Who Are In Tourist Business Themselves Offer Suggestions For Selling Interior to Americans

British Columbia got a bit of constructive in its attitude toward tourists Monday afternoon from a couple who are in the tourist business in the southern part of New Mexico. They made it plain that this is constructive when E. J. Blaylock, a big, pleasant ex-

Swim Lesson Was Fatal

Ironic Circumstance Attends Tragedy in Bulkley River

SMITHERS (Special to Daily News)—Ed. Lattery of Houston, and Smithers was giving his young son, Dennis, a lesson in swimming when, ironically enough, he himself was drowned in the Bulkley River Sunday evening.

Lattery was attempting to "walk across" an eddy of the Bulkley River about 200 yards above the bridge at Telkwa to show the boy that the water was not too deep.

It is thought that Lattery meant to go only a short way out and then turn back. Either he stepped off a ledge into deep water or took a cramp. As the unfortunate man's wife, Mrs. Edna Lattery, and daughter, Lorna, and a crowd watched helplessly, he was carried through the rapids and away downstream. Unable to fight longer he floated for a while and finally sank. Draining operations under the direction of Constable Tony West of Hazelton and Constable Stacey Davis of Smithers have so far been unsuccessful.

LAST ESCAPEE IS RECAPTURED

LILLOOET—John Stinson, 49-year-old fugitive convict, surrendered to a lone provincial police officer here yesterday because dodging the police had got him down.

The surrender ended three months of freedom for Stinson, last of a trio of armed convicts who made a daring escape April 25 from a Vancouver-bound boat while under escort. Stinson, along with Kenneth O'Keefe, 23, and Leonard Sparks, 28, overpowered their loan police guard and fled from the vessel when it docked in Vancouver from Victoria.

Stinson had been working as a plasterer here.

Meantime the miners' strike goes on with no further sign of settlement as far as New South Wales is concerned although miners in Western Australia and Tasmania have returned to work.

Truman's Military Aid Program May Be Trimmed By United States Senate; Alternate Plan Is Being Put Forward

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Republican backers for military aid to Western Europe today move to cut by over half President Truman's $1,450,000,000 foreign arms program. Greeted with a storm of criticism, the President's proposal seemed to head bi-partisan foreign policy, on which there has never been serious difference of opinion, toward its most severe congressional test.

Senators Arthur Vandenburg and John Foster Dulles said they were working on an alternate proposal which would ask Congress to approve a $770,000,000 outlay, forward $450,000,000 surplus of military equipment to North Atlantic pact signatories, make about $200,000,000 more available to buy new equipment. This would be in addition to $325,000,000 to continue arms aid to Greece and Turkey.

MOOSE OWES ITS LIFE TO WOMAN

KISPIOX—As a game animal, the moose is generally one of men's victims but one moose in this district owes its life to a woman—Mrs. Mathtas Wesley, who saved it from a marauding wolf.

While walking to her husband's camp, seven miles from their home, Mrs. Wesley saw a wolf stalking a moose. As it came close, she raised her arms and shouted at the predator which immediately abandoned its chase and slunk off into the woods.

Republicans Aiming to Cut Down Program

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Republican backers for military aid to Western Europe today move to cut by over half President Truman's $1,450,000,000 foreign arms program. Greeted with a storm of criticism, the President's proposal seemed to head bi-partisan foreign policy, on which there has never been serious difference of opinion, toward its most severe congressional test.

Bobby Locke Blacklisted

ST PAUL—Bobby Locke, British open champion, was scratched today from major golf tournaments in the United States and many in Canada.

The 32-year-old South African's blacklisting by the professional Golfing Association came shortly after his belated withdrawal from the $15,000 Inverness invitational golf match in Toledo last Thursday.

Buck Shannon Of Usk Dies

Heart Attack Fatal While Visiting With Friends at Kitselas

Buckley Shannon, mining man of 25 years standing at Usk and long identified with the Nicholson Creek property there, died of a heart attack at Kitselas early Sunday morning, according to word received from the interior today.

Mr. Shannon had been paying a visit to Terrace and left there by the way freight Saturday evening, intending to return to Usk. At Kitselas, while the train stopped there, he got off to visit with friends. Suddenly he was stricken and, unable to continue the journey, expired at Kitselas at 4 o'clock Sunday morning.

Coroner Will Robinson of Terrace proceeded to Kitselas and satisfied himself that death was due to natural causes.

Mr. Shannon is believed to have been about 60 years of age. His wife predeceased him some years ago and there is a daughter in Vancouver.

Six men were booked after all-night questioning. Nine were arrested in New Jersey and Cincinnati in addition to two who had been taken in custody here previously.

One of the arrested men, a newspaper circulation employee, was identified by police as once prominent in the Lindbergh kidnapping case. He is Irving Biz of the New York Journal-American who was named by Col. Lindbergh as the "go-between" in negotiating for the return, which never occurred, of the kidnapped baby in 1932.

Reactionary Idealism

IT MIGHT SEEM a paradoxical statement but sometimes even the so-called idealistic theories appear to be reactionary. For example, the orthodox Marxism—those who climb aboard the communistic bandwagon will find it, after all, to be hitched to a faded star of nineteenth century materialism, a continuation, in fact, of the development of the superstate. The terminology is changed but the purpose is the same.

The most intractable dogmatisms, it seems, whether secular or clerical, are found among those who cling to material rather than truly idealistic values. The search for truth really requires of the searcher that he be willing to accept the wings that idealism gives—providing they can be found scientifically and practically sound.

ROAD SHOULD BE KNOWN

KEITH WARREN, motoring from Arizona to Prince Rupert, made inquiries at Osoyoos on the B.C. border, concerning the Skeena River Highway. But those supposed to provide information were ignorant—knew next to nothing about it. Such incidents seem to happen frequently and will occur again unless good-sized signs are boldly displayed along the road, and employees at border points given full data and warned that complaints from prospective visitors will mean satisfactory explanations.

