People of West Germany Fearful of Red Invasion

Accepting American and British Occupation
As Lesser of Two Evils—Impressions of Terrace Man on Return

There is a constant air of tension and uneasiness in Western Germany and everyone seems to think it will only be a matter of time before the Russians march in. The consensus is that they would do so if ever the western occupation authorities moved out.

The Germans do not like western occupation but they are fearful of what would happen if American's and British ever withdrew. Therefore, the situation is a lesser of two evils.

It was Mr. Koch's first visit back to Germany since he left there twenty-three years ago to make his home in Canada. His brother, the building contractor, now in Bad-Harzburg, was in the German Army for three years and took part in the retreat from Stalingrad. He was discharged soon after the war ended and, not having been a Nazi, was able to start up in business again. The most of Nazis were thrown into concentration camps after the Allied occupation camp. A cousin of Mr. Koch's, a woman, operates a sawmill with eighty employees.

Round about farming, lumbering, mining are pursued but it is not primarily an industrial area.

As a matter of fact, Bad-Harzburg is only two miles from the border of the Russian-occupied zone of Germany and what goes on in the Soviet dominated sphere is well known. "The Russians rule absolutely through fear," Mr. Koch said yesterday in an interview with the Daily News. "Everyone must do exactly what he is told or rue the consequence. There is no talking back. Anyone who talks against the government just disappears—where to one does not know. There is a ruthless police force. The Russian officers are bad enough but actually the German 'quilling' police who go over to them are worse."

Would Never Go Back

Mr. Koch spent only twenty-eight days in Germany but it was a relief to get out, he says. "One always feels that something is going to happen, fears what the next day is going to bring forth. 'I'll never go back to Germany, you couldn't drag me back,' he declares.

In spite of alarms and restrictions, however, the people stay on in hope of better days to come. Mr. Koch's mother, for instance, would never leave. "As for the other people, their interests are there. They could never sell out and take their money with them and move to a new country. The only way to get out of Germany today is to sacrifice everything.

There is no rationing in Western Germany, Mr. Koch says. "You can buy anything if you have the money at prices about the same as here." Only American money is accepted, however. Like in the other European countries today, they just do not take such money as British or Canadian.

Unemployment is a serious problem but that can be understood when it is explained that three-quarters of the population of all Germany is now on half the land in Western Germany. Germans do not stay in the Russian-occupied zones if they can escape to Western Germany which is, therefore, full of refugees.

Housing is extremely scarce. No one is allowed more than one room to live in—that is a single person or a man and wife—and that includes the owners of their own homes. Such owners are required to share their dwellings and their only advantage is that they can have the pick of the room. At that, it is really a liability to own property since taxes are so high, actually exceeding any possible revenue. "There is no such thing as living off one's property in Germany," says Mr. Koch. "That does not mean that construction of housing projects is not going on but it is government sponsored.

Mr. Koch took occasion to visit the city of Brunswick which was badly bombed during the latter days of the war. Blocks and blocks of the city were utterly devastated and, after five years, there has been still no start made on even cleaning up the rubble, much less rebuilding. The streets, of course, have been cleared. It is estimated that it will take at least seven years to clear up the devastation. While the buildings of Brunswick were to a large extent of frame construction, it is noticeable that there is no wood left whatever in the rubble. It had evidently been picked out for use as fuel.

Mr. and Mrs. Koch left January 4 and travelled to Vancouver whence they flew to New York and embarked on the Queen Mary for Cherbourg. They had four days in Paris, where life is gay with champagne at $12 a bottle and girls dance nude in the choruses. On the way back, they visited more chaste and sober London. They arrived on the Prince Rupert yesterday from Vancouver and continued on to Terrace on last night's train.

Chinese Not For Communism

OTTAWA—"It is extremely doubtful if the Chinese people generally will accept Communism. They are fundamentally democratic at heart, and while it is unwise to make predictions, it is my opinion that the Chinese will find their own way to a democratic way of life ultimately."

