French coal... for Ruhr Steel
...COAL-STEEL POOL PLAN "TO REMOVE ONE CAUSE OF WAR"—Six European nations are negotiating a plan to pool coal and steel production under a central authority whose decisions would be binding on all six. The countries are France, Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The plan is hailed as the first concrete proposal to bind each in an alliance which, they say, would remove one of the causes of war. The plan fostered by Foreign Minister Schuman of France has not attracted Britain's Labor government, but Opposition Leader Winston Churchill and Liberal Leader Clement Davies said the government take part in negotiations.

Prince Rupert Not Open To Attack - McNaughton

General A. G. L. McNaughton, of the international defence board, now visiting in Vancouver and Prince Rupert, made reference to Prince Rupert in the course of an interview. Speaking of defences and the Pacific Northwest, General McNaughton remarked that it would not be possible to speak of anything that would give comfort to an enemy. But with reference to Prince Rupert, it was his belief that the base would not be open to attack. An enemy force could be out-flanked too easily. General McNaughton holds the chairmanship of the International Joint U.S.-Canada Commission of Defence. He is, likewise, a member of the International Joint Commission which is studying the boundary and water defences of the Atomic Energy Commission. He formerly was chief of the National Security Council. His term ended last January.

Archangel Convicted

NELSON — Michael (the Archangel) Verigin and his aide, Joe Podovnikoff, last night were convicted of seditious conspiracy. More charges are to be heard. Verigin is leader of the radical Sons of Freedom Doukhobor colony at Villers on Vancouver Island. Podovnikoff is his secretary. Charges against the men take in conspiring to encourage Doukhobors to disobey the laws of Canada, to assemble when nude, to refuse to send their children to school and to commit adultery.

Sockeye High Boat

A boat in the Naas for the day of sockeye gillnetting caught 390 salmon. Average catch in Naas was 110 per boat. The catches there were considered fair. The catches remained fair in Skeena and Naas yesterday. The catches were good for the day before. Yesterday approximate average catches on the Skeena were 75 per boat inside waters and 22 per boat outside waters. In the Skeena catches were 75 per boat and 15 to 20 outside.

Cadomin Mine Retains Dead

CADOMIN, Alta. — The bodies of five miners trapped over a week ago in a flooded coal mine tunnel 270 feet below the surface are still unlocated today. A man's severed leg, a miner's helmet, a smashed lamp and various articles of clothing are all that have been discovered in the round the clock search by rescue parties. Miners say it may be weeks before the bodies are found.

Longest Day Of Year Today

Today this tipsy old earth of ours has its North Pole closer to the sun than it has been for a year and closer than it will be for another year. Digby Island said there could be approximately 13 hours of sunshine possible today but that possibility has gone by the boards already with the cloudiness that appeared mid-morning and the forecast for overcast and showers. Actually the most sunshine recorded at Digby Island for a single day this year was June 16, when the sun was out all day. There was 12.5 hours of uninterrupted sunshine. There would be more in Prince Rupert, as Rays Mountain stands between the island and the sun while its rays have already reached the city. Yesterday a record of 16 days without rain was ended. Showers during the day saw to that. However, it cleared during the evening and remained that way until morning, when Old Sol arose in all his glory to flood the city and district. Later clouds blocked him off at intervals. Tomorrow the North Pole starts its lone trip away from the sun and days will become progressively shorter for the next six months. But comfort cannot be derived from the fact that today is officially the first day of summer.

Ship Import Being Banned

OTTAWA — To promote business for Canadian shipyards, the government plans to ban the import of ships from the United States. Transport Minister Chevrier disclosed yesterday to the House of Commons shipping committee that that is the purpose of a 2½-line clause in a bulky series of amendments to the Canada Shipping Act, which have already passed the Senate. The clause gives the minister power to bar from Canadian registry any ship built outside Canada. He said it is not planned to use it against shipping built in the United Kingdom.

General Motors And Union Agree

TORONTO — A five-year agreement between General Motors Company of Canada and the United Automobile Workers (CIO) was announced last night. It now goes to the union membership for approval. It provides for annual 5c per hour increases to regular employees. The settlement will cover wages, company paid pensions, insurance and hours of work at the company's plants at Oshawa and Windsor, Ontario.

Is Dead In Ootsa Lake

Mike Fenton, Well Known Trapper and Guide, Victim of Heart Attack
Forest Patrolman Albert Cramb observed a small boat drifting on Ootsa Lake on Sunday morning early, with a dog sitting on the thwart.

Launching his patrol boat immediately he found the body of Fenton floating within arms reach of the boat. Constable W. H. Richmond was notified immediately and proceeded to the scene accompanied by Barney Mulvany. Investigation showed that the deceased had left the Slim Henry ranch for home shortly after 11 p.m. His watch had stopped at 12:15 and investigation by the Constable indicated that he had been standing up rolling a cigarette. Apparently stricken with a heart attack he had fallen overboard, and was dead before he struck the water. The crepe sole of his shoe had picked up a trolling hook and only a few feet of line had paid out.

Would Cut British Aid

WASHINGTON — Leading Republican senators drafted a proposal today to strip $340,000,000 out of Britain's recovery funds unless the Labor government joins in a pool of Europe's coal and steel such as proposed by the Schuman plan. The penalty proposed against Britain would be in the form of an amendment to the co-operation administration act, which sets the rules for the European recovery program. A draft of the plan is being passed among senators as the first step before placing the proposal before the Senate appropriations committee.

Gordon Visits Engine Shops

MONTREAL — Donald Gordon, C.M.G., chairman and president, Canadian National Railways, visited the locomotive and car shops at Point St. Charles, Montreal, yesterday afternoon to see at first hand how the company spends $1,500,000 each month for labor and materials. It was his first inspection of these shops. The largest on the system, and he said he was impressed with the skill and efficiency of the workers. During his tour, Mr. Gordon chatted with many of the 3,000 workers, and he told some of them that he hoped for a continuation, or betterment, of the shops' monthly overhaul of 28 locomotives, 22 passenger cars and 201 freight cars.

