OCTOBER SETS RAINFALL MARK

What may be an all-time record rainfall for any one month fell on Prince Rupert during October. At least, the 21.39 inches which fell last month has not been equaled in the last 12 years for which the Daily News has record.

According to the Digby Island weather station, the 21.39-inch deluge fell on 28 out of the 31 days in October, eliminating hopelessly any possibility that 1949 might rank as one of the district's "drier" years.

Up to the end of September, things looked fairly promising. The nine-month total was a mere 59.21 inches but the October rains, which washed out a section of the Woodworth - Shawatans water main, also flushed away any hope of achieving a dry record.

Research into the records since 1938 show no single month with so much rainfall. Nearest to it fell in that time was November, 1939, when 18.63 inches fell. November 1940 was somewhat moisture-laden, too. During that month, 18.07 inches fell.

October set something of a record, too, for lack of sunshine. Total hours of sunshine were 28, the lowest since last December.

Highest temperature was 58 degrees on October 31. Minimum was 33 degrees and the average for the month 47.

Barometric pressures reached a high of 30.52 inches on October 18 and a low of 29.16 inches on October 11.

Highest wind velocity officially recorded was 40 miles an hour from the southeast on October 31. Although because of known error in the wind recording instrument, this is a conservative estimate.

TransCanada Highway Probe

OTTAWA, C.—Appointment of a federal commission to investigate all phases of the projected TransCanada Highway were urged on the royal commission on transportation by the TransCanada Highway Association (Yellowhead Route) Association, Alberta-British Columbia organization which favors the most northerly of three proposed routes through the Rocky Mountains.

The Association presented its brief as the commission opened final hearing of its inquiry into national transportation problems. The Association urged that the Dominion government set up either a royal commission or a federal highways commission or authority "to deal with construction of the highway."

JOE LOUIS TO TRY COMEBACK?

ATLANTIC CITY, C.—Harry Mendell, exhibition tour agent for Joe Louis, thinks the retired heavyweight champion plans a comeback "or he's getting his dough the hard way."

Louis has denied that he plans returning to active fighting but Mendell said he (Louis) had cancelled "two or three four-round exhibitions" in order to work out at the Uptown Gym in New York.

"When he boxes four, he never goes to the gym," Mendell said.

Customs Revenue Down This Year

Customs and excise receipts at the port of Prince Rupert in October dropped to the lowest figure so far this year while receipts for the first 10 months of the current year are almost $70,000 below those for the same period of 1948.

Receipts last month totalled $15,693, as compared with $35,563 in September and $30,797 in October, 1948.

Total revenue so far this year has been $356,787, while for the same period last year, it was $422,896.

FRENCH HORSE RACE WINNER

MELBOURNE, Australia.—Foxsami yesterday won the Melbourne Cup race. Hoyle was second and Benvolo third.

A crowd of 101,000 jammed Flemington race course to watch Foxsami, son of a French sire, Jazami, win the two-mile classic, Australia's greatest horse race, by 1½ lengths.

The event was worth about $30,000 and the four-year old winner's share amounted to approximately $24,500.

Thirty-one thoroughbreds, representing the cream of the crop, went to the post.

PAT PHILLIPSON BICYCLE WINNER

Luckiest girl in town today is Pat Phillipson, 10-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Phillipson, 859 Summit Avenue, who tonight will receive a new bicycle as first prize for her leading effort in the sale of Kinsmen Halloween shellout tickets.

A Grade Five student at Borden Street School, Pat had 2134 points for selling shellout tickets and realized more than $36 in aid of the Kinsmen Halloween celebration for city children.

"She certainly worked for it," Pat's mother said this morning. "She was out in all kinds of weather and came home soaked several times."

Winner of the bicycle was determined on a point system which allowed two points for each ticket sold and one point for each one collected. Pat's score was 2,134.

The bicycle will be presented to Pat at the monthly meeting of the Kinsmen Club at the Civic Centre tonight.

TWO FIRE CALLS TUESDAY NIGHT

Two fire calls brought the fire department truck company out last night. Neither of them were serious. At 9:55, the truck made a run to 1413 Eighth Avenue East where an overheated chimney in the home of F. C. Hill had caused alarm. At 12:15, an overheated oil stove brought the truck to the home of William Long, 237 Seventh Avenue East.

New Theatre To Be Named 'Totem'

At the suggestion of Manager J. Harry Black, the new Famous Players Canadian Corporation theatre, excavation for which at the corner of Third Avenue and First Street has commenced, will be named "Totem" instead of "Paramount." This name, it is felt by Mr. Black, would give a more locally distinctive idea. Mr. Black has just received a drawing of an attractive sign, incorporating the totem idea, it will be erected over the facade at the corner of the new building.

