Prime Minister of Finance Backs Plan For Economic Adjustments

LONDON, D. C. (CP)—The three-power committee on the British financial crisis today set up a committee to go into Great Britain's request for freedom in spending E.C.A. dollars outside the United States. It learned that Great Britain had asked the United States that, unless changes are made...

BOY WOUNDS SELF IN LEG

An operation is planned for tomorrow to remove a .22 calibre bullet from the leg of 12-year-old Ray Fossum who accidentally shot himself on Sunday while target shooting at McCoy Cove, Cumshewa Inlet.

The boy was brought to Prince Rupert General Hospital by his father, Ray Fossum, sr., 121 Fifth Avenue East, in his trolling boat, Edward Lipsett, after he had attempted to get an air reservation from Queen Charlotte City earlier. Apparently, no bones were broken as the bullet penetrated his right leg, travelling downward into the foot.

The lad had gone ashore while the vessel was tied up in Cumshewa Inlet on Sunday to do a bit of target shooting when the gun went off pointing downward.

SEEK INVENTOR OF "FLYING SAUCER" AIRCRAFT—Mrs. Jack Harbaugh sits at the controls of the strange aircraft found by air force investigators in an abandoned tobacco barn in Maryland's Anne Arundel county. They believe it may be one of the "flying saucers" that caused such excitement throughout the continent some time ago.

Unbounded Optimism Here Justified, Says Bank Head

"Never have I seen such unbounded enthusiasm as that which pervades the whole central interior country leading to Prince Rupert," says A. F. McAlpine, supervisor of the Royal Bank of Canada and one of the leading financial men of the province, who is in the city on an official visit.

BORDEN SCHOOL NEEDS NEW ROOF

School Board will attempt to have a 10-year guarantee on a roofing job done on the Borden Street school about 1942 honored by the contracting company which did the work following a report made last night that the building requires a new roof.

Estimated cost of the work is about $2,000. Trustee A. Bruce Brown told the Board. The building is leaking so badly that an entire new roof will be required, he said.

School secretary Mrs. M. M. Roper recalled that a similar job had been done by a Vancouver firm about seven years ago and suggested that the Board try to have the 10-year guarantee which went with the work, honored.

"There is good reason, too, for that optimism," says Mr. McAlpine in view of such important projects as the celanese mill at Prince Rupert with its attendant industrial developments and the definite probability of the Aluminum Company of Canada coming into this area with its enormous industry.

Mr. McAlpine found a healthy condition of affairs from a business standpoint all along the line.

He expresses optimism for the future in spite of some current disturbing factors.

Mr. McAlpine stresses hopefully the importance of satisfactory settlement being reached in the current financial crisis arising out of the British credit situation. Economic welfare of this country necessarily depends to a great extent on the outcome of the current conference in Washington.

CBC Aid Is Unnecessary

Private Radio Stations Could Operate Dominion Network, Commission Told

OTTAWA—The Royal Commission on arts and science was told today that privately-owned radio stations in Canada could operate the TransCanada network without assistance from the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

William Guild of Lethbridge Alberta, chairman of the board of directors, Canadian Association of Broadcasters, said that private stations originate network programs in much the same way as the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. The programs could be developed by a programming agency and these could be supplemented with some programs from the United States.

Mrs. Hogarth, who has been on the staff of the Alberni residential school for native children, arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert yesterday and proceeded by the evening train to Kispiox where she will take up teaching duties.

The announcement was made by Prime Minister L. S. St. Laurent who called eight federal by-elections for October 24 and filled three of the eleven vacant Senate seats.

AUSTRALIA SEEKS LOAN

CANBERRA, Australia—Prime Minister J. P. Chifley told the House of Representatives yesterday that Australia is examining the possibility of raising a dollar loan.

In his budget speech, the Prime Minister said that, because of its outstanding commitments, the government would not be able to achieve a full 25 percent cut in dollar imports this year, as proposed at the London Commonwealth conference.

New Ship Contracts

OTTAWA—Six new naval and other government vessels to be built at a cost of $8,000,000 will include four mine sweepers, a trawler-gate vessel for the navy and a large ship for the Department of Transport. The new contracts are in addition to the three orders placed last summer. Of these, one went to the Burrard Drydock Ltd. in Vancouver. The combined construction program for peacetime, represents the largest in the navy's history.