So spoke Rev. Dr. George M. Ross, after forty years experience as a missionary in North Honan, China, speaking at a missionary supper in St. Mark's United Church here.

Russia Lifts Her Boycott

TOKYO—Russia yesterday ended her six-week boycott of the Allied Council for Japan. Lt.-Gen. Kuzma Derevyanko and his Soviet delegation came back after removal from the agenda of questions concerning Russia's failure to complete repatriation of Japanese war prisoners.

The Russians walked out of a council meeting Dec. 21 rather than discuss Gen. MacArthur's charge that more than 370,000 Japanese taken prisoner by the Russians at the end of the war have not been returned. This was followed by Russian walkouts from two other meetings.

CHALLENGE TO RUSSIA
SAN FRANCISCO—Speaking before a University of California gathering today, Secretary of State Dean Acheson issued a new challenge to Russia to demonstrate her desire for peace by subscribing to a 7-point program to end tension and anxiety by discontinuing its aggressive diplomacy. If mutual security could not be obtained, United States would have to resist aggression where it finds it, Acheson declared. United States was ready to "discuss, negotiate and agree" but was loath to play the part of "international sucker."

MONTREAL—Maurice Hartt, Liberal Member of Parliament for Montreal East, died at his home here last night. He was 54 years of age.

SYDNEY MAYOR GUILTY
SYDNEY, Nova Scotia—A Supreme Court jury today found former Mayor Dan Jack MacLean innocent of murder but guilty of manslaughter in the death of Joseph MacKinnon, crippled 68-year old registrar of voters. He will be sentenced Saturday. Earlier Chief Justice J. L. Hislop had told a jury that there was no evidence of murderous intent. MacLean was charged with slaying MacKinnon by running him down with a car.

CHARGE WITHDRAWN
QUEBEC—Charges of attempted suicide against Mrs. Arthur Pitre, one of the key figures in Quebec's air disaster murder case, was withdrawn today. Mrs. Pitre, 41, was a crown witness in the murder trial of J. Albert Guay who has been sentenced to be hanged for murder. She delivered to a Quebec airport a parcel which Guay had given her and which police said contained the time bomb which destroyed the plane.

ANTI-DUMP APPLIED
OTTAWA—Canada has applied her rarely used anti-dumping laws to prevent a flood of cheap Japanese goods from entering the Canadian market at "ridiculously low prices." A government official said today that the laws had been applied against Japanese knitted goods, men's shirts, children's dresses and cigarette lighters.

Government Is Sustained

OTTAWA, C.—By a vote of 155 to 55, the House of Commons yesterday defeated a C.C.F. motion of non-confidence in the government and brought towards its close a name-calling, hop-skip-and-jump debate on the speech from the Throne.

An angry, noisy Chamber heard Prime Minister St. Laurent and George Drew, Progressive Conservative Opposition leader, cross verbal swords in a battle which lasted for two hours.

Drew criticized on a score of points, "self-adulation, too tight strings of exchange control and lack of plans for a Commonwealth conference regarding inter-Commonwealth trade.

The Prime Minister charged Drew with waging "partisan political warfare."

The C.C.F. motion, a traditional Opposition thrust, was tacked to a Progressive-Conservative amendment to the Throne Speech which has not been voted upon yet. It added a few word amendments.

It was the second angry session of turbulent scenes in the House in as many days. Tuesday night Drew had carried a stinging attack as Opposition leader against Defence Minister Claxton and thrust the Chamber into a late hour vote on his party's motion for appointment of a House committee on defence. That motion was rejected 161 to 51 in a straight government-opposition count which carried the Chamber fifteen minutes beyond the 11 o'clock closing hour. C.C.F. and Social Credit parties placed their strength beside the Progressive-Conservatives.