The Skeena Highway cost millions and arouses the praise of all lovers of mountain scenery. There is such a road, and its time—certainly—officials knew about it.

The Skeena Highway was built about five years ago. For a while, no small degree of effort was required to have the public realize this. There were, of course, contradictory reports. But today traffic is rapidly growing and the road should be more widely known.

It gives one a pain to think there should still be responsible agents unable to enlighten the arriving stranger. Perhaps they dislike the idea of knowing anything about British Columbia, north of Vancouver. But a great many do not.

WHY KILL THEM AT 65?

A DOUBLE DILEMMA faces the bread-winner over 40.

If he (or she) is looking for a job he'll find some employers don't want him—he can't keep up as stiff a pace as a younger man.

If he is employed in a company with a pension plan he'll probably be retired at 65. That's the last thing that many a keen, vigorous worker wants. He won't starve—but he's apt to rot. For too many men retirement has been a death sentence.

Many employers now realize that, in the proper job, an older man can be worth more than he was 20 or 30 years earlier. The older shoulders carry wiser heads.

As for the man nearing retirement age, why cast him aside if he's still delivering value? It may seem cruel, but many able men would rather die with their boots on than face the killing boredom of retirement. Why not give them their choice?

Ray Reflects . . . . . . and Reminisces

Seven peaks of the Rockies will bear the names of Alberta soldiers who served nobly. Between Prince Rupert and Prince George are scores of lofty snow-crowned crests. Northern and Central British Columbia can think of veterans who deserve remembrance.

Most of us might have the feeling that, if asked, unexpectedly, to name all of Canada's Prime Ministers, there would be little if any difficulty, in doing so. The total number is twelve. It's a simple enough matter to remember, say, six! But how about travelling all the way back to 1867? Well, the procession goes this way—MacDonald, MacKenzie, Abbott, Thompson, Bowell, Tupper, Laurier, Borden, Meighen, Bennett, King, St. Laurent. Paste this in your hat.

Because of their weight and size, Jack Garland and Mayor

Houde, newly elected to Parliament, have perhaps never been able to find seats large and comfortable enough. But now, once in the Federal House, that cramped feeling should disappear. Awaiting them will be specially built chairs of heavy wood, bolted, instead of being glued and mortised together. Each seat will be tested with sandbags, not only for a solid weight, but also for 500 pound man sitting down hard. Mr. Garland and Mr. Houde should have permission to ship each chair home for use between sessions.

It may be taken for-granted that although invited to return to Soviet Russia or Turkey, comparatively few Doukhobors will leave Canada. They know a good and a free country and patient authorities when they see them. And Canadians are able to distinguish between Doukhobors and the Sons of Freedom so called.

ANCHOR FOR MEN'S MINDS IS GREAT NEED

In these times of revolutionary change and challenging uncertainty due to scientific development and delving into the mysteries of nature which mysteries, as a result, become even deeper, there is need more than ever for the anchor of the spiritual fundamentals, declared Rev. George E. Sendall in his Sunday morning sermon at First Presbyterian Church. The pastor's subject was "Pivotal Things" which he enumerated from Philippians 4:8—"whatever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these things." Natural and physical things, which, through discovery, caused confusion and frustration in the minds of men, had always existed, Mr. Sendall reminded the congregation.

ing was a long way outside—"miles back in the bush, it seemed."

Lack of directional road signs, particularly in the intermediate towns, often causes tourists to get on the wrong roads, resulting in annoyance.

"I realize that people cannot spend large sums in the hope that tourists will come," Mr. Blaylock said. "But they can improve what they have as the traffic increases. And it will increase. This is the only accessible, unspoiled country on the continent and it is certain to attract large numbers of tourists. You had better prepare yourselves for that."

"If people of the United States only knew of the beauties and attractions of the Skeena Valley they would come here by the thousands and spend millions of tourist dollars," said Mr. Blaylock as he marvelled that there has not been more development of the tourist possibilities and attractions in this part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaylock are leaving on the Prince George tonight for the south and will visit Vancouver and Victoria.

"We plan to come back, but even if we don't we have plenty of friends who will be up this way after what we tell them about the country," Mr. Blaylock said.

What City Council Did

On recommendation of the licensing committee, granted trade licenses to the following: W. Eytcheson, confectionery; Queen Charlotte Airlines, agency; William Thain, service station; R. Gatzke, building contractor.

Approved a recommendation of the utilities that Pat Mazzei be allowed to have a light standard at the front of his service station on Third Avenue at Seventh Street, removed at his own expense. Began the laborious job of considering a list of 74 resolutions which will come before the annual meeting of the Union of B. C. Municipalities next September. The job is expected to be completed at the next meeting of council. It consists of taking a formal attitude on the resolutions from member municipalities for instruction of its delegates.

ENJOY PICNIC AT TUGWELL

Threat of rain did nothing to halt the enjoyment of the 70 children and adults who attended the Sons of Norway midsummer picnic at Tugwell Island Sunday afternoon. Races, soft drinks and ice cream were enjoyed with enthusiasm until the group embarked for home shortly before 6 o'clock.

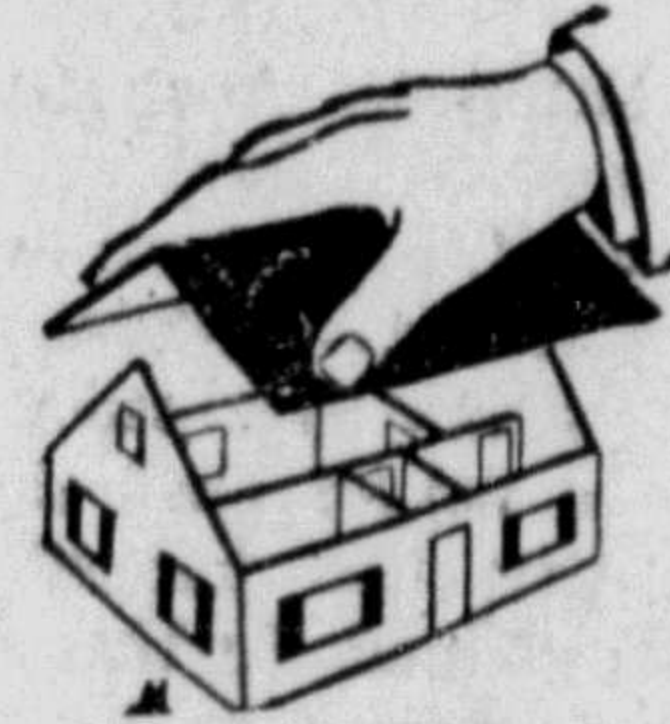

The picnickers travelled to Tugwell Island on the Co-operative Packer Norcrest, Capt. James L. Jeweller, arriving about noon. Main events of the afternoon were races, which included every age group from tots to grandmothers.