Work on all the contracts will be distributed through yards in various parts of Canada when, in the past year have been suffering a dearth of work and cut manpower down to 10,000. Plants on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, St. Lawrence River and Great Lakes will all share in the coming work.

PROTEST OVER SHIP DETENTION

CANTON—John Coghill, British embassy representative in Hong Kong, today lodged a "strong protest" with the Chinese Foreign Office over detention of an 800-ton British-owned ship, Edith Moller, by Nationalist naval forces. The Edith Moller, chartered to a Chinese company, was intercepted by the Chinese Navy trying to run the Nationalist blockade of Chinese Communist ports.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis Relatively cool, moist air is beginning to flow over the southwest corner of British Columbia this morning. This is expected to bring an increase in cloudiness and possibly a few thunderstorms to the lower mainland and southeastern Vancouver Island late this afternoon. However, there is no indication of any change in present conditions over the remainder of the province.

School Population Shows Gain

Sixty-Nine More This Year Enrolment Now 1224

Prince Rupert's school population showed an increase of 69 between September 1948 and September, 1949, principals' reports read at last night's school board meeting revealed. An even greater increase may take place as the year progresses.

Current enrolment total is 1224 as compared with 1155 in September last year. Enrolment at the high school, for some unexplained reason dropped sharply this year under the 1948 figure. Attending Booth at the present time are 430 students while a year ago enrolment was 452.

However, the elementary schools have more than made up for the decline at Booth. In the three elementary public schools are 794 pupils this year as compared with 703 in September last year. The increase has been felt at all three.

Here is a breakdown of this year's initial enrolment with comparative figures for September, 1948:

1949 1948
King Edward	313 275
Conrad Street	239 210
Borden Street	242 218
Booth	430 452

Normally, the school population reaches its peak in November, one of the reasons being that some high school students who have taken summer jobs return to school by that time.

AUGUST SAWLOG SCALE HIGHER

Sawlog scale in the Prince Rupert forestry district in August totalled 31,853,781 board feet, an increase of almost 10,000,000 board feet above July output. However, total production so far this year is below the level for the same period of 1948.

Production bulletins issued by District Forester M. V. Gormley show that so far this year 144,513,325 board feet of sawlogs have been cut, whereas for the same period last year production was 158,066,550. Production in July this year was 22,209,247. Pole and piling output last month was 159,982 lineal feet, a drop of almost 50,000 feet under July. So far this year 1,965,193 feet of poles and piling have been produced, as compared with 1,970,804 feet in the first eight months of 1948. Railroad tie production in August was 46,717 ties and 410 cords of cordwood were cut in the district.

Sawlog scale by varieties: Fir 1,731. Cedar 5,124,706. Spruce 11,187,218. Hemlock 11,123,836. Balsam 1,391,781. Jackpine 1,292,628. Miscellaneous 1,876.

MR. MOODIE INTERESTED

W. T. Moodie, former manager of Canadian National Railways for British Columbia, now residing in retirement in Vancouver, still maintains an enthusiastic interest in Prince Rupert and Central British Columbia.

Met recently in Vancouver by H. G. T. Perry, managing director of the Daily News, Mr. Moodie expressed his gratification at new and important developments which are taking place at this port. He intimated his great faith in the future of this part of Canada.

Mr. Moodie asked Mr. Perry to extend his best wishes to his many old friends in Prince Rupert and along the northern divisions of the railway.

Shipbuilding Here

PRINCE RUPERT will be interested to see if the local shipbuilding plant is included in the program of contracts for new naval construction amounting to $8,000,000 which are about to be let, a preliminary announcement from Ottawa being that yards on both coasts and on the Great Lakes will share in the work.

It is recalled how the local yard was turned to in the emergency of war, first when small warship construction was necessary in a hurry and later when larger merchant craft were required.

The yard has been kept busy on a fairly minor scale for some time now on small repair work principally for the growing fishing fleet.

It would be gratifying, however, to see the plant put to larger use for which it has often in the past proved itself so capable.

ON THE ATTACK

IN HIS FIRST WORD as head of the Catholic Bureau of Information in the United States, Father McCarthy spoke in no hesitating tones. "The Church today is able to stand before the world and say: 'This is our position. This is what we hold. We don't want it watered down.'"