British Naval Training Out

OTTAWA—The Navy announce a new step that fits into the three man Malnguy Royal Commission which, last Fall brought down a lengthy and sweeping report. Cadets of the executive branch—the general list that makes up the bulk of the officers—will now be trained in Canada rather than partly in Canada and partly in Britain. It had been the practice to give them two years training in Canada and then send them to the United Kingdom to train for another two or three years. Thus it was the Royal Navy that rounded off cadet training, and inadvertently or otherwise, worked occasional changes in young susceptible accents. Now they will take four years at Canadian colleges in the same way as army and air-force cadets, and as naval cadets of the electrical and supply branches.

Was Too Drunk To Remember

SYDNEY N. S.—Former Mayor or Dan Jack MacLean, taking the stand on his own behalf at his trial for the murder of Joseph MacKinnon, told the jury yesterday that he had been on a drinking party that day with MacKinnon. He had fallen asleep at the party and could not remember how he got home or got to bed. The first he remembered was when his wife awakened him next morning and told him the police wanted to see him.

The crown prosecutor said yesterday that he was satisfied that MacLean had not intended to murder MacKinnon and that he would be content with a verdict of manslaughter.

MacLean is alleged to have killed MacKinnon by running over him with his car.

Canadian Seaman In Juncieu Hospital

Shortly after the ss. Princess Norah, on her last voyage north, put out from Juncieu for Skagway, it was necessary to return to the Alaska capital to land Larry Johnson, one of the crew. Some of his fingers had been seriously injured when a heavy door closed on them. As there is no doctor, at present, in Skagway, and in order to give Mr. Johnson treatment as early as possible, he was placed in St. Anne's hospital in Juncieu.

Coast Freighter Is Hard Aground

VANCOUVER C.—The Canadian Pacific coastal freighter Nootka was still hard aground today at Chatham Point on Walker Island, 125 miles northwest of here, today.

Capt. Charles Robson, skipper of the 3500-ton vessel, which grounded in fog last night, said the vessel might be refloated at the high tide today but she remained fast.

Pulp cargo is being unloaded to lighten the ship.

FRESNO IS OUT OF HOCKEY RACE

LOS ANGELES C.—Los Angeles Monarchs last night eliminated Fresno from the Pacific Coast Hockey League race with a 4 to 2 victory over the Falcons.

Rent Control May Be Last

OTTAWA C.—Indication is that the extension of rent controls for another 13 months, of which Minister of Justice Stuart Garson gave notice in Parliament this week will be the last. An official of the government said that, if economic conditions warrant it, the controls may be lifted at the end of the 13-month period, April 30, 1951, for which the Minister of Justice is asking. By the same token, if the shortage is still acute at the end of the 13 months, the government may ask for further extension.

Encouraging Of Native Artist

VICTORIA—Hon. W. T. Straith minister of education, said yesterday that the government was doing all it could to encourage the young native artist, Judith Morgan, who hails from Kitwanga, in her work. Five of her paintings had been purchased to be hung in the legislature building.

Mr. Straith referred, among others, to Emily Carr and said the government has been missing the boat in failing to recognize British Columbia artists.

The Statehood Situation

ALASKA AND HAWAII have moved a step nearer statehood. That doesn't mean they'll get it, at least this year.

The United States House of Representatives has approved statehood for both of them. Unless the Senate agrees, and it may not, the House action means nothing.

Next year there'll be a new Congress. And, in a new Congress, what either house did in a previous Congress doesn't count. In that case, the two territories will have to start from scratch again. Both have been seeking statehood a long time.

The U.S. bought Alaska from Russia in 1867 for $7,200,000. It wasn't allowed to become a territory until 1912.

A territory can elect its own legislature but the President appoints a governor.

Alaska and Hawaii are each allowed one delegate in Congress. But he can't vote, even when Congress is passing laws affecting his territory.

The people in a territory pay all the federal taxes but, although they're U.S. citizens, they can't vote in a national election.

