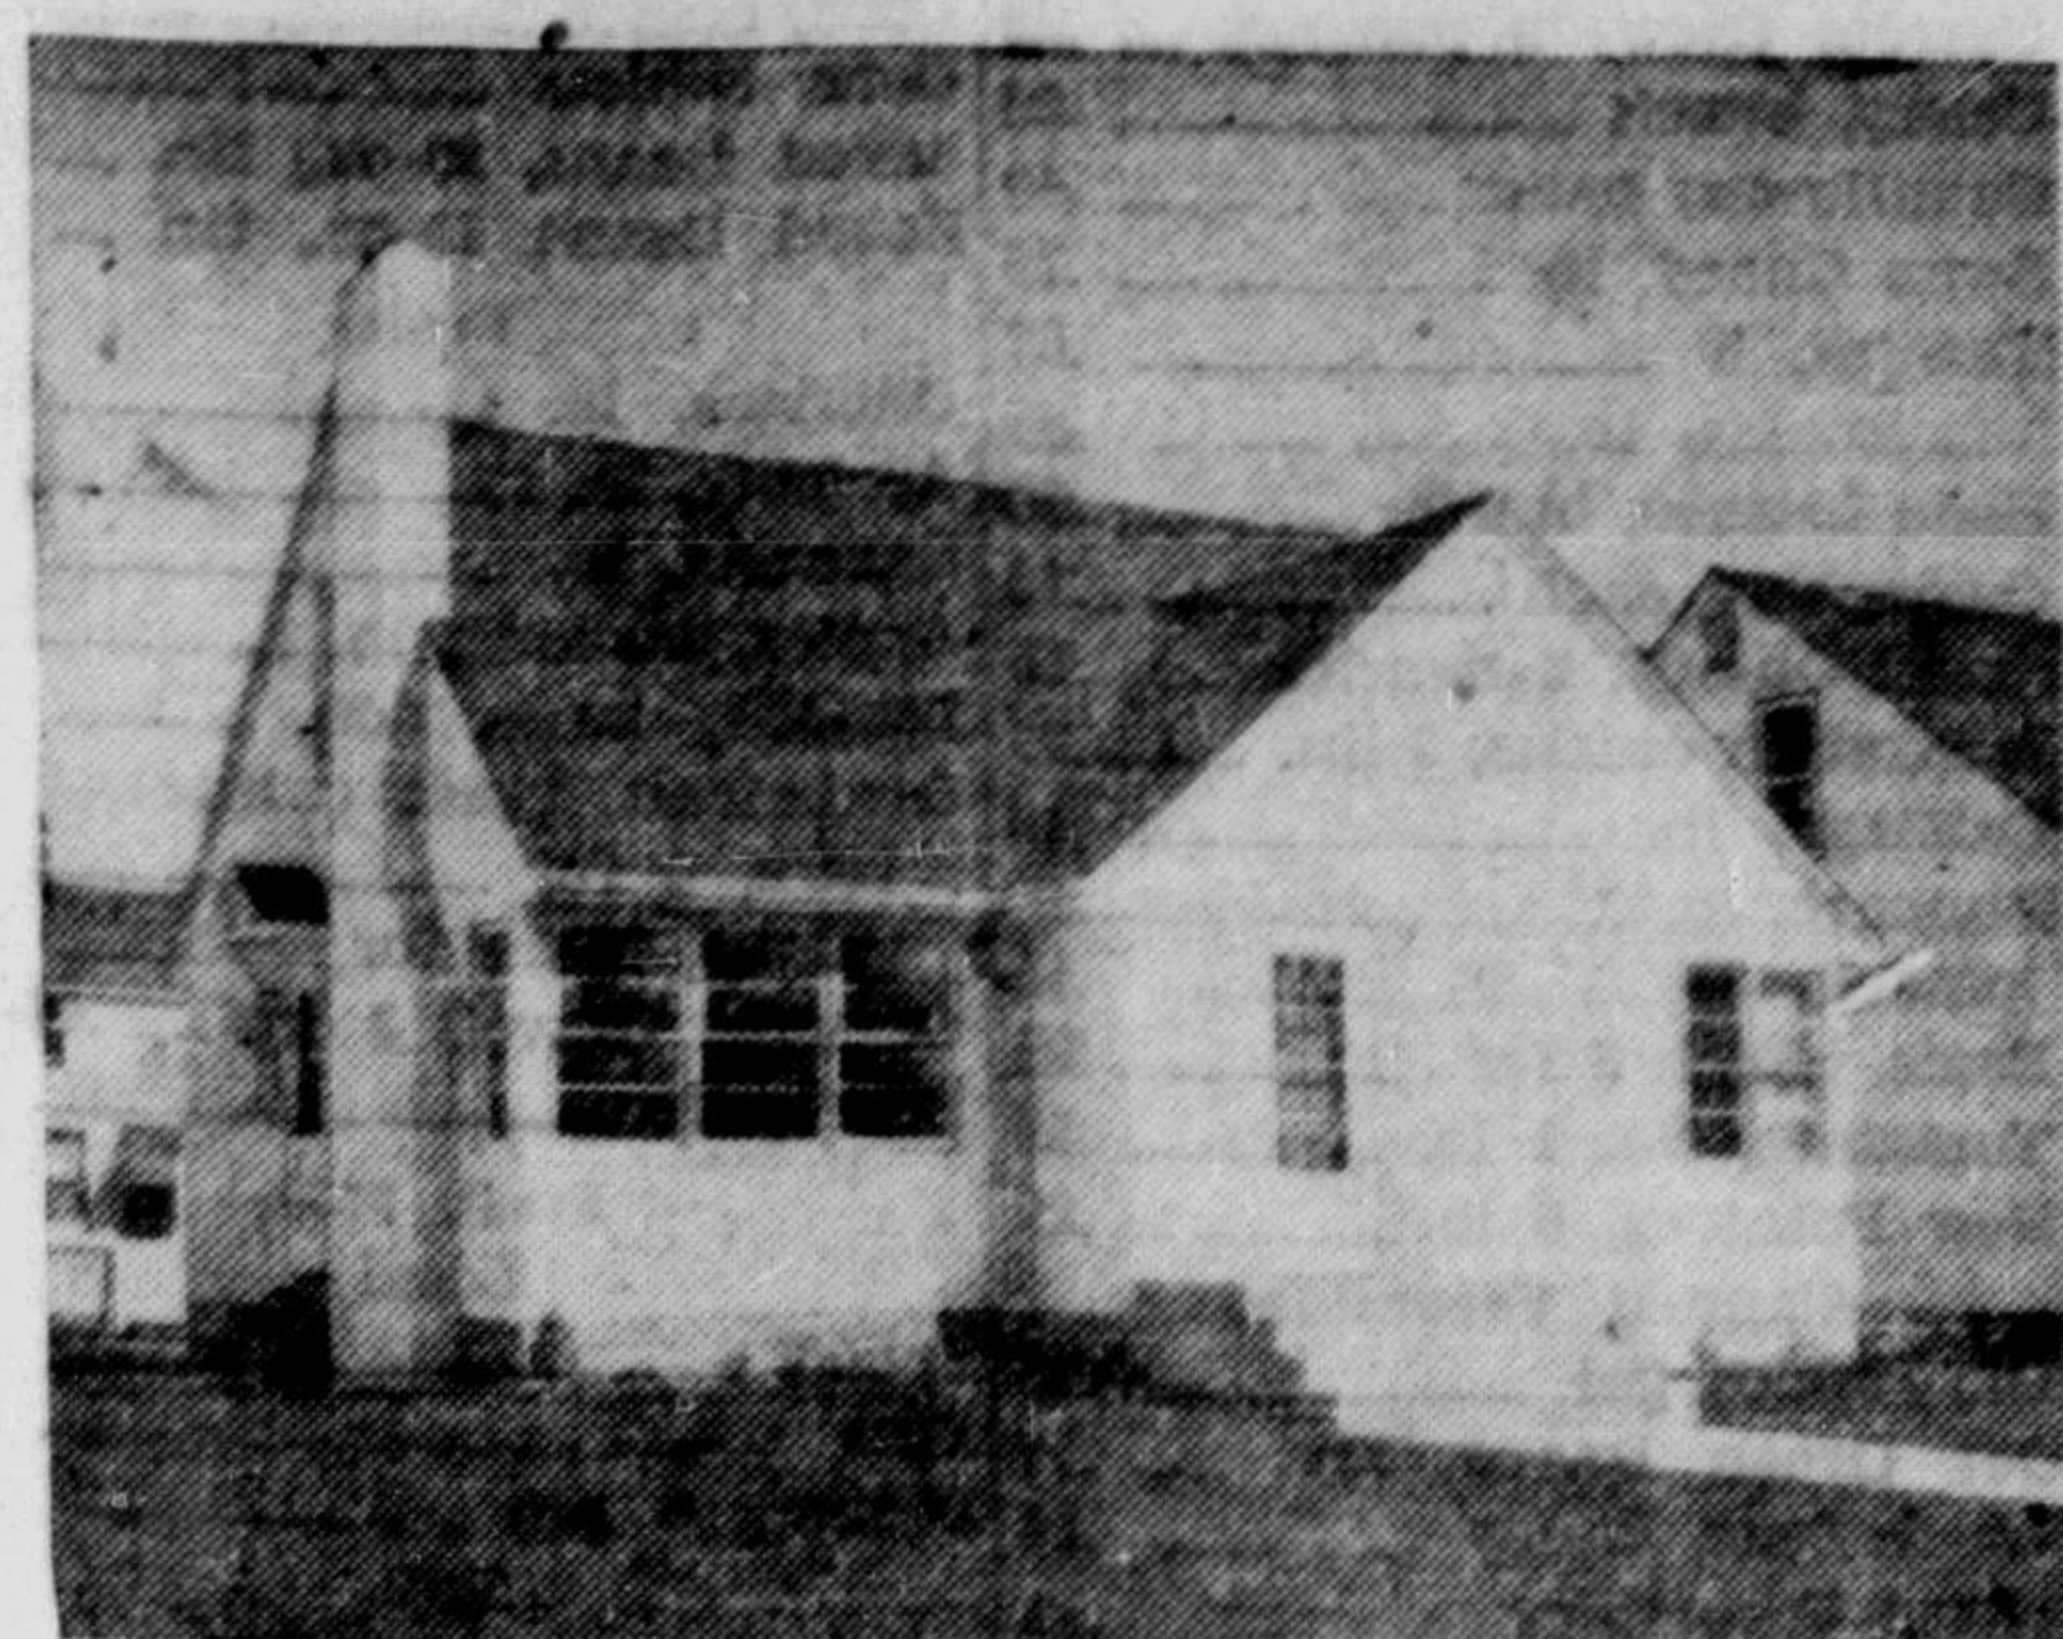

In order to guard her baby against the disease which reaches its peak between August and October each year, the mother is urged to maintain sanitary conditions about the home.

Bottles and nipples and all formula and feeding utensils should be sterilized.

Infants should be given a clean place in which to play. Avoid excessive heat on hot days by limiting clothing and giving repeated sponge baths.

Decrease food during warm weather and increase fluids.

N.H.A. DESIGN-OF-THE-MONTH

This 'large' small-home combines a pleasing exterior with a convenient floor plan. One of the storey-and-a-half types which have found so much favor with Canadian home-builders, it is built of solid masonry but the dimensions on the working drawings are so arranged that it may be built of frame or brick veneer.

The large corner windows which give a modern appearance to the house also provide bright, airy rooms. A fuel fire-place with an adjoining window-seat is a special feature of the 18'x11'8" living-room. Book-cases, under the window-seat and at the side of the fireplace, would create a homey, 'lived-in' atmosphere. The separate dining room has high windows across the end, leaving space for a buffet. The kitchen is conveniently arranged with a door leading to the trade entrance and the basement. The two bedrooms have ample wall and closet space. The second floor, which may be finished when required, provides storage space and a hobby or play room which could be used as a third bedroom.

