Canadian Railway Strike Probable

Unions Reject 7-Cent Wage Boost; Preparing Strike Ballot

MONTREAL (CP)—Representatives of 18 international railway unions today rejected a conciliation board's recommendation for a seven-cent an hour increase in wages and authorized the taking of a strike vote immediately.

F. N. Hall, chairman of the union's general committee, declared that the strike ballot is now being prepared and in his opinion the vote will be overwhelmingly "for a strike" unless substantial concessions are made beyond those suggested by the conciliation board.

Two Halibut Boats Deliver Cargoes Here

First halibut of the season was sold over the fish exchange this afternoon when Bacon Fisheries bought the 3,000 pound cargo of the halibutter J. H. Todd shortly after 1 o'clock. The price was 14.2 cents a pound for mediums, 12 cents for large and 11 cents for chicken.

Two halibut boats landed 25,000 pounds of fish from the Area Two grounds this morning, but neither established prices on the exchange because both went to the Fishermen's Co-operative.

The P. Doiron and the Skeena M. II both took their cargoes to the Co-op where they were marketed on the basis of initial payment plus further payment when the fish is sold to eastern wholesalers.

The P. Doiron brought in 14,000 and the Skeena M. II 11,000.

Their cargoes were the first landed by regular halibut boats this season. A rush is expected tomorrow, even though the boats have not met with good fishing since the season opened on May 1.

A steady stream of packers has begun to land halibut from the Co-op and company camps since Monday, but prices on this fish are dependent on bidding on the exchange here.

Initial payments by the Co-op to its members for halibut delivered to the plant here are said to be 12 cents for medium, 10 cents for large and eight cents for chicken. Prices are two cents lower per pound for fish delivered to the Co-op camps.

Buyers on the waterfront are confident, however, that "independent" boats will arrive overnight or tomorrow with fish that will be sold on the exchange, thereby establishing the 1948 halibut price level.

URGES CANADA CUT RELATIONS WITH SOVIETS

OTTAWA, (L-Kamouraska) urged Commons last night that Canada should meet the Communist menace by severing diplomatic relations with Russia and her satellites.

He urged that communistic organizations be outlawed in Canada, even though "radical means" were required to suppress the Red doctrine.

The French-speaking member said any communistic movement is clearly directed against the security of the state and is not entitled to be recognized as a political party.

His suggestion highlighted the sagging foreign affairs debate.

ARAB ARMIES MOVING TOWARD PALESTINE

DAMASCUS, (P)—Seaghan Maynes, Reuters special correspondent at Arab army headquarters, said today that the Arab armies are beginning to move toward Palestine battle-grounds.

Maynes said he saw a motorized column of Iraqis moving through the mountains of Moab toward Palestine. He quoted an Arab field commander as saying that Arab armies will invade Palestine within a few days.

TORNADOES WHIP ACROSS SEVEN STATES

KANSAS CITY (P)—Tornadoes and violent windstorms whipped across seven states during the week-end, killing at least 19 persons and injuring more than 100. Property damage is said to be heavy.

West Virginia and Kentucky communities were lashed by tornadoes last night. Twisters hit in Missouri, Oklahoma and Kansas on Saturday while high winds swept Indiana and Illinois. West Virginia, where six died, had the heaviest death toll.

Later reports state that in Kansas City tornadoes have raised death toll to at least 21.

McKINNEY, Texas, (P)—Two north Texas towns, McKinney and Princeton, began to snap back to life today after a violent tornado that killed three, injured 53 and caused widespread damage.

The list of tornado casualties in six states within the last 48 hours was 23 dead and 156 injured.

JEWIS SEIZE ARAB VILLAGE

TEL AVIV, (P)—Irgur Zvai Leumi said today that a Jewish battle force has seized and occupied the Arab stronghold village of Yehudia after an all-night fight. The village is one of the wealthiest in the Arab area and has barred the way to Lydda airport.

The United Nations truce commission, made up of French, British and United States consuls-general, is reported to have gone to Amman, capital of Transjordan to confer with King Abdullah.

Arab fighters, meanwhile, are reported to be attacking a Jewish settlement south of Jerusalem and other light skirmishes have developed as the British mandate draws to its end.

The Arabs said that the Jews have fired on a convoy of the British-officered Arab Legion.

Packer Strikes Reef, Undamaged

The Canadian Fishing Co. packer Hillside left port for the company's fishing camps in Chatham Sound and Hecate Straits Monday afternoon after unloading a cargo of halibut which she brought here earlier in the day, despite the fact that she had gone aground off Squadaree, Stephens Island.

The vessel, under command of Capt. Bill Fuller, struck a reef while enroute to Squadaree, but was refloated shortly afterward. She was found to be undamaged. Her cargo was brought to the Atlin Fish wharf.

GOLD MINING ACTIVE HERE

Revival in Various Parts of North

Mining revival in various parts of the north this year, is largely explained by several factors the importance of which is readily seen.

One is that gold-dredging outfits are able to enter Canada free.

