A Momentous Choice

THE REPUBLICAN convention in Philadelphia this week is approaching the point when it will be known who the party's presidential candidate will be. Enthusiastic supporters of the G.O.P. are saying their choice will be tantamount to determining the presidency.

Yet, in politics, no one can foretell with absolute certainty, for the wish is always father to the thought. For sixteen years, the Republicans have been wandering in the wilderness.

American history has witnessed historic and colorful conventions. The hand of Lincoln was seen in the formation of the Republican Party in the stressful times when the nation moved toward the supreme crisis of 1861. In later years, the scathing words of Blain, "rum, Romanism and rebellion" stirred the country, and in the nineties, Bryan's "cross of gold" speech had an electrifying effect.

The result of the present Republican convention might well have an important effect on international affairs.

THE FLOOD FUND

SOME SAY IT with four bits and some with a substantial cheque but it all comes down to the fact that it really is more blessed to give than receive. It's not so much a matter of means or amount, although both are important when the circumstances are urgent. Prudence and judgment are not to be neglected and self-preservation is the first law. There may be times when assistance to others comes second. The sharper the need, the greater the sense of satisfaction there ought to be in feeling the ability to succor. It's reflection is seen in the long, long lists of names circulating all over the Pacific coast.

RAILWAY RUNS AGAIN

OF COURSE, you never miss the water till the well runs dry! But how about never missing a railway till the cars quit cold? It's not been a case of water scarcity. The other way round, in fact. Anyway, cheer up! The Skeena is back to normal and trains are running and close to the dot at that. The thing now to do is rub those shapely hands of yours, and take a fresh grip on the job of helping Fraser Valley folk. They can stand it.

YOU KNOW HIM

YOU KNOW HIM. He lives in every rural neighborhood and in every city block. Often he is a competent, industrious, thrifty person. His place is well kept. When not at work he usually may be found at home. He pays his taxes but he does not vote. He attends church but he will not work in it. He goes to lodge but he will not hold office. His children go to school but he will not take part in school meetings. He enjoys the beauty of his town but he will not belong to the horticultural society. He believes in world brotherhood but he does nothing to promote it. He minds that little part of his own business which lies within his own neat fences, but let something go wrong or displease him in the conduct of that greater part of his own business which is everybody's business, and he will squeal like a pig under a gate.

Insects Worst Forest Enemy

Protection of Timber Resources Discussed by Official Before Gyro Club

Spectacular forest fires, which always attract attention of the public eye and 40 per cent of which are man-caused and could to considerable extent be prevented, do extensive damage to the forests out an even larger toll of the timber resources is taken by insect infestation, J. P. MacDonald, fire inspector for the Forest Branch here, told the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon yesterday. He was speaking on the subject of "Forest Protection" and his discourse was listened to with keen interest by a large attendance of Gyro members.

With the country's timber supplies dwindling, the importance of protective and conservation measures was urged by Mr. MacDonald. He discussed forest fires under three heads—prevention, detection and suppression.

In fire prevention public education was an important factor, this being achieved by means of the press, lectures, through the schools and by legislation. During the fire seasons it was mandatory to have permits for all fires and it was compulsory for logging operations to have fire fighting equipment immediately available.

Mr. MacDonald compared the look-out and aerial reconnaissance methods of forest fire detection, discussing the advantages and disadvantages of each. "The helicopter may be the coming answer to a lot of our prayers although it does not fit into all our needs at present," he remarked.

The official expressed the gratification at public co-operation which the department was so generously accorded in connection with forest fire detection. Experience, manpower and equipment were the keynote essentials of forest fire suppression, said Mr. MacDonald. As for fires themselves, there were the factors of humidity, fuel and wind which, when combined under certain circumstances, might produce highly explosive and difficult situations. Methods of forest fire extinguishing were discussed—the use of water and chemicals, removal of fuel by back-firing and other means.

The speaker described a very difficult fire in Prince Rupert district within the last fortnight. A fire had been caused in a Bella Coola valley logging operation by the friction of a sliding bull block on a cable. So dangerous was the situation that the fire could not be controlled by immediately available equipment and, before it was out, it had burned over 2,000 acres, destroying eight to ten million feet of timber. Difficulties of fighting fires in remote areas was referred to.