AMETHYST WELCOMED PLYMOUTH, England.—The shell-scarred Amethyst came home to Plymouth Sound yesterday her 101 lonely days in the Yangtze forgotten amid cheering and shouting of proud Britons. Ships' sirens announced her arrival for miles and Lancaster bombers flew overhead, dipping wings in salute. The gallant sloop was flying the white ensign that Chinese Communist guns could not shoot down. She was welcomed not only by a great crowd gathered on shore but by every waterborne craft within sight.

NEW ROAD OPENED HOPE—At 2 o'clock this afternoon at Allison Pass Premier Byron Johnson turned the golden key that officially opened the Hope-Princeton Highway. There was a huge motor cavalcade from the Okanagan and Kootenay which met at the pass with similar caravans from the lower mainland.

VANCOUVER'S DENSE FOG VANCOUVER — Dense fog blanketed Vancouver during the night and this morning. Thousands of people were late for work as surface traffic was slowed to a snail's pace. Some air traffic was stopped altogether and marine traffic was also slowed down.

B. C. Agreeable To January Parley

OTTAWA, C.—Prime Minister L. St. Laurent announced that at least four provinces, including British Columbia, were satisfied with the date of January 10 he had proposed for convening of a conference on revisions to the Canadian constitution.

PROVINCES SATISFIED

OTTAWA, C.—Minister of Reconstruction Winters told the House that some of the provinces already have indicated that they find the federal government's new housing proposal a "suitable basis for joint co-operation." He did not name the provinces as he moved a resolution amending the National Housing Act and providing for joint federal-provincial housing projects.

Mr. Winters said that he was "establishing a pattern for a long-term housing development by making provision for joint participation" by the Dominion and the provinces.

Indian Art Is Deteriorating

Culture Like Way of Life is Far Cry From Ways of Origin

CALGARY, C.—Modern Indian "culture" is as far from the ancient origins as the slovenly reservation is from the wild, free prairie he once called his hunting ground.

The Royal Commission on Arts, Letters and Science, yesterday heard that the crude but powerful carvings of the Indians had been replaced by "a saccharine brand of imitative work."

A brief presented by the Calgary Arts Centre blamed cultural deterioration on "well meaning people" who warped Indian children to the white man's loom.

FIVE PERSONS ARE DROWNED

THESSALON, Ont. C.—Four life preservers found today on windswept Cockburn Island heightened fears that a woman and four men were drowned Monday night in the rough waters of North Channel between Algoma County and Manitoulin Island.

Three preservers and two gasoline cans were discovered by searchers half a mile from a desolate spot where an 18-foot empty overturned motorboat was washed ashore yesterday. The people were missing from this boat.

The little craft is known to have had the five persons on board.

Headquarters Here—

Smelters Opens Exploration Office

Aircraft to be Used in Field Operations Out of Prince Rupert

An exploration program of mining properties in Central and Northern B.C. and the Yukon will be carried out by Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. of Canada from offices in Prince Rupert over the next few years.

The company is now in the process of arranging office space in the Canadian Pacific office here. Neely Moore, formerly in charge of the company's exploration office at Flin Flon, Manitoba, will be engineer in charge of exploration, while Dr. D. R. E. Whitmore, also formerly of the Manitoba mining centre, will be in charge of the geological end.

With Consolidated Mining and Smelting since 1937, Mr. Moore is an aircraft pilot and will handle the plane which will be used here early in the new year. A new DeHavilland Beaver is on order and will be delivered in January or February.

According to Mr. Moore, the bulk of the work out of the local office—which is being established on a permanent basis—will be examining properties, both those already owned or controlled by the company and those belonging to private prospectors.

With their own aircraft, Mr. Moore and Dr. Whitmore will cover central and northern British Columbia and the Yukon Territory. During the summer months, they will have prospecting teams in the field searching for properties or examining known ones.

The Prince Rupert office will be one of three exploration centres maintained by the company throughout the Dominion. There is one at Yellowknife and one at Halleybury, near Sudbury, Ontario. The office at Flin Flon, where Mr. Moore and Dr. Whitmore spent the last five years, will be open during the summer months only.

Mr. Moore, who arrived in the city with his family several days ago, has purchased a home on Seventh Avenue East. Dr. Whitmore arrived at the week-end and has not yet secured a residence.

RECORD HIGH IS SET TODAY

This seems to be a period of the year when records are set. The thermometer today set a 10-year record for high temperature when it soared to 64 degrees.

Accompanying the warm air was a clear sky and a light wind which developed from a flat calm early this morning.

However, such perfect weather may carry the seeds of its own disintegration, since Digby Island weather station reported the barometer falling.

Mild, bright weather persists throughout the province and is here to stay a day or two, at least, according to the forecast.

House Burned, Child Perishes

Indian Dwelling at Burns E Lake is Burned to Ground

Divisional headquarters of the provincial police here were advised today that the house of Isaac Sam, a native, on the Burns Lake Indian reservation was burned to the ground last night and one of Sam's children, Joseph William Sam, was burned to death. The remains were recovered and the corner at Burns Lake is investigating.