Russia Not Ready Yet

FLASH!
"QUAKE SHAKES JAVA
JAKARTA, Indonesia—Seventeen persons were killed and many hundreds injured yesterday in an earthquake in east Java, reports said. The earth shook for a minute in some areas in the worst 'quake in 50 years.

Russia Not Ready Yet

Would Only Fight if Sure of Victory, says McNaughton
VANCOUVER — Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton said in an interview yesterday war with Russia is not inevitable, but added: "The Russians would not go to war without certainty of winning. Today they have no such certainty and I believe they know it." McNaughton said some day the world will win international atomic control and the United Nations is slowly but surely approaching world government.

Lumber Prices At Record Highs

VANCOUVER — Lumber prices in Victoria and Vancouver jumped to record highs with top grade common up roughly $10 to $96 a thousand board feet. Dealers blamed the American demand for increases which followed fluctuation in market prices last week.

Lottery Ring Is Broken Up

VANCOUVER — Police said a lottery ring operating in North Vancouver man has smashed what is believed to be a country wide lottery racket. Ray Salisbury, 49, is charged with selling sweepstake tickets. Three express packages he carried were filled with stubs of tickets, which police said were sold in such places as Quebec, The Pas, Man., and Ritchie, Sask.

Fraser Flood Seems Beaten

VANCOUVER — Victory has been won over Fraser River flood waters at Harrison Mills. After an all-night battle a weak spot in the dike there has been plugged. The dike protects the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Lougheed highway and many acres of rich land. C.P.R. trains are still running although slowly because of water lapping at the rails. The Mission gauge rose from 24.07 feet to 24.12 feet overnight but dropped to 20.11 this morning. The flood picture generally continues encouraging with indications that the crest has passed.

THE WEATHER

Scattered showers and thunderstorms will develop during the day from the Cariboo down to the Okanagan and Kootenays. The Vancouver and Victoria areas will have sunny afternoon with cloudy skies taking over during the night and lasting until about noon. Along the coast a storm is moving in from the ocean and rain is expected in the Prince Rupert area with scattered showers continuing through most of Thursday.
Forecast

Empty Bread Shelves Are Seen In Five Cities on West Coast

LOS ANGELES (CP)—Empty bread shelves confronted housewives in five west coast cities again today with no sign of settlement in a strike by 3,100 A.F.L. bakers, now in its third day. An industry spokesman here, where 1800 bakers are out, said "the strike can go on for months if the union insists on a 35 hour week."

Skeena Level Falling Fast

Danger of Flood at This End Over—Nechako Still Rising
The turbulent Skeena River at Salvas, 56 miles east of here, dropped eight inches since yesterday, it was announced this morning. At all other points east of Prince Rupert to Burns Lake, 320 miles away, water has receded from two to six inches. But, between Vanderhoof, 360 miles east of here, to points west of Prince George, the Nechako River has risen from two to four inches. The Public Works Department stated this morning that water will have to drop about ten inches before the two floating bridges, 58 and 68 miles east of Prince Rupert, can be put back in operation. This also applies to the five mile stretch of inundated highway between Kwinitsa and Salvas. Water levels below railway tracks at Shames and Ambury were seven and eight feet respectively. These points are 80 and 90 miles east of Prince Rupert. The five mile stretch of highway between Kwinitsa and Salvas remained covered with about 10 inches of water, as the danger is past.

Towers Urges Sales to U.S.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. — Graham Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada, advised Canadians to shoot for the United States market. For practical purposes, the United States market is the only one in the world where imports are not restricted for foreign exchange reasons, he said in an address to the St. John's Board of Trade. Mr. Towers said the solution to Canada's foreign exchange problem must come in part from an increase in her sales to the United States.

Ducharme Tries Supreme Court

The British Columbia Appeal Court yesterday dismissed Ducharme's appeal. He is scheduled to hang June 30 for the murder last November 9 of spinster Blanche Ferne Fisher.

Victoria Report

... by J. K. Nesbitt

Education Has Surely Improved—About Cutting Number Of M.L.A.'s

VICTORIA—What improvements in teaching and school accommodation have come in B.C. in 100 years!

In 1850 the only school in B.C. was operated by Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Staines within the palisades of Fort Victoria.

James Robert Anderson, who started school there a century ago, gives us a good picture of that first school in his memoirs.

He wrote: "Mr. Staines, of rather uncertain temper and disposed at times to be unduly severe in administering corporal punishment, was nevertheless a good student in natural history. Mrs. Staines was a much more energetic person; she it was who really kept the school going and in spite of many undoubtedly adverse circumstances, managed comparatively well. I can see her now, with a row of curls down each side of her angular face; by no means unprepossessing, however, spare figure, clad in black, a lady undoubtedly, and when walking out holding up her skirts on each side and ordering the girls to follow her example. Sunday at the Staines school is to this day a day of terror to me. After morning prayers we had breakfast, such as it was, bread and treacle and tea without milk. Church at 11 in the mess hall—then dinner, potatoes and meat, sometimes fish, then a dreary afternoon learning the Collects; how I hated them. The only redeeming feature of Sunday was the evening in the Staines' private apartment when we would be regaled with one sweet each after prayer—and be dismissed to bed. And what beds! The hard boards, an Indian mat, a Hudson's Bay blanket and over ourselves another blanket. The garret we occupied was not lined, simply the bare logs; the interstices, where the roof joined the wall, was a veritable runway for the numerous rats which infested the building."

A lot of people think that Canada is over-governed, that we have too many M.P.'s, M.L.A.'s, mayors and aldermen. The public believes such people should be well paid but that there shouldn't be too many of them. By all means let's give our elected representatives more money. We shouldn't have a system which says that only a man of means, or a rich widow, or a woman whose husband doesn't mind, can really afford to get elected. It means that seats in our governing bodies are not open to anyone. There's no class distinction, true, but there's definitely a reason why only a man with his own business can give attention to politics. No employed man could get time off to attend a session.