STOP DEWEY DRIVE

Vandenberg's Nomination Heartens New York Governor's Opponents

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Senator Arthur Vandenberg's consent yesterday to allow his name to be placed formally in nomination for the presidency at the Republican convention cheered presidential hopefuls, led by Senator Robert Taft of Ohio and Harold Stassen of Minnesota who were trying desperately to halt the blitz bid of Governor Thomas Dewey of New York for nomination on an early ballot. They figured that Vandenberg's name before the convention would hold some votes from Dewey.

There is a good deal of delayed mail matter still piling up, many hundreds of sacks still awaiting delivery at Prince Rupert.

KILLED BY BEAR

Local Man Hopes Tragic Fate of Brother May Be Example to Others

Tragic fate of his brother in a losing fight with a grizzly bear in the wilds of the Big Bend district northeast of Revelstoke may, it is hoped by Charles Viers of this city, serve at least some good as an object lesson to those who would venture into a British Columbia wilderness alone.

Last November Clarence Lemuel Viers, 40-year-old trapper and dry dock worker at Prince Rupert during the war, left for his trapline seventy miles north of Revelstoke. It was his usual custom to be away about six months. When he failed to come out in the late spring, it was decided by the police to investigate.

On arrival at Viers' cabin after a tedious journey through wild country, Constable Malcolm Macdonald and two men accompanying him discovered that tragedy had occurred. Lying in the cabin were the mangled remains of Viers who, it seemed apparent, had been killed right in his cabin by a grizzly bear. There was one discharged cartridge in Viers' rifle and five unspent ones. The unfortunate man was believed to have been dead for six months. The condition of the remains and the amount of food left in the cabin indicated this. The police officer considering no inquest was necessary, the remains were buried near the cabin. A memorial service was held in the United Church at Revelstoke.

Clarence Viers was born at Red Willow, Alberta, and his father still lives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Slater are sailing tonight on the Prince Rupert on a holiday trip to Vancouver.

UNDERSTANDING = MODERATION

Understanding comes to us when we see things through the other fellow's eyes . . .

when we listen through the other fellow's ears . . .

when we consider the other fellow's point of view at all times.

It's the key to happy living together. For it leads us to weigh our words and shape our actions for the common good.

Happily a Canadian characteristic, it's this understanding which leads us to choose the path of moderation in all things . . .

moderation in our thinking, moderation in our spending . . .

moderation in our pleasure, moderation in the enjoyment of whisky.

For understanding makes us realize that moderation benefits not only our own selves, but our families, our communities and all of Canada.

Men who Think of Tomorrow Practice Moderation Today!

FIGHTING FIRES IN NORTHERN ONTARIO—Nine great fires lately swept the tinder-dry north bush of Ontario. There were several smaller ones. The whole country was "tinder-dry" as men battled the flames. Some commercial planes, along with 30 departmental planes, were busily engaged in fighting the fires. Workers are shown here busy at work. Fish and wild life have been ruined for 50 years, officials state. Millions of dollars of timber and white pine were destroyed.

SCIENTISTS MEET FISHING HEADS

Members of the Fisheries Research Board, the fishing industry and scientific workers from west coast biological and experimental stations met here Tuesday to exchange ideas on conservation of various types of Pacific fisheries.

At a dinner given by the members of the industry at the Civic Centre, the group of 29 heard Dr. J. R. Dymond, vice-chairman of the Board, explain its objectives of conserving and expanding all types of fishery in Canada.

Dr. Neal Carter, director of the Vancouver experimental station, spoke on experimental work carried on at his station to develop ways of improving oil and fish products and Dr. R. E. Foerster, director of the Nanaimo Biological Station, told of the progress of investigations of the sockeye and pink salmon and herring carried out on a continuing basis.

Earlier, the scientific group had met the four-man Skeena River advisory board, in discussions of various phases of the salmon industry.

Chairman of the luncheon meeting was Charles E. Starr, manager of Pacific Fisheries Ltd.

Mrs. J. G. Garrett and child are sailing Saturday night on the Prince George for a visit in Vancouver and elsewhere in the south.

Timely Recipe

Olive Tomato Supper

Here's a quickie supper dish you can whip up in no time at all. Most of the ingredients for "Olive Tomato Supper" come right off your pantry shelf. It's hearty and nourishing with plenty of cheese and ripe olives to make it specially good.