UNITED STATES MARKET NEEDED

NEW YORK, C.—North America, particularly the United States, must assume a new role in furnishing a ready import market for goods of other nations, Donald Gordon, deputy governor of the Bank of Canada, declared here. Only by this action can the dollar shortage be effective and permanently overcome, Mr. Gordon said in an address prepared for delivery before the thirty-sixth national foreign trade convention.

Coupled with opening markets, North America must also supply development capital for less advanced regions.

Alice Arm Drowning

Provincial police boat P.M.L. 15 left here this morning for Alice Arm to investigate the circumstances of the drowning at Silver City, near there, Tuesday afternoon of Charles Severid, aged 63. The body was recovered. A son, Harry, sent the request for the police.

MORE BUILDING DURING OCTOBER

Construction in Prince Rupert last month took a slight rise over September, according to the record of building permits issued at the City Engineer's office. Construction authorized last month totalled $17,188, as compared with $9,620 in September.

Forty-three permits, ranging downward in value from $2,000, were issued last month. Majority of them were for alterations and repairs to existing buildings, with a few minor construction jobs authorized.

Mysteries Of Devaluation

FOREIGN EXCHANGE is supposed to be one of the deepest mysteries of High Finance. We have been told that only bankers, finance ministers and those engaged in world commerce can understand and grasp all its ramifications. What does the average man, or particularly the average housewife, know about high finance. And yet there is more mist than mystery about it. The housewife knows a great deal about low finance in making ends meet with her limited income. She knows that, when the prices of commodities go up, the value of her dollar goes down — her dollar is automatically devaluated.

This answer may have been an over-simplification of the recent financial crisis in Britain. But the problem faced by Sir Stafford Cripps in drawing up and balancing his budget is essentially a domestic one. When it was announced that Sir Stafford had devaluated the pound sterling, most people naturally assumed that he had by that act reduced its value. But the real value of the pound had already been reduced at home as well as abroad, and all that Sir Stafford did was to acknowledge the fact officially.

There never was a time when the British worker had so much money in his pocket than he has today, and yet there never was a time when he could buy so little with a pound. The purchasing power of a pound note, as of a dollar bill, depends upon the prices of goods, and that power falls or rises with the fluctuations of the markets. The prices of goods are determined by the cost of production and servicing, plus all kinds of taxes. In Britain the costs of production, servicing and taxation are at an all-time high. In addition, the Government has, by its export policy, created a shortage of home-made commodities which tends still further to raise prices and lower the purchasing-power of the money in the people's pockets.

Thus the process of devaluation has been accelerated by every attempt made to arrest or reverse it. Economic planning, which calls for controls of industry and the rationing of raw materials and household commodities, created discontent among the workers, which has resulted in unofficial strikes and demands for higher and higher wages. Nationalization in itself was a costly undertaking, and the extension of free public services, bonuses and subsidies added to government expenditures and taxation.

However good the intentions of the Labor Government may have been, the launching of such a vast and costly program of experimentation was bound to be financially disastrous at a time when the nation's resources had been exhausted by the greatest of all wars. An impoverished nation, any more than a poor man, cannot afford to gamble with its meagre resources on a theoretical proposition. That is what the Labor Government has done, and it appears to have imparted the gambling spirit to the workers, who have so far forgotten their socialistic ideals of equality that every man is trying to get rich and lord it over his neighbor.

Whatever government had come into power after the war, it would have been faced with a stupendous task in rebuilding the nation's peacetime industries and recovering its lost world trade and commerce. Britain was already on the verge of bankruptcy at the close of the war, and if it had not been for the material and financial support given by the United States and Canada the British people might have starved. Now, after four years of intensive economic and industrial planning, Britain, on Sir Stafford Cripps' own admission, is nearer bankruptcy than ever.

The only hope may be that the British people will get away from one-class government and recruit all their political and economic forces and leadership in a national government.

STEEL AND COAL

THE STEEL WORKERS' STRIKE in the United States is partly ended and will, probably be over all together within the next few days. This is resolved one phase of the industrial crisis which has been threatening the economic well-being of the country and which was beginning to be reflected in Canada. Now there is still to be settled the coal strike which John L. Lewis, at latest reports, is making some move to terminate.

The settlement of the coal strike is almost as important as that in steel since the two industries are complementary to each other.

Letters to the Editor

MISERY FROM RED TAPE

Editor, Daily News
From press and radio we have been listening for years to heart-breaking stories of poverty and oppression in foreign lands. Each time we draw a long breath and say: "Thank God I live in Canada, a land of freedom and abundance, a Christian land where the spirit of Jesus still lives in the hearts of most citizens."

