FIRES IN VANCOUVER - REPORT AND WAREHOUSE

VANCOUVER (CP)—Fires causing $550,000 occurred at Vancouver last night when the Sea Island building at the Sea Island airport was destroyed with a downtown six-storey warehouse. Fire crews were left on duty in fire halls as all firemen fought the blazes.

SNOW BATTLE IS TOUCH AND GO

Canadian National Having All it Can do to Keep Local Line Open—Windstorm Latest Hold-Up
It is still a case of touch and go in the battle between the Canadian National Railways and the continuing snow conditions in the lower Skeena Valley. A delayed and uncertain service is being maintained with slow trains following in the wake of the rotary snow plow which shuttles back and forth between Prince Rupert and Terrace through a virtual trench between great banks of plowed up snow.

OIL AND FAT CONTROL OFF

OTTAWA—Removal of import and export controls on animal, vegetable and marine oils and fats was announced today by Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce. The action follows decision by the international food committee to remove international allocations on these items. Export control on domestically-produced oils and fats are no longer necessary.

LAD INJURED IN SLEIGH MISHAP

Shock and bruises were received Saturday afternoon by four-year-old Clive Alexander McLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod, Borden Street, in a sleighing mishap near his home. While coasting at the driveway at the McLeod residence, his sleigh shot out onto Borden Street and struck a car driven by Harold Muncy, giving the lad a narrow escape. He was taken by Muncy to home and then to hospital and placed under treatment of a doctor. It is expected he will be in hospital for the next day or two.

Norway Sides With West In Security Pact

RAINMAKER—Vancouver city officials haven't given him the go-ahead but Donald Johnson of Regina has offered them his services. He says with the help of his little rainmaking machine—a Univescope, he calls it—he can bring rain, lack of which has caused an acute power shortage in lower British Columbia mainland. Johnson claims the revolving magnets of his machine draw clouds, condense the air moisture and produce rain.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
Much milder weather is at last moving across British Columbia as a series of Pacific storms approach the coast. For the first time in some weeks the indications are that the milder weather can be expected to continue. Last night temperatures on the coast remained at or above freezing while in the interior several near zero readings were recorded. Overcast skies with considerable rain are expected to the coast in the next thirty-six hours while in the interior intermittent snow will be general.

Forecast
Queen Charlottes and North Coast—Overcast with rain or snow mixed with rain, becoming intermittent rain this afternoon. Rain tonight and Tuesday morning, becoming cloudy with showers tomorrow afternoon. Winds southeasterly (20 mph), increasing to south easterly (30) tonight, decreasing to noon. Milder. Lows tonight southerly (20) tomorrow afternoons tomorrow—at Port Hardy, 35 and 42; Massett, 34 and 39; Prince Rupert 32 and 39.

Dominant Labor Party Decides Against Russia

Meanwhile United States Assures It Will Not Stand Idly By In Aggression

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—The proposed North Atlantic pact will give its members strong assurances that the United States will not stand idly by in case of attack, it was learned today. An official source said that the military clause of the pact will not commit the United States automatically to war but he said it will carry strong assurance of the United States intention to resist aggression upon any members of the pact. The precise phrasing of the military clause in the pact, now being drawn, is still secret.

The United States Department of State hopes to present to Congress in about a month power-packed North Atlantic treaty, reinforced by a multi-million dollar military aid proposal for countries of western Europe. State Secretary Dean Acheson and Canadian and European negotiators will enter into the final stage of treaty negotiations this week.

Meanwhile Norway has decided to risk Russia's displeasure and cast in her lot with the west by joining the North Atlantic defence talks. Despite Russian warning, the dominant Labor party at Oslo, the capital of Norway, has approved the prowestern foreign policy of Foreign Minister Halvard M. Lange. The vote at a party meeting was 229 to 33 but the opposition decided yesterday to make the vote unanimous.

SAM CARR CASE IS ADJOURNED

OTTAWA—Sam Carr was today remanded until March 1 by Deputy Magistrate Joachita Sauve when he appeared in city police court on a charge of conspiring with Russian embassy officials to force passports. It was indicated that a request for bail may be made when Carr comes up again next week.

RIOT CAUSED BY MOVING PICTURE

BERLIN—Enraged Polish Jews rioted before a British sector movie theatre today and for the second time blocked showing of the film "Oliver Twist" which they charge is anti-semitic.

Police used clubs and fire hoses to hold back charging crowds of demonstrators but without much success. In the milling crowd a British officer was beaten and several German policemen were injured.

IN FAVOR OF COUNT

His Neck Saved by Deportation Being Ruled Out
MONTREAL—Count Jacques Duge de Bernonville may remain in Canada as a political refugee. In a Superior Court writ of habeas corpus by which the Count fought the order for his deportation, the ruling was in favor of the count. The order was found "irregular, illegal and null and void."

The Count is under sentence of death in his native France for alleged collaboration with the Germans during the war.

Bulletins

SAVING ATLIN CAMP

Favorable action by Ottawa towards providing a "life line" road from the Alaska Highway to the Northern British Columbia mining camp of Atlin appears in prospect. The provincial government has already pledged its share of the cost. Now the minister of mines and resources, Hon. James A. McKinnon, advises E. T. Applewhite, Liberal candidate for Skeena, who has been active in the matter, that he is continuing to press for construction of the road and that he expects to secure favorable action in the matter within a few days.

ISRAEL-EGYPT AGREE

TEL AVIV—The Israeli cabinet has accepted draft of a compromise armistice with Egypt, an authoritative source reported last night. There was no immediate indication whether Cairo officials would also endorse the draft.

SEINER IS BURNED

BELLA BELLA—The seiner Bernice L. was destroyed by fire here yesterday. It was towed away from the dock by another seiner, Otter Bay, and the fire burned out on a nearby island.

DR. PRINGLE DIES

VANCOUVER—Rev. Dr. George Pringle, 76, who spent ten years in the Yukon, was a padre in World War I after which he operated as a missionary along the coast with the boat Sky Pilot, is dead here.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA WINS

STOCKHOLM—Czechoslovakia yesterday won the world's amateur hockey title with a 3 to 0 victory over Sweden in the final game. The defending Canadians were second after tying with Switzerland while United States was third, Sweden fourth, Switzerland fifth and Austria last. Canada was ahead of the United States in the goals for and against record. Canada's Sudbury Wolves had two victories, two ties and one defeat.

NEW SKATING QUEEN

OTTAWA—Suzanna Morrow of Toronto won the senior singles figure skating championship Saturday, succeeding Barbara Ann Scott. Ontario skaters won nine of ten titles. Roger Wilson of Vancouver was the lone outsider, Vancouver winning the men's singles in succession to Wally Deistelmeyer. The 18-year-old Morrow girl edged out Patsy Earl of Toronto and Jean Matthews of Vancouver in the free-style event.

PAUPERS KILLED BY FALL OF WALL

LISBON—Fall of a huge wall was reported today to have killed or injured several hundred persons lined up for food hand-outs in Praia, capital of Cape Verde Island. There is no official count of the dead but dispatches from Praia said that 315 persons, many of them dead, were dragged from the ruins. There was a long file of beggars, under the tiled strip roof at the poor house when the wall collapsed.

