Serious Emergency

UNLESS THERE IS A CHANGE in the dry cold weather conditions, Prince Rupert will be without power and water inside a month, city council was told last night. Unless there is curtailment of consumption of both water and power there could be an absence of both within sixteen days. It does not take much imagination to conjure up the calamity it would be if there was neither power or water. The city would almost be uninhabitable and a damage of major proportions would inevitably ensue. Should fire or some such catastrophe occur we would be helpless and the community would be wiped out. We would lose everything and would suffer irreparably. It would be death and disaster.

The mayor has been given special authority to watch the situation vigilantly and to take such measures as are necessary to meet the emergency—current and potential. It should be unnecessary, of course, to suggest to all citizens the urgent importance of co-operating in every way possible with the authorities in the crisis which exists. It is the self-interest of each and all to do so. There is legal authority for drastic measures without recompense should voluntary co-operation fail to meet the situation.

DIVORCE AND DEATH

DIVORCE IS one of the chief causes of broken homes.

Death is the other cause, and it isn't until after 29 years of marriage that death of one partner becomes as potent a factor in breaking up marriage as divorce is in that third year.

The figures are from the statistical bulletin of an insurance company.

Divorce breaks up far more marriages now than in 1890, the bulletin points out. But the actual number of broken homes each year is somewhat lower than 60 years ago. The reason is the longer life span with death breaking up fewer marriages as early as it once did.

The combined rate of broken homes due to both causes declined a bit from 1890 to 1915. It jumped sharply in 1918, when the great influenza epidemic killed thousands of husbands and wives.

The broken homes rate reached a low in the depression year of 1932.

Divorces jumped during the Second World War, sending the rate up again. Since then, the divorce rate has fallen, but still stands higher than before the war.

"It is difficult to forecast the future course of the divorce rate," says the bulletin. "There is certainly no assurance that within a few years the curve will not resume its upward climb. At the same time, it is expected that mortality conditions will be further improved.

The prospects are, therefore, that in the years to come divorce will contribute an increasing proportion of family dissolution."

Poetess Is Charming

Canadian Club Meeting Delighted by Audrey Alexander Brown

"Poetry is contagious—expose yourself to it. Your lives will be the richer for your experience," said Audrey Alexander Brown in an address to the Women's Canadian Club at a dinner meeting held in the Civic Centre on Thursday evening.

And not only were her listeners exposed to poetry in its purest form but in addition they were exposed to a personality so rich and vital that the experience of hearing and meeting Miss Brown will be a treasured memory.

Miss Brown spoke on "The Thrill of Poetry," a subject on which she was well qualified to speak for she has won for herself a distinguished place among contemporary poets and her poems are included in all modern anthologies.

Her success is all the more noteworthy for in her early twenties Miss Brown was stricken with a severe rheumatic illness which left her unable to walk for many years.

Miss Brown spoke in a beautiful, musical voice and her enunciation was impressive. Her charming sense of humor and quick wit were refreshing.

In explaining "Poetry" to her audience Miss Brown said, "Poetry is the interpretation of life. The poet can bring out the inner meaning of the experiences we all go through. True poetry has color and rhythm and that indefinable spark that will keep it alive. Poetry is one of the oldest of the arts. Unfortunately too many people think of poetry as a too elaborate way of saying something that would be more easily said in prose."

Miss Brown said that it is not always necessary to understand poetry to enjoy it. She recommended that a person wishing to become better acquainted with poetry should buy a good anthology and, as every poem is complete in itself, read poems here and there throughout the book.

The audience was particularly thrilled when Miss Brown recited some of her own poems. The beautiful imagery which painted bright pictures in the mind and her expressive rendition moved her listeners very much indeed. The poems she recited were:

The Negress, The Song of Gardens, The Guest, The Gate, The Strangers.

Mrs. N. E. Arnold, in thanking the speaker for her address, remarked on Miss Brown's exquisite use of language.

Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby, president of the Women's Canadian Club of Prince Rupert, thanked Miss Brown for coming so far to speak to the Club. In fact this is the farthest that Miss Brown who was born in Nanaimo and now resides in Victoria, has travelled on a speaking engagement.

