RUPERT DISTRICT RATEPAYERS TODAY ON SCHOOL BYLAW

Rupert district ratepayers today are debating the fate of bylaws aimed at borrowing $407,515 for two new schools to augment and replace buildings which have been described as inadequate to the city's needs.

Voting began at the Civic Centre at 8 o'clock and will continue until the polls close tonight. Ratepayers are voting to authorize the borrowing of $407,515 as their share of a new unit for a high school and an elementary school. Voters are deciding whether they favor the $407,515, which will be required to approve the bylaws.

If city voters give it a substantial majority above the required amount, they could over-rule a negative vote on the part of rural voters. On the other hand, if city voters gave an even 60 percent "yes" vote, a negative vote on the part of the rural ratepayers could defeat passage of the measures.

Voters are asked to answer "yes" or "no" to the question "Shall the school bylaw entitled School Bylaw, 1949 be confirmed?" Total cost of school construction if the bylaws are approved will be $830,030, of which the provincial government will make up 50 percent in grants.

If the bylaws are approved, they will be reconsidered by the School Board at a meeting Friday night and given final approval. They will then go to the provincial Superintendent of Education for certification.

Completion of final architect's drawings—a lengthy process—will start about a month after approval of the bylaw. Construction of the new buildings probably would start next Spring.

SEES MIRACLE IN QUICK CURE

Therese Bourgault of Bromptonville, Que., had an almost overnight cure of arthritis from which she suffered for five years. Neighbors and relatives say it was divine intervention that effected the cure, as it was immediately after a visit to two boys of St. Sylvestre, 120 miles away, who are reputed to have been associated with several "miracles."

GUAY COMMITTED

QUEBEC—Thin-faced J. Albert Guay, looking out calmly on a packed court-room audience, was ordered today to stand trial on a charge of killing his pretty wife by blowing up an airliner with 23 persons aboard. Guay, 32-year-old Quebec jeweller, was ordered for trial before a jury of his equals by soft-spoken Judge Laetare Roy who listened to two days evidence in the extraordinary case. This was the third day of Guay's preliminary hearing.

ASK RECOGNITION

OTTAWA—In far away Nanking, the Communists have formally asked Canada to recognize their People's Republic as the lawful government of China. The request was presented first in words, later in writing, to the Charge d'Affaires at the Canadian Embassy, Chester Alvin Ronning, and he has been asked to forward it here for government consideration.

GERMANY WOULD BARTER

OTTAWA—Western Germany is prepared to consider barter trade with Canada, Carl Haiblen, spokesman for an eight-man German trade mission, said today. The Cologne steel manufacturer, heading a delegation to try and increase trade with the Dominion, said his country now was able to export the same quantity of goods which were exported to Canada before the second world war.

RENTAL CONTROLS

OTTAWA—A cabinet decision is believed nearing on what has now become a perennial issue at this time of the year—rent controls. In the rush of other matters the cabinet has not yet decided either in favor of continuation or removal of controls. Its decision may be to refer the question to the Supreme Court for a ruling on whether or not it has the power to continue them.

AMERICAN PROTEST

WASHINGTON—The United States today sent a strongly worded note to Russia protesting the "shocking" mistreatment of Americans who stray into the Soviet zone of Germany. "This treatment of the United States government finds to be in shocking contravention to the most elementary standards of international decency," the note said. At the same time the United States, through Ambassador Kirk in Moscow, notified the Russian foreign office that "it expects that those Soviet officials who are responsible for these acts will be punished."

ROBERT HANNEGAN DIES

ST. LOUIS—Robert E. Hannegan, former United States postmaster general and one time owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, died today at his home here. The cause of his death was not immediately disclosed. Hannegan has been failing in health for some time. His wife was at his bedside. Hannegan, who was only 46, gave his health as the reason for selling his interest in the Cardinals last winter.

FIRST ORIENTAL CASTS BALLOT

First Oriental voter in Prince Rupert's history cast a ballot in today's school by-law plebiscite. She was Mrs. Toshiko Yamada, of Japanese origin, who recently purchased property in the east end of the city.

Interviewed, Mrs. Yamada expressed pleasure at being allowed to exercise a right of citizenship and declared that she hoped that the school by-laws would pass so that the city would have adequate school facilities.