- 1 tablespoon shortening
- 3 tablespoons chopped onion
- 1 can condensed tomato soup
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 cup grated American cheese
- 4 ounces noodles

Cut olives from pits into large pieces. Melt shortening, add onion and cook slowly until tender. Add tomato soup, water and seasonings, and simmer about 5 minutes. Add olives and cheese, and stir over low heat until cheese is melted. Cook noodles until tender in boiling salted water. Drain. Pour sauce over noodles, mix well and serve at once.

The property is on Attu Island and consists of jeeps, trucks, tractors, graders, electronics, compressors, trailers, assorted clothing and numerous other items.

Fraser Valley Milk Production Keeps Up

VANCOUVER—The Fraser Valley flood, calamitous as it is, involves only about 20 per cent of the valley's milk production. An estimated 80 per cent of the dairy farms of Chilliwack, much of Sumas, all of Cloverdale, Ladner and Lulu Island are doing business as usual.

SHOW IS REAL VARIETY BY LITTLE THEATRE FOR FLOOD RELIEF FUND

Still another local group has undertaken to "do its bit" for flood relief. The Prince Rupert Little Theatre is staging a varied bill of entertainment at the Civic Centre on Monday evening, all proceeds of which will be devoted to the Flood Emergency Fund and all services for which have been donated. Well over thirty persons, including helpers behind the scenes are combining their talents and efforts to make this program an outstanding success.

The show has been named "Three Curtains" and will be divided into three parts. First Curtain will rise on a radio skit entitled "Hiring the Maid," which will introduce a number of variety turns. In order that there may be no dull moments, between curtains, W. D. Griffiths will entertain with the monologues which have made him so popular with Prince Rupert audiences.

VISUAL CARE
Is Important!

DEFECTIVE eyesight reduces efficiency and greatly hampers the activities of those afflicted. Many who are afflicted with fading and impaired vision do not realize what is interfering with their work and slowing them down. Nature gives warning of eye trouble by causing headaches and other symptoms. Relief may be had through an Optometric examination and the use of whatever the findings of the examination may indicate. Optometry is the art and science of visual care—outstandingly successful in the great majority of cases of impaired eyesight. The habit of a regular examination is necessary toward keeping vision at its best.

Reminiscences and Reflections
By W.J.

"The working stiff." How did that ever find its way into the language? There is this to be said for the expression. There is little or no trouble in remembering and most everyone understands perfectly what is meant. The tinge of slang takes care of that. There is nothing very indelicate. Anyone who bestirs himself and gives an honest day's work for an honest day's pay fits the description. From that angle we are all "working stiffs."

The average classified advertisement is so impersonal that the reader, even though perhaps interested, does not suspect live news—perhaps vital to someone. There may be only three or four lines, or less, but freighted with more real meaning—to somebody—than anything else in the paper.

Currency changes in Germany are not helping simplify the already involved situation prevailing there. At this distance, it looks like an increase in confusion. In Berlin, the United Nations, doubtless for good reasons, are following a drastic course. All that's needed now is time.

Burdensome times for the mail staffs, both in and out of post offices, for a flood can be far-reaching. Trains are delayed, schedules are all shot, delivery time is hard to reckon, makeshifts have to be borne, and regular sleeping time becomes unregulated, and one must suit his own convenience to the service, as is. But then nearly everyone will say his own job is the one least to be desired.

Louis and Walcott will swap slaps tonight. The event was to have been staged yesterday, but was postponed because of rain.

THERE IS NO FINER CIGARETTE

This time it can't be blamed on the flood. There is big interest, and money by the hundreds of thousands, of course. Quite a lot of the world however, it may be safely assumed, remains calm and collected. Graybeards could say there was more excitement when Corbett dethroned Sullivan or when Fitzsimmons entered the ring once too often. But today when there are so many other matters people are thinking about, this affair is just another fight.

HOW CAN I ???
By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I smooth a scuffed place in the leather of a shoe?

A. When you discover a piece of loose leather on a scuffed shoe, do not tear it off. Apply a little liquid nail polish, paste it down securely, shine the shoe, and the place will never be noticeable.

Q. How can I take away the cloudy appearance of soup?

A. Try dropping the white of an egg into the soup, and when it curdles remove it. This will take away any impurity that is in the soup.