BETTER DRIVING IN PR. RUPERT

Motor Traffic Is Having Serious Difficulties In Vancouver These Days
Street conditions in Vancouver are far worse for motor traffic these days than in Prince Rupert, says Douglas Frizzell who returned to the city last week after spending two weeks in the southern city on business.
While packed snow here has actually improved the surface of the streets, in Vancouver the snow turned to slush under a thaw and then froze solid. Even on the main downtown streets now there is ice four inches thick which makes driving very hazardous.
Many private cars are tied up altogether. It is with difficulty that buses are operated. The power shortage has caused the withdrawal of trolley buses. Of course, a transportation stop-over is the result.
Mr. Frizzell expects a good supply of new cars this year at prices lower than had been expected. The used car market, he found, weakening in Vancouver.

Buried In Germany

Fate of Local Boy, Who Served With Air Force is Established
Mr. and Mrs. James Hadden, 415 Dunsmuir Street, have been notified officially that their elder son, Flying Officer Wm. A. Hadden, and his crew, were shot down at Kotterichen in the Eifel district of Germany, September 24, 1943, and were buried unidentified in the village cemetery at Ursfeld, 28 miles southwest of Coblenz. Recently the remains have been moved to the Rheinberg British Cemetery, 11 miles northwest of Duisburg, Germany.

F/O Hadden gained his pilot's wings at Dauphin in April, 1942 and proceeded overseas. He and his companions, acting as pathfinders, failed to return from a raid on Mannheim and nothing was learned of the crew's fate until now.
"Billy" Hadden was 23 years of age, skilled in violin music and prior to enlistment, was on the staff of The Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. here.

Take Pride In Canada

It is increasingly evident that as Canadians we need a good deal more pride and faith than we seem to possess at the present time. As we step forward to meet the problems of this reconversion period, we should be bolstered by a strong feeling of pride in our accomplishments of the past few years and by a serene confidence in our ability to overcome the difficulties of the future. Instead there is a tendency in certain quarters to hesitate and falter and to grasp at any illusion of security rather than to stride forward.

Too many people point to the political and economic swing to the left in European countries and suggest that we do likewise. Let us clear that poisonous fog of inferiority and lack of faith from our thinking. Economic and political hospitalization may suit some of the wounded, torn, battered and weakened countries of the world, but certainly that is no prescription for a young vibrant healthy country just taking its place among the great countries of the world.

Let us here develop the way of life which made us strong, let us take pride in our strength and have faith in our courage, initiative, ability and enterprise to build an even better Canada.