A rising wind caused considerable excitement as the party re-embarked but no mishaps occurred. The picnic was directed by Rudolph Olsen and Gunnar Selvig, both of whom organized the various events.

Miss Dorothy Kergin, in training for a nurse at Vancouver General Hospital, is arriving home on the Prince Rupert tomorrow morning from the south for a holiday visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Kergin.

Messick, R.C.N., of Ottawa and party, including Mr. and Mrs. LeGare and child, who have been at Masset in connection with naval communications installation work which is going on there, having arrived over the week-end from the Queen Charlotte Islands by aircraft, sailed this afternoon on the Camosun for Vancouver.

Miss Myrna Chapple of Montreal is expected in the city this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chapple. Miss Chapple has been technician in the government uranium laboratory at Chalk River, Ontario, and recently head technician in Doctors' Hospital at Montreal. She will also visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Rosedale.

If this is a fine evening, Prince Rupert people will have the opportunity to hear the Shrine Club's city band in another of its popular open air concerts. From the Canadian National Railway's Totem Park off Second Avenue, a program of marches and popular selections, largely in the lighter mood, will be rendered.

Two former Prince Rupert girls, whose meeting was an odd coincidence, exchanged reminiscences recently after a chance meeting while flying across the Atlantic Ocean on a TransCanada Airlines sky liner.

They were Miss Nancy Rorie, who now makes her home in Vancouver, and was flying the Atlantic after a visit to Scotland, and Miss Maxine Llewellyn, whose old home was at Terrace, who served as a nursing sister with the Canadian Army overseas and who is now a stewardess on the transatlantic planes.

The pair were not acquainted previously but conversation during the flight led to the discovery that both originally hailed from these parts.

Miss Sarah Freeman, who has been teaching at Aiyansh on the Naas River, sailed this afternoon on the Camosun for Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glanzer and family of Terrace sailed this afternoon on the Camosun for Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Duboc left by the Camosun today for Vancouver enroute back to Detroit after a visit here with Mrs. Duboc's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Skinner.

Jarvis H. McLeod, former collector of customs here, who was in the city recently on his way north, is still sojourning in Juneau where he has been enjoying good salmon fishing.

J. S. Eckman, general manager of the Canadian Fishing Co., who has been on a visit of inspection to company operations in this area, sailed this afternoon by the Camosun on his return to Vancouver.

Miss Dorothy Kergin, in training for a nurse at Vancouver General Hospital, is arriving home on the Prince Rupert tomorrow morning from the south for a holiday visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Kergin.

Lt. Cdr. Messick, R.C.N., of Ottawa and party, including Mr. and Mrs. LeGare and child, who have been at Masset in connection with naval communications installation work which is going on there, having arrived over the week-end from the Queen Charlotte Islands by aircraft, sailed this afternoon on the Camosun for Vancouver.

Miss Myrna Chapple of Montreal is expected in the city this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chapple. Miss Chapple has been technician in the government uranium laboratory at Chalk River, Ontario, and recently head technician in Doctors' Hospital at Montreal. She will also visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Rosedale.

If this is a fine evening, Prince Rupert people will have the opportunity to hear the Shrine Club's city band in another of its popular open air concerts. From the Canadian National Railway's Totem Park off Second Avenue, a program of marches and popular selections, largely in the lighter mood, will be rendered.

Two former Prince Rupert girls, whose meeting was an odd coincidence, exchanged reminiscences recently after a chance meeting while flying across the Atlantic Ocean on a TransCanada Airlines sky liner.

They were Miss Nancy Rorie, who now makes her home in Vancouver, and was flying the Atlantic after a visit to Scotland, and Miss Maxine Llewellyn, whose old home was at Terrace, who served as a nursing sister with the Canadian Army overseas and who is now a stewardess on the transatlantic planes.

The pair were not acquainted previously but conversation during the flight led to the discovery that both originally hailed from these parts.

PLAY BALL

With the approach of the league half-way mark, the usual Big Six is replaced this week by a full list of batting averages. Miner Simundson and Cornwall maintain high places in the averages while they were inactive during the week. Bruce Simundson and Bill Lambie show the greatest gains in the standing among the active players.

In the two games this week before the All Star team travels to Smithers for the series at the week-end, Commercials meet Savoy and Merchants on Tuesday and Thursday.

SAM SNEAD WINS PGA TITLE FOR SECOND TIME—Sam Snead, a slender stylist from the West Virginia Hills, won the Professional Golf association championship which was held at Richmond, Va., for the second time with a three and two victory over Johnny Palmer of Carolina. Snead had first won the P.G.A. in 1942 before he enlisted in the navy. Sam, who captured first prize totalling $3,500 toured the tricky Hermitage Country club course six under par for the 34 holes it took to win the event. Above, Snead rests on his putter while Jack Burke, Jr., strokes his ball on first hole in P.G.A. at Richmond. But Sam came back to take the match on the sixteenth hole.

MAWHINNEY IS WINNING

S. JOHN, New Brunswick — The Canadian amateur golf field narrowed down from 129 to 64 yesterday as the first round was played. Bill Mawhinney of Vancouver wrecked the 70-par of Riverside Golf and Country Club, bearing John Jabonski of the Maritimes five and three. The approximate medal score is 66. Frank Stranahan, the American who has held the title for two years, comes up today after a bye.

