an Transform Atom to Electric Power

MOSCOW (CP)—A Soviet professor declared that Russia's scientists already have discovered means of transforming atomic energy directly into electricity.
Atomic energy specialist, V. Goldubstov, said Soviet science is far ahead of the United States in development of peaceful uses for atomic energy.
"Soviet scientists," he states, "have found other technological schemes and possibilities for peaceful use of atomic energy—transforming it into heat or electricity."
Direct conversion of atomic energy into electrical power would be one of the greatest developments in harnessing the atom for commercial use but Goldubstov does not give any hint of how the Soviets are supposedly doing it.

May Travel By Ship or Plane

MONTREAL—A sea-air agreement offering alternate routing by ship or planes for travellers to Bermuda and the West Indies has been signed here by the Canadian National (West Indies) steamship and Trans-Canada Air Lines.
The new agreement will permit passengers from any points in Canada and the United States served by the two carriers to travel to the Bahamas, Bermuda, Jamaica, Barbados and Trinidad by sea or air and to return by the alternate transportation service. For instance, a traveller from Montreal may elect to go to the West Indies in one of the "Lady" liners and, on the return trip, to fly in a "North Star."
The tariffs under the new plan provides a 10 per cent reduction from the normal one-way fare for the sea voyage and set the air trip at one half the present round-trip cost. The round trip will have a time limit of 50 days, and confirmed reservations will have to be held for the round trip before departing from the originating port.
The terms of the new sea-air agreement will be available to travellers between Bermuda and Barbados and Trinidad.

U.S. To Waterway

PORTLAND, Maine—American interests are ready to invest $100,000,000 in development of a waterway project in the St. Lawrence River and Ontario, said Hon. Pearson, Canadian minister of external affairs, here yesterday.
Mr. Pearson said, however, that development of the St. Lawrence waterway project is essential in connection with an undertaking and that the United States is on the matter.

MODERNIZE PORTS

BRITISH IN FOREFRONT OF FINAL BATTLE

Korean War Nearly Over

United Nations Forces Within 12 Miles of Pyongyang Now

TOKYO—United Nations forces are moving swiftly toward Pyongyang, capital of North Korea, and were less than 12 miles away today. A major break-through seems apparent and the final battle is looked for within the next few days. There is every indication at the moment that it may be a comparatively simple matter to complete the campaign in North Korea.
The pile-driving spearhead of the South Korean First Division plunged tonight to within twelve miles of the Red capital. An official spokesman said he believed Republican troops would reach Pyongyang by tomorrow.
The tired troops stopped temporarily tonight to catch their breath.
Through today (Tuesday) the weary but determined Republic of Korea troops had pushed ahead thirty miles against light to moderate resistance. They received strong support from allied planes.
One tank-led column advanced along a main road to Pyongyang from Suai. Another infantry column moved along a southern route. The two columns linked up at nightfall at Sangwon, 20 miles southeast of Pyongyang, and then pushed on to within twelve miles of the city.
British troops were reported today to be in Sariwon, 35 air miles from Pyongyang. Two American divisions were close behind and their commander expressed the hope they would catch up with the British.
The Americans were smashing toward Sariwon on main roads from west and south.
On the east coast South Korea First Corps elements were within sight of Hamhung, Korea's great industrial city. Another column was spearheading toward Husknan, port of Hamhung.

North Korea Is Rejected

LAKE SUCCESS (CP)—United Nations economic and social council on Monday defeated a Russian move to give North Korean Communists a commanding voice in rebuilding Korea.

The move asked for North Korean representatives, along with the South Koreans, on a temporary Korean relief survey commission.
The Russians were offered a spot on the commission but delayed action pending a check with Moscow.

Heavy Title Bout Nov. 28

NEW YORK—Jake Mintz, manager of the world heavyweight champion, Ezzard Charles, said last night that Charles will defend the title against Nick Barone at Cincinnati November 28. Charles will receive 41 1/2 percent of the gate.

Battle of Margarine

LONDON—The hard-fought battle over margarine in Canada was climaxed Monday when the highest court of the Commonwealth ruled that butter substitute falls under provincial jurisdiction. Thus the decision of Canada's Supreme Court was upheld that the federal government has no authority to legislate in the manufacture or distribution of the product.
Quebec and Prince Edward Island have banned the sale of margarine with Quebec banning the manufacture or possession as well.

