New Reefer May Change Style In Shipping Of Perishable Goods

Mechanically-cooled refrigeration, the only one of its kind in Canada—will leave Prince Rupert tonight as part of a trainload of fish and cross-country journey it marks the beginning of a new era in refrigerated transportation.

It is believed that overall cost of operation of a mechanical reefer will be about the same as the ice cars, but greater efficiency may be achieved. This morning, the units sent to the temperature in the car from 59 degrees to 24 degrees in an hour and a half as it was being cooled to receive the fish.

Constant temperatures within the zero range are necessary to preserve frozen fish while in transit. The units are loaded with 30,000 lb. of frozen halibut at the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co. Fairview Bay plant.

The car is designed to receive attention which is of railroad rolling stock. It is a feature of the car is that it can also be used as a heated car with the flick of a switch. By reversing the refrigeration process, the units become heat pumps which take heat from the atmosphere and blow it into the car.

This principle was demonstrated last February when the car was used to ship a load of Okanagan apples to Montreal. Temperature in the car during the whole journey ranged from 32 to 36 degrees, although it was 10 degrees below zero outside.

Interested officials, both of the railway and the Fisheries Research Board will travel with the refrigerator, riding in a tourist pullman, to its destination in Montreal.

A feature of the car is that it can also be used as a heated car with the flick of a switch. By reversing the refrigeration process, the units become heat pumps which take heat from the atmosphere and blow it into the car.

Successful and efficient refrigeration is the only consideration. The railway must be able to maintain a constant temperature of such cars is before it would consider its present cars. The element in the car is known as "freon" and is used in household fridges. There are two units, according to the company, in the general supply of perishable traffic for the company.

Units were developed in the States by the Thermo Co. of Minneapolis, Minn. Cy Dunn, is in charge of them. They are similar to those used by the company in hun- refrigerated trucks in the States. They were installed in the units of the Fisheries Board under direction of Young at Vancouver. Mechanical refrigeration, which is a minimum of five degrees below zero, can be maintained, the lowest tempera-

WAGE DEMANDS BEING STUDIED

Railway Companies Considering Latest Brotherhood Proposal

MONTREAL—N. B. Walton, executive vice-president of the Canadian National Railways, and N. R. Crump, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, said today that the demands received last week from the non-operating railway brotherhoods are being studied. These demands include a reduction in hours of work from forty-eight to forty hours a week, but without reduction in present take home pay, and, in addition, for a further general wage increase of seven cents an hour.

In the case of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees the request for an additional wage increase is ten cents an hour.

Last year all railway employees received a general wage increase of seventeen cents an hour which meant in effect monthly increases amounting to $35.36 and upwards, for the individual employee. This increase is costing the railways over $71,000,000 a year.

The estimated cost to the railways of the new wage increases and to establish a forty-hour week without reduction in present weekly pay would mean a further annual expense to the railways for these same groups of more than $52,000,000 or a total of over $74,000,000.

Youth Served Well In Bout At Chicago Last Night—Jersey Joe Fought Gamely

CHICAGO (CP)—Ezzard Charles, 27-year-old lean, hungry negro from Cincinnati, last night won the National Boxing Association share of Joe Louis' vacated heavyweight boxing championship by a unanimous 15-round decision over 35-year-old Jersey Joe Walcott, ambling fighting pappy from Camden, New Jersey.

The frizzle-topped Charles failed to flatten his ancient foe after having him on the way to a knockout in three rounds. The last three rounds were fought to an accompaniment of boos from the crowd who wanted more action.

Judges Frank McAdams and Harold Maroutz scored the fight the same way, voting for Charles

New Service Inaugurated

Federal Minister, Lady Mayor and Island Industrialist in 'Phone Talk

Inauguration of the new long distance telephone service between Prince Rupert and the Queen Charlotte Islands was officially marked at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon with a three way conversation in which a federal cabinet minister at Victoria, the mayor of Prince Rupert and a Massey industrialist participated.

