Official Report on Skeena Flood RESULTS OF INSPECTION BY HON. E. T. KENNEY ARE ANNOUNCED

Estimated cost of immediate relief and rehabilitation of property both municipal and private as a result of flood damage in the Skeena River area was placed at $6,525 by Hon. E. T. Kenney, minister of lands and forests and M.L.A. for Skeena, who made a province-wide inspection of flood areas together with recommendations.

Mr. Kenney visited the northern part of the province from Prince Rupert to Prince George and reported as follows:

"Along the Skeena River starting from Kwinita to Kitwanga there is rather extensive damage particularly to railway and highway. The main damage, however, insofar as the settlers are concerned, started at approximately Remo where many buildings were dislodged in the vicinity of the Ferry as well as a great deal of erosion and loss of surface land to their farms in particular across the river from Remo.

"In the vicinity of Terrace, more particularly Brauns Island, where there is an area of some three to four hundred acres largely under cultivation connected to the mainland by a short bridge there was considerable crop damage. Settlers and residents there are largely dependent upon farming, and while the present flood was not as disastrous in respect of the buildings on this island as in 1936 the land suffered extensively.

"In the vicinity of Terrace the Skeena appears to have more or less changed its course from the main channel to what is known as the slough and in doing so a great deal of erosion has taken place and now there is a real threat and danger that it will cut through a very old channel south of the town, in which case it would mean the flooding of many small farms and homes with most disastrous results. A hastily thrown up dyke diverted the water during the present flood and it would appear that the construction of a short dyke at the low point would prevent what may prove to be a major catastrophe later on.

"In that same area one very fine residence suffered severe damage.

At Usk the town was completely under water and a great deal of damage was done to buildings through silting, etc. People were able to move to a high bench during the high water stages. Here also, the Ferry connecting the north and south bank, by the collapsing of a tower and the breaking of the main cable, went down the river and is a total loss.

"Damage in the vicinity of Doreen was also reported, but owing to its isolation I was un-

ADMITS KILLING

Seattle Student Held For Sex Murder of Waitress

SEATTLE, (C)—A 20-year old Seattle university sophomore, the confessed slayer of a drive-in restaurant "car-hop," will face a murder charge, Deputy prosecutor J. Edmund Quigley said today.

John Russel Gasser signed a confession in the presence of six other law officers that he killed Onna Woodcock, 22, in a fit of rage Saturday morning. He has been held without charge since his arrest Saturday night.

The girl's nude, slashed body was found lying in a muddy, vacant lot. She had been criminally assaulted and gagged with her own black brassiere.

FREIGHT PROBE

HALIFAX (C)—The premiers of seven provinces will meet with the Federal cabinet on July 20 at Ottawa to discuss the freight rate issue, Premier Angus L. Macdonald of Nova Scotia said Sunday night.

Mr. Macdonald gave no hint of what new proposals, if any, might be laid before the cabinet.

It was announced Wednesday that the Dominion government had rejected a request from the seven provinces for a Royal Commission to investigate Canadian railway freight rates.

The government also turned down a request for a 21 percent increase in freight rates.

Railway Strike Hangs In Balance; Final Efforts To Ward Off Tie-Up

IS VICE-CONSUL

Importance of Prince Rupert Recognized By Sweden

Ald. Arthur Brooksbank, who for years has been identified with the affairs of the Swedish consulate here through his association with the office of Dybham & Hanson, has been appointed Swedish vice-consul at Prince Rupert, it is announced. The appointment is effective as from April 15, 1948.

Appointment of Mr. Brooksbank as vice-consul makes Prince Rupert the only point west of Montreal where there is a consul and vice-consul in the same consulate. The consul, incidentally the senior for British Columbia, is Olof Hansson.

Prince Rupert was made a consulate six months ago.

Compromise by Minister of Labor Rejected But Dispute Gap Narrowed

OTTAWA—In final efforts to ward off the general railway strike scheduled to start at 6 p.m. Thursday morning of this week, Minister of Labor Humphrey Mitchell presented a compromise wage proposal at meetings with representatives of companies and railway brotherhoods today. Details of the new proposal were not made known but were taken away by the representatives for consideration and answer. Whether or not the strike would materialize hung, it was felt today, on an attitude of give and take by both sides.