Native Couple Is Asphyxiated

Tragedy struck again at those who go down to the sea in ships when the bodies of Martha Joseph, Hazelton, and Sampson Young, Skidegate, were discovered in their motor seiner White Creek off Bella Bella yesterday.
The pair, who had been fishing in the Bella Bella area, are believed to have been asphyxiated. An inquest was held this morning at Ocean Falls.
The couple were sailing toward Comox where they were to have been married. They were discovered in the cabin of the fishing vessel where they had gone to rest.
Both are Indians.
Miss Joseph is from the Tsiksk Indian Reserve at Hazelton. Arrangements have been made to bring the body of Young to Skidegate for burial. Police are trying to make contact with the girl's relatives at Tsiksk to make funeral arrangements.

Cannery Crews Move Homeward

With the canneries closed for the winter, movement of employees from the Skeena River is nearly complete. Most have now returned to their native villages.
It has been a fair season for the canneries, but fishermen on the Skeena have not had a good year, although it was fair on the Naas and good on the Queen Charlottes.
Many children of the families employed at the canneries have gone home to find fine new schools awaiting them. Three schools were opened officially last week in Greenville, Kincoith and Hartley Bay.

Twenty-Eight Killed In Air Crash In Suburb of London

LONDON (CP)—A twin-engined airliner smashed into a London suburb—Millhill—today, killing 28 of 29 persons aboard. The one survivor, a man, was taken to hospital.
The engine failed shortly after the plane took off from London for Glasgow with 24 passengers, including an infant, and crew of five.
One report said that the craft took fire in the air, hit a house top and then plowed through a wall into a garden.

U.S. Planes to Indo-China

SAIGON—United States light bombers may be flown from Korea to Indo-China within the next ten days to help French forces hold the northern border against Vietmin insurgents, French sources said today.
The planes would act as a stop-gap until the arrival of American military aid promised for this week in Washington.

PEACE CHIEF OUTSMARTED— Tame as Kitten and Smooth as Satin is City Bruin Visitor

All this morning a big black bear, tame as a kitten and slick as satin, prowled the hillside off First Avenue below the Besner and Seaview Apartments. But he was smart enough to move out of sight when Sgt. Lance Potterton, with rifle in hand and accompanied by his cohorts, proceeded to the scene at 10:30 a.m. in answer to a call from A. D. Ritchie, who resides in the area. Just before noon, after the sergeant had left, Bruin was back again on the same hillside, as nonchalant as ever.
Evidently, the bear is no stranger in the area of the mouth of Morse Creek. Railway yard men told Sgt. Potterton that he has been seen quite frequently rambling over the slopes on either side of the creek.
Now that the berry season is over, the police speculated that he might be scouting the garbage cans for tasty morsels.
He is believed by those who have seen him to be a three-year-old which would not be quite full size.
There is a conflict of sentiment about what should be done about the handsome creature. Commonsense says he might be a menace to children—or others for that matter—in such a populated area. Some tender-hearted folk think it would be just a shame to do to him what Sgt. Potterton would have done had he got a safe range.
Expectation is that the Game Department will be taking a hand in the matter.

Body Found In Harbor

The body of Joseph Brown, missing since 1 a.m. Saturday morning, was found by a friend, Ed Douglas at 11 a.m. today in about ten feet of water midway between the Home Oil and B-A Oil docks. He was 39 years old.
A fisherman for a long time, he was employed on the Rupert 80. Last seen in a pool room early Saturday morning, he was reported missing when he failed to show up on his boat over the week-end. Dragging operations were carried out by R.C.M.P. Sunday and yesterday.
He leaves no known relatives but was brought up by Mrs. Louisa Douglas.

He is expected to emphasize improvements advocated for Korea will serve as a pattern for other countries in need of American aid.
The speech is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Pacific Standard Time and will be carried by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

The search began Sunday.
Three of the missing men are from Edmonton and two from Vancouver—Harry Morton, aged about 40, and Pilot Harry Pennington.

Is Injured In Hunting Mishap

Oscar Nelson, seriously injured in a hunting accident near Babine Lake over the week-end, was flown from Prince Rupert on the CPA flight yesterday to Vancouver for treatment at Vancouver General Hospital.
Mr. Nelson's loaded rifle apparently discharged when dropped and sent a bullet through part of his chest and into his left arm. The femur was shattered. Alone at the time, he made his way on foot to civilization, clamping his arm tight to his body to prevent bleeding.
After receiving treatment at Prince Rupert General Hospital, he was sent to Vancouver for treatment by a specialist.