On Friday, October 28, about 9 a.m. a local taxi operator called me to the telephone, requesting me to town, that he had something he would like me to see. I could not go at the moment but agreed to go in the afternoon to investigate. I found a senile person, without food, room or bed, in one of the beer parlors. He was a veteran of two wars—South African and World War I. On questioning him I found he had no friends or shelter and had been in that plight for some considerable time. I then proceeded to the Stone Block to report the case to the welfare board. Mr. Coughlan, at that moment was not present, but being acquainted with one of the staff—a young lady, I requested her to drive with me to a shack where I knew lived another old man who had been denied the old age pension because he had not been able to produce a birth certificate. He was absent from his shack but, the door being unlocked, we opened it and went inside. We searched the building from end to end but were unable to locate a single mouthful of food, not as much as a crust of bread. We left the shack and proceeded homeward. We met the old man on the road on his way home. He gave his age as seventy-seven, born in New Brunswick and a resident of Prince Rupert since 1911. How he existed we were unable to understand.

These are things one can find if interested enough to look for them.

Too much red tape in the Old Age Pension Act is responsible for untold misery. I believe Mr. Coughlan and his staff to be everything as far as kindness and sympathy are concerned but red tape kills their efforts and closes the door against many a worthy applicant.

HAZELTON HIGHWAY

Editor, Daily News
Not millions but billions of dollars are involved, ultimately in a Central British Columbia Highway connection to Alaska and points between. Prince Rupert will not participate if any but the Hazelton Highway project is chosen. Any other road or railway would cost so much, no further money would be spent from Prince George west for a decade or more in development northward.

Ray Reflects . . . and Reminisces

Sang a be-spectacled young man, Rudyard Kipling, in India, "O East Is East and West Is West, and Never the Twain Shall Meet." But there is a powerful lot of meeting going on right now in North America. There will be Premier Nehru and the Yanks and Canucks. There will be colorful ceremonies in British Columbia this week.

Again, "We're Here Because We're Here." Old timers in Prince Rupert had the notion it was their song. That was just presumption. They warbled it often enough in the early days. As a matter of fact, it was belated or murdered long before Prince Rupert was ever heard of. We listened to a radio play during Sunday evening's hurricane. One of the actors, invited to sing, started with "We're Here Because We're Here," in a falsetto voice. This was too much. Amid the din of the tempest we yelled back "Like Hell You Are!"

Dawson declined to become excited over the false alarm gold strike that had the chechakos stampeding on foot and by air. The old camp, so wise in such matters, gave a jaded look, turning over, sighed, and dozed off again comfortably.

A trend of thought, and not risk of war, is one of the most dangerous features of life today, it was emphasized at the recent annual convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Montreal. There is the growing tendency to look not toward one's self for subsistence and security but more in the direction of some supreme focus or all powerful centre.

But does the Canadian Chamber of Commerce ever stop to think that whatever the result will eventually be, Canadians themselves can be held solely responsible. Thousands of fresh demands are received by Ottawa, from the public and from this flow more and more taxes. In other words, the drift is toward self-shackling, with the keys in the national capital.

With fitting acclaim, the Hope-Princeton Highway was formally thrown open today. The job, potential and present is nothing new to British Columbia. And there will be much more publicity after cars start running. Yet a few hundred miles south people can still be found who are uncertain as to how far they can drive toward Prince Rupert.

Has anyone noticed that the nearer the Pacific Great Eastern is built toward Prince George, the greater public interest in the railway appears to become. It's a safe bet to wager the P.G.E. is not going to remain there. It so happens there's a lot of British Columbia on the other side of the tracks—not to mention Yukon and Alaska.

The shore line of every ocean has its dangers, seasonal as well as in other ways. The government of Canada appears to be giving serious thought to the necessity of providing a capable coast guard. Sponging on a kindly disposed neighbor is playing out. It should never have commenced.

NO CHEER OR CHEERLEADERS—Sherbrooke football fans no longer will see these six attractive girls in action—at least not in the yellow sweaters and short green skirts they are wearing here. City authorities stepped in at the last football game, pointed to a by-law banning the wearing of shorts or short skirts in public and ordered the girls to cover themselves with coats. They did and their team went on to take a 24-0 trouncing from Montreal Navy in the Quebec Rugby Football Union. The girls are, left to right, kneeling: Dorothy Dolron, Dorothy Hatch, Jackie Ro-

BASKETBALL—

Brownwoods Winners Of Senior League Thriller

Tough One to Lose—Fashion, Doms'
And Rupert Hotel Other Victors

Brownwoods were the heroes last night in the second game of the 1949-50 Senior League season. But they didn't win their game the easy way. It was a crowd-thriller from start to finish and the lead must have changed hands at least a dozen times throughout the evening. It was wide open basketball that brought the crowd to its feet time after time with mounting excitement and yelling.

Referees, Comadina and Cio-ra had a busy evening and called thirty penalties on Brown-woods and 34 on Bo-Me-Hi. Lavigne, Shier, Gurvich, Pierce and Scherk, were all benched for personals during the dying moments of the game. However it was not a dirty game. The play was just so fast that bodily contact could not be avoided, with resulting personal fouls inevitable.