Later it was announced that international unions engaged in the wage dispute had rejected the government's latest settlement proposal but came down on their wage demands. The announcement was made by Frank H. Hall, chairman of the negotiating committee for the eighteen unions, after the conference with Mr. Mitchell who on Saturday had made a suggestion as to basis on which a settlement could be worked out.

"We have now told him that it is not enough and have suggested an alternative," said Hall.

Neither proposal was disclosed but Hall said that last week's spread between rail company and union demands was reduced after the meeting with international men.

Mitchell also went into conference with the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, dealing with them independently of the international unions.

As yet neither faction has resumed negotiations with the railway companies which were broken off last week.

With the deadline only three days away, Mitchell warned the union chiefs that, if a tie-up actually developed, the government would take steps to outlaw any future strikes in vital public services.

Meantime an embargo on handling of perishable products was put into effect at the weekend and prospective travelers were being advised not to commence journeys which will take after Wednesday night to complete.

United Farmers of Alberta appealed to the federal government to take over the railways. A strike, they said, would be disastrous to the agricultural industry.

Tom Reid Tells Ottawa of Fraser Valley Floods

OTTAWA—Tom Reid, M.P. for New Westminster, told the Klwanis Club here, in describing the Fraser Valley floods, that 70,000 persons were driven from their homes. Chief hope in averting repetition lay in taking a lesson from Holland. Present dykes were wholly inadequate, he said.

COMMIE DOOM

London Times Sees Handwriting In Attack On YugoSlavia

LONDON—The Times says "the writing is on the wall for Communists everywhere" as a result of the Cominform attack on YugoSlavia. In France and Italy they stand stripped of their last claim to act as national parties. Cominform is seen more clearly than ever as first and last "a Russian tool."

REINFORCE BERLIN

LONDON—An authoritative source said today that Britain has sent considerable numbers of new troops to western Germany because of the tension in blockaded Berlin. The informant said that many will be flown into Berlin itself.

ON FIRST VISIT—Paying his first visit to Prince Rupert since his appointment a few months ago as vice-president and general manager in charge of western lines, Canadian National Railways, J. P. Johnson of Winnipeg is in the city today. He arrived on the Prince George this morning from Vancouver and will proceed East by rail this afternoon. R. C. Vaughan, chairman of the board and president of the Canadian National, who was on the coast and was to have come here, returned hurriedly from Vancouver to Montreal at the week-end because, it is understood, of the impending strike situation. Mr. Johnson, who inspected the company's local facilities today, was met here by J. P. Cooper, general superintendent, Vancouver, and C. E. Stewart, superintendent of motive power and equipment. They and C. A. Berner, divisional superintendent here, are going East with Mr. Johnson today. Also here to meet Mr. Johnson are J. L. Charles, chief engineer, western region, and St. John Munro, district engineer, Vancouver, who arrived Sunday evening.

SEATTLE LEARNS

Told A Few Things About Motor Transportation From Here to Alaska

Information bureau of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, which misinformed motor tourists from Florida recently that there was no transportation for automobiles between Prince Rupert and Ketchikan, has been put straight on that matter by E. T. Applewhite, secretary of the Prince Rupert Public Relations Council.

In addition to advising the Seattle information bureau that four coastal liners, operating on regular schedule, can take cars from Prince Rupert to Ketchikan, Mr. Applewhite has also pointed out that three of these vessels include in their schedule calls at Haines, Alaska, where cars can be unloaded to be driven on over the Haines Cut-off to the main Alaska Highway.

"The Haines Cut-off is going to be one of Alaska's biggest tourist attractions for the motoring traveler," asserts Prince Rupert's enthusiastic counterpart of Vancouver's Leo Sweeney.

The Haines Cut-off matter came up when the West Palm Beach motorists told the Daily News they had never even heard of it until they reached Prince Rupert.

The British Columbia Government Travel Bureau also gets a copy of Mr. Applewhite's letter to Seattle.