Several students and teachers of the High School attended the meeting as guests.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Blackaby entertained at her home in honor of Miss Brown so that members of the Canadian Club executive members of the Boy's Club, and members of the Reading Club might meet the poetess. Pouring tea were Mrs. Eva and Mrs. Norton Youngs.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES—Locked doors face cable messenger seeking to make a delivery at the Hungarian Consulate in New York, ordered by the U.S. state department to wind up its business by Jan. 15, the consular officials didn't wait for the deadline. See what happened in 1949 to families like these!

(A REPORT FROM THE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES IN CANADA)

MEET THE BERTRAMS' son and daughter! Last year, life insurance helped put them both through college. For thousands of other Canadians, life insurance money made it possible to retire, travel, pay off mortgages or start new businesses.

FOR SOME FAMILIES like the Coopers last year brought tragedy. But, although this family lost its father, there was enough money to maintain the home, pay living expenses and keep the children at school—thanks to life insurance.

TYPICAL OF PEOPLE who bought new life insurance policies this year are the Rennalls. Since taking this step they have discovered greater peace of mind because it gives them more financial protection and retirement income for the future.

Last year, more than $125 million was paid to living policyholders by the life insurance companies in Canada!

Death claims paid by the life insurance companies in Canada in 1949 totalled more than $80 million!

The amount of new life insurance bought in 1949 reached a record total of $1,600 million. Canadian families now own life insurance valued at a total of $14½ billion!

Life Insurance Served Everyone in These Important Ways!

BUILDING FOR PROGRESS. Last year over two hundred million dollars were invested on policyholders' behalf by the life insurance companies. Result: new schools, roads, bridges, industrial plants and many other projects were completed, promoting progress and creating jobs.

HELPING PEOPLE BUY HOMES. Life insurance companies invested many millions of dollars in mortgages for those who bought new homes last year. So from coast to coast, thousands of families are now happily settled in the homes they needed so urgently.

AIDING THE WAR AGAINST DISEASE. By contributing financial aid to medical research again last year, the life insurance companies helped science to fight cancer, tuberculosis, heart ailments and polio. This research promotes longer, healthier lives for all Canadians.

All the benefits of life insurance are founded on the work of the life insurance company representative. Thanks to his services, more than a million Canadian families had life insurance planned to meet their individual needs!

Sergeant Mead Is Transferred

After over eight years of acknowledged efficient and esteemed service as divisional clerk at Prince Rupert headquarters, Sgt. George D. Mead is being transferred from here to headquarters of the B. C. Police at Victoria, it was announced today. His successor here is Constable J. J. Ehly from Chilliwack. The transfers are effective February 1.

Sgt. Mead came here in December 1941 from Vancouver. Three years ago he was promoted from the rank of corporal to sergeant and two years ago he received his 25-year long-service and good conduct award.

While Sgt. Mead will leave early in February, Mrs. Mead will remain in Prince Rupert until early fall.