Mutual greetings were exchanged between Hon. R. W. Mayhew, minister of fisheries, Mayor Nora Arnold and S. L. Simpson, shellfish cannery operator. All expressed gratification over the institution of the service which will prove a boon to carrying on of the increasing business between Prince Rupert and such Island points as Massey, Port Clements, Skidegate and Queen Charlotte City.

Mr. Mayhew expressed the opinion that the service would be of great advantage to the fishing industry in particular and the residents of the Islands in general.

Mrs. Arnold observed that it was a service which had been long awaited and was greatly appreciated.

Mr. Simpson hoped that the service would weld more solidly the business link between the Islands and Prince Rupert. He urged Prince Rupert people to visit the Islands more frequently.

Later there was a conversation along similar lines between Mayor Arnold and W. J. Davies, prominent Queen Charlotte City business man and former Canadian National Telephone manager here.

BASEBALL BOSS AND NEGRO BOY

CHICAGO (CP)—Frank Lane, general manager of the Chicago White Sox baseball club, has been accused of striking a negro youth whom he caught sneaking into the ball park with five white boys. Lane was arrested June 14, it has become known, on a complaint by the negro boy, Edward Wallace, aged 13. He is accused of assault and battery.

It is possible that Charles may meet the winner of the British version of the world's championship between Bruce Woodcock and Leo Savold later in the summer in London.

NEW DESIGN FOR JET-POWERED PLANE—A series of tests are being conducted by U.S. research engineers at Muroc Air Force Base, Calif., with the Consolidated Vultee Model 7002 jet plane. The craft, pictured here from three different angles, was built to prove the design superiority of the delta wing configuration over conventional "sweptback" wing styles. Engineers say the triangular wing offers far less drag and therefore provides greater performance during flights made in the transonic and supersonic speed ranges.

FOODSTUFFS TO BE SHIPPED VIA RUPERT TO INTERIOR OF ALASKA

Transfer to Be Made at Ocean Dock Where Barlow Elevators Are Now Running Again

An experimental shipment of perishable foodstuffs, which may pave the way to a steady traffic, will be made from Prince Rupert tomorrow, bound for Fairbanks, Alaska, via the Haines Cut-off.

The shipment, 19 carloads of vegetables, fruit, meats and other produce, will arrive in Prince Rupert tonight over Canadian National Railways and be loaded into refrigerated trucks aboard a converted landing barge at the ocean dock.

The two Barlow lift elevators at the ocean dock, from which motors were removed after the war, have been put in operation again and will be used in the transfer of the goods. These elevators may also be used for lifting automobiles.

The barge will arrive in Prince Rupert today to await the cargo which will be shipped in refrigerated cars. From Prince Rupert, the barge will go to Haines, Alaska, where the trucks will be unloaded and start a 700-mile run over the Haines Cut-off and Alaska Highway to Fairbanks. They are operated by the Alaska Freight Service.

Purpose of the shipment is to test the feasibility of supplying foodstuffs to Alaska via this route which would cut off almost 1,000 miles of truck haul over

Anchises Was Mistaken For Communist Vessel

SHANGHAI (CP)—Presence of a British sloop off the mouth of the Yangtse River today caused speculation that efforts may be made to run the nationalist blockade of Chinese communist ports. The blockade is due to be clamped down on all Red ports from Foochow northward beginning Sunday.

British sources here were mum on their plans but the sloop Black Swan, damaged only a few days ago by Communist artillery on the Yangtse, was known to be near the river. Meanwhile the Chinese nationalist government has sent an expression of regret to the British government on the machine-gunning and bombing of the British flying a British flag and was believed to be a communist vessel.

