New Chance For Russia To End Blockade

Western Powers Going Forward With Alliance

(CP)—Foreign Ministers of Great Britain, United States and France have offered new opportunity to end the Berlin blockade. The six-power compromise which was adopted on Monday in the United Nations Security Council. They announced in a joint communique that they intended to leave the Berlin question on the security council agenda.

Meantime, the five foreign ministers of the Brussels alliance announced Tuesday night that they were asking the United States for a North Atlantic defence pact. A communique, at the end of a two-day session, said that the foreign ministers of Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg had agreed to instruct their ambassadors in Washington to take up the project in the near future.

PAYROLL BOND BUYING IS UP

But General Public Subscriptions to Canada Savings Lagging

OTTAWA—Officials here express confidence that, when all internal canvasses are completed, total sales of Series Three Canadian Savings Bonds by the payroll savings plan will surpass last year's total of $109,000,000. This is true in British Columbia where all payroll companies reporting so far are in excess of last year's subscriptions.

For Canada 275,956 individual orders total $57,176,900 as compared with 246,911 orders for $48,319,550 at the same time in the Series Two offering last year.

The average employee application through payroll savings is $207 compared with $195 in the last issue.

Purchases of railway employees are over $4,000,000 ahead of the last issue with total bond buying to date of $10,948,600 while purchases of the armed forces are nearly one million dollars ahead of last year with $4,728,000.

Bond buying by the general public is lagging. Only 62,694 orders for $32,987,000 have been placed with banks and investment houses compared with 94,621 for $52,243,150 in Series Two at a comparable period.

QUESTIONED BY POLICE—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith of Summerville in York Township were questioned by provincial police early Friday in connection with the case of Gordon Kelly, 19-year old boy found in an emaciated condition in a Toronto suburb Wednesday night. The boy told police he had been held a prisoner for the past year in the home of a couple who police have identified as Mr. and Mrs. Smith, shown here. ### Storm Is Blustery

But No Serious Damage in Long Gale—42 Miles Per Hour

There was plenty of zip and dash to the night-long wind-storm but for the most part it was mainly bluster. It did rip a piece of roofing from the roof of the Canadian National Rail- ways freight shed and turned Rance and Hardy's store sign up under the supporting cable but, so far, no extensive damage has been reported.

Peak of the gale, according to the Dominion Weather Station at Digby Island, was between the hours of 1 and 2 a.m. when the southeastern roared across the harbor at the speed of 42 miles per hour.

During the night and early hours of the morning very little rain fell but between 9 and 10 this morning, a downpour, accompanied by mighty gusts of wind, caused pedestrians to wish they were home by the fireside.

Capt. E. B. Caldwell of the Prince George reported that the wind didn't bother the ship at all on the way up coast, but, with the full force of the gale striking the vessel broadside, it took more than half an hour jockeying with propellers and lines to place her at her berth alongside the dock this morning.

CHURCHILL IS NOT TOO OLD

Lord Beaverbrook in Victoria After Vancouver Visit

VANCOUVER—Lord Beaverbrook 69, smart and dapper in a trim-looking blue suit, left today for Victoria after his first visit here since 1909.

Then, it was his business to sell the Stave Lake power project to the B.C. Electric.

To an interviewer, he spoke quickly, directly, said something each time, and with conviction.

"Next election the Socialists will be beaten," he declared.

"Governments are born to die. Churchill will be Prime Minister. He's only 75—or will be, election year. Gladstone was 84 when he formed his last government."

He touched on political strategy, remarking it was never wise for an opposition to form a policy.

"The Conservatives in Britain," he said, "have no policy with which to charm the masses but they have a tradition."

Coming back to Canada, and dilating on what appears to be ahead, he commented:

"Sir Wilfred Laurier was right. The 20th century belongs to Canada. And what a century, so far. Bigger wars and more wars."

PROBLEM OF OLDER MEN

VANCOUVER—The city council policy to the effect that no man more than 40 years old be given employment has been severely criticized.

"These young-old men," declared Ald. J. D. Cornett, "should be allowed to apply for any city post." He feared, further, that too many business firms are following the city's example and barring fresh employment to older men.

The acting mayor, G. C. Miller, admitted he was worried over the situation. It was impossible to build a retiring fund in less than 25 to 30 years and this precluded the employment of men beyond 40. There are now about 400 men on the city payroll too old to benefit through the Superannuation Act.

Jews are Not Withdrawing

TEL AVIV —It was learned reliably today that the Israeli government today notified the United Nations it is rejecting the United Nations mediator's order that Jewish forces withdraw from newly won control positions in the Negev area of southern Palestine.

The reply said that the Jews were willing to negotiate but will not withdraw from Negev without negotiation.

