Vancouver Province Strike Is Declared Illegal

PHOTOGRAPHIC CONTEST PRIZES AND PUBLICATION

Planned by cash prizes offered by H. G. T. and the Prince Rupert Daily News and the incentive of publication of the winners' daily News, junior photographers of the city are in an amateur photographic contest between the annual Hobby Show to be held April 28.

Bases Are Established

Chile Proceeds in Spite of Protest by Great Britain
SANTIAGO — President Gabriel Gonzalez of Chile headed home today after formally setting up two military bases in disputed Antarctic territory which he calls "The Land of Tomorrow."
The bases are established at Chilean weather stations in defiance of long-time British claims which were recently reiterated.
Britain, Chile and Argentina each claim vast wedge-shaped slices of territory extending from the South Pole to well north of the Arctic Circle.

TO DEPORT RED WOMAN

Promoter of New York Publication is Arrested
WASHINGTON, D. C. — United States Department of Justice yesterday announced the arrest for deportation of Beatrice Johnson, described as promotion manager for "New Masses," a New York weekly publication.
The Department said that Mrs. Johnson had long been active in the Communist party and she lacked citizenship.

Thinks Mistake Made By Court

British Diplomatic Adviser Critical of U.S. Findings Against Balkan Partisans
LONDON — Lord Van Sittart, former chief diplomatic adviser to the British government and advocate of a hard peace for Germany, today termed the United States tribunal's ruling at Nuernberg against Balkan partisans as a "very dangerous misconception of the state of affairs" during the war.
The American tribunal said that Balkan partisans killed during the occupation were mostly illegal units and could not be "generally regarded as qualified for belligerent status under international law."
Lord Van Sittart said that "the Allied government always gave full recognition to various resistance movements and supplied them with arms."

LIBERALS WANT MORE PENSIONS

OTTAWA — A considerable number of Liberal members of Parliament attacked the government's proposed pensions increases for veterans, as inadequate. At a lively party caucus, the members told Premier King flatly that they considered any minimum increase should be $20 across the board for disabled pensioners and war widows.

MENT OF S CHIEF
The retirement of E. Bellerose as general manager of the Canadian National Express is the subject of an appointment of a successor to that post was made yesterday by C.B.E. executive committee, Canadian National Express, who said that Bellerose's retirement was in accordance with the pension plan of the company. General manager of the express department since 1932 and is well known in railway express circles in North America and the Commonwealth.

General Get Life Sentence

Military Tribunal Says Nazi Army Heads Should Not Have Acted On "Slaughter" Orders
NUERNBERG — Field Marshal Wilhelm List was sentenced today to serve life imprisonment as a war criminal. He was convicted with seven other generals charged with atrocities in the Balkans. Two generals were acquitted.
The tribunal ruled in judgment that the generals should have known better than to carry out orders to slaughter hostages "beyond the limits allowed by military law."
In the trial records showed that German armies had killed one hundred Serbs or Greeks for each German soldier killed by the partisans and at least fifty for each German wounded. Thirty-three thousand hostages were killed during the German occupation of Greece and Yugoslavia.

JOE'S FINE HAND SEEN

MOSCOW — Experienced observers of the Moscow scene professed their belief yesterday that the hand of Joseph Stalin can definitely be detected in the authorship of recent Soviet accusations against the western powers. They said that one of the Soviet Information Bureau's statements was highly authoritative and seemed to have decided traces of phraseology usually associated with Stalin.

"DEV" IS DOWN BUT NOT OUT

DUBLIN — Eire today began its first experiment with a coalition government and to most Irishmen it simply meant: "The Dev is Out."
While Eamonn de Valera, Prime Minister since 1932, has been turned out by the Dail, he remains a political power in Eire. His Fianna Fail (Soldiers of Destiny) party holds sixty-eight Parliamentary seats, only six short of a majority.
De Valera's followers, far from downcast, predict the overthrow of the coalition and new elections within a year.
The five-party coalition, apparently resentful of De Valera's sixteen years' office, joined forces yesterday and elected John A. Costello, 56-year-old Dublin lawyer, to the Premiership.