CCF AND DEMOCRACY

It may be that you have a very great respect for Socialism of the CCF brand—with its passionate and young awareness of human irregularities and its sincere belief that their cure is legislation, not human self-development. But there is one hitch. Socialism is not Democracy, in which man is called upon to be the agent of his own progress and in which the state is an impartial referee, constituted by the people, neither a contender against individual enterprise nor any more of a protector than is absolutely necessary to save man from social abuses.

Those who aim at socializing industry, production and distribution, and this is the CCF platform, would make it impossible for Government to be such a referee. They wish to substitute political masters instead of business masters in our great industries, and in the basic economy of the country.

There is no way within human nature, by which such a policy widely applied, can avoid ultimate regimentation of the people or a destruction of initiative among the people, as rewards for effort depend, more and more, on governmental paternalism and not on personal competence. There is no way in which it can avoid a decadence, sooner or later, of the state, that finds itself in possession of so much unchallengeable, economic power and monopoly that it need no longer be answerable to the voice of the people.

This is the main reason why Free People oppose the CCF.

The Soviet Reversal

TO UNDERSTAND the reasons and the implications of the astonishing reversal of Soviet policy in Germany one need only look at the facts. Why has the Soviet government decided that there must not, at any rate for the present, be a "democratic all-German government" but only a non-elected "German state council" dealing with "economic and administrative questions" under the "supreme power" of a revived Four Power Control Council?

The first reason is, of course, clearly political. The shock of the recent Soviet zone elections have shown Stalin and his colleagues that a democratic united Germany could not be easily converted into Communist-dominated Germany allying itself politically and economically with the Soviet Union and disassociating itself with Europe. Rather, it was indicated that a united Germany with any freedom of choice would choose association with western Europe and not with the Soviet Union and its satellites. So Moscow now favors a continuance of partition so that the Soviet Union can at any rate still maintain control of the Eastern zone.

Meantime, the Soviet has not been having much economic success in Eastern Germany but, to the contrary, intense economic crisis has developed. The Soviet Union, for all its boasting of economic strength, is in no condition to help eastern Germany or any of its satellites. Even the Chinese Communists are finding that Russia is in no position to help them and, like the Soviet satellite nations of Europe, may have to rebuild economic connections with the west or run the risk of collapse.

That is true also of Eastern Germany. Four years of Soviet administration and exploitation brought the zone to a condition in which it too needs not only trade with the West but help from the West. The relaxation of the two mark currencies is only one symptom of the situation. And it is notable that in Berlin the Soviet negotiations have proposed a currency agreement which would mean in effect the giving of very large West mark credits to the Soviet zone.

The Vishinsky proposal follows logically. There must be a German body representing the "economic organs" of the East and the West. The sentiment of national solidarity in such a body might mean that, through it, the West would provide economic assistance for the East. And it must be under quadripartite control so that the Soviet military governor can impose his veto if the "German Council" shows signs of any independence or of any desire to "interfere" in the economy of the Eastern zone.

In short, the change of the Soviet "line" is the direct result of the failure of both its political and economic policies in Eastern Germany and in Eastern Europe as a whole. That is its real significance.

CONGRATULATIONS, DR. DAGGETT

WE SHOULD congratulate Harry Mark Daggett, jr., who has just won his doctor of philosophy degree, on his fine and so long consistent scholastic attainments which, in comparative youth, have reached this culminating point. His achievements reflect credit not only upon his esteemed pioneer parents but also on this his home community and, to some degree as well, the elementary and High Schools of the city of whose utilities he availed himself as long as possible. Dr. Daggett has proven himself one of Prince Rupert's most distinguished students and the felicitations of ourselves and all his old home town friends are richly deserved. It is a matter of satisfaction to all.

Ray Reflects . . . and Reminisces

Paul Robeson and Joe Louis, colored gentlemen of note, look fondly toward the Soviet. One calls Russia his "true mother country." The other says that in Moscow he can "walk with head erect, unafraid, and sing so sweetly." This is enough to give poor, low down Canucks and Yanks a piercing pain in the epiglottis.