Blair Fraser, Maclean's Ottawa editor, quotes former Quebec M.P. Frederic Dorion: "Only two kinds of people can really afford to be in politics, the rich, who can make it a hobby and the others who can't make as good a living any other way. If you're in between you're a fool to stay in the game."

Fraser further quotes Dorion: "Give him (the M.P.) a salary that's really worth working for." Dorion suggests cutting the House of Commons from 262 to

The George Mathew Adams Service, Inc. PENBERTHY

100 members and giving the 100 M.P.'s $15,000 a year, instead of $6,000 as now.

Same idea might well be applied to British Columbia. We have 48 M.L.A.'s, each drawing $3,000 a year from the public till. This totals $144,000. If the House was cut in half and the 24 M.L.A.'s got $6,000 a year—the total would be the same, and the efficiency greater.

The only way, of course, to cut the number of legislative seats is by act of the Legislature itself.

Can anyone imagine the 48 M.L.A.'s calmly sitting down next session, or any session, and wiping out half the seats?

They should though, think many observers, if the business of government is to be streamlined.

Off to Church Meet in South

To represent the local Regular Baptist Church as official delegate at the annual convention of Regular Baptist Churches of British Columbia in Vancouver, G. R. S. Blackby left by plane yesterday for the south. He expects to be back by Saturday night's plane.

L. A. Thorpe, who has been acting as pastor of the local church for the past year, will be ordained by the church council during the convention on Friday afternoon. Mr. Thorpe left last week for the south. The convention will also see the receiving of two churches, Prince Rupert and Hope.

Parking Limit Is Approved

Council of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, meeting at the week-end prior to the departure from the city of secretary P. H. Linzey for a month's vacation in the south, approved the proposal of the traffic committee of the city council of one hour parking limit on Third Avenue. The Chamber's executive suggested, however, that the proposal to ban left hand turning off McBride into Third Avenue be deferred.

Happy Ending

A story with a happy ending was the burning at sea this week of the well known veteran logging service boat Nora Jane. Fortunately enough, the troller Sandy S. was in the vicinity and, with typical resourcefulness of the sea, Captain Arvid Sandhals quickly speeded to the assistance of the stricken vessel and effected as neat a bit of rescue work as has ever been recorded on this coast. As a result, the six members of Nora Jane's crew were safe aboard Sandy S. After being forced by the quickness of the conflagration to leap into the ocean, they owed their lives to the alert and courageous Sandhals.

The incident of the Nora Jane could well have been a grim tragedy but happily, it was to turn out otherwise.

These are the sort of incidents which again point up to the need of a Canadian coastguard and this reminds us we have not been hearing much more about it lately.

CANADA'S NAVAL STORY

A copy of "The Far Distant Ships," an official account of Canadian naval operations in the Second World War by Joseph Schull, published by the authority of the Minister of National Defence, has reached the editor's desk.

A 515-page book, it will prove of particular interest to the many Canadians who served at sea in the war as it tells many a story of the exploits of the Canadian Navy during sixty-eight months of war in the Battle of the Atlantic, in the Arctic, the Mediterranean, the Pacific and the many theatres in which Canadian ships and Canadian seamen wrote such a gallant chapter of history.

The absorbing drama is written in simple yet lively language and the profuse illustrations of maps and photographs are a feature. It is a story which will interest all Canadians generally and should prove popular at $3.

ON WEARING SHORTS

OPONENTS of shorts, which have even made their appearance on the streets of Prince Rupert these warm days, would be on strong grounds if they based their assault on aesthetic reasons, suggests the editorial column of the Ottawa Citizen.

"The privilege of wearing shorts could be denied to all with hairy legs or knock knees, all with pigeon toes, all those whose waists are no longer slender and those whose shanks are obviously skinny," says the Citizen. "This would eliminate enough people to make the wearing of shorts on the streets an uncommon sight."

TRAGIC PAIN

Editor, Daily News:

Many friends of the late James Edward MacLean have expressed deep regret at his tragic passing under pressure of pain from that dreaded disease — cancer.

Provision should be made for the care and keep of persons suffering from incurable diseases. Victims of such maladies should not be left alone in the wilderness of despair.

In a Christian country where life and conduct are supposed to be patterned from the Golden Rule of Jesus Christ I can recall from my personal recollection no less than sixteen persons between Prince Rupert, Stewart and Alice Arm who, during the past 35 years, have resorted to extreme measures under the pressure of hopeless pain. At the same time drugs designed to relieve pain were held under lock and key by the medical profession, the key to the pain killer being hard cash which, unfortunately, some of us have not got.

Nevertheless, in spite of perpetual pain and agony, we have witnessed some unbelievable deeds of forbearance and fortitude. One victim went so far as to dig his own grave, make and paint his own coffin, then sending to a mail order house for a rifle and shells and rope necessary to lower his remains into the grave. Painting his house and weeding his garden, his last chore of the day was to end his own life and thus secure release from the pain he had endured so long.

The question I endeavour to place before you, Mr. Editor, is: Who is responsible, the person who commits the act of suicide or the conditions that compel the act?

GEORGE B. CASEY.

Proceed With Pooling Plan

PARIS ©—Six Western European countries today met to pool coal and steel and something even more precious, their sovereignty.
France, Western Germany, Belgium, Italy, The Netherlands and Luxembourg have agreed to the idea, Britain has held back.
The revolutionary idea of surrendering sovereignty was made May 9 by France's Foreign Minister Schuman, who proposed the coal-steel pool be controlled by an international authority with power to tell the industry of each country what it can do.
Try to avoid emotional upsets at mealtime—such upsets tend to upset digestion.

