

Prime Minister St. Laurent Admits Feeling for General Election

MOUNTAIN FREIGHT DIFFERENTIAL TO END

Wests Dissolution of Parliament at Once

LEAU, Ontario (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent today said that his tour of the west indicated that "the people feel there should be an election." He told a press conference aboard his train to Ottawa that it would be possible to dissolve parliament almost at once and carry on financial matters of government.

Minister is enroute to the West—The West assesses him. He did not claim to be a "man of the West" but he did not claim to be a "man of the East" either.

LA VILLAGERS INSTAL NEW
CHIEF, SON OF EDWARD GAMBLE

KATLA—The mantle of authority of paramount chief of this Porcher Island native band was passed yesterday to Russell Howard Gamble, 25-year-old son of the late Chief Edward H. Gamble, O.B.E., at a ceremony in St. Peter's Church attended by visitors from the native village from Bella Coola north.

Only recognition of ancient custom was when the three other Kitkatla Chiefs—Matthew Hill, Henry Brown and Henry Watts—acknowledged their new Chief's sovereignty by placing their hands upon his head.
The new Chief's position as leader of the band is unique in a manner similar to that of his father. The late Chief Edward Gamble was a Bella Bella man who was invited to the position of paramount chief at Kitkatla many years ago when the other chiefs of the village found themselves unable to agree on tribal matters.
The new chief was elected by his fellow villagers earlier this year by unanimous vote and their choice was submitted to the Indian department for approval. The approval was forthcoming and preparations begun for the inaugural ceremony.
Called to the ceremony by the great bell of St. Peter's Church, which was a gift from the people of Prince Rupert, the procession proceeded to the church.

WEST INDIES
RUN STARTS

MONTREAL—Canadian National Steamships yesterday began its 1949 schedule of service between Montreal and the West Indies with the sailing at noon of the 7500-ton "Canadian Constructor," under the command of Capt. D. C. Wallace D.S.C., R.D., O.B.E. The vessel is bound for Nassau, Bahamas, and Kingston, Jamaica, with a heavy cargo of flour, medical supplies, paper products and other Canadian goods.

The Canadian Constructor, which arrived here on April 13, was the first of the company's vessels to return here this year. Other C.N.S. ships now in port are the Constructor's sister ship Canadian Cruiser, and the passenger vessel Lady Nelson, flagship of the Canadian National's West Indies fleet.
(Capt. Wallace was at Prince Rupert for a time during the war as naval officer in charge.)

COAL INDUSTRY
OUTLOOK GOOD

OTTAWA — Federal authorities say the outlook is good for Canada's coal industry. Despite some regional predictions that hard times are ahead—notably from Alberta—officials say they can see no cause for gloom in the 25,000-men industry.

NO RUSSIAN
PEACE FEELERS

WASHINGTON — President Truman said that no peace feelers from Russia has come his way. He made the statement when asked about rumors abroad that Russia was trying for a resumption of four-power talks on the German occupation.

BRITAIN TO BUY WHEAT

OTTAWA — Government trade officers term as "splendid" a British proposal to continue buying Canadian wheat through the United Kingdom's own supply of American dollars. The proposal was outlined by a British source in Washington. Officials, who have not heard of the proposal officially said the institution of the proposal would give Canada "further confidence" that the wheat contract was to be fulfilled.

TO BE EFFECTIVE JULY 1—SUCCESSFUL
FUL CULMINATION OF B.C.'S LONG FIGHT

OTTAWA, (CP)—Removal of the historic mountain differential freight rate and above normal charges on some hauls over the Rockies was ordered today by the Board of Transport Commissioners. In a judgment climaxing a long battle over the contentious rates, the Board told the railways that the rate must be removed by July 1.

The Mountain differential rate which is 1 1/4 times the prairie scale is estimated to cost freight shippers about $4,500,000 a year.

The B. C. government made application to the Board for removal of the rate in the summer of 1948, claiming it to be "unjustly discriminatory" against the province. However, other western provinces took varying positions on the issue.

In a series of hearings opening last fall in the west and concluding here in February, British Columbia submitted that the railways had not proven their unit costs were higher in British Columbia than on the prairies.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
An active storm which gave over a half an inch of rain at several points as it moved over the south coast early this morning is now pushing into the interior. Rain which is falling in the central interior will move into the northern interior early this morning. Showers are expected in the southern interior region. Clearing will take place overnight in most sections but more cloud and rain is forecast for the coast tomorrow as another disturbance approaches British Columbia from the west.