Leftists Win Youth's Cream

Junior Chamber of Commerce President Urges Canadian Chamber to Sell Wares

VANCOUVER, B.C. — P. T. R. Pugsley of Montreal, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Canada, told the nineteenth meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce that the cream of Canada's youth was being lost to communists and socialists. He credited leftist groups with "clever advertising and propaganda." He said: "While communists and left wing socialists have worked day and night for years to advertise and sell the form of serfdom they believe will bring the millennium, Canadian business spent only a pittance on advertising and selling its way of life."

Five hundred delegates, top industrialists, assembled at the three-day convention, have whirled into action. The men represent 570 senior chambers and boards of trade and their 80,000 members.

Dr. R. G. Large is representing the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce of which he is president.

Two State Groups Are Important Vote Factor

Truman's Popularity Wanes In Deep South As Democrats Rally to Strom Thurmond

By CLYDE BLACKBURN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON—The political "dopesters" claim it will be possible to gauge the result of the November 2 presidential election from early returns from two groups of states:

1. The "Big Five": New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California — which have the largest vote in the electoral college; and

2. The one-time "Solid South" where rebellious Democrats led by Governor Strom Thurmond of South Carolina are fighting President Truman because of his policy of equal treatment for negroes and whites.

New York has 47 electoral votes, Pennsylvania 35, Illinois 28, Ohio and California 25 each, for a total of 160. That is more than half the 266 votes a candidate needs to ensure election. By tradition, the party with a plurality of any state's popular vote gets all the electoral votes of that state.

The southern states which have been traditionally Democratic since Republican President Abraham Lincoln freed the slaves are Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas. They have 127 electoral college votes. Governor Thurmond is expected to win several Democratic votes.

President Truman is counting on similar support from the industrial states and, as an old farm boy and leader of an administration under which farmers have prospered as never before, he hopes to get a large farm vote.

Thurmond's "Dixiecrats" are certain to cut deeply into Democratic support in the south and the new Progressive Party of Henry Wallace is expected to take perhaps 2,000,000 Democratic votes.

There were a few raised eyebrows in the city council chamber last Monday night when Alderman George Casey offered praises to Colonel George Drew as a champion of greater autonomy for local governments and cited him as possibly the next Prime Minister of Canada.

The elevated eyebrows weren't directed at Colonel Drew; his position is well-known. The wonderment arose because Alderman Casey, who has long been considered a liberal among Liberals, should choose the head of the Conservative party as the target for his praise.

On The Side

... by H. S.

If you have a secret ambition to be the chief magistrate of Prince Rupert and believe color systems have any bearing on human destinies, tickle fate's fancy by making sure black is the color in front of your 'phone number.

But if you covet only an alderman's chair tie your star to a green number. Five of the present aldermen have green before their 'phone numbers. If you happen to have Irish blood in your veins, so much the better. The "green" aldermen are George Casey, T. B. Black, J. R. Morin, George Rudderham and Robert McKay.

Blue, being a sort of second cousin to green, may account for Alderman A. S. Nickerson and W. F. Stone being in the civic spotlight with a blue number. The only red 'phone number on the city council is Alderman Arthur Brooksbank. Mayor Nora Arnold has the only black number.

Of course the city council color system may resemble a rainbow after the next civic election and completely explode this theory that green is the favorite color of destiny when it comes to the business of selecting the city fathers.

City Delegation Off to Vancouver

To attend the annual convention of the Union of B.C. Municipalities tomorrow as well as a conference with Hon. R. C. MacDonald, minister of municipalities on city financial matters, Mayor Nora Arnold, City Clerk H. D. Thain and Ald. T. B. Black left by plane this afternoon for Vancouver. Mr. Thain and Mr. Black are expected back on Friday's plane while Mrs. Arnold plans to return Sunday night on the Camosun.

In the city council room or at least they were the subject of discussion some weeks ago but, when it comes to nuisance noises, dogs haven't much on horn blasting taxis.

Some may remember—way back—when it was customary for drivers to make a personal appearance at the door of the residence from which the call originated. That custom may never come back but it certainly was better than the one now in vogue. The blare of the horn in the middle of the night may not be too disturbing to healthy adults but to those who are ill or to children, the sound is startling and irritating.

Charles Youngman returned this morning on the Prince George from a trip to Vancouver.

Turn-Out of Twenty-Five at Class Last Evening in Civic Centre

Twenty-five persons desirous of acquiring more knowledge of the fine points of the bridge game turned out at the Civic Centre last night to give a new lease of life to the classes being conducted by Garnet A. Hull. Mr. Hull expounded for an hour and a half on the Culbertson system, the lesson being principally on the evaluation of honor cards for initiatory and responsible bidding of hands. After the instruction period, example hands were played. On Friday night there will be the weekly bridge party at the Civic Centre.