Q. How can I make the teeth whiter?

A. The application of a solution of peroxide of hydrogen diluted with one-half water will be helpful.

Q. How can I make maple candy?

A. Take a pint of rich milk and a pound of maple sugar. Cook until a soft ball is formed when dropped in water; flavor with vanilla, add a cup of pecans or other nuts, and pour out on a greased pan to cool. Mark off in squares before it becomes too hard.

ABOUT THE RED FRONT

Every day an American laborer reads his union members: "This country a Communist is who keeps his heart and in Moscow and his skin and in the U.S.A."

And how Communism sucks in intellectuals. I should think an "intellectual" was a person who did a lot of independent thinking; but amongst the Communies you think what they tell you to think and if you get out of line, they crack down on you. If you're not allowed to think for yourself, how can you be an intellectual?

Change, too, how some workmen Communism can help them. Russian Communism puts between 12,000,000 and 20,000,000 into slave labor camps—work army of slaves in all. And no denial of the fact from Moscow.

Can't seem to make sense that Communists Uncle Sam won't let us into his country, claiming agents of Russia and against democracy, are running big unions in this country.

Most puzzling of all to me is how some people figure Socialism is different from Communism which both were started by Karl Marx. Both want the State to own the means of production and run the people who produce things; because Russia put it into practice and there you can see how Socialism works when you try it full scale.

GARDEN 'NOTEBOOK

SOW PANSIES FOR NEXT SPRING THIS SUMMER

Pansy plants such as are sold in flower in early spring may be grown quite easily by the gardener who has a cold frame. The seed is sown in late summer in a seed bed which can be shaded and watered.

Seed of one of the giant strains should be obtained if one wants large flowers. Violas may also be given the same treatment. All pansies are members of the viola family, but the name pansy is applied to those which have "faces."

If you have a seed bed made of fine soil shaded with a canopy of cheesecloth or lath, and which can be watered, sow the seed in rows. If you have no such seed bed prepare a flat shallow box full of sifted soil in the usual manner and sow the pansies in that. It can be placed in a shady spot and kept well watered until the seedlings appear.

In sowing spread the seed thinly. Mix sand with it if necessary to prevent overcrowding. If the seeds are too thick it will be difficult to disentangle the roots of the seedlings when the time comes to move them. As soon as the seeds sprout they should be given all the light possible and plenty of fresh air. Do not let them dry out. Protect them from the midday sun.

When the seedlings have made their first true leaves they should be transplanted to other flats, where they have more space, or to the cold frame. Florists usually move them to flats where they are planted 2 inches each way; this is called "pricking out." They are allowed to grow here until they are small sturdy plants. The amateur may short cut this procedure and move the seedlings directly from the seed bed or first flat to the cold frame.

Soil in the cold frame should not be overmanured, but should be light and friable and reasonably fertile. The plants should be set in rows, 4 inches apart in the rows, and 6 inches between the rows. Let the plants grow in the open through the fall until the ground begins to freeze. Then fill up the cold frame with dry leaves and cover it with the sash or boards. In severe weather the sash can be covered with straw mats or any such covering, but this is not usually needed.

In the spring as soon as the frost begins to come out of the ground, the leaves should be taken off the pansy plants and the sash put on the frame. The management from now on is the same as any other planting in the spring. The pansies will bloom under the glass much earlier than they would outdoors, and you will have pansies to set out in the border when the tulips begin to bloom.

GRANDPA MACK PUFFS HIS CHEST—If you were 85 years old and if your team were showing its heels to the rest of the American League, and if you had four grandchildren who can twist you around their little fingers, the chances are that you would act like Connie Mack, venerable manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, and bring the kids out to the park to see what grandpa can do with a baseball team. That's what the lanky octogenarian did recently, and he poses with them: (left to right) Connie 3rd, seven; Michael, 6; Susan, 8; and Dennis, 6 years old.

INDIAN MINE

Further Exploration to be Undertaken on Property

Indian Mines at Stewart plan further exploration work. A director, Dr. W. H. Patmore, will take a crew in, before long. The position of the mine has been improved by new high prices for lead and zinc. During 1946 and 1947 there was a total expenditure of about $20,000 in roads, trails, buildings and equipment. Dr. J. T. Mandy, formerly resident mining engineer here, was in the city last year in connection with the property.