THE WEATHER

(Synopsis)
Southeast gale winds and snow were giving dangerous conditions over the north coast outside but not at Prince Rupert this morning. However, improving conditions are expected this afternoon.
The storm causing these conditions is expected to bring mixed snow and rain to the south coast this afternoon and evening and snow flurries in the western interior tonight.
(Forecast)

Coast Storm May Have Taken Lives of at Least Three Men; Two Vessels Reported Sunk

Natives Believed to Have Perished in Verney Passage—Halibut Boat Drifting and Awash
Violent storms in the Butedale area have sunk one and possibly two fishing vessels and may have taken at least three lives during the last couple of days, according to reports reaching Prince Rupert last night and this morning.
Feared lost, after their dinghy was found floating upside down in Verney Pass near Wright Sound, are three natives from Kitimaat who had left Butedale yesterday, supposedly to cover their trap line along Verney Pass.
They are Clarence and Walter Shaw, brothers, both in their early 20's and Timothy Maitland, about 17.
Word of finding the vessel was flashed from Butedale to Prince Rupert this morning but, so far, no more details have been received. The provincial police boat P.M.L. 15, Skipper Reg. Good, left this morning to investigate the report.
A second hint of tragedy was brought to Prince Rupert last night by the government light-house tender Birnie, Capt. Norman McKay, who reported that he had spotted the drifting hulk of a halibut boat in Wright Pass, one mile west of Cummings Point. Bad weather made it impossible to approach the hulk, Capt. McKay said.
The Canadian Fishing Co. despatched two boats—the Fleet Wing and Northland—from Butedale at 4 o'clock this morning, but up to noon they had not reported finding anything.
According to the local office of the Canadian Fishing Co., there is no inkling of what boat may be drifting in a half-submerged condition. There are several boats fishing out in the area, none of which have reported to shore.
The Cape May left Butedale at 2 p.m. Tuesday for Prince Rupert and has so far been unreported, but it is believed she may be fishing. The Kaien, Arctic, and Advance also are out and the Kyrielle also is believed to be fishing in the area.
Crew of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. packer W. R. Lord, which brought 60 tons of herring to Port Edward from Namu yesterday reported heavy gales which almost smashed their vessel. One wave washed away the life boat and damaged the rigging.

WALLACE MAN IN BIG WIN

NEW YORK — The smashing, unexpected triumph of the Henry A. Wallace-backed American labor party candidate in a special Bronx congressional election handed Democratic party leaders a severe jolt yesterday. Leo Isaacson, A.L.P. nominee, captured the 24th precinct contest easily by rolling up more votes than his three opponents—Democrat, Liberal and Republican—combined.
They are Clarence and Walter Shaw, brothers, both in their early 20's and Timothy Maitland, about 17.

CLLOUDY SKIES END COLD SNAP

Cloudy skies and light snow this morning brought an end to four days of clear cold weather, carrying with them the threat of gales which were predicted to reach as high as 50 miles an hour over exposed areas of Heate Straits and Dixon Entrance today.
Overnight temperature reached a minimum of 16 degrees above, the highest minimum since last Saturday. Prospect is for southeast winds bringing with them the possibility of rain which would transfer the city's snow blanket into a sea of slush.
Despite the forecast, however, a dead calm remained over the city this morning, a light snowfall started. Snow already on the street had turned slightly soft, adding to the difficulties of walking.
Most unpleasant prospect is that of more snow which, added to the present level, might bring traffic to a temporary halt.
A substantial rainstorm, if persistent enough, would clear the streets in a matter of 24 hours or so. Such a thing occurred a year ago after a heavy snowfall.
Shipping in the area has been warned of the threatening gales which have been predicted since last night.

LABOR KEEPS GLASGOW SEAT

GLASGOW — The Labor government party today retained the House of Commons seat of Paisley. The Labor candidate, Douglas H. Johnston, solicitor-general for Scotland, was elected by a majority of 6,545 votes over the national candidate, John MacCormick, vice-chairman of the Scottish Liberal party.
Johnston polled 27,213 votes to 20,668 for MacCormick.

SIXTEEN AIRMEN KILLED IN CRASH

BRISBANE, Australia, — Bodies of sixteen airmen were recovered today from the charred wreckage of a Royal Canadian Air Force bomber which crashed at Amberley airport in Queensland, 30 miles from Brisbane. The bomber exploded during an attempt at landing.

