Canadian Seamen Offer To End Long Strike

MASS FOR DONORS RED CROSS BLOOD CLINIC START IMMEDIATELY

Fear that Prince Rupert may take on a pallid appearance after the three-day visit of the Red Cross mobile blood donor clinic on August 1 can be set aside. There is no danger of any being drained of enough fluid to have any noticeable effect on their health or appearance.

On the other hand, however, the plasma of blood which each Prince Rupert person donates will have a marked effect on the extent of the free blood bank service which the Red Cross will be able to provide throughout British Columbia.

That pint of blood donated in Prince Rupert might save a life somewhere in British Columbia perhaps, in Prince Rupert.

The mechanics of the canvass for blood which will precede the opening of the clinic here were outlined at a meeting of the Red Cross blood donor committee in the Civic Centre last night. The canvass, spearheaded by city organizations, will start immediately and will cover the city from Westview to the coast and from the waterfront to Eleventh Avenue.

At suggestion of T. Norton Youngs, chairman of the committee, the city was divided into zones similar to the polling divisions in the recent federal election. Some organizations have been assigned responsibility for canvassing as many as three zones.

Each of the canvassers will be armed with a file card and when they visit householders, they will take the name, address, telephone number and the time most convenient for the prospective donor to visit the clinic. These cards will be filed and when the clinic begins operation here, each of the donors will be reminded to call at the time they have chosen.

Objective in the campaign here, Mr. Youngs said, is at least 700 pints of blood. This will be given preliminary typing and immediately shipped to Vancouver where it will be processed for shipment to any part of the province.

Arrival of a refrigeration unit from Prince Rupert General Hospital, expected soon, will allow to subscribe to the Red Cross blood bank. It will receive weekly shipments which will be available to doctors free of charge.

The mobile clinic, accompanied by qualified personnel, will arrive here on Monday, August 1 and will be open to receive donations that evening.

Tuesday, it will be open for morning, afternoon and evening sessions, with the same routine on Wednesday. However, it is expected that the clinic will be moved to Port Edward Wednesday evening.

To assist the professional staff which will make up the personnel of the clinic, the committee is appealing for nurses or former nurses who will act as attendants during the period that the clinic will be open. Volunteers for this work were asked to contact Mr. Youngs.

OTTAWA ENVIES BUSINESS HERE

Long residents of Ottawa week-end says a despatch from the city, eyed with envy by car of fish recently returned from Prince Rupert.

The Ottawa baked in 90 degrees, the fish were kept at temperatures from two to seven degrees below zero by the special refrigeration unit designed in Vancouver. The special refrigeration unit was designed by Otto C. Young, research engineer of the Fisheries Experimental Station. The unit was unloaded at Montreal, and is proceeding to Halifax to pick up a load of fish for return journey.

Canadian Athletes Going Down Under

Auckland, New Zealand (CP)—Organization committee of the British Empire Games received word yesterday that the first contingent of the Canadian team will arrive in Auckland aboard the liner Aorangi January 10 next year. The party will comprise 31 male athletes, 11 women and ten officials.

OTTAWA'S MOST VICIOUS ATTACK

City Shocked by Ravishing Assault of Small Girl

OTTAWA (CP)—Police today said they had hopes of getting a clue from 28-month old Giselle LaChance to the person who ravished and beat her and suspended her nude body from the rafter of a shed behind her home.

The child was the victim of what Inspector Ubald Sauve of the morality squad said was "one of the most brutal sex attacks in the history of Ottawa."

The attack occurred Monday a few blocks from Connaught Square in the heart of the city.

Giselle was snatched while playing near her home, removed to the loft above a shed and later trussed with fishing lines. A man's necktie was tied around her throat and body. She was suspended by these bonds to a rafter but the weight was carried partially by cords about the body which saved her from suffocation.

MESSAGE OF HOPE—An R. C.A.F. aircraft dropped 20,000 pamphlets like the one being scanned by Mrs. Theresa Ulmer to urge her missing son, Martin, not to give up hope. The 26-year-old fisherman and his partner, Bob Tasker, were separated when their boat was wrecked off the coast of Graham Island several weeks ago. Tasker reached safety aided in the search. Ulmer has never been found. (C.P. Photo)

HOWAY MAKES 1,000-MILE RUN BUT SEES NO SIGN OF TUNA FISH

After following a pre-set course to determine water temperatures off Vancouver and the Queen Charlottes, the Fisheries Protection vessel Howay, commanded by Capt. Walter Redford, docked here at the first of the week but reported no signs of tuna in offshore waters.

The Howay's arrival here completed the first leg of a voyage in which the Fisheries Research Board and the federal Department of Fisheries are co-operating in obtaining scientific data on tuna which will be used as part of a long-term study of the little-known fish which invaded B.C. waters for the first time on record a year ago.

Purpose of the Howay's trip, according to Capt. Redford, is to compile a record of comparative water temperatures at specific spots in outside waters. The same places are visited frequently and temperature readings taken.

"We are not just cruising around trying to locate tuna for the fishermen, although we do report three times a day," he said while in port. "We are following a course laid out by the Fisheries Research Board and data which we obtain is turned over to them."

A key figure aboard the Howay is Biologist J. M. Partlo of the Fisheries Research Board's biological station at Departure Bay, who is doing the scientific work under direction of Dr. J. L. Hart, senior biologist at the station.