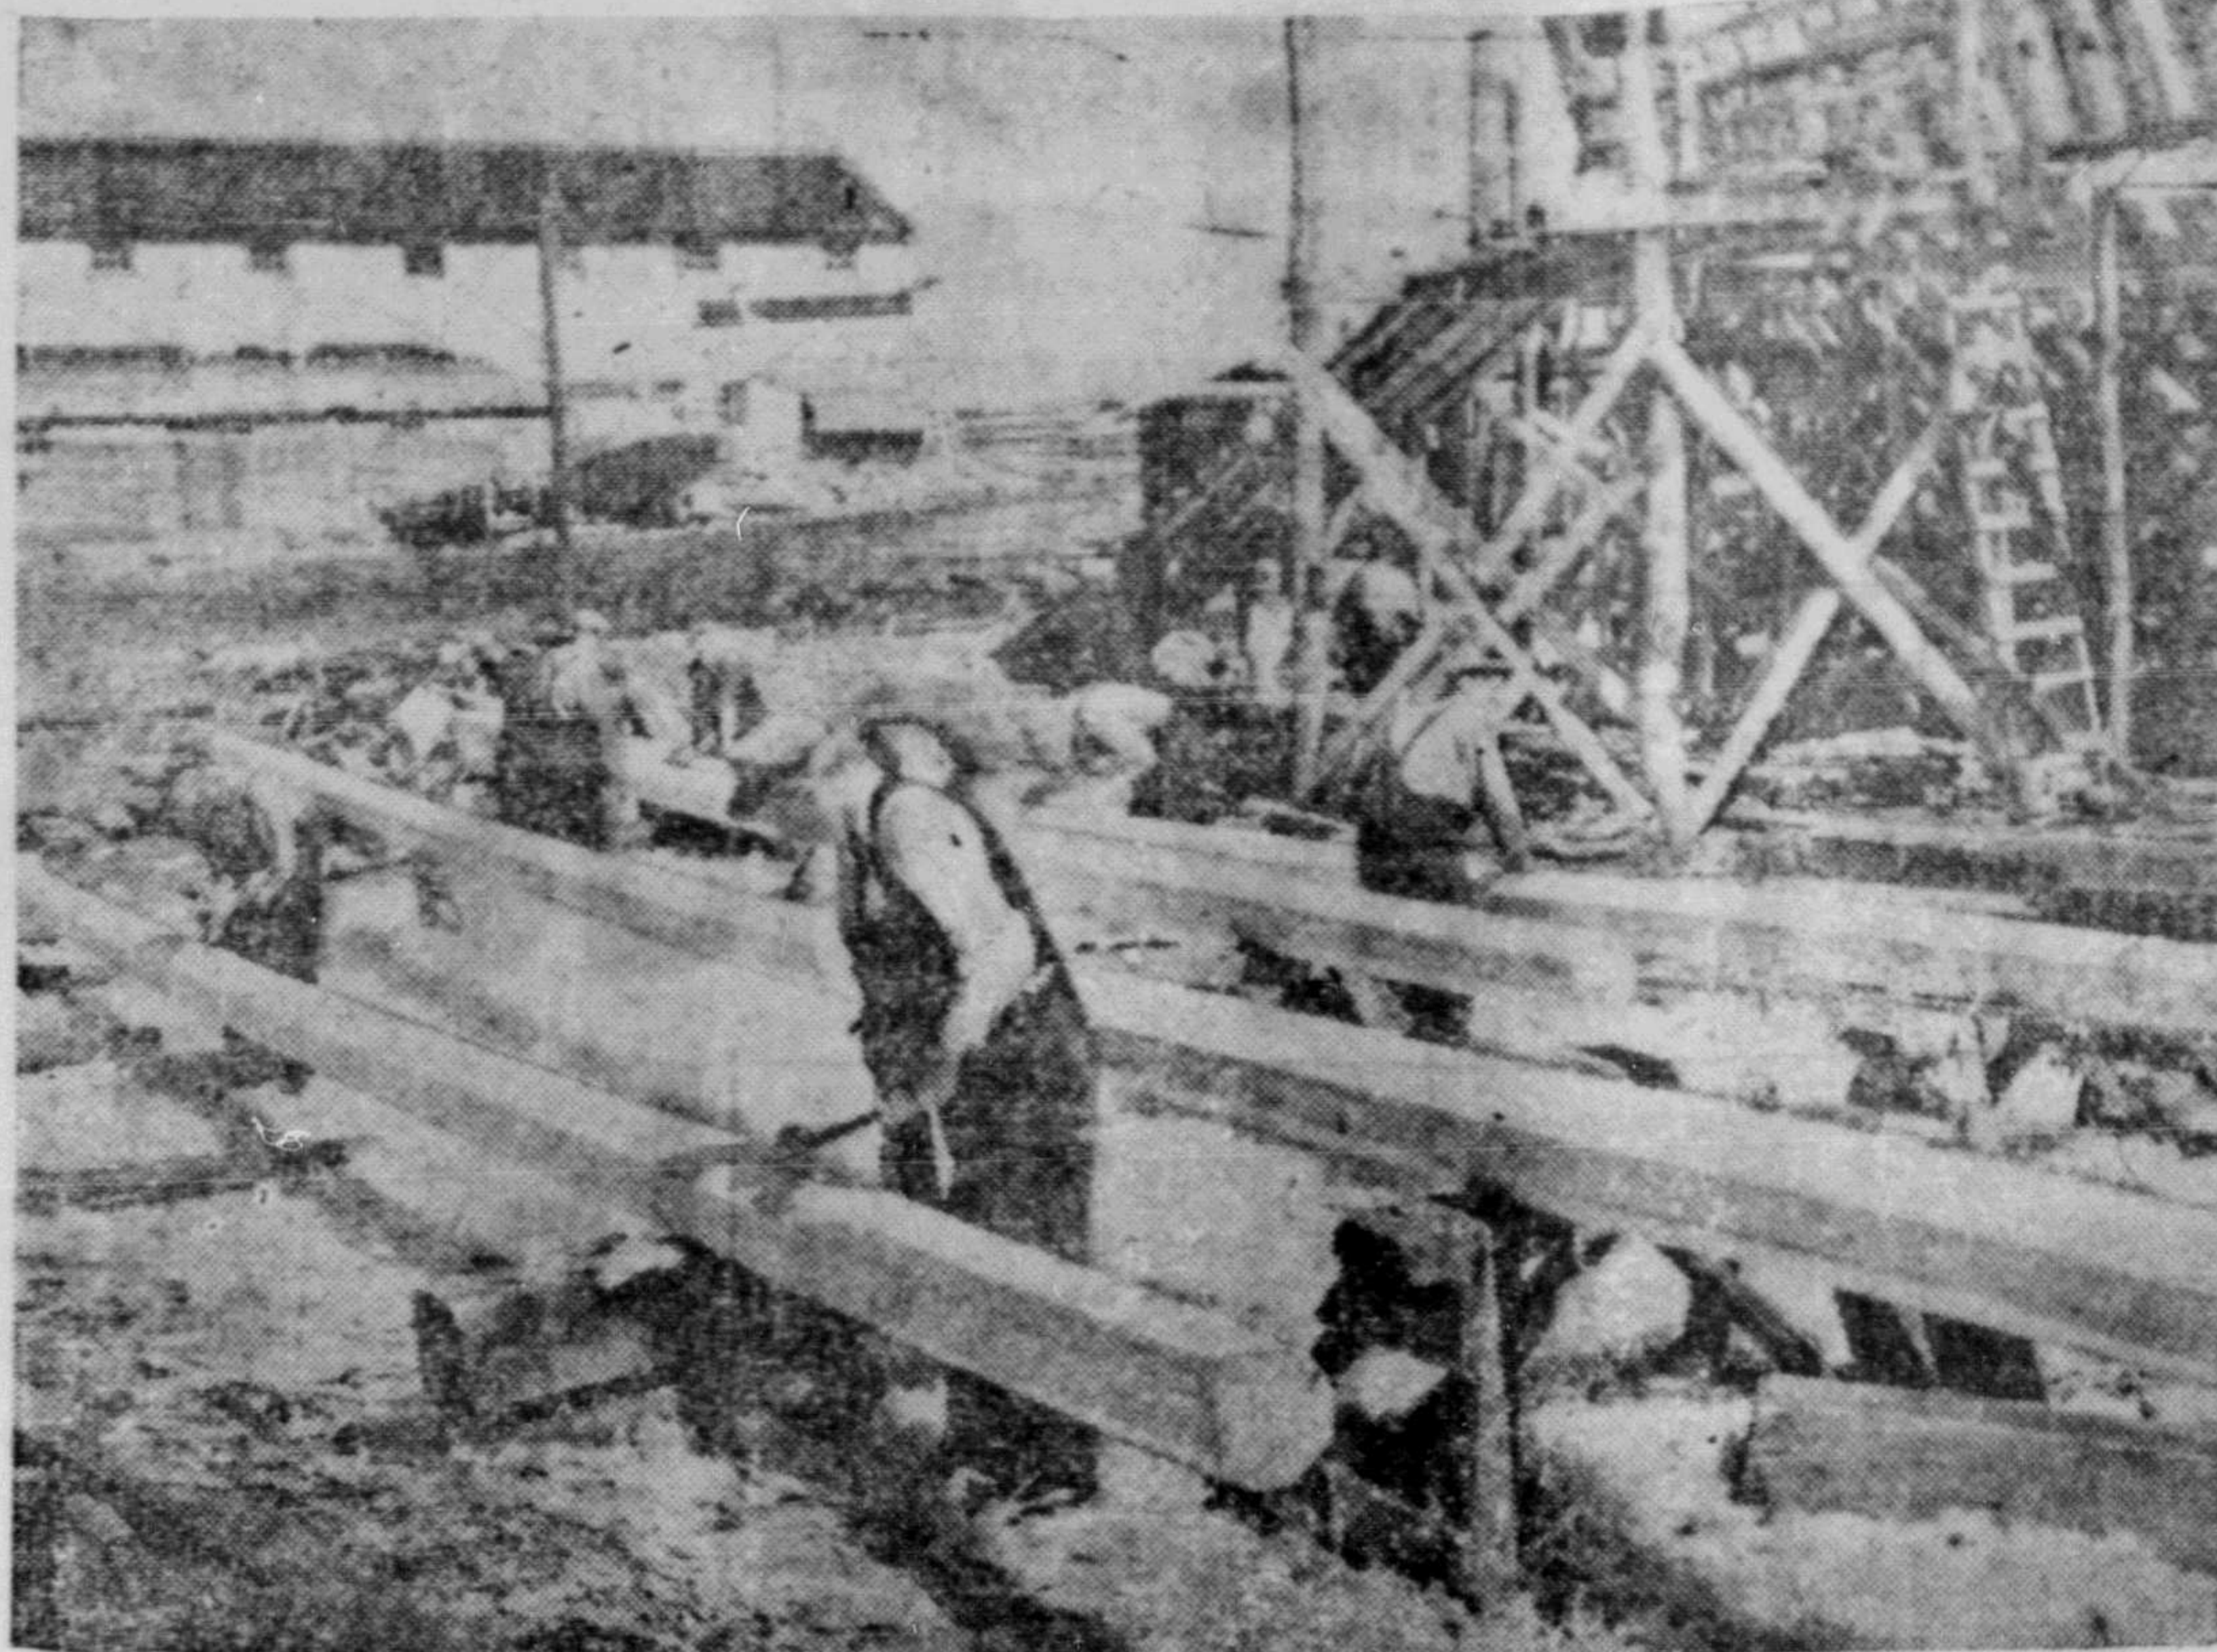

RUSSIA AND NORWAY

THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT made a very unwise move when it offered Norway a non-aggression pact if she would refuse to join an Atlantic Union. For the immediate effect—and that not only in Norway—was to recall the unhappy experience of such pacts in the years between the wars.