Officers of Local Union Are Assessed $10,000 Damages

International Heads Are Cleared—Picket Found 'Nuisance' and Ordered Restrained
VANCOUVER (CP)—Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson of the Supreme Court of British Columbia yesterday ruled the strike of the International Typographical Union (American Federation of Labor) printers at the Vancouver Daily Province to be illegal. The strike has continued since June 5, 1946, and for some time caused the paper to cease publication.
His Lordship ordered that a total of $10,000 damages be paid by six officers of the Vancouver local, International Typographical Union, and declared the amount "is under the circumstances purely nominal, bearing no relation to the actual loss suffered by the plaintiff."
Action is dismissed against three International Union officers—Woodruff Randolph, president; Harry Finch, Canadian representative, and James D. Davidson, western representative.
Damages are assessed against R. T. Gouthro, Alexander Bevis, R. H. Neelands, E. W. Harold, R. H. Cardwell and A. P. Campbell.
The $10,000 assessed against the six officers Mr. Justice Wilson hoped would "serve as a deterrent, sufficient to fix in the minds of parties to labor disputes the necessity for deliberation, moderation and adherence to law."
The judge said that "it had been proven damages during the 46-day shutdown period ran at the rate of $300,000 per month. His Lordship also issued an order restraining further picketing at the Province office, finding that union officers and strikers had combined to create a nuisance.
The I.T.U. has not yet announced whether it will appeal.

KOREA BEFORE UNITED NATIONS

Knotty Problem Presented—Russia Still Refuses to Co-operate
LAKE SUCCESS — The knotty problem of Korea's political future was handed to the United Nations Little Assembly today. It was the first test for the year-round body.
The Soviet Union, which occupies Northern Korea, has refused to co-operate with the United Nations commission or to permit Korean elections as directed by the General Assembly.
It is suggested that the commission go ahead and hold the elections in southern Korea, occupied by the United States, and then explore the possibilities for the union of north and south Korea.

CONTROLS ON PRICES DROP

OTTAWA — The Prices Board yesterday announced imposition of mark-up control on oranges, grapefruit, lemons and tangerines in a move to clip dealers who have been taking "unreasonably" high margins of profit on citrus fruit sales. The controls became effective today and the reaction was a sudden and sharp drop in the prices of citrus fruits, oranges dropping in Toronto from $5.50 and $7.00 per crate to $4.30 and $7.30. Grapefruit dropped fifty cents per crate and lemons also went down.
On sales of importing wholesalers to retailers, the mark-up is allowed at 17 percent and to another wholesaler the mark-up is limited to nine percent.

EXPEDITION TO ARCTIC

PARIS — Preparations are being made for a government-sponsored expedition to set out for the Arctic in March to install a radio-meteorological station in central Greenland and collect data for use in aviation, navigation and study of radioactive matter.

King Winter Holds Sway

WINNIPEG — February mustered forces today to become the strongest month in Western Canada's winter.
Storm conditions, which yesterday plagued the West Coast and Alberta, now sweep Saskatchewan and extend wind-lashed fingers into Manitoba.
In the storm centre of Saskatchewan, children in some rural areas spent the night in small schools rather than venture through blinding blizzards to their farm homes, miles distant.
Conditions are not as bad in Manitoba although there was a fifty-mile gale in Winnipeg today.
Alberta is digging out highways which have been buried under snowdrifts from the early part of the week.
British Columbians are recuperating from gale conditions. The only known fatality is that of a Japanese workman, Tetsuo Otsu, who was killed in the interior of British Columbia when caught beneath an avalanche while repairing disrupted Canadian Pacific Telegraph lines at Iago.

De Valera

Prejudices and prejudices about Eamon De Valera, the democratic Parliamentary leader, who is appointed after sixteen years' tenure as Prime Minister of Eire by John Costello, may be many or so complimentary. His views on the world are often revolting to our British ears and sentiments. Yet, history may, in due time, estimate that it is possible that he did which appeared unpleasant and unhelpful to us were but a means to an end that would lead to a more peaceful and settled Ireland, which he may, at that, have speeded? Ireland, if it, is a happier, more peaceful and settled land today than it was a few decades ago and possibly the stormy characters such as de Valera played their part, after all, in making it so.

Pledged always to shear the last vestige of British rule from Ireland, an eventuality which other portions of the old family are seeing evolved today by less spectacular and violent means, de Valera had danger as his constant companion through years of revolution but great sincerity was a great attribute and an aura of romance made his career fascinating.

Mellowed in more recent years, the man who once was saved from execution only because there was a question of his citizenship, became almost a mild individual towards the end of his tenure.

It may be that there are no extreme regrets at the ending somewhat precipitately of his tenure but at least there are not the hard feelings today that his many actions at an earlier time might have provoked.

A Communist is a person who doesn't know what the hell he wants but is always raising hell trying to get it.

MUST BE FIGHTING FAITH

THE REAL CHALLENGE of communism may not be in its crafty encroachment on one country and another, or even in its hard core of able, determined and bigoted men. It is that behind these seekers after power there are multitudes who accept their teaching and believe with devotion that out of evil good will come.