Actual fishing operations are under Fisheries Inspector Arthur Touchings of Port Alberni who is in charge of the gear used. With him is Inspector Andrew Skipper, of Queen Charlotte City. Inspector R. Mallory of Masset will also make a voyage on the Howay to familiarize himself with tuna fishing techniques.

Northbound from Victoria, the Howay carried a small party of naturalists from Vancouver and Victoria who disembarked at Triangle Island in Queen Charlotte Strait seeking unusual animal and bird life. Heading the party was Dr. Clifford Carl of the Provincial Museum, Victoria. Frank Beebe, zoo keeper at Stanley Park, Vancouver, was a member of the party.

Leaving Cape Beale on July 4, the Howay headed 150 miles southwest, finding water temperatures off Cape Flattery fluctuating between 53.4 degrees and 56.3 degrees. Capt. Redford then headed north toward Cape Cook, on a 130-mile course. At a spot 75 miles southwest of Estevan Point, "blue" water was encountered with temperature of 56.1 degrees.

Plenty of "tuna birds", whales and sharks were encountered 70 miles southwest of Cape Cook but they encountered no tuna although indications were that tuna feed was there.

MEAT PORTERS ARE DEFIANT

LONDON—Meat porters at London's great Smithfield market unanimously decided at a meeting yesterday not to deal with any meat handled by troops working in docks under "state of emergency." This was after defiant dockers by the hundreds had ceased work earlier in the day as troops and navy men moved in to unload supplies.

The work stoppage, which the cabinet is resolved to break up by the assumption of virtual wartime powers, is officially blamed on communist agitation.

TERRACE MAN SHOT VICTIM

TERRACE—Charles Frederick A. Green, 82-year-old pioneer farmer of the Terrace district was found dead Tuesday afternoon near a fence at the south side of his farm. He was the victim of what was believed to be a bullet wound.

The body was discovered by Mrs. Green after she started to hunt for him when she received no reply to her calls for him to come to tea at 4 p.m. Deceased had been in failing health for some time.

Surviving are his wife, one son, Frank, and a step-daughter, Mrs. L. G. Skinner, of Copper City. Mrs. Skinner left last week to visit relatives in England.

An inquest was begun by Coroner Will Robinson this morning.

One Major Concession Being Offered By C.S.U.

Willing to Be Hired by Government Instead of Through Union Halls

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Seamen's Union today made a major concession towards settling its world-wide strike when it offered to accept the practice of hiring seamen through Canada's National Employment Service instead of through Union hiring halls.

BEST JUVENILE WORK—Roderick L. Haig-Brown, magistrate and juvenile court judge of Campbell River, B. C., who has been awarded a citation for "Saltwater Summer," his second effort in writing for children. This is the first year such an award has been made by the Governor-General's Literary Awards committee. (C. P. Photo)

The Union, which called a strike against more than eighty vessels owned by the Shipping Federation of Canada March 31, sent a telegram yesterday to Arthur MacNamara, deputy minister of labor at Ottawa, setting forth conditions under which it was "prepared to immediately call off the deep-sea strike."

The telegram to Mr. MacNamara, it was announced last night, submitted four conditions under which the C.S.U. would call off the strike.

The conditions were: Seamen employed on ships on March 31 shall be returned to their former places of employment without discrimination.

All future replacements shall be made through the National Employment Service without discrimination for reason of strike activity.

Experienced seamen to be given the preference in employment.

Seamen now in foreign ports shall return to their vessels without discrimination and shall have the right to continued employment at the end of the voyage.

All wages owing to seamen that have been "withheld or forward to Ottawa shall be paid without avoidable delay."

Aluminum Heads Are Visiting Kitimaat and Interior Rivers

Flying in two planes and headed by McNeely Dubose, vice-president of the Aluminum Company of Canada, a party of officials are this week visiting the headwaters of the Nechako River to discuss with surveyors and engineers the possibility of constructing a huge dam in connection with the proposed $500,000,000 aluminum plant at Kitimaat.

They expect to remain four days. Those making the flight include Major R. C. Farrow, comptroller of water power for British Columbia, and George P. Melrose, Deputy Minister of Lands, representing the Provincial Government; Paul Leman of Montreal, treasurer of Aluminum Co., and E. P. Baker, corporation lawyer from New York.

During the four days stay they will inspect other sites where dams have been proposed. They are also making a contour survey of the waterfront and at Kitimaat at the head of Douglas Channel.

RE-UNION IN EDINBURGH

People with their roots in Prince Rupert are widely scattered throughout the world and, whenever a couple of them meet, there is a reunion. Such a reunion occurred in Edinburgh, Scotland, recently.

It took place when Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Orme, city pioneers, visited Mrs. Stanley Wilson at her Edinburgh home. Mrs. Wilson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. D. Smith, of Prince Rupert. According to a letter received by Mrs. Smith, Prince Rupert memories and personalities shared the spotlight.

The circle was enlarged when Mrs. Wilson telephoned Mrs. Carmichael, the wife of Dr. Carnichael of Edinburgh and the former Hilda Murray, daughter of W. H. Wilson Murray of Prince Rupert.

TO SEEK COSTS ON McBRIDE ST.

City Engineer Donald Stewart told city council Monday night that, since the city had included the paving of McBride Street in its original estimates on street projects, there were ample stocks of gravel on hand to do the work without using any that might have been earmarked for other streets.

A tentative estimate of costs, Mr. Stewart said, was in the neighborhood of $8,000.

Alderman George Rudderham, chairman of the Board of Works, pointed out that he felt that the city should be consulted both as to the specifications and price before the project was begun.

