Celanese Mill Digging Through; Construction Is Due In October

First phase of construction of the $25,000,000 cellulose acetate mill project for Columbia Cellulose Co. at Watson Island has been finished with completion recently of excavation work on the 20-acre millsite facing Port Edward.

B.C. Bridge and Dredging and Macco Ltd., the contracting company, is now shipping its machinery and equipment south after having blasted and bulldozed a two-level terraced area on which will sit the huge timber conversion plant.

Work on the project began last August and during the fall, winter and spring, up to 100 men have labored in two daily shifts to move 500,000 cubic yards of rock from the barren face of the island, pushing it onto the salt water to expand the area.

Meanwhile, Columbia Cellulose Co., a subsidiary of the Celanese Corporation of America, is making final arrangements for plans and specifications and it is expected to have them in the hands of tendering companies within a few weeks.

The letting of a general contract for construction of the mill is expected to take place in the latter part of August.

Currently, the company has about 20 men working on locating tunnels and on final surveys for the pipe lines which will bring millions of gallons of water daily from Pond Lake, nine miles away. This work is being directed by W. R. Bonnycastle, a hydraulic engineer from Montreal.

The company hopes that actual construction of the mill may begin by October. About $5,000,000 has been set aside as immediately available for mill construction and the total investment as planned will exceed $25,000,000.

RESEARCH BOARD DUE NEXT WEEK

Important Research Group Is Coming to City

Six members of the Fisheries Research Board of Canada, accompanied by five other scientists, will visit Prince Rupert next Monday and Tuesday, then leave for the interior to view salmon conservation projects being carried on on the Skeena River watershed.

The party, headed by Dr. G. B. Reed, board chairman, will arrive here on the Princess Adelaide, will meet with the Skeena River Advisory Committee and with representatives of the fishing industry before flying to Lake Lakelse Tuesday evening.

They will be joined here by K. F. Harding, general manager of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative, who is one of the two west coast representatives on the board. Mr. Harding will accompany the party into the interior.

Bernadotte Promises Peacetime Status Quo

CAIRO (CP)—United Nations mediator Count Folke Bernadotte took off for Tel Aviv today to meet Israeli leaders and talk permanent peace plans for Palestine. The first week of the 28-day armistice has now ended with the country fairly quiet.

A letter which Bernadotte wrote to Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Pasha has been made public. It promises that the military situation in the Holy Land will be restored to peacetime status quo.

The Arabs have promised to send four experts Monday to headquarters at Rhodes.

In Tel Aviv Bernadotte intends to ask the Israeli authorities if they plan to send consultants also.

B. C. Vote For Japs

Will be Accorded Next Election, it is Clear

VANCOUVER, (CP)—The Vancouver News-Herald, in a dispatch from Victoria, said today that Canadians of Japanese origin will be given the franchise in British Columbia at the 1949 session of the Legislature and for the first time will be allowed to vote in a provincial election 18 months hence.

This, the newspaper said, became clear in provincial circles after the authorities studied the new Dominion Elections Act which gave the federal vote to even those persons denied the provincial vote.

ALL EVEN IN GOLD BENEFIT

VANCOUVER, (CP)—The only winner was the British Columbia Flood Emergency Fund, to the tune of about $2,000, when Stan Leonard and Fred Wood, Vancouver professionals, met Chuck Congdon of Tacoma and Ed (Porky) Oliver here Wednesday.

Leonard squared the match on the sixteenth with a 20-foot putt in fog. They halved the last two holes. Oliver posted two under par of 70; Leonard, 71; Wood 72, and Congdon 73.

REJECTION IS NOT SURPRISE

LONDON, (CP)—A spokesman for the Russian embassy here, informing Great Britain that Russia cannot accept the six-power London agreement for a separate government in western Germany, said that the Russian ambassador, George Zarubin, had told Sir William Strang, chairman of the six-power conference, on June 7 that the Soviet regarded the agreement as a violation of the Potsdam pact.

EVACUEES MOVE BACK TO HOMES

Even Though Unauthorized Fraser Flood Waters Still Receding

VANCOUVER, (CP)—In spite of the danger of disease and the warning of the health authorities that they should not return to their evacuated homes until thorough inspection has been made and approval of living conditions given, some Fraser Valley evacuees are already returning to their homes while others impatiently await the green light before doing so.