The over all dimensions of the first floor are 24'4"x30', with a 4' projection housing the vestibule and part of the front bedroom. The area, for estimating purposes, is 1,160 square feet.

Under the terms of the National Housing Act, 1944, financial assistance is available to Canadians wishing to build new houses such as the one illustrated.

CONTROLS SEEN NECESSARY TO CURB PRICES

The shrinking consumers' dollar came under the group scrutiny of the Homemakers' League at a meeting in the Civic Centre last night which heard H. G. Archibald, M.P., and W. H. Brett, M.L.A. outline the economic background of the current prices spiral.

Re-establishment of price controls was seen as the logical instrument for curbing soaring living costs and, at the suggestion of Mr. Archibald, the group of 25 decided to urge other organizations to which they belong to make representations in that direction.

Mr. Archibald suggested that, since the Homemakers' League was only newly organized and small, its influence at Ottawa would be slight. However, if a large number of established organizations, such as fraternal and church groups, pressed for price controls, their demands would be heard.

William Brett, M.L.A. told the meeting that "we are getting exactly what we should expect under a private enterprise system. Private enterprise operates for profit and prices are determined by supply and demand. Today, demand exceeds supply in most instances."

Mr. Brett blamed the profit motive as the basic cause, declaring that prices had risen despite the fact that overall Canadian production was 71 per cent greater in physical volume than before the war and 128 per cent greater in monetary value.

"Our only salvation is to put pressure on the government to re-impose price controls," he declared.

Mr. Archibald told the meeting that prominent government officials had admitted that an overall control system could work effectively but that a piecemeal system would meet with difficulties which would hamper it.

"The government's own wartime record in the price control field shows that controls can be successful in maintaining the price line," he asserted. "However, the present government is dedicated to a philosophy called free enterprise and will have to be forced to control commodity prices."

Forced by economic necessity, practically every country in the world is experiencing an increase of state intervention in commodity trading, Mr. Archibald said. The North American continent, alone is rich enough to permit a system of private buying and selling without intervention of government.

However, the recent Geneva trade pact, designed to loosen the flow of goods between countries, are creating scarcities in Canada and the United States. These result in rising prices.

"It has been suggested that rising wages have been jamming up prices," he declared. "This is not so. In an investigation of the key textile industry, it was found that wages were only a minor factor in the rise of textile prices."

Mr. Archibald and Mr. Brett were thanked for their addresses by Mrs. Ross Richardson, chairman of the meeting.

URGES TESTS OF FERTILITY

Childless Couples "Miserable," Says Dublin Gynaecologist

CAMBRIDGE, Eng. (AP)—Dr. Bethel Solomons, Dublin gynaecologist, recommends fertility tests for couples before marriage.

He made his recommendation to a meeting of 200 doctors and experts on child-bearing during a debate on the problem of childless marriages.

"There are more men and women miserable from the lack of children than from most other complaints," he said. "I have found this misery so acute that, if at all possible, I would like to see a test of fertility before marriage."

Dr. Solomons opposed "donor insemination" which, he said, "involves too many principles." He also advised newly-married couples to avoid using contraceptives because they might cause sterility.

Dr. Oswald Lloyd of Cambridge recommended "baby borrowing" as a means of curing sterility. He said:

"The matter of a wife adopting a baby and then becoming pregnant is too real to be a coincidence. The tension of wanting a baby is sometimes so great

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make use of the tops of old stockings?

A. These tops make excellent dusters and polishing cloths, for oiling or rubbing down the furniture and floors. If several stocking tops are cut into strips and dipped in paraffin oil, they can be made into a serviceable dustless mop for the floors.

Q. How can I brighten the red tiles of a fireplace that have become dull?

A. Try rubbing the tiles with a cut piece of lemon and a little salt. Then wash with warm soap water.

Q. Should one keep the paper cap on the milk bottle?

A. No; after opening the milk bottle the paper cap should be substituted by a glass top or stopper.

that it may cause sterility in a woman.

"When she adopts a baby the tension relaxes."