Haines Road to Be Open This Winter

According to Shipping News, there is said to be a likelihood of the Haines Road being, for the first time, kept open this winter. In Vancouver, it is being declared that the Haines Road is a more desirable route from British Columbia to Whitehorse, than via the railway from Skagway. A trucking concern links at Haines with the British Columbia Steamships service.

What's New at CIVIC CENTRE

When R. G. Moore read the statement in Tuesday's paper that there would not be a movie for the younger members of the Civic Centre on Thursday of this week he promptly came to the rescue and offered those which he had on hand at the public school.

The titles of these films are "New Zealand" and "Safety First" and should prove of interest to those attending. The adult movie will follow the junior program and will feature an unusually interesting industrial film dealing in sound and color with the creation of nylon stockings. This film is on loan from the National Film Council and will be here for the next two weeks.

For some time the Civic Centre has been aware of the need of a leathercraft group for those between the ages of 10 and 12. With the present program running smoothly, a time has been arranged for this class on Tuesday afternoons. This will begin on November 2 and will be for Civic Centre members between the stated ages. Because of the intricacy of this work, it is felt that the younger junior members would find this too difficult and should take advantage of the woodwork and doll dress-making courses available to them.

POOR FATHER WAS STRANDED

Magazine Tells of Plight of Prince Rupert Family Head

A Prince Rupert family lit a roaring blaze in the living room fireplace and prepared to enjoy a recent blustery fall Sunday afternoon to the fullest, when a splatter of rain sent father bounding out of his overstuffed chair. That leak in the roof around the chimney was still unrepaired, he declared, and must be made good before any more rain fell. Doing a quick change to old clothes he disappeared out of the door and could presently be heard pounding away up above while his sympathetic family snuggled closer to the fireplace below.

As the afternoon wore on the pounding only grew heavier. Finally dinner-time came and the younger generation were making scornful remarks like, "Dad's had time to put a whole new roof on and still he's banging away up there." Just then the telephone rang, a neighbor calling to say, "I think you'd better go out and rescue your father—the wind must have blown the ladder over and he seems to be stranded up there on the roof."

He'd been stuck there for a couple of hours, as a matter of fact, and nearly caved the roof in trying to attract attention, but do you think anybody in that family of his would pay any attention?—Maclean's Magazine.

FILM COUNCIL NEEDING FUNDS

When the Prince Rupert Film Council was organized last year it was given permission to use the projectors and equipment of the National Film Board for the period of one year. At the end of that time the Board felt that the council should be in position to acquire its own equipment. The time has now expired and now the council is faced with raising a fund of $700 to purchase equipment.

Like so many community organizations, the council has done a great deal of good work in the city but it has not grown rich in the process. Recently group membership fees were raised from $2.50 to $5 but the increase has not gone far in building a fund for equipment.

As the fees collected from member organizations is the council's only source of revenue, it is now appealing for public support so that it may continue to carry on its work in the community. Circulars have been sent business firms in the area and a check for $25 received yesterday from Nelson Bros. Limited, one of the first responses.

AFRICAN PICTURES SEEN AT CITADEL

More than 50 people were present at the Salvation Army Citadel last Friday evening when Major W. Yurgensen presented 260 projected pictures and delivered a travelogue on East Africa missions. Most of the pictures were taken by Major Yurgensen during his 15 years of service in that part of Africa. As the pictures were cast on the screen, Major Yurgensen was able to present a graphic description of the conditions relative to the situation and to supply background information to the subjects portrayed by the projector.

Slump In Herring Demand—Alaska Vessels In Port—Salmon Rush Here Nearing End

Cannery officials say there has been a decided slump in herring demands following this fall and unless a rapid change sets in, it will mean idle plants until spring. Recent seasons have been busy enough. Last year about 1,200 tons were caught. This year, the run will shortly be due in the Gulf Islands and will last for months. The report is made that any processing this season will be by fertilizer plants or those plants fitted with oil reduction equipment.

Two southeastern Alaska packers—the Sydney and Tolstoy—were in port yesterday with fish for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways. The Sydney had frozen fish and the Tolstoy canned salmon.

Because of their services in the noted voyage from Halifax to Vancouver in 1944 aboard the R.C.M.P. Arctic patrol vessel St. Roch, three members of the crew and a former shipmate were honored at a ceremony in Vancouver a few days ago. All were decorated with the Polar Medal. The presentations were made by Superintendent J. Healey, R.C.M.P. The St. Roch passed across the Arctic by the Northwest Passage.

