Job of Choosing U. S. President Is Involved

Under Electoral College Set-Up Candidate Could Win With Solid Support of Only Twelve States

By CLYDE BLACKBURN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (CP) — Twelve states, if they voted solidly for one of the candidates, could elect the next President of the United States, regardless of how the other 36 states voted.

That is because the constitutional responsibility for choosing the president and vice-president rests on an "Electoral College." The votes in that state.

Because of the Electoral Col- lege set-up, it is possible for a candidate to win the presidency with the support of only 12 states: New York, Pennsylvania, California, New Jersey, Massa- chusetts, Illinois, Missouri, Ken- tucky, Indiana, Ohio, Texas, and Wisconsin.

Together they have a total of 269 members of the Electoral College. A simple majority of 266 is all it takes to win.

If no candidate has a majority, the House of Representatives de- cides the winner. That has not happened since 1825.

There have been many efforts to abolish the college or alter its method of operation to make the choice of presidents more re- flective of popular choice.

The Constitution left it to the state legislatures to decide how the electors should be chosen. Originally they were to be ap- pointed and left to exercise their own judgment, with orders to report their choice to Con- gress on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in De- cember of the election year.

However, for 100 years or more, the states have chosen the el- ectors in party contests.

The group may still constitu- tionally and legally, choose as president and vice-president any persons legally qualified to the candidate who gets the most

Sandspit at Work Again

SANDSPIT — Following a week's work stoppage at the Sandspit logging camp of Nor- thern Pulpwoods Limited, the crew of loggers, totalling 140, has resumed work.

The work stoppage commenced a week ago after John Mc- Cuish, organizer for the newly formed Woodworkers' Union, arrived at the camp and called a meeting at which it was un- animously decided by those present to have the entire crew abandon the former I.W.A. union and become supporters of the new regime. Following the passing of this motion a discussion on the question of the raise in board at the log- ging camp was brought up and the members of the new Wood- workers' Union in camp decided to call the entire crew into camp, there to remain until a satisfactory reply was forth- coming from the company with regard to the increase which had become effective on Octo- ber 1. Northern Pulpwood Lim- ited made no effort to have the men return to work and made no statement on the board ques- tion. A further meeting was held on Tuesday with the result that the camp committee or- dered the men back to work. The I.W.A. union holds an agree- ment with the logging company on working conditions.

The Impasse

IT IS A VERY hopeful person who can see further chance of agreement being reached between the Western Powers and Soviet Russia on any of the major matters now at issue such as the Berlin blockade, disarmament and atomic control. It seems but realistic and fact-finding to admit that an impasse has been reached which even the United Nations may feel itself unable to resolve.

About everything that could be done in the way of conciliation and mediation appears to have been done. We, on our side, have been patient to the point of weakness. The "neutral" nations, fearful of being caught in an embroglio of war, are making a final effort to bring about a compromise but do not seem to have much hope of success.

What could be accomplished by a United Nations protest or demand on Russia, even if it could be secured, is difficult to see. It would certainly have to be backed by force. Failing that the United Nations must surely founder on the same reef on which the League of Nations was lost. In fact, the pattern of Post World War II events is following much the same weave as the sequel of World War I.

Quite possibly Russia is still gambling that the Western Powers will appease her rather than go to war. It has been suggested that a well placed atom bomb is the only thing that can put a stop to Soviet aggression and infiltration. But who is going to make the decision and assume the responsibility? There's the rub.

DANGER APPARENT

THE SHOWDOWN with Communism in Canada is really on. The two great trades union organizations—Trades and Labor Congress of Canada and Canadian Congress of Labor—are striving desperately and as diplomatically as possible to rid themselves of the boring saboteurs within their ranks who care not for the workers but whose effort it is to create the confusion and chaos in which to sow the seeds of a totalitarian order. If it was not before, the danger must now be apparent to all.

Maybe the leaders of both T.L.C. and C.C.L. have already been much too patient with their communistic leeches. They have left it late to see the danger but it may not be too late. If the purge receives the support of the rank and file it can still be effective and trades unionism will be saved. But if the rank and file continue to be docile dupes for Red strategists and harangues, they may soon find themselves slaves to a ruthless tyranny even worse than capitalism pictured at its worst.

When heads of the great trades unions are so emphatic in their recognition of the Red menace, it is difficult to see how Communist preachings and blandishments can longer be effective in deluding intelligent Canadian workmen.