Terrace Wants Road Here Open

Hears That Civic Centres Are Exempt From Amusement Tax
TERRACE—The village commissioners were in session on Wednesday afternoon and, all being present, Dudley G. Little gave his report of the Union of B.C. Municipalities which had been held in Nelson and from which he had recently returned. Preceding this meeting had been the annual meeting of the Association of Central B.C. Municipalities at Prince George where he was re-elected president of that association. Quite a large number of resolutions had been presented at the Nelson meeting and Mayor George of Victoria, the new president, had stated that he would like to see the associations get together next year and present a smaller, but stronger, number of resolutions.
Terrace had sent in a resolution to have all civic centres exempt from amusement tax because the profits from entertainments were turned back into the building up of a community effort, the civic centre. However, this resolution was dropped when it was disclosed that the civic centres in the southern towns were exempted from the amusement tax.
Mr. Little stated that it was worth while to send a delegate to these meetings and an effort should be made to send one each year.
The commissioners thanked him for his report and the good work he had done at both conventions.

2nd Stage In Korea

THE EIGHT-POWER resolution on the future of Korea by the General Assembly of United Nations marks the opening of a new stage in the Korean incident.

Unfortunately it is impossible for the unity of the whole country to be brought about without the United Nations forces going deep into North Korea.

THE BY-ELECTIONS

UNDER ordinary circumstances, there would be few to deplore the capture from the government of two seats in a Parliament which is so predominantly one-party as that which we have in Ottawa today.

As a predominantly Liberal government is liable to produce Independent Liberals in Quebec so is it liable to produce Independents, although not necessarily Liberal, in other parts of Canada.

The results in Quebec do not actually hurt the government much although they are, undoubtedly, irritating and have a significance, the import of which might be more clear if they happened elsewhere.

The Liberal victory in Welland, a party stronghold, was to be expected and it is less of a comfort to win there than it would have been a shock had there been a reverse.

Must Doctor Tell? Each Case Decides

LONDON (C)—The old question, how much should a doctor tell his patients, was discussed by Sir Cecil Wakeley, president of the Royal College of Surgeons.

"Too often, when the mystery goes out of surgery, the patient loses a great deal of his co-operative power and confidence in his full recovery," he told medical students at Westminster Hospital Medical School.

"Some patients will benefit from a description of their operation, but such knowledge will transform others into nervous wrecks."

As I See It

By ELMORE PHILPOTT SOME NEW BOOKS

THE NEW CANADA Year Book (for 1950) costs $2 and I don't know anything else anywhere that gives so much information about this country.

Paper covered edition sells for $1. Order from King's Printer, Ottawa.

THERE IS A NEW BIBLE. This time it is called "The Dartmouth Edition." It has 1256 pages, and is an abridgement of the King James Version.

The introduction points out that although the Bible is the most printed and reprinted book known to the human race it is "more owned than read or understood."

Any newspaper writer, of long experience, knows that is so. In the old days Biblical allusions were understood by almost all readers. Now that is NOT so.

The Dartmouth Bible sells in Canada for $8.

MIKA WALTARI IS A FINNISH author who attained world fame when he wrote the best selling novel "The Egyptian."

That was about a doctor who lived in the time of the great king who tried to introduce a new society much like Christianity—but by his own decree, not the will of the people.

"The Adventurer" is the name of Waltari's latest novel. It is not in the same class with the earlier book. You may suspect that Waltari dashed it off as a pot boiler to cash in on the fame of his recent great book.

The new novel deals with Europe at the time of Martin Luther. It is a rugged, spicy tale of adventure. We are reminded that the conspiracies and wars of our own times are much like those of earlier periods.

The hero marries a woman who is tried and condemned as a witch. Under torture, she "confesses" to whatever her torturers wish her to—much as happens in our own times in some other parts of the world. But she turns the tables on her chief torturer by "confessing" falsely that he was one of her confederates in witchcraft.

That trick of poetic justice helps to bring the whole unholy Holy Roman Empire down—the victim, as it were, of its own evils.

The book sells for $4 in Canada, and is published by Thomas Allen.

