American Planes And Communist Guns Kill Wounded 150 British

WON, Korea (CP)—American planes and Communist guns killed or wounded more than 150 British troops today. The Americans hit the Sutherland Highlanders with napalm (incendiary) bombs and raked them with machine gun fire after British troops had called for air support.

After the fighter bombs had struck, Communists swept over the position held by the two Argyle companies and long range Communist guns lobbed shells into the British lines farther back.

In thirty minutes dead and wounded were believed to be well over 150.

The mistaken raid was on high ground which the Argyles had just captured.

The planes dropped their explosives too far back in spite of huge recognition panels laid out by the Scots.

Before the Communist attack the Argyles called for artillery support but none was available, the Americans having already withdrawn their guns.

An Associated Press photographer, Gene Herick, watched the bombing incident from an advanced command post 400 yards away. Herick said he made a number of pictures but soon put down his camera to help carry litters of British wounded across the Nakdong River.

While helping to carry a wounded private across a bridge, the North Koreans opened fire on the litter column with a 76-millimeter self-propelled gun.

Yanks Go Up—New York In Better Lead

NEW YORK — The dramatic pennant finale in the American League spread out as a result of today's play with the New York Yankees taking a one and a-half game lead over the Detroit Tigers.

The Yanks blanked the Boston Red Sox 8 to 0 while the Tigers appeared doomed to defeat at the end of the eighth when they were trailing the Cleveland Indians 10 to 1.

Assuming the Tigers lose, the Yanks would be one and a-half games ahead of them with the Red Sox falling three games behind the Yanks.

Brooklyn Dodgers won 8 to 2 over Philadelphia and cut the Phillies' lead to six games.

Pittsburgh defeated Cincinnati 8 to 7 and New York Giants scored a 4 to 3 victory over Boston.

Clergyman's Answers—

Non-Church Goers Rapped

NORTH HATLEY, Que. — The Anglican parishioners of North Hatley who have their various excuses for staying away from church may be fooling themselves but Rev. Mark Beaufoy has them pretty well taped. He indicated this in a monthly bulletin generally entitled "Parson's Pleading" but retitled "Parson's Pleading" in its September issue. In this Mr. Beaufoy indicated that about one out of three Anglicans in North Hatley and nearby Waterville, in the heart of Quebec's eastern townships, attend church regularly.

Here is how Mr. Beaufoy listed the non-attendance excuses and his comments on each:

1. "I'm unable to get to church because of age and/or sickness." It is surprising how a tummy-ache will stop folk coming to church when they wouldn't dream of letting it stop them going to a movie.
2. "I have work to do on Sunday." Have you tried to arrange your work so you could get to church?
3. "Oh, I listen to the radio-services." A useful extra, but no substitute for meeting together in your own church.
4. "The weather prevents me from coming." Does weather stop you going to a movie?
5. Company arrived just before church-time.
6. "The service times are awkward."
7. "Sunday's the only day the family are at home."
8. "We can't attend because of the children and/or baby."
9. "I have no Sunday clothes."
10. "I am as good as others who go."
11. "I can't stand the minister."

I know I am a weak and sinful man; please, then pray for me and give me some encouragement by showing a little more interest in your church.

BOMBER MISSING

DENVER — An Air Force B-50 bomber with a crew of 12 and four passengers aboard is reported missing today on a flight from Goose Bay, Labrador, to Tucson, Arizona. The air base here said the plane, which left Goose Bay Thursday night, was to have entered the United States over Michigan and land at Tucson Friday morning.

Little Damage By Storm Here

Besides a few windows blown in and the odd chimney going down last night, the high winds seemed to have caused little damage locally. A few telephones were put out of operation yesterday morning, but were put in order quickly. Telephones today were normal.

Meanwhile, maximum velocity registered at the Digby weather station in the period was southeast 28, which is no indication of conditions at points other than at the location of the wind gauge. Precipitation yesterday was .29 inches.

Trans-Atlantic Jet Flight Made

WASHINGTON — The United States Air Force said one jet fighter plane completed a 3,500 mile non-stop flight from Britain Friday night, but the pilot of the other crash landed safely in Labrador.

It was the first non-stop jet flight across the Atlantic. The pilot had trouble refueling in mid-air and after the crash was taken to Goose Bay airport.