Bing Crosby Never Better

Rated as one of the best of Bing Crosby's many stand-out pictures, "Riding High" comes to the Capitol Theatre here this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is an hilarious story of the race track with principal supporting parts by Coleen Gray, Frances Gifford and Charles Bickford. The story is by Mark Hellinger and there are four hit tunes—"Sunshine Cake," "Sure Thing," "Somewhere on Anywhere Road" and "The Horse Told Me."

A race track devotee, Crosby owns a potential champion horse. However, his fiancée, Frances Gifford, wants him to sell the thoroughbred and take a job with her father. He refuses to the delight of her younger sister, Coleen Gray, who is also in love with him and vans the horse to an out of town track for a big race. Unfortunately, there is an entry fee to be paid and Bing cannot raise the money. All seems lost when Miss Gray appears on the scene with the cash. The picture's climax packs a powerful emotional wallop.

William Damarest, Raymond Walburn, James Gleason, Ward Bond, Clarence Muse, Percy Kilbride and Harry Davenport are also in the cast.

Take care of your eyes—give them good light to read and work with—protect them against strain and injury.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Wheat is reported from four to six inches high in southern Manitoba. That makes far better reading than a description of how high Red River water is.

One would take for granted that in Ottawa the name "Wilfrid" would be correctly spelled. Yet, in a new and most praiseworthy publicity pamphlet concerning Canada's progress, it is not. The spelling is "Wilfred" and that's wrong. And as for "Laurier," that's quite accurate. Yet, under all the circumstances, the slip is inexcusable.

Just how poor is a poor man? A clergyman has declared that any Canadian earning less than $35 a week comes within that classification. Yet, much depends. What one man would call poor (and with emphasis), another wouldn't. Some might prefer a steady job the year around, at $35, while others would rather draw $75 for a stretch of four months.

The stranger who would never return to the world he knew best, and while awaiting admission to the one he knew least, thought St. Peter was taking his time. From where he stood, he could notice, within, a group of taxidivers. Their number was slowly increasing; and all were comfortably seated. St. Peter was asked why this seeming preference and favoritism was being displayed toward taxi-drivers. "You see," came the reply, "it's like this. We know, as a matter of impartial record, that taxi-drivers scare hell out of more people than any other class in society. At least a little recognition is deserved."

Nudists are buying land on the south coast and will be having the jolliest old time while warm weather lasts. This is in the long settled Langley region. Neighbors feel as sore as all get out. Their old homes are becoming unfit places in which to raise Christian families. The Nudists say they are sun-worshippers and have nothing to do with Sons of Freedom, who may settle down somewhere around Victoria or Alberni or Vancouver any old time. Come to think of it we'll stay in Prince Rupert. There are more dismaying sights than a bit of untidiness.

Reflecting on the number of new and rich looking ties, there seems to be a well founded suspicion that Father's Day was not it to be.