Contracts By Legion

The local branch of the Canadian Legion announces that contracts for the alterations to the former naval officers' quarters, H.M.C.S. Chatham, purchased from War Assets Corporation late last spring, have now been awarded. It is expected that work will commence immediately as it is desired that the building will be ready for occupancy by November 1.

POLICE FINES IN JUNE $2110

One hundred and fifty nine convictions in city police court in June resulted in fines totalling $2,110 and court costs of $247, according to the monthly police report submitted by Sgt. L. A. N. Potterton to the civic police committee at the week-end.

The convictions resulted from 165 prosecutions, of which five were dismissed and one committed to a higher court for hearing.

Total police fines for the first six months of 1949 are $8,995 with an additional $894 in costs. The figure is somewhat lower than revenue for the same period of 1948.

Monetary loss reported from Criminal Code complaints was assessed at $2,376, with recoveries set at $1,271. There were 47 complaints of this type.

Sport Shots

Canada's surprising victory over Australia in the opening singles match of the Davis Cup tennis championship may prove a "shot-in-the-arm" to the game in this country. Few, if any, experts had picked Montreal's Brendan Macken to dispose of the highly-rated Billy Sidwell of Australia. And because the match went the limit, the victory was all the sweeter.

Macken was tireless in that long match. He got better as he went along. He wasn't nervous but was patient and let his game gather momentum as it went along. There had been a lot of talk about Sidwell's blazing service, his fine network. Brendan used his head, keeping him in the back court as much as possible. To say the Australians were surprised would be to put it mildly. They had counted on less lively opposition... The Macken victory is the greatest thing that has happened in Canadian tennis for years. If the Canucks don't get any further, they have shown they belong in the select Davis Cup company.

Canada did not win the round. That would have been expecting too much. But win or lose, the game here has been given a real shot-in-the-arm, a tonic that only victory can provide.

SANDSPIT TO HAVE HOTEL

Sandspit, pivotal point of air transportation on the Queen Charlotte Islands and a beauty spot in itself capable of tourist development, is to have a hotel. In fact, it is already under construction. The builder is Fred LaSette, Queen Charlotte business man, who sees a great future for the Islands and the possibilities of important development.

SAILED FROM OCEAN FALLS

Two Ocean Falls men have arrived in Prince Rupert after an adventurous eighteen-day trip in a 21-foot home-made sloop. The experiences of Charles Hallan, who built the sloop, and his companion, R. M. Allan, included two groundings and running out of provisions at one point. Their boat, Topolocampo, is now tied up at the floats of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club.

The sloop is named after Topolocampo Bay, Mexico, the birthplace of Mr. Hallan. She operates by wind power alone. Although a pair of oars was on hand when the sloop grounded at Roscoe Inlet, they did not suffice to pull her off the sand, where she stayed for six hours. At one stage of the journey the two-man crew was forced to feast on 'chili con carne a course,' that is bear meat stew.