Real Christianity

WITHOUT wishing to step in where angels fear to tread, there is something we like about that renewal by the United Church of Canada of the proposal for "constitutional union," whatever that may be, with the Anglican Church.

Too much time, we think, is often lost by prejudicial bickering over denominational differences—to say nothing of the waste of time, thought and effort which might be more usefully applied to the dissemination of the simple Gospel and the promotion of the Christian way of living.

What important difference is there anyway about being United, Anglican, Presbyterian, Baptist or even Roman Catholic provided one is living the Christian way?

Too much concern, we sometimes think, is placed on the kind of Christianity we practise rather than about the elementary fact that a lot of people are practising no Christianity at all.

Indeed, there must be frustration of Christianity in some of these prejudicial and narrow-minded views about whether this denomination or that is the best. What's the difference, anyway?

We wonder what Christ himself would have to say about this pretty bickering about the mechanics and politics of following in His footsteps.

Yes, we think the General Council of the United Church is on the right track and we hope it is followed up.

In unity there is strength and one great church. It seems to such simple-minded people as ourselves, would be able to do a whole lot better job than a lot of little ones which, too often, appear to be beating the air and fighting between themselves.

NEW INDUSTRIAL EMPIRE

START of a new industrial empire for B.C. is indicated by facts on the new Aluminum Company of Canada development in the upper coastal area. Of the 1,500,000 horsepower to be developed by the hydro project, the company would require about two-thirds, so that the rest would be available for other industries.

This project will raise the world's output of aluminum by one-quarter. Estimated cost of the development is close to $500,000,000. It will be of sufficient size to create an entirely new city with a population of about 50,000. An influx of other industries is bound to occur—not only to serve this population—but to absorb the anticipated power surplus.

A desire to set up similar plants on the coast has also been indicated by two other firms, Reynolds Metal Company and Aluminum Company of America. Falling power potentials in most of the continent give the reason for their interest. This province is one of the last sections with untapped reserves of more than a million horsepower in each of at least three locations. It is said the Aluminum Company's Nechako dam will create the longest hydro reservoir in the world.

Developments of such magnitude naturally progress slowly but they do indicate the possibility of B.C.'s tremendous hydro resources reaching the status of a basic industry.—Journal of Commerce.

Radiologist For Hospital Is Out

The provincial hospital commission, holding that there is not sufficient volume of work to warrant a full-time radiologist, has turned down the proposal of the British Columbia Medical Association to have a full-time radiologist at the Prince Rupert General Hospital. According to the hospital board, the hospital is now working on the modified plan that part-time services of a radiologist might be obtained with periodic visits here by a qualified specialist. The suggestion was also made at last night's board meeting that a radiologist might be situated in the north to work in consultation with various hospitals. Dr. R. G. Lange, director of the Medical Association, at last night's board meeting, expressed the opinion that, since the hospital was really paying for such service, it was entitled to get it. The matter is being further explored.

SATURDAY SERMON

Text: Joel 2: 15-18. "Blow the trumpet . . . call a solemn assembly . . . gather the people . . . let the minister of the Lord weep . . . then will the Lord . . . pity His people."

SHOFAR SOUNDS

On Thursday last, at nightfall, the shofar sounded in the synagogues of the world and the day of Yom Kippur was at an end. Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonement, takes precedence at the beginning of every new year in the Jewish calendar and the Jewish people of the world have just finished ushering in their year's

One of the great prayers that was said in all Synagogues runs thus:—"O Lord our God, and God of our Fathers, Thou hast placed us on this earth and hast appointed us to do Thy will. But we follow too often our evil inclination and transgress Thy laws. In Thy gracious love, Thou hast given us the Sabbath, that we pause in our striving after worldly goods and seek the treasures of the Spirit which consecrate life unto Thee. And this Sabbath of Repentance admonishes us to turn from the pursuit of life's vanities. Truly O God we know our weakness, and feel humble and chastened."

Note what Joel says—if the people and the priests will weep before the Lord then will the Lord have pity upon them. This confused chaotic world needs God's pity. Go to God's house tomorrow and join the solemn assembly in atonement. It is later than you think, and the last shofar may sound when you and I least expect it.