The gauge at Mission dropped to the 22.9 foot level yesterday, the lowest since May 28. Eighteen feet is considered the safety level.

Yesterday a special session of the British Columbia Legislature was called to vote relief funds to speed the rehabilitation plans for homeless families and destitute victims of receding floods. The session will open July 7.

First passenger train to move into Vancouver since the start of the floods arrived last night. It was a 16-car train with 200 passengers which crossed over a hurriedly-erected wooden trestle at Hatzi. Later a train moved out for the east.

FISHING BOAT IS UNDAMAGED

Capt. Ole Skog's 55-foot beam trawler, which went aground on Grindstone Reef at the harbor entrance to Metlakatla Passage shortly before noon Wednesday in fog, was refloated on the high tide at 10:30 last night. Found to be undamaged, she continued on her way to the Hecate Strait fishing grounds.

Four Alaska Ports Accord Royal Welcome to New Prince George

Re-inaugurating the company's service into Skagway after a lapse of almost 10 years, the palatial new flagship of Canadian National Steamships Pacific Coast fleet, the steamer Prince George, Capt. Ernest Caldwell, received a warm and enthusiastic reception at four Panhandle ports — Ketchikan, Wrangell, Juneau and Skagway.

The vessel was back in port from 7:30 to midnight last evening after her maiden voyage, with the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce party on board.

The passengers were ecstatic in their exuberance over the beauties of the trip and the excellence of the fine new ship. Capt. Caldwell and his officers and crew members were well satisfied with the manner in which the vessel functioned.

Considering that, after all, it was something in the nature of a "shakedown" cruise, so hurriedly had the vessel been pressed into service, there were no complaints.

At Wrangell and Skagway, the Prince George and her passengers ran into full-fledged celebrations of the Golden Jubilee of the "Gold Rush" and re-enactment of the days of '98 emphasizing the scenic and historic glamor of the cruise. There were also other notable highlights. A crowning blessing of the voyage was the superb weather prevailing throughout its duration.

RESERVE IS HOLDING ON

But There Are Still Insufficient U.S. Dollars

WINNIPEG (CP)—Canada, apparently, has stopped the "uninterrupted drain on her reserves of United States dollars which took place throughout 1947 and is a little more than holding her own in 1948," Graham Towers, Governor of the Bank of Canada, said here today. However, the present reserve of $500,000,000 which might have been adequate when Canada's international trade was at its pre-war level, is now insufficient to meet the vastly accelerated pace of business and higher prices, he said.

Embargo On Freight Off

WINNIPEG (CP)—Canadian National Railways today announced the lifting of the embargo on movement of freight to Vancouver and Prince Rupert.

The only restriction placed on the traffic is that it will be moved subject to delay because of concentration of track forces and equipment on the sections of line affected by spring floods on the coast.

WILL FIGHT TO LAST MAN

Gas Masks Are Answer to Threat of Great Lakes Shipping Companies

CORNWALL, Ont. (CP)—Twenty-four gas masks was the Union's answer to tear gas threats by Canada Shipping Lines, Michael Jackson, Canadian Seamen's Union Great Lakes director, said last night.

Jackson said that the Canadian Seamen's Union had 12,000 members who were determined to "carry on a fight to the last man" in the dispute with five Great Lakes shipping companies.

French Government Honors Canadians

MONTREAL—During the recent visit of the French training cruiser Jeanne d'Arc here, three officers of the Canadian armed services were decorated by the French government, the ceremony taking place on board the cruiser. Those so honored were Air Marshal H. Edwards, Cmdr. H. R. Rayner R.C.N., and Wine Cmdr. Georges A. Roy R.C.A.F.

INDIANS ARE DENIED VOTE

OTTAWA, (CP)—The House of Commons voted against extending the franchise to the Indians residing on reservations. By a vote of 58 to 39, the Chamber rejected a motion of Don Brown (Liberal - Essex West) which would have extended the vote to the Indians. The motion was in the form of an amendment to the Elections Act.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
The weather situation generally throughout British Columbia shows no sign of any significant change today. Light rain will persist over the southern section of the province with warm sunny weather over the northern section. Gradually improving conditions are expected over the southern portion of the province tomorrow.

Forecast
Queen Charlottes and North Coast—Southern section overcast today with intermittent light rain. Overcast Friday. Wind northwest 15 m.p.h. today, light Friday. Little change in temperature.