Perhaps it is a healthy sign that we have recognized that Christianity isn't all gentleness and charity. That there is iron in it, too; the stern duty of resisting evil. Too many have confused the long-dead theories of communism with the practical, vicious and aggressive doctrines of Marx and Stalin. They have thought, by turning the other cheek, to make it gentle again. It is well that men are awaking, in time, and coming out fighting. In Europe, the Catholic Church has ceased to temporize. Excommunication, the last great threat of the Church, awaits the avowed communist. No longer can communists serve both Christ and Caesar. How potent is this weapon? How deep is the continuing loyalty? In Czechoslovakia, with Cardinal Mindszenty's grim fate all too well remembered, with Archbishop Berans a virtual prisoner of the State, Catholic prelates and people alike faced the open threat of government prohibition and gathered in Trnava, twelve thousand strong, for the consecration of new bishops. In Yugoslavia, Marshal Tito's sparring with the Kremlin entered a new phase with Tito tempting his neighbors also to defy the cominform and with Moscow, for the first time, describing him as an enemy. In Germany communist forces met a crushing defeat at the polls.

In Canada, too, the attack is on. Quebec and Ontario police discover and disperse a communist summer school. John Hladun of Toronto, one-time communist organizer and presently publisher of the anti-communist "Worker," told a United States deportation committee that the communist party of Canada, to which the man under investigation belonged, aimed to "organize a revolt against the government of Canada by force of arms." But democracy was fighting. The Trades and Labor Congress is joining with other labor units in a united force of just short of a million against communism. Speaking to the Canadian Institute of Public Affairs, Hon. Lester Pearson, Canada's Minister of External Affairs, called for an alert and intelligent public to deny power and influence to those who misuse freedom, and stated that the criminal code might be amended to deal with enemies of the State. There, then, is the "irrepressible conflict" between Christian democracy and atheistic communism. We don't want it watered down by woolly-minded individuals who believe that useful results will follow a policy of appeasement.

JAP CLAIMS WHISKEY-AGING PROCESS—Purely scientific is this round table conference which revolves around the taste of whiskey. After the conference had revolved and revolved and revolved, the committee members announced another milestone of science had been passed inasmuch as whiskey could be artificially aged to 15-year vintage guggle water in 12 minutes. Here, H. Hoshi, president of a Tokyo pharmaceutical company, centre; Dr. Yagi of the Japanese Science council, left; and K. Narasaki show by their expressions the Narasaki's new aging method has at least three supporters in Tokyo.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

General Crerar, who led the Canadian Army in Europe, calls the rulers of Russia "grim, ruthless men." The General has seen the type before and, as a rule, their style in the long run, does not get them anywhere. One could mention, however, a few rather grim destinations.

A lusty lad, whether in Scotland or Canada, going about on his well developed bare feet in the warmth of a midsummer day need not suggest poverty. Such an idea never enters his head. Enjoying health and happiness he comes from a plain, wholesome home and so do the other boys he plays with. Who wants to be bothered with boots and stockings when cool surr, breezy beaches, dulse rocks and rippling streams all beckon? There are still many hundreds of seaside villages in Canada where, despite all of our real and fancied troubles, the products of soil and salt water and lots of hard work do get results. If cash is what's meant, no one is rich, but on the other hand, there is no poverty, as most of us visualize it. Families may be poor in comparison, but wealthy, in other ways.

Eight more millions will be spent building ships in Canadian yards some of the latter on the Pacific Coast. Since the war, major construction here has not been comparable with what it was earlier and while employment remained steady, an important contract would indeed be welcome. The time is ripe and what the plant can do when the need arises, is unnecessary to tell about again.

No longer need there be the slightest doubt, question or suspicion, that a pause is possible in the onward march of Terrace. It is painful, of course, to print unhappy facts, yet news is news. Terrace is having more and more car mishaps which, by the way, is so characteristic of British Columbia's most populous centre

The new remedy for arthritis is called cortisone and the cost of one day's dose is $20. But, of course, there is some slight comfort in hoping that a charge that size will not be permanent. Cortisone is said to have its origin in the yam—a common enough garden product of Latin America and of value as an article of food. How it has become what may be a priceless discovery is known only to science, but it is good to realize the war against crippling disease does not slacken and now and then a victory is scored.

When the British Government delegates arrived in New York Tuesday, en route to the three power fiscal conference in Washington, dock workers declined to touch their luggage, saying they were doing this because of sentiment. And if it comes to that there was a bit of a dollar shortage for a few wharf workers then and there.