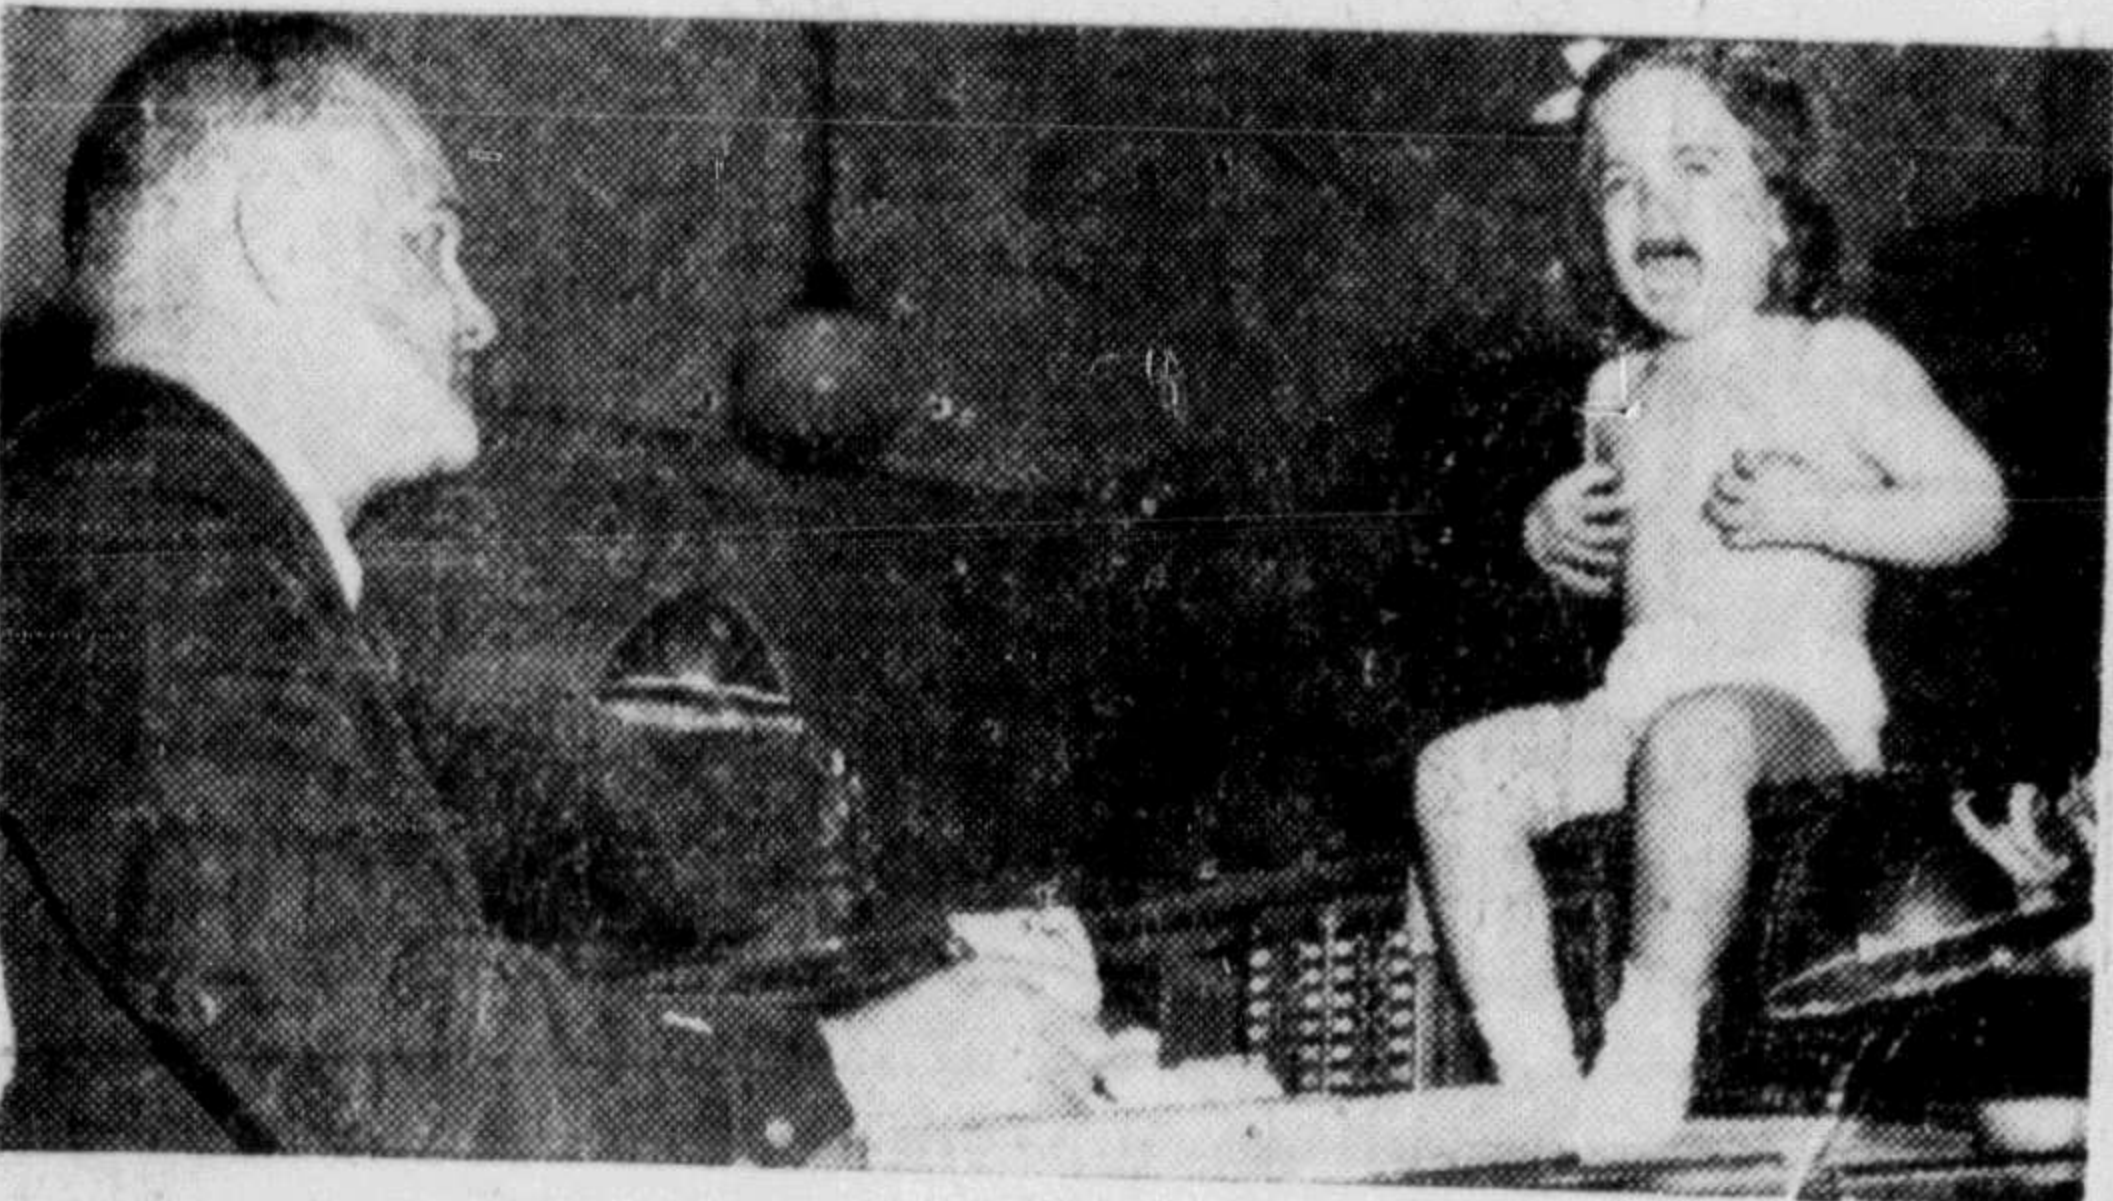

Mr. Hallan and Mr. Allan left Ocean Falls on July 4, intending to follow a leisurely course to Prince Rupert, where they both hope to be employed.

B.C. LEADING IN CANADA CRICKET

EDMONTON — British Columbia took over undisputed possession of first place in the round-robin Dominion cricket tournament yesterday by defeating Manitoba while a match between Ontario and Alberta was drawn.

IT'S HOT, SO WHY WEAR CLOTHES?—It happens every summer but Linda Lou Kummernuss advanced this year's schedule because of the heat wave. She decided to take a stroll from her New York home—and forgot to dress in the manner the law says is proper for a young lady. In fact she didn't dress at all, so here she is in a police station waiting for her mother—and telling the police clerk in no uncertain terms what she thinks of the laws of the land.