Go back and read that prayer again. It is well worth the few seconds it will require.

Is it not at least a prayer that all might pray?
I will go further and say that it is a prayer that all ought to pray. Warnings galore are showing the thinking people that there is a drift to materialism. What are we to do about it? Joel told his people what to do. We have quoted portions of the four verses at the head of this newspaper article, you read the context and the text for yourself and see how bitter must be their sorrow.

It is all very well for us Christians to lean heavily on the fact that Jesus Christ was and is our Atonement, but what about our share in the act?

Atonement—three words—at one moment. Making as one. Yes! Jesus Christ made it possible for men to be at one with their God without recourse to further blood sacrifice, but even he could not compel men to accept the act of atonement. There is still something we must do. It can best be done in solemn assembly. It has become far too fashionable to say in a supercilious manner:

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS

Bible and World—

Crisis is Spiritual

Truth Being Sought in Spite of Materialism, Visiting Speaker Holds

Giving emphasis to the belief that the present crisis in international affairs is more spiritual and moral than economic, Rev. W. H. Hudspeth of Toronto addressed a well attended meeting in St. Paul's Lutheran Church last evening.

The meeting took place under the auspices of the local British and Foreign Bible Society of which society the speaker was general secretary in China. In that country he had, as missionary, served for 28 years, dating from 1909. His wartime experiences included being held as a prisoner by the Japanese.

After outlining the development and general growth of the British and Foreign Bible Society, Mr. Hudspeth described the change noted in Japan since 1945. Prior to the end of the second Great War the emperor of Japan was regarded by his subjects as God himself, or the King of Heaven. Such worship, however, has since vanished and the Japanese are studying and seeking the truth in Christianity. General MacArthur, for example, recently cabled Washington to send more missionaries and Bibles.

"What an unparalleled opportunity is seen here," remarked Mr. Hudspeth.

He told of life in China, the progress of mission work in that land, the many fine qualities of her people, and his admiration of them.

Reference to Africa was made by the speaker, the vast problems before that continent, the millions of natives, and the continuation or otherwise, of white supremacy.

Mr. Hudspeth then spoke of how two mighty world wars had had a disturbing effect in Europe in that the tenets that had gone unquestioned thirty or forty years ago were today being challenged. This doubt could also be detected in Great Britain. He drew attention to the public attitude toward youth and could not agree with the view that the boys of today were not the equal of those of earlier days. The young men of today, Mr. Hudspeth declared, are in particular characterized by bravery and by the desire to know the truth in everything.

The speaker, who left today by plane for Vancouver, was introduced by P. H. Linney president of the local Society. Prayer was said by Canon Basil S. Procter.

Telegraph communication beyond Woodcock was dead after 8:30 Friday morning when lines went out, probably a result of the storm which struck Prince Rupert early that morning. Telegraph officials did not know at noon the exact cause of the line failure. Service was restored at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Woodside returned to the city last evening from a month's holiday motor tour which took them to Vancouver, Seattle, Kelowna and Salmon Arm. They were accompanied by Mrs. George Fowle. Just east of Terrace they saw evidence of a big electrical and windstorm which was felt there early yesterday. Many trees had blown over the road. The west end of Highway 16 now appears to be in better shape than the east end.

Miss Agnes Gormely, Vancouver, arrived last night on the Chilcotin to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gormely, for a short while.

Regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital was held last night when considerable business was disposed of. President C. G. Ham was in the chair and others present were Directors C. A. Berner, S. C. Elkins, Earl Gordon, Ald. W. A. McLean, Mrs. Jens Munthe and Dr. R. G. Large and Administrator D. C. Stevenson. Dr. Large was in attendance as representative of the Prince Rupert Medical Association in the absence of Dr. L. M. Greene.

Marie Michaloff Is Pretty Bride

The Presbyterian Manse Wednesday morning was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding when Marie Lenore Michaloff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Michaloff, became the bride of Forbes Hampton Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee, Rev. E. A. Wright officiating. It was a double ring ceremony.

The bride, gowned in blue organdie over taffeta with flowered headpiece and white gloves, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a corsage of roses and carnations.

Bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Bernice, and Florence Morse. The former wore taffeta with an embroidered neckline and a corsage of carnations. Miss Morse wore green with black taffeta and a carnation corsage.