PRO-GRUENING—NOT DEMOCRAT

IF GOVERNOR GRUENING did say that "As Alaska Goes, So Goes the Nation," it must have been only wishful thinking. Our interpretation of the Democratic complexion of the Alaska election results can entertain no such suggestion.

As a matter of fact, if there was any line of political demarcation in Alaska in this election year, it was more a matter of Gruening vs. Anti-Gruening rather than Republican vs. Democrat. That would account for why Alaska swung into the Democratic column since Governor Gruening himself is a Democrat (a New Dealer at that) and is also a popular gentleman, clever politician and, by general consensus, really has the rights of Alaska at heart, even to the point of valiantly fighting the big interests which so many years have had the territory in their clutches.

Alaskans, we would say, voted Democrat not that they loved the Republicans less, but that they regarded Gruening more.

Incidentally, Governor Gruening, in his independence of attitude, has always been a good friend of Prince Rupert because he frankly saw where we could be of practical use in the development of Alaska from an economic standpoint.

Even in the overwhelming expression of opinion against the fish traps might be seen the desire of independent Alaskans to throw off the yoke of Seattle and the powerful industrial interests there which have so long exploited and dominated the territory.

Police Head Flies Through North B.C.

After a trip through northern sections of the province, including Tumbler Ridge, Telegraph Creek, Athol and the Peace River Block, Inspector F. B. Woods-Johnson, provincial police, returned to the city by train last night. He had flown into Tumbler Ridge and Telegraph Creek and, at the latter point, the plane had a mishap and a wheel was taken to Whitehorse and thence to Fort St. John. Accompanying Inspector Woods-Johnson was Inspector W. A. H. Gill of the British Columbia game department who proceeded back to Victoria from Prince George.

CENTRE IS INVALUABLE POSSESSION

Visitor Tells About University Extension

How the University of British Columbia has "stepped off its pedestal" to be of day-to-day service to thousands of people in western Canada was explained to the Prince Rupert Rotary Club by Robert Boroughs, assistant director of the university's extension department.

Speaking at the club's weekly luncheon meeting, Mr. Boroughs said the university realizes its obligations to the people of British Columbia and is "trying to do something for people who cannot or do not want to attend" the institution.

Prime intention of the extension department, he said, is adult education and this is carried by catering to hobbies and vocational needs.

"A good citizen is a thinking citizen," he declared. "That is why one of our activities is the encouragement of group discussions. It develops the habit of thinking."

The extension department, he observed, tries to operate through organized groups in the community and Prince Rupert is ideal in this connection because of its Civic Centre.

"In Prince Rupert, you have the finest Civic Centre in B.C.," he declared. "Frankly, it is amazing for a stranger to spend a day at the Civic Centre—to see the tiny tots and mothers, every section of the community putting it to use—that is adult education."

Mr. Boroughs paid tribute to Don Forward, Civic Centre managing director, as an outstanding community leader and one which Prince Rupert is fortunate to possess.

The aid which the Civic Centre can offer the extension department in its adult education program was exemplified in the current group discussion lectures, Mr. Boroughs said. By making contact through the Civic Centre, the department was able to draw four different organizations, whereas, without the central agency, individual contacts would have to be made.

The broad scope of extension activities was outlined by Mr. Boroughs. These include dramatics, library service, a film library, home economics service, handicrafts, child guidance service and a travelling art exhibit. Many of these services have already been used by Prince Rupert groups.

The department annually receives hundreds of requests for information on practically every conceivable subject. Research results in the questions being answered to the advantage of those seeking the information.

Mr. Boroughs was thanked for his address by club President D. C. Stevenson. Another guest at the meeting was Art Chapman, of Vancouver.

NEW ATTACK ON PARALYSIS

Polio Carried In Dust and Cleanliness Is Best Safeguard

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—A New Zealand physician thinks he has found a new line of attack on infantile paralysis.

He believes poliomyelitis virus may be carried in dust and that personal cleanliness may be the best safeguard.

Dr. A. W. Thompson, Auckland city's medical officer of health, presented his findings in a report to parliament. He based them on studies made in the first nine months of a polio epidemic in the North Island of New Zealand.

Dr. Thompson said in his report:

"That the threadworm itself might be intimately concerned in the life history of the infantile paralysis virus may seem a fantastic suggestion, but it cannot be excluded on the grounds of speculation."

The doctor says that if his theory is correct, then:

Mode of life and personal habits may be more important in preventing infection than immunity gained in a previous epidemic; day schools and children's parties may be much more dangerous than casual contact in street cars, shops or streets.