TOWN SAVED FROM FIRE

ACME, Alta. — Almost every able-bodied man within a radius of twelve miles from this town wore a smile of triumph today after successfully battling a fire which for a time threatened to engulf the village of 278 persons. Destroyed in the blaze was the Atlas Lumber Co.'s yard but volunteers prevented the flames from reaching a row of houses. Damage is estimated at $150,000.

UNPLEASANT CHARACTER
 Mrs. Grundy was the name given to an imaginary character depicting the essence of English respectability. Now the phrase is a synonym for prudery.

Briefs From Britain

LONDON — Believed London's oldest bus driver, Thomas Rumbell, 70, has retired after 42 accident-free years.

ST. PETER PORT, Channel Islands — Proposals for the "adoption" of Alderney by the "mother" Channel Island, Guernsey, were approved in principle by Alderney's island parliament.

LIVERPOOL, Eng. — The British Dental Association conference was told by a delegate: "No Anglo-Saxon can keep his full 32 teeth without the mouth being overcrowded. Only foreigners can accommodate the full set. Britons need certain molars extracted between the ages of eight and nine."

LONDON — Rev. F. Lampen, vicar of Christ Church, North London, believes the attitude today of people towards the church can be divided into 20 per cent who are church members and friendly toward it, 20 per cent who are definitely antagonistic and the rest who are apathetic and disinterested.

PRUDHOE, Northumberland, Eng. — An 800-year old castle and all medieval inconveniences is to let for $200 yearly. A Norman relic that barred the way to a Scottish king when he invaded England in 1774, the castle has only one snag. There is a $3,200 premium to pay before the tenant can move in.

ADVICE FROM IRONING CHAMP

Mrs. Mary Stevens Does Shirts in Three Minutes, Three Seconds

NORTH BAY, Ont. — Make every turn of your shirt count and use a hot iron, is Mrs. Mary Stevens' advice if you aspire to her record of ironing and folding a shirt in three minutes and three seconds.

The North Bay woman who averaged 18 shirts to the hour, challenges anyone to beat her in the special shirt ironing competition at the Canadian National Exhibition.

Only nine turns of the shirt are required in her self-developed technique. First she irons both sides of the collar and the shoulders, each step making one turn. The sleeves require two turns and the body of the shirt five.

To fold the shirt Mrs. Stevens fastens every second button down the front, folds the shirt towards the back on each side, and flips the sleeves and body in three folds.

Mrs. Stevens' ironing experience goes back to 1912 when she began working in a Vancouver laundry. She also ironed in a North Bay laundry for a short time, but left there when she married.

Following her husband's death 15 years ago, she went back to work to support her three children.

However now her only interest in ironing is to get through the Monday wash—and compete in the C.N.E. contest.

'We All Need Profits For Progress'

Profits are the wages of Industry. Sometimes Industry earns good wages, sometimes poor wages. Sometimes no wages at all... for there is no "minimum wage" laws to protect Industry from having losses.

The average wage of industry over a span of 10 years is a profit of less than 6 per cent... although the average person polled in a recent survey in the United States thought most industries earned profits of 25 per cent or more on their sales.

Out of its wages or profits Industry must find the money to buy new and better tools of production and reserves to carry it along through periods of readjustment and loss.

Profits, the wages and incentive of Industry, are as necessary and respectable as wages paid in reward for any individual's work. Everyone depends on profits for progress.

Reminiscences and Reflections

By W.J.

The Prince Rupert woman who found a rat in her shopping bag—of all places—knows the ultimate in shocks. Nothing in the way of sudden amazement and quick shuddering could eclipse it, unless it would be a snake on the pantry shelf.

There were plenty, in Sunday's excursion to Terrace who had never been up-river before. It's not always convenient, of course, but there's nothing like an occasional change of scenery, or countenance, to ward off the fed-up feeling. It can go a long way! We all like a dash of spice.

The Inlander returned from a trip to Terrace last week-end. Sounds like 35 years ago. Enough to give a Skeena sourdough a touch of nostalgia! The original Inlander has long since gone out of the picture and this was a converted barge bearing her honored name and taking a couple of cellulose company forestry officers along the river doubtful pleasure before them.