Alaska with an area of 585,000 square miles, has a population of about 100,000 people, more than many of the present states had when they were admitted to the union. Hawaii, made up of seven islands with an area of about 6,400 square miles, has a population of 540,000, of which 86 per cent are U.S. citizens.

The people in both territories have voted in favor of statehood. Congressional committees have investigated the problem. The Democratic and Republican parties have promised statehood for both territories in their party platforms. The President approves.

Pressure to get the job done began in the 1930's. First real action came in 1947. Then the House voted to let Hawaii come in. The Senate has never voted. So nothing happened. This year the House now has voted for Hawaii again and, for the first time, for Alaska, too.

The people in both territories argue that they have more than served their apprenticeship as territories. They're both experienced in running their territorial affairs, but, nevertheless, Congress really runs them, and makes laws for them. Yet, their people have no voice in shaping those laws.

Although residents of the territories have to pay federal taxes they don't receive the full benefits from federal laws that states get.

Congressmen opposed argue that, if admitted, Alaska and Hawaii would have two senators each, since every state has two senators. In addition, Hawaii would be entitled to two representatives in the House, Alaska would have one.

In their local elections, about 100,000 Hawaiian residents vote. In Alaska the vote is about 20,000. Therefore, Alaska would have two senators representing only 20,000 voters whereas states with millions of votes are allowed only two.

C.C.F. AND JAPS

Editor, Daily News

It has been learned from the Prince Rupert Daily News and from correspondence recently received from Harold Sinclair, interior district vice-president for Skeena of the Native Brotherhood, that the Japanese are now being granted fishing licences for 1950 and that some Japs are already at some canneries on the Skeena.

Harold Sinclair has pointed out that there is now a rope around the necks of the native people and, with the return of the Japanese, the native people are about to face hardship and the doom of the livelihood of their children. Natives as well as whites who work in the canneries as boat-builders, mechanics, carpenters, painters, net men and other cannery employment will, in due time, be out of their jobs.

The native people do not consider themselves selfishly but equally consider the white people.

We have also learned of the recommendations of the C.C.F. members in the Legislature and their approval of the return of the Japanese to the fishing grounds. The native people wonder if their brother, Frank Calder, a member of the C.C.F. party, realizes the hardship that our native people are about to face, the doom of their children's livelihood. It was Mr. Calder who stated in a C.C.F. meeting at Hazelton last spring before the election that the C.C.F. party was fighting for the native rights in British Columbia. Now it seems that it is the C.C.F. party which is placing the rope around the necks of the native fishermen and their children because of their recommendations fully supporting and approving the Japs return. We native people must unitedly stand within the rights of our demands and proven claims. J. A. FOWLER, Kitwanga.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

SOME HINTS ABOUT USING LOCKERS AND FREEZING OF FOODS GENERALLY

Are you already renting a locker or are you planning to rent one this year? Perhaps you are fortunate enough to own a freezer. Which ever the case may be a few helpful hints on planned use of locker space, on proper labelling and handling of frozen foods and of recording the foods placed in the locker will not go amiss.

The housewife who already rents a locker or owns a home freezer may still have quite a supply of last year's frozen foods in storage. The longer these foods are stored the greater the loss in quality so they should be used now in order to start afresh for the coming fruit and vegetable season.

Housewives have learned by bitter experience the necessity of correct labelling and systematic storage. Many products are stored in the housewife's locker but she is often at a loss as to where to look for them or how they are labelled. Home economists offer some simple suggestions for more effective and convenient use of locker space.

First of all plan to budget locker space. All too often large quantities of asparagus or raspberries are frozen and when the time comes to freeze peaches or squash there is no space available. The amount of frozen foods needed by each family should be planned and a space allotted to each food. Plywood partitions to separate locker space into convenient sections may be used or nests of wire baskets for each compartment of a home freezer work very satisfactorily. Sets of mesh bags for each fruit and vegetable are another means of separating locker space for more convenient and effective usage.