Rupert. The couple visited the Wilson home and met the Ormes. Mr. and Mrs. Orme are currently on a trip which will take them through Scotland, England and France. Travelling with them is Mr. Justice A. M. Macdonald, of the British Columbia Supreme Court, a former Prince Rupert man.

EMPLOYMENT IS "VERY GOOD" IN THIS DISTRICT

Not Sufficient Workers Here So importations Being Made

Prince Rupert's current employment picture is "very good" according to Unemployment Insurance Officer E. V. Whiting, who says that in many cases, there are not sufficient workers to fill jobs, while at the same time, claims for unemployment insurance are negligible.

Brightest spot in the picture is in the construction industry, from the standpoint of the worker. Construction activity is so great that qualified men are at a premium. However, this situation works a hardship on employers who are unable to obtain men to do the jobs.

This situation is common throughout the whole district and indications are that it will continue, particularly in the interior, until sufficient houses have been built to accommodate a growing population.

Throughout the whole area, an estimated 5,000 wage earners are busy, Mr. Whiting calculates. The bulk of these are in Prince Rupert, where there are 389 registered employers.

Sidelights in the employment picture. Competent stenographers are extremely hard to find. Mr. Whiting described this as "usual."

The fishing industry is at its maximum point of employment. In the last two months, the local Employment Office has brought in more than 250 workers from Prince George and Vancouver to fill local needs.

These have actually been transferred through the commission. Scores of others have come on their own and found employment.

The figure of 5,000 employed persons in the district is exclusive of native cannery workers who are not listed.

A few loggers are being supplied to camps on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Planing mills in the interior are having difficulty in obtaining rough lumber to process because of the fact that falling lumber prices have caused many of the small sawmills to halt operations.

Restaurant kitchen help and waitresses are being brought in from Vancouver because of a local shortage.

Government Trying to Aid Fishing Industry

OTTAWA (CP)—Federal government's plans for assistance to the fishing industry will be discussed with the fishermen of four maritime provinces and Quebec during a 17-day tour to be undertaken by Fisheries Minister R. W. Mayhew and two assistants. Under discussion will be fish inspection, availability of new boats and gear, refrigerated transportation and provision of capital assistance.

Welcome, Yachtsmen!

MAKING the outstanding nautical event of the year in Prince Rupert, eleven trim and speedy power yachts will reach port late this afternoon in the course of the Capital to Capital race from Olympia, Washington, to Juneau, Alaska. Handsome trophies of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club for the Nanaimo to Prince Rupert or intermediate stage of the marine sprint await presentation to the winners who will be determined in time for a banquet of welcome which will be the feature of the brief pause of the flotilla at this port.

The race gives valuable publicity to Prince Rupert which is becoming more and more closely linked and associated with Alaska.

The visitors are welcome here and the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club will put on a typically hospitable reception. We hope they will enjoy their short stay here and that they will come back again and often.

DO NOT ASK

IT IS ALL RIGHT to ask, "Are they keeping you busy?" People are seldom offended in these days at the implication that they must work for a living. It is even reasonably safe to query: "How are you?" although the hypochondriac may use up twenty minutes of your time in his reply. But few venture to inquire about a person's emotions. "Your emotions in good shape?" This is not generally asked.

Yet most of us spend the bulk of our time wrestling deep in the dust with our emotions. Our spirit, our soul, the far inner recesses of ourselves take up all the time we can get. Making a living, leading through strength, changing the baby—these are important matters; but in the midst of such occupations the spirit stirs, and the boss, the bid and even the baby become like dreams.

It is the spirit that is reality. That is man's strength. It is so much his only strength that he carries it sheathed like a sword in a scabbard, lest the breath of idle conversation tarnish and rust it. Never ask a man, "How is your soul?" He and his soul have no time to spare for you.

MAKES 1,000-MILE RUN

110 miles westerly, passing over the Dellwood Hills, a shoal outside Queen Charlotte Sound. Twenty miles southwest of Cape Cook they found water of 58.6

degrees but no tuna.

In the vicinity of the Dellwood Hills, water temperature was 55.9 degrees and continued to fall until 25 miles off Cape St. James, at the southern tip of the Queen Charlottes, it was 52.7 degrees.

They then moved northward

NEAR CAMPAIGN'S END—Piped to the platform by kilted highlanders, Prime Minister St. Laurent is shown addressing a crowd of 13,500—the largest he faced on his Dominion tour—as the election campaign entered its final week. Mr. St. Laurent said 1949 was a year of significance for Canada and that trade had reached unprecedented levels. (C. P. Photo) to Tasoo Harbor where the water was 51 degrees. From Tasoo, they ran 120 miles due west, then turned north and came into Prince Rupert through Dixon's Entrance.

Furthest north point at which albacore tuna has been caught so far this year has been west of Columbia River Spit where the American vessel Aleutian Mail caught them on July 7. Last year tuna started running in August off Tasoo on the west coast of the Queen Charlottes. On July 9 of last year the fish were caught off the west coast of Vancouver Island between Estevan and Cape Cook.

Weather permitting, the Howay will go 90 to 150 miles west of Langara Island at the start of her southbound trip. She will pass over Dickins Seamount—a shoal spot in that area and over Hodkins Seamount further south, then head over the Dellwood Hills to a spot 100 miles off Triangle Island to Cape Cook, then 100 miles off Cape Flattery and into Victoria.