The offer of individual non-aggression pacts had been one of Hitler's favorite devices for preventing the formation of defensive security groups which might thwart his plans. And not only that, there were the Soviet Union's own famous series of non-aggression pacts with all her immediate neighbors—Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland and Rumania. The three Baltic States have been swallowed. Poland and Finland were invaded. Rumania was forced to cede a province. The very words "non-aggression" pact have been a salutary reminder of the Russian aggressions of 1939 and of Stalin's entente with Hitler.

It may, of course, be that the Soviet leaders had realized the impression which the "offer" would create in the Western world and had realized also that there was no chance of luring Norway into acceptance, but that they thought the gesture necessary for other reasons.

They are plainly trying to create both in Russia and in the satellite states the picture of Stalin making peace offer after peace offer and of each offer being rejected by the Western "warmongers." That may be in order to counter a certain uneasiness and disquiet at home. It may be intended to reconcile the Czechs and Poles (and probably the Hungarians) to a new purge and a tightening of Communist control on the plea that iron discipline is essential in the face of danger from without. It is, by the way, notable that the Soviet press now talks of endeavours to "encircle Russia"—another phrase which is unfortunately reminiscent of Hitler and Goebbels.

SHIP BUILDING—During the war Newfoundland shipyards were busy turning out small vessels. Now the government-built yards have been sold to private interests who are building small ships for the fishing and coastal trade, as well as many fine yachts. This photo of the Clarendville yards shows workmen shaping the wooden beams for a vessel shown in the background. (CP Photo)

HOSPITAL ASKS FOR SUPPORT

Despite the increased aid given by the province to the Prince Rupert General Hospital under the last year's hospitalization service legislation, the institution still remains under local control and requires support and interest by Prince Rupert citizens. Hospital Secretary D. C. Stevenson declared at the week-end.

He made the comment in reference to the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Hospital General Association which will take place next Friday when reports of the year's service to the community will be reviewed and 1949 officers and directors elected.

"Some people are of the opinion that since the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service has taken an interest in hospitals, the local associations, through their boards of directors, no longer have any power," he commented. "Such an opinion is erroneous."

"Although the hospital service is primarily interested in seeing that adequate hospitalization is provided to the public at a minimum cost, it is still important that the public accept membership in the local Hospital Association and to choose a board of directors who are competent to see that their hospital provides equipment and facilities."

While a constant decrease in public interest in hospital management affairs over the last decade might be construed as a compliment to the type of management and administration provided, Mr. Stevenson sees this as no reason for the institution to be "forgotten" by the people served.

At present, there are only 20 paid-up members, entitled to a voice in the Association's affairs, a number much too small for the size of the community. In addition there are a dozen life members, but only three of these are at present in the city. They are D. C. Stuart, M. M. Stephens and James H. Thompson.

"That is a small interest in the hospital," Mr. Stevenson said, "considering that the public must elect a board which must determine the policies of the institution."

the institution in its relation with the community.

"The board has to provide safe administration of present assets of the association and plan for its future service."

IS BIG BUSINESS

That the hospital is "big business" can be seen from the fact that the 1948 operating expenses were about $150,000 and that its current assets total almost $60,000, capital assets at depreciated value, $200,000 and sinking fund assets $19,800.

Problems faced by the Board may be seen by the relative increase in costs of 1948 operation over the previous year. And financial problems have not disappeared entirely as a result of the hospitalization scheme.

"It looks as if the $7.75 a day allowed by the government for insured patients may not be quite adequate for our needs," Mr. Stevenson said.

Last year, dietary costs for patients and staff rose to $22,600 from $18,200 in 1947, a direct reflection of the increase in basic living cost. Medical and surgical supplies rose to $14,200 last year from $10,300 the previous year and salaries and wages increased from $65,100 in 1947 to $79,100 in 1948 with approximately no increase in staff.

While much of these higher costs were offset by increased ward rates last year, it appears that this year, revenues will be less fluid. Therefore, it is the Board's hope that there will be no continuing rise in costs.

"These matters and the appointment of a competent board of management are directly the interest of the public," Mr. Stevenson said. "They mean something to every member of the community."

LODGE HAS ROLL CALL

Members of Prince Rupert Oddfellows and Centennial Rebekah Lodges held their annual roll call in the Oddfellows' Hall last week, enjoying a social evening attended by 90 members of both groups. Congratulatory messages were received from many members who were unable to attend.

Music was the major order of the evening, with community singing being enjoyed. Mrs. J. W. McKinley accompanied the singing on the piano. Mrs. J. Delorme also sang several solos.

A cake, presented by Mrs. S. V. Cox was raffled, Chinese fashion, and brought $22 which was used to defray expenses of the gathering.

Mrs. J. Delorme, representing the Rebekahs and Len L. Garner, representing the Oddfellows, were chairmen of the joint committee which arranged the function.

KIN CELEBRATE FOUNDERS' NIGHT

It was 29 years ago that Hal Rogers, a veteran of the first World War with ideas for a young man's service club, founded the first Kinsmen Club and Saturday night 80 Kinsmen, their wives and guests gathered at the Oddfellows' Hall to celebrate the anniversary.

The assembly sat down to candle-lit tables and enjoyed a chow mein and cold-plate supper served by members of the Hollywood Cafe staff. Following the supper President George Dibb supervised the introduction of guests and introduced William Bremner who briefly outlined the progress of the Kinsmen Association since it was organized by Hal Rogers in Toronto, February 1920.

Dancing commenced at 9:15 and continued until the early hours. During intermissions R. E. Montador entertained with impersonations of a radio announcer and a woman celebrating her twentieth wedding anniversary. Recording arrangements by W. S. Noble and piano accompaniments by Russell Cameron provided music for the dancers.

Arrangements for the party were in the hands of Russell Cameron, James Thompson and John Christensen.

NEW ENGLAND IN COMIC BOOK WAR

BOSTON—New England, which has been known to make bonfires of doubtful novels, now turns a scorching glare on comic books because it is believed some are filthy. Church leaders and police officials have blasted certain of the comics as juvenile crime-breeders, equally bad for children and adults.

PRICE IS REDUCED

PORTLAND—The independent grocers of this city have cut the price of a large loaf of bread to nineteen cents. In doing so they followed the chain store lead. About 40 of 240 stores, in fact, went the chains a cent better. They said they would reduce the price to 18 cents.

BOWLS RACE STAYS TIGHT

Burns Leading Five Pins With Continentals and Brownwoods Close Behind
Burns, by defeating Stone's three to one, retained first place in the Men's Five Pin Bowling League with a slim one point margin in the standings over Continentals who had a four to nil victory over Ambassadors. Continuing close behind in third place are Brownwoods who defeated Malletts three games to one.