A hundred-year-old creed is challenging one that has been in the making for twenty centuries and the challenge is serious. Sober men are beginning to talk, reluctantly, of another war. It is possible because communism is assuring it's troubled, bitter and starved listeners that communism can put them in the saddle: that what has been denied them can be taken from the democracies that are too satisfied and weak to defend themselves. That slow poisoning of minds goes on day after day. Our noisy, well-publicized disagreements are made to appear the beginning of a class struggle that will destroy our way of life. The communists do not realize that we act as we do because we are so confident. We believe that nothing can disturb our settled ways.

The danger is not from the outside alone. It is inherent in our very sense of safety that makes us forget that the rights and liberties we cherish still have to be defended. It may be wise for us to forget the momentary advantage if thereby we can show a united front to people who do not understand anything but strength.

Love conquers all. A western bride-to-be baked a cake for the wedding festivities that weighed 75 pounds, and even with this forewarning, the groom-to-be went right ahead and married her.

SMOKING IN BED

A BEDROOM is a place where sometimes a fire breaks out. To have it occur in Prince Rupert is something not unknown. There was one here only a few days ago. Fires have been stifled in more ways than one, thereby not making the front page. Nine out of ten times the cause is smoking. Yet this is not saying the puffing was always performed in bed. There might have been an easy chair. Those responsible can be of any age or of either sex.

But, sizing it all up, one opines to the suspicion that there's a lot of hitting the pipe (or cigarette) between the sheets and no more dangerous practice can be invented or perpetrated. The general idea, governing design, construction and marketing of a bed is to use it to sleep in. It was never the intention to produce it as an adjunct to a smoke.

War has seared deeper than a branding iron on the minds and bodies of millions of children in Europe and Asia. Shells have made them orphans and bombs have made them homeless. They need the world's help if they are to survive. The Canadian Appeal for Children seeks to bring that help. The Appeal seeks to collect $10 million to purchase food, clothing, medical and educational supplies. Similar Appeals are being conducted simultaneously in 26 other countries in the world. Be generous to the Canadian Appeal for Children and help those who have been made helpless by war.

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO

(February 18, 1923)
A company of eastern capitalists, represented by W. G. McMorris of Vancouver, were planning to open up a coal mine at Slate Chuck Creek, near Queen Charlotte City, with the ultimate intention of building a pulp mill.

Annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association chose Fred Roberge as president, Alderman Theo Collart, vice president, Col. S. P. McMordie, D.S.O., second vice president, James McNulty, treasurer, and Martin O'Reilly, secretary.

A fire which was caused by a faulty heating stove, destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scully at Usk, taking the life of their year-old child.

(February 18, 1913)
The Omineca Miner predicted that the mineral development of the interior district would be one of the most important factors in the future progress of Prince Rupert.

While Prince Rupert enjoyed clear, balmy weather, Vancouver was in the throes of a snow-storm. Snow lay four feet deep on the streets of the southern city.

WRITES OF JONES ACT

Dick Sanburn, of the Vancouver Province bureau in Ottawa has written a rather extended story about the prospects of the Jones Act being amended. If such should transpire, it would be of great benefit to the north, for under the changed conditions, Alaska-bound passengers and cargoes could go in Canadian ships. The Minister of External Affairs, Hon. Mr. St. Laurent, has said the government would be prepared to consider the question of making representations to Washington.

SWEET CAPORAL CIGARETTES

Reasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

GELATINE POPULAR AND VALUABLE ARTICLE OF DIET; SOME MIXTURES

Gelatin has always been considered a valuable article of diet. When used to complement other proteins it often makes these foods more attractive and palatable.

In earlier times, gelatin was in the form of isinglass made from fish or vegetable gelatin extracted from sea weed. These types have been superseded for culinary uses by animal gelatin.

Refined instant gelatin makes delicious quivering jellies with a minimum of effort and in minimum time.

Jellies extend the flavor of expensive foods and make leftovers look expensive. In either case, the finished product is pretty good to eat.

Home economists have been trying out various jellied mixtures for salads and desserts. All are worth trying.

Ginger Peach Jelly

- 1 tablespoon gelatin
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 1/4 cup boiling water
- 3/4 cup juice from peaches
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups drained canned peaches

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes. Mix boiling water, fruit juice, lemon juice, ginger and salt, add peaches, bring to boil. Place a peach half in bottom of each of 6 individual moulds, cut side up. Add gelatin to hot juice. Stir until dissolved. Cool slightly. Chop remaining peaches and add to jelly. Pour into moulds. Chill until firm. Turn out to serve. Six servings.