Railway Strike

ALTHOUGH the deadline nears and tenseness grows, everybody is hoping that the general strike of railway employees will not occur. Probably none are more fervently hoping that something will happen between now and the middle of the week to obviate the strike than are the very railway employees whose votes some time ago authorized the strike call. It seemed a long time off then and probably a lot of them voted just a little heedlessly, thinking it could never really happen anyway. Now that the prospect of a holiday without pay looms within a matter of two or three days, everybody is getting at least a little anxious. For many quite possibly, it may be a matter of immediate serious economic importance. Without discussing the whys or wherefores, it is a fairly serious matter for the most of workers to be thrown into uncompensated idleness, whether or not there is unemployment insurance.

So much then for the workers, strong and deservng as their case may be, whose strike vote, when it comes right down to facts, is the immediate strike deciding factor. But how about the rest of the public apart from the railway workers themselves who, in their aggregate, comprise quite a sizeable portion of the public throughout Canada and right here in Prince Rupert? Speaking for the public we do not have to think very hard to realize just what a body blow a general railway strike, even of brief duration, would be—how it would affect in very short order our very existence through the delivery of food and supplies to us and the handling of the products which we have to ship to the rest of the country and world. But apart from that there would be the inconveniences—the unavailability of the railway for our every day requirements, the lack of telegraph service and travel and communication facilities, the stoppage of express and mails except by air and, possibly, steamer which would themselves soon become glutted and slowed up.

Think of any of our goods and services! Think of any of our every day operations! How long would they last and, lasting, how much more expensive and inconvenient they would be? Take the newspaper for instance—how long could we publish without communications and transportation to deliver news and material?

We would soon come to realize how much we depend upon the railway for our economic existence and still how much worse it would be for communities which would have no alternative.

Yes, a general railway strike would be a serious matter for all of us but, paradoxically enough, the ones to suffer the least would probably be those very persons to whom the protest of strike action would be primarily directed. We have seen strikes before where that has happened.

The strike weapon can be a potent and devastating one and the unfortunate part about it is that it can recoil upon the very people who, conscientiously enough, possibly, in support of a worthy cause, essayed to use it.

Surely there must be some other better way of settling the disputes that at present lead to strikes! Surely there is some way of getting together and letting reason prevail by and between contending sides!

We may everyone of us earnestly hope that it may not happen after all. But, if it is not to happen now, it will be necessary for somebody to give in one way or another unless there is some sort of intervention which would likely involve coercion rather than a mutual acceptance of terms in a spirit of goodwill which is the only way that a lasting settlement can be reached.

A general railway strike would be a very bad thing for Canada and every community and person in the country. If it is allowed to precipitate, somebody will have been responsible for a thing which without a doubt would very soon have effects for which no one would want to feel they were responsible.

THE KINSEY REPORT

FROM CERTAIN ANGLES, the Kinsey Report has been a distinct disappointment as "best seller." It's not that kind of a book it seemed at first glance to be. Indeed, it might be thought a bit dry. The collection of essays on the sex habits of American men by a group of scientists treats of marriage, sex education, religion, law, prison and institutional life, anthropology, sociology, psychiatry, physiology and other factors—quite a handful, in fact. But it lacks lasciviousness. There's another big word for you! There is not much of the voluptuous. The information is all there, of course, but not expressed in the way the lustful minded expect and want. Knowledge, cold and correct, does not provoke excitement.

QUEBEC THRILL

Direct Descendant of General Wolfe Sees Battlefield
QUEBEC—Mrs. Mary Wolfe Bexon of Nottingham, England, was among the 701 passengers arriving here aboard the liner Empress of Canada. She was on her way to Winnipeg, to visit a sister, Mrs. McMillan. It gave Mrs. Bexon a thrill, to see for the first time, the tall cliffs of Quebec. She is a direct descendant of General James Wolfe, under whose leadership the fortress was scaled, and who died on the battlefield of the Plains of Abraham.

AFTERMATH OF SASKATCHEWAN ELECTION RESULTS—This photo of the Canadian Press room in the editorial department of The Leader Post, Saskatoon, was taken about 3 a.m. after operators had flashed an estimated 25,000 words of coverage on the Saskatchewan provincial election to the world. Carbon paper, ticker tape and other assorted debris littered the floor after operators had labored for six hours. Results said Premier T. C. Douglas and his Socialist government had been returned for a second term.