THE RECENT CCF national convention refused to permit the sale of a fourpenny booklet "Is

Labor Council Supports Band

Trades and Labor Council, at the last meeting, went on record fully supporting the formation of the Prince Rupert School Band.

President H. S. Harrison was elected to represent the Labor Council at the Boy Scouts Association dinner this week.

Labor Day sports audit was presented to the meeting by R. L. Gardiner and met with approval.

Secretary B. J. Smithson was back on the job after a three-month fishing absence.

Civic Employees' Union delegate stated that an agreement had been signed with the Hospital Board.

Fish Co-operative In Saskatchewan

REGINA—A fishermen's co-operative has been formed at Cumberland House in northeastern Saskatchewan. About 34 fishermen, all living at Cumberland, will take part in sturgeon fishing, which industry started last month. The season limit is set at 8000 pounds. The provincial marketing board guaranteed the fishermen an initial payment of 80 cents a pound.

No Casualties For Canadians

VANCOUVER—Men of the three Canadian destroyers, which are in action with United Nations forces off Korea, are doing an excellent job and are in excellent spirits. There have been no casualties, even following landing operations.

So says Vice-Admiral H. G. W. Grant, chief of naval staff, who was in Vancouver yesterday en route back to Ottawa after a visit to the destroyers Sioux, Cayuga and Athabaskan in Korean waters.

Labor Government the Way to Socialism?

A friend sent one along. It is a 24-page argument to show that what they now have in Britain is NOT socialism. The essential feature of socialism is that society as a whole owns the principal means of production and distribution.

As I tried to show in my reports from Britain last year, they have little more public ownership than we had in Ontario (under a Tory government) when I was a boy. What they have is the welfare state.

But what they MIGHT have under a Labor government if there were no cold war, nor threatened hot war, is a very different thing.

WHAT TO AVOID "erry-built" house showing mistakes to be avoided will be an exhibit in the 1951 Festival of Britain.

Milk is well-protected by Aluminum

1. The nourishing glass of milk from Grandma is the happy ending to this story. It started when Nature put aluminum in the earth itself. That is why this important mineral is right in the milk we drink.

2. And Nature gave aluminum qualities that make it ideal in contact with food. Many milk pails... many parts of modern milking machines are made of aluminum.

3. From farm to dairy... from country to city... rich, wholesome Canadian milk is being increasingly carried in aluminum containers to reach you fresh and pure.

4. And to cap it all, many bottles of milk are protection-sealed with shining aluminum foil tops. Aluminum assures cleanliness for this most sensitive of all foods.

No other material is more "food-friendly" than aluminum. Whenever you see aluminum on the outside of a food or a drink, there's an "inside story" of perfectly protected flavour, quality and purity.

Exercise Muskox
In RCAF Films

Life with the Eskimos and in the empty tracts of the north country were depicted in the films shown at the Canadian Legion hall showing exercise "Muskox." The films were shown by the Royal Canadian Air Force recruiting team, Flying Officer H. E. Bowman and Sgt. L. O. Jones of Edmonton.

The film showed the party leaving Churchill and trekking the snowy wastelands to the very northern tip of the continent. It showed the hardships endured by the men and machines on the exercise and of the constant liaison of the RCAF bringing supplies to the army. One of the most important items the supply planes carried was mail.

About 70 people turned out to see the films.

Famous Soldier—
Scout Head Visits Here

MAJOR GENERAL D. C. SPRY

Major General D. C. Spry CBE, DSO, chief executive commissioner for Boy Scouts in Canada, will be a distinguished visitor in Prince Rupert tomorrow in the course of an official tour of Canada. Highlights of his visit will be a joint luncheon of the G.Y. and Rotary Clubs at noon when he will be the principal speaker, a grand Scout and Cub rally in the naval drill hall in the afternoon and a dinner of the Prince Rupert Boy Scout Association in the Canadian Legion banquet room in the early evening. Major General Spry and J. L. Watson, field commissioner for British Columbia, will arrive from Vancouver by boat in the morning and will proceed by train in the evening to Prince George.

General Spry became chief commissioner of the Canadian General Council of Boy Scouts Association on September 5, 1946, upon the retirement of Dr. John A. Stiles, O.B.E. In order to do so, General Spry resigned as vice-Chief of the General Staff of the Canadian Army. He holds the distinction of having been the youngest major-general in the British forces in world war II at the age of 31.