Another is that new gold mines received certain benefits and exemptions under the Dominion's gold aid program.

And another is that foreign firms entering Canadian gold mining industries are given the privilege of taking out their money if it becomes their decision to liquidate and also to remit current earnings.

One of the world's largest builders and operators of gold dredges, Yuba Consolidated of San Francisco is drill-testing placer ground at Twenty Mile Creek in the Omineca country, central British Columbia.

Another area, this also in Omineca is at Lost Creek, where Los Angeles capital will undertake large scale hydraulic activities.

During the winter, the Larsen-Harms people moved 27 carloads of California dredging equipment into McDames Creek in Northern British Columbia. This was done over a 70 mile road from Watson Lake on the Alaska Highway.

The Yukon Consolidated, in Klondike continues as usual, which means washing about three millions annually.

New outfits in Yukon embrace Yukon Explorations Ltd. of Vancouver (W. B. Milner) and Yukon Gold Placers.

At Barkerville, a Montana corporation is installing a hydraulic plant at Antler Creek. A dragline equipment is going in along the Lower Quesnel River. A Bremerton firm is to operate on Willow Creek in the Cariboo.

The Helena (Mont.) Placer syndicate is to test 13 leases on Quesnel North Forks. There are also outfits interested in platinum.

FRIDAYBRODGE, Cambridge-shire, England (P)—No entries were received for a men's beauty contest here.

FLOODS MAY BE BLESSINGS IN DISGUISE

WINNIPEG, (P)—Rivers and creeks continued to recede toward normal today as the drying out period came to western Canada after the worst floods in the area's history.

In western Manitoba where 900 persons were evacuated from their homes, improvements were noted.

The same is true in Saskatchewan, although the northern portions reported large tracts of land inundated. Sunny weather aided Alberta where waterways have also been amok for the last two weeks.

The history-making floods, however, may be a blessing in disguise to prairie farmers. Water means crops and the long-term results in raising water levels in Saskatchewan will more than cancel the property damage the floods have caused.

They have filled natural and artificial reservoirs to the highest levels in several years.

WINNIPEG (P)—Spring floods were receding in most sections of the Prairies today—with the exception of Western Manitoba—leaving damage to homes, property, roads and bridges estimated to total many millions of dollars.

While the worst appeared to be over in Alberta and Saskatchewan, many families are still homeless and rivers remained at flood levels in several districts, including Wetaskiwin, Alberta, and Lumsden, Saskatchewan. Estimated road damage in Alberta will be in excess of million dollars.

COLORED OLEO SALE APPROVED

TRENTON, N.J.—Governor Alfred Driscoll has put his signature on legislation legalizing the sale of colored oleomargarine in New Jersey for the first time since 1886.

BRITISH TROOPS ARE RE-INFORCED IN PALESTINE

JERUSALEM (P)—The Jews insisted Monday, in face of denials, that Syrian and Lebanese armies invaded northern Palestine. Britain rushed soldiers back into the country to deal with what they called a seriously deteriorated situation, less than two weeks before May 15 which marks the termination of her mandate.

First British re-inforcements were estimated at 1,000 soldiers who reached Haifa from Cyprus. Despite Jewish reports, British sources said there was no sign of an invasion or attacks.

ASK UNIFIED LABOR CODE

OTTAWA (P)—The Canadian Congress of Labor today proposed amending the British North America Act to enable the federal government to take jurisdiction over industrial relations in all Canadian industries.

In a brief, sharply critical of the proposed federal labor code, the congress contended it would not bring about uniform labor legislation as it now stands.

This was the major goal of the government in creating the legislation. The Congress brief was submitted to the Commons industrial relations committee which is considering the code.

Nation-wide industrial disputes, the brief charges, might paralyze the whole industrial life of the country if it struck basic industries.

New Longshore Company Listed

In a list of 28 new companies registered in British Columbia the following appear: Prince Rupert Stevedoring Co. Ltd., $50,000; Morice River Sawmill Ltd., $25,000, Houston.

GOOD NEWS FOR VETERAN COAL DIGGERS—The headlines are good news to these two Coverdale miners, Frank (left) and Lawrence Grousosky, 69 and 64 years old respectively. Both are eligible for pensions under the compromise pension plan agreed to by U.M.W. leader John L. Lewis. The brothers started work in the Pittsburgh area back in 1907, soon after their arrival from Poland. Frank was forced to quit the mines last year because of asthma. Lawrence said he was ready to return to the pits as soon as they reopen. Pension for miners 62 years old who have put in 20 years of work in the mines is $100 a month.

TO HAVE WOMEN'S POLICE FORCE—One of India's smallest police forces, the women's branch of the force, is shown as she trained in the usage of Sten guns. In numbering only a score, the force is trained in self-defense and firearms. The group have already been in action to assist the police in matters of law and order. The mere male finds himself at a disadvantage. The force are all specially selected and they must be the ages of 35 and 45. It is hoped that the force will be an autonomous branch of the police, with its own and a separate headquarters.