Reminiscences and Reflections

By W.J.

What was the weather like in Prince Rupert during 1923? A shade fickle, we'll say. There were months so dry that you wondered why cobwebs failed to form on your lips. Yet the rainfall totalled more than 128 inches. The year was one of the wettest on local records. November and December went to town. Yet consider this—May had a few healthy showers, June could do no better than 1.13 inches, and July managed to squeeze out 1.41.

Who and why Gilhuly? You have read that name quite frequently in the Daily News sporting columns but to have known Fred would mean a rather lengthy residence in Prince Rupert. It's many a long year since he has been seen this far north. He did his share in promoting and supporting the games. He ran a tobacco shop at Third and Fifth Street (where Watts & Nickerson now stand) and many were the arguments heard within its walls. Gil just shaved by staying here permanently once. He had an illness that kept them watching mightily close. The years have been good ones. We are still eating regularly and that is more than some are doing in Europe, comments C. H. Sawie, in calling attention to a birthday anniversary. The sage of New Hazelton says it's the 42nd for the Omineca Herald and the 36th under the present management. Chuck first sighted the sharp peaks of Rocher de Boule when he arrived on a 24th of May, sailing the river aboard a Foley, Welch & Stewart steamer. And that's some time ago. He liked the look of things so well he has not been more than 11,321 miles away at one time ever since.

General Eisenhower has again advised Democratic leaders that he will not be a candidate for the presidency. If he had only said "I do not Choose" that would have settled the matter once and for all, the very first time.

COUPLE HONORED

Party for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knutson

An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Knutson on Saturday night, the occasion being to celebrate the marriage of their second son, Arthur Knutson, to Miss Joyce Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Young of Prince Rupert, which took place at Prince George last week. About 20 were present.

A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, made by the groom's mother and decorated by Mrs. R. D. Scherk, centred the table which was covered with an embroidered cloth.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Scherk to which the groom responded. As the bride cut the cake pictures were taken by Stan Vickerman.

STUDENTS LOSE

Gordon and Anderson Take First Victory of Season Off High School

G. & H. 16: HIGH SCHOOL 9
Gordon and Anderson made a belated entry into the realities of fastball Saturday night when they took their first victory of the season from High School by a score of 16-9 at Gyro Park in the City League.

For the students it terminated a series-within-a-series in which they played four games straight and muffed a chance to tie 99 Taxi for top position in the league. The four games were encounters which had been postponed for various reasons earlier in the season.

As it was, the High School lads won two of the games and lost two to give them a tie spot with Co-op for third and second last, position in the league.

To Gordon and Anderson, the victory was literally a black-letter occasion for it put them on the credit side of the league standing for the first time in five games. Although they are still at the bottom of the closely-bunched league, they nevertheless have one game to their credit.

For the merchants it was not a game without cost, as Bob Moxley, G. & A. pitcher could painfully testify. Moxley caught a line drive in the face in the fourth inning, damaging his teeth and putting him out of the game. He was relieved by Whatman, who moved in from right field to the mound.

High School made a strong start, building up a lead of 4-0 in the first two innings, but in the third, G. & A. brought in three runs off three hits to trail by a single run until the fifth when they climbed ahead on the basis of six runs brought in off High School Pitcher Forbes.

The Merchants brought in another three in the sixth and four more in the seventh to bring the score to 16.

High School came alive in the sixth again to clout in three runs off Whatman and added two more in the seventh but they were so far behind by that time that there was little hope of victory.

Both sides employed two pitchers. Moxley struck out four, walked six and allowed two hits in his four innings on the mound, while Whatman struck out three, walked six and allowed seven hits in the remaining four innings.

For High School, Forbes struck out two, walked two and allowed 10 hits in five innings, while Spring, who relieved him, struck out three, walked four and allowed six hits.

Off to Camp

First Party of Boys Leaves For Interior

A carefree special pulled away from the bus depot shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning on a charter trip to Lakelse Lake. Long before the bus was due to leave, boys from every part of the city were piling their suitcases and duffle bags in the family car or packing them along the Sunday-deserted streets to the rendezvous.