Five Dead In Toronto Fire

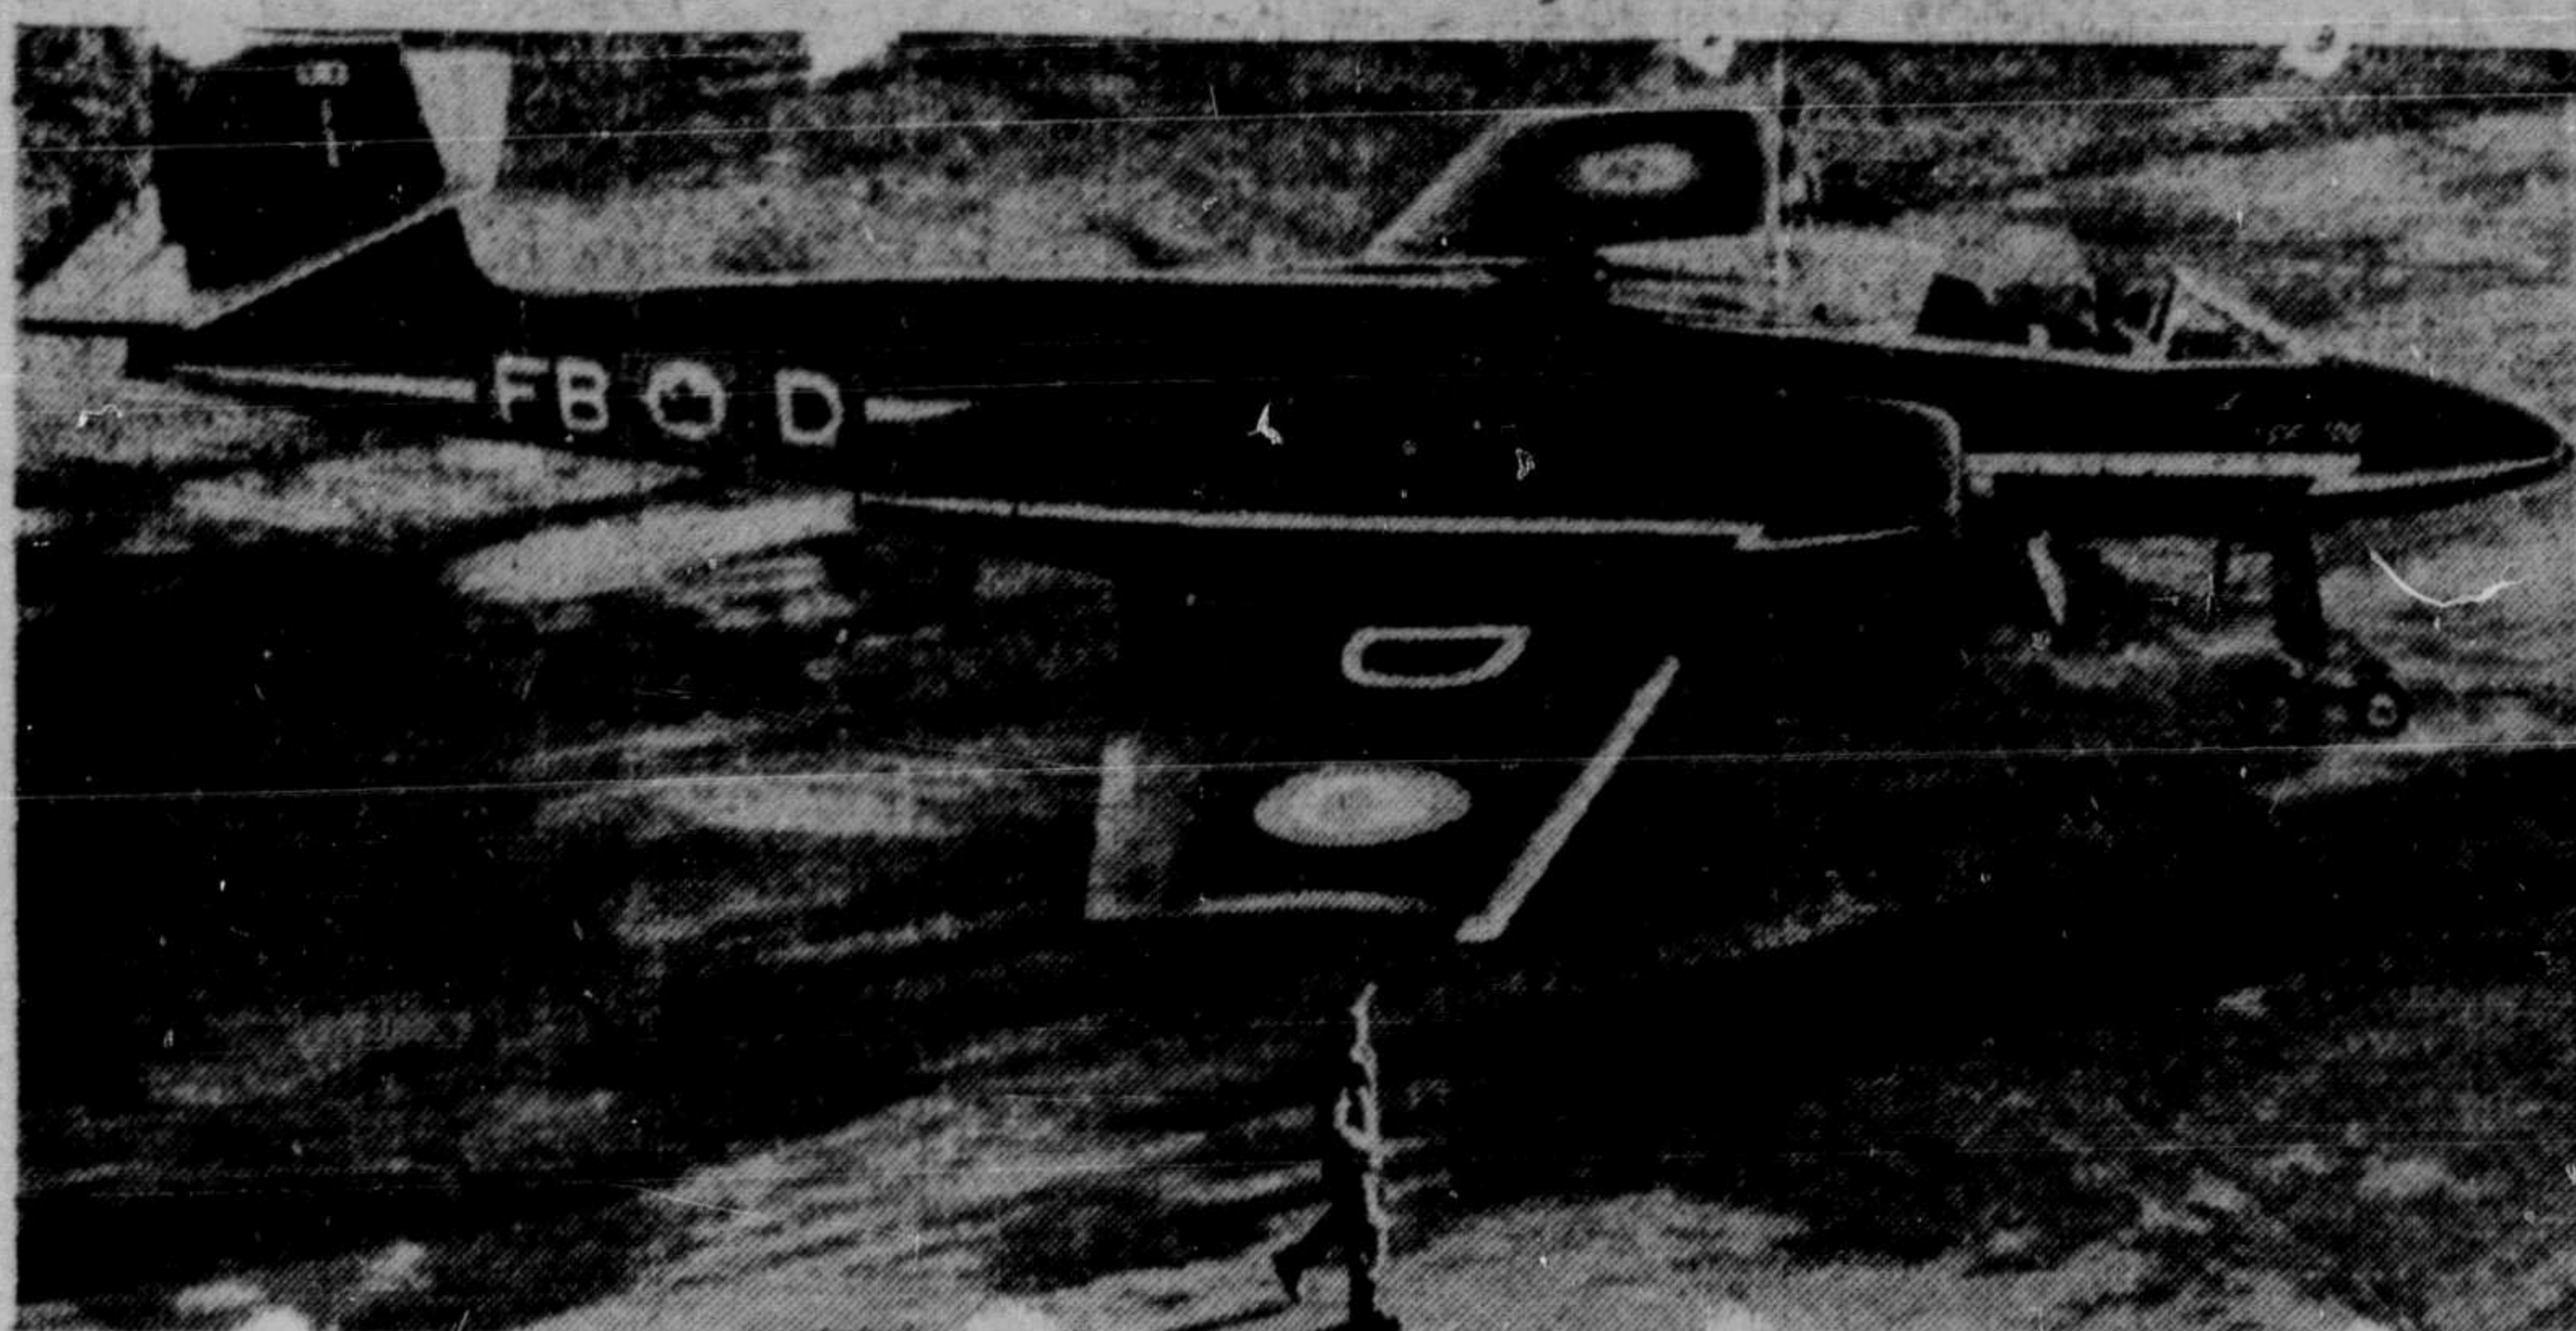

TORONTO—Three men and two women were fatally burned and several others suffered burns today in a fire that raged through the Phillips Garment building near the intersection of Queen Street west and Spadina Avenue in Central T. o. Four badly burned persons were taken to hospital where they died. First reports said that a number of other persons were lying under blankets in a nearby laneway.

Fire trapped the workers in the basement premises of Phillips Garments Limited in Toronto's downtown garment district. Firemen, who donned masks to grope through heavy smoke, said they found at least eight persons overcome by smoke in the basement.

Origin of the fire was not immediately determined. An employee said work had been resumed after lunch. Power was turned on when flames seemed to shoot from the ceiling.

"Only had enough time to shout fire when the flames spread all over," he said.

Good Citizen Accorded Honor

Chamber of Commerce Farewells Brooksbank—Message From Pattullo

Forty-one years of good citizenship in Prince Rupert and twenty-one years of effective service as secretary of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce were appreciatively acknowledged at the Prince Rupert Club yesterday afternoon when members of the Chamber of Commerce gathered for an official farewell to Arthur Brooksbank.