Once the locker or freezer space has been allotted a map or chart showing the locations of each food should be drawn up. This map could be kept on the locker or freezer door or placed above the freezer. By always putting a certain food in the same place the chart will soon become familiar.

Of course along with this there should be a freezing schedule. Set down on paper the amount of foods needed by the family and plan the dates when they are at the peak of availability and at the lowest price for freezing.

Every parcel for the locker must be labelled as to what it contains, when it was packed and perhaps the number of servings it contains. This should be done in a clear, easily identified manner. With the various types of meat it is a good idea to use different colored strings or tapes to identify them; for example red for beef, blue for pork, green for lamb etc. Another suggestion is to tie small packages together into one large bundle making sure that each little one is well labelled. In this way it is much easier to find one large bundle than several small ones.

It is most necessary that an inventory be kept of all foods placed in the locker or freezer so that at all times there is a record of what remains. When the packages are withdrawn from the freezer the number is reduced on the record sheet. The inventory will then be a guide to planning menus as the housewife can tell at a glance what remains to be used.

These suggestions have been prepared so that the housewife can budget and schedule her freezing and by so doing use her locker to maximum advantage. Home economists at Ottawa have prepared for Canadian housewives a bulletin entitled "Freezing Fruits and Vegetables".

Are Driving For May 24 Members

Further plans for enrolment of as many citizens as possible to honorary membership for May 24 celebrations were discussed by the Kinsmen Club last night in their regular meeting. Committee chairman Stan Saville reported that almost every merchant was supporting the drive for funds by displaying membership books. There will be seven awards to the honorary members including a 1950 Austin, a General Electric combination radio, also washer, Bulova Watch, set of silver flatware, set of travelling bags and a surprise package.

The Club decided to invite the Kinsmen, Junior city basketball champions, to their next dinner on Wednesday, April 5.

Marcel Blain was appointed as the keeper of "Henrietta," the Club chicken for the next two weeks.

The entertainment under Jim Thompson, Russ Cameron and Alf Worthington consisted of eight short and funny speeches by chosen members, a quiz contest which was won by John Good and a pie eating contest won by Curley Barbour. He received another beautiful pie as his prize.

Norman Nelson, president of Nelson Brothers Fisheries Ltd., arrived on an inspection visit to the company's interests here aboard the Prince Rupert yesterday.

We're Big Spenders!

That doesn't mean we're careless. It's just that in the course of turning out those fine Tex-made cotton products you know so well, we have to buy great many things from all parts of the country.

We need packing cases and cardboard cartons, construction lumber, paper, potato and corn starches, coal, sulphuric acid, caustic soda, oils, lubricants and a hundred and one other things which we buy from fellow Canadians who grow or make them.

In addition to this the 12,500 men and women working in our plants, earn many millions of dollars a year in wages, dollars which are spent on foodstuffs from the farms of Canada, grains, cattle, hogs and poultry, fish from the fishermen on both coasts and the Great Lakes.

We are the customers of our fellow-Canadians just as they are our customers. We're proud to have a part in Canada's economic life by buying the goods which other Canadians grow, make or provide.

Nervous, Gyros Hear Of Halifax

Prince Rupert's "opposite number"—Halifax, history-steeped community of contrasts, 200-year-old warden of the North Atlantic—was the subject of an interesting descriptive discourse by Indian Superintendent F. Earl Anfield in addressing the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon yesterday. Mr. Anfield visited Halifax last September when he attended a synod of the Anglican Church in Canada. A historical review of the Nova Scotia port, which had its founding July 14, 1750, with the landing of Edward Cornwallis as first governor of Nova Scotia, to set up the fortress which was to play such an important part in the British exploits in Canada, precluded a description of the presiding day Halifax which had for two hundred years now been the great naval and military base—ever since the three years that General James Wolfe had made it his base for the campaign which was to lead to the capture of Quebec and the British conquest of all Canada.