Oriental who are Canadian citizens were granted the franchise by the provincial government early this year. Civic voting requirements are

Soviet Promises New Proposal Next Week

LAKE SUCCESS, New York (CP)—Russia had United Nations leaders guessing today. Are the Soviets getting ready to propose an atom bomb check-up now that they have touched off an atomic explosion? Speculation blossomed when the Russian delegate, Jakob A. Malik, yesterday promised to present a new Soviet proposal on world armaments to the security council on October 11.

Malik has just returned from home leave in Russia. Any new plan he submits might provide a clue whether disclosure of Russia's atomic experiments has changed the Kremlin's policy in regard to armaments.

based on those laid down by the provincial government which heretofore had denied the vote to Chinese, Japanese and East Indians.

Attorney-General Is Being Honored

Ald. Harold Whalen will represent the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce at a special luncheon of the Vancouver Board of Trade to be held tomorrow in honor of Attorney-General Gordon Wismer to acknowledge his services in connection with British Columbia's freight rates fight. A congratulatory letter is being sent by the local chamber to be added to a folio of testimonials which will be presented to Mr. Wismer.

"There are many opportunities in the skilled trades which however, must be paid for by diligence and application. Let us do what we can to show the boys that the wise thing for them to do is to get an apprenticeship." (Continued Page 6)

Brooklyn Dodgers Even Up In One Run Victory

Preacher Roe, Bony Arkansas School Teacher, Hero of Today's Game

YANKEE STADIUM (CP)—Preacher Roe, gangling bag of bones from Arkansas, shut out the New York Yankees with six hits today as Brooklyn squared the forty-sixth World Series at one game each with a 1 to 0 victory over Vic Raschi while 70,053 fans watched in comparative silence.

This was not only the second straight one to nothing game but the first time that two such classics had been pitched in one World Series.

Brooklyn scored its lone run off Vic Raschi in the second inning and Roe held tight as the Yanks staged a threat in each of the last three innings.

First run in the World Series for the Dodgers came in the second inning when Jackie Robinson went on with a blistering two bagger to left field and was scored by Gil Hodges who singled and went to second on Johnny Lindell's fumble in left field. Gene Hermanski and Marv Rackley had gone out before the run, the former on a foul and the latter being infield. The side went down when Campanella fanned for Raschi's first strikeout.

Air Field Here

IT IS APPROPRIATE enough that the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, as it pursues the campaign for the establishment of an air field at this port, should draw to the attention of the International Joint Defence Board the strategic position of Prince Rupert in the defence picture in the Pacific arena.

The powers that be appear to be very complacent about this long strip of open and unprotected coastline which would be an invitation to enemy attack in case of war. Realists are regularly enough telling the government that the British Columbia coast could not expect to go untouched in another conflict of arms.

During the last war at the time when there was a threat of Japanese encroachment the defence authorities had all but started the establishment of an air field contiguous to Prince Rupert. With the certainty that Prince Rupert would be more than ever involved in the event of another war, it would appear that an air field here is an elementary and immediate defence requirement.

But, in addition to all that, Prince Rupert has good claim to an air field from the straight commercial standpoint.

NOBODY WINS STRIKE

COMMISSIONER Harry E. Scheek of the United States mediation service has retired and in an interview with a newspaperman he said his lifetime of experience had shown him that nobody wins a strike. He stated that lost wages, lost production, family hardship, the aftermath of bitterness, are among things that are never fully paid for by any gains.

The London dockers who struck for 25 days over the question of unloading two Canadian ships can testify to that so far as loss is concerned. Perhaps they struck for a principle, but financially they lost more than three weeks' wages and went back to work having lost all and gained nothing because it was a strike unauthorized by the unions. Therefore, there was no strike pay and no unemployment allowance.

There have been innumerable instances of fruitless strikes in Canada and the United States since the war and before it. Right now the Canadian Seamen's Union strike is pointless, because it is a jurisdictional strike—a hatred of a new rival union—and, if and when they return to their ships, it won't be for more pay or shorter hours, but merely recognition of their union as the bargaining agent, and their three months' idleness, so far, will have been dead loss.