Thompson says:

"Without disputing the importance of other modes of transfer, it is possible that indoor dust, in schools in particular, may be the type best suited to touching off an epidemic in a population ripe for it, by causing a more rapid and wider circulation of the virus. Infections acquired in this manner might generally be light, and neglected personal hygiene might be necessary in most cases to boost them to clinical level."

Dr. Thompson added this opinion:

"One could not help being impressed with the emphasis which the findings throw on the role of the school child in spreading infection and introducing it into the home—particularly the older schoolboy; on the likelihood of faecal organisms, rather than droplet infection, playing the major part in propagating the disease; and on the supreme importance of personal hygiene over all possible general methods of attack."

ELECTORAL COLLEGE

In this year's election, each party, in each state that it is legally on ballot, offers its slate of Electoral College candidates. In some states, those are the only names on the ballot. In others, the Electoral College names do not appear, but the candidates' names are used and a vote for the candidate is a vote for the slate of electors of joint session of his party. Some states use both the candidates' and electors' names.

When the results are known, the electors of the party which wins the majority of votes in any state cast all the Electoral College votes for that state.

There is strong agitation for a change by which the votes in the Electoral College would be for another four

SHOWER HONORS LAURA CLOUTIER

A pre-nuptial event honoring Miss Laura Cloutier, whose marriage to Richard Letourneau will take place October 28, was enjoyed Wednesday evening when more than a score of friends held a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. A. Maskulk, 425 Ninth Avenue West.

A beautifully decorated table was laden with gifts for the bride-to-be. After the gifts were opened, luncheon was served by the hostess. A decorated cake was cut by the bride-to-be.

Present at the function were: Mrs. R. Telseth, Mrs. C. Wagner, Mrs. L. Doiron, Mrs. J. Garon, Mrs. G. H. Brett, Mrs. T. Plant, Mrs. A. Masulk, Mrs. J. Cloutier, Mrs. J. Basso, Mrs. L. ## WIDOW RECEIVES LEGION AWARD

Past President's Medal Presented To Mrs. Vic Houston

The regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion Wednesday night was made the opportunity of presenting to Mrs. Vic Houston the Past President's Medal of the Canadian Legion awarded to her husband on his retirement last spring but which was not received from the Dominion Command at Ottawa until after his death.

Mrs. Houston, who was accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Elsie Houston, widow of the late "Bobby" Houston, received the medal during the meeting from the hands of President Ralph P. Smith who expressed the club's appreciation of the many years of faithful service which Vic Houston had devoted to the Legion, not only during his two years as president of the branch but also during the many years that he held office in other appointments.

President Smith regretted that it had not been possible to make the presentation to his predecessor before his death. He realized that this award would doubtless be one of Mrs. Houston's treasured possessions. Mrs. Houston replied suitably and again expressed her gratitude for the kindness and attention received from members during her late husband's illness as well as after his death.

RETURNING TO WORK IN CHINA

Rev. Lorimer Baker Here From Vancouver to Take Part In Special Services

Pioneer of the North Manchurian missionary field and now awaiting transportation back to central China, Rev. Lorimer Baker arrived in the city by air yesterday afternoon from Vancouver to participate in special services of Regular Baptist Church to take place on the coming Sunday. In the morning there will be a service of dedication of the new Regular Baptist Church building on Sixth Avenue East. In the afternoon baptismal service will be held. At night there will be a missionary evangelistic meeting.

Mr. Baker is now pastor of Douglas Park Baptist Church in Vancouver. He has been back in Canada since the early days of World War II when he and Mrs. Baker returned from Harbin, North Manchuria, where in 1933 they established pioneer missionary work. Despite opposition, the work grew, Mr. Baker says. Recent advice indicates that, in spite of continuing unrest, the work is flourishing under native leadership in the country which is Against a gold mining history as lusty as the Klondyke, the community of Rossland on the skyline of the Kootenays has carried out a unique project. Canada's highest ski lift, which stretches some 1,400 feet to the summit of 5,200-foot Red Mountain, is a community effort that saw planning, construction and cost carried largely by the combined ski clubs of Rossland and nearby Trail.

Rossland considers its ski lift an achievement unequalled anywhere. For technical know-how, it drew generously on information supplied by youthful engineers working at Trail. Almost all essentials of the 70-chair lift—including telephone lines, the 14 wooden towers, the lights for night skiing, and the cable came from surrounding material or were turned out in Trail's shops. The 600-member Red Mountain Ski Club, an amalgamation of Trail and Rossland clubs, built a road to the site where they began construction of a three-storey ski lodge. They chopped timbers, sold debentures, labored at erecting the ski lift.