Applesauce Mould

- 1 package lemon jelly
 - 1 1/2 cups boiling water
 - 2 cups apple sauce
- Mix jelly powder with boiling water. Stir until dissolved. Fold in applesauce, stir several times while chilling. When set, turn out and serve with custard sauce or cream. Six servings.

Butterscotch Sponge

- 1 package gelatin
 - 1/4 cup cold water
 - 1/2 cup brown sugar
 - 2 tablespoons butter
 - 1 1/4 cups hot milk
 - 2 egg yolks
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
 - 2 egg whites
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
 - 2 tablespoons sugar
- Soak gelatin in cold water for 5 minutes. Caramelize the sugar and butter. Add hot milk and stir until caramel mixture is dissolved. Add a little of the hot mixture to the beaten egg yolks and return to the first mixture. Cook over hot water until smooth. Add soaked gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add flavouring and chill until partially set. Beat egg whites with salt until stiff and gradually add the two tablespoons sugar, continuing to beat until mixture will form peaks. Fold remaining into partially set mixture and pour into lightly greased moulds. Chill until firm and serve with plain or whipped cream. Six servings.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make good apple sauce?

A. Use sour apples, wash, peel, and quarter them, remove cores and seeds, put in saucepan and pour in cold water until almost covered. Cook slowly until apples are soft. Add about 1/2-cup sugar to each quart of apples. Cook a few minutes longer, then remove and add a little lemon peel.

Q. How can I keep winter plants in good condition?

A. Cold tea or milk will make plants blossom during the winter months. One should alternate with water every other day.

Q. How can I make a temporary repair in a refrigerator leak?

A. Pour hot paraffin over the hole.

Mrs. Oscar Smith returned to the city this morning on the Princess Norah after spending the last couple of months visiting at Victoria.

Starting a ten day service for the spring after having been in the winter, C.P.R. steamer on a fortnightly schedule during this morning from Vancouver and sailed at 11:30 a.m. for Skagway and other northern points whence she is due back here next Monday afternoon southbound. The vessel had on board 65 passengers of whom four disembarked here. She had some 210 tons of freight for the Yukon.

SANITARIAN IS SPEAKER

In spite of cold weather, a large group of parents, with more men than usual in attendance, were present at King Edward Parent-Teacher meeting held Tuesday evening in the school auditorium.

In the absence of W. W. Cooper, president, Rudolph Olson was in the chair. A. Boas, Sanitary Inspector, was speaker of the evening.

Various items were dealt with during the business session, chief among them being the motion which made possible a contribution to the United Nations Educational Relief in Europe.

This appeal, made also to the pupils of every school, was discussed as to its relation to other appeals made by charitable organizations, and to previous discussions and suggestions sent in to the Central Council by this P.T.A.

Two persons were nominated, one of which will represent King Edward P.T.A. at the Central Council, when a delegate is chosen for the B. C. Convention in Vancouver.

Plans were laid for a white elephant sale and tea. Miss Eleanor Moxley, chosen convener for the white elephant sale, spoke warmly in tribute to the parents of King Edward children, who made last year's sale so great a success. Mrs. John McLeod is in charge of the tea and sale of home-cooking and will choose a staff of helpers. The date of this affair will be set at the next executive meeting, and an announcement will follow.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, A. Boas, sanitary inspector, was guest speaker. As he dealt with improved methods of keeping milk, water and food sanitary, general interest was noticeable. The importance of good drainage and proper plumbing was also touched upon. He said that these are the things that contribute to daily living and health for old and young and, therefore, are of greatest concern to all.

Mr. Boas laid particular stress upon habits of garbage disposal.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. J. McLeod and other ladies.

B.C. APPLES

from the OKANAGAN VALLEY

Make the GRANDDEST DISHES

Here's economical, easy-to-prepare help for menu-planners. Use APPLES fresh... or for any meal of the day. Order a supply today from your food store. Try these suggested recipes! B.C. APPLES are healthful and nourishing—GOOD and GOOD FOR YOU!

B.C. APPLE SAUCE TURNOVER

Make one recipe plain pastry. Combine 2 cups apple sauce, 1/4 teaspoon each of nutmeg and cinnamon. Roll pastry 1/8 inch thick and cut into 4-inch circles. Place a tablespoon of apple sauce mixture on half of each circle, sprinkle each with grated Canadian cheese. Moisten edges of pastry circle and fold other half over filling, pinch edges together and prick top. Place on baking sheet and bake in very hot oven (450°) about 15 minutes.