David Kristmanson was best man.

When the couple entered the home of the bride's parents for the wedding luncheon they did so to the tune of "Because." Only members of the family were present.

Following a wedding trip to the interior by motor, the couple will live in their new home on Eleventh Avenue.

Both bride and groom are members of well known and esteemed pioneer local families.

Blackwood On Bridge

By Easley Blackwood

My friend, Mr. Masters is the amiable host at a well-known bridge club. At one time or another Mr. Masters has to play with every type of partner and against every type of opponent. He not only gets a salary for his work, he also gets a part of his winnings, if any. Mr. Masters has learned the hard way that he must adjust his game to fit the varying skills, abilities, temperaments and superstitions of his fellow players. One of Mr. Masters' regular patrons is Mr. Abel, who can play pretty fair bridge when he is unruffled. But with a carping partner, Mr. Abel is quite likely to go to pieces. Long ago Mr. Masters acquired the art of keeping his partners' happy. Mr. Abel is particularly amenable to kind treatment at the bridge table, and plays his best when Mr. Masters is his partner.

Both sides vulnerable North dealer.

Today's hand wasn't a difficult one, and Mr. Abel made it by careful play. But I'll wager he would have flubbed it if he had been subjected to frequent criticism on the previous deals.

West opened the ten of spades, which was won on the board with the king. Mr. Abel took stock and saw that he had nine tricks in high cards. Could he afford luxury of removing opponents' trumps? No, that was out. Clearly the other tricks he needed had to come from the trump itself.

So at the second trick Mr. Abel carefully laid down the ace and king of diamonds. Then he cross-ruffed clubs and hearts, making eight trump tricks in all. He conceded a diamond trick at the end.

What a difference if he had not cashed his ace and king of diamonds early. On the third lead of clubs East would have discarded one of his diamonds. Then Mr. Abel would never have won both the ace and king of that suit and the contract would have been down one.

Morning devotions over radio station CFPR, a daily feature, will be taken by Rev. Fred Antrobus of First Baptist Church from Monday to Wednesday during the coming week and from Thursday to Saturday by Rev. L. G. Sieber of First United Church. The following week the broadcasts will be taken by Rev. Sieber and by Rev. Dr. E. A. Wright pastor of First Presbyterian Church.

More Nurses At Hospital

Hampered for a long time by shortage of nurses, a situation which is now gradually improving, Miss E. Clement R.N., lady superintendent, assured the hospital board last night that she was working toward the end of having the staff soon organized so there would be continuity of floor supervision. In other words, Miss Clement hopes soon to have a permanent night supervisor and permanently assigned supervisors for each floor.

The matter came up as a result of suggestions made by the medical staff of the hospital who, Dr. R. G. Large said, appreciated the difficulty there had been in effecting such organization due to the shortage of nurses. Miss Clement informed the board that she now had thirty nurses on the staff whereas earlier in the year there had been only seventeen.

Certain it is that choice of the name here, perpetuates it in Canada as nothing else could. Some day, one of the large cities of the Pacific will stand here. Selection was by public competition. It has a background of history, dignity and adventure. Like enough, Rupe was also a bit of a go-getter and sportsman. That's good enough.

CHIANG IS NOT CHINA

LESTER PEARSON'S astute intervention, at the opening of the United Nations Assembly, gives the world organization a second chance to avoid an unwise and even disastrous decision.

If the United Nations is to survive on the basis of which it was formed, China's seat soon must go to the government of China. There is only one government of China—and every honest person admits it. That government is the Communist administration which has its capital in Peking and not the refugee rump of Chiang Kai-Shek.

INDIA SEEMED TO ME TO make an unanswerable case for the seating of Communist China. The government is strong, stable, and is not even challenged on the vast mainland of China. It is already recognized as the government by over 95% of the people of China, the vast majority of whom, by the way, are not Communists.

The Chinese Communist government is officially recognized as such by all its neighbors in Asia, including India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Indonesia, Burma, Siam. It is recognized by the majority of the members of the UN Security Council—including Britain. That is, well over half the world's population has accepted the new Chinese government as a fact.

