"I have seen a play produced by a non-professional that equalled this production," said the adjudicator and then the other in speaking of "Miracle of Blaise" enacted by a group of Memorial High School students under the direction of Miss Enid Ball.

Artist-Preacher Starts Revival

Travelling missionary evangelist of the Norwegian Baptist Convention and the Baptist Union of Western Canada, Rev. H. G. Jorgensen, who combines artistry and revival preaching in an intriguing manner, commenced a ten-day mission at First Baptist Church here last and drew a large and interested congregation.

The subject was "Peace" which he declared, stemmed primarily from the human heart and the individual will inspired by the presence of Christ and His spirit within men. The pastor found his subject in John XIV, 12-27. Mr. Jorgensen, adept in sketching, drew a scene as he preached and this later was presented to Richard McDonald who brought the largest number of visitors.

Rev. Fred Aitrobus, pastor of First Baptist Church, presided and Mrs. J. C. Gilker presided at the organ for the hymns.

Mr. Jorgensen, who hails from Minnesota and arrived in the city on Thursday night's train, will participate in all First Baptist services tomorrow and will be heard nightly next week in his series of revival services.

OPENING ON JUNE 1—

Home For Aged Men at Terrace To Receive Occupants in Early Summer

War-built military hospital for the Canadian Army on the bench overlooking the town of Terrace and the wide expanses of the Skeena River valley is nearing the end of the process of being converted to the purpose of a home for aged men from northern and central British Columbia and is expected to be instituted as such early in June, operated by the Department of Health and Welfare, will have capacity for 250 persons and will involve the services of a staff numbering not less than sixty.

By the middle of April the job of reconversion, which has been under way for some time now, is expected to be completed. Carpentry, painting, plumbing and electrical work has been carried out by local sub-contractors.

Following the structural work, equipment and furnishings will be moved in.

Advent of summery weather will probably be awaited to commence settling the aged residents who will spend their declining years there. Some will be brought from institutions elsewhere in the province while others will be entering such an establishment for the first time. Engineering staff are already located and the heating plant is in operation.

The home itself comprises the former main hospital buildings while the former officers, sergeants and men's messes are being converted to apartment housing for the staff. The former men's quarters will be a recreation hall.

During the summer the new drab structures will be painted a gleaming white.

Appropriate ground development is also expected to be undertaken.

CARDIFF, Wales—Wales defeated France 31 to nothing today in an international rugby union game.

MODEL GAS TURBINE — Ideas for gas turbine development in Canada were given a visual form by Seymour Levine, McGill University graduate, who constructed this scale model in wood of a 1,200-horsepower engine. Shown here examining the model is Prof. Donald L. Mordell whose teachings on the subject prompted Levine to build the turbine. The figure of a man at the control panel gives an idea of size relationship. (C.P. Photo)

Drama-Music Feast Ends

Final Day Replete With Enjoyment From Morning to Night

The last day of the Music and Drama Festival provided another feast of enjoyment—morning, noon and night.

In the morning session at the Civic Centre one class in piano-forte and classes in violin were heard.

In the class of pianoforte for children under 12 years, six little girls—Norma Johnsen, Jacqueline Mary Johnson, Myrna Knutsen, Gail Reopath, Marian Smith and Ellen Roper—performed. Top honors in this class went to Ellen Roper with Myrna Knutsen and Marian Smith close behind.

Of the violin playing Mr. Bligh said that it was very gratifying to know there is some very fine work on this instrument in Prince Rupert. The violin is a very difficult instrument but the adjudicator awarded marks of over 80 to all contestants. Playing in these classes were Richard Forward, Murray Boas, Donald McLeod, Elaine Steffen and Robert Jensen.

Mr. Bligh praised the contestants for their clean playing, good tone, and phrasing. The violinists showed good feeling for expressive values and their good approach showed fine teaching.

Besides playing in the violin solo classes Robert Jensen and Murray Boas performed two violin duets in which they achieved a well-balanced tone between their instruments and displayed a nice feeling for rhythm.

At the afternoon session in the Capitol Theatre sweet childish voices were heard as the school choirs presented their numbers.