Mr. Anfield told of the dire straits of Halifax, the negro section, the efficient rapid transit system of trolley buses—the combination of the old-fashioned and the modern. It was something to be deplored, felt Mr. Anfield, that the ancient citadel of Halifax, a $30,000,000 fortification from which never a shot had been fired, should be today going to "pot."

President A. J. Dominato was in the chair at yesterday's luncheon. Guests were B. H. Parker of Prince Rupert and H. Langley of Vancouver.

T. H. Wilford introduced the speaker who was thanked by George Dawes.

Next Gyro function will be a dinner dance tomorrow night aboard the steamer Chilcotin.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Stewart, after a brief visit in Vancouver, returned to the city yesterday. Mr. Stewart attended a meeting of Royal Bank branch managers with the general manager.

Father, I'd like you to meet another relative!"

From Germany To Pr. Rupert

Elderly Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kraupner are shortly to leave their native home at Chemnitz, Saxony, in the Russian-occupied zone of Germany, for Prince Rupert to make their home in Prince Rupert with their son, Hugo Kraupner. They are due to arrive here on May 25, arrangements for their removal from the Old Country having been finally completed after long negotiation for it is no easy matter to get out of the Russian-occupied zone under present conditions.

It will be the first time that Mr. and Mrs. Kraupner, both seventy years of age, have ever been out of Germany. On March 3, 1945, they were bombed out of their home as the final allied blitz shattered the Reich from end to end. They lost everything and life during the five years since then has been one of hardship and privation, living in one room with crude boxes for furniture and only such food as the Russians chose to give them. Their other son, Hans, an opera singer, was killed during riots in Paris following the Nazi capture while he was engaged in entertaining German soldiers in the then German-occupied capital of France.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kellett are leaving on the Prince Rupert tonight for Vancouver where Mr. Kellett will attend a Home Oil Distributors Ltd. conference. They expect to be away from Prince Rupert for two weeks.

Mass Burial In Montreal

MONTREAL—Permission is being sought from civic authorities to hold a mass funeral next Sunday for seven of the eight victims of March 2 Chinatown fire, a Chinese Nationalist League spokesman said last night. One of the bodies already has been claimed for private funeral. Five of the victims will be buried here, while the two others will be cremated. An inquiry into the fire, which levelled half a city block and caused an estimated $1,000,000 damage, is scheduled to open tomorrow.

1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoons melted shortening
1 cup milk
2 eggs

What wonderful puffed-up popovers you make the Robin Hood way — crisp and golden outside, light as thistle-down!

- Preheat oven to 475°F. (Very hot oven.) Place approximately 9 thick muffin pans or custard cups in oven to heat while making batter.
- Measure sifted flour into sifter, add salt. Sift together into mixing bowl. Add milk gradually, beating until smooth.
- Beat eggs until thick and light. Add to flour and milk mixture, then add melted shortening. Beat for 2 minutes with rotary beater. Batter should be thickness of heavy cream.
- Remove pans from oven and grease thoroughly (butter gives best flavor). Pour batter into pans, filling half-full.
- Bake in a very hot oven 475°F. for 20 minutes, then reduce heat to 350°F. (moderate oven) and bake 20 minutes longer.

Serve warm. Yield — approx. 9 popovers.

Boxing Bill Looks Good

Exciting Show Looked For From Paul Kennedy and Norm Applin

With top bill performers such as Paul Kennedy, 25 year old middleweight negro flash from Portland, and Norm Applin, formerly of Montreal but late of this city, Friday night's bouts at the Civic Centre should be exciting.

The 152-pound negro arrived by plane Tuesday. The trip didn't faze him and he declared he would rather stay away from bus trips. Paul has been in the fighting game since 1947, a very short period. And in that time, he's piled up quite a few victories.

friendly fighter said he has battled his way through ten professional bouts, winning eight. He has chalked up 18 amateur bouts, winning 15 in a row and then walked away with the Golden Gloves trophy.