The proceedings climaxed when J. T. Harvey, past president of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia and another No. 1 Chamber worker, presented Mr. Brooksbank with a handsomely inscribed wallet as a tangible token of kind sentiments which were ably expressed. Mr. Harvey referred to Mr. Brooksbank's fine record as citizen and Chamber secretary, expressed regret that he was leaving confidence that he would return and best wishes for an enjoyable vacation and happy future life.

"Forty-one years is a long part of anybody's lifetime and it will be impossible for me to ever disassociate myself with Prince Rupert even though I may make my future home somewhere else," replied Mr. Brooksbank in acknowledging what he felt was an "over honor." No doubt he would be back here at frequent intervals. He reminisced briefly on Prince Rupert's progress since the early days and voiced continuation of the confidence which he had always held in this place and which had actuated him to stake all his resources here. As for Chamber of Commerce work it had always been a pleasure attended with consistent harmony. He felt that he had got as much out of the Chamber as he had ever put in it.

One of the highlights of the proceedings was the reading of a telegram from Premier T. D. Pattullo who paid high tribute to Mr. Brooksbank's qualities of good citizenship and public service. He sent his good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Brooksbank and their family and wished the Chamber continued success in its efforts.

The gathering was arranged for the Chamber by W. F. Stone and G. C. Mitchell.

Flashes From Moose Temple

(By W.J.R.)

It was not until well along in the forenoon yesterday that all of Prince Rupert's people knew there had been a fire. It was news to learn that an old landmark—the Moose Temple—had been utterly destroyed hours previously.

Throughout the day, as well as early evening, the site had many visitors who rambled over the wet, debris-strewn surface of the spacious rock high above the street level, where the temple had stood. What was left of the ruins kept smouldering for hours. The stairway, leading up from Second Avenue, was hardly touched by the flames and it was not long before every step had become iced, with row after row of icicles extending across the whole face of the cliff. There was the constant drip of water from the flooded top.

The fire, discovered around 5:45 must have been working toward the outburst of flames. Some citizens who walked by the temple close to that time, saw no smoke, or sign of anything being wrong. Some were out in the avenue, where the going was smoother. One man hiked along the sidewalk, passing right by the temple stairway, but he had not gone far before he had reason to glance back and what he saw then was plenty.