TURNER NEW T.C.A. SUPERVISOR

OVER—The appointment of Watson C. Turner to be region supervisor of sales, TransCanada Air has jurisdiction over a extending from Winnipeg, Manitoba, has been announced by W. J. Dalby, regional manager, here.

Mr. Turner's appointment to the created position is in line with the transfer of sales activities to the department, grouping total sales functions of the company formerly dispersed in Vancouver, where his headquarters are.

Mr. Turner's service was only re-introduced by T.C.A. to handle the heavier and shipments and has now blended throughout the system in Canada and from the United States, and Bermuda.

MEMBER MAY HARD WRITER

L. Neuberger, whose Prince Rupert in the Evening Post last February this city world-wide fame has come under the glance of the Chamber here and may be re-fer to his effort locally.

The monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night was suggested that members subscribe to pay Mr. Neuberger's station north either for a year in August or for the convention of the Association of Trade in June-September.

The suggestion was originated by Felsenthal, who told the Board that the Board was being Mr. Neuberger of Port Day. Other members thought that the convention would be more suitable.

Felsenthal and W. M. were appointed by acting G. R. S. Blackaby to 'WAIT AND SEE' CANADA'S POLICY ON HOLY LAND

LAKE SUCCESS (P)—Canada holds a "wait-and-see" attitude towards the United States deliberations on the Palestine problem.

Although the Dominion has urged that United States suggestions of trusteeship for embattled Palestine be studied, she wants assurance that the plan will work before voting on it. The United States proposal however, appears doomed in the light of Jewish and Arab disapproval.

KINSMEN CLUB DRIVE OFFICES POLICE-RAIDED

VANCOUVER, (P)—Vancouver police Monday raided the charity campaign headquarters of the Kinsmen Club and took "samples" of books of tickets and stubs connected with the organizations "food-for-Britain" carnival.

The raid followed warnings from city prosecutor Gordon Scott that he considered the ticket sale—involving a quiz contest with $10,000 in prizes—a lottery, illegal under the Criminal Code.

The Kinsmen officials say that they will continue the campaign because their legal advisors have told them that the quiz contest is not in conflict with sections of the Criminal Code dealing with lotteries.

Fate of Prince Rupert Kinsmen Club's "Kiddie Camp" fund, in which an automobile is a prize, apparently hangs on the outcome of the Vancouver affair. If the one is declared illegal, the other probably also will be banned.

TWO STRIKING TARS ARRESTED

THOROLD, Ont. (P)—Two Canadian Seamen's Union organizers, for whom warrants were issued more than a week ago, have been arrested. They are Basil Dawson and Kenneth Corrigan, both of Owen Sound. They have been charged, following the April 24 attack by seamen on the collier Glenlagle.

Pope Pius Asks Prayer For Peace

VATICAN CITY—Pope Pius has asked for special prayers during May for the "Happy triumph of peace" in Palestine. The Pope's plea was made in letters sent to Roman Catholic bishops throughout the world. The letters, dated May 1, were made public today.

TRADE WITH U.S. CANADA'S NEED

ST. LOUIS, (P)—Finance Minister Douglas Abbott said today that Canada has rejected devaluation of her dollar because her economic problem "is not the kind for which that is an appropriate or effective remedy."

In a speech to the Missouri Bankers' Association he said that currency devaluation may be helpful to a country which is in difficulty because costs and prices are too high to enable it to compete in the world market.

He said there can be no solution to Canada's problems in "a constructive and expansionist manner" unless the United States is prepared to accept Canadian imports on a much larger scale.

COLOMBIA CUTS SOVIET CONTACT

BOGOTA, (P)—Colombia broke off diplomatic relations Monday night with the Soviet Union. The Colombia cabinet decided to sever relations with Russia almost a month after the abortive revolutions which took 1,500 lives.

Ontario, a light cruiser, is commanded by Capt. J. C. Hibbard, D.S.C. and Bar, will conduct on Friday night an inspection of the Captain Cook Corps of Sea Cadets in the naval drill hall, plans for the inspection having been completed at a meeting of the Navy League executive at the end of the week.

Another area, this also in Omineca is at Lost Creek, where Los Angeles capital will undertake large scale hydraulic activities.

Matter Explodes

WHEN THE ATOM BOMB fell on Hiroshima, the whole world was shaken to its foundations. Now a simple, guarded announcement that "an atomic weapon" has been tested at Eniwetok Atoll is merely one more item of news, says the Christian Science Monitor.

Already we speak coolly of the "old-fashioned" type of bomb used at Hiroshima.

So soon do men grow accustomed to the unthinkable!

Yet deep in the recesses of men's minds an explosive force is at work—like the secret terror at Eniwetok, loosed at an unknown date, hidden in the lonely silence of the Pacific.

After solemn deliberation, the Church of England decides that the use of the atom bomb in a defensive war is morally justifiable—but behind the decision is the urgent soul-searching of religious men everywhere. The atomic scientists plead almost desperately for world government, for agreement with Russia, for any legal or moral restraint that will somehow save the world from the power they have unleashed.