A Grave Situation

GRAVE DANGER can be certainly seen if a Great Lakes steamship company should be permitted to arm its officers against the possibility of trouble arising out of the seamen's jurisdictional dispute.

BENEFITS ENFORCED

THE COMMUNISTS moved into power in Czechoslovakia, so that the people might enjoy the benefits that, supposedly, only communism provides.

PURCHASING POWER

THE BIGGEST ARGUMENT today is that of the purchasing power of the people. No one really worries very much over a rise in prices, provided it does not put the goods which people want to buy above the price at which they can buy them.

On the other hand, those who are earning and whose income can rise, as a result of increased wages, a better price for farm products or the like, are not damaged by a price rise, if their incomes go up at the same time.

The point is that there has not been a sign as yet in this country of a surplus of production, or an accumulation of goods which the people could not buy, so that evidently purchasing power has risen as fast as prices have gone up.

That should bring home the lesson that purchasing power is not of much use if there is nothing to purchase. This is a lesson which seems to be badly needed by those who seem to think that all that is necessary is to raise everyone's income.

In fact, purchasing power, for the first time in Canadian history, is now being limited by the supply of goods to purchase. It is as though it were suggested that someone could cut more wood if he had a sharper saw.

The Experts Say

By KAY REK Canadian Press Staff Writer

BARGAINS IN MEAT—Believe it or not, the housewife still can find bargains in meat—if she has trained her family not to demand steaks and chops as a daily dinner dish.

Home economists suggest tongue as a real bargain. Calf, lamb or beef tongue are equally good.

Cold jellied tongue is a delicacy often seen on the cold meat counter at the butcher's. But it can be prepared easily and inexpensively—at home.

CALVES TONGUES—Ingredients: Four cups water; one-half teaspoon dried celery leaves or celery salt; one sliced onion; two carrots; one bay leaf; six to eight peppercorns; 1 1/2 teaspoons flour; two teaspoons cold water; salt and pepper; one teaspoon grated horseradish.

Boil the water, celery leaves, onion, carrots, bay leaf, peppercorns, salt and vinegar, for three minutes. Lower temperature to simmering and add calves tongues. Continue to simmer until tongues are tender (about 1 1/2 hours); remove the skin. Drain stock and thicken with flour, which has been mixed to a smooth paste in cold water. Add salt and pepper to taste, and grated horseradish. Yield: six servings.

LEFTOVERS—There are many ways of serving up those meat leftovers so the family will think they're getting something different.

Meat casserole—Ingredients: One cup leftover gravy; two cups cubed, cooked meat; one-third...

cup tomato catsup; three medium onions; salt and pepper.

Fry onions and then add gravy, catsup, and meat. Put in casserole and bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

A baking powder biscuit dough may be placed over this before baking.

SPECIAL HAMBURG—Ingredients: One pound ground steak, one medium-sized onion, salt and pepper. One cup water, celery salt to taste, one tomato soup. Brown meat, onion, salt and pepper. Add water and celery salt and simmer for a few minutes. Add soup, simmer five minutes, and serve hot.

HURRY-UP DINNER—Line a greased baking dish with alternate layers of sliced potatoes, onions, hamburger, carrots and rice. Season and pour a can of tomatoes over all. Bake in a moderate oven.

tangible form in the form of a presentation to Mr. Bayer for the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce of a six-foot raven totem. Hundreds of Ketchikan people lined the hillsides and docks to see the Prince George steam in and on hand to extend official greetings were Mayor Robert Ellis, Jack Mendenhall, president of the Chamber of Commerce; R. M. Hardcastle, Canadian National Railways agent, and Mrs. Amelia Gundersen, prominent woman politician. Ketchikan had already sent a magnificent basket of flowers to the ship's master.

There was a nostalgic note to at least some of the officers and crew of the new Prince George as they passed by the remains of the old Prince George lying on a nearby island after having been destroyed by fire three years ago this September.

There was but little time in Ketchikan on the evening of the visit of the Prince George with the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. Earlier there had been an afternoon concert staged by the Glee Club of the University of Washington. The same day the annual Shrine picnic of Ketchikan, was held and another event was the opening of the Ketchikan Girl Scout camp.