APPLE SAUCE PIE

1/2 cup melted butter
15 graham crackers, crushed fine
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups thick apple sauce (sweetened)
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped

Add melted butter to graham cracker crumbs and mix well. Stir in sugar and cinnamon. Press crumbs into a pie pan and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 15 minutes. Remove from oven and when cool, place in refrigerator to chill. Just before serving fill with apple sauce to which cloves have been added. Add confectioners' sugar to whipped cream and cover top of pie. Serves 6.

APPLE RICE PUDDING

3 cups sliced B.C. apples
2 1/2 cups water, hot
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
2 teaspoons vanilla
3 cups cooked rice
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 1/2 tablespoons butter

Add lemon juice to B.C. apples. Melt sugar in water, stir in apples. Add spices, cook 5 minutes. Blend remaining ingredients, pour into buttered baking dish. Bake about 30 minutes in 350° oven. Serve with cream, or serve plain.

Suggestions for B.C. APPLE SALADS

Tender skinned apples need not be peeled before they are used in salads. The peel adds color, flavor and food value to apple salads. Acid apples are advised in salads containing meat. Both acid and sweet apples add a palatable crisp texture to fruit salads. Toss apple slices with salad dressing, as soon as prepared, to prevent discoloration. Prepare apple salads and serve with as little delay as possible.

FRIED APPLES

6 large B.C. apples
5 tablespoons butter or other fat
1/2 cup sugar
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt

Core, but do not peel tart cooking apples. Slice 1/2 inch thick to make perfect rings. Heat butter in heavy skillet until light brown. Place apple slices in skillet. Mix sugar, cinnamon and salt. Cover apples with 1/2 of mixture. After 5 minutes turn slices with pancake turner to avoid breaking. Cover with remaining sugar mixture. Sauté over low heat until almost transparent. Serve hot with meat. Makes 8 portions.

TRY THESE COMBINATIONS

1. Red apple, raisins.
2. Red apple, cottage cheese, nuts.
3. Red apple, dates, nuts.
4. Apple, carrots, nuts.
5. Apple, peanuts, marshmallows.
6. Apple, chicken, parsley.
7. Apple, dates stuffed with peanut butter.
8. Apple, raw turnip slices.
9. Apple, salmon, parsley.
10. Apple, cold veal or pork, chopped pickles.
11. Apple, bananas.
12. Apple, canned fruits, such as peaches, apricots, pears, cherries.
13. Apple, cream cheese.
14. Apples cut in slices and added to jelly powder mixture made according to directions given on package. Add apples when jelly mixture is almost set.

SEEK U.N. ACTION TO AVERT PALESTINE DISASTER—The Palestine Commission have appealed to the United Nations Security Council at Lake Success, N.Y., for quick action to avert impending catastrophe in the Holy Land. Meanwhile, there are reports in Jerusalem that the Irgun Zvai Leumi, extremist group of the Zionist underground, is preparing for an offensive beyond borders of the proposed Jewish state in Palestine. There are rumors that Irgun hopes to co-ordinate with Hagannah, Jewish defence army. Here members of the Hagannah are shown proceeding cautiously through the bloody area that separates Tel Aviv from Arab Jaffa. Much blood has been shed here since the partitioning of Palestine was approved by the United Nations and sniping is almost continuous with "reprisal raids" periodically staged by both sides. The mayors of the Jewish and Arab cities have repeatedly pleaded for peace, but in vain.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When a young man meets a girl on the street and stops to talk, shouldn't he remove his hat and hold it in his hand as long as he talks?

A. It isn't necessary for him to hold his hat longer than a minute, and not at all if the weather is disagreeable. He should, of course, lift it when meeting the girl, and again when leaving. It would be presumptuous for a girl to expect a man to stand bareheaded in a snow storm or rain.

Q. If there is a punch bowl at a dance and no one is there to serve it, should a girl serve her partner and then herself?

A. No; the man should serve his partner, and then himself.

Q. Is it necessary to repeat the person's name when being introduced?

A. No. "How do you do" is sufficient.

HOSPITAL TO BE OPEN SOON

Institution at Terrace to Start Functioning Next Month

Terrace's new Red Cross out-post hospital will be formally opened on a date to be announced, possibly during the latter part of March, it is announced by George McAdams, president of the Terrace hospital association, who was in the city yesterday afternoon returning to his home in the interior ver, Victoria, Seattle and Tacoma.