Little Grade One pupils from King Edward School performed charming little singing games. Mr. Bligh commented that these were excellent training for little ones because they stimulate interest in singing. He congratulated the teachers on this work and also the teacher of the Grade Two choir from King Edward School for the singing of "Dutch Dance" by that group.

In the Grade Three class two choirs were heard. In singing "A Poor Little Dog" Conrad School children achieved expressive singing and good rhythm and their words were excellent. King Edward School choir sang "Indian Lullaby" sweetly and with sincerity and in a nice mood that achieved the real feeling of a lullaby.

Two Grade Four choirs, one from Conrad School and one from King Edward School sang the test piece "The Ladybird" plus a selection of their own choosing. Conrad School choir had a good opening and nice lilt and were again commended for good words. Although the King Edward School choir sang without accompaniment the seconds kept in pitch and the tempo was good.

King Edward School entered choirs in both the Grade Five and Grade Six classes. The Grade Five children sang "Sweet Afton" and "Ash Grove." The Grade Six children sang "Dainty Little Maiden" and "Whispering."

NE WHAZELTON CHOIR

An outstanding choral presentation was given by a small choir from New Hazelton. The children were of different ages and grades but they gave a very appealing performance and achieved a beautiful restrained quality of tone. The adjudicator complimented the teacher, Mrs. Parker, on her excellent teaching and intelligent direction and awarded this choir the highest marks of the afternoon.

This same group from New Hazelton contributed a very charming dance number for the afternoon's program. A group of seven little girls in colorful Scottish costume did a Highland fling. They were Barbara Stur-

SUICIDED INSTEAD

CUSHING, Okla.—A displaced Ukrainian who apparently was so obsessed with fear he would have to return to Russia hanged himself here. The body of Jackin Baij, 37, was found dangling from a rope tied to a garage rafter. Acting Coroner H. D. Strong said Baij was confused by a radio broadcast which reported the convicted spy Valentin Gubitchev was being deported to Russia.

LONDON TRADE FAIR

LONDON—Eighty British engineering firms are joining forces to make an impressive display at the Canadian International Trade Fair opening in Toronto May 20. The exhibit, organized by the engineering industries association, will cover every aspect of the engineering industry, individual items ranging from teapots to tractors. Largest single exhibit will be a 15-ton mine diesel locomotive, and the smallest a selection of nuts and bolts.

ney, Gail Dupas, Phyllis Holmes, Darlene Dupas, Patricia Tait, Frances Tingley and Yvonne Willan. Then the first three each did a solo Highland fling. Mr. Bligh commended these girls on the good spacing of the group, their foot work which was always well together, and their fine sense of rhythm.

Later in the afternoon three little Prince Rupert girls contributed delightful dance numbers. Sharon Skinner, daintily costumed, performed a waltz clog making a good entrance and was praised for her excellent rhythm and clever foot work.

Heather Macdonald, very pert in a pretty Irish costume, did a Jig with very clever foot work and also danced the waltz clog.

Deanna Peterson, also an Irish costume, was quite a mischievous little Colleen as she danced a lovely Irish Lilt.

In the evening at the Civic Centre three contestants sang in the adult vocal class.

Mrs. H. Lindseth sang "None But the Lonely Heart" and "Lon-

NATIVES IN TRAGEDY—

Triple Drowning At Aiyansh, Nass River

Paul Wright, 50-year old native, and his nieces, Emma and Gloria Haizimisu, aged 6 and 4, were victims of a triple drowning tragedy at 11:30 last night at Aiyansh on the Naas River. They were attempting to cross the river between floes of breaking ice. No details have yet been received at the office of the Indian Superintendent here. Wright's body has been recovered. Bodies of the two children were carried under the ice.

Coroner M. M. Stevens, B. C. Constable Ed Anderson, Indian Superintendent F. E. Anfield and Dr. Charbonneau of the Indian Department will be flown by Queen Charlotte Air Lines tomorrow to Aiyansh to investigate the fatality.