The mothers of fifty British girls who wed Canadian and American soldiers are coming over to see the folks. They figure on a six months' stay. Oh we know there's a housing shortage, and hot weather, and new babies and unemployment and Heaven only knows what else! Son-in-law may scratch a bewildered head, and daughter give him blazes, but, between it all, Mother ought to be squeezed in somehow, somewhere. This much is sure. It is not going to be uninteresting.

Mrs. Emily Bolton, dead in the Naas Valley where she spent all of her ninety years, could have told a tale. Few indeed survive who, in mind's eye, can see the north and as life looked, ninety years ago. The burden of great age was heavy but it could not have so greatly clouded memory. This generation actually knows but little of the past, and those who do, as a rule, become too frail to re-live scenes of other days. The pity of it!

Perhaps Prince Rupert's dismay, not so long ago, when drinking water was chlorinated, was quite uncalled for. Today, the plain truth must be that we did not know what was good for us. Port Alberni would not tolerate it but now, with a gastro-intestinal epidemic, they are glad to welcome a bit of doctoring. For a while Rupert labored under the suspicion that the unwarranted safeguard had given half the population about everything from disappointment in love to housemaid's knee.

Thirty years ago on June 14, John Alcock and Arthur Brown, for the first time in history, flew the Atlantic Ocean. They took off from St. Johns, Newfoundland, and sixteen hours later made a crash landing in a bog, at Clifden in County Galway, Ireland. Their plane was a twin-engine covered bomber, and their prize $40,000 offered by Lord Northcliffe. All three, since then, have died. The Atlantic was not flown again until 1927, when the feat was performed by Charles Lindbergh.

To help defray the expenses of the Terrace Scouts who are going to the Scout Jamboree at Ottawa this summer, a white elephant auction sale, conducted by the First Terrace Scout Association was held outdoors, opposite the police station on Saturday afternoon last. Oliver Baxter was the auctioneer. Business was fairly good but rain halted proceedings and it was decided to postpone the sale until next Saturday afternoon. All the goods for auction had been donated. The C.P.A. is giving free transportation from Prince Rupert to Vancouver to those scouts from this district who are attending the Jamboree at Ottawa. Roy Clifford, Francis Gavan and Aaron Haaland are the local scouts.

Decorated with lupins and buttercups, the blue and gold colors of the club the tables set in the Orange Hall for a banquet on Thursday evening were Returning from a holiday trip to the south, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne with their daughter, Mrs. Pache, and her two children, arrived with another car 25 miles east of Burns Lake as they were rounding a curve on the hill.

Except for a few bruises and badly shaken up, they all escaped injury, but the journey to Terrace had to be completed by taxi as their own car was so badly damaged. They arrived home on Friday evening.

A. M. Campbell of Prince George is in town and is the guest of his brother, Stuart Campbell of Campbell Cabins.

Harvey LeBlanc left on Saturday morning's train for New Brunswick where he will visit his sister.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

SALAD DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN —MUCH IN VOGUE THESE DAYS

The vogue for salads in every-day all-year-round diet is comparatively new, but spring salad made from lettuce or "salad plant" is a very old favorite.

Leaf lettuce, crisp and fresh from the garden, makes the basis of all summer salads although early vegetables may be used with it. Baby onions and small tender radishes are the favorites. The plainest lettuce salad may vary, from simple to elegant, according to the dressing.

There are innumerable ideas on what makes a good salad dressing. Some like it very tart, others prefer a definite salty dressing while many favor a slightly sweet one. Seasonings also vary greatly according to taste. Every homemaker has her special blend that pleases her own family.

The home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture, say that such extra ingredients as, chutney, cheese, minced onion, chopped celery, chili sauce, minced chives, catsup, curry powder or horseradish, to the standard dressing will make it seem entirely different and new.

Here are several good, standard salad dressings. Try your own variations. Make a salad today and everyday all summer. No salad is better than its dressing.