Since leaving Victoria on July 4, the Howay has covered more than 1,000 miles and her skipper expects to double that distance before his return. At present, the Laurier, sister ship of the Howay, under command of Capt. Llewellyn Sheppard, is on tuna patrol. However, she is not following a set course but is prospecting likely spots where the fish might be found.

Ray Reflects . . . . . . and Reminisces

According to Ottawa statistics, Prince Rupert has the lowest average rental of any city in Canada. It was even more reasonable in the early, early days when everybody hoisted his own tent and built his own shack. Then, there was "no such animal" as the rent collector.

A flagon of water from the Pacific (Cow Bay) will be presented at the Boy Scout jamboree in Ottawa to a scout from Newfoundland who, in turn, will present a flagon of water from the North Atlantic. There is going to be a cold touch, somewhere.

Someone in the States has invented a chicken without wings. Instead of being able to fly, it grows a few extra pounds of tender, luscious meat. In every other way the bird is normal. Now here's an honest to God blessing. For a chicken wing is always a nuisance to carve, puts gravy on your fingers when trying to eat, and, generally speaking, amounts to dashed little anyway.

Gleaned from a contemporary, the following: Of the known active volcanoes, Europe used skis for centuries before skiing became a sport. Our local mountains have not yet developed that "roving disposition" and at present confine their winter sports to "slides."

More visitors from distant parts of America are likening the scenic beauty of the Skeena River as something hard to equal, let alone surpass. Their praise might be called extravagant. Yet there are scores of persons who have been living in Prince Rupert for a good part of a lifetime and never been a hundred miles east.

Arthur Turcotte of Seventh Avenue West is only twelve, but blessed with a good head. When he noticed a younger companion playing with an old, rusty rifle picked up in Cow Bay debris, he took it straight to the police station where it was found well oiled and containing a charge. Many an older lad would never have thought of that. Perhaps the weapon would have been monkeyed with a while longer until some one pulled the trigger. Then, there could have been one less juvenile and another trying to explain "he didn't know it was loaded."

Ball Game Is Error Comedy

Savoy Wins Doubtful Victory From Merchants

Merchants lost Tuesday night's baseball league fixture in a comedy of errors that was not funny. The score was 9 to 2. Little credit can be given to Savoy's winning although they played fair ball in spite of a weakened line-up through the absence of the Simundson brothers. It was a matter of the Merchants booting the game away with all the infielders and the left fielder getting into the error column.

The only earned runs were the two scored by the Merchants.

A rally that threatened to put the Merchants in the game was decimated in the sixth when Foreman overran third base an automatic infield out. He was called out for interfering with the third baseman but the ball in the meantime had been thrown out of the park and the call was somewhat disputed by the Merchants. The game was declared being played under protest by the Merchants and according to the league constitution, they have 24 hours from game time to make an official protest to the executive.

The only bright spot on the Merchant side of the ledger was Cliff Dahl's relief pitching when he took over from Forbes who was forced to retire on account of blistered fingers. Dahl struck out four of the six batters to face him.

Jack Sharpe, in his first league performance, turned in an excellent job and was only in hot water in the sixth which ended disastrously for the Merchants.