Hold Aloof From Spain

LONDON—Britain is still holding aloof from Franco Spain a foreign office spokesman indicated today. He commented at a regular press conference on states secretary Dean Acheson's announcement that the United States is ready to vote for a United States resolution leaving member governments of the United Nations free to send back their ambassadors to Spain. The spokesman said Britain was not consulted by the United States before Acheson's announcement.

SPORTS

Sport Shots

It's slightly out of season in Canada but Vince (Winnipeg Tribune) Leah provides some interesting sidebars on soccer, which in this country has a reputation as being one of the few "gentlemanly" sports left. He calls South Americans "fanatical" enthusiasts and says they top the list in passion for soccer. Recently, feelings became so intense at one match the contest was called after 11 minutes of play. The police had been forced to cloud the premises with team gas to clear the riotous crowd.

"Allan Anderson, former golf expert (with the Tribune), was doing a government chore in S.A. during the war... he found the brand of ball very good, but what amazed him was the barb wire entanglements outside the touchlines to keep the customers off the referee's neck.

"In 1936, Peru's good team was locked in a death-and-life struggle with Australia in Olympic soccer at Berlin. The count was 2-2 at the end of regulation time and the officials ordered an extra period. The Peruvians... declined with thanks."

The news was cabled back to Lima and the hometown followers became so incensed that they pelleted the German legation with rocks, stones and spoiled fruit. The city fathers practically had to declare martial law to restore order.

A special soccer series between two arch rivals, Uruguay and Argentina, probably holds the record for all-time high in blood-letting.

BACKGROUND OF HISTORY—Shri C. The caves attract visitors from all the world for their fine examples of early Hindoo architecture.

Marshall Plan Changes Hoped

WASHINGTON—United States officials expressed hope today that western Europe will agree to sweeping changes in the overseas organization which administers the Marshall Plan.

Renewed optimism concerning the proposal came in the wake of high-level meetings between Paul Henry Spaak, former Belgian Premier, and officials of the economic co-operation administration and states department.

Shirley Temple In Race Romance

A heartwarming love story with Shirley Temple and Lon McCallister is presented to Capitol Theatre patrons this week-end in "The Story of Seabiscuit."

With Barry Fitzgerald, Irish character actor and comic, co-starring in a leading role, this film story, which employs as its background the events and racing career surrounding the life of the amazing Seabiscuit.

Seabiscuit came along in turbulent times a few years ago when as a four-year-old, the doughty little horse romped to fame, and fortune for his owner, by beating everything in sight, including War Admiral, another great competitor, in a special match. He amassed one of the greatest earnings totals in all racing history.

Barry Fitzgerald plays the trainer who retains such great faith in a horse that has not shown much form as a two- or three-year-old, while Shirley Temple is his niece whose brother, has been killed in a race in Ireland. When Lon McCallister, one of the top jockeys in the sport, falls in love with Shirley, she tries to persuade him to quit riding and she succeeds—up to the point where Seabiscuit needs a jockey for one of the most important races of his career.

Terrace House Fire-Damaged

TERRACE—Fire starting from an electric appliance, gutted the upper storey of the Hull home on Lakelse Avenue late Monday morning, destroying the contents before the local fire brigade got it under control and saved the rest of the house. In sub-zero temperatures and a wind blowing the volunteer fire fighters did a fine piece of work in saving the building and the one adjacent, the Legion club. Some 1150 feet of hose was used. The Hull family are at present residing in the rear of the confectionary store until other suitable quarters are obtained.

Terrace Brigade Efficient Body

TERRACE—Now that the junior fire brigade have completed their training and have shown their ability to fight fires in taking a major part in Monday morning's fire, it was decided, at a meeting in the Fire Hall Tuesday night to incorporate them with the senior branch. Other recommendations were that to prevent confusion from outsiders giving orders, obstructing the work of brigade and holding up the traffic, each fire fighter be given a pass to show on demand at any fire and to have the street block in the vicinity of a fire, closed to all vehicle traffic and pedestrians. It was also decided that the local fire chief, J. H. Smith, have a siren installed on his car. At one time, before there was any organized fire brigade in the town everyone turned out to help and there was always more than one issuing orders.

Terrace now has a fully trained fire brigade which has been instructed just what to do in all circumstances and is able to do it with efficiency. Hence the enforcing of proper rules at future fires.