There was plenty of scoring and the final score was Brown-woods 53, Bo-Me-Hi 51. It was a heartbreaker for the school team to lose. They had the score all tied up with less than two minutes to go, and lost possession of the ball to Brownwoods who were quick to make use of their opportunity to score what turned out to be the winning basket.
High School had at least half a dozen opportunities to tie up the game but could not make any of the three foul throws awarded at this stage, losing possession of the ball time after time. Ray Spring was top scorer for the evening with a sparkling 18 points. Doug Shier, Webster and Gurvich all made the ten or over column. The score at the end of each period left the issue in doubt all the way. It was tied 9-9 in the first, Brownwoods ahead 27-25 at the half, Bo-Me-Hi leading 39-37 at the three-quarter mark, and Brownwoods winding up the winners.

If the league keeps up at this tempo the Civic Centre gym will have to increase its seating capacity before the season is over, for the fans like to see close, exciting basketball, and that is what they are getting, with a thrill every minute added for good measure. Brownwoods now find themselves in first place, with one win and no losses, High School have one win, one loss and Co-op are trailing after their close defeat by Bo-Me-Hi last week.

Lineups:

Brownwoods—Lavigne 7, Shier
11, Thompson 8, Sunberg 5, Owens
4, Davidson, Gurvich 10, Arntsen
1, Pierce 7—53.

Bo-Me-Hi—Carlson 6, Spring
18, Webster 11, Scherk 4, Moore 2, Ratchford 2, McChesney 2,
Sharpe 4, Kristmanson 2—51.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

Fashion overwhelmed the younger and much lighter North Star team in the Intermediate lighter than the winners and they miss their outstanding players of last season. Their star of last year, Chris Currie, was on the opposing team last night and topped the scoring with 7 points.

Calderone and Slatta called only 14 personals in this game, but there were many more, and as usual the referees find girls' basketball the hardest to call.

Doms—Hamilton 5, Youngman
6, Currie 7, Kildal 1, Hamilton 5,
L. Youngman.—24.

High School—Webster 4, Pav-lich 2, Lykegard 4, Greenwood 3, Matson 2, Keays, Paul, Marshall, Pearson, Leavitt.—15.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

In the only Junior game of the night, Rupert Hotel remained undefeated when they outscored the High School team 28-18. High School had plenty of opportunity but they just wouldn't shoot.
High point getters for the evening were Sather and McFarlane of Rupert Hotel, and Clark of High, all getting 8 points. It was clean basketball, only 19 personals being called by Bill Bacon and Ted Arney.

High School—Sheppard, Peterson, Smith 5, Flewin 4, Nickerson 1, Rhodes, Clarke 8, Tait, Brown.
—18.

Rupert Hotel—McFarlane 3, Matki 2, Stacey 5, McFarland 2,
Donaldson 1, Morrison 2, Stacey, Forman, Sather 8.—28.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The first game in the Women's League was won by Doms' who led all the way to win by 24-15.
The High School team was much

HALLOWE'EN AT TERRACE QUIET

TERRACE — Halloween this year was the quietest on record, no damage being reported and no calls going in to the police office. There were a few pranks but, on the whole, it was hard to believe that it really was Halloween. Some of the High School students were on duty as guards at the High School and Elementary School but nothing happened.

At the Civic Centre, the youngsters gathered for the Kinsmen's Annual Shell-Out party. They had hot dogs, apples, ice cream and candy with small prizes for the games. The children who were in costume walked around the hall and were judged by Mrs. T. Fraser, H. Young and H. Spencer, the prizes going to: Best dressed girl, Vicki Smith as "Lil' Ol' Lady".

Most original costume, Barbara Hagen as an Owl. Most comical girl, Dorothy Fournier.

Most comical boy, Danny McElroy.

Best dressed boy, Joe Sparkes, clown.

Most original boy, Jay McElvery.

A special prize was awarded to 3-year old Walter Sparkes who was dressed in a cowboy suit.

For the selling of the most Shellout tickets, Joseph Keeler won the bicycle, selling 4300 tickets. Claudia King collected 3,215 tickets and won the radio.

TERRACE TOPICS

Funeral services for the late Donald Alexander McKinnon were held in the Oddfellows' Hall on Friday afternoon with the Reverend Percy Mallett officiating. Mrs. C. J. Norrington was organist and hymns sung were, "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Abide With Me." The graveside ceremony at the Kalum cemetery was in charge of the Oddfellows Lodge. Pallbearers were R. Cory, F. Morris, J. H. Smith, W. Donald, F. Gavan and E. Haugland.

World Getting Warmer— That Means Slowing Up

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK (AP) — Our earth is warming up again and that, a scientist says, could mean:

A "Dark Ages" decline for the United States and Europe.

A push for Russia to become kingpin, with temperatures that favor bustling, energetic life.

Smaller adults in the United States.

The opening up of Antarctica's storehouse of resources.