Some of the largest companies in the United States have experienced long strikes. Weeks or months have gone by before the workers went back after accepting two-thirds or half of what they struck for. But supposing they got 10 to 20 cents an hour more, it will take several years to make good the losses in pay. Then by that time it will be time for another strike. And so the circle goes on. The men and employers all lose money and the public suffers too.

Both sides should strive to the limit to reach an agreement by mediation. As Mr. Scheek said: "Nobody wins a strike."

Only Premier Unexcited Over P.G.E.— Mr. Anscomb Opens Up For Change

By J. K. NESBITT

VICTORIA—Premier Johnson left for Ottawa the other day to discuss housing and with an invitation in his pocket from Senator Warren G. Magnuson of Washington State to go to Washington, D.C., to discuss the future of the P.G.E.

A great stir was caused in the Legislative Buildings when it became known the Premier had the bid to the U.S. capital. The Premier wasn't in the least excited. He seemed to feel the invitation didn't mean much and that politicians in the State of Washington, whenever things get dull there, whoop up the good old P.G.E. and say they would like to buy it as a link in a proposed railway from Seattle to Alaska.

One would think a provincial premier of Canada would jump at the chance to meet President Truman. Mr. Magnuson intimated that perhaps Mr. Johnson might be able to see the President. Mr. Johnson, of course, would like such an interview but he didn't seem fussy about it as he took a plane for Ottawa.

Like his immediate predecessor, John Hart, the Premier plays coy whenever it is said the U.S. would like the P.G.E. Once more the other day he said that if anyone has a bona fide offer his government will consider it but it certainly won't play around with promoters who would like to get their hands on large slices of B.C.'s natural resources in return for development of the P.G.E.

At a press conference in the Premier's office, someone suggested it was time a B.C. Premier went calling on a United States President again. This brought up the famous time T. D. Pattullo cut through protocol and red tape and telephoned his old friend President Roosevelt and got invited to tea at Hyde Park with the President and his mother. The Canadian Embassy in Washington was shocked when it heard about the affair. Mr. Pattullo hadn't gone through the Embassy, as diplomacy said he should. He merely responded to the president's invitation "come and see me sometime," extended by Roosevelt when he was in Victoria in 1937.

Finance Minister Anscomb usually close-mouthed where the press is concerned, has had a change of tune. He gave a press conference the other day. His conferences are few and far between for he maintains he has nothing to say but they're very pleasant and the reporters like him, for he jests and wisecracks and spreads about his impish personality. He's never hard-boiled at such conferences, as he sometimes appear in public.

Usually, when a reporter asks him how the sales tax is rolling in, Mr. Anscomb looks shocked, says "Come now, Senator, I wouldn't be expected to know that, would I?" So pleasant as the conferences always have been, they're mostly barren of news.

This time, when he was asked how the sales tax is coming in he said "Fine, just fine." He even went so far as to say there would be no difficulty in collecting the $18,000,000 this year he estimated in his last budget address to the Legislature.

This new frankness was surprising enough to the reporters. One grew so bold as to ask how the liquor profits are holding up, that he had noted they were dropping in Washington States. "Well, they're not dropping here," Mr. Anscomb said, and he told the press it could say, if it was of any interest to anyone, that B.C. is facing no problem in collecting the $16,250,000 he said it would last Spring.

Mr. Anscomb was bursting with buoyant optimism. Everything's going along beautifully, he said; just at the moment, anyway. And then he frowned a bit—and looked a little worried. He said he couldn't see into the future. He didn't like devaluation. But, from month to month, all is well with British Columbia, he said.

Asked what eastern Canadian money men think of British Columbia, the Minister of Finance boomed: "They think it's a wonderful place—with a darn fine bunch running it."

W. J. Raymond is leaving on tomorrow morning's way freight for Terrace where he will pay a brief visit before proceeding to New Hazelton to spend a holiday of a week or ten days.

FIRST SNOWFALL ON NEARBY HILLS

The higher peaks off to the north, around Wark Canal, were white yesterday, the snow being first of the season at that height sighted from the townsite. Mount Morse, across the harbor, got its first coating during last night. Some citizens who keep records manage to preserve dates of first snowfalls from year to year. September 22 is the earliest date that snow has ever appeared on Mount Morse.