The recent increase in wages granted Canadian Seamen's Union gives deckhands $137.50, and $145 to cooks. The new arrangement will cost operators an estimated $48,000 in retroactive pay.

Survey work off Banks Island in Hecate Strait by the Dominion hydrographic vessel C.G.S. W. J. Stewart, has been completed. Formerly, this coastline remained uncharted. The survey results will be used in drawing up new charts of this part of the British Columbia coast.

The steamer Alaska Prince has had a busy summer freighting supplies into Taku River for mining concerns, more particularly the Polaris-Taku Mining Co. This company operates shallow draft barges on the river, and freights goods from the Alaska Prince, lying off the river mouth, up some thirty miles, this being done by tug and barge. The mine operates throughout the winter season.

The canned salmon from Alaska rush that brought busy days and night at the ocean dock in Prince Rupert appear to be about over. There were longshore crews that worked practically around the clock. Boats were to be seen in the harbor, awaiting turn. It was big business for the railway. One day no fewer than 49 empty cars were noted on the railway line. All were enroute back to Prince Rupert, being needed.

Black codging and flat fishing, with each line employing some six or seven boats, are about the only pursuits going on out of this port in these doldrum days for the fishing season. One of the larger vessels of the cod fleet is Capt. Pete Parkvold's Takla which has been in northern waters some weeks. The Western Fisher, Capt. Hobbs, is among the vessels engaged in flat fish dragging. Most of the vessels are operating fairly close to Prince Rupert.

Seine salmon from the Johnson Straits area between northern Vancouver Island and the mainland is being delivered periodically by packers to the Atlin Fisheries, B.C. Packers and Co-operative plants here.

Returning at 5:40 yesterday afternoon from her regular voyage to Port Simpson, Alice Arm and Stewart, Union steamer: Cardena, Capt. William McCombe, remained here until 2:30 this morning loading cargo including frozen fish, 5,000 cases of canned salmon from the ocean dock for Vancouver and general supplies for the native village of Hartley Bay down the coast. The vessel took a good-sized list of passengers from here to Vancouver.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. P. L. Leslie, is due in port at 5 o'clock this afternoon from Skagway and other Alaska ports and will sail at 6:30 p.m. in continuation of her regular voyage to Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, (C)—Civic scorn is being showered on Vancouver bus passengers who spread litter at residential bus stops and push and shove to board buses. Complaints were heard from two aldermen as city council discussed the question.

Air Travel Made Safe

T.C.A. Official Suggests Passengers Not Be Impatient

MONTREAL—No form of transportation is more carefully regulated than is aviation. Few realize how important those regulations are in advancing the safety of air operations, said G. R. McGregor, president of TransCanada Air Lines, in an address here Monday night before the Fossils Club of Montreal, an association of young business men.

"The government and the airline operators have imposed many restrictions which have brought the scheduled airlines a high degree of efficiency and safety," said Mr. McGregor. "Government bodies first regulate the design and manufacture of aircraft and then demand its inspection and examination under operating conditions which it will never have to face again. Eventually the aircraft is licensed but with many restrictions regarding weight, speeds, landing gear, landing practices, take-off procedures, weather conditions and other operational features to govern it in commercial service. These are followed by company regulations regarding weight, alternative routing, fuel capacity, pilot and crew training, ceiling and visibility limits and other rules to give a margin of safety over and above the licensing specifications. These are all laid down to protect the health and future of air transportation and a better public understanding of them would dispel much of the impatience and qualms of passengers."

Mr. McGregor stressed the importance of a public awareness of the interdependency of military and civilian aviation. "The relationship between the two branches of aviation make it a national necessity to consider the needs of both in either long or short term planning," he said. "An adequate force of military type aircraft, for instance, is essential to defence in this air age. This is a vast, but necessary, expense even in a peace-loving nation. There are, however, great economies to be realized without sacrifice to security if a country's civil aviation industry is highly developed during peace time."

Mr. McGregor said that the experience of the last war proved the effectiveness of being able to introduce civilian transport planes into military operations. By the same token, he said, the use of undefended transport aircraft would have been impossible over huge areas of the globe if distinctly military type planes had not denied the air over those areas to the enemy.

WHEN YOU BUY A WATCH

Keep this in mind—you mustn't expect something "high grade" unless you pay a price.

By a "decent price" we don't mean that really must pay a lot of money.

Watches haven't advanced as much as of other things.

At least ours haven't—we bought the of our stock quite a while ago.

Railroad watches have actually been selling low as before the war.

But for a reliable watch it isn't safe below $30.00 to $40.00.

If you come here that much will get you watch good for 15 to 20 years.

If you've been thinking of watches a little bit, it's time you called on us.