Forecast
Queen Charlottes and North Coast—Clear, northern section, and overcast with rain southern section, becoming overcast with intermittent rain all sections this afternoon. Overcast with showers this evening and cloudy Sunday morning with afternoon winds southeasterly (15 m.p.h.) tomorrow morning, increasing to southeasterly (25) in afternoon. Little change in temperature. Lows tonight and highs tomorrow: Port Hardy 38 and 54, Massett 36 and 50, Prince Rupert 38 and 48.

SECRETARY OF
ARMY RESIGNS

WASHINGTON D. C. — President Truman has accepted the resignation of Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall who wrote the President that he wants to return to private life. In a letter he said: "My recent personal inspection in overseas theatres has shown the Army everywhere to be in excellent condition and has confirmed the belief that war is not inevitable."

PRINCESS AND POPE

LONDON — J. A. Kensit, leader of the Protestant Truth Society, has written to the King asking him not to give permission for Princess Margaret to visit Pope Pius during her forthcoming tour of Italy. "While an official visit might justify one's course of action, a private visit is in a different relationship," Kensit wrote.

Nanking Falls to Red
Sweep Over Yangtse

Fast Time
Is Going On

Local Clocks Change—Railways, Steamships Continue on Standard
Daylight Saving in British Columbia will become effective at midnight tonight. Judging from the comment one hears on the streets, the change cannot be described as popular, particularly on account of the confusion it causes.

However, like it or not, the clocks go forward as from midnight tonight and it means an hour's less sleep for everyone including those who get up to go to church. The fast time continues until September 25.

Railways and telegraph offices continue to operate on standard time. Steamers confining their runs to British Columbia ports go on daylight time. Those which go to Alaska stay on Standard time.

NO. 1 RED
IS STONED

DARTMOUTH, Eng. — An enraged stone-throwing crowd besieged Britain's top Communist Harry Pollitt in a building for hours here early today. He finally escaped unharmd.

The incident followed the break-up of a political meeting where Pollitt had discussed the shelling of four British ships by Chinese Communists.

REGINA — Three persons were shot to death and another was found alive with throat cut in a farm home forty miles south-east of Prince Albert, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police report. The dead are: Mrs. Katherine Balatsky, aged 29; her son, Bohda, 6, and A. D. Theodore Adamovic, aged 48.

TRAGEDY ON PRAIRIE FARM

The husband of the dead woman is given an even chance of recovering from his throat wound.

Police say that Balatsky is under guard in Wakaw Hospital. No charges have been laid.

The police say that a rifle, axe and knife are believed to have been used in the slayings.

NATIONALIST DEFENCE CRUMBLING
—SHANGHAI NEXT ON LIST

NANKING, (CP) — The Chinese government abandoned Nanking today and departing Nationalist troops blew up the big railway station just outside the undefended walls of the capital. All along the Yangtse River, demoralized government troops gave way before a Red assault that breached the great river barrier.

Four Nationalist armies, totalling probably 100,000 men, have retreated southward. They left Nanking's waterfront in flames and the city unprotected from the fury of looting mobs. Whether government troops could still make a stand was a question. Demoralization has set in among many units. Many have quit fighting to sit down and await their conquerors.

Premier Ho Ying-Chin has taken over the defence ministry and presumably flew to the uncertain haven of Shanghai which may be the next objective of the Communists. Canton seems likely to become the refugee capital.

In London a British Foreign Office spokesman said today that Chinese Nationalist garrisons, as well as Communist artillery, had fired on a British ship in the Yangtse River. The spokesman indignantly denied a charge that British ships on the river had joined Nationalists in an attack against Communist positions on the north bank.

Officials are still waiting for news of the outcome of two attempts to secure a Communist cease-fire to aid the battered British frigate Amethyst. CRESCENT IS STANDING BY Naval headquarters in Ottawa last night said the Canadian destroyer Crescent was standing by at Hong Kong to evacuate Canadian citizens if necessary. It is not engaged in action on the war-engulfed Yangtse River.

HUGE FINE
FOR EVASION

MONTREAL — Albert Sansoucy, wealthy textile merchant was yesterday sentenced to $100,000 in fines or 2 1/2 years imprisonment on five charges involving $1,000,000 in tax evasion by himself and his company. Claude Prevost, special federal prosecutor, told Judge T. A. Fontaine in criminal court yesterday that Sansoucy has paid back or is repaying the government the amount due in tax arrears. It is believed the fines constitute a record in Canada for tax evasion.