ALASKA CAPITAL ACCORDS WELCOME

Juneau, beautiful capital city of Alaska, was visited on a bright Sunday evening. Representatives of the Junior Chamber of Commerce had gone out in a flag-decked yacht to meet and escort the new ship up Gastineau Channel to her dock. Also at the dock at Juneau were the Alaska Transportation Co.'s newly converted liner George Washington and the Alaska Steamship Co.'s Baranof. Mayor Waino Henricksen and other prominent Juneau personages led in the official welcome to the Prince George and her party. The passengers toured the city and were taken in a bus trip to Mendenhall Glacier which was viewed under the midnight sun. Before arriving at Juneau, there was a half-hour stop off Taku Glacier. At Prince Rupert last night the Prince George's passengers had another pleasant four hours while local citizens were again accorded the privilege of inspecting the ship. E. T. Applewhite, secretary of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, was on hand to extend official honors. The president of the local Chamber, Dr. R. G. Large, took passage to Vancouver on the George. Today the Prince George is en route to the Skeena and Douglas fjords with their overhanging mountain precipices and tomorrow morning the vessel will be back for another three-day visit to Ocean Falls and in the afternoon will be in the harbor of the Pacific Mill. The Prince George will be here again on Monday morning northbound.

GARDEN NOTEBOOK

Better Varieties Now
The business of improving fruits and vegetables does not still. There are strains and varieties today that were not in vogue before the war and this year there are some brand-new something new each season. It is a sound rule in this way variety and interest will be added to the garden both in vegetables and flowers. Even the old standbys, like French type peas, to mention only two, have been vastly improved. Plant breeders are constantly striving for new, more disease resistance and earlier plants among them; more tender and earlier-growing vegetables.

Short Cuts—The experienced gardener knows many short cuts to hurry growth along. In dry weather he will, if at all possible, soak the garden once a week, where no hose is available he will have things like lettuce, tomatoes and beans close to the house or pump so that they can be watered with the minimum of inconvenience. He also knows that weeds are moisture-robbing and these he will keep removed so that the vegetables wanted get all the moisture that nature provides. A weekly cultivation equals a shower because it tends to conserve moisture and a small dose of commercial fertilizer is equivalent to another.

For a Dazzling Show—A really dazzling show of bloom can be made with a few annual flowers sown or planted even at this late date, and it won't mean much work. Cosmos, giant marigolds, zinnias, petunias, portulaca, nicotine, alyssum, asters, stocks, spider plants are all easily grown almost anywhere in Canada. Some of the larger flowers like cosmos, marigolds and nicotine can actually be used in place of shrubs. At this date, of course, one should use started plants which will bloom in a few weeks. These can be secured from any greenhouse. Preference should be given to well branched plants of good deep color. For husky growth the bigger types like gladiolus, dahlias, giant marigolds and zinnias should have about two feet each way. Petunias, nasturtiums, medium marigolds need about a foot or two apart for best results—smaller things like alyssum require six inches each way.

STEWART—This Sunday saw the opening of the softball season between Premier and Stewart with Stewart winning 17 to 6. Both teams evidenced a sad lack of practice and although Stewart won by a large margin, this does not imply a correct picture of the difference between the teams.

STEWART—Meneghello 2B; Newell CF; Crozier 3B; Lawrence C; Kaahli P; Bouzek SS; Hansen 1B; Roy Hansen RF; Rothnie LF.

PREMIER—Aigar 2B; Hillis CF; Corey 3B; Teed C; Crowe P; Kerns SS; John 1B; Wallace RF; Crook LF; Louis CF.

In the first innings Premier went scoreless but got two hits. Stewart made four runs off six hits. In the second Premier got one run off three hits and Stewart two runs off three hits. In the third Premier obtained two runs off four hits and Stewart got six runs off seven hits. In the fourth Premier made two runs off three hits and Stewart one run off three hits. In the fifth Premier got one hit but were held scoreless, Stewart getting two runs off four hits. In the sixth Premier got one run off four hits, Stewart two runs off three hits. Premier one hit in the seventh no runs.

GASEOUS MIXTURE
Air is a mixture of gases, and not a chemical compound.

DEADLOCK IN WAGE DISPUTE

At a meeting of the local Beverage Dispensers' Union the chief topic of discussion was the signing of new agreements with the local hotel operators. A report from the bargaining committee said that no headway was made after having met representatives of the Hotelmen's Association and they are now deadlocked over the wage clause. By an unanimous vote, a motion to refer the dispute to the Labor Department was carried.