CRUISERS DUE HERE TODAY

Nine Racers from Seattle Due This Afternoon

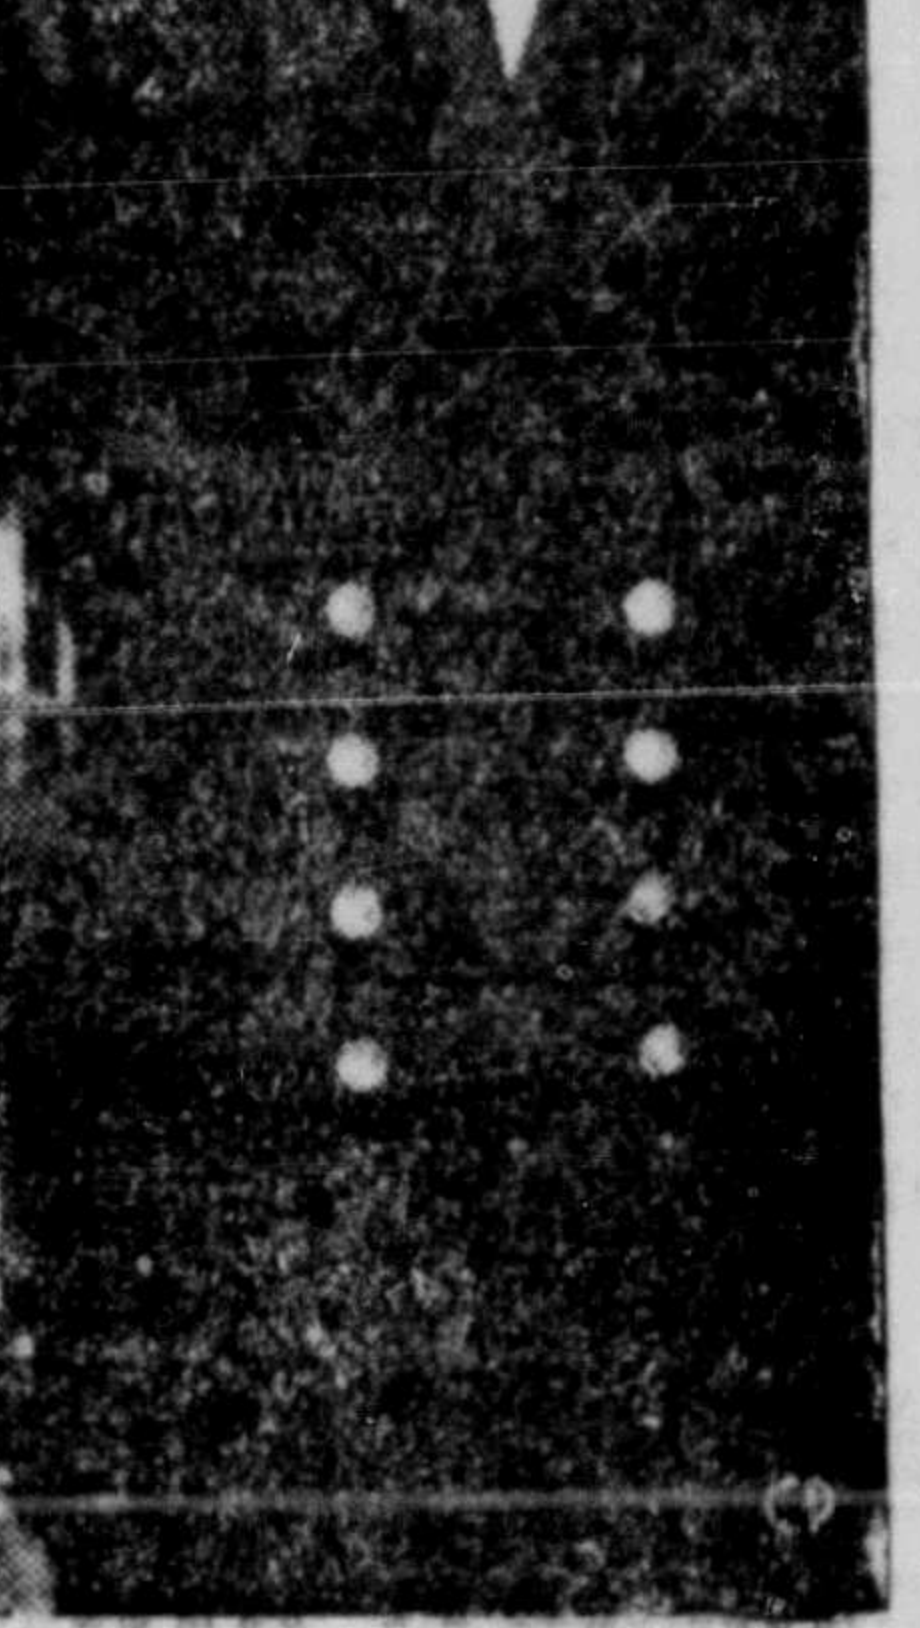

Trophies will be awarded here tonight to the winners of the Nanaimo-Prince Rupert leg of the international cruiser race which will see nine vessels dock here late this afternoon on the second portion of the Tacoma-Jeanau predicted log event. The vessels, which originally numbered 10—one was reported today to have dropped out on account of rough weather in Queen Charlotte Strait—are expected to start arriving about 5 o'clock this afternoon.

They will be met by a committee of local judges who will immediately begin to compute the logs of the various boats in an effort to determine the winners. Three trophies—the City of Prince Rupert trophy, the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. trophy and the Prince Rupert Yacht Club trophy—will be awarded at a reception to be held at the Prince Rupert Aero Club at Seal Cove later in the evening.

Since details of the events are under direction of a committee aboard the boats, the manner in which the trophy awards will be made was not known here today.

Local judges who will compute the logs of the boats are G. A. Hunter, M. L. Brydges, T. D. Johnstone, Walter Smith, Maurice Weightman and C. E. Starr.

Stormy weather in Queen Charlotte Straits was responsible for one boat, the Jeanne of Seattle, dropping out of the race when it was found that she was unable to cross the open stretch of sea. Another boat was reported to have stood by the Jeanne but it will continue on to Prince Rupert and is expected to arrive shortly after the bulk of the convoy.

Sport Shots

Barbara Ann Scott, Canada's skating beauty, is headed for Hollywood before she starts on a Canadian skating tour with her own company. But the trip to Hollywood isn't primarily to sign a movie contract. She is to display the skating talents that won her the world's and Olympic championship before the music lovers who regularly crowd Hollywood Bowl for symphony.

For her stunt—skating two or three numbers on a "tank" in front of the Bowl's Symphony Orchestra—she collects a cool $7,500. That's a healthy figure and more than many a top-flight Hollywood star gets for a single performance.