MONTREAL, Oct. 6th — Ready now for you! — a wonderful recipe folder prepared for your cooking delight — and your family's eating pleasure! — by my friend Jan Ashley of Canada Starch's Home Service Department. Such mouth-watering recipes — it makes me hungry just to read them — and lots of others equally delicious, plus basic recipes you'll use again and again! All featuring BENSON'S CORN STARCH. Simply write to me — Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q. — for Jane Ashley's recipe folder!

Not Only Less — Are Falling these days... temperatures are steadily dropping, too! Any day now you'll want a little heat to take the chill off the hour. There's nothing quite like that cozy feeling as warmth starts circulating on a bleak Fall day! So don't be caught in a last-minute rush to the fuel dealer... get in your order now! If you haven't the cash in hand but can repay a loan in easy monthly instalments, have a word with your friendly BANK OF MONTREAL Manager. You can make sure of your fuel supply today — with a B of M Fuel Loan!

Discover A Wonderful Trick for all you mothers!... something to put a happy stop to tiny tots' mealtime-dawdling! A mother I know plays a "Cream of Wheat" game she calls "Guess What!" with her youngest. She puts a spoonful of jelly, seedless raisins, stewed prunes or apricots in the bottom of her youngster's cereal bowl. Then she covers this completely with "CREAM OF WHEAT". The idea is to guess what's hidden underneath! And, of course, it's a well-known fact that all children love the smooth yumminess of "Cream of Wheat" — so good, and so good for them! You see, 5 Minute "Cream of Wheat" contains Iron, Calcium and Phosphorus for diets deficient in these elements. Cooks to complete digestibility in 5 minutes of boiling. No wonder so many thousands of mothers make "Cream of Wheat" a family habit!

Here Are Bright New Ideas For Thanksgiving Entertaining!

— the food you serve — fruit cocktails to salads, cookies and candies — can be made twice as appetizing with the "magic" of SHIRRIFF'S FLAVOURING EXTRACTS AND FOOD COLOURS! A favourite trick of mine is this: — I "dress up" a basic recipe for plain white or golden cake by making layers of "harmonizing" colours... or combining coloured batter with chocolate or spice to make a marbled effect. There are five pure Shirriff's Food Colours to work my "colour magic" with! Then, to the icing of the cake, I add one of the delicious Shirriff's food flavours... Peppermint is delicious in chocolate icing! Or try Rum, Lemon, Orange or True Vanilla — and complementing food colours in a butter cream icing for real favour excitement!

When You LOOK Well, You FEEL Well...

...and there's nothing better for your "beauty morale" than a glowing complexion. Most effective way I know to achieve one is with a daily "Woodbury Facial Cocktail"! Regular use of WOODBURY FACIAL SOAP is truly a boon and blessing to tired complexions! You'll never have "skin-burn" with this kitten-mild soap, nor will it leave you with the taut dry feeling of a skin robbed of its softening oils! You see, Woodbury Soap contains a skin-smoothing, complexion-soothing ingredient of fine fa. creams. No wonder results are so satisfying when you do this every day. Work up a creamy-rich Woodbury lather. Massage thoroughly over face to cleanse and soften. Follow with two rinses — a warm and a cold. Pat dry.

Some favourites just won't drink all the milk they need for strong, sturdy bodies. Here's a wonderful way of getting more milk into the diets of these finicky eaters! Serve them JELL-O PUDDINGS! They'll love the creamy smoothness, the rich deep-down flavour of all the Jell-O Puddings family, and you'll find Jell-O Puddings extremely economical... serve... Sumptuous-tasting Vanilla, Caramel, Buttercream, and Chocolate Jell-O Puddings... delicious... Vanilla, Chocolate and Orange-Cocoanut Jell-O Tapioca Puddings. They're so easy to make too — take just 5 minutes to prepare — and Jell-O Puddings turn out perfect every time.

It's The Perfect Dessert For Thanksgiving Dinner!... and so quick and easy to prepare no matter how many guests and family you have for dinner! That's why I'm going to serve SHIRRIFF'S FRUIT PUDDING this Thanksgiving! It's a pudding lavish with ingredients, carefully cooked for hours and spiced to perfection in Shirriff's spotless kitchen! Shirriff's Fruit Pudding is "old-fashioned" in deep-down richness of flavour... but wonderfully "new-fangled" to serve! Simply steam it in the tin and serve piping hot... for the "star" of your Thanksgiving meal!