And behind the popular apathy is a deep-lying sense of insecurity. Matter has failed men. Though they hide from the fact, it remains true that they must find a new world to live in—or else! Only as the particles of selfishness which form their present world are smashed, liberating a spiritual force so great that man-made barriers must melt before it, will they be able to face honestly the challenge of atomic power.

NEUBERGER OFF ON HIS PRICES

In a recent issue of Collier's, author Richard L. Neuberger states "everything is high in Alaska. Even before the war, eggs were $1.25 a dozen, milk 28 cents a quart, haircuts at Fairbanks $1.50."

Mr. Neuberger listed this information in an article titled "Beating the Arctic Bush" which dealt primarily with Alaska's famed bush pilots.

It is too bad that the author took advantage of this opportunity to give the bush pilots the commendation they so well deserve by including such misinformation.

We investigated those prices and found that the quoted costs of milk and eggs was untrue in any of the larger communities which contain the majority of the Territory's population.

As a matter of fact, eggs today are only 73 cents in Juneau. We do not feel that the Fairbanks haircut price was out of line, either. They were priced at $1 in Seattle and Fairbanks is certainly entitled to that differential. Milk was only 25 cents per quart at Fairbanks in 1941.

We are at a loss to discover where Neuberger received his information. He spent a short time in the Yukon and Alaska as an Army Public Relations Officer during the war and has since received considerable revenues for articles which tend to establish him as an expert on things in the Territory.

G.T.W. REVENUE MAY REACH ALL-TIME PINNACLE

DETROIT—An all-time peak of $50,632,000 may be reached by operating revenues of Grand Trunk Western by this year, R. C. Vaughan, C.M.G., chairman and president, told the board of directors at the annual meeting here Monday.

Early estimates have indicated this record total, he said, but the slowing up of operations by the coal strike and the possible results of the impending strikes in the automobile industry may cause the operating revenues to fall somewhat short of this figure. The $50,000,000 estimate compares with operating revenues of $45,550,665 in 1947, which was also a record high for the road.

Pheasant Shares Guinea Hen Nest

DUNCAN, B.C. — A domestic guinea fowl and a wild pheasant have been laying their eggs in the same nest here.

H. M. Charter found a nest containing 19 guinea eggs and one pheasant egg. He took away 12 eggs for hatching by a barnyard hen because the guinea fowl left her nest as soon as the first of her young began to hatch.

Returning to the nest three days later he found two more guinea eggs and one more pheasant egg. How and by what schedule the guinea fowl and hen pheasant are sitting on the same nest is baffling Mr. Charter.

NEW LOOK IN TWEEDS

Fabrics Handwoven in Donegal Highlands Presented in Evening Dresses and Formal Ensembles
By MURIEL NARRAWAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON — A "New Look" in Irish tweeds—first time the fashion has spread to these fabrics—was skillfully employed by Owen Charles, Dublin couturier, in a recent London show.

The Gaeltarra Eirean (Goeltacht services division of Eire's department of lands) had special "round tower tweeds" handwoven in the Donegal highlands for Charles' collection. He presented them in evening dresses, capes and formal ensembles.

Striking example was an off-white wool evening cape lined with royal blue taffeta. In Torcadour style, its full circle of material falling in natural folds from an unpadded shoulder, had a pencil-thin line of blue taffeta as a low yoke line. A slit from the back neckline to the waist, piped in taffeta, was held together only by the thin taffeta band at the neckline.

A royal blue dinner dress in wool, had a heart-shaped neckline, plain bodice, three-quarter-length, wide bishop sleeves; its straight skirt having, both back and front, a central panel from the hip-line with stitched pleats falling in unpressed folds.

Reminiscence of the 1920's was the camel-coat piped in red braid and cut in a plain, straight, bolero style with cut-away front and edges that "don't quite meet." The only decoration was a full sleeve starting from the waist. This was caught at the centre back neckline and fell in natural folds from it. This, like all Charles' day clothes, was of mid-calf length.

SMART SUIT STYLE
A green-and-yellow vertical-striped suit had a plain front skirt with full, unpressed pleat

QUEEN MARY AND PRINCE LING—Young Prince William, son of the Duchess of Kent, has his cheek pinched by his grandmother, Dowager Queen Mary, after the party broke up following the ceremonies at the unveiling of the statue of former president Franklin D. Roosevelt in London's Grosvenor Square. Britons purchased the heroic statue with their pennies and shillings to show their respect for the man they regarded as one of their dearest friends.

bustle effect and plain bolero jacket with wide bishop sleeves rucked onto the shoulder line.

In dresses he favored the plain, tight bodice and neat waistline, with skirt flaring from the hip-line in varying degrees of fullness. The beautiful simplicity of this line gave dresses suitable for all informal or business occasions and many figures. The sleeves were leg-of-mutton or full bishop, the latter usually rucked onto the shoulder and often caught by a narrow band from three-quarter length to the waist.