MOTHERLY LOVE... FROM A CAT FOR A TRIO OF SKUNKS!—Soups on at the feline boarding house maintained by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rowe of La Mesa, Calif., and the star boarders are a trio of month-old skunks. Taby the cat, and her adopted brood are all very happy with the whole arrangement. Mr. Rowe thinks these babies will be less wild and will make better pets when they are weaned—and deodorized.

HAZELTON BEATS TELKWA 9 TO 5

HAZELTON—A hitting spree in the tenth inning, which brought in four runs, gave Hazelton a 9 to 4 victory over Telkwa in an interior league all-star baseball game here at the week-end.

In the second half of the tenth, after Hazelton pitcher had held Telkwa scoreless, Scotty Smith doubled to deep centre to score Charlie Smith and Howie Wales singled to score two more runners. Sterritt singled to bring in Wally Wilson.

Telkwa used two pitchers, Holland and Homnenuk, while Wales went the course for Hazelton.

STEWART ASKS FOR AIR MAIL

STEWART—The Stewart Board of Trade passed a resolution Monday requesting that consideration be given by the government to the granting of an air mail service to this port. The recent announcement of the Queen Charlotte Airlines that they will supply a weekly air service is the reason for this request.

TALENT RECOGNIZED—The government of British Columbia has purchased five paintings by Judith Phyllis Morgan, 19-year-old Indian student from Kitwanga, attending the Alberni Indian Residential School. The five will be part of a "one-man show" of 20 of her paintings at the National Museum in Ottawa. Here Miss Morgan, left, along with George Sinclair, centre, a painter crippled with arthritis who discovered the girl's talents two years ago, and Willard Ireland, provincial archivist, study some of her work. Reflecting her pride in her race, Miss Morgan paints chiefly Indian scenes and characters. (C. P. Photo)

"SLOW" ZONE AT McCLYMONT PARK

The section of McBride Street adjacent to McClymont Park has been declared a playground zone for traffic purposes and a maximum speed limit of 15 miles an hour set. The move was made by city council last night at request of the Civic Centre Association.

Civic Centre Playground Director Rowland H. Miles asked council in a letter to impose a 15 mile-an-hour speed limit in that area for the protection of the children who regularly use the park in the summer months.

Many of the children are of an age at which they do not realize the danger of traffic and consequently, cars travelling at a high rate of speed present a menace, he stated.

Alderman George Rudderham, chairman of the board of works, agreed that a "playground zone" is just as important as a school zone" adding that the move should have been made years ago.

"I wonder if we should have it all year round or just while the park is in use?" Mayor Arnold asked.

Alderman Forman replied that in his opinion, to have a 15 mile-an-hour zone for only part of the year would be confusing to motorists. He favored a permanent playground zone.

Council passed Alderman Rudderham's motion and instructed City Engineer Stewart to have warning signs placed at the roadside.

MINE OPENING OF INTEREST

Announcement of the early opening of the Premier mine aroused a good deal of interest in Prince Rupert and Portland Canal where there were still quite a few former employees who had been doing nothing in particular since the closing down of the Premier a year ago. All were confident the property would open again, but could not say how soon. The definite news, at last, was welcome.

B.C. COAST SALMON PACK

British Columbia coast salmon pack totalled 91,567 cases up to July 16, according to the latest bulletin issued by the Chief Supervisor of Fisheries, Vancouver. The pack was some 73,000 cases short of that for the same period of 1948.

The Skeena and Naas districts accounted for 48,366 cases more than half the total pack for the period, while other areas of District Two added another 17,832 cases to the total pack.