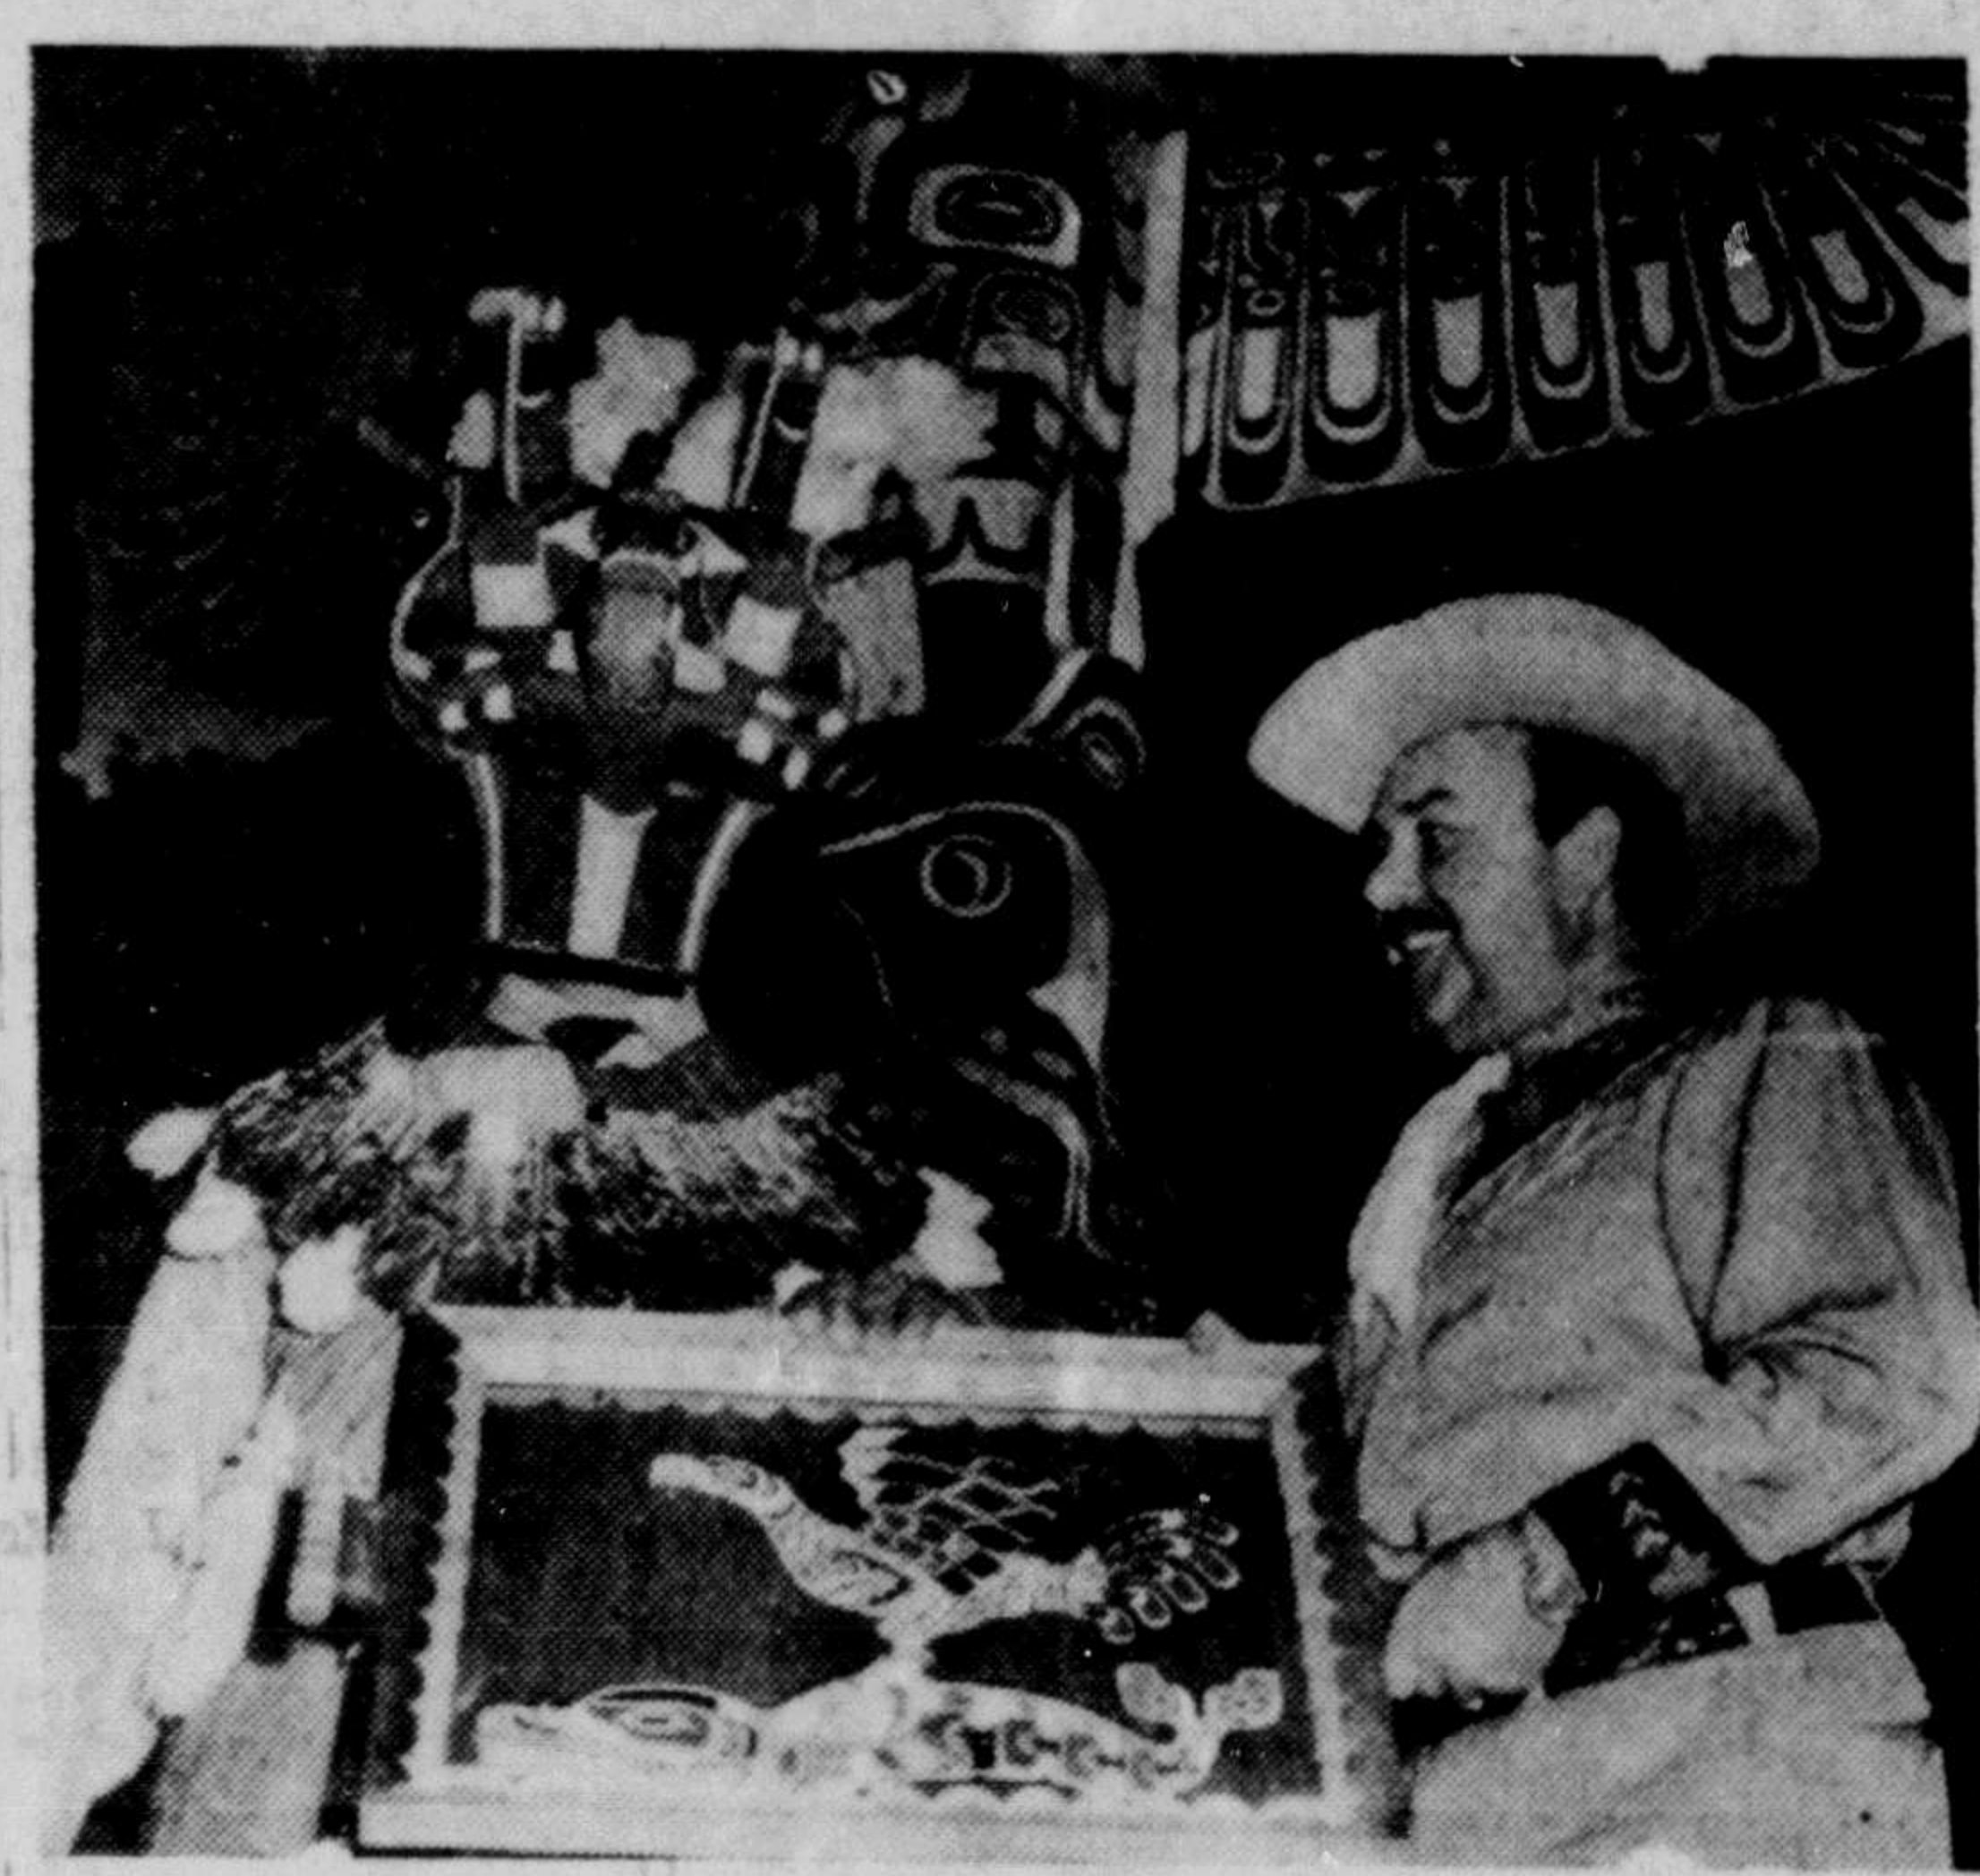

Mrs. Murray Henderson, formerly Miss Margaret Smith, little daughter Kathryn, arrived in the city Sunday aboard Coquitlam, from Vancouver. Henderson is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith, 309 Seventh Avenue East. Home is in Winnipeg.

Classifieds bring quick results. Neglected. What to get for Dad. Something of a problem, course, but there is ONE way that plainly points a way to avenue of escape. It's always useful. It's always necessary. It's always expensive, unless you wear clothing, and it's not to be.

Nationalists Fighting Back

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalist Air Force announced its planes had set two Communist steamers afire and left a troop ship in a sinking condition near the mainland port of Foochow yesterday. Foochow is the logical embarkation point for the threatened invasion of Formosa.

FIRST FAMILY OF MANITOBA FLOOD VICTIMS to receive interim aid from the Flood Relief Fund was that of Mr. and Mrs. William Borsboom. The flood ruined their two-storey home on the banks of the Red in St. Vital. The interim payment of $300 will be used to begin buying furniture and clothing to replace the effects lost while the waters swirled around the dwelling for week after week. Mr. and Mrs. Borsboom have 11 children and after the cheque had been presented by Harold A. Steele, vice-chairman and administrator of the Fund's Restoration Committee, the mother and father hurried to their temporary quarters to tell the family. They are shown with Anna, 5, on Mr. Borsboom's knee while Mrs. Borsboom holds Elizabeth, 2. Behind them are Teresa, 12; Gertrude, 14; John, 21; George, 20; Kathleen, 17; and Edward, 9. When the