Vancouver — The Vancouver News-Herald says that Esquimalt Progressive-Conservatives are prepared to scuttle the Hart formula in nominating their own candidate in the riding. Commander Charles T. Beard, Liberal, was elected in 1945 but the seat is traditionally Conservative, the paper claims.

Can You Remember?

GLUMY PERSONS who would try to convince us that the present and the future are dark might correct their perspective by a thoughtful backward look. Ten years ago we really were having a bit of a bad time. It is hard, with all that has come between, for the young to remember. So they are easily swayed by this propaganda. But there were plenty of young men, ten years ago, young men in their early and later twenties, who had never had a job, and had small chance of finding one. Many a young lad was to enlist from tangled motives, patriotism warring with a bitterly desperate belief that there was no other place or job for him.

That may excuse the young, but hardly those of longer memory, who can judge the present by the past. Ten years ago thousands of men were desperately seeking any sort of employment, and finding none. Now, try to find a carpenter or bricklayer or an odd-jobs man or, for that matter, any competent unemployed worker seeking a job. Ten years ago used cars cluttered every vacant lot, with no buyers, a major problem for an industry. There was an overplus of everything. Now we must wait and wait for cars and bathtubs and refrigerators and sewing machines and a thousand other products that once glutted the market. And not because they are so few, but because the demand is so great. We who had jobs in those days didn't quarrel about wages. We hugged the job with desperate eagerness. Today some are scorning earnings that are more than twice as great. We are quite ready to admit, of course, that it hasn't all been gravy, that higher prices have cut into gains; but they haven't offset them, and they haven't put us back on breadlines.

We have no Pollyanna belief that everything is well in the best of all possible worlds. There are still vast and growing problems at home and abroad. We have housing problems, and labor and political problems, but we're all back at work. And it isn't a prosperity born of war. It is men looking forward with courage in their eyes. It is land worth farming again, because men can live decently again on what were once starved acres. We have forgotten the bogeys of over-population and over-production. We want more people to share with us. Perhaps our worst danger is that we have come to expect too much for too little effort, and demand security without providing it. Oh yes, there are still plenty of problems, and they are tough problems. But we are free of the desperation that was in so many men's eyes a decade ago. That much a backward glance will prove for us.

CONQUER CANCER CAMPAIGN

AMONG the multitude of money-raising campaigns with which we seem to be constantly beset we can recommend support for the 1949 Conquer Cancer Campaign on behalf of which canvassers will get out in Prince Rupert next week. The Conquer Cancer campaign, in addition to the straight raising of funds, also includes a propaganda phase emphasizing the importance of individuals arresting in its early stages the inroads of this No. 1 killer malady from which so many die merely because it is not taken in hand in time to make possible life-saving treatment such as surgery, x-ray or radiology.

There should be no hesitation on the part of the public in subscribing substantially to the financial campaign. One of the most important functions for which the money raised is illustrated right here in Prince Rupert where the local cancer organization has under its administration constantly a fund expressly for the purpose of assisting people who are without adequate means to proceed to the provincial clinic in Vancouver for treatment.

PRINCESS AND POPE

THE PROTESTANT TRUTH SOCIETY in Britain, whose leader has written to the King asking him not to give permission to Princess Margaret to visit the Pope during her forthcoming tour of Italy, appears to be one of those intolerant religious organizations which serve no useful purpose but, to the contrary, only tend to perpetuate prejudice and intolerance from a religious standpoint in a world which already has a surfeit of such conflict-making influences. There is enough trouble in the world today without promoting religious differences, particularly as between the Christian denominations. If Princess Margaret wants to visit the Pope, what possible harm could there be to it? Certainly, the perpetuation of religious bigotry by forbidding such a visit could be harmful. Of course, it is not to be anticipated that any attention will be paid to the suggestion of J. A. Kensit, the Protestant Truth leader.

NOTED MINE IS BONDED

Emerald and Glacier Groups on Sweeney Mountain Taken Over

HOUSTON—After some delays, the deal for bonding the Emerald and Glacier groups has been finally consummated to the satisfaction of the vendors, Wm. J. Sweeney Estate, Otis J. Benson, Estate, Duncan L. McGibbon and A. R. McDonnell and the vendee, F. C. Buckland of Vancouver, it is announced.