Twenty-four boys had been notified they were to leave Sunday for a 10-day stay at the Kinsmen Kiddie Kamp and 24 boys were aboard when the bus left. Each passenger had the necessary camp equipment such as blankets, towels, bathing suits, toilet articles and extra clothing and many of them had luxury luggage such as fishing rods and cameras.

Although rain was showering Prince Rupert as the expedition got under way it did not affect the boys' high spirits. R. G. Moore and Stan Saville acted as tour conductors and stops were made at several places along the highway where objects of special interest were pointed out.

At Terrace everyone de-bussed for coffee or coke before making the last lap to the lake shore where they were met by the camp supervisor, Leonard Casey, George Dobb and Russell Cameron. With the camp boats the whole party were ferried up the lake to the camp site where Mrs. Casey had a fine meal prepared for the boys.

The sun was bright in a cloudless sky when the party arrived at the lake and the campers were looking forward to a cooling plunge in Lakelse water.

Hotel Men Strengthen Hold on League Leadership

SAVOYS 11; MERCHANTS 3

Savoys strengthened their hold on City Baseball League leadership Sunday afternoon at Roosevelt Park when they clouted Merchant pitcher George Eliuk for an 11-3 victory, their second successive win since the resumption of schedule play last Thursday.

To Jack Lindsay, Savoy pitcher, went the honor for the Savoy triumph, as well as the glory of the highest batting record of the game. In five times at bat he made three hits, two of them triples, to bring in two runs.

Savoys readily overcame an initial Merchant lead by taking advantage of errors which cost the Merchants four runs in the second inning, only two of them off hits.

Merchants had scored two runs in the second inning, Linney and Dominato, both off singles, and their final run came in the sixth when Cliff Dahl got on base after being hit by a pitched ball and was brought in by Linney.

Eliuk held the hotelmen hitless during the third and fourth innings but, in the sixth, they began a scoring rampage that lasted until the ninth and marked up seven runs for a total score of 11. Four of the Savoys runs resulted directly from Merchant errors.

In the sixth, Morgan got a base on balls and was scored when Bill got to first on an error by Hartwig who fumbled a grounder by Alex Bill. Gurvich, who singled, scored when Eliuk made a bad throw in an attempt to catch Bill on his way to second.

Savoys' only run in the seventh was scored by Lindsay who hit a triple and came home on a bad throw from second by Cliff Dahl. Two of the four runs scored by Savoy in the eighth were made off errors by Merchants.

In nine innings, Lindsay faced 36 batters, striking out 11 and allowing eight hits. Eliuk faced 37 in eight innings, striking out three and allowing 9 hits. Dahl, who relieved him in the ninth, struck out one and allowed one hit.

Sport Shots

Tension in London sports circles is increasing and pen thrusts by some sports writers are sharpening as the days tick by to Britain's greatest athletic blowout in 40 years—the July 29-August 14 Olympic Games. It all doesn't tend to further international amity, supposed key-note of the Games. For instance, John Robertson, columnist with the weekly Sporting Record, isn't a mite impressed—is even doubtful—with what he terms those "fantastic" track and field record times by United States athletes from "California, Chicago or Cincinnati." "Shucks," he says, "there's no need to treat the Yankees as 'demi-gods.'"

In the same issue, Lord Aberdare, member of the Organizing Olympic Committee takes a rap closer home—at "certain British sports writers" who "misinterpret" and show "hostility towards international sport." Various writers have gone on record with the declaration Britain isn't ready to stage the Games and that British athletes are going to take a fearful beating. Lord Aberdare finds it "distressing" to read such articles and wonders if "people abroad believe we have lost our love of sport and that sense of fair play which has in the past been so closely associated with the British race."

But it is Robertson who has directed a few well-aimed barbs at the United States. "There is

What is a Burley Tobacco

It's one of the mildest tobaccos grown and the particularly suited for your pipe. Because of the texture of the Burley leaf, it burns slowly... smokes cool... stays lit!

For mellow, flavorful tobacco, you can't beat top-grade Burley leaf... expertly blended.