Considerable discussion took place regarding the flood conditions throughout the province and it was decided by the membership to vote $50 as their contribution to the British Columbia Flood Relief Campaign.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I prevent holes and runs in baby's stockings caused by fastening the diaper safety pins?

A. This can be prevented if a loop of wide tape is sewed to the top of each stocking. The safety pin can be run through the loop when pinning the stocking to the diaper. This will add months of wear to the stockings.

Q. How can I avoid the ticking of a watch or clock on the bed-

MEXICAN EXHIBIT SHOWS WORK OF CANADIAN—The Mexican-North American Cultural Institute has announced that an exhibition of paintings, of unusual interest, has opened at the Institute's headquarters at Yucatan 63, with the joint showing of recent work by Raymond Brossard, American, and Leonard Brooks, Canadian. The two young artists had eventful careers during World War II, painting on fronts stretching around the world with the American and British forces. For the past year both have been working at San Miguel de Allende, and the forthcoming show has accordingly been arranged with the help of the American and Canadian embassies. Brooks, shown here at work on a Mexican flower painting, was born in England but was taken to Canada by his family a year later, and received his art training in Canada, England, France and Spain. He has held shows in Canada, New York, Barcelona and London, and by the time the war began he had achieved the reputation of being one of Canada's leading younger artists. Deriving tremendous new impetus from the new scenes and subjects he is painting in Mexico, Brooks declares that "for a painter from Canada, where love of landscape is inevitable, Mexico reveals herself in marvelous new forms and colors, growth, most inspiring to workers in the creative arts. The exhibits will be open to the public for two weeks.

Reminiscences and Reflections

By W.J.

Things are looking up! Prince Rupert, with illustrations, recently appeared in Saturday Evening Post. The Post circulates by the million. Something concerning Prince Rupert was mentioned in Washington not so long ago. There will soon be new publicity booklets. Whenever a new $25,000,000 industry starts in or near a city big or little, that city automatically goes on the map. It's Rupert's turn. So far, this summer, the record places more sunshine in Rupert than in Vancouver. This month, the movies took over, and in hundreds of theatres, audiences gazed at the latest scenes of that interesting town up north. Dollars to doughnuts, it started some of them thinking.

Fresh strawberries from the Fraser Valley, and crimson enough for the cream and sugar. That's better!

Osborne Scott, general passenger agent of the Canadian National Railway, left on Monday night on an inspection trip to Prince Rupert and other northern joints.—Vancouver Province (Cantor compels the admission that Prince Rupert is a new and possibly unconventional community, but the above is surely a bit thick'). This is from the Evening Empire of April 1, 1922).

With Salt Lake plunges, across the harbor, intriguing popular fancy to a greater degree, one might indulge the notion that the practice of erecting summer cottages along the wooded shores would be revived. But not while doors are forced, windows smashed, property stolen, and an unholy mess made of a place. That is something else again.

Years ago in Prince Rupert, one of the leading diversions of the pioneer population was to "go down to see the train come in." There was a bit of a stir. It would whistle and hiss and rumble and didn't cost a cent. Besides, there was always the off chance at guessing at a passenger's identity. Stirring times will come again about the end of the month. We'll all be there, by gosh!

The Minister of Finance, in his budget speech, said the wars had left Canada with a heritage of

LUMBERING LANGUISHING

Maritime Operators Losing Through Lack of Initiative

By WYN RHYDWEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

AMHERST, N. S. (C)—Potentially the Maritimes' greatest industry, lumbering is barely holding on to fourth place because of the disinterested attitude of producers toward grading, says John T. Bigelow, secretary-manager of the Maritime Lumber Bureau.

This year alone the more than 400 operators in Nova Scotia and about 800 in New Brunswick stand to lose several million dollars because of their lack of initiative—and despite the stimulus of terrific demand and highest prices in history.

For several years the bureau—with the assistance of the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick governments—has been attempting to improve the situation. But if has had only fair success because the majority of the producers, operating mostly on a small scale, has shown little enthusiasm for grading.

Last year 500,000,000 board feet of lumber were cut in Nova Scotia alone and more than half of it went, ungraded, to the United Kingdom. The producers received $78 per 1,000 board feet. Meanwhile, Swedish operators, cutting the same lumber, were collecting about $98 per 1,000.