Most stubborn fighter he has met was Dick Wolf of Vancouver in 1943. The boys confronted each other on six occasions. Four turned out as draws. Each won a decision. Paul hopes for another meeting with Wolf. It will be different this time, he declares.

His most severe beating was administered by 164 - pound Frank Gimbel but Gimbel didn't score a knockout. "I wish it would have been a knockout," Paul declared, "I had 13 stitches put in across one eye."

Paul formerly trained with Joey Maxim, present light heavyweight champion of the world.

The boxer is married and has three children, the oldest of whom is four years. "I'm training him early," he said.

The sharp cold weather of the past few days has eased up a little and milder weather and still brilliant sunshine is being enjoyed by all. Though there is still a lot of snow on the outskirts of town there is practically none, except for a few icy patches, in the town. The grader is cleaning the roads and the branches of some of the trees on Lakelse Ave., West, are being cut. Clearing up is general and there is a bustle of spring activity in the air. In some of the gardens, bulbs and plants ar showing through the soil—a welcome sight after the long cold winter.

The old Silver-Tip Cafe on Kalum Street has finally been demolished and, when all the debris has been cleared away, work will start immediately on the rebuilding of a fine new cafe more in keeping with the town. The old place was literally battered down. Campbell and Martin Brothers machiney doing the job. The business of the cafe had been moved next door although the old kitchen was still used. For a time on Tuesday Jimmy Wong, the cafe proprietor, cooked for his patrons in a kitchen which had no wall and which was therefore exposed to all the traffic on Salum Street while he watched he demolition work progressing. Albert Haugland is in charge of the work of tearing-down and building-up again.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Irving returned last week from a two weeks' holiday trip to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. M. Giggey have adopted two Chinese girls of school age and are expecting them here with the next quota of displaced children from the Orient.

James Stevenson, accompaied by Mrs. Stevenson and son, Johnny, left last week for Vancouver. Mr. R. J. McLymont of Prince Rupert, is relieving him at the local bank.

Jack Handle of Stewart has been the guest of the Van Stolks who are the foster parents of his brother Herbert and sister Ivy Gillespie.

Nick Dobie of Copper City was brought into hospital recently and is at present very ill there.

Many of the parents took advantage of the fine weather and Education Week to visit the schools last week. Visitors day was held on Wednesday at the Elementary school and on Thursday at the Primary school.
A good attendance of parents was had at both schools.

Mrs. Philcox, with her small son, of Kamloops, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. G.
Haughland.

Mrs. J. Lips is a patient in the local hospital suffering from a broken shoulder, sustained in a recent fall.

The ice on the river at Copper City is beginning to break up and it will not be long now before the ferry will be able to cross over. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan de Kergommeauz walked in from Copper City on Saturday morning where they had been visiting Mrs. Wishart, and spent the day with the Newhousers in Terrace.

John Spurr of Prince Rupert arrived in town this week and will be associated with the staff of the Skeena Mercantile.

Mrs. Pearson and daughter Donna, are visiting in Terrace after an absence of several years.

More Tide
Lake Gold

STEWART — After two days travel on snowshoes, sinking at times, about a foot in the soft powdery snow, Al Phillips, Bill Boedecker, and Walter Herman, came in from the Phillips East Group on Tide Lake, arriving in town on Friday night. They were all in good shape. Herman was sporting a fine growth of beard out soon got rid of that.

Phillips reports that the high grade showing on the property still persists and he is confident that he will make a good stake before the end of the year. One hundred and fifty-five pounds of high grade was packed out and should run about the same as the last shipment which was about $27 per pound. Mr. Phillips figures on taking a bulldozer to the property in the spring.

Bob Barwise and George Riley, who have been looking after the Morris-Summit property on Summit Lake, came out at the same time. Riley, who is 63 years of age, stood the tough trip remarkably well for a man of his age.