At least three Canadians won Irish Hospital Sweepstakes prizes today on the running of the Grand National at Aintree. A Toronto woman and a hotel employee at Ottawa got prizes of $31,000 each. They held tickets on Wot No Sun which finished second. Another Ottawa man won $15,000 on Athlon Major which came third.

No Canadian is known to have held an Irish Sweepstake ticket on Freebooter, the winning horse, which would net $77,500.

The known winners are: Mrs. T. G. Manley, 52-year old Toronto secretary, whose husband is ill and jobless $31,000.

Roland Boisvenue, 21-year old Ottawa hotel employee, $31,000.

Romeo Barber, employee of the National Film Board at Ottawa, $15,500.

Freebooter, 9-year old gelding owned by Mrs. L. Boyhernton, sped to victory today in the 104th Grand National Steeplechase at Aintree, Liverpool. It was the first favorite to win since Spring in 1927.

The crowd was estimated at 300,000, including the Royal Family who watched in brilliant sunshine.

Freebooter, 10 to 1 shot, was well up in the field of 49 starters all the way. He pulled level with pace-making Gloncarig with two fences to go. Gloncarig tumbled at the next to the last obstacle in the 30-jump course over four miles and 854 yards.

Wot No Sun was second, fifteen lengths behind, and Athlon Major, third.

SEEKING TO NAME BOARD CHAIRMAN

Ex-Mayor Nora Arnold and Jack Furness, representing M. O. Howell of Vancouver, are meeting this afternoon as members of the arbitration board between the city and local firemen in the endeavour to choose a chairman of a board of arbitration in the negotiation of a new agreement over wages, superannuation benefits and service pay. The two parties failed to reach an agreement so the matter went to arbitration. Mrs. Arnold was named city representative and Mr. Howell for the firemen. Mr. Howell was unable to come to the city so Furness was delegated to represent him for the meeting with Mrs. Arnold as to selection of a chairman. The city has proposed Judge W. O. Fulton. The firemen would have Thomas Elliott of this city or Dr. Joseph Crumb, professor of economics at University of British Columbia.

Make Indians Free

THE INDIANS OF CANADA claim that they are not well used and their protests, together with suggestions for the improving of the lot of the people who have been Canada's wards these many years will be under new review when Parliament at Ottawa revises the Indian Act during the present session.

There has been no satisfactory explanation, as far as we know, why the Indians should continue to be wards of the state. Why shouldn't they become citizens, in the ordinary sense of the word, and take their chances as other people do?

Of course the Indians have not been well. We took their country from them in the first place and on account of that, we owe them more than we can pay. To be spoon-fed by a government, however, is not a high honor and it is not going to improve the standing of the Indians. To treat them as children, appoint ourselves as guardians over their life and conduct, is a stupid course of action. The natives themselves do not like it, nor could they be expected to.

The highest honor the state can offer its citizen is to give him personal responsibility for his own welfare, to endow him with individual opportunity, distinguish him as a free man rather than a dependent.

There is no scientific basis for calling the Indians an inferior race even though the way we have handled them might have tended to make them so. Notwithstanding that, there have not been a few Indians who have demonstrated their capacity for understanding and advancement.

The remedy for the Indian problem is freedom and more freedom which is the universal remedy for the most of problems that confront humanity.

DRASTIC REMEDIES

NEARLY THREE YEARS AGO the Supreme Soviet Council in Russia abolished the death penalty for treason. There was a good deal of shouting about so humanitarian a move and fervid orators pointed out that no longer were such rigorous methods needed in a land where the people had come to recognize the overwhelming value and virtue of Soviet policy.

But now the death penalty for treason has been restored in Russia. It has been done, we are told, at the behest of national republics and trade unions and peasant organizations. The beneficent Soviet organization would never have thought of such a reversal but for the public clamor.

No matter who takes the credit or the blame, could it be that the blessings of communism have not been as persuasive as the supreme authority expected? Could it be that such things as the Titoist defection have had an influence? Could it be that the restoration of the death penalty for treason is evidence that there are those within Russia who see the possibility of a revolt against the dictatorship?