The only reason why 43 out of the 58 members of the UN have not yet recognized the Communist government of China is because the United States has not done so. Very few nations can afford to make any move today which offends the U.S.A. And on this question of China the N.S.A. is itself divided.

IT IS WIDELY believed that Dean Acheson himself and the U.S. State Department would like to recognize the Chinese government immediately. Those who hold this view believe that President Truman also agrees. But General MacArthur and a strong wing of the Republican party have other ideas. Hence the extreme importance of the re-appointment to the United States cabinet of General George C. Marshall. The latter has had long and successful experience in keeping General MacArthur in his proper place—that is as a general and not an international policy maker. Marshall knows the Chinese picture at first hand.

THE REAL TOUGH NUT TO crack in the Chinese mix-up is the island of Formosa. This was returned to Chinese sovereignty after the recent war (though the Formosans themselves were never consulted about this, else they might have voted for independence). When Chiang's corrupt and demoralized government was driven out of China, he took refuge on Formosa. He has no less than 750,000 troops there, of whom about 400,000 are rated as first class. Hence both Chiang Kai-Shek on Formosa and the Chinese Communists agree that Formosa is part of China. Chiang has every intention of using it as a hide-out till he is strong enough to regain a foothold on the Asiatic mainland. As the ultra-Conservative London Observer points out it is the above fact which compels the Chinese Communists to attack Formosa.

REGARDLESS of what is done about Formosa—there is only one government of China. Like it or lump it, that government is the Communist government. The recognition of that government is, as Trygve Lie, the Secretary of the UN points out, a most important point in starting the world back in the direction of peace. Chiang is not China.

Swedish Help for U.N. in Korea

The first part of Sweden's contribution to the United Nations forces in Korea—a field hospital—arrives at Idlewild Airport in New York after a flight from Stockholm. After ceremonies at the airport, the doctors and nurses proceeded to Fort Dix, New Jersey, where they will remain until arrangements are made for transportation to Korea. The hospital will be manned by 176 persons.

Hospital W.A. Meets Again

There was a fair attendance at the first fall meeting of the Women's Hospital Auxiliary on Thursday night. Membership now stands at 50 and, since its inception, the auxiliary has raised about $700.

A report on the successful tag day recently was read and approved. The sum of $345.96 was realized.

The library committee reported they would be ready to operate in about two weeks. At present the committee is busy cataloguing some 450 books. To make it a satisfactory collection up to 1000 hard back volumes are desired and donations are being welcomed.

President Mrs. J. Munthe was chosen official delegate from the association to the meeting of the British Columbia Hospital Association at Vancouver next month.

Tentative plans for a tea at the opening of the new nurses home were discussed but little could be done because of the uncertainty of the date of opening.

The matter of assisting in providing furnishings for the new home was discussed with Miss E. Clement, R.N., lady superintendent, who was present at the meeting.

Mrs. Munthe was in the chair and refreshments were served

Agreement With Union

Board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital, at its meeting last night, gave approval to a final draft of an agreement with the Civic Employees' Federal Union which is accepted as the bargaining agency between the hospital and its domestic employees—not including engineer- and nursing staff. Earlier in the week there had been discussions between committees of the hospital and employees with Jack Place, a provincial labor relations officer.

The agreement includes the usual standard conditions and provides for a five-and-a-half day, forty-four hour week with time-and-one-half for four additional hours in a day and double time over twelve hours. There are ten statutory holidays and 1½ sick days per month are allowed—18 days per year for the first year and 28 days in the second year.

The wage scale provides for starting pay of $110 for maids and $175 for orderlies with increases in three and six months.