Shining, Lustrous Hair can be yours so easily!

...and at a special offer price! For here's a golden opportunity for you to get a 30c-bottle of wonderful K R E M L SHAMPOO... for just 10c! Yes, Kreml Shampoo leaves even lifeless-looking locks radiant with natural sheen... for it has a natural oil base... and in addition, contains the "magic" ingredient, "Folisan" 99-1. It cleanses your hair gently, yet thoroughly, and rinses away with quick! Since seeing is believing — why not take this opportunity to try Kreml Shampoo now?

Simply write to me — Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q. — enclosing 10c... and I'll send your 30c-bottle of Kreml Shampoo right away!

The Newest News About Your Favourite Hand Lotion is this...

...it's perfect for baby, too! Yes, JERGENS LOTION does a truly superior job of protecting baby's tender skin from rashes and skin irritation! Test after test proved this amazing fact — that Jergens Lotion is 5 times better for baby-skin than usual hospital skin-care. So smooth and soothing — so "just right" for baby's skin! You see, Jergens Lotion is sterile and simply does not support the growth of infecting germs! And so delightful to use! — After bathing baby — at diapering — smooth on Jergens Lotion all over!

Keyed To Autumn Appetites... luscious HEINZ CREAM OF TOMATO SOUP! I'm willing to wager, it will be your favourite, flavour-rich beginning to many an October meal... and a delicious "wonder-worker" when you cook it into stews, meat loaves, left-overs and all kinds. Ask your grocer for Heinz Tomato Soup now... he has the NEW PACK... fresh-packed tins of tomato soup from the Autumn-picked crop of pedigree "Aristocrat" tomatoes. Try this taste-test tomorrow... discover how the "magic touch" of the famous Heinz Chef can give you tomato soup flavoured to perfection!

Happy Marriages are made of — not moonlight and roses — but the important, little, everyday things that are done and that which a happy wife tells me. And she believes that every woman should pay a great deal of attention to genuine hygiene. Her favourite method — because she says "It's so dainty and effective!" — is ZONITORE. Zonitors are greaseless, stainless, non-white, saline suppositories — powerfully germicidal, yet absolutely safe to delicate tissues! So why not take this tip from a successful wife?... ask your druggist for Zonitors tomorrow — and write to me — Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q. — for your free copy of this helpful booklet giving frank facts on feminine hygiene. I'll send it to you in a plain wrapper.

In The Midst Of Fe. Housecleaning? Well, if you have that "end-of-my-tether" feeling... let ENERGINE Cleaning Fluid come to your rescue! Don't worry about those stains on upholstery! Energine removes grease stains from fabrics of all kinds — just like magic! When you follow the simple instructions, Energine cleans effectively without leaving tell-tale rings. Energine is wonderful, too, for porcelain surfaces such as refrigerators, bathtubs and wash basins. It really makes them sparkle! No wonder so many homemakers agree that Energine is "priceless" come housecleaning time — and so economical to use, too. You can get Energine at your favourite drug or department store for as little as 25c.

Ray Reflects... and Reminisces

A World Series broadcaster says a lot in the run of a day but he has never been known to utter, in the entire history of ball playing, the following statement: "Words fail me."

School buildings, put up here almost half a lifetime ago, are still doing service. Is there any sound reason why school students should not be entitled to something vastly better?

Why were Monday holidays never thought of earlier? Could it have been suspected that to dare enjoy a little more leisure was sinful, or trifling with conscience or State Rights. Well, Ladies and Gentlemen, the idea is here, and here to stay.

The official comparison of living costs in Canada from month to month is rarely low enough or high enough for one to become excited over it is something to be viewed with academic calm, along with a feeling of resignation. And it's just as well to say nothing. The government will say it for you.

John Fisher speaks over the radio every Sunday afternoon. He has a rich, clear-cut penetrating voice. Usually, he describes where he speaks from and somehow he makes you see it through his eyes.

Perhaps Fisher has been north, but if so, we missed him. It's an inviting field for a man of his talents. He pictured the Okanagan Valley a week ago. One feels the fragrant warmth and sunlight yet.