Sometimes, with the same bodice, he used a full skirt rucked into the waist. A lovely example was in moss green with a V neckline and roll collar of tan, a narrow, padded tan band accentuated the waist. The full sleeve, rucked on the shoulder, was caught at the wrist by large button and stand-out cuff of tan.

A dark emerald-green dress had peg-top skirt with two large loose folds for hip accentuation at back and front. Part of the front bodice was a check tweed waistcoat insert. Pointed and buttoned line a man's, it suggested a three-piece ensemble.

ATOMS IN THE MUSKIE— London Newspaper Scoops Flin Flon's Uranium Rush

BRITAIN FREEZES GOODS PRICES

LONDON — A price freeze on virtually all non-essential British consumer goods at the December-January level went into effect Monday. Only non-essential consumer goods not affected are jewelry, books, newspapers and tobacco. Move is designed to hold profits and prices down as compensation for the wage freeze previously ordered to combat inflation.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What is a good remedy for swollen feet?
A. When the feet are hot and swollen, try bathing them in warm water, in which a few grains of permanganate of potash have been dissolved, just enough of the potash to make the water a bright pink. Then massage with rubbing alcohol, or mentholated spirit, and finally dust the feet with boric acid powder.

Q. How can I mend rugs?
A. Mend the rug as soon as it becomes worn. Mending tissue is effective when put on the back before a hole is worn through. Or darn it with colors of the rug.

Q. How can I make a substitute cork for the glue bottle?
A. Try using the stump of an old candle. It will not stick and the glue can not spill.

FOOD FOR DARTMOUTH

DARTMOUTH, N.S. — A drive is under way in this harbor town for a gift shipment of food to the town after which it is named, Dartmouth, England. High School students are conducting a house-to-house canvass for tinned foods and the donations will be collected by 17 trucks.

A striking evening cape in searlet moire had a stiff stand-up piece on the shoulder embroidered in gold with the cape continuing to a plain neckline. The stand-up reminded one of the full riding cloaks of olden times that could be caught at the shoulder or neckline as desired.

PLEASANT ANAESTHETIC

Surgeons of the 18th and 19th centuries gave alcohol as an anaesthetic.

FLIN FLON, Man. — In this northern Manitoba mining town they're chuckling over a story which appeared in the London Daily Mail.

The story arose from the recent discovery of uranium ore near here. It resulted from long-distance telephone conversations a Daily Mail reporter had with George Branscombe, co-discoverer of the uranium deposit, and Cyril Steventon, mayor of Flin Flon.

Said the Mail's story: "Over the transatlantic phone last night came the Canadian voice of Mayor Cyril Steventon (should be Steventon)."

"It said, 'We sure are booming.'"

"This was the voice of Flin Flon, base of uranium rush which is taking men and women from all over Canada to a get-rich-quick prospect at pine-ridge-Lake Judick, 30 miles away."

"MIGHTY HARD GOING"

The story went on to quote Mayor Steventon as saying:

"Hundreds of 'em are coming in; some have got their tucker and kit and some of 'em haven't. Some've got ski cars, some dog teams, and some'll just have to walk, and it'll be mighty hard going. If many more light in here to Flin Flon, we won't know where to put 'em."

The Mail then attempted to describe the boom area: "On the shores of Lake Judick, tents, bivouacs and log cabins are going up on claims which their owners hope will make them rich overnight. Their food, stores and equipment go by sled from Flin Flon, frontier town of wooden buildings housing 7,500 trappers, prospectors and ranchers."

Then there was a reference to the Canadian government's announcement of the find. Some residents of Flin Flon (population 10,000) said it appeared the English reporter shared the belief of many of his countrymen that to be a real Canadian one must have a ranch somewhere in the offing.

The story concluded with a remark attributed to Mr. Branscombe: "But it takes a long time working a uranium mine, and that's a power of these get-rich-quick boys who are going to be disappointed."

Who profits most? The merchant whose big ad is always in The News.

THIS AND THAT

"Remind me to make an appointment with my dentist when we get back."

The delegation began to dance up and down with excitement. "We hate the Communists!" "The dirty Reds have double-crossed us!" "The C.C.F. scorns their assistance!" "We don't want Socialism by revolution, we want it by democratic processes!" The boys were all shouting and gesticulating at once.

"But," I was saying when I woke up, "you do want Marxian Socialism and that's what the Communists say they want, too, and now they're willing to get it by using you, democratically, getting you elected and then enjoying the Marxist Socialism along with you. Well, if that's Marxism and you want it and they want it, and if they vote for you to get it for them, how can I convince anyone it's safe to vote for you if he doesn't want to help the Communists?"

It was a relief to discover someone else has THAT big job of public explaining to do. It's too fat for me!

