look at the United States. In the United States today there is unrest and a shortage of houses, and prices higher than in Canada. Yet in the United States today, in the year of a presidential election, there is no Socialist party, not a Socialist ticket in a single state and, except for Henry Wallace, supported largely by Communists, no third party worthy of the name.

Why is this? If in the United States, where social, economic and industrial conditions are practically those of Canada, the older parties, Democrats and Republicans, remain unchallenged, why should

The answer, we believe, is that older Canadian parties, unlike the older parties in the United States, have been failing in organization, failing in propaganda, failing in education-failing, in short, to keep close to the people.

DETROIT PEOPLE CAUGHT BY FLOOD

Road reports are being anxiously awaited by John Birdine of Detroit, who arrived in the city Thursday night on the Prince Rupert, accompanied by Ars. Bordine and son, after a visit to Ketchikan. When they came to the coast three weeks ago they left their car at Endako, rising Bulkley Valley floods at that time having frustrated their intention of driving through to the coast. Now Mr. Bordine is wondering if he goes back to Endako and picks up his car if flood conditions in southern British Columbia and northern Washington will not prefornia and thence back home. In other words he is "stuck" by the floods and is wondering what to do.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Corson; who came west with Mr. and Mrs. Bordine, decided to take no chances with the roads and the floods and proceeded through to Vancouver on the Prince Rupert and will return home by air or rail.

"There's one person has my this fine, new ship," he asserted sympathy," said the Old Timer this morning, "and that's the woman with a growing family, trying to make-do with dollars that don't buy nearly as much as they once did.

"Probably, if her husband is a working man, she has more dollars to do with than she ever had before. But they don't buy much more, if any more, and you can't blame her if she is a bit bewildered and even resentful.

"What answer can you make to her? Well, you can tell her about the long years of war, when everything went into making war goods which in a sense were just that much waste, and the resulting scarcity in the things she wants to buy, and the pent-up demand for these things, and the war-savings dollars that pushed prices higher and higherwhen they became available, and the pent-up demand also for higher and higher wages that added to the cost of everything. You can explain about the vicious spiral of inflation and the difficulty of controlling it.

You can explain all that, and it still doesn't make sense to her that her own position, as the manager of a household, has become so difficult. And you can't blame her.

Then tell her this, which is really the commonsense of the situation: If everyone, a southbound. aided by the lethargy of the old parties, which is the principal explanation of CCF victories.

The Journal doesn't believe that the CCF party can ever take power in this country. What is possible though, and what must come if the older parties do not look to their defences, is that the CCF party will win enough victories to bring to this country political confusion-and perhaps paralysis. Unless the older parties are prepared to accept that, are content to abdicate their functions and responsibilitis, they had better be up and doing. There is a tide in the affairs of parties as in the affairs of men.

The Sunday night show was opened by Mayor Nora E. Arnold who appealed to the audience to support the fund which to date is still less than half of its $25. 000 quota. She stressed the urgency of the need for this "neighborly" assistance to unfortunate British Columbia flood victims.

"These floods have caused untold loss and misery," she declared. 'They have made one of the worst disasters in B.C.'s history. They are being followed by another flood—a flood of public 18. sympathy. People will soon be returning to their farms and November 25th. homes to see their life's work destroyed.'

As president of the Prince Rupert flood relief campaign, Mayor Arnold announced that the fund now stands at $10,300. She said that she felt certain that the $25,000 quota would be reached and urged citizens to "give once, then give again" to fulfil it.

E. T. Applewhaite, secretary of the fund, introduced Mayor Arnold, then added a further appeal in whih he declared that the need was so great that "no one has the right to refuse."

"It is not a matter of whether or not you should give. It is a matter of how much you can give," he said.

MOOSE SWAMP MERCHANTS TO TAKE FIRST WIN OF BASEBALL SEASON

MOOSE 22: MERCHANTS 1

The Moose baseball team made a striking and successful effort to gain a recognizable position in the city swat league Sunday afternoon when they clouted Merchant pitchers Maundrell and Lambie into a hypnotic daze that resulted in a 22-1 victory for the lodgemen—the most lob-sided score in rcent baseball annals it was an event deserving of and only one run. He struck out To the jubilant lodge brothers much rejoicing-they had finally won a game. After four barhad finally hatched a digit.

Credit for this feat must be pretty well distributed among the team but pitcher Jack Rosedale shares a good deal of the glory. In nine innings on the mound, he allowed seven hits, > Summer days back in 1910 were lived over again last week with the arrival of t he new Prince George. When the Prince Rupert and the first Prince George arrived in June and July 1910 there were the same sunny skies, the same air of expectancy, the same crowding to the docks, t he same praising of luxury ships. The railway was building, dignitories were in town, things were moving, minor notables were coming and going and bright prospects gleamed. No one could know what lay in the lap of the next 35 years. In mercy, the future cannot be read-or even guessed at.