The now-frozen reaches of Canada and northern Siberia, the earth's most energetic populations.

These possibilities are discussed in the magazine Science by Dr. Clarence A. Mills of the Laboratory for Experimental Medicine, University of Cincinnati.

The reason they may come is the tremendous effect that temperature has on human life. Dr. Mills explains. The human body, in burning foodstuffs for energy, produces a lot of waste heat and must get rid of it.

Easy heat loss "means a fast-growing, early-maturing, highly-fertile individual, with a keen mentality and good ability to fight infectious disease."

If climate makes it hard to lose heat, people slow down. There are changes in growth, rate of development, resistance to disease, and thought capacity," he said.

"Physical and mental characteristics thus change, from the dynamic and pushing, to a more passive 'Let George Do It' type. Personal initiative gives way to a desire for security."

In the last 10,000 years there have been five cycles of relative warmth and cold, each lasting about 2,000 years, Mills said.

We now are in a period of rising temperature, and "temperatures in 1930 reached about the levels of 1,000 years earlier. All records available indicate that earth temperatures have been rising for a full century, bringing milder winters and the long summers of depressive heat that snap human energy and change the course of nations."

GORDON IS TELEVISED

MONTREAL — The face and voice of Donald Gordon C.M.G., Deputy Governor of the Bank of Canada and chairman and president designate of the Canadian National Railways, entered several thousand homes east of the Mississippi River this week when Mr. Gordon appeared as guest of honor on a Columbia Broadcasting system television program originating in New York.

In the television interview conducted by Douglas Edwards, well-known radio and television news analyst, the man who will head America's largest railway system after the first of next year described the great all inclusive transportation system which embraces rail, steamship and airlines as well as hotel, express and telegraph services and is Canada's largest employer.

"I am looking forward to working with my Canadian National colleagues as a well informed enthusiastic team to give Canada and those sections of the United States we serve the finest possible transportation service, and through all the facilities at our command help our country forward to its very great future," Mr. Gordon said.

The Gordon television interview over the Columbia network had a potential listening audience of more than ten million families east of the Mississippi.

Mr. Edwards said other celebrities who have recently appeared as guests on the Edwards programs include Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, former president Herbert Hoover, Gen. Andrew MacNaughton and Prime Minister Pandit Nehru.

ALBERTA IS LIKE TEXAS

As Potential Oil Producer
Minister of Trade Howe
Declares

MONTREAL — New discoveries of petroleum and natural gas in Alberta promise to make the province the equal of Texas as a source for these products. Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce, told the American Society of Tool Engineers.