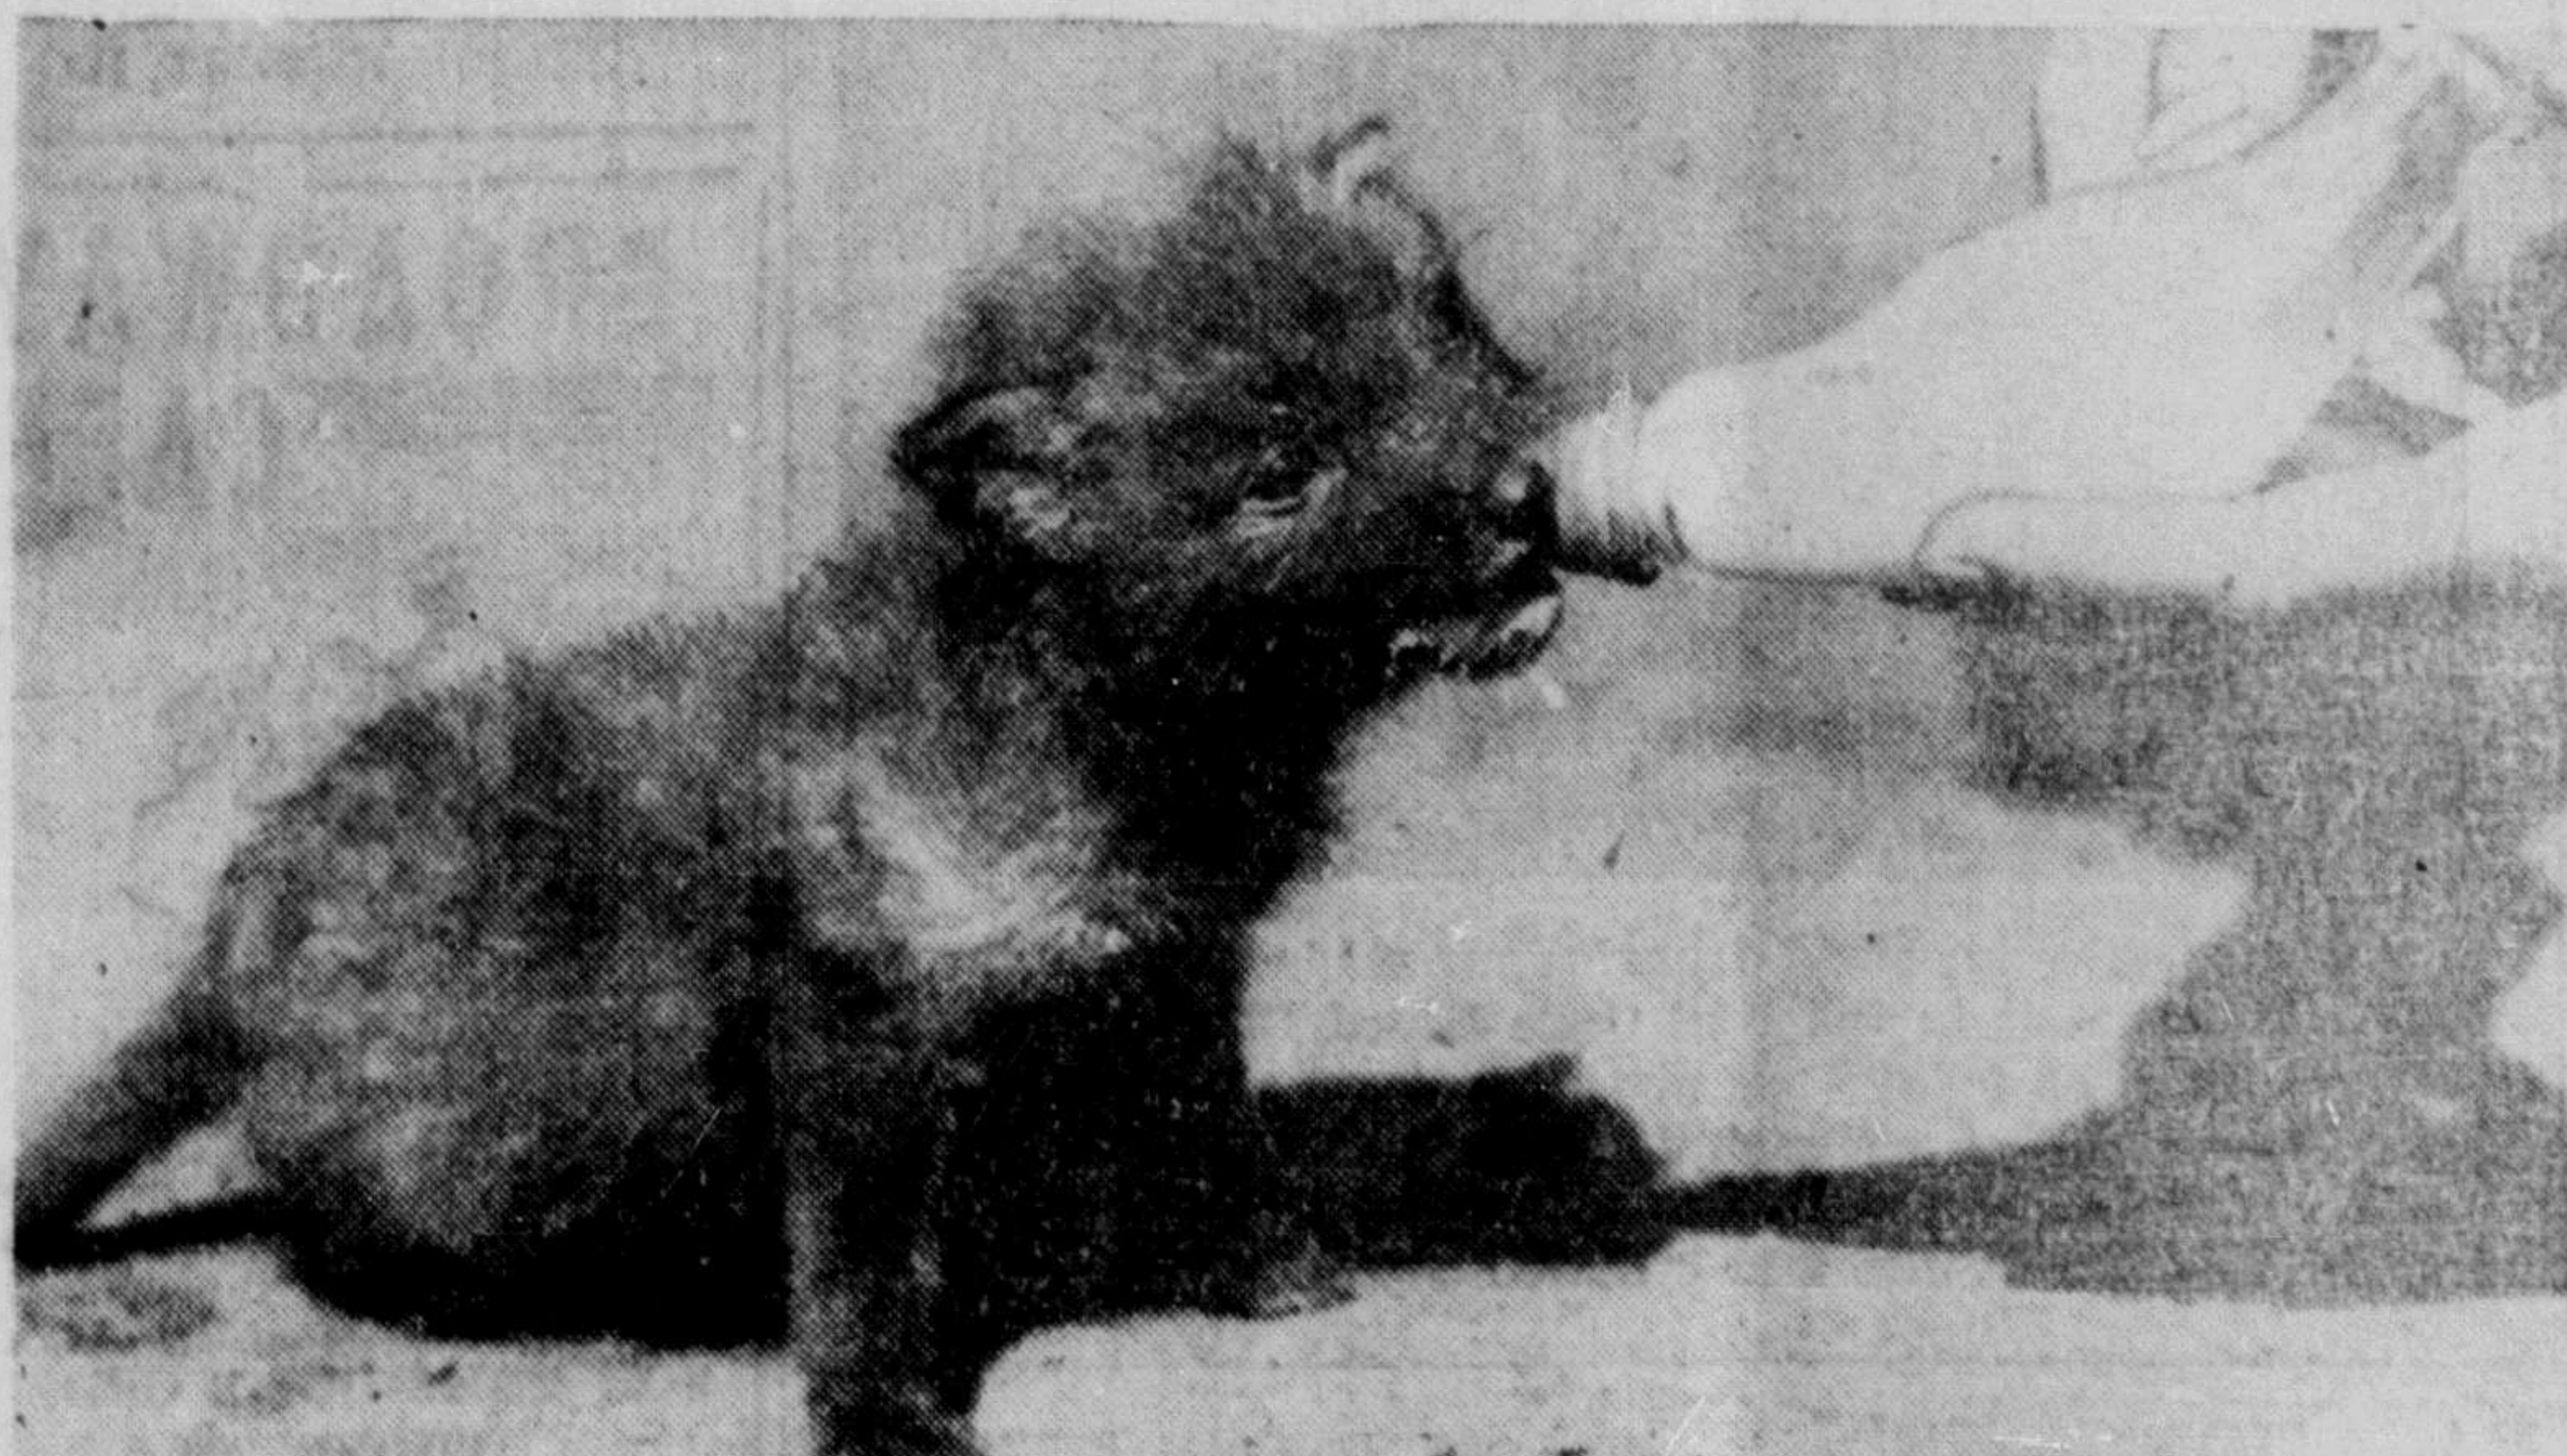

Sockeye pack on the coast was 52,466 cases, of which 28,576 came from the Naas and Skeena areas, Coho pack on the Naas and Skeen was 13,757.

RUPERT-BOUND SHIP AGROUND

Southbound to Prince Rupert with a cargo of fish, the Alaska Steamship Lines freighter Lucidor was reported to be aground in Wrangell Narrows. Extent of her damage is not known. The 7,000-ton vessel went aground during the night.

SOME FOOD FOR A FOUNDLING—The Humane Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals continually urges us to be kind to dumb animals. Perhaps, the animals who need kindness and sympathy most are ones like this three-weeks-old fox cub, Tishy, now at the London zoo, after being found in the roadway. Tishy is being reared on the bottle by Miss Pat Proctor, supervisor of the children's zoo, who takes him home every night to make sure he gets a "round the clock" meal service.

Mrs. N. McNabb is spending a week with the Hobenschieds at Kitwanga.

Senior Major and Mrs. Warrender of Prince Rupert, divisional Salvation Army officer, have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Crego.

Blood Donor Clinic Scenes

The Red Cross blood transfusion service will hold clinic in Prince Rupert on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Local people are volunteering to give a pint of blood for the British Columbia blood bank, being built up for emergency transfusion purposes with the service now extended to Prince Rupert. Here are some typical scenes.

The donor relaxes comfortably while the Doctor, who attends every clinic, prepares to start the donation. Before he makes his actual donation of blood, the donor is completely relaxed and feeling quite at home. After the donation is completed, the donor is conducted to a rest room, where he lies down for about ten minutes. From here he goes to the coffee room and has a cup of coffee, or tea and biscuits. The whole procedure takes less than 40 minutes, and the donor has the satisfaction that through his generous gift of a pint of blood, he is helping restore life and health to some less fortunate citizen.

Donations of blood destined for the Red Cross Bank. An important vehicle in the Red Cross Mobile Clinic caravan is the refrigerator truck pictures above. The two B.T.S. girls are loading the precious fluid into the truck which will speed it to the Blood Transfusion Depot. Here it will be carefully tested and re-checked by highly trained Red Cross technicians, to insure against any possible disease. Later it is redistributed to local banks.

A life is saved by a blood transfusion, made possible through some citizen's visit to the Red Cross Blood Clinic. Every day lives are saved as doctors are given access to all types of blood, which is available at a moment's notice at the Red Cross Blood Banks. Emergency supplies are sent out by plane, boat, train and car to accident, fire and critical hospital cases.