IN MEMORIAM
CHERRY—In loving memory of our dearly beloved daughter, Ena Dorothy Cherry, who died suddenly, May 4, 1944. The years may wipe out many things, But this they'll wipe out never: The memory of those happy days When we were all together. We think of her in silence, Her name we oft recall; But there's nothing left to answer But her picture on the wall. Just when her life was brightest, Just when her hopes were best, God called her from amongst us To a home of eternal rest. —Always lovingly remembered by Mother, Dad, Brother and Sister, and families, and also her loving daughter, Sylvia.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks to Canon W. F. Rushbrooke, to the pallbearers, Mr. Robert Harris, Mr. J. Gray, Mr. George Turner, Mr. P. Turner, Mr. E. Turner, and Mr. J. Campbell; also to all the friends who sent flowers and attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Kate Dennis.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Johnson and family. (1)

CAMERA AND DOLL PRIZES AWARDED

Bruce Mills, keen-eyed member of the Civic Centre Camera Club, won first prize in the scenic section of photographic contest at the second annual hobby show which ended Saturday, with a delicately-conceived skyscape showing soft-textured clouds billowing over a mountaintop.

First and second prizes in the open section went to George Furniotis, also a Camera Club member. His first prize entry was a well-balanced scene along the Skeena River Highway with the Skeena River in foreground and a view of Prince Rupert from a nearby mountaintop.

Larry Moore's shadow-filled, leaf-draped road won second prize in the scenic section.

Prizes were awarded on the basis of votes taken by the hundreds of people who visited the hobby show during its four-day exhibition last week.

Prizes for the photographic contest are donated by the Daily News.

In the best-dressed doll contest, which also was decided by popular vote, first prize was awarded to Lois Good whose large doll in white bridal costume was an outstanding exhibit. Her prize, properly enough, will be another large doll donated by Gordon and Anderson Ltd.

Winner of second prize was Sharon Skinner, whose doll was costumed in red tulle, while third prize awarded to Joanne Shannon Her doll was dressed in red velvet. Lynne Nixon won fourth prize with a bridal costumed doll entry. The prizes, respectively, were a doll bank, donated by Variety Store; a flash light, donated by Northern B.C. Power Co.; and a box of chocolates, donated by Macey's Coffee Shop.

Empire Youth Day Set Sunday, May 9

Westminster Abbey Service Will Again Highlight Observances

TORONTO, (C)—May 9 has this year been designated as Empire Youth Sunday, the day when the young people throughout Canada, the Commonwealth and Empire are reminded of the ideals of the Empire Youth Movement.

Following the practice of previous observances, a special service will be held in Westminster Abbey, with the King and Queen and Princess Margaret attending.

The Empire Youth Movement founded in 1938 by Major F. J. Ney of the National Council of Education of Canada, is dedicated to spreading among young people the ideals of Christian ethics and medieval chivalry which have sustained the Empire in the past.

Originating in Canada, the movement spread widely. In the last few years, Major Ney has toured Australia, New Zealand, Africa, Abyssinia and the Middle East. The service recommended for us in churches in Canada this year and distributed by the Movement, was used in Australian churches on Youth Sunday, 1947.

COLORFUL NAMES ABOUND IN GASPE
Weeping Cove and Others Recall Old Legends
DOUGLASTOWN, Que., (C)—Of picturesque names, the little fishing settlements along the northern region of Quebec's Gaspé Peninsula claim an abundance. They reach back into colorful legends of mystery, tradition and history.

You have only to consider such villages as these:

Anse Pleureuse (Weeping Cove), Manche-d'Epee (Sword Handle), St. Maurice-de-l'Echouerie (St. Maurice of the Stranding) and Cap-Aux-Os (Cape of Bones).

Anse Pleureuse is a settlement of little importance except perhaps for the way it got its name. There was a legend or tradition among the early settlers of mysterious weeping and moaning in the nearby woods.

Then in 1814 a missionary priest, Father Charles-Francois Painchaud exploded the legend. He found two trees, their outline forming a St. Andrew's Cross, had so grown that their trunks pressed against each other. According to the strength and direction of the wind—as well as the listeners' imagination—the rubbing trunks caused sounds like moaning and bawling.

Manche-d'Epee gets its name from the finding, on a rocky coast ledge, of an elaborate hilt of an old rapier dating back to the early days of Canadian history. The region, incidentally, is noted for the great schools of porpoise that swim close to the shores in summer.

L'Echouerie, last part of the name St. Maurice-de-l'Echouerie, might be literally translated as "the place where the boats become stranded." But it was given to the settlement because at low tide the fishing smacks

LICENCE FOR LOCAL WOMAN

Miss Marjorie Simpson of Prince Rupert is the first woman in this part of the province to receive an amateur operator's licence and is one of two members of the Prince Rupert Amateur Radio Club who have been so licenced to operate amateur stations after receiving instruction during the past winter.

Miss Simpson who has her station VETANY at her home on Third Avenue is one of the few women operators in British Columbia.

The other member of the local club to receive a licence is Frank Parlett whose licence is VETANK. He has already contacted several stations in the southern states.

The local radio club had an interesting display at the Arts and Hobby Show here last week.