THE KING'S REED

(Captain W. C. Poulton, Salvation Army)

Text: Matthew 27:29 When they had plaited a crown of thorns they put it upon His head, and a reed in His right hand; and they bowed the knee before Him, and mocked Him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

The King with a reed in His hand! What a title! What a tragedy that so many have scoffed at that symbol of power! Scoffed to their own hurt! Men gave it to Him in derision and mockery but He has used it to break dictators.

This reed has the power within it to outlaw all two-edged swords and rods of brass and iron. It is the symbol of Christ's rule and power in the World. It would certainly be profitable to all would-be tyrants to read secular history and see what happens to those who forsake the reed in the hand of the King of Kings.

This reed is the symbol of his character. That He was the gentle Jesus, meek and mild" does not indicate that He was in any way wishywashy, because it took real strength to do what He did.

Stop a while and count up the emperors and empires that have gone down to oblivion since He started to rule with the reed in His hand. He left to mourn their physical loss of a marvellous leader only 120 followers. Today there can be counted 600,000,000—six hundred million—people who want to be known as Christians. True some of them are only nominal in their adherence but the fact remains that His reed rules them in their inner consciousness.

This King with the reed in His hand carries out His conquest just there, in the hearts of penitent men and women.

He had no soldiers, nor hierarchy, nor denominational board, to support him and gave Him backing. They buried Him in a borrowed tomb. Of his ultimate triumph there is no question.

Far too often we act as though the Kingdom came with wealth and learning, these have their place, but He used the weak things to confound the mighty. The reed was the symbol of that way of life. The symbol of the way He deals with men. Remember what the Old Testament said of Him—read it again in Isaiah 42 and verse 3—"a bruised reed will He not break." That requires a strong grip. The nervous would cause further damage, but He is not nervous. He knows His power. At every turn there is His sympathy and compassion. He never recalls past wrongs when dealing with the penitent soul. He sees the blotted lives but takes and uses them. It is this we need to keep in mind during Lent, for Lent leads us to Calvary.

General Orsborn of the Salvation Army has written:—

"Except I be moved with Compassion, how dwelleth Thy Spirit in me. In word, and in deed, burning love is my need, and, I know I can find this in Thee." Let us be thankful that our King if Kings has a reed in His hand.

Why Church Bells Toll

Catholics To Observe Feast Of Annunciation Tomorrow

Have you ever wondered why the bells in the tower of the local Catholic Church are rung at different intervals every day. Each day the Angelus bell is tolled at 7:45 in the morning, at noon, and again at 6 in the evening. "Angelus" is the Latin word for Angel. The "Angelus" prayer, which is said three times daily, brings to mind the mystery of the Incarnation. The Incarnation is the doctrine that teaches that the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity (God the Son) became Man. God the Son lived on earth more than 1900 years ago. He was called Jesus Christ. His Mother's name was Mary. God used Gabriel—one of the angels—to acquaint Mary of the office He wished her to accept. The Angel's visit is referred to as The Annunciation.

Today is the feast of the Annunciation and, therefore, the feast of the Church of the Annunciation. In order to accommodate the faithful the parish feast is being observed tomorrow. Sunday Mass will be at the usual hours. Bishop Anthony Jordan, O.M.I. will celebrate Pontifical Mass, assisted by Fathers F. J. Rayner and O. P. Mohan. Charles P. Balagoo will direct the choir in an elaborate two-part Mass. The clergy anticipate a large number of Communion. The people have been invited to approach the altar rail in family groups wherever possible.

Passiontide begins tomorrow. Church statues are veiled in purple until the sad events of Holy Thursday and Good Friday are over with. Pope Pius XII has invited all Christians to offer special prayers tomorrow for

by W. J.

Cabinet ministers in British Columbia, it is proposed, should receive substantial salary increases. None will dispute that the cost of living is steadily increasing. Other sound reasons might be advanced as well. It should be made clear, however, that all the ministers who are to be given more money live in the city of Victoria where there is a beautiful large building for their exclusive use.

While defence remains a live issue, it is just as well to remember that in the north a climate that cannot be predicted and a coast line that will be as wild and rugged a century hence, can be considered an enemy to the invader—no matter whose doing the fighting. Yanks, Japs and Canucks have already discovered that.