The lift opened Boxing Day last year while the lodge—now being worked on four nights a week by members—will house 80 sleepers as well as supply eating facilities. Commenting on the project he estimates to have cost $50,000 so far, Bob Greene, club secretary, said: "We're not after tourist trade and this is strictly a community affair. While we're scheduled to hold the Western Canada ski finals here in February, and we had the western inter-collegiate ski championships last year, we're not looking for money."

HOOP CLINIC WELL RECEIVED

Enrolment Is Over One Hundred—Session With Referees

Final session of the basketball clinic held at the Civic Centre this week by Art Chapman, coach of the professional Vancouver Hornets began this afternoon and is continuing this evening. Response to the clinic has been exceptionally enthusiastic.

Enrolment in the five groups totalled 100 during the week's course and interest was maintained in Mr. Chapman's methods. Mr. Chapman, in turn, was impressed with the quality demonstrated by some of the local hoopsters.

Last night, following the instruction classes, Mr. Chapman held an informal discussion with some 15 prospective referees, who will officiate during league play in the coming season.

Most of the classes were held in the Civic Centre main gymnasium although other activities forced some to be transferred to the Navy drill hall.

Enrolment figures for the course were: juveniles 18; juniors 25; intermediates 18; girls 24; seniors 15.

Mr. Chapman leaves by plane tomorrow to return to Vancouver.

SIXTEEN TEAMS FOR HOOP LEAGUE

Four Circuits to be Active Again This Winter

Sixteen teams have made provisional entries in Prince Rupert's four basketball leagues which will begin play on November 2 but confirmation of the entries must wait until after the league organizational meeting Monday night.

Although it is not definite yet, it appears as though High School, which battled in the Intermediate division last season, will be in the Senior League this winter, a spot which many observers felt they should have been in a year ago. It also may have teams in the Intermediate, Junior and Ladies' Leagues.

The Ladies' League looks as if it is going to get a boost with the entry of two new teams to bring the number to four. The girls' league always has suffered from a shortage of teams so the indicated increase would be a welcome one.

To the Peoples Store and High School teams which were in the picture last season, will be added squads from Prince Rupert General Hospital and Miller Bay Hospital. Monday night's meeting will elect an association executive, composed of three representatives from each league. The executive will, in turn, elect officers.

Regular nights of play will be Tuesdays and Saturdays. Financial arrangements with the Civic Centre are expected to be similar to last year. The Civic Centre will collect the gate money from each league game and supply all necessary equipment.

Gate receipts from exhibition games involving out-of-town teams will be put into a special fund from which will be drawn expenses for local teams traveling.

Tentative roster of teams entered in the leagues are:

Juniors—High School, Kinsmen, North Star, Stones.

Intermediate—Morgan's, High School, Fashion Footwear, Merchants.

Ladies—General Hospital, Miller May, Peoples Store, High School.

Senior—Brownwoods, Savoy, High School, Co-op.

Reports to Women's Canadian Club

Importance of Responsible
Citizenship is Stressed

Over 40 members of the Women's Canadian Club gathered in the Ladies' Lounge of the Civic Centre on Wednesday afternoon to hear a splendid report given by Mrs. T. N. Youngs, who was the Prince Rupert delegate to the biennial conference of the Regional Council of Canadian Clubs of British Columbia which was held in Penticton recently.

Prior to the presentation of Mrs. Youngs' report, afternoon tea was served, followed by a short business meeting.

A letter from Dr. Lotta Hirschmanova, director of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada, was read in which she stressed the need for assistance in coping with the terrible problem of vagrant children and depraved youth in Europe. The members were unanimous in their decision to help another child on the Continent this year under the foster-parent scheme and a donation was made by each member to cover the cost.

The executive announced that they hoped to have a guest speaker each month during the coming season and that Lieut. Col. Harwood Steele would speak to the club at an open meeting in the Civic Centre next Wednesday evening. Col.

Steele is coming west under the auspices of the Association of Canadian Clubs and will arrive here on Tuesday night's train, continuing south by boat Thursday night. His topic will be "The Royal Canadian Mounted Police."