The team scores for the week-end play in this league were:
Burns 3, Stone's 1
Continentals 4, Ambassadors 0
Brownwoods 3, Malletts 1
Malkins 3, JayCees 1
Moose 4, Maple Leafs 0
Alley Cats 3, Scotians 1

High individual score was 314 by Tom McMeekin of Malkins while the top three games was by Stuart Furk with a big 814. The team scoring was as follows:

BASKETBALL—Hopes For High Fade

Unlikely to Get In Play—North Star Cinches Junior

Co-op 52, Bo-Me-Hi 42
Merchants 30, Morgans 25
North Star 30, High School 21

Hopes of Bo-Me-Hi taking over third place and a playoff berth in the Senior League Basketball were set back Saturday night as the Co-op squad pounded out a 52 to 42 win over the fast running Rainmaker quintet. In the Intermediate game Merchants dimmed the chances of Morgans getting into the playoffs with a 30-25 win over the fourth placers. In the Junior game the North Star win over High School decided the first place team in the division.

The Bo-Me-Hi team came from behind in the second half to battle Co-op in the final quarter which saw the score see-saw in the first 7 minutes and then the Students' defence weakened and the veteran hoopsters Lindsay, Beynon and Macphee poured through to score repeatedly and gave the Co-ops a lead that held until the final whistle.

The first quarter was fast with both teams long on ball handling but short in the scoring column. Macphee spear-headed the Co-op attack and defence in the half that saw them in the lead at intermission 21-14. The absence of shooting in the second quarter by Bo-Me-Hi held down their scoring. They stressed ball handling which, of course, does not give baskets.

During the intermission the Rainmakers must have been shown their mistakes, as the third quarter started they came right out and tied up the score and then battled Co-op the remaining minutes of the quarter that saw them emerge with a 2-point lead 29-27 at the quarter's end.

The teams played on even terms during the first 7 minutes of the quarter before the Rainmaker guards seemed to lose their checks repeatedly and this, of course, is a dangerous thing to do with the Co-op as they pounced in and sewed up the game. In the final minutes Co-op lost Dominato, Lindsay and Beynon and they had to play the last half minute with 4 players on the floor. Scoring was the only loss Bo-Me-Hi suffered.

Bo-Me-Hi took 68 shots and made 16. They canned 10 of 23 free throws. Co-op took 87 shots and made 21. They scored 10 of 21 penalty shots.

Intermediate League
Spurring the new uniform jinx the Merchant squad kept close to Fashion Footwear in the Intermediate league race for top honors as they defeated Morgans 30-25. The Merchants' uniforms are white with green trimming.

The first half play was ragged with each team finding it hard to score baskets. There were many wild passes that resulted in loose balls and scrambling. The half time score was in favor of the Merchants 12-7. The playing of the second half as Merchants determined bid to stretch their lead but the final quarter could not be seen. (Continued on Page Five)

YOUNGMAN IS WINNER

Takes Legion Tournament By One Point Win Over Hurst

At the Canadian Legion Hall yesterday afternoon, before a large and keenly interested audience of Legion members, Charlie Youngman won the third handicap English billiards tournament by defeating A. M. Hurst, who had just won an easy victory in the semi-finals, by a margin of one point in an extraordinarily thrilling finish.

Youngman, who was receiving a total of 30 points from his opponent Hurst (playing minus 10) in the final match of 200 points, held his lead until shortly after the century mark had been reached, the score then being Youngman 104, Hurst 79. Hurst then slowly forged ahead, taking the lead for the first time at 131 with Youngman's score standing at 125. Youngman reached his 150 with his opponent 6 points behind and, from then on, scored consistently and had a 25-point lead over his adversary when within 5 points of his goal. Hurst then made a supreme effort and, with a faultless break of 26, again took the lead, the score reading Hurst 196, Youngman 195. Youngman failed to score on his next visit to the table. Hurst followed with an in-off the red which left him a difficult cannon in the mouth of the top left-hand pocket which was spoiled by a kiss, score 199-195. Youngman pocketed his opponent to get into position to pocket the red and end the game, but this ball, which had considerable spin on it, hit the corner of the top right-hand pocket and rolled close to the cushion towards the right centre pocket where it looked as if it was going to stop and provide an easy winning stroke for Hurst. Suddenly it curved into the pocket much to the surprise and amusement of Youngman and all present.

It was a hard-fought game, and provided the spectators with an exhibition of good billiards, the result of the match being in doubt until the last stroke had been played. Youngman's best break was a well-played 18, Jack Judge acted as referee and W. L. Gordon as marker.

Just prior to this match Hurst won his game in the semi-finals by easily defeating Fred Hardy 150-89. Hurst, who was playing minus 10, was giving his opponent 50 points in this 150-point match, and settled down to play immediately, scoring 67 points before Hardy, who failed to show the form that he had displayed in his three former matches, had scored a point. Hurst, with breaks of 20, 21 and 23, passed his century (114) fifty points ahead of his opponent and from then on, in spite of a slight improvement in Hardy's play, the result was never in doubt. Immediately after this game Hurst accepted the challenge of Youngman to play the final match of the tournament.

Prizes won by the winner and "runner-up" will be presented at an early date. Hurst will also take the prize for the highest break during the tournament which was won by Neil Cameron with a run of 47.

Entry lists for the next handicap English billiards tournament will be posted in the Legion Club Rooms tonight.

Sport Shots

Twice in a week it happened—people with foolproof systems found themselves over a barrel in Britain. Case No. 1 concerned Mrs. Doris Morley, 49-year old spiritualist who lost £4,000 ($16,000) gambling at dog tracks but left court insisting she was "bound to win." Case No. 2 concerned company director James Hodgson, whose plan to beat the football pools brought little but grief. One week the syndicate he formed collected 10 shillings ($2) for an outlay of £145, 16 s. Hodgson, 38, launched the syndicate with an advertisement promising "prospects of exceptionally large profit." Twenty-one persons joined and split into three groups, each investing £48 12s. in a 12-match pool.

Because twice in five weeks on the average there are no tied games the syndicate was drawn up in three groups. But draws have been frequent this season. On three Saturdays in October, one in December and one in January, no dividends were received. Highest return was on November 20—on second dividend of £12 and 15 thirds of £1. There have been no first dividends. Says Hodgson with a sigh: "One or two people are getting discouraged and dropping out. They have lost a little more than half the money they have invested."

LEGION CARD PARTY ENJOYED

Another of the series of enjoyable card parties was held by the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion at the Legion club rooms Friday night. Out of nine tables of cards the prize-winners were:

Cribbage—ladies first, Mrs. Elmer Murray, men's first, A. Holbrook; consolation, Mrs. A. Denton.

Whist—ladies first, Mrs. Frank Ellison; men's first, N. Powell; consolation, G. Mostad.