British Columbia is moving in the direction of calling alcoholism a "disease." Announcement is made that 28,000 are suffering from this well known malady. Treatment will be given in institutions suitably equipped and serviced to cope with the complaint. But it's still the same old changeless illness, and what are you going to do about it? Some drink! Some don't!

It is with no small interest that Ontario audiences hear Skeena's Federal member tell about Prince Rupert. His occasional addresses are particularly well received. Mr. Applewhite has the knack of stimulating the kind of attention that asks for more.

For many centuries, the few and not the many, have been owning most of Italy. Titled folk dwell in dignity, generation after generation. Democracy, or what might seem democracy, but not in an unhurried way. Present day rioting is nothing new.

donderry Air." Mr. Bligh commended her nice approach and intelligent interpretation. He liked the appealing quality of her voice.

Leonard Sykes, who sang "Bless This House" and "The White Dove," had notable clarity of diction and his voice has a pleasing quality. In his first song there was a lovely prayerful mood.

Rowland Miles chose as his selections "Eri Tu Che Macchiavi" and "Sounds." Although the first number, which is one of the great arias of opera, is most difficult to sing, Mr. Miles sang it very well indeed. In his second number there was fine mood and atmosphere and a very good climax.

All the marks in this class were over 80 with top honors going to Rowland Miles.

THREE PLAYS

During the evening three plays were presented by Booth Memorial School. The lively comedy "The Devil Among the Skins" was offered again and players Margaret Gagnon, Bill Donaldson, Dick Large and Roy Webber again gave energetic performances. At the end of the play the director, Miss Enid Ball, was called forth to receive the applause of the audience and flowers from the appreciative students whom she directed in this play.

A very young group of players from Grades 7, 8 and 9 presented a merry little comedy entitled "Dear Departed." Believing their aged but not revered father to

News of Francois Lake

Peter Dreidger's truck with three thousand feet of lumber broke the ice and settled down into the water about half a mile from shore. The lumber was caught on the unbroken ice so the truck did not sink. The lumber was unloaded and the truck pulled out with a caterpillar tractor. Evan Nobles is shuttling across the lake with the "cat" all day long with lumber behind on sleighs. This is piled up and trucks load from the pile and take it to Burns Lake.

Mrs. Pebbles is recovering from a severe illness.

The Farmers' Institute sponsored a St. Patrick's Day Dance on Saturday evening in the Hall. The hall was crowded before midnight when lunch was served. All had a really good time. The Ramblers' Orchestra was up to its usual excellent standard and several square dances helped round-out the evening's entertainment.

Rino Johnson, who has been working at Babine for a year, is home again with his family.

City ambulance at 3 a.m. today, admitted Mrs. James Hauchen of Brown's Mill to General Hospital. She was transferred from 625 Fraser Street.

Kitimaats Expected to Extend Prince Rupert Tonight

Alex Bill, pinch-hitting for Coach Angus Macphie who is away in Vancouver, has announced his starting line-up for tonight's B.C. basketball semi-finals against Kitimaat. Their live players to hit the floor will be Joe Davis and Sonny Beynon, guards. Rupert Holkestad in the pivot spot, and Ray Spring and Jim Flaten, forwards. Reg Lavigne, Sid Scherk, Everett Pierce, Ted Arney and Herb Morgan will complete the team with Bill Sunberg and Don Scherk, being held back for Monday's play. The Jets are not underrating their opponents, the Kitimaat Athletic Club, three time winners of the native tournament. This is a vastly improved team and it is expected that they will give the Jets plenty of opposition. Local fans who saw them win the tournament were impressed with their class of ball and top physical condition. This team went into strict training in January, with a schedule that saw them in bed by 9 every night. They practise ball handling for two hours each morning, do roadwork and calisthenics in the afternoons, and have team practices at night. Their line-up will be the same as at the tournament—F. Williams, C. Smith, R. Ross, S. Woods, F. Williams, C. Wilson, R. Smith, H. Grant, Amos and Robinson. The team will be captained by Chris Wilson, with Stan Shaw as coach, Joe Gray, manager, and Bob Smith, trainer. Jets have the league's top scoring threats on their team with high point men Ray Spring, season total 274, Ted Arney (235), Reg Lavigne (186), Don Scherk (182), Everett Pierce (179), Jim Flaten and Bill Sunberg (165), Sid Scherk (161), Rupert Holkestad (151), Joe Davis (147), and Herb Morgan (101). The series will be settled on a two game total point basis, with the winner playing either Trail, Penticton, Powell River or Nanaimo, in the B.C. finals. The second game of the series will be played on Monday night. There will be a preliminary game each evening with the High School girls playing People's tonight and a rejuvenated Macey's Intermediate team playing an all-star intermediate squad on Monday night.