Born in Winnipeg, Manitoba on February 4, 1913, he has been a wolf cub, boy scout rover scout, rover sea scout, assistant scoutmaster and cubmaster.

As a junior officer, General Spry served in the Princess Louise Fusiliers (reserve army) in Halifax and with the Royal Canadian Regiment (permanent force) in various stations in Canada. Both before and during his Army career, General Spry made a name for himself in sports circles as coach, organizer and player in football, basketball and other games.

In 1939 he was promoted captain and appointed adjutant of his regiment as it sailed for overseas. After considerable regimental experience, he attended the Staff College, Camberley and then held various staff appointments. He served as personal assistant to Gen. McNaughton and accompanied him to North Africa and Malta.

During the Sicilian campaign General Spry was appointed to command The Royal Canadian Regiment and later was promoted to the rank of Brigadier and commanded the 1st Canadian Infantry Brigade and, later, the 12th Canadian Infantry Brigade.

In August 1944, he was appointed General Officer Commanding 3rd Canadian Infantry Division (The "Water Rats"). He led this famous Division up the French coast, the Scheldt Estuary, the Nijmegen Salient, and the clearance of the Reichwald and Hochwald forests in Germany. In 1945 he was appointed to command all the Canadian concentration units in Great Britain.

General Spry was appointed a member of the International Committee at the Twelfth Biennial Scout Conference which he attended in Elvsaeter, Norway, in August 1949. General Spry is also a member of the International Training Team.

He will resume his journey from here on a Canada-wide tour of scout groups.

Milk Supplier Loses Forage

Word has been received by A. A. Sheardown that the barn of M. R. Brietzki, Smithers, burned to the ground with his total winter's supply of hay inside. Mr. Brietzki has been supplying Prince Rupert with from 280 to 350 gallons of milk per week. The loss of the barn and hay with winter coming on is likely to force him to dispose of his herd, the Daily News was told today. Estimate on extent of damage was not available here.

Never A Dull Moment There

Activity Everywhere at Civic Centre These Days
(By DON TUCKER)
Activity! Activity! Activity! Any time one drops around the Civic Centre these days, that is what he sees.

Take yesterday afternoon, for instance. Upstairs we find Miss Jean Travis with her linoleum block class. Nine women are eagerly learning the art of cutting patterns on linoleum blocks to be used for printing. But it was potatoes yesterday—just to get the idea across. Today the ladies start on the linoleum itself. The first step is to put the design in reverse on the linoleum. From there on it is a matter of cutting away the surface from the parts that are not to be printed.

Last week Miss Travis taught the art of stencilling. Here a stencil is cut of the design. A positive stencil leaves the design cut out so that when it is placed on the material to be painted the stencil covers those parts that are to be left unpainted. With a negative stencil, the design is covered and the painting is done away from the stencil leaving the pattern the same color as the material.

The women are enthusiastic about the work and have found it fascinating. They hope to continue the classes every Thursday afternoon through the winter and teach those who were not enrolled in the present classes.

Downstairs, meanwhile, Rowland Miles is teaching Beverly Boulter, Marilyn Berry and Louise Anderson elementary weaving. The girls are making squares that can be used singly as pot holders or combined with others to make an afghan. The girls are absorbed in the work and trying eagerly to finish their frames quickly and accurately. It's a bit of an extra treat for them, as their class is scheduled for Friday afternoon. "But," Rolly warns them, "don't come around here if you haven't anything to do. We'll soon find something to keep you busy."

Farther down the hall we find Miss Gloria Sather explaining to a group of boys the fine art of the spring board. With infinite grace she demonstrates each exercise and then has the boys do it themselves. The exercises yesterday afternoon were elementary, getting the boys used to being catapulted from the board. There were straight jumps, jumps with arms and legs spread apart, jack-knives, touching the toes with feet, spread apart and all kinds of tricky jumps. Everyone was having fun, including Gloria.

In the main gymnasium a basketball practice was under way. We didn't have much of a chance

Blackwood On Bridge

By Easley Blackwood

Are you acquainted with Mr. Meek? He usually bids and plays his hands rather well. But he has one very bad fault at the bridge table. When things are going badly he gets depressed, and in that condition he does not play his usual competent game.

He has especially strong feelings against sacrifice bidding. His opinion is that if he takes a set, he may still lose the rubber and then it will be a really big one.