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Principal speaker at the regional council session, Mrs. Youngs reported, was Robert Tate of Regina, whose subject was "The Greatest Canadian." Mr. Tate expressed the opinion that the average Canadian citizen was becoming too soft. Canadian democracy had invested sovereign powers and privileges in every individual and with these powers and privileges went responsibility. To what extent were Canadians guarding and protecting their powers and privileges? As a matter of fact, many Canadians did not even go to the trouble to vote.

A most important responsibility, Mr. Tate had said, was to mould, develop and direct public opinion every day, not just at election time. Dictators gained influence from apathy of individual citizens who listened to promises of these dictators. Virtue, prosperity and happiness could not be governmental gifts. Individuals must work for these. Each one must guard against infiltration of noisy exponents of unwanted isms. Why was it necessary to have wars and all the horrors?—because of apathy. It was a vicious doctrine that Canada owes every Canadian a living. "In the name of 95,000 youth who gave their lives I challenge you to guard well the heritage of freedom. Don't be deceived by the glib tongues of agitators. Every individual must earn privileges of Canadian democracy."

Two important resolutions had been passed by the conference. One endorsed an anti-communism resolution passed by the Canadian Legion at its national convention. Another resolved that all clubs should undertake the encouragement of the use of the franchise within their respective communities.

Other business at the conference included matters concerning the internal affairs of the organization. Col. T. W. Brown presented a report on the biennial conference of the Association of Canadian Clubs at St. John, New Brunswick. In the matter of speakers it was felt that they should be personally informed, not just well read, on the subjects which they discussed.

Events in connection with the Penticton conference included a tour of a packing plant and a picnic at the Summerland Experimental Farm.

TERRACE ASKS HIGHWAY WORK—PRODUCE CANNERY IS MOOTED

TERRACE—On the recommendation of George McAdams, highway committee chairman, the Terrace and District Board of Trade at Tuesday night's meeting decided to urge upon the Minister of Public Works in Victoria that three specific projects be given priority next spring as soon as the snow flies. These are:

1. That a strong guard rail be placed at Mile 64 on the Skeena Highway to prevent the possible loss of life at that danger spot.
2. To have the north approach to the Skeena Bridge repaired and the highway straightened at that point.
3. That the road from the bridge to the school be improved and surfaced as this is an arterial highway.

Copies of this letter are being sent to Hon. E. T. Kenney, M.L.A. for Skeena, and District Engineer W. E. Bottomley.

Mr. Kenney advised the board that the $10,000 bridge appropriation for the Kalum Road had been authorized for this purpose and had been re-installed after previously being cancelled.

The Lakelse Avenue drainage problem would be dealt with after the water line had been laid.

In the correspondence, there was a letter seeking the Board's support for a request for a franchise to operate a passenger bus between Prince Rupert and Terrace.

There was also a letter from Edmonton requesting data on the produce of the district, the writer stating his intention of coming here to start a cannery. This letter was left in the hands of Harry King, agriculture committee, and W. H. Spencer, industrial committee, for them to deal with.

Harry King reported that to date, there were only 15 acres of land for the government's land clearing machinery.

The Terrace pamphlet is off the press and ready for distribution and it was stated that 150 of them had been placed on the dinner places at the Juneau banquet.

Each delegate to the convention at Juneau gave a short report and it was decided to send a box of apples to Governor Gruening with a letter of appreciation for the splendid hospitality shown to the visiting delegation.

The Board decided to support the P.T.A. request for a young dentist to come and establish a dental practice in Terrace by sending a supporting letter to the College of Dental Surgeons. In this matter the co-operation of the two local doctors was assured by Dr. F. McGilvray who stated that they would also send letters stressing the necessity of a dentist for this community.

Following the close of the meeting refreshments were supplied by the refreshment committee in charge of H. Koch.

WHEN YOU BUY A WATCH

Keep this in mind—you mustn't expect to get something "high grade" unless you pay a decent price.

By a "decent price" we don't mean that you really must pay a lot of money.

Watches haven't advanced as much as lots of other things.

At least ours haven't—we bought the bulk of our stock quite a while ago.

Railroad watches have actually been selling as low as before the war.

But for a reliable watch it isn't safe to go below $30.00 to $40.00.

If you come here that much will get you a watch good for 15 to 20 years.

If you've been thinking of watches even a little bit, it's time you called on us.

Better Vet Allowances Are Sought

A resolution to make application for the replacement of the existing Veteran's Club Licence by a club licence which would permit the sale of hard liquor and bottled beer only was carried at the regular monthly meeting of the local Canadian Legion Wednesday night. A resolution to enrol a limited number of honorary club members if this application received the necessary approval of the B.C. Provincial Command as well as the Liquor Control Board was also passed.