Victoria Report

... by J. K. Nesbitt

VICTORIA—It's 100 years since the arrival at Esquimalt of a famous ship—the "Norman Morison," Capt. Wishart. Every new land has its noted immigrant ships. Most famous, of course, was the "Mayflower," sung about in song and story. The British Columbia coast has its "Mayflowers" too, stout little vessels that braved storm after storm on the long voyage around Cape Horn from Britain.

The "Norman Morison" reached Esquimalt, March 24, 1850. She was just a slip of a ship, only 26 feet across and not much more than 100 feet long. Smallpox broke out. One man died. For weeks she lay becalmed, thus further infuriating her passengers who were anxious to get to their new homes.

Perhaps the most noted passenger on that noted voyage was Dr. John Sebastian Helmecken, young black-bearded surgeon coming out to take a position with the Hudson's Bay Company at Fort Victoria.

In his reminiscences he tells of the first time he stepped ashore and the first time he saw James Douglas. He said that Douglas did not impress him. He appeared gruff and unfriendly. Helmecken soon changed his mind for he promptly fell in love with Douglas' eldest daughter and soon there were wedding bells in the Fort and so was established one of Victoria's first families.

The Legislature has approved the Government's gift of a mace to the Legislature of Newfoundland.

Senator Johnson some months ago conceived the idea of such a gift. He thought it would be a gracious gesture from the farthest west to the farthest east capital of Canada.

The mace is now being manufactured in Vancouver. It will be a masterpiece of the craftsman's art, gilt-on-silver, weighing 50 pounds. The Royal Crown and Royal coat-of-arms are on the top. There will be a floral motif of maple and dogwood leaves. Three dolphins will symbolize the fishing industry of B.C. and Newfoundland. There will be the coat-of-arms of Canada, Newfoundland and British Columbia and a rope motif will show that Newfoundlanders and British Columbians make their living by the sea. On the bulb at the bottom of the mace will be the British Columbia Thunderbird.

It is announced that Minister of Finance Ansecomb will take the mace to St. John's in a few months for presentation to the Legislature of Canada's 10th province.

In the long ago there was a strong link between Victoria and Newfoundland in the mid '30's herds of hardy Newfoundland sealing skippers came here to go sealing in the Pacific, the Atlantic sealing industry having been played out. Later other Newfoundlanders came to British Columbia deep sea fisheries.

Old-timers here recall the sealing fleet—tiny wind-ships—stayed up in the Inner Harbor all winter, while their captains yarned around potbellied stoves in the ship chandlery shops and their crews whooped it up in the saloons on every corner.

The B. C. branch of the Canadian Association of Social Workers has told the Legislature's social welfare committee that the way B.C. deals with juvenile delinquency is hopelessly outmoded.

In a brief, the delegation said: "Many things must be done if B. C. is to have a corrective program in keeping with its reputation as a leader in social welfare. Now is the opportune time to make the break with the past. Our correctional institutions must treat offenders so that when they return to society they are able to operate as good citizens. The creation of a Division of Corrections will serve notice that the provincial Government is determined to mobilize all its resources against the problem of crime and delinquency."

St. Patrick's At Stewart

STEWART—The women of the Catholic Church conducted a sale of home cooking on Saturday in the Stewart Pool Room followed in the evening by a whist drive and dance in the Moose Hall, honoring St. Patrick. The patrons made a clean sweep of the edibles at the home cooking sale, the affair netting over $50.