French Dressing

1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons sugar
½ teaspoon paprika

½ cup vinegar

1 cup salad oil

Mix salt, sugar and paprika in a sealer. Add vinegar and oil. Seal the sealer and shake well. Keep in a cool place. Shake well each time before using. Yield: 1½ cups.

Variations: To ½ cup of dressing add one of the following and blend thoroughly.

1. 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2. 2 tablespoons minced green onion tops or chives
3. 1 hard-cooked egg, chopped
4. 3 tablespoons peanut butter
5. ¼ cup tomato catsup or chili sauce
6. ½ teaspoon dry mustard

Tomato Bacon Dressing

3 slices bacon

There's only one roof
for our money!

Genuine DUROID

Here's Why

Paying for a house is tough enough, without fixing it as you go along. Our roof is DUROID—and it hasn't cost a cent for painting or repair.

In the beginning—we had a 66 foot lot, a little money and a big desire. Knowing that long years of payments lay ahead, we wanted our home to be worth owning by the time we'd paid in full.

Our contractor said, "DUROID will last."

Our friends said, "DUROID is bright and colorful."

And our uncle who loaned us some money said, "DUROID is a good buy."

They were all right! We've made the last payment and our roof is as good as new.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove scratches from silver?

A. Purchase a small quantity of putty powder, put it into a saucer and add just enough olive oil to make a paste. Rub this paste on the silver with a soft cloth, then polish with a chamois and the scratches will disappear.

Q. How can I prevent having lumps of flour when mixing batter?

A. By adding the salt to the flour before wetting. By pouring flour into the liquid, instead of liquid into the flour, and beating it with a fork.

Q. How can I remove spots from hardwood floors that were caused by spilled water?

A. Rub with a cloth dipped in turpentine, using a regular motion. Then dry with another clean cloth.

Rats, Sex At P.T. Meeting

Local Council In Regular Session—Would Educate Officers

A report on the national Canadian Home and School convention which was held in Vancouver May 30 to June 4 was presented to the Prince Rupert Parent-Teachers' Council at its final meeting for the 1948-49 season on Monday evening, by Mrs. E. W. Becker, who had acted as the P.T.A. delegate from Northern British Columbia. According to Mrs. Becker's report, the organization is endeavouring to coordinate the constitutions and instructional handbooks of the P.T.A.'s and Home and School organizations in all the provinces, taking the best from each in order to make one constitution and one Handbook for all Canada, instead of each province having its own as now.

The meeting voted to send a letter of thanks to Miss Jean Urquhart, Prince Rupert delegate to the B.C. Federation convention held in Vancouver in April, for having practiced utmost economy in keeping down her expenses, which were paid by the city's four P.T.A.'s.

Council President, J. C. Gilker, who is head of Council's committee on the city's rat menace, reported that his committee is still working with the City Board of Health and the provincial government toward rat elimination here. He urged each P.T.A. to impress on its members the importance of proper care of garbage cans so that not a particle of waste is left about for rat food. That, he said, is the first step in eliminating the rats. Council voted that a letter be written by the City Council urging once more that a playground crossing sign be placed at the top of Sixth Avenue and Donald Street, an extremely dangerous corner for school children. It was also suggested that a patrol be placed there during the next school year to ensure the school children's safety.

Council decided that, when new officers were elected for the four P.T.A.'s next term, a school of instruction be held to acquaint the new officers in their duties. For this purpose, the first P.T. Council meeting in September has been set aside as an induction and procedure night.

It was reported at the meeting that efforts were being made to establish a course in sex education in the local High School this coming term, complete with a film. Council members decided to obtain if possible a preview showing of the film for themselves so that they may be certain of its suitability.

It was also reported that preparations are under way to obtain a vocational course in fishing and navigation for the local High School for the coming term.

Although Council representations to the School Board with regard to the establishment of kindergartens here had been favorably received, it was reported, nothing can be done about it before September as had been hoped. In the meantime, efforts to obtain the kindergartens will continue.