Experiment stations that have tried this system say the 2,4D, applied to the soil in about the same strength used on the lawn, keeps weeds from growing until the corn is tall enough to shade the ground. Since there is no cultivation, the plants can be grown as close as a foot apart each way. The roots are undisturbed by garden tools, the soil remains loose and porous because the plants prevent rains from beating it down.

If the corn borer is active in your vicinity, when the plants are knee high dust them with five per cent D.D.T. Repeat this in 10 days, as a minimum protection. It is better to dust four times, five days apart.

Seed should be sown as soon as danger of frost is over. If you wish to cultivate, space the rows of early varieties two feet apart, later and taller kinds three feet apart.

A sowing should be made in four short rows rather than in a single row. This insures that when the pollen is ripe, a cross wind will carry it to the silk in the young ears of an adjoining row, rather than wasting it on the ground, as might be the case in a single row. Each silk must

In drills, sow three or four seeds to a foot, later to be thinned out to six inches apart for dwarf growing varieties or a foot apart for tall ones.

Deep cultivation of corn must be avoided because the plants have shallow roots; but all weeds should be kept down and the soil stirred, to break its crust until the plants are half grown. Side shoots and suckers need not be removed.

"Magic Cargo", Strange Cult Breaks Out In South Seas

by Ralph Morton
SYDNEY, Australia, (AP) — All over the South Seas the "Magic Cargo" cult is breaking out on isolated islands, according to travellers reaching here. The religious-political movement is a symptom of unrest among natives. But each outbreak is spontaneous in its own local territory. There is no widespread movement of revolt as far as administrators can determine.

Outbreaks have been reported in New Guinea, Manus, Bougainville and in the Solomons.

In the Solomons, five native leaders of the "Marching Rule" movement, a quasi-Fascist organization, are imprisoned as a result of a rebellion which failed last September.

The "Magic Cargo" cult differs only slightly in different areas. Its adherents believe a ship will come laden with the good things they want. Many of the good things they saw for the first time when United States troops inhabited the islands.

Some say it will be a huge submarine that will bring the manna from Heaven. In inland New Guinea the natives talk of a great tunnel which will open up, through which the goods will flow.

Periodically New Guineans work themselves into a semi-religious frenzy called "valala madness." While they tell and retell the story of the monster ship coming, they build a big house to hold the cargo. Then they dig holes all around the village "for the dead people to come and get their share."

Six months ago the "Marching Rule" movement in the Solomons became so strong and rebellious that the administrators sent in a police force to arrest the ringleaders. H.M.S. Contest was ordered there to show the flag.

IMPACT OF WAR
An official who saw the movement grow to full fury on Malaita in the Solomons said it was "due to the impact of war on a stone-age community."

The Malaitans worked in labor corps on Guadalcanal for the United States Army during the war. They saw colored men getting high wages, and enjoying rides in jeeps, smoking and listening to radios.

War left plantations overgrown. There was no work. The men went back to their villages where women do the work. They listened to native leaders who had "got religion."

Gradually the movement was formed, based on interpretations of the Book of Revelations. Everybody joining had to pay one pound. All would share in the magic cargo.

"The Marching Rule" or "Marching Brotherhood" as it is also called, formed its own militia. They were armed with batons and preached insurrection against the white man, British officials said.

The British administration sent in police from western Solomons with fixed bayonets and arrested five ringleaders. Later a British destroyer and a submarine encircled the island and nearby Guadalcanal and Christoval where there had been similar outbreaks.

Now all is peaceful once more among the 44,000 Malaitans. But the "Marching Rule" is outlawed.

NO FARMER'S HELPERS
KITCHENER, Ont., (C) — No application to leave school early to work on farms has been received at the collegiate here, Principal Walter T. Zeigler said. Applications were received by the score during war years, and in fewer numbers after the war.

READY FOR BUSH FIRES
TIMMINS, Ont., (C) — Rangers are preparing for the 1948 fire hazard season. Hose, pumps, boats and trucks have been overhauled and tower observers are completing preparations to take over their lonely perches within a few weeks.

INJURED DOE FINDS HOME

Fear-Crazed Animal, Chased By Dogs, Broke Leg Twice

ST. CROIX, N.B. (C) — Until last month a pint-size yearling doe was the loneliest creature in all New Brunswick's forests. Since her first timid peep into the border settlement, she has been shot at, chased by dogs, injured and nearly drowned.

But now she is in a sympathetic and knowing hands.

Two farmers, Percy Christie and Bert Smith, watched the yearling as dogs chased her into the St. Croix river one afternoon. In trying to escape she broke her leg.

The farmers pulled her from the stream as she was floundering to keep from going under. Christie took her home, treated the swollen hock and built a pen for her.

Still fear-crazed, the doe tried to scale the wall of her pen during the night, but didn't make it. Christie found her next morning, huddled on the ground with leg broken again.

A veterinary was called in and it looked as if the unlucky fawn would have to be destroyed. But Christie decided to try again.

The doe was anaesthetized and the break set and supported with a splint. She is now able to hobble about, nibbling at food and has quieted down. Christie intends to keep her for a pet.