OTTAWA — Royal Canadian Mounted Police, who patrol the Parliament buildings here, may be re-mounded if a request of the Ottawa Board of Trade is successful. Commissioner S. T. Wood has no particular objection to the proposal although he suggests that officers might be more efficient in cars than on horses.

"Battleground" Showing Here

"Battleground," a spectacular film dramatization of the siege of Bastogne, which comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, has been hailed as one of the greatest war stories of this generation. It is the dramatic story of the famous 101st Airborne Division of the United States, "the Screaming Eagles," who turned what seemed a hopeless situation into victory and release in the turning point days of the war just before Christmas 1944.

While there is drama in the action there is also comedy and an outstanding cast is used to portray the story. G.I. heroes include Van Johnson, John Hodiak, Ricardo Montalban, George Murphy, Marshall Thompson and James Whitmore, an interesting cross-section of enlisted men. Denise Darcel, an interesting new Parisian-born actress, a distractingly proportioned blonde, has the principal women's role as the girl who tries to bring some cheer into the lives of American soldiers who are quartered in her home.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Mention has been made in the papers of popcorn being consumed in places of screen entertainment. A few months later in the season, when its more like summer, it might be a timely idea to roll in a few watermelons.

It was Jack Miner great naturalist and lover of out-of-doors, who said—"I stand for more education and less legislation! The saying still stands secure.

A Winnipeg gentleman, Henry Timleek, was 106 years of age this week. He was asked if he had anything very new to tell. There was nothing, unless it was the fact of his eyes not being quite the equal of what they had been the year previously. If this was news, it was not startling. They had seen a lot.

In Britain, "Sin-Jin" is the customary pronunciation for St. John. In Canada, its "Saunlae-rae" for St. Laurent, which most of us think is close to being correct.

And in Skeena, some say "Sim-shean", when considering the peninsula just across the harbor.

There are fair prospects of a spring, this far north, free from floods, although, of course no certainty. The Skeena, when it tries, can produce high water. You would think so, had you ever used a boat in going through a railway tunnel.

The Weather

Vancouver vs Prince Rupert
(by A. G. BRAIN)

Things seem different these many days.

Quite changed around in many ways. In Vancouver with rain, snow and frost.

This Winter, the Weather Man's been quite lost.

His calculations have all gone astray.

When folks have asked what'll it be today.

But what of the weather up Prince Rupert?

Why Glorious Sunshine day after day.

Near all through January the sunshine bright.

Of course we admit it was cold at night.

But we are not supposed to be L. A. of the West.

Anyway this winter our weather's been best.

Fine Specimen Of Spider Crab

Unusual Crustacean Taken At Captain's Cove—Goes To Museum Here

It was no doubt a perfect specimen of this particular variety of crustacean but the 36-inch spider crab which members of the crew of the light-house tender Birnie brought into the Daily News office was a ferocious looking marine creature such as one might envision in hangover dreams.

Fishing for crabs at a depth of fifteen fathoms overside from the Birnie which anchored in Captain's Cove on Tuesday, the Birnie's crew brought up this monster in their regulation mesh crabbing ring. Shaken out of the net, it scampered vigorously over the deck and none were too anxious to close contact until it became less active.

Still alive but gradually expiring, it came into the Daily News office in a large carton. Perfectly foamed, tentacles all intact, coloring clean and natural, and with one typical sharp spine, it was an ideal sample for a marine museum so was turned over to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage for preservation and display.

Spider crabs are not unknown in these waters but they are rare. Probably no larger or more perfect a specimen than this one was ever brought into Prince Rupert.

They are a deep water crab. In Japan they are canned for food.

LONDON—H.M.C.S. Truculent, rammed and sunk in the Thames River several weeks ago with loss of 64 lives, has been raised and was placed on a sandbar today. The submarine will now be opened for the recovery of 20 bodies it still is believed to contain. It is understood the vessel will be reconditioned and restored to naval service.