The matron of the new hospital, coming from Nakusp, will be arriving shortly. The hospital is now practically ready for the opening, a complete x-ray outfit having been the most recently arrived installation.

Dr. Frank McGillivray is arriving shortly from New York to take up medical practice at Terrace.

Mr. McAdams reports business conditions apparently quiet, especially on the American side, and buying demand slack. However, this may be due to seasonal slackness or in expectation of lower prices.

Mr. and Mrs. McAdams arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and proceeded to the interior by the evening train.

KEEP FIRE EXITS CLEAR OF SNOW

Warning is Issued by Fire Chief Lock

Fire Chief H. T. Lock today warned owners of apartment houses of their responsibility for keeping fire escapes cleared of snow during the current cold spell.

"Fire presents an extra menace during cold weather," he said, "and the presence of snow on fire escapes adds to the hazard by making them slippery and dangerous if they have to be used."

Snow and ice packed around fire exits make them difficult, sometimes impossible to open in a hurry and this could cause loss of life if anyone tried to make such an escape during a building fire, he pointed out.

He also reminded motorists that it is illegal to park their cars in front of the entrances to public buildings while the buildings are being used. Such a situation occurred last night when two automobiles were parked with their front wheels on the sidewalk in front of the main doors of the Civic Centre.

"Parking in front of the entrances to public buildings would hinder the fire department and also would block the exit of people leaving the building," he said.

WAS BORN AT METLAKATLA

Last rites for Archdeacon Henry A. Collison, 71, the second son of the late Archdeacon W. H. Collison, pioneer missionary to the Indians of the Queen Charlotte Islands and the Naas region, took place at Oak Bay (Victoria) last week. Archdeacon Collison was born in Metlakatla, the village across the harbor from Prince Rupert. He was educated in England and was ordained by Bishop Winnington Ingram in St. Paul's Cathedral.

brighten long winter evenings. Gone! All gone! How'd you feel? Let us tell you! The same way the people of Kincolith in the Naas Valley are feeling as they contemplate all that's left of their new and up to date Community Hall, built and equipped by themselves and with such commendable enterprise and labor.

In practically all parts of the world today can be found persons who want to go to Australia, and in the event of going there, proceed to a certain city to consult a certain man. His name is Braund, he is nearly 80 years young and looks it. He says he cures cancer and professes to show ample proof. If he's a deliberate charlatan, no penalty can be too severe. His claims are by no means accepted. In fact, there has been developed downright bitterness, but allowing for all that, there can be no real justification for discouragement or persecution. So long as there is the faintest glimmer of hope, it is worth heeding. So long as there is the faintest of hints, it may avert the light track.

Reminiscences and Reflections

Rupert's pioneer era remembered as among those who were first to photograph the newcomers, and reveal to Canada, the grandeur and beauty of a little known land.
Suppose, any time, flames raced through the Civic Centre, and in a few hours it was just a case of smoking ruins. Suppose, through some defect out around Shawatlans, functioning of the water system had been suspended. All that could be done would be stand around and watch Prince Rupert's chief social treasure turn into Prince Rupert's prize bonfire. BASKETBALL CHATTER

(By BILL LONG)

It's definitely basketball at the Civic Centre tonight. Last night while the local All Stars were no doubt, attempting to wrest peaceful slumber from a nightmare of arms, legs and whizzing basketballs, the natives of Metlakatla were commencing "Operations Rupert" in their large fast seiners.

What black cod is to Rupert, basketball is to Metlakatla and their most legendary success on the maple courts supports a theory long held in these parts, that they invented the game despite all that Yankee propaganda.

For years basketballers in the old home town have regarded every other series as only stiff workouts, sort of preparations for these natives from Alaska. The old guard still dream of winning a home-and-home series with their guests of tonight.

From the local dressing room it looks like, come Saturday, it will be still a dream. Art Murray has released the visiting line-up and it is the best in years. The ten man squad presents such notables as Bolton, Hudson, Hayward, the Atkinsons and for the first time since the war, a couple of the Leaks. No one but the old timers will remember Bert Leask who left the north to captain Dubuque's University. After a much publicized induction and an even more publicized service with the American Air Force he is back to teach the youngsters of his village. In a family of college basketball stars, Bert, the biggest of the brothers, is considered the cream of the crop and has never been asked to even doff his chapeau to professional Wally of the Seattle Athletics. The locals will be watching him tonight and our stars of the future would do well to do likewise.