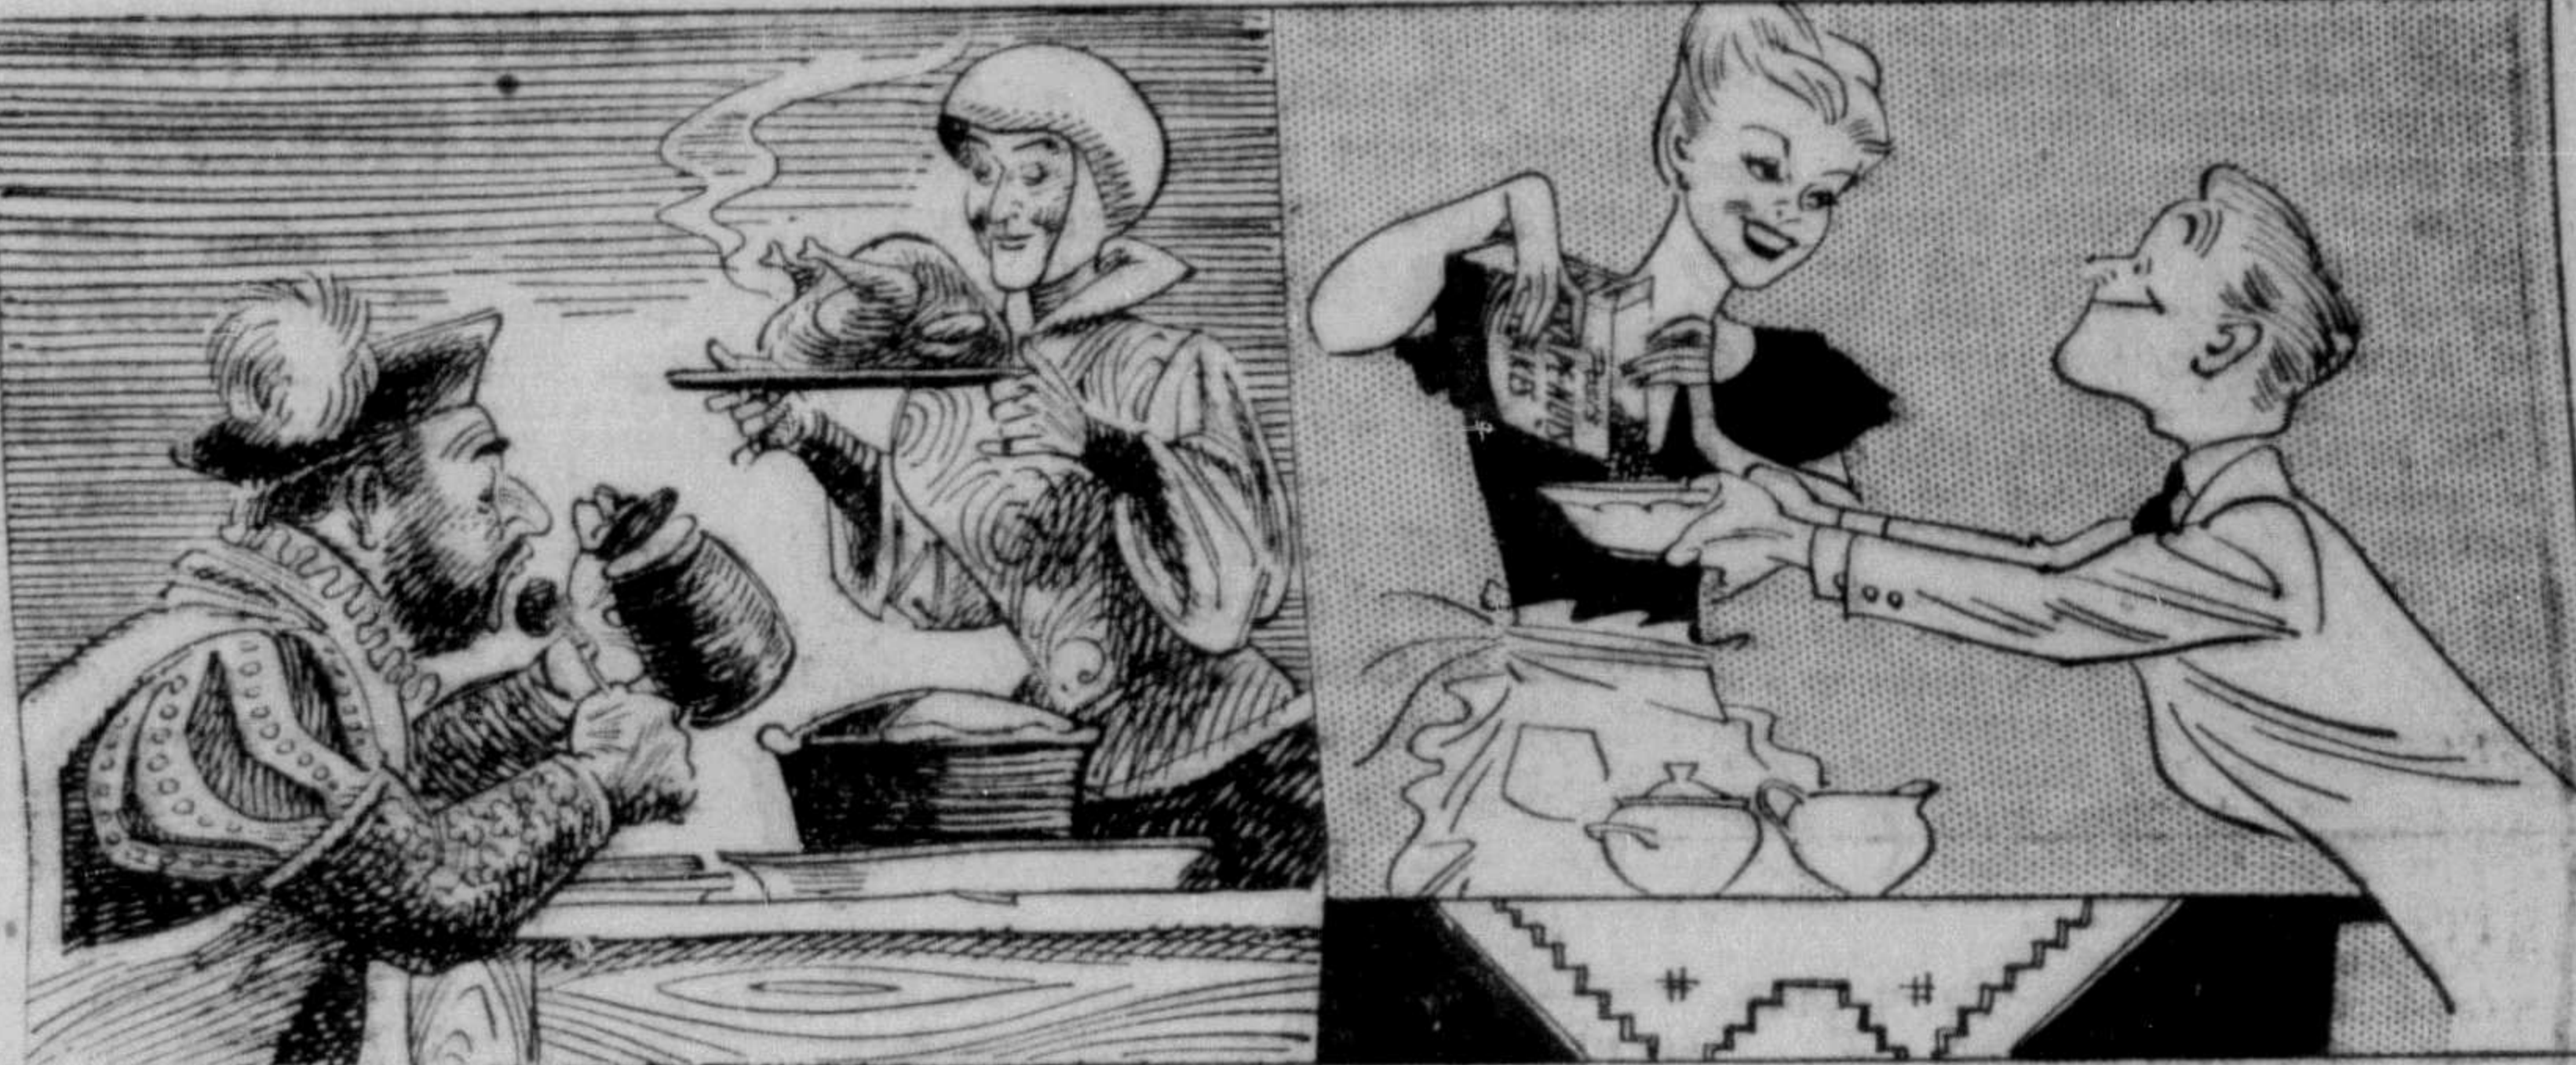

Following card refreshments were served and a cake was raffled, George Young being the winner.

Convener of the party was Mrs. William Rothwell who was assisted by Mrs. J. S. Andrew, Mrs. A. Wallin, Mrs. J. S. Black and Mrs. Lineham.

The next card party will be on March 4.

RANKS WITH GREAT LAKES
Great Bear Lake in the Northwest Territories is larger than Lake Erie by 1,550 square miles and larger than Lake Ontario by 3,950 square miles.

It's so different today

In olden times they started the day with a juicy steak and a tankard of foaming ale! Today the ace-high breakfast dish is Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes... ready-to-eat; easy-to-digest... made not from one but TWO grains—sun-ripened wheat and malted barley.