Aid to Home Builders

Over 300,000 dwellings have been built since the war. More homes have been built in Canada, in proportion to population, than in any other country; and more were built last year than at any time in our history.

In Vancouver over 17,371 units have been built between 1945 and 1948.

Since the war, more housing units have been built per capita in British Columbia than in any other Province in Canada.

GRADUATION AT MASSET

Exercises at High School of Much Interest

MASSET—After being open for only two years, Masset High School held graduation exercises last Friday, for a class of five young ladies.

Speakers expressed pride in the achievement of the pupils and paid high tribute to the untiring efforts of H. R. Frost, for many years a school trustee and largely responsible for the establishment of the high school. Rev. Canon B. S. Procter flew over from Prince Rupert to address the graduates. Other speakers included the principal, Norman Green; Mrs. Sam Simpson representing the school trustees; A. Holland, for the parents, and Ed. Constantineau, vice-president of the Community Club.

Pearl Wylie, of the graduating class, acted as chairman and Doris Anderson gave a splendid valedictory. Other graduates were Barbara Holland, Marion Anderson and Yvonne Lindsay.

A short musical program followed, most of the artists being students of the High School. Rufus Abrahams, jr., a native student, scored a hit with two classical saxophone solos—"Nocturne" by Chopin, and "Elegie," by Massenet. He was accompanied by Mr. Green. Other items were two pianoforte duets by Jocelyn Simpson and Ann Stewart-Burton, two piano duets by Ann Stewart-Burton, and two violin solos by Howard Phillips, accompanied by Miss Mary Dalzell.

The graduates sang two songs entitled "Now is the Hour," "Time May Change."

After the program refreshments were served by the members of the Parent-Teachers' Association.

The evening concluded with an enjoyable dance to music supplied by Maurice Mercer.

INDO-RUSSIAN TRADE
NEW DELHI 6—Nearly 200,000 tons of wheat and 20,000 tons of corn are expected to arrive in India from Russia by the end of July, under the terms of the Indo-Russian agreement signed in March 1949. In exchange Russia will receive 20,000 tons of raw jute and 7,000 tons of tea from India.

be billeted in the members' homes and will proceed to the camp later in the morning, with the Terrace girls.

Accompanied by Mrs. Clifford and Mrs. Michel, Miss Silversides drove out to Lakelse on Friday evening to inspect the camp. On Saturday afternoon she inspected the local Girl Guides.

ARRANGES FOR GUIDES' CAMP

TERRACE—Miss Honora Silversides spent two days in Terrace as the guest of Mrs. Head. As Girl Guide Commissioner for the district she attended a meeting of the Girl Guide Association on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Duncan Kerr and discussed with them plans for the girls' camp to be held at the Kinsmen's Kiddie Camp at Lakelse Lake from July 5-15. So far, 10 girls from Terrace and 14 from Prince Rupert will be attending this camp.

Miss Silversides will be the camp commandant and two guides will be coming with her from Prince Rupert. Mrs. McIlroy and Mrs. Clifford will look after the Terrace girls.

Transportation for the girls, their kit and supplies will be provided by the local association.

The Prince Rupert Guides, who will arrive by train early on Tuesday morning, July 5, will Bobbie Engleke.

Bathing suits were modelled by Curley Casey, Joe Schultzie, Fred Kenney, and Charles Adam who was superb in black. Paysuits were shown by "Doc" Calder, Jim Smith, Jim Stevenson, Oliver Baxter, Fred Smith, and Don Parmenter, and the housecoats by Otto vanBarnaveld, D. Parmenter, Jim Smith. Gorgeous in turquoise and black lounging pyjamas was Doc Calder and Harry Philip wore red and black silk.

Models for the house dresses were Harry Philip, Charles Adam, Curley Casey and Herman Engleke.