Lumbering has been carried on commercially in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick since the Napoleonic wars, and while the methods of cutting have improved, the system of marketing has failed to keep pace. As square cut timber gave way to sawn lumber shortly before Confederation, mills began to spring up throughout the two provinces. Then, because operators were forced to go farther and farther back to cut their logs, portable mills began to make their appearance about the turn of the century.

However, not a large mill exists in Nova Scotia today while the portable mills—mostly diesel-powered—have grown to 400. At one time they reached a peak of 600.

As the method of cutting improved, so did prices. But since the methods of marketing did not improve, the producers failed to reap—and still fail to reap—bigger profits.

For the June Bride with brand new home-making plans... the news in home-making fabrics—by-the-yard is NYLON! Lucky, lucky 1948 Brides!... modern chemistry has done so much to bring new beauty into a woman's home... new conveniences of all kinds! And nylon is a nation-wide favourite! Buy certain fabrics of sheerest, sunniest, extra-coloured nylon-by-the-yard... then make curtains as-you-like them at home. You'll find them so easy to wash, so quick-drying... and they don't shrink! What's more, they need no ironing at all and they wear and wear! And gorgeous nylon fabrics by the yard make slip covers and wardrobes of practical beauty—for nylon's beauty is its lasting beauty! When you're buying, remember that nylon fabrics of finest quality are made of C-I-L nylon yarn!

Wonderfully, Deliciously True... that when you use Certo you get fifty percent more jam or jelly from the same amount of fruit. Here's why: Certo is fruit pectin—the natural jelling substance of fruits—in concentrated form. When you use CERTO, instead of boiling down your mixture until it is sufficiently concentrated to set, you add the pure fruit pectin, and reduce boiling time to just one or two minutes for jams—a half minute for jellies. Think how that preserves color and flavor! And you can't have a failure, if you follow exactly instructions in the recipe booklet tucked under the label of each Certo bottle.

There's a Young Boy in Your Home... here's something to keep in mind on your next shopping trip! Energine Cleaning Fluid removes grease stains—sandwich-butter—bicycle-grease—from furniture and clothes... like magic! No need to worry about a small boy's untidiness when Energine is handy to clean up the mess! Energine is truly marvelous for keeping fabrics of all kinds—hats—dresses—rugs—looking like new. So easy to use, it's completely safe—yet gentle and safe. Simply follow the directions for use and no ill-effects are possible! You'll find ENERGINE at your drug or department store. Ask for it to-morrow!

There's a Cup of Coffee that spells f-l-a-v-o-u-r from the first sip! I mean CHASE & SANBORN COFFEE, of course... and I'm sure, once you've tasted it, you'll agree that Chase and Sanborn is REAL coffee. Its zesty, full-bodied flavour fairly "sings"... it's a wonderful "pick-me-up" at any time of the day—a particularly "cherry note" at breakfast! Next time you buy your coffee... buy it for REAL flavour. Let your good taste be your guide... it will lead you straight to that famous Chase & Sanborn sign at your grocer's!

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Moose Men Join with Ladies in Gathering

Many members and friends were present at the Moose Temple last evening to witness the impressive initiation and installation ceremonies of the Prince Rupert ladies Moose Chapter.

The following officers were installed by Associate Dean Kasper, assisted by Mrs. Bellamy and Mrs. Murray:

Senior Regent, Mrs. T. Glenn. Graduate Regent, Mrs. P. Junior Regent, Mrs. F. Parlette.
Chaplain, Mrs. J. Morrison. Recorder, Mrs. R. Armstrong. Treasurer, Mrs. J. Irvine. Guide, Mrs. C. McIntyre. Assistant Guide, Mrs. H. Muncey.
Sentinel, Miss D. McEwen. Argus, Mrs. A. Jefferies. Pianist, Mrs. J. Carr.

An interesting co-incident was the winning of $5 from the lucky box by M. Veirick, mother of the newly installed regent.