picture was taken one child was ill and two were at work. When the flood forced them out of their home, the family went to live with Mrs. Borsboom's brother, James Overwater. Mr. Borsboom's market garden business was "put back many years" by the flood. It is to help replace and repair flood-damaged household and other personal effects that the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund was established. Contributions may be mailed direct to the Fund in Winnipeg or to any branch of a Canadian bank.

As I See It
By ELMORE PHILPOTT
CARIBOO NEEDS OUTLET
ONE OF THE LIVEST magazines to appear in Canada in many a day is the Cariboo and Northwest Digest. It is published in Quesnel and each week I find myself waiting for the copies as for a new-found friend. In the latest issue there is a story THE CROSS, by Eric Collier, which is better than most of those which get in Maclean's or even the Saturday Evening Post. It breathes the spirit of the last northwest just as honestly as Robert Service's poems did that of the Yukon.

THE CARIBOO DIGEST IS campaigning for something that is long overdue—that is a new road outlet to the sea from the heart of the vast cattle country. There is a gap of eighteen miles between roads running into the interior from Bella Coola and the one running west from Williams Lake. "Punch eighteen miles of road through the wilderness and you'll reach the sea from the Cariboo by one of the oldest routes in the history of the province. It was over this route that Alexander Mackenzie, back in 1793, reached the Pacific Ocean—the first man to go overland from Canada—and he followed the advice of natives who knew the easiest routes." Such is the heart of the Cariboo Digest's blast.