Then followed a parade of chic afternoon dresses, coats and suits and beautiful evening gowns. Models for these were, Don Parmenter, O. Baxter, F. Smith, G. Adam, C. J. Norrington, J. Maxted, J. Stevenson, J. Schultzie, H. Engleke, H. Philip, Doc Calder, Fred Smith, H. Spencer and F. Kerby. An amusing skit on the ladies was presented by Jim Smith and his bridge playing gossip guests.

No fashion show would be complete without a bride in traditional veil and gown and Otto van Barnaveld played the part of a very shy bride. There was the nervous bridesmaid (Harry Philip), in blue, and two cherubic flower girls, John and Robbie Engleke, and, of course the weeping mother (Oliver Baxter).

Musical items between each fashion display were very much enjoyed and contributed greatly to the success of the whole entertainment. Clarence Baker sang cowboy songs and played his guitar.

A trio of guitars, played by Ronnie Paulson, Gerald Toop and Bobby Bissonnette, with Jimmy Procter singing "Lavender Blue" and playing his piccolo, drew great applause.

Mr. Procter put on a fire eating act which was a great success. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. C. de Kergommeaux and Ivy Gillespie and pianoforte solos by Constable Brue and Rev. P. Mallet. Lorna Melvin was the evening's accompanist.

Following a parade of the models, the handsome prize of the latest model in cars (in miniature) was presented to Doc Calder as the popularity prize winner.

A piece of Terrace property (3 strawberry plants in a box of dirt) was presented to C. Adam, Waltzing Matilda. Judges were Dr. McGilvery and George Martin. Mr. McDonald, president of the Y-ettes thanked all for coming. Mr. Adam for the use of his theatre, the ticket sellers, Marilyn deKergommeaux, Herbert Frandell and Anita Brue.

Home made candy was on sale at the door in charge of Mrs. Gordon Haugland.

Miss Ina Smith was in the ticket office.

The proceeds go towards the building of the United Church to replace the one badly damaged by fire last January.

Terrace Scores Big Hit

TERRACE — Models with enormous figures, tall and slender, short and stout, young and otherwise, in feminine styles on all occasions and ages, paraded before a delighted audience at the Terrace Theatre when the Y-ettes of the Knox Church staged a fashion show, the like of which has never before been seen in Terrace. All the models were males. It was an evening of riotous fun from beginning to end.

Emulating May West, George McAdams, in a black satin skirt, white embroidered satin blouse and a hat "out of this world," and whose high-heeled shoes had to be discarded long before the evening was advanced at all, kept the audience keyed up to a high pitch of expectation with his quips and frank introduction of each item on the program.

The show got off to a good start with a pleasing pianoforte solo by Flora Melvin, followed by the twins, Patsy and Petunia (Curley Casey and Mel PeekeVout). These two chubby "Babies" were in short white dresses with pink sashes and bonnets and their temperaments were the despair of their nurse (Herbert Spencer) in white cap and apron.

Girls' sunsuits, dresses and coats were modelled by the young fry, Denis Martin Brian Finlayson, Dan McIlroy, Lloyd and Dan McLeod, John and

THEY ALL PLAYED AT ONCE—This unusual scene shows 300 children playing piano composition simultaneously during the largest annual Michigan music festival in history. With participants drawn from a radius of 50 miles of Detroit, the massive number was the first of its kind to be played since the war.

ALASKA BEARS CLAIM PARTIAL VICTORY OVER U.S. HUNTERS

Peace has settled down again on Admiralty Island near Sitka and the brown Alaska bear population is mourning two of its departed brethren whose thick pelts will grace the floors of homes in San Francisco and New York State.

For sundry other bears, the mourning will be more personal. They—if they survived—carry copious quantities of lead in their anatomy which will slow them up for years to come. The hunters are equally mournful that they managed to remain at large.