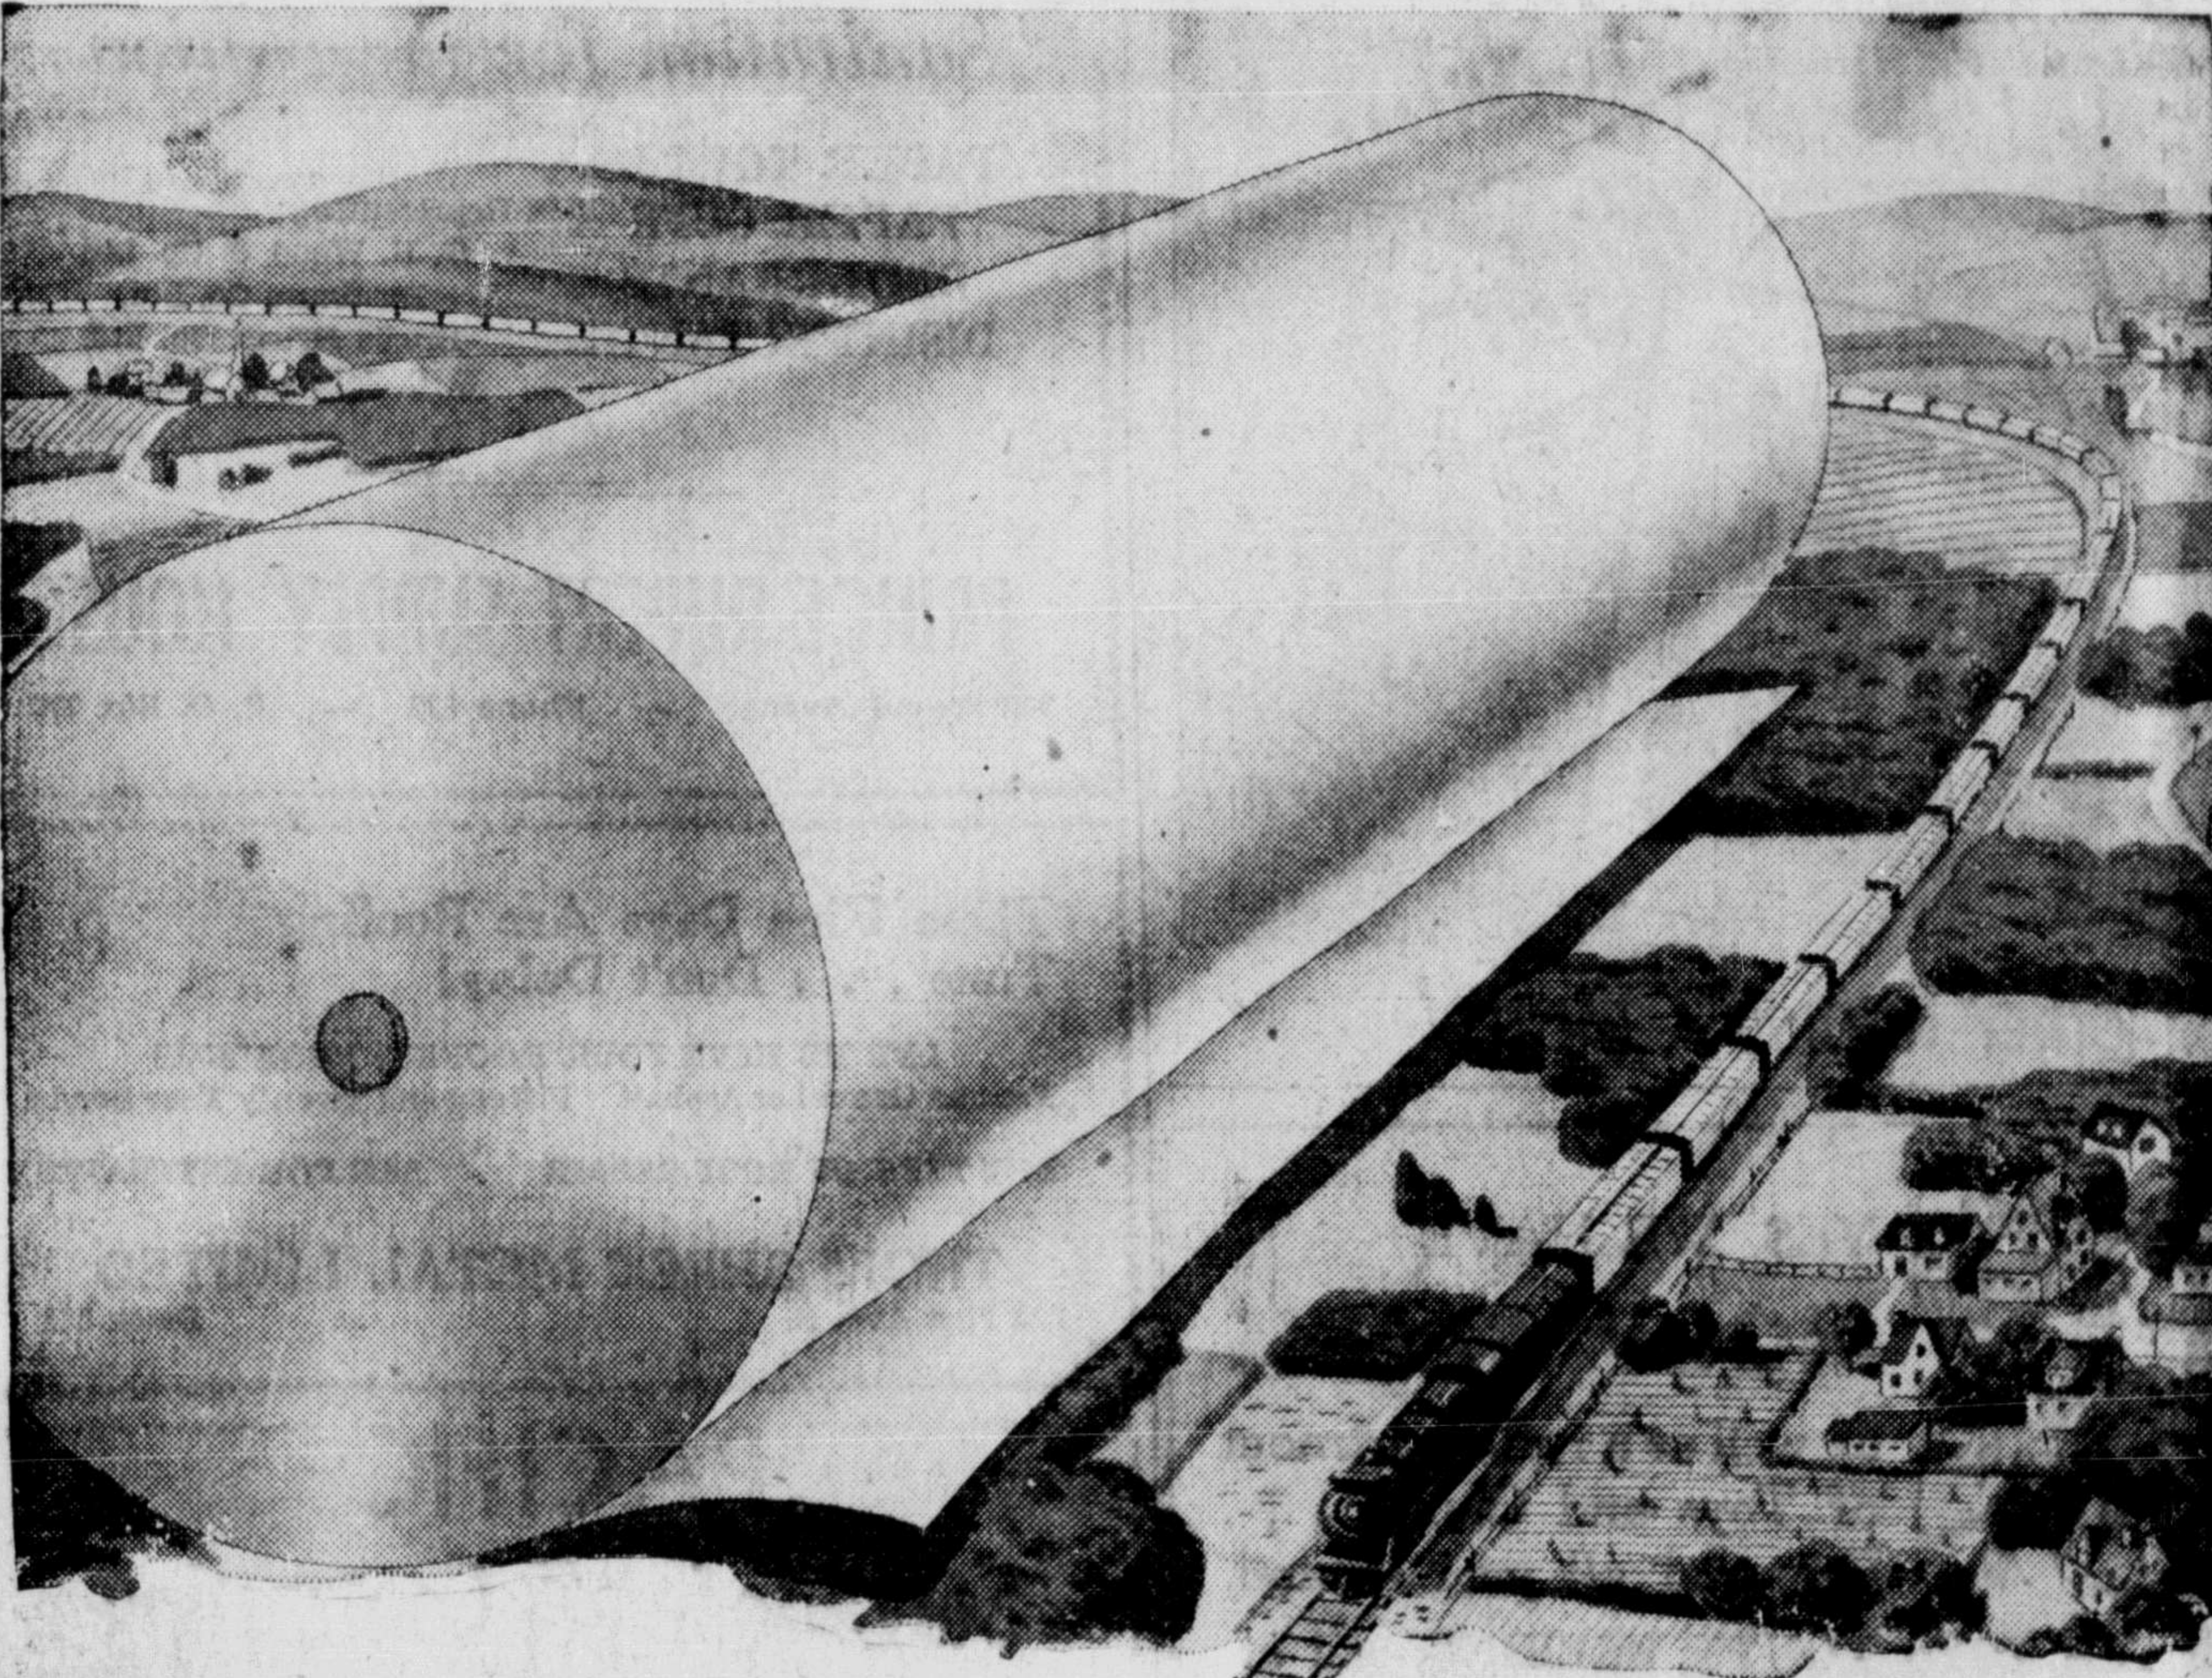

While she's in Hollywood, she will consider a couple of handsome movie offers.