These properties have been long recognized as having highly promising surface showings of silver, lead and zinc and appear to have the possibilities of being a big producer.

The properties were first bonded to the late James Cronin in 1917 who was representing the Sondheimers of New York. Owing to difficulties caused by the war, Cronin had to secure other backing and an extension. He interested the Day Brothers and in 1918 drove a tunnel on the vein some eighty feet. Owing to a number of reasons this bond was dropped.

In 1927 the properties were again bonded to the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. and some $200,000 was spent in developing the first showing. This consisted of tunneling and diamond drilling with the result that some ten million dollars of ore was blocked out. Owing to a number of reasons including the low price of metals, this

It is the intention of the purchaser to develop the properties by a different method to that employed by Consolidated who used the Tahatza River via Ootsa Lake as their mode of transportation to the property. The new owner is continuing the Owen Lake Road some forty miles along the Nadina River, thence to Star Lake, Sibolla Creek, skirting the foot of Sibolla Mountain into White River and thence on to Sweeney Mountain with their headquarters at Houston.

SKENA VILLAGE OBSERVES EASTER

KITWANGA—Easter events extending from Good Friday until Easter Monday marked the sacred week-end at this upper Skeena River village. Fine weather marked the season, bringing out all the villagers and some visitors.

Initial service was held at St. Paul's Anglican Church on Good Friday with Walter Douse, deacon of the Church Army, taking a leading part.

On Sunday morning, the Church Band paraded to the early service, Mrs. Edward Tait, representing the Women's Auxiliary, gave an address on the Resurrection of Christ.

A sports program was held on Easter Monday under the sponsorship of the Kitwanga spring field club. A dance was held in the community hall in the evening. Edward Smith, president of the club, welcomed those who attended the gathering.

SATURDAY SERMON

MOST WONDERFUL THING IN THE WORLD

(By Paul A. Barber, Full Gospel Tabernacle)

One night on a radio program this question was asked of a nine year old boy: "What do you think is the most wonderful thing in the world?" There was a long pause and then the boy answered: "I think it would be redemption."

That was followed by a longer pause and one could see the astonished master of ceremonies standing speechless before this surprised answer. He, of course, was thinking in terms of radar, television or the atomic bomb. Then, with conviction, the announcer finally spoke: "I believe you are right."

He was right for the greatest Being in the universe is its Creator and the greatest thing in the world is the work He has done, that is, the work of salvation. Christ has revealed to us that the soul of man is worth more than all the world for He said: "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" Thus it follows that the greatest work must be the redemption of that soul which is priceless.

This truth is especially emphasized at this season of the year. However, it is of year-round importance. I wonder how many people really know the meaning of Easter? I asked this question of a little boy a week ago and I received the answer: "Candy." We can excuse children but how many adults take it in the commercial sense and display the "new look" instead of the "new life?"

The death of Christ ought to mean more to us than the sacrifice of a martyr to his cause or the untimely death of a great teacher. Instead it was the only method by which God could provide salvation for a lost humanity. The wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life. Because of sin all mankind are under the penalty of death but God in His love sent Christ to die on the cross to redeem or buy back from the slave market of sin all who will come unto God through Christ Jesus. He became our substitute by dying in our place.

Then on Easter Sunday, the day of resurrection, our Lord was raised from the dead by the power of the spirit of God as a proof that the sacrifice of Calvary was accepted as a perfect atonement for sin and that He might be the first fruits of the resurrection. TOOTHsome TOT—Six weeks old Sandra Joan Maude of Guelph, Ont., is astounding the dental profession but is blissfully unaware of the excitement that she is creating. Shown here in the arms of her mother, Sandra Joan has already cut six teeth and both doctors and dentists term such cases as "extremely rare." The first tooth put in an appearance when she was five weeks old and since then more teeth are appearing almost daily. Having teeth at birth is said to be more common.

MONTREAL, P.—Three players from the National Hockey League champion Detroit Red Wings have won berths on the mythical all-star team but the Toronto Maple Leafs, Stanley Cup winners, failed to place a man on either first or second teams.

Here are the first and second choices of six National Hockey League coaches as announced by the league last night:

First Team—Goal, Durnan, Montreal; defence, Quackenbush and Stewart, Detroit; centre, Abel, Detroit; right wing, Richard, Montreal; left wing, Roy, Chicago.