ONE OF THE MOST AMUSING but pathetic facts revealed in this article is that Norwegians titled the Bella Coola Valley in 1894. They did so on the strength of a promise by the B.C. government that a "road would be built" connecting the salt water port with the vast interior. There are some of those hardy Norwegians still alive and still waiting for the government to live up to its promise.

But lately they began to get just a wee bit impatient. They and other folks in the Bella Coola valley raised several thousand dollars and decided to start building the missing link road themselves. The government at Victoria then showed more energy than it has done in the previous half century on this matter. It ordered "who-stop." The settlers could not even build the road with their own money and labor unless they did so under government engineers, of which none are nearby!

ACCORDING TO THE CARIBOO Digest, politicians fear to give the go-ahead order to build the missing link road because it might hurt the P.G.E. Railway. "It would be competition for the P.G.E." is the whispered reply.

This would be a scandal and an outrage even if it were true. For after all, just as the sabbath was made for man and not man for the sabbath, the P.G.E. was made for the good of the Cariboo country, and the people are not there for the sake of the P.G.E.

But it does not happen to be true. Anything that opens up a new country eventually helps everything which serves that country.

An unbroken road from Williams Lake to Bella Coola would bring a new wave of prosperity to a vast area of Canada. The P.G.E. would undoubtedly lose some traffic because of the new road. But it would gain far more than it lost because of the general increase in Cariboo prosperity and hence population. Canada needs what the Cariboo wants—an outlet via Bella Coola.

Press Curb Is Rejected

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—A bill to curb press criticism—offered after a newspaper had called Louisiana legislators "trained seals"—was killed in the Senate yesterday. The bill would have required newspapers to print "in the same prominence" replies by the persons criticized in news stories or editorials. Violators would face $3,000 fines and 90-day jail sentences.

BASEBALL— Watson Islanders Redeem Themselves - Nearly Won

Monday night's Senior football game, in which Canadian Legion and General Motors tied one all, was a splendidly contested game. Krause did well in goal. Sunberg and Eby were sound backs but had their hands full checking an improved Motors attack in spells. Yelland was very resourceful and effective. McAfee continues to improve and uses his height to advantage. Greer was clever in positional play and in placing the ball. Johansen did well when he replaced McAfee. The forward line was fast, clever and aggressive. Armstrong and Murray were a dangerous wing and gave Price quite a time. Baxter was fast and neat and Aird showing nice touches too. Smith drove hard but found Olson difficult to beat. The Legion has not lost a game this season.

Olson headed away in a Legion attack and Ford just missed from Pat Wilson's pass. Price shot just wide from Magee's pass and the Legion had difficulty getting Pat Wilson's well-taken corner away. Then play flashed to the other end and Murray's cross asked for conversion but no one connected. Johansen replaced McAfee and was good. Murray's corner was dangerous. Price tested Krause who saved and Murray hit the upright from close range. Motors pressed steadily and Pat Wilson just missed from Price's pass. Then the Legion staged a fierce attack but the Motors defence held with Welens and Robinson doing a present week at the Canadian Legion hall include a revival of the popular "Bring Your Missus Night," which will take place Friday. This event is confined to members of the Legion and their wives, and members of the Ladies Auxiliary and their husbands, and will be limited to 200—the seating capacity of the hall. Admission will be by membership ticket only.

On Saturday June 24 a new event, a Legionnaire dance, will be held in the Legion auditorium. As the name implies, only members of the local branch and its Ladies' Auxiliary will participate and again ticket sales will be limited to the capacity of the hall. Music for this event, expected to be one of a series, will be provided by the new Legion orchestra which has been recently organized.

On Sunday afternoon, the members of the local branch of the Canadian Legion and members of their Auxiliary will "fall in" at the Legion headquarters and participate in the annual Decoration Day ceremonies organized by the Queen Mary Chapter, Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire. Wreaths will be laid at the cenotaph, after which the parade is transported in cars and buses to the soldiers' plot at Fairview cemetery where the graves of their former comrades are decorated.

It is possible that improper care of baby teeth will cause dental difficulties throughout life.

The GARDEN

Supports Will Help—Winds, rains, and sometimes just the weight of their own blooms or fruits, will play hob with big plants. Unless supported often they will be toppled over when just at their best. For bushy flowers like peonies, wire bent in the shape of a hoop and supported about a foot or so from the ground, is excellent. For slender, taller plants such as tomatoes, dahlias, delphiniums, three to six foot stakes are recommended. These can be stained green or brown and won't be noticeable. In tying plants to these, very soft twine or special raffia or ties are used. The main thing is to support firmly without binding the soft plant too tightly, and to do this early so that growth will not be cramped and look unnatural. Once they start growing quickly staked tomatoes will require pruning (nipping off all side shoots) and tying once a week.

Summer Lawn Care—Once the hot weather starts it will not be necessary and it is not advisable to cut grass quite so often or so short. The lawn may need more watering, however. Experts caution against sprinkling. One good soaking every week or ten days during a dry spell is worth a dozen of the other kind. Most weeds in the lawn are easily disposed of with a spraying or two with 2-4-D. Of course there is little to be gained in killing out a bad patch of weeds with the new sprays unless the bare place following is reseeded with matters to water and fertilize the lawn about a week after applying the 2-4-D to encourage new, quick growth of grass to fill in where the weeds have been destroyed.

Never Too Late—Well—Even where the first planting could have been done weeks ago there is still time to have a good garden. In most sections of the country one can go on planting seeds, both flower and vegetables, right up to the end of June, and in some places up to mid-July. With standard vegetables like beets, carrots, beans, lettuce, etc., the experts advise spreading plantings regularly up to about mid-June in any case so that the harvest will be likewise spread over many weeks. To hurry along the late plantings, one can take several short cuts. The ground should be extra well prepared and some quick-acting commercial fertilizer applied to push growth. Watering, if possible, will also help. This growth with vegetables is especially desirable and particularly with those of which the roots are eaten.