Alec Bill has announced changes in his lineup. Don Tartwig and Reg Lavigne will not be out, having been withdrawn in favor of Mel Holkestad and Macphee. The addition of the older Holkestad should do much to giving that punch to the Savoy representatives. The continued serious practices have the town team in top shape and, with the younger players rapidly proving their status, Alec has confidence that he will maintain his 1000 average. Tentative starting lineup will be Lindsay, R. Holkestad, Macphee, Beynon and the inimitable Mr. Dominato.

In the intermediate section of tonight's show, Port Simpson Y.P.E.A. boys will meet Bo Me

IT'S REALLY COLD IN MANITOBA—Pioneers in northern Manitoba's goldfields take blizzards and temperatures of 50 below in stride as they push back the continent's last frontier. Here Mrs. Elbert McRae, of Wekusko, Man., "cooks" up a tub of snow to get water for washday or, maybe, the Saturday night baths. Hundreds of feet below in the Wekusko gold mines, men of the community are taking gold ore from underground passages where the temperature remains 68 degrees above zero all year.

This game was arranged by the league executive with the thought in mind that at last Port Simpson may have a serious challenger to the supremacy of Bo Me Hi in these parts. It might be pointed out that Port Simpson are sending their boys over without any guarantee whatever just to get a crack at Alec Bill's youngsters. That point alone proves that the Y.P.E.A. is definitely after recognition and they will be given it if they return to the village victors.

Tonight's game will not be broadcast but as in the Ketchikan series, the games on Friday and if necessary Saturday, will be aired. Nell Ross will as usual handle the mike for both games.

NAVY LEAGUE NEEDS MONEY

After Active and Successful Year—James Forman New President

Receiving of annual reports and the election of officers for the coming year were the principal items of business at the annual meeting of the local branch, Navy League of Canada, held at the Navy Drill Hall on Tuesday evening, S. P. Woodside presiding.

The treasurer's report showed that expenditures had exceeded revenue, thus depleting the branch's reserve and bringing home to members the need for some money-raising activities this year.

The greater amount of the disbursements was in connection with the operation of the "Capt. Cook" Sea Cadet Corps.

The chairman's report referred to 1947 as a year of recession and retrenchment in the activities of the branch. The report spoke highly of the measure of co-operation attained between the local Naval detachment and the Navy League.

Mrs. J. R. Elfert, president of the Woman's Auxiliary reported that, while not as active as in war years, the W.A. was remaining in existence. She reported a small number of ditty bags on hand which it is intended to give to the first deepsea ship to come to this port.

The report of the local Sea Cadet Corps referred to the honor brought to the Corps by the success of Cadet P.O. Albert Eyoifson, who earned a trip to Britain, and Midshipman John Kennedy who won a scholarship to Royal Roads naval academy. Both these awards were won against very strong competition. Incidentally, Kennedy is at present on a Navy cruise as far south as Panama.

During the year a contingent from the local Corps attended the Sea Cadet camp on Gambier Island and took the lead in all sports activities and in boat pulling and sailing competitions. Under revised rules it is now harder for boys to get into the Sea Cadet Corps than it was in the past. The report particularly mentioned the great help given to the Corps by T. M. J. Fortune and also by the local Naval establishment. The cadets, besides their usual corps activities, are now engaged in preparation for a musical show.

JAMES FORMAN NEW CHAIRMAN

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Chairman, James N. Forman. Vice - Chairman Mrs. J. E. Boddie.

Secretary, Edward T. Applewhaite. Treasurer, Cmdr. Philip M. Ray. Executive—Sidney P. Woodside, T. M. J. Fortune, G. Douglas Wood, O. Stuart, H. S. Harri-

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

Delayed for several days by snow blizzards in the Georgia and Johnstone C.N.R. steamer Johnson, Capt. Ernest Caldwell, arrived in port until yesterday afternoon from Vancouver, Westview and Falls, sailing at midnight for Kelchikan where she will turn here southbound on Monday. The vessel had a sized list of passengers.

Showing of beautiful photographic scenes in parts of Prince Rupert comprised the program of today's weekly luncheon at the Prince Rupert Club with Allan Armstrong as Past President C. G. B. in the chair in the absence of President Orme Stuart. Luncheon guests were McRae of Vancouver and McRae of Prince Rupert.

It was decided to apply for permission to hold the annual tag-day on Saturday, June 5.

LOCK THAT OIL TANK!

KIRKLAND LAKE, Ont. — With the mercury hovering below zero and oil supplies at a premium, James Anderson was mad at someone recently. The culprit stole large quantities of oil from the tank at the back of his house, he told police. He was advised to put a lock on the tank.