WIFE OF FORMER POLICE CHIEF DIES IN SOUTH

Mrs. Chris Jacklin, wife of a former police chief at Prince Rupert, died at Victoria on Saturday, according to word received by friends here. She was buried at the capital city today. Mrs. Jacklin was the wife of Sgt. Chris Jacklin of the B.C. provincial police, who was in charge of the city detachment during 1941. She had been ill for several years.

SWANS VISIT NEARBY LAKE

Swans appear to be finding the neighborhood of Prince Rupert an agreeable region to rest or sojourn in. Local residents, driving out the highway Sunday were interested in observing no less than seven of these graceful birds—four large and three small, at a small lake between the city limits and Gallopway Rapids. Swans have been seen around here for years.

BAN ON REDS IS UNLIKELY

KITCHENER, Ont. — The Secretary of State, Colin Gibson announced that of the 78 foreign language papers printed in Canada, 19 are preaching Communism. Mr. Gibson said he could not believe that banning Communism was the true answer, even though they were trying to make new Canadian citizens unfaithful. It should be proven to all groups and classes that the present system is the superior one.

Warns Against Government Power

OTTAWA — Justice F. R. Angers of the Exchequer Court has given warning that uncontrolled use of discretionary powers placed in government officials could lead to dictatorial government in Canada. "There are, in my judgment," he said "far too many encroachments by Ministers, Deputy Ministers and functionaries in the judicial as well as legislative field. If they are not curtailed, Canada may, in a not too remote future, be ruled by a dictatorial government."

NEW BEACON ON BANKS ISLAND

Mariners are advised that a new lighted beacon has been installed at the left-hand entrance to White Rocks Harbor on the north end of Banks Island. It shows a flashing red light and is visible from all points of approach by water.

MONTREAL, (C) — Early risers in Montreal will no longer be offended by the spectacle of garbage cans lining city sidewalks. A new city ruling has instructed garbage collectors to pick up garbage from back yards.

Reminiscences and Reflections

By W.J.

A prospecting outfit, burro, coffee pot, frying pan, flapjacks and all, kept browsing around Third Avenue Saturday afternoon. There has been no word of a strike. There may be, however, should it keep on wandering westward. There is thought to be a prospect in the Park Avenue zone. It might be advisable to thoroughly examine the ground here, and take one's time.

This has nothing to do with Prince Rupert, early days or late days and all that. We merely pass it along. It's just about an officer who, after being overseas fourteen months had a letter from his wife. She told him of a prayer, written by their four-year-old daughter. The child wrote: "Dear Lord," the girl began, "please send me a little baby brother so we will have something to surprise daddy with when he gets home."

Most of us like taking a little chance, and tickets, as a rule are for worthy causes. But did you ever figure out what your likelihood of being a winner amounts to? A college professor, whose name doesn't matter, has. He has struck an average, and finds that if your ticket costs anywhere from four bits to a dollar, you will spend at least a minimum of $20, before anything comes your way.

Special Gesture May Be Made For Visiting Chamber

Prince Rupert merchants may keep their business places open on the evening of June 16 in deference to a large group of Los Angeles visitors.

The visiting group will be members of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and their wives returning from a trip to Alaska on the first voyage of the Canadian National steamer Prince George. They will number 250.

Stores may also be decorated during the visit and taxi drivers will be reminded that a recently passed city bylaw required that fare schedules be posted in a conspicuous place in their vehicles.

A committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce was named last night to contact the Retail Merchants Association with a suggestion that their stores be opened to accommodate the visitors.

Ordinarily, stores are closed Thursday afternoon.

CAN ANYONE BEAT JOE MARTIN'S 26-POUNDER?

Prince Rupert's unofficial salmon derby is on. Monday, the Daily News reported the story of a boy who caught a 20-pound red spring off the government wharf on Sunday, remarking that it probably was the largest to be hooked off a wharfside this season. Joe Martin of 1723 Sixth Avenue East says otherwise.

It seems that Joe has been snagging springs off the Canadian Fish and Cold storage Co. wharf for some time and his largest to date has been 26 pounds. He has caught others ranging down to 16 pounds.

No high-priced gear, either, just an "ordinary line and hook," with herring bait.

Government Ship Dispute Mooted

OTTAWA, (C) — Acting Minister of Resources James A. MacKinnon told Commons Monday that he would inquire into a report that two government hydrographic ships at Victoria are tied up because of a labor dispute. Maj. Gen. G. R. Peakes (P.C.-Nanaimo) had asked whether the reported tie-up of the vessels William T. Stewart and Perry had been caused by refusals of the crews to sign contracts based on last year's wages.

Physical Culture Couple Married

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — About 500 persons were present at the wedding here, of Bernarr McFadden, 70, widely known physical culturist, and Mrs. Jennie Lee, 45, who cut the five-foot high cake made of whole wheat flour and honey. Guests, who shared the newly-weds' health beliefs, sipped carrot juice. Others sipped champagne. McFadden answered his vows in a firm voice but forgot to kiss the bride until reminded by the clergyman.