MAGAZINE GLUT

Local news agents are receiving periodicals and other bundles of reading matter which date away back nearly a month or more and local readers are having a hard time to catch up. The goods keep on coming. One dealer, commenting on his accumulation of "funnies," says, "There will be more than what we will know what to do with." The reason is the suspension of through traffic due to the floods.

An Explanation of: THE SOCIAL SECURITY AND MUNICIPAL AID TAX
(The Social Security and Municipal Aid Tax is to be applied as of July 1st, 1948)

Its purpose is to create revenue for the maintenance of British Columbia's high standard of Social Services and for assistance to Municipalities to meet their ever-rising administrative costs and, concurrently, to relieve the tax burden on real property.

The government is faced with the task of finding an estimated $21,000,000 for Social Security measures. Rising cost of government is responsible for part of the increase in the Social Security outlay—just as rising cost of living has affected the public generally. Cost of administration, service and supply has gone up enormously and a new source of revenue had to be found to insure payment for expanding social services.

The average worker will pay less than 1% of his spendings as his contribution to the levy because he has been protected by the exemption from the tax of living essentials—food, fuel, rent, medical and dental expenses, and insurance.

The Social Security and Municipal Aid Tax is entirely equitable. It is not a hidden or regressive tax. Everyone contributes. The low-wage groups have either an immediate or deferred benefit.

Everyone should know precisely for what he is paying.

The Social Security tax is specifically designed to improve the general health, protect the aged and relieve want in the province.

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO PAY TAX ON:

- Rent.
- Foodstuffs.
- Farm implements and machinery, horses, livestock, poultry and farm fencing.
- Agricultural feeds, seeds, fertilizers and other materials.
- Insecticides, fungicides and disinfectants.
- Commercial fishing equipment, including boats and engines when used in production of a food catch.
- Ice.
- Gasoline.
- Coal, coke, fuel oil and wood fuels.
- Doctors' prescriptions, invalids' equipment, dental and optical appliances, artificial limbs and other aids.
- Restaurant meals under 51 cents.
- Any purchase priced at less than 15 cents.

SOCIAL SECURITY means continuance of:

- Old Age Pensions.
- Mothers Allowances.
- Child Welfare Service.
- Control of Tuberculosis, Cancer and Venereal Disease.
- Operation of Public Health Nursing and Medical Inspection of School Children.
- Payment of Doctors' Bills in all cases of persons in receipt of Social Services of any kind.
- Government Contribution of 80% of the Municipalities' Social Assistance costs.
- Continuation of Hospital Grants and Mental Hygiene program.

CITY SHRINERS WILL WELCOME OAKLAND GROUP

Prince Rupert Shrine Club will be hosts briefly next Tuesday to more than 100 members of Ahmies Temple of Oakland, California, who will arrive here on a charter cruise of the Union steamer Chilcotin.

The group will leave Vancouver on Sunday, arriving here at 3 p.m. Tuesday. They will sail again for the north at 1 a.m. Wednesday.

The Prince Rupert Shrine Club plans to greet the visitors at the dock. Fez-topped Shriners will exchange greetings from the wharf to the ship as the vessel comes in for a landing.

Ceremonies and hospitality are being arranged by the local Shriners during the 10-hour visit of their southern lodge brothers.

Southbound, the Chilcotin will stop here between 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. on July 6.

Rev. John Antle and Girl Companion Made West Indies Trip

The yawl Reverie, aboard which Rev. John Antle, aged eighty-three, and Lucy Varty, 21, set out from Vancouver for New York in September 1946, is back in Vancouver.

The boat did not go further than the West Indies. The experience included illness, tropical gales, change of crews and other unlooked-for difficulties, such as the opening of the yawl's seams by the hot California sun. Mr. Antle is well but weary to the point of exhaustion.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

In the course of one of her periodical business cruises along the coast, the power yacht Caribou of Vancouver is in port with the redoubtable Capt. A. E. Baker, he of tall fishing yarn fame, in command. Baker's shipmates this trip are Bob Douglas and Jack Hossie, both well known travelling salesmen. Joe Scott happened to be in the Butedale area, on angling bent when the Caribou put in there, and returned thereon. The fishing results were so bad that there were no yarns of big ones caught or even getting away. All they have this time is alibis.

Canadian Can Co.'s power cruiser Cancolin, Capt. William Thomas, was in port yesterday on her first trip north of the season. The vessel had been a month on the way up from Vancouver, visiting the various very ports enroute.