Industrial First Aid Examinations

Industrial First Aid examinations were held Tuesday in the City Hall under the auspices of the St. John Ambulance Association, under the direction of Dr. A. W. Large. Candidates were instructed by R. E. Eyrifson, president of the Prince Rupert center of the association. Thomas Elliot wrote for class "A" certificate while candidates for class "B" certificates were George Redhead, E. T. S. Moore, K. Slater, William Rothwell, Robert Wood, J. C. Franks, J. McLean, D. K. Llewellyn and J. C. Ewari. Class "C" certificates were written for by William Fleming and M. C. Hauser.

Ice Menaces Skeena River
Canneries—Coastal Steamer Late Today

Salmon canneries in the Skeena River slough—Inverness, North Pacific, Sunnyside and Cassiar—are being menaced by piling up of float ice from the Skeena River as another consequence of the continuing unprecedented cold snap. Damage has already been done to some of the wharves on which the warehouses and plants are located and one of the concerns, according to local report, is already making plans to move out machinery. A sudden breakup might make the situation even more serious.

Having had a late start in leaving Vancouver and meeting bad weather, Union steamer Ch'cotin, Capt. Harry McLean, is not arriving in port before 9 this evening from Vancouver, Westview, Namu and Butedale. The vessel sails at 10 p.m. for Masset Inlet points on the Queen Charlottes whence she is due back here Sunday to sail at 9 p.m. on her return south.

C.N.R. steamer Prince George, Capt. E. B. Caldwell, arrived in port at 7 p.m. yesterday from Ketchikan and left for Vancouver at 11:30. Passengers embarking from here included H. Thom, H. Reid, Miss C. Fockler, Miss A. Brown, W. Tastad and B. Tastad.

Ore Shipment From Tide Lake

STEWART—Pilot George Dalziel of Telegraph Creek arrived in town early Sunday morning to take supplies in to the Phillips property on Tide Lake, and bring out approximately three tons of high grade for shipment to Trail. The Department of Public Works have been assisting in clearing a runway on the west side of the Bear River near the mouth of the stream. He made one trip to the property on Sunday soon after his arrival and brought out Al. Phillips, the owner. On Monday he made another trip but blew a gasket shortly after his take-off at the lake and barely made it to town. Dalziel was accompanied by Dan McPhee of Telegraph Creek. McPhee is one of the old timers of the Stewart district and was busy renewing old acquaintances.

STEWART

Temperatures during the past week have ranged from 2 degrees above zero to 16 below and this, coupled with north winds have made conditions very uncomfortable. Coal or wood piles have rapidly diminished while residents have been busy with blow torch and kettle of hot water, thawing pipes.

Robert Dunlop, general foreman at Prince Rupert for the Provincial Department of Public Works, was in town for the past week on business, returning to Prince Rupert Monday on the Coquitlam.

OLD ENOUGH FOR A UNIFORM—In Stockholm, Sweden, Prince Carl Gustaf, youngest son of Sweden's Princess Sibylla and the late Prince Gustaf Adolf and great grandson of King Gustaf, is shown in his first uniform—the light blue full uniform of the King's Own Regiment of Horse. The little prince wore it when he presented King Gustaf with a portrait of himself in the new uniform for Christmas.

ADMITS CRIME—Former Canadian soldier Arnold Craig, 25, is shown in custody in Pontiac, Mich., after he gave himself up to police. Craig reportedly told police that in 1944, he and a British corporal robbed and beat to death a French girl near Lille, France. Craig is said by police to have told them that he and the unidentified Briton made the rounds of local bars with the girl, and then, noticing the quantity of francs she carried, beat her to death. Craig reportedly told authorities that he had two nervous breakdowns since then and broke his engagement to his fiancée because of his feeling of guilt. Craig will be held while his story is checked by French authorities.

mustn't get run-down... pocket-book suffers!

"No kidding — mustn't get below par... work suffers... my pocket-book suffers... got to keep earnings up... stay fit."

Don't let your earnings shrink by neglecting your health. Especially guard against "irregularity" — often caused by lack of bulk food in the diet.

Post's — the better Bran Flakes — provide the bulk that helps relieve constipation by keeping food wastes moving promptly. There's wholesome wheat nourishment too — Post's Bran Flakes are made with other parts of wheat.

You'll like Post's Bran Flakes. They're down right delicious as a cereal, or in the form of light, tender bran muffins made according to package directions. Two package sizes: large or regular. Insist on Post's — the better Bran Flakes.

Sure — she needs Post's BRAN FLAKES — and likes them!