CHRIS PARKVOLD BURIED TUESDAY

Final rites for the late Chris Parkvold, well-known coast hall-but fisherman, who died Friday, were held Tuesday afternoon at St. Paul's Lutheran Church before a large number of friends. Rev. Earl Soland officiated.

The theme of "Christian Preparedness," inspired by the twelfth chapter of St. Paul's Epistle to Luke, was the text of the sermon delivered by Mr. Soland.

During the service, the congregation sang the hymn "Wake, Awake, for Night is Flying." Interment took place in the Valhalla Lodge plot at Fairview.

An Ottawa daily explains it as follows: The Journal has often called attention to the achievements of some of Canada's senior civil servants but the winning of a mince-pie making contest by Hugh Keenleyside, Deputy Minister of Mines and Resources caps them all. We presume the appropriate greeting him henceforth will be: "What's cooking?"

CANADA'S 21ST PARLIAMENT OPENS—Hon. J. D. Howe, Defence Minister Claxton, Finance Minister Abbott and Opposition Leader Drew enter Ottawa's House of Commons at the opening of parliamentary sessions. Expected to sit for 10 weeks, parliament's problems include amendments to eliminate the Privy Council as Canada's last court of appeal, enlargement of the scope of the National Housing Act, and arrangements for a convention of provincial premiers immediately after the session's end.

PRINTING DEVICE—The invention of two scientists, an automatic typewriter which "photographs" type is demonstrated in Cambridge, Mass., by famed physicist Dr. Vannevar Bush (seated) as Dr. Samuel Caldwell, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, looks on. The film from the machine can be developed and used on a printing plate, ready for the press to roll. If commercially, the machine could revolutionize the printing industry.

GETTING INTO SHAPE THE EASY WAY—The world's greatest hockey team—until it can be proved otherwise on the ice, has opened seasonal training at St. Catharines, Ont. The Leafs sped through a tough 70-minute practice game that was followed up with a gruelling physical training period. Getting back into shape must have proved to be too much of a strain for Vic Lynn (left) and Harry Watson as they took time out to "rest and relax."

SIR STAFFORD ON EXHIBIT— Sir Stafford Cripps, British chancellor of the exchequer is a curiosity among this gathering of Londoners who view the devaluation of the pound with mixed feelings. Sir Stafford and Prime Minister Attlee are the targets of criticism from Conservatives on the right and from Labor unions on the left. One union, Branch No. 1 of the Amalgamated Engineering Union went so far as to pass a resolution calling for "the immediate removal" of Cripps.

"AIR HORSE"—One of the most unusual exhibits at the British Aircraft Constructors' Show in Farnborough, is the "Air Horse," a 24-seater helicopter, shown in flight. The strange-looking helicopter has a single engine and is powered by one engine.

CHRISTIAN RALLY IN BERLIN—An estimated 30,000 Protestants from Berlin and from the Soviet zone of Germany gathered this week in the Waldbunne, in the British sector to attend a Christian solidarity rally. Dr. Otto Dibelius, Bishop of Berlin, addressed the crowds, stressing the need of practising obedience, love of neighbor, self-sacrifice, and criticizing the rising power of the state. In this view of the event the overflow of spectators can be seen seated in the aisles and standing on the outskirts of the huge arena.

RYDER CUP IS HEADING BACK TO ITS AMERICAN HOME—Lord Wardington, a sportsman of the old school, is shown (right) presenting the Ryder Cup to Ben Hogan of the American professional golf team that recently defeated the British for the trophy at Ganton, Eng. Hogan, still shaky from injuries received in an auto accident, captained the American team in non-playing capacity.

TO FACILITATE ROAD TRAFFIC

Co-operation of the contractors, Wood, Parr & McClay, who are engaged in the reconstruction of the Prince Rupert Highway just beyond the city limits in expediting as far as possible the movement of increasing traffic over the road while the work is going on, will be sought by the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce highway committee.

At present, the Chamber was informed at its meeting this week, there were half-hour periods of road shutdown. The contractors will be asked if possible, to make these periods fifteen minutes so there may not be an undue delay to important traffic.

Chamber members, at the same time, did not want to do anything that would interfere unduly with the important and long sought for work which was going on.