More Details of Scrub Tragedy—Good Fishing on Islands Hampered by Weather Lately

Disaster at sea struck the veteran vessel Scrub between 7 and 8 p.m. Thursday when she struck Skidgate Bar and capsized about four miles off Sandspit. The body of Lloyd Houstie of Bella Bella was later recovered but that of Ralph Sandy, another crew member, was not found by yesterday afternoon. He was last seen sitting on some seine corks. Other members of the crew rescued were Capt. Peter Jackson, Charles Hopkins, Clarence Martin and Edward Hunt, all of Bella Bella. Three boats, the Chamis Bay, Skidgate C. and Scrub—were proceeding up the east coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands from Cumshewa to Skidgate through dense fog and heavy winds. They were keeping up constant radio communication with each other as they crossed Skidgate Bar but the Scrub was not heard from after the others had crossed the bar. Loggers on the shore picked up four of the men and the body of Houstie. Sandy was last seen on the seine floats. Fog hampered rescue operations. The Cape Perry, Capt. Henry Helin, which arrived in port yesterday, was travelling near the three boats at the time of the accident but could not see because of fog. The Scrub, originally built at Bellingham in 1910, was for many years operated by Capt. Adolph Prince as a halibut vessel out of Prince Rupert. Later she was acquired by the late Capt. William Miller and for years was operated as a mail boat between Prince Rupert and Porcher Island. In 1944 she was acquired by the B.C. Packers who rebuilt and re-engined her and used her as a seineboat and packer out of Namu cannery.

There has been good salmon fishing off the Queen Charlotte Islands for the past while, according to Capt. Henry Helin of the Cape Perry. About 100 boats, the most ever to operate off the Queen Charlottes, were out this week. Heavy winds hampered operations during the past week but catches by boats that were out have been have been good. Capt. Helin says the good runs toward the end of the season have made the year a fair one for salmon fishing in spite of the bad start. However, it has not been so good south of Johnston Straits.

Weather on the Queen Charlottes has been worse in the past week than for a long time, according to Capt. Helin, who sailed across Hecate Straits yesterday. Bad weather started Sunday night, built up all day Monday and has been bad since Tuesday with 40 and 50 mile an hour gusts springing from all directions. Many packers have been stormbound all week. It was tough at 2 a.m. yesterday when the Cape Perry left Skidgate with winds blowing about 45 miles per hour. However the boat was able to make the crossing in its usual time of about 11 hours.

Barney Lundquist, skipper of the seiner Arbory, Vancouver, has been in the city for about a week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lundquist, Hays Cove Circle. Mr. Lundquist will be remembered among baseball fans of 20 years ago. He sails over the week-end on the Arbory to return to the south.

Johnny Sims, recently appointed junior freight clerk for Union Steamships, is aboard the steamer Chilcotin in that capacity on her current voyage to Queen Charlotte City. He will be back in the city on her south-bound trip Sunday. For a time this year he was on the Daily News staff.

Aboard steamer Chilcotin on the present round trip from Vancouver to Queen Charlotte City are Capt. and Mrs. E. W. Suffield. Capt. Suffield, who is marine superintendent for Union Steamships Lines, is renewing old acquaintances along the northern route.

Coming north in place of the Camosun, which has been withdrawn for annual overhaul at Vancouver, Union steamer Chilcotin, Capt. H. E. McLean, arrived in port at 8:45 last night from Vancouver and waypoints and sailed later for south Queen Charlotte Island points. The Chilcotin is due back here tomorrow afternoon and will sail at 9 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. Delay in arrival was due to lateness of the vessel leaving Vancouver Wednesday night following her return from a voyage to Alaska. Disembarking here were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Simpson, Miss A. Gormely, S. Parsons, E. Gabrielson, Mrs. P. G. Griffith and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Bates, Mrs. G. Foster, Mrs. F. J. Mackie, Mrs. G. H. Fraser and baby, Mrs. D. H. Stewart, Mrs. Good.

Frank Waterhouse freighter Island King, Capt. Walter Holmberg, arrived in port at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon from Vancouver and, after discharging local cargo, proceeded at midnight to Watson Island. Going from there to Skeena River cannery points, she will pick up machinery from Canadian Fishing Co.'s Carlisle cannery plant which is to be moved to the ocean dock here. Then the Island King will go to Alice Arm to load Torbrit mine ore.

Purser B. Robson was scrounging for space Thursday as he surveyed his berthing sheet and wondered where he was going to find room for a large list of passengers heading south aboard the steamer Prince George. Added to a number of round-trip tourists the vessel had on board were upwards of fifty people who were taken on at Ketchikan. At Prince Rupert another hundred or so were added and Ocean Falls yesterday put aboard a further substantial number. The George, now in command of Capt. William Eccles in place of Capt. E. B. Caldwell, the regular master, who is on annual vacation, arrived in port at 8 p.m. from Ketchikan and sailed at midnight for Vancouver via Ocean Falls and Westview.