It's a pipe tobacco that new smokers especially... that veteran smokers swear by. Try a pipe

MORRIS SUMMIT

Encouraging Results From Diamond Drilling Program

The present extensive diamond drilling program being undertaken by Morris Summit Gold Mines Ltd., at the Salmon Gold Mine, Portland Canal mining division, British Columbia, is consistently yielding very encouraging results, according to Col. E. M. Thompson, president of the company.

Six holes have been drilled to date above the 3002 drift on the tunnel level where an ore shoot 100 feet long has been developed grading an average of .79 oz. gold per ton across an average width of 5.75 feet. These diamond drill holes indicate an ore body 200 feet high vertically and 150 feet long with both ends open. Average core width is 10.76 feet and grade averages 1.27 ozs. per ton.

In addition to the above, a narrow high grade vein has also been intersected about ten feet north of the main vein, averaging 2.58 ozs. gold per ton across an average width of 2.10 feet.

DIGBY PICNIC

Showery weather failed to dampen the spirits of members of St. Peter's Sunday School and Bible Class during their picnic at Digby Island on Saturday. Children and parents made the trip to the picnic grounds on Charles Currie's boat C.R.C.

During the afternoon, the group enjoyed ice cream, candy and soft drinks and took part in races. Arrangements were looked after by W. B. Skinner, superintendent of the Sunday School, and Miss Jean Smith. Those who took first and second position in the various races were Leona Thorsteinson, Brian Baldwin, Randi Baldwin, Barrie Kurdzell, Tommy Redhead, Shirley Kurdzell, Bobby Redhead, Dennis Griffiths, Jacqueline Viereck, Donald Baldwin, Jimmy Baldwin, Et'hel Moorehouse, Irma Bishop, Mrs. D. Thorsteinson, Mrs. G. Baldwin, Mrs. G. Redhead, W. Griffiths and W. B. Skinner.

TORBRIT LARGEST SILVER MINE

Alice Arm Property Will Be Biggest Producer in Canada

A company statement says "British Columbia will have the largest straight silver producer in Canada when the Torbrit mine starts operations this fall. The initial milling capacity scheduled for October, is 350 tons per day. This milling rate had been predicted on ore reserves totalling 450,000 tons but more recent drilling indicates that the reserves will be about fifty percent greater.

The widths of silver ore are a feature of development, most of this being between 25 and 30 feet.

MAKE LOTS FOR EVERYBODY!
Get 50% MORE Jam or Jelly from your Fruit with CERTO

RESULTS ARE SURE!

WHAT IS CERTO?
Why does Certo give you so much more jam and jelly? And why do Certo jams and jellies look better... taste better?
It's all quite simple. Certo is nothing but "fruit pectin"—the natural substance in fruit that makes jams "jam" and jellies "jelly". It's extracted and refined to help you make better jams and jellies more easily and quickly.

THE CERTO SHORT BOIL
With Certo you don't have to boil and boil and boil your fruit to make it set. A one-to-two-minute full, rolling boil is enough for jams... a half-minute-to-a-minute for jellies.

CERTO DOES THIS
1 Gives you 50% more jam or jelly because you save all the precious fruit juice that wastes away in steam in long boiling.
2 Cuts to a fraction the time spent over the stove.
3 Retains the lovely, natural fresh-fruit taste and colour. That's still more important because with Certo you use fruit at its peak of flavor and colour—not the under-ripe fruit used in long-boil recipes.

SUCCESS SURE —
EVEN FOR BEGINNERS
However inexperienced you may be, you'll have no failures if you follow exactly the recipes provided with Certo. Different fruits need different handling. There's a separate kitchen-tested recipe for each one.

EVERYTHING HASN'T RAISED IN PRICE...

• It may surprise many but 1847 Rogers and Company Silver flatware is the same price as before the war.

And as the tax is now off it should be doubly attractive.

Bulger's always sell standard goods at Canadian advertised prices even though express charges are more than those of places nearer to the factories.

For instance a Big Ben clock or set of silver sells for the same price as in Ontario where it is made.

A large part of our stock is made up of standard advertised goods and we try to keep the balance in line with the prices of other cities. And we guarantee the satisfaction of our goods.

Something from Bulger's is always something worth having.