Immediately following the closing of the chapter several men and women took part in the "New Look" costume contest. The first prize was awarded to P. Bond and Mrs. J. Knowles and second prize went to F. Parlette and Mrs. C. McIntyre. Refreshments were served by the membership committee and the retiring officers following

PRINCESS ELIZABETH VISITS COVENTRY—Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth visited Coventry, England, recently and opened a new city centre. The mayor of Coventry, Councillor W. H. Malcolm, made several presentations to the Princess. Here Her Royal Highness inspects a guard of honor of the A.T.S. during her visit.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

PRESERVING FRESH FLAVOR OF SUMMER FRUITS IS PROBLEM

Whenever home-makers meet during the summer months the conversation is sure to get around to food preservation with exchange of ideas and often heated arguments on canning, freezing and jam making. Such discussion brings up views on the advantages of one method over another... whether to use tin cans or glass sealers for canning and whether to try the newer method of freezing.

In many communities there are excellent facilities for freezing in locker plants. Some people have installed units in their own homes. This modern method is fast gaining popularity. It does keep freshness and flavor of most fruits and vegetables as no other method can.

Canning is, however, still the most common method of keeping perishable summer fruits and vegetables for winter use. Here are some helpful pointers:

SCHEDULE FOR LAWN BOWLING

With regular league play getting under way in the Canadian National Recreational Association Lawn Bowling League tonight, the schedule for the season is announced as follows:

June 15—Arroll vs. MacPhee; Ross vs. Paul; Frew vs. MacDonald.
June 17—McMeekin vs. McGreish; Arroll vs. Paul; MacPhee vs. Ross.
June 22—Frew vs. McMeekin; Macdonald vs. McGreish; Arroll vs. Ross.
June 24—McPhee vs. Paul; Ross vs. Frew; Arroll vs. McGreish.

MAKE—Estimate the amount of syrup required for fruit to be canned. Make syrup before preparing fruit by adding water to sugar and bringing to boil. Skim if necessary and keep hot.

When canning fruit by the Cold Pack method, for each sealer allow: 3/4 to 1 cup syrup for such fruits as blueberries and Saskatoons.

1 to 1 1/2 to 2 cups syrup for such fruits as apricots, plums, pears and rhubarb.

When canning fruit by the Hot Pack Method, use the minimum of syrup suggested for Syrups To Use: Syrups of varying sweetness are used, depending upon the fruit to be canned.

Very Thin: 1 cup to 3 cups water... makes about 3 1/2 cups of syrup.
Thin: 1 cup sugar to 2 cups of water... makes about 2 1/2 cups syrup.

Moderately Thin: 1 cup sugar to 1 1/2 cups water... makes about 2 cups syrup.
Medium: 1 cup sugar to 1 cup water... makes about 1 1/2 cups syrup.

TERRACE BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

TERRACE—Mrs. C. W. Alger entertained at her home in honor of Miss Dorothy Cole whose marriage to Greg Siebert will take place this evening. As the guests entered the home they signed their names in a "Book of Remembrance" which was later presented to the bride-to-be. Her chair was decorated with white satin bows and, in an apt little poem, she was given the clues to the hiding place of a treasure of lovely gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. M. Alger. Among those present were Mrs. Fred Thomas, Mrs. Dover, Mrs. Steffanson, Mrs. A. Best, Mrs. McClelland, Mrs. D. Dubeau, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. McGinnis, Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mrs. R. Glanzer, Mrs. C. W. Alger, Mrs. M. Alger and Dorothy Cole.

TERRACE FAMILY REUNION LATER

TERRACE—The first white family to settle in the district were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frank and their four young children who arrived by river boat from Prince Rupert at the small settlement of Kitsumgallum on May 27, forty years ago. In the following years three more children were born here at the old farm on the banks of the Skeena.

The years have gone by, the family has grown up and scattered. Mr. and Mrs. Frank no longer work the farm. They live in town and the two oldest sons, Ivan and Floyd, operate it. Another son, Jack, has a sawmill at 7-Mile on the Lakelse road, while their oldest daughter, Ella, who is Mrs. T. E. Brooks, remained in Terrace. Three other daughters married and left the town.

This year a grand re-union was arranged but, due to flood conditions, could not be carried out. Mrs. Watt (Belle Frank) arrived here by plane from Calgary and Mrs. Woods (Mildred Frank) came by plane from Vancouver, but Mrs. Tallon (Dorothy Frank) of Endako could not get here in time so the re-union has had to be postponed.

SHORTHAND WRITERS ARE BECOMING SCARCE
MELBOURNE, Australia, 9.—A scarcity of shorthand writers is one of the main factors causing congestion in the courts here. "We're a dying race, and there's no substitute for shorthand in court work," said one of the official reports.