Legion members turned out in good numbers for the meeting at which many matters concerning the local branch and its program for a busy month in November occupied attention.

Among the many matters discussed were tentative arrangements made for the annual convention of the British Columbia Command to be held in Prince Rupert from May 26 to May 28, 1949. This matter comes up for approval by the full executive council of the Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion in Vancouver today.

In conjunction with the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, a full program is being arranged for "Legion Week" commencing with Poppy Day on November 6 and ending up with a joint social evening on November 12. Committees of both organizations are meeting tonight to make final arrangements. Sunday, October 24, has been set for "United Nations Day" and the Legion agreed to co-operate with the city in any program that might be arranged for this date.

A donation of $25 to the Salvation Army Red Shield Appeal was voted, also the sum of $125 to the Prince Rupert Boy Scouts Association, this money to be used for the purchase of Union Jacks, pack and troop flags and necessary accessories for the Cub packs and Scout troops already organized. The presentation will be made publicly by the Legion at a time and place to be arranged when the flags have been received.

The meeting also approved the purchase of a small bedside radio for the use of veterans in the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

It was announced that the benefit social evening held at the Legion Hall on October 1 showing films periodically during the winter months. Sundry items affecting Club rules were also discussed and passed.

GARDEN 'NOTEBOOK'

FIRST FLOWERS OF SPRING COME FROM SO-CALLED 'MINOR' BULBS

Spring flowering bulbs play a most important part in the "succession of bloom," which can be so planned as to provide flowers in the garden for many months. Bulbs give the earliest garden flowers, and dominate garden displays in early spring. The first flower to open when the ground begins to thaw in spring is the snowdrop or galanthus. Its tiny white flowers are scarcely an inch across with petals spread out, but a clump of twenty-five peeping through the snow is truly beautiful to winter-weary eyes. Plant them in a group, never in a row, placed where they can be seen from a nearby window.

Plant crocuses in a group near window.

Scillas blossom before the violets.

Scillas and chinodoxas, both blue, are next to bloom, much earlier than violets. They really carpet the ground with color, and like our climate and soil! Both will spread from seed dropped each spring, so start your first plantings where there is room to expand. Remember these early flowers come before there are any leaves, and may be planted close to shrubs, or in border spaces where taller neighbors, later in the season, would hide them.

Crocuses bloom before the daffodils; and they should be planted in groups, never in rows, and never in grass which will be mowed. The foliage of all bulbs must be allowed to turn yellow and dry up before the bulbs are lifted. If the leaves are cut off while still green the bulb cannot mature. Crocuses give us blue and yellow flowers which look well together, and may be combined in many pleasing patterns.

The first daffodils come after the crocuses, and then the hyacinths, early tulips and finally the tall, late tulips, which usually blossom two weeks before the irises, and are capable of a color display which cannot be surpassed the remainder of the year.

It is a mistake to plant only daffodils and tulips, and neglect the smaller but earlier flowers. They may not make a spectacular showing to impress garden visitors, but the spiritual uplift which their appearance will bring to you next March or April, will be one of your most satisfying garden experiences.

METHODS OF DISCUSSION ARE STUDIED

Robert Boroughs of the University of British Columbia extension department on Wednesday night opened a series of lectures at the Civic Centre on techniques in conducting group discussions. He spoke on the objectives of such discussions, then continued with a talk on how interest may be maintained. Selecting the subject "Race Prejudice" as a topic for discussion, he showed a brief film which illustrated the difficulties involved in eliminating such prejudice, then opened a discussion period.

Throughout the period that followed, Mr. Boroughs periodically summarized the trend of the discussion and commented on the proper and improper techniques which had been brought forth.

Time did not permit completion of the topic and it was continued at the second session of the course last night.

Organizations represented at the forum included the Parent-Teachers' groups, Book Study Club, Moose Lodge, Registered Nurses' Association and the Junior Chamber of Commerce. About 10 Junior Chamber members attended following their semi-monthly dinner in the Civic Centre dining room.

Toronto . . . physically, a city of toweringly majestic skyscrapers . . . shadowy canyons . . . bustling vehicles, busy streets, and multi-acred parks, squares and beaches. There are nature-rich parks, great educational institutions, and, of course, the internationally famed Canadian National Exhibition. And there is so much more for which there isn't space.