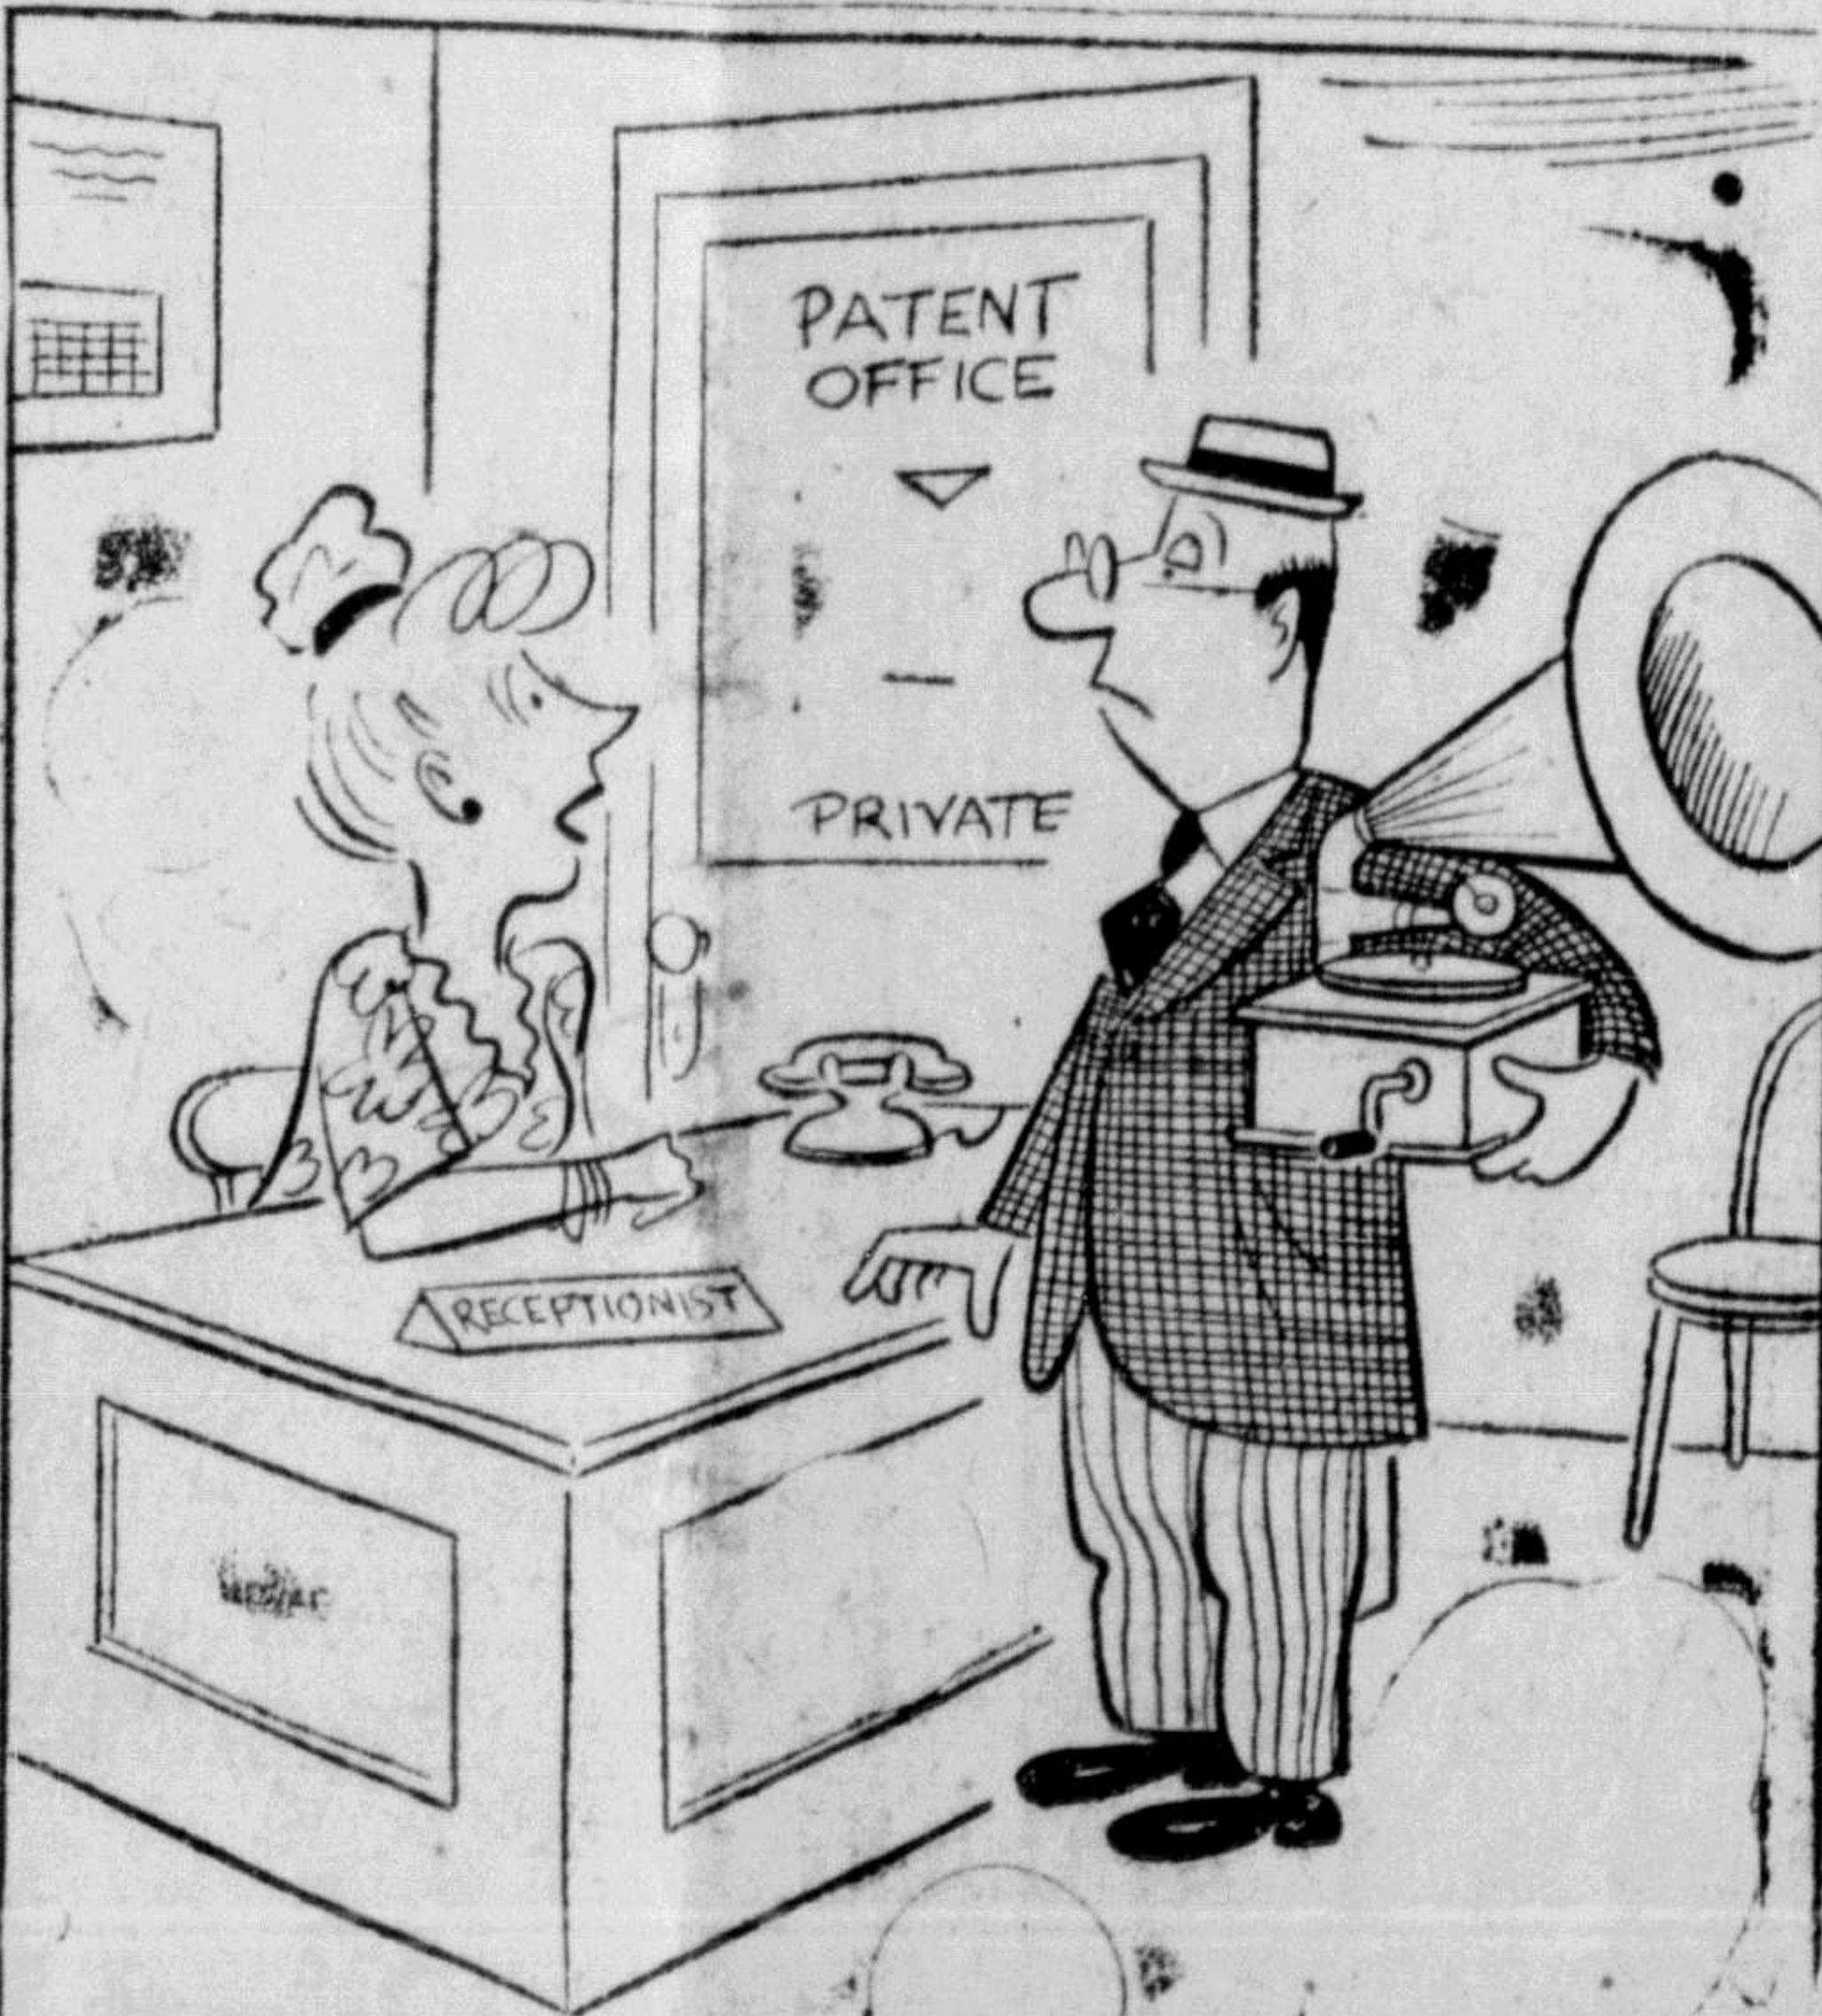

Reviewing Canada's prosperous, well-balanced and booming economy, Howe mentioned a titanium discovery in Northern Quebec.

The minister said a new oil pipe line was being constructed from Alberta to Lake Superior and that plans were underway for a pipe line from Alberta to the west coast.