Carried Pistol; Girl Fined

A 22 year old Vancouver girl, employed as a waitress here, was fined $50 and $2.25 costs by Magistrate W. D. Vance in city police court yesterday on a charge of possessing a revolver. Gwyneth Jones was arrested by Const. G. Horne on May 31 while on a routine investigation. He found the gun in her handbag. Police claim the revolver was not owned by her and are continuing an investigation. A Bruce Brown acted for the defence and Corp. A. S. Wellens prosecuted. The .32 calibre revolver found on the girl is believed to have been stolen, city police disclosed. Police believe she was packing the gun for a man whose name they refuse to divulge. An investigation is proceeding in attempt to find out where the man procured the weapon.

THE ACTON has a brick veneer and a low pitched roof with wide overhanging eaves that give it an air of sturdiness. The floor slab is poured on a gravel fill and the utility room replaces the basement for heating unit, laundry and general storage. Attaching the garage under a continuous roof adds to the rambling appearance.

All rooms open into the bedroom-hall for free movement, and it is also possible to reach the front door, by-passing the living room. Closet space is well distributed with two closets, one for linen in the hall, coat closets for both entrances, shallow wardrobe closets in bedrooms and storage closet and cabinet in utility room.

A double compartment sink is centrally located between stove on left and refrigerator on right. There is also a snack bar and dining space in kitchen.

Overall dimensions are 52 feet, 8 inches by 26 feet, 8 inches. Floor area is 1,040 and cube age 12,220 cubic feet.

Milk Strike End Seen in Offing

PITTSBURGH (C) — Mayor David Lawrence today held out hope for a settlement of the milk strike that has virtually shut off dairy supplies to seven Western Pennsylvania counties for the last 12 days. After a meeting of operators and the union broke up early today, he said they were surprisingly close together. Some 3,000 striking dairy workers are demanding a 40 hour, 5 day week with no reduction in pay. Dealers are offering 48 hours' pay for a 5 1/2 day, 42 hour week. Farmers are dumping the milk they can not sell.

A notice from the agent of the Department of Transport here warns mariners of a hazard to all small vessels using the Shell Oil dock on Prince Rupert waterfront. It is a small projection consisting of broken piling and rock fill of an old cribbing. The Department has caused two piles to be driven in each corner of the cribbing, these piles having nailed to them white boards bearing the lettering: "Keep Outside."

Union steamer Coquitlam, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 8:39 Tuesday morning from northern coastal points sailing for Vancouver and way points at 1:30 p.m. Passengers passing through the city enroute to Vancouver included Mrs. J. B. Liete, field nurse, and Miss L. Howe, school teacher from Kincolith.

On its second cargo carrying trip on the west coast, Capt. W. D. Owen yesterday reported the Winnipeg registered Fort Ross to be giving good service. Used to Hudson Bay service, the Fort Ross was built to be able to stay in the ice all winter and finds its Pacific duties comparatively easy. She dropped cargo at Skeena River points, Watson Island and Prince Rupert. From here she went on to Taku to deliver some more cargo and take on a load of ore.

Five cars of frozen halibut was the cargo the Lucidor, Seattle, dropped here yesterday afternoon for transshipment over Canadian National Railways. The ship, in command of Capt. L. Jacobson, arrived here at 2:15 p.m. from Petersburg, Alaska, after spending two weeks picking up cargo from Alaska ports. The 3,809 ton vessel continued on to Seattle after unloading.

C.N.R. steamer Prince George, Capt. E. B. Caldwell, on her present Alaska voyage, is carrying a near capacity list of 250 passengers. Here Sunday morning

Satisfaction Of Christian Living

Satisfaction to be derived from Christian living and the influence of its precept and example on others in making for better living was discussed by Rev. E. A. Wright in his morning sermon at First Presbyterian Church on Sunday. He called for unity in good works rather than the futile development of diverting differences. This was something that was as applicable to Prince Rupert as any other place.

Mr. Wright spoke from I Corinthians 3.

Lay Delegate Reports on Church Conference—Junior
Choir Presentations

At the evening service in First United Church, Mrs. C. J. Olson, who had been the official lay delegate from Prince Rupert, gave an account of the 1950 B.C. Conference of the United Church which she had attended in Vancouver. There had been a well-laid-out program with worship services each evening. Mrs. Olson had been tremendously impressed with the magnitude of the many services given by so many different groups in the United Church. To learn of these activities was an inspiration and a challenge. In nearly all cases an increase in results was a pleasing feature. But the challenge was not being fully met. There was still an insistent demand for fully qualified ministerial and lay workers in the church. The staffing of the Port Simpson Hospital was just one local problem. It was being solved by the appointment of a full-time doctor this fall. Overseas there was a tremendous challenge, but if Christians gave the same self sacrificing service as Communists gave, the problem would be solved. A delightful duet was rendered by Miss Yvonne Larson and Miss Anita Stewart.

Is Arrested

Norm Applin, alias Norman Harey Gladu, 34-year-old manager of the Northern Sports Boxing Club here, who was arrested Saturday afternoon by B.C. Police, is awaiting disposition of authorities of Fort Frances, Ontario, in connection of a car theft last year. He is alleged to have the stolen car cached behind his home on Third Avenue west.

Applin is being held pending further word from the police at Fort Frances who may dispatch an escort to this city.

Const. Jack White, upon being informed of Applin's alleged former name, checked the police files and later he and Corporal E. A. Wales then arrested the former Columbia Cellulose worker.

Applin arrived here last year and for a short period was employed with Saanich Plumbing and Heating. On January 23 he went to work as a pipefitter for the Columbia Cellulose Company on Watson Island. On June 15, he asked for three weeks leave of absence and did not return. In that period he fought the American bomber fighter Paul Kennedy that month and then operated the steam bath establishment on Sixth until he opened the present club on Second Avenue. The allegedly stolen vehicle is a red 1935 Chevrolet truck.

Applin was arrested when he was observed taking a few persons "for a ride" in the city.

His wife and two young children accompanied him to Prince Rupert in the vehicle.