You can explain as many times as you wish, that if he continues to get bad cards he will simply lose a second rubber—and lose his points in two rubbers instead of one. Mr. Meek is not convinced.

Take a sacrifice of 500 points when you are his partner and anything is likely to happen on the following hands.

East-West vulnerable.
East dealer.
North (Mr. Masters)
S-10
H-Q J 3
D-K Q 7
C-A Q 10 8 5 2
West (Mr. Meek) East (Mr. Dale)
S-A 8 2 S-K Q J 9 4 3
H-8 6 4 H-7 2
D-6 3 2 D-A J 10 9
C-7 6 4 3 C-K

The bidding:
East South West North
1 S Pass Pass Dbl.
3 S 4 H All pass

In today's hand Mr. Dale the old expert on Humanics had Mr. Meek for a partner. It was hard for Mr. Dale to believe that there wasn't an acceptable save at four spades on this deal. Actually, with the ace in Mr. Meek's hand, four spades would have been down only one. But certainly Mr. Dale couldn't dream of bidding it. He realized that if he went set as much as 500 points, Mr. Meek would be so depressed that he would be useless as a partner for the remainder of the rubber.

Miss Brash did a beautiful piece of card-reading to make her four heart bid. Mr. Meek opened the ace of spades, saw the singleton in dummy, and switched to the six of diamonds. The queen was put up and Mr. Dale won the ace and returned the jack of diamonds, won by of clubs and when Mr. Meek played low, went right on up with the ace. She then extracted the remaining trumps and discarded all of her losers on dummy's clubs.

How did Miss Brash know Mr. Dale had the singleton king? She didn't. But she knew he had the king and if it wasn't alone she was simply down on the hand.

Have you forgotten that Mr. Meek passed his partner's opening bid and that he had already shown up with the ace of spades? If he had held the ace of spades and a king a bid of some kind would have been obligatory—even for Mr. Meek.

Golden Wedding Tschenikut Lake

BURNS LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lord of Tschenikut Lake held open house on the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day, the commodious residence and all the guest cabins being filled to capacity with a gathering of relatives and close friends from all the western provinces and many of the States.

Embowered in a throne of late wild flowers, the couple were not allowed to lift a hand in assisting at the entertainment, their slightest wish being anticipated by the many attending members of the Lord family.

Behind them, a huge wedding cake, three storeys high, had been skillfully decorated by Mrs. Joycelin Wylie, who displayed a thorough familiarity with the confectioner's art, making a fitting background for the reception which was so gracefully tendered.

Gifts from far and near were formally presented with neat congratulatory messages which brought tears of delight to the bride of the day.

The dining room tables fairly groaned under the weight of huge platters of game, wild-fowl and all the delicacies for which the Lord Auto Camp has long been famous. Luncheon started at noon and continued until midnight. Table after table was set as new guests were constantly arriving. Places were found for all but the Lord family and its satellites insisted in doing all the work.

A register was provided and every one present was proud to sign it.

At the head of the first table, the hosts of the day were surrounded by their best friends and neighbors, prominent among them being Gordon Funnell and his wife, Claude Lord and his wife, Bud Lord, Miss Millie Harrison, Ruth Neigh, Daisy Nicholls, Jean Carroll, Arlene Wortendyke, Sadie Carroll, Robert Wortendyke, Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Cooper, Peg Deeder, Gertrude Walker, Ken G. Olson, Sadie Olson, Ken Larsen, Wm. Bishop, Charles Beck, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Shaffer, Mrs. H. Bishop, Ruth and Roy Lord, Barney Mulvany, Jessie Wortendyke, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Keefe, Patrick N. Gligan, Henry Bishop and Gordon Bishop.

Masset Couple Married Here

Miss Sylvia Opal Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Kelly, Masset, became the bride of George E. Storey, also of Masset, at a pretty wedding ceremony Saturday afternoon at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral with Rev. Canon Basil S. Procter officiating.

Many friends from the Queen Charlotte Islands and others formed the congregation which attended the rite.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a lovely wedding gown of white satin and nylon with train and veil.

The bridesmaid was Miss Janet Yeltatze, also of Masset, who wore a pale green floor length gown.

Groomsman was S. A. Maguire of Skidegate.

Following the ceremony, the occasion was duly celebrated and the couple are proceeding to Masset to make their home.

Mrs. J. F. Edwards left yesterday by plane for Vancouver, where she will live for the winter with her son and daughter, Tony and Anne, while they attend the University of British Columbia. She is expected to return to Prince Rupert in May.