The group of hunters, four in number, arrived at Prince Rupert Wednesday afternoon aboard the American Can Co.
boat Cancolin II, on which they spent the last 10 days in the area around Juneau and Sitka bear hunting and fishing. The bear hunting, although not universally satisfactory, proved better than the fishing.

The quartet consisted of William C. Stolk, of Mount Kisco, New York, executive vice-president of American Can Co. Edward Martin, an executive of the Babcock-Wilcox industrial-equipment company,
also of Mount Kisco, H. V.
Huffard, director of purchases,
Union Carbide and Carbon Co., of Darien, Connecticut, and Frederick Fike, San Francisco lawyer.

Everybody, it seemed, had a fine time bawling away at the bear which are prevalent on Admiralty Island. But such large, virile creatures are they—some weigh up to 1,500 pounds and dominate the famed Kodiak grizzlies—that at least four of them refused to die when shot.
Instead, they wandered into the wilderness and were lost.

Mr. Martin and Mr. Fiske carried home the trophies, the pelts of two 900-pounders who dropped before they got deep into the rough bush.

All the hunters agreed that the magnificent stamina of an Alaska brown bear makes it possible for the bear to travel great distances after being hit in a vital spot.

Mr. Stolk told of putting four shots from a 30.06 calibre gun into normally vital parts of one bear's carcass, after which his guide hit the animal with a fifth shot—only to see it disappear into the bush.

Mr. Huffard had an almost parallel experience.

To attempt to follow a wounded bear, even though he is near death, is to court suicide, the hunters said. The Alaska bear country is rich with stories about crippled and deceased hunters who paid for over-eagerness with their lives.

Mr. Huffard's most doleful refrain, however, was over his inability to catch any western fish, with the exception of a couple of flounders he snagged the other day at Ketchikan while travelling with Mayor Bob Ellis.

"I went up there filled with the idea that I would have to fight off the trout and salmon," said Mr. Huffard who has some renewed as a trout man in eastern streams. "So far, I have seen two small trout which somebody else caught."

However, he was mildly charitable about it. He blamed it onto the rain which persisted without let-up for the full 10 days they were in the territory.

The four, who flew from Seattle to Juneau where they joined the Cancolin II, planned to fly south today by C.P.A.

LINE-UP NAMED FOR KETCHIKAN BALL SERIES

City baseball league is literally snowed under with invitations for out-of-town tournaments on July 1 but the executive decided last night that plans for the classic Ketchikan series will be completed.

The plan calls for a doubleheader here on July 1 with return games at Ketchikan on July 3 and 4. The team will fly to Ketchikan for the second half of the series.

Terrace and Smithers also have put in bids for a Prince Rupert all-star team to play at their respective towns on July 1 but, because of the Ketchikan series, it cannot be done.
However, a junior all-star team may go to Terrace and a second-string team from the city league to Smithers.

Line-up for the Ketchikan series has been named: Manager, Alex Bill; pitchers, Letourneau, Lindsay, Rosedale; infield, Dunbar, Dahl, Bruce Si-mundsen, Windle, Arney; outfield, Pavlikis, Minor Simundson, Cornwall; catchers, Morgan and Abel.

Underworld Drama At Capitol Theatre

Excitement in "T-Men"—
Spicy Comedy Too

A powerful drama revealing the dangers of the work of United States Department of the Treasury operators and a spicy comedy-romance are combined in an entertaining double bill which commenced at the Capitol Theatre last night will be repeated tonight.

"T-Men," starring Dennis O'- Keefe, is based on a compilation of three actual cases from the files of the Treasury Department. The film details the operations of a pair of "T" men who go under cover to track down a nation-wide counterfeit ring. The picture was actually filmed in such cities as Washington, New York, Chicago, Boston, Montreal and Detroit. It is a shock-filled expose of the underworld at work.

George Brent, Virginia Mayo, Tuhiran Bey, Ann Dvorak and Carol Landis are the stars of the romantic comedy, "Out of the Blue."