May 2—Alleycats vs. Miller Bay, Guttersnipes vs. Humdingers, Leftovers vs. Hangovers, Teeners vs. Amazons.

May 9—Miller Bay vs. Amazons, Teeners vs. Guttersnipes, Humdingers vs. Hangovers, Alleycats vs. Leftovers.

May 16—Hangovers vs. Miller Bay, Guttersnipes vs. Leftovers, Humdingers vs. Alleycats, Teeners vs. Amazons.

May 23—Miller Bay vs. Guttersnipes, Humdingers vs. Amazons, Alleycats vs. Teeners, Leftovers vs. Hangovers.

Prince Rupert Jets, 1948 provincial senior 'B' basketball champions, took over where they left off a year ago when they clashed at the Civic Centre here last night with Kamloops Rainbows in the 1949 play-offs for the same title, defeating the visitors by a score of 52-38 in the first game of the two-game total-point series.

The 700 fans who crowded the gymnasium saw a fast-breaking game that was dominated by extremely close shooting by both teams. Prince Rupert's shooting, however, at times amounted to virtuosity and gave them a lead, which, except for the first few minutes of play, they never lost.

While Kamloops will enter tonight's rematch with a 14-point disadvantage, it is more than likely that this will be offset by familiarity with the court which they had never seen until late yesterday afternoon and by a good rest to reduce the effects of their long journey down the island city.

Couch Chuck Lindsay, who has piloted his boys through the penultimate stage of glory in the northern semi-finals, was making no excuses when he said that his team was not quite up to scratch last night. Comparison of their pre-game warm-up shooting with their failure to find the basket in the heat of combat showed clearly that they have better things to offer.

The game was certainly anything but a walk-away for the defending Jets, in spite of their almost constant margin. The Rainbows took an initial lead when Bus Ellis, their centre, sank a field goal in the first five minutes. This was followed by a counter by Forward George McQuarrie and a penalty shot by Barton.

The Kamloops lead, however, shrank to zero midway in the quarter when Jack Lindsay, Prince Rupert forward, sank a penalty shot, then followed it with a field basket. Herb Morgan then sank three long shots in a row and Dominato and Beynon each sunk one to tally 13 points for Rupert at the end of the quarter. Kamloops emerged with 8 points.

Throughout the first half of the game, Kamloops was notable for its close and effective checking which forced Prince Rupert to rely on long shooting. The same feature held almost as true in the third quarter but, in the final session, the Jets were maintaining a pace which allowed them to work up to the hoop with less difficulty.

Prince Rupert's five-point margin was maintained at half-time when the score sat at 20-15. In this quarter, particularly, did the personal coverage come into full flower. At no other time in the game were the teams so evenly matched.

Angus MacPhee, jolly Prince Rupert centre, achieved some notable marksmanship in the third quarter when he sank four field baskets which accounted for eight of the 13 points scored by the Jets in that period. McQuarrie, who was the Rainbows' most accurate marksman scored five of his team's 10 points in the same quarter.

A notable weakness in Prince Rupert tactics, and one which was worked to the limit by the challengers, was the Jets' failure to snag rebounds. On more than one occasion the Rainbows' took possession of the ball without dispute under their basket while rarely did they allow the same thing to happen following a shot at the Prince Rupert hoop.

However, Kamloops attempts to use the tricky switch play were spotted early in the game an the third quarter, Bev Dominato, who had been playing a strong game at guard, sprained his ankle in a jump to take a rebound and went out of the game. Swelling of the injured member indicated that he probably will be out of tonight's game too.

With a 33-25 lead going into the final quarter, Prince Rupert put on a drive, sparked by Lindsay and Platen, which netted 15 points. In the same period, the challengers scored 19.

Lindsay became a marked man in that quarter and the Rainbows' efforts to tone him down resulted in him getting seven penalty shots, five of which he scored. Lindsay carried off the record for free shots for the game—10 of them, of which seven were counters.

Jim Platen, who earned his way onto the Jets' lineup this year from the Bo-Me-Hi ranks, turned in a sterling game. He was one of the most effective guards and the most accurate shooters on the floor.

Prince Rupert marked up 22 field goals out of 70 shots while Kamloops scored 15 field goals out of 74 shots. Prince Rupert's record of free shots showed eight scored out of 14 while Kamloops scored none.

A WELL-BALANCED PROVINCE!

British Columbia has grown more than twice as fast as any other Canadian province since 1939.

This is not just because it has great resources. Natural wealth is useless until men, money and enterprise convert it to jobs, consumer goods and profits.