Terrace Woman's Auxiliary Meets

TERRACE—Plans for an Anglican Church social were made at the home of Mrs. H. King when St. Matthew's Women's Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting there last Thursday afternoon. The social will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Credit Union Hall. An entertainment committee, headed by Mrs. Laird, was formed for that evening. Mrs. E. Hodson was welcomed to the meeting, as was Mrs. Jeff Lambly after long illness. Regrets were expressed by the president, Mrs. Bert West, at the absence of a long-time member, Mrs. W. Sparkes, who is quite ill at her home. Mrs. Marsh, widow of the church's first rector, now living in Montreal with her daughter, Mrs. J. Farquhar, sent her annual donation to the auxiliary.

It was decided to hold the winter tea and sale on December 2 in the I.O.O.F. hall and plans for this will be made at the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Newhouser on November 9.

Midnight still found the party going merrily, but some of the more considerate of the visitors suggested an adjournment. All the guest cabins were visited and a general round up organized, the main building surrounded and a chorus of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" followed by "Good Night Ladies," brought a perfect day to a happy ending.

To say newsprint cost is climbing is only saying the same of so many other commodities in our everyday life. Newsprint has been going up, more or less regularly for years. It is more than twice now what it was before the war. Canada's forests, despite their immensity, feel the demands already enacted in the United States. It may be said the greatest users are the American publishers. A single copy of some of their special editions runs into hundreds of pages. The papers are read by 150,000,000 population, always alert for the latest news and the giant presses look north for something to consume.

That emergency landing on a mudbank, on the Skeena River opposite Mile 51, last week, was part of a flier's duties of course. Railroaders helped the airmen and, within a few hours, the plane was again in air and going strong, with no damage and no one hurt. That's all very fine but the landing field question in this wide and rugged land is still far from settled. There has, in fact, been considerable luck, linked with professional skill in continuing to keep so free of casualties.

What goes up must come down, and it's a matter of some importance to know just how and where you return.

And just as fighting in Korea appears to be gradually tapering off, Joe Louis, back in the United States plans on starting another conflict. This, of course, will be semi-private, but all engagements may be witnessed by anyone with the price.

Those returning from vacation usually say, to start with "it's so grand to be home." Doubtless, in the majority of cases, it's meant. But there must be some who feel they must say something, and let it go at that. For they can think of other places they would prefer to be indefinitely. But it's not convenient.

Piece by piece, the warehouse is going to Edmonton. It's looking that way more and more. No one in Prince Rupert likes to see it, but what's to be done? Nearly half has been already dismantled.

PARIS (AP)—Ruth (Dusty) Anderson, one-time cover girl and Hollywood movie player, has invaded Paris with an exhibition of her own paintings. She's out to prove a pretty girl can paint, but she's frankly scared. She never studied art in her life, and Paris critics are tough.

Dusty, now the wife of movie director Jean Negulesco, likes painting better than movie acting. "It's more satisfying," she told a reporter while preparing 15 of her latest paintings for her big show at the leading Drouant-David Gallery.

Negulesco, a painter himself, interested his slim, blue-eyed wife in painting about three years ago while they were on location for a film in northern California. "At first I just dabbled around," said Dusty. "Then I got serious about it. Now I put in about nine hours a day at the canvas."

Dusty's pictures have a light feminine touch. She shuns the impressionistic style of most moderns. "I frankly don't understand it," she admitted. "I try to paint happy things with lots of sunshine, just as I see them."

PICTURE OF THAMES

Her pictures include scenes of London's River Thames, conventional flowers and fruit, an intriguing study of her two Siamese cats—"Jackson" and "Pavlova"—and an unusual portrait of herself framed by a window of her Beverly Hills, Calif., home. The window has glass shelves holding a collection of South American and African statues and objects of ancient art.

She hopes to present her impressions of France and England in a New York City show some time next year, painting from sketches in her travel notebook.

Dusty quit the movies shortly after she married Negulesco. "We had no time to live," she smiled. "It's not good for a man and wife to be in the same business."

Dusty starred in such pictures as "Cover Girl," "A Thousand and One Nights" and a score of more mystery thrillers from 1941 to 1946. She was a leading New York cover girl for three years before that, usually appearing on magazine covers and advertising posters as a wholesome outdoor type.