No boats being in with catches, there was no sale of halibut on the local Fish Exchange today.

Whaling off the British Columbia coast continues active. Three ships employed off Coal Harbor, on a single Sunday, killed no less than six, bringing to a total of 22 the season's bag to date. The actual catch of the six was near Cape Cook. Coal Harbor is the whaling fleet's business base.

FRED GODWIN PASSES AWAY

Frederick Godwin, a 71-year-old pensioner and a resident of Prince Rupert for the last 20 years, died last night in hospital where he had been a patient periodically since last November, entering for the final time on May 9.

Born at Liverpool, England in 1877, Mr. Godwin served in the British Navy from 1895 until 1904. During his residence in Prince Rupert he served for a time as caretaker for the Yacht and Rowing Club. He also lived briefly at Queen Charlotte City.

Mr. Godwin was pre-deceased by his wife in 1912. A daughter, Mrs. Lydia McNeen, lives in Liverpool.

Interesting Old Pictures Given

Interesting mementoes of the very earliest days of the port of Prince Rupert were presented to Capt. Ernest Caldwell, master of the steamer Prince George, during the maiden voyage call of the new Canadian National coastal liner at her home port here. They took the form of a series of photographs of the site of the present Canadian National dock before it was occupied, the driving of the first pile at the port, the first old wharf and pioneer buildings including the original post offices. Among some of the personalities to be seen in the pictures are Canon W. F. Rushbrook, J. H. Pillsbury and Mrs. R. L. McIntosh. It was Mrs. McIntosh who made the presentation.

SCHOOLS OUT FOR 14 YEAR OLD MOTHER—Fourteen-year-old Mrs. Patricia Wood of Los Angeles, Calif., retired temporarily from the ninth grade to handle a much more important assignment, a brand new baby daughter, Pamela Jane. With her 18-year-old husband, Ralph, Jr., Mrs. Wood gazes proudly on the new addition to the family. The young couple were secretly wed in Yuma, Arizona, last July.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTIA L.F.E.

Q. Does a well-bred person ever attempt to entertain a group of persons by relating the experiences of his recent illness or operation?

A. Never. Even if questioned, he will reply in as few words as possible and then change the subject.

Q. When a professional entertainer attends some social function, is it all right to ask him to perform?

A. Not unless it has been previously arranged. Otherwise, it is very presumptuous to ask him.

Q. When should the evening musicale begin?

A. Ten o'clock; but many hostesses prefer to begin earlier, at about nine P.M.

Q. What kind of dress should a woman wear to an informal dinner?

A. Any pretty dress may be worn, with special attention to the coiffure.

COINED WORD

The word "gas" was invented by J. B. van Helmont to describe the gas now known as carbon dioxide.

BIRTHDAY OF L.O.B.A. HERE

Twenty-sixth birthday of the local lodge of the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association was celebrated with a memorable banquet last evening in the Broadway Cafe. Forty members attended and voted the affair a complete and highly enjoyable success.

Tables were attractively decorated with peonies, carnations and iris and central position was given to a handsome birthday cake which was cut by two honorary members, Mrs. Henry Smith sr. and S. V. Cox.

Mrs. J. Johansen, worthy mistress, presided. Community singing was enjoyed with Mrs. J. R. Carr presiding at the piano. Court whist was played, the winners being Mrs. Alex Guyan, Mrs. J. Stewart and Mrs. A. J. Croxford.

Convener for the affair was Mrs. W. H. Hill assisted by Mrs. A. J. Croxford and Mrs. M. Hausser.

KIDDIES' KAMP OPEN IN JULY

There is no evidence of water damage to the Kinsmen's Kiddies Kamp at Lakelse Lake according to word received from Leonard Casey who served as supervisor last year.

In a report to members of the Kinsmen's Club last night, George Dibb said Mr. Casey will again hold the position of camp supervisor and Mrs. Casey will be employed as camp cook. Arrangements have also been made to hire a man to do chores about the establishment.

President R. G. Moore reported that Miss Ellen Kinnaird of the social welfare branch had agreed to act as supervisor of the girls when their camp is in session.

The first camp is expected to get under way before July 15. This will be a 10-day outing for the boys and will be followed by a similar outing for girls.