No, the reason British Columbia has grown 30% in population in less than 10 years is because people are confident this province will continue its sound, well-balanced progress.

British Columbia grows, too, because its people work together under a free Opportunity System which has produced the highest living standards in Canada. Still no one is satisfied, for this is a young, ambitious province busy going places and doing things!

But we CAN be proud of our teamwork in B.C., and can resolve to stay with our tried and proven way of life until someone shows us a better system than ours, actually working somewhere and producing better results than British Columbians enjoy.

So far the teamwork of good government, farmers, labor and investors (or management) in B.C. is making British Columbia one of the fastest-developing areas of North America.

Let's keep on and up the way we're going!

Are You Registered?

In British Columbia the previous voters list has been scrapped and an entirely new one is being compiled. You will want to vote. To make sure you CAN vote, be sure you're on the Voters list. If an enumerator did not call and register you during the past year, you are probably NOT on the list. In that case, check with your nearest registrar. He will tell you your status.

HALIBUT SEASON STARTS NEXT WEEK — MAY TURN TO TUNA—LIVESTOCK TO ISLANDS

In little more than a week, Prince Rupert's halibut fleet will be leaving for the grounds to start another season, which many believe will be the shortest of the ever-diminishing seasons which have characterized the last few years.

No attempt has been made to divide the fleet alphabetically this year so, to all appearances, there will be a scramble similar to that of last year when the whole fleet left in a group. More than 70 boats are expected to leave Prince Rupert next week-end in order to be on the grounds when the season opens May 1.

There is a strong likelihood that this season will see heavy American landings at Prince Rupert in contrast with last year when United States deliveries were far smaller than Canadian. Reason given for this is that a newly placed tax on halibut landings at Alaska ports is likely to drive the American skippers south to avoid it.

Currently, all halibut boats are being rigged for action and many a baleful glance is being cast at the lowering sky which for the last fortnight has sent down copious quantities of rain, halting desperate efforts of the fishermen to get their boats painted.

Prospect of an extremely short season is turning the thoughts of a good many fishermen to tuna, an industry which made a flash beginning last year and which Fisheries Department officials and fishermen alike are hoping to nurse into a full fledged industry to augment halibut and salmon.

If things turn out as many fishermen anticipate, many of the halibut boats may turn to tuna in June, providing of course, there is evidence that they are within a reasonable distance off-shore. To ascertain prospects for the tuna industry the Fisheries protection vessels Laurier and Kitimaat probably will go on tuna scouting expeditions as soon as their halibut patrol work is relieved by the closing of the Area Two season.

The Ketchikan halibut boat 'Frisco' arrived in port here this week to complete the taking on of gear in preparation for the opening of the season. She is moored at Hunt's floats, where she is rigging out. Her skipper is Capt. Morris Holmberg.

Armour Salvage Co. has completed construction of its new workshop and offices at the eastern end of the C.N.R. wharf and the building has turned out to be one of the tidliest looking structures on the waterfront. Materials used in its construction came largely from the former R.C.N.V.R. headquarters which occupied virtually the same position on the wharf. The old building was demolished over a period of several months and as it was being reduced, the new building took shape. The whole section of wharf was re-piled and redecked for the new building. Ground floor of the shed houses a commodious work shop for the company, while upstairs are offices and living quarters of Capt. and Mrs. Henry M. Hansen.

ALBERTA FARMER MOVES TO ISLANDS

The C.N.R. dock has had some unique cargoes pass across its planking in the last 30-odd years but it has been a long time since it witnessed such a cargo as was embarked from it Friday afternoon.

The Union steamer Coquitlam, Capt. Alf Aspinall, took on the suggestion of the Ark when a horse, a cow and a calf, several crates of poultry, a small tractor and an assortment of household furniture were swung aboard.

Francois Lake News

Mrs. D. Murray walked across the ice on Thursday morning on her way to Burns Lake where she will take up nursing duties for a while. She was nursing in the hospital before her marriage early this year.

Many people have been passing through to see the new ferry being assembled. Three more men came from Victoria on Thursday and are staying at the Keefe home.

Gary Murray is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Keefe. In a few days he will go home to his home in Burns Lake and see his brand new little baby brother.

Rev. Mr. Atkinson held Easter service in the church on Sunday morning and there was an excellent attendance. The altar was bright with fresh flowers and lighted candles and the sun was shining cheerfully through the windows. Mr. Atkinson started to Colleymount for the afternoon service but ran into impassable mud several miles from the Landing and was forced to return.