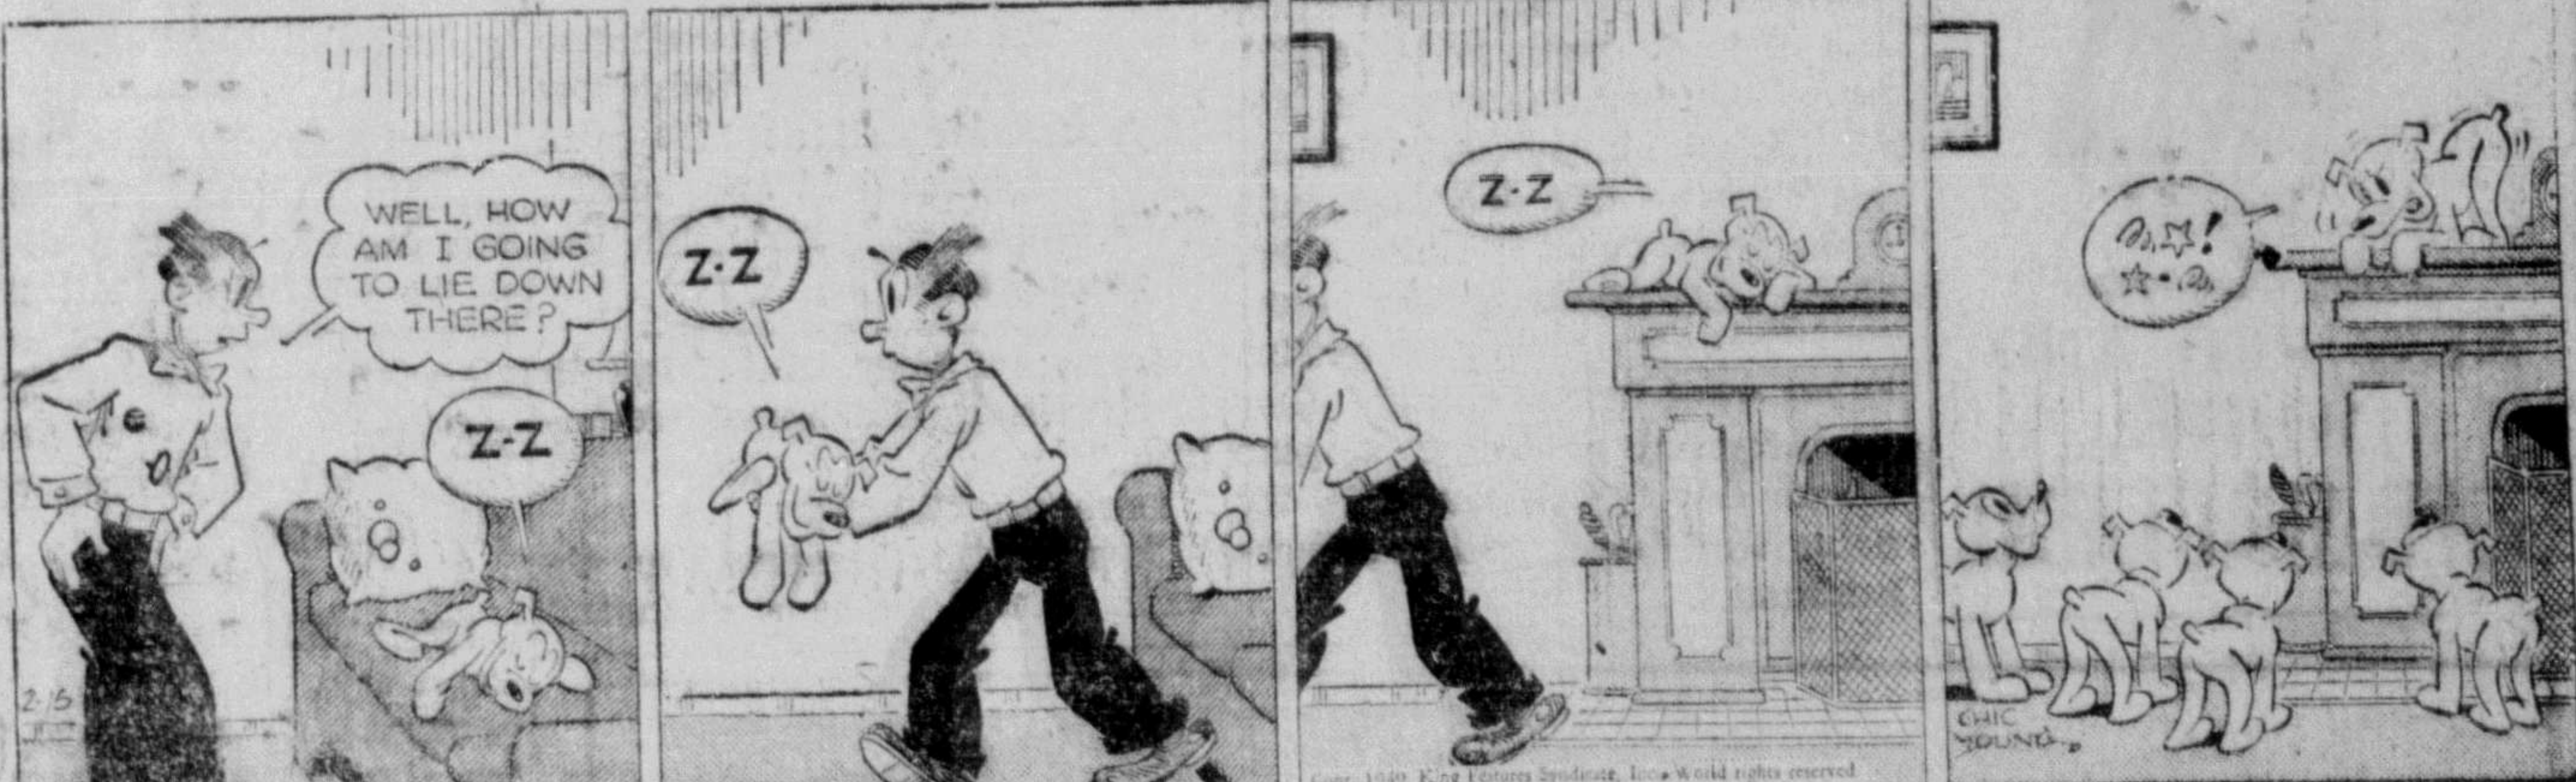

That famous Grape-Nuts flavor in the form of delicious, honey-golden flakes is scrumptious. Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes are nourishing, too... provide useful quantities of carbohydrates and proteins for energy and muscle; phosphorus for teeth, bones; iron for the blood. So tasty—so good—so convenient. Ask your grocer.

Reminiscences
By W. J. — and REFLECTIONS

Jessen's Weekly plant destroyed by fire early in the winter, is now being rebuilt. The cost of one of the linotypes is $15,000. Thinking of starting a little paper? It's such an interesting line of endeavour.

Within twenty-five years, say men given to study and of some vision, it will be possible to travel to the moon in a rocket. The estimated distance is only 258,000 miles and the time 48 hours. Why smile that derisive smile? Half a century ago, had anyone foretold pictures that moved and talked, listening to somebody singing or conversing on the other side of the globe, flying miles high and the disappearance of horses his mental balance might have been questioned.

Tomorrow, February 22, is the birthday anniversary of George Washington, himself of English ancestry. He could never have imagined such a difference between a couple of other Georges—the Third and the Sixth.

British Columbia, seen in the middle of a mean winter, still has power to enchant. Colonel A. S. Lancaster, Tenth Gurka Rifles, on leave from his post as military attache to the British Embassy in Afghanistan, has been spending a few days on the coast for the first time. "Beautiful as Kashmir," he remarked, taking a look around. The terse colonel said it.

The new Canadian Army dress will include bedroom slippers and pyjamas, bath towels, gabardine rain coats, and zippered overshoes. There has, however, been negligence. Some one forgot to order the regulation quantity of toilet water.

The exporting of motorcloths to Soviet Russia made the British House of Commons laugh, when advised to that effect by Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade. To picture Premier Stalin wearing one, somehow struck the Attlee government in its most sensitive funny bone—and it's not at all surprising.

With all the heavy work necessary in fighting Nature, now going on, one is reminded of the time Billy Vaughan Davies, now in Victoria, played a minor role in that sort of thing. Playing is right. One evening in the Presbyterian Church he was accompanying a solo. The composition called for smiting the piano keys, to smite them thrice, and loud enough, to be something like modified thunder. Not far away bull-dozers were at work at the dry dock site, and from that quarter came three blasts, at precisely the same time that Mr. Davies was getting in his work in the church. They synchronized perfectly. Anyone would have been excused for rising and bowing his acknowledgments.

Timely Topics from Terrace
Mrs. C. R. De Kergommeaux, Terrace Reporter

One of the worst blizzards of the season raged in Terrace on Thursday with temperatures very low and a biting wind blow all day, slackening off towards late afternoon and gathering force again on Friday morning. The frozen water main situation still remains the same in the centre of town.

Mrs. E. S. Laird returned home on Wednesday's C.P.A. plane, returning from a trip to Prince Rupert.