At the whist drive Mrs. Don Norton won the ladies prize, Mrs. M. Bolovick the consolation prize, Angelo Bugnella the men's first prize and Tom Newell, the consolation. Charlie Jacobson won a set of military brushes and Mrs. A. Lawrence an embroidered table centre.

Music for dancing was provided by Mrs. Jean Stewart assisted by Mrs. Louis Behnsen and Bill Doecker, Sam Kirkpatrick, George Bunn and Billy Orr.

There was a large contingent from Premier and the dance was a big and enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bouzek were in charge of arrangements.

Stewart Couple Are Farewelled

STEWART—After their regular meeting on Thursday last, a farewell party in the honor of the Women of the Moose gave of Governor and Mrs. Hugh Rozare. Court whist was played, the winners being Mrs. T. Forsyth, Miss Jeanann Crawford, Henry Hill and John Haahti. Birthday cakes were provided for Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Kustas, Mrs. Lawrence and Mrs. Macleod whose birthdays occur during March. Mrs. Kustas won an embroidered tea cloth. The affair was in the hands of the social service committee of which Co-worker Macleod is the chairwoman. Senior Regent Geddes, in a few well chosen words wished Mr. and Mrs. Rozare God speed and good fortune in their new field of endeavor.

Waterfront Whiffs

In comparison with previous years, the freight business of vessels plying to Prince Rupert and vicinity has noticeably increased, remarked Frank Skinner, general agent of Union Steamships and Frank Waterhouse line here. Before this week is ended three cargo vessels will have discharged at Prince Rupert, Watson Island, Masset, Alice Arm and other points.

Columbia Cellulose projects, including logging operations of the company at Terrace and Khutzmateen Inlet, are taking a large bulk of shipments into this area. The plant at Watson Island continues to be the main destination or general freight, lumber, cement and heavy duty machinery.

The Chilliwack, Capt. H. F. Stevens, arrived in port Thursday with a heavy load of machinery and general supplies. The vessel left Vancouver with part of a shipment intended for use Nootka, which is in dry dock at Vancouver after a stranding in addition to its own shipment. For the Columbia Cellulose Company Chilliwack discharged 121 ton and 115-ton log rollers which were loaded on flat cars at the Prince Rupert Dry Dock for transfer to Watson Island. Two caterpillar tractors were also unloaded for the company. One 12 feet and for Nelson Brothers at Port Edward, 4,500 feet of boat cedar. At Alice Arm, the vessel will unload 25 tons of lime, general freight and ten tons of empty ore sacks. It will then sail for Stewart with blasting powder and general freight. At Masset the Teeco will take on 50,000 feet of lumber from Masset Sawmills for delivery to Vancouver.

Flat fishing in this area is very slow and in the words of Neville Gerrard, manager of B. C. Packers, operations are "proceeding under the bell" Landings have been light. Weather has greatly hampered operations. Manager Harold Thom of Atlin Fisheries shares Mr. Gerrard's opinion.

To date, a total of 267,691 lbs. of flat fish has been landed at various city packing plants by about 15 dragger operations from B. C. Packers (seven) Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative (three) and Atlin Fisheries (five).

The Morris H., Capt. Carl Giske a fisherman's Co-operative dragger, is the only vessel of the company landing loads at the plant here.

The "Violet P.", Capt. Roy Prince and "Visetta Prince" Capt. A. Prince, are taking loads to Vancouver. Since the cold spell, the Morris H. has landed 1800 pounds here.

The vessels are engaged in fishing in Hecate Straits.

Off shore, three long line fishermen are out for black red and ling cod. These are the Taplow Capt. J. Strand, Takla, Capt. P. Parkvold and Baisac, Capt. E. Telseth.

So far, the catch has amounted to 33,387 pounds of black cod, 7,885 of red cod and 702 pounds of ling cod.

From the Queen Charlotte Islands, two Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative vessels, have brought in loads of razor clams. The total landing is 18,450 pounds.

The Azurite, landed 3,600 lbs. of the clams March 6. On March 8 and 11, the Sandra Carol, landed 9,945 and 4,815 pounds respectively.