Those who went to the wedding dance in Burns Lake on Saturday night report having had a good time.

Light cars are still crossing the ice but most of the folk prefer to walk now. There is water at the edge of the ice so they walk on a plank to the firm ice. Dick Schreiber went round the lake on Saturday with the mail for the offices on the south side of the lake.

on deck for shipment to Queen Charlotte City where Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Everett and five children, formerly of Moritville, about 20 miles north of Edmonton, plan to make a new home.

The shipment arrived by train from Edmonton Friday and was loaded onto the Coquitlam for shipment to the Islands in a minor resumption of the colonization that took place there a quarter of a century ago.

First of what is expected to be a series of lumber shipments from Wrangell, Alaska, to the midwest and eastern United States, via Prince Rupert, arrived here this week aboard the converted landing barge Margie D. The vessel, skippered by Capt. George Dawson of Wrangell, brought three carloads of spruce lumber, which were shipped out by C.N.R. freight in bond. The Margie D. carried a crew of seven. Also on board was Christian Otto of Seattle, representing the Wrangell Spruce Mill.

Capt. Ernest Caldwell was back on the bridge of the Canadian National steamer Prince Rupert this week when she made her weekly trip from Vancouver to Prince Rupert and Ketchikan. Capt. Caldwell, who recently returned from vacation in the southwestern states, replaces Capt. William Eccles, who took over the ship two weeks ago after recovering from an illness. Purser this week was Don Jenkins, replacing Bert Robson, who has been on for the last three trips.

Inaugurating Union Steamships third regular weekly run into Prince Rupert from Vancouver, seteamer Catala, back on the cannery service, arrived in port at 8 o'clock last night from the south and sailed at 11 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. Before coming in here, the Catala had been at Watson Island and then made calls at Skeena slough cannery points. Commanding the Catala is Capt. William McCombe. Purser of the vessel is the well known veteran of northern runs G. C. (Gerry) Foote.

Kitkatla Instals New Chief --

At its head was Venerable Archdeacon E. Hodson, representing Rt. Rev. J. B. Gibson, Bishop of Caledonia. Then followed the Kitkatla village council and visiting chiefs and government officials.

Shortly afterward, the Port Simpson Concert Band, followed by the paramount Chief-elect, escorted by Chiefs Matthew Hill, Henry Brown and Henry Watts and chief councillor Joseph Innes, entered the church.

Chief councillor Innes took the Chief-elect by the hand and, speaking in English, then in Tsimpsan, declared to the assembly: "On behalf of the people of Kitkatla I present to you Russell Howard Gamble to be installed as Chief."

The gathering joined Archdeacon Hodson in prayer, after which he read a chapter from the Book of Samuel. This was translated into the Tsimpsan tongue by Paul Mason, who also interpreted into English other parts of the ceremony which were in the native language.

Indian Superintendent F. E. Anfield read the document of appointment as Chief to Chief-elect Gamble, after which he addressed him on the responsibilities of his authority.

Chief Gamble knelt and Chiefs Matthew Hill, Henry Brown and Henry Watts placed their hands upon his head while Archdeacon Hodson blessed his appointment as Chief.

Indian Superintendent Anfield administered the oath of office as Chief and presented the new leader to his mother, Mrs. Alice Gamble, and then to the people as Chief Ha-le. The new chieftain was loudly acclaimed by the assembly.

O.B.E. PRESENTED

Provincial Police Inspector F. B. Woods Johnson proceeded to the pew occupied by Mrs. Alice Gamble and presented her with the Order of the British Empire, an order which had been won by the late Chief Edward Gamble, but not presented at the time of his death in 1946.

As the ceremony concluded with the singing of a hymn, the procession re-formed and moved slowly to the community hall where a great feast had been prepared by the ladies of the village. The banquet was sponsored by the new Chief. In the four-and-a-half hours which followed, 22 speakers addressed the gathering. These included Indian Superintendent Anfield, Police Inspector Woods Johnson, Archdeacon Hodson and from every coast village south as Bella Coola. Chief Edward Gifford of Haida Gwaii presented Chief Gamble with a huge Canadian flag. Fishing Co. presented Gamble's wife with a service and Nick Mazzanti presented her with a bouquet of flowers.

The two days prior to installation were given to sports, both land and water.