"EXPORT" CANADA'S FINEST CIGARETTE

CANADA NEEDS HEALTHY RAILWAYS TO SERVE HER PEOPLE

The Railways Do A Giant's Job in Moving Canada's Huge Newsprint Production

Our great pulp and paper industry every year relies on the railways to carry nearly seven million tons of newsprint and wood pulp. Yet that is hardly more than a quarter of the total tonnage of forest products they handle in a year.

IT IS a long way from the North woods to the roaring presses of big-city newspapers. The railways perform this long haul for Canada's newsprint producers.

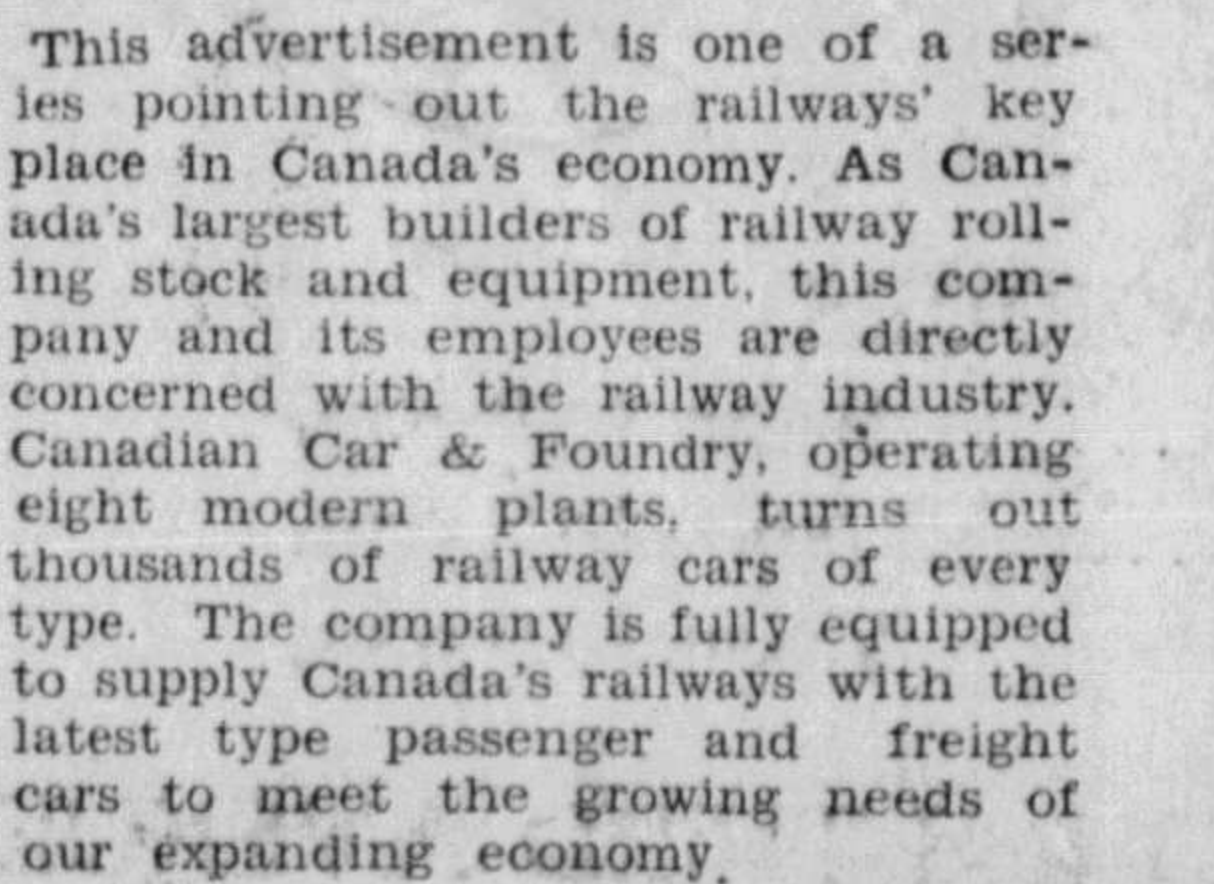

And that is only a fraction of their job. They carry millions of tons of pulpwood logs, further millions of lumber and other forest products.

Sinews of steel are needed to move the combined output of the biggest pulp and paper industry in the world and of Canada's far-flung woods operations. It takes organization, and manpower, and a huge investment in track and terminals and rolling stock.

Every Canadian, both as producer and consumer, has a direct interest in the railways—in seeing that they are kept efficient and fully adequate to the nation's needs.

The railways are big BUYERS too

Paper is a relatively small item in railway purchasing. Yet last year they spent several hundred thousands of dollars for menus, tickets, timetables, forms, stationery... some of the "little" items which together make the railways important customers of the paper and printing industries... and the country's biggest buyers.

This advertisement is one of a series pointing out the railways' key place in Canada's economy. As Canada's largest builders of railway rolling stock and its employees are directly concerned with the railway industry, Canadian Car & Foundry, operating eight modern plants, turns out thousands of railway cars of every type. The company is fully equipped to supply Canada's railways with the latest type passenger and freight cars to meet the growing needs of our expanding economy.

Is Hit By Car, Not Badly Hurt

Little 2½-year-old Brian Eby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eby, was fortunate to escape with little more than shock and scare last evening about 7 o'clock when struck near his home on Fourth Avenue East by a car driven by Donna McArthur. The child, turning suddenly, was grazed by the car and pinned to the ground by his clothes. Quick control of the vehicle by the driver, travelling moderately in a westerly direction, saved the child from being run over. Removed to the hospital, it was ascertained that there were no bones broken and there were no serious injuries.