Mrs. Florence Bailey and daughter, Lucille, were passengers on Wednesday's C.P.A. plane, returning from a trip to Prince Rupert.

Hugo Kraupner and J. Harry Black of Prince Rupert paid a brief visit to Terrace on Wednesday, returning by plane the same day.

The basketball team, which had been stalled in Terrace after a trip to Telkwa made use of the basketball facilities at the Civic Centre while here and the local boys were matched against them.

MANY WATER PIPES FREEZE

After three clear cold days during which the winter's minimum thermometer reading of 12 above was recorded, it clouded up at Prince Rupert late Sunday and more snow has since followed. Plumbers had their services being demanded to repair frozen water pipes all over the city, some with embarrassing consequences. Multiple plumbing crews were being kept busy over Saturday and Sunday.

Union steamers Coquitlam and Camosun were again both in port last night. The former, in command of Capt. Harry McLean, arrived at 11 a.m. from Massett and Port Clements and sailed at 10 p.m. for Butedale, Nanaimo, Westview and Vancouver. The latter, captained by John Boden, arrived at 5:30 p.m. and sailed at 11 o'clock for Port Simpson, Alice Arm and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow morning and sail at 1:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints. Both vessels had fair-sized lists of passengers.

Jessie: "I hope that I fall in love with a Dutchman sometime."
Dorothy: "Why?"
Jessie: "Oh, because I've always wanted to be a duchess."

Diefenbaker For Less Ill-Will

OTTAWA—Less ill-will of a personal nature, while speaking on the floor of the House is urged by John G. Diefenbaker, Progressive-Conservative of Lake Centre, Saskatchewan. Speaking before crowded galleries he deplored examples of "declarations of hatred and contempt." He asked for a return of parliamentary amenities. The exchange of terms of abuse had been true of all sides of the House. "During the past two or three days," said Mr. Diefenbaker, "things have been said which might well have been left unsaid."

SHOOTS PRIEST IN CATHOLIC CHURCH

NEW YORK—An unknown man walked into a Roman Catholic Church of St. John the Martyr, in this city, and unwrapping a rifle, fired into a confessional, wounding a priest, Rev. Vincent J. Campbell, in the leg. He then fled, pursued by a woman, who lost sight of him within a few blocks. The wounding was not serious.

FRANCOIS LAKE

Mrs. Earl Hanke returned home last Saturday afternoon with her baby son. Since she left, the family has moved down to the Co-op Mill settlement.

SITTINGBOURNE, Kent, Eng.

A modern plep piper is wanted. People have reported large rats, and sewers are being baited with poison.

WINTER HARD ON SMALL BIRDS

This has been a rough winter on the coast and its effects have been felt not only by humans, who, despite unusually heavy snowfall, have never been without food or shelter but on wild life as well.
Particularly hard hit by the snow blanket which shuts off their source of food are the birds which remain here to brighten the winter months. Bird lovers say that when deep snow covers the ground, as it has done for the last few months, the small creatures are almost entirely dependent on human aid to survive.
Cold and lack of food can cause the small birds to perish in great numbers.