$3,500 THEFT FROM CITY SAFE

City police are investigating the disappearance early Wednesday of $3,500 reported stolen from a safe in a downtown business place.

Art Murray, proprietor of Kaen Island Stages Ltd., told the police Wednesday that the money had disappeared during the night after it had been locked in the safe at the 99 Taxi headquarters on Third Avenue.

The theft was effected by working the combination of the safe, police said. The strong box had not been entered violently. The money that was taken was all in bills. About $1,500 in checks and silver was left untouched.

Mr. Murray and Howard Wright told the police that the money had been securely locked in the safe on Tuesday afternoon. It was missing when the safe was opened Wednesday morning.

The theft was the second of its kind in recent years from the same establishment. A couple of years ago $700 was taken. Most of it was traced later.

DIGBY ISLAND MAN CHOOSES CITY BRIDE

City and Digby Island families were joined at a wedding ceremony solemnized at First Baptist Church Saturday evening when Elizabeth May Milton, daughter of Mrs. W. Webster and the late Hubert Milton of Prince Rupert, became the bride of Leonard Hadland, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Hadland of Digby Island. Rev. Fred Antrobus officiated.

A gown of white slipper satin with off-the-shoulder sequin collar and net yolk was worn by the bride. Her headdress was a Princess Elizabeth coronet with fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her attendant was Miss Florence Morse whose gown was of turquoise moir tafetta with pink net cap and pink gloves. Her colonial bouquet was of carnations.

Groomsman was Norman Iverson.

Felicitations from a number of friends were offered at a reception which followed the ceremony at the Broadway Cafe. Receiving the guests were the mother of the bride, wearing a gown of brown crepe with corsage of red roses, and the mother of the bridegroom, whose dress was of white floral jersey with red rose corsage.

The newly married couple stood beneath a white wedding bell set in an archway of pink and white to receive the congratulations of their friends.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Edward Coughlin, with response by the groom. The bride cut a three-tiered wedding cake which centred a table spread with a white lace cloth flanked by white tapers in silver holders.

Music for dancing, which took up much of the evening was supplied by Chris Fossum and Mel Hanberg.

The bride is employed on the staff of the local social welfare office and the groom is employed by Columbia Cellulose Co. They have taken residence at 1424 Eighth Avenue East. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bury sr. of this city.

SILVER WEDDING IS CELEBRATED

An enjoyable evening was spent at the Valhalla Hall on Friday evening last in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Olsen's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

A lovely three tiered wedding cake centred the table. Jack Franks on behalf of the many friends and relatives, presented the happy couple with the numerous gifts, including a silver tea service, a mixmaster and a silver flower vase with money attached to paper streamers hanging from the handle.

After refreshments were served, dancing was enjoyed until the early hours of the morning.

Enjoyed His Trip On Coastal Liner

H. G. T. Perry, managing director of the Daily News, who arrived in the city yesterday, expressed his appreciation of the courtesy and efficiency of the personnel of the steamer Prince Rupert on which he travelled from Vancouver. Mr. Perry, who is a seasoned traveller, found the voyage a delightful one and the service unexcelled.

of popular fruit juices, none of these are as good as an investment as the citrus fruits — either for economy or vitamin C content.

VITAMIN D—Vitamin D is necessary to a child's diet to prevent rickets and to build strong, healthy bones and teeth. But the sunshine vitamin is not found in sufficient quantities in regular diet, nor can it be absorbed from the sun. Every child needs extra vitamin D in form of liquids, capsules or other preparations throughout the growing years.

CARE OF TEETH—Teeth need frequent brushing to prevent decay. The toothbrush should be moved up and down, not only across the teeth. Inside surfaces should not be forgotten. Proper brushing, plus a visit to the dentist once every six months will save a lot of trouble later on.

As head of the cosmetic section of the health and welfare department's food and drug laboratory, Mr. Thomson often spends the greater part of his working day studying the composition of a vanity cream or the ingredients of a lipstick.

Far be it from food and drug authorities to deride the lift madam gets from a new cream or "hairdo," but at least their work protects her from becoming the prey of unscrupulous producers. They study new products appearing on the market.

Mr. Thomson says the great bulk of cosmetics on the Canadian market, and produced by reputable manufacturers, is free from harmful ingredients, although it is not possible to give complete assurance of safety to individuals who may be sensitive to specific substances.

There has been the occasional complaint about lipstick causing irritation and swelling of the lips. While "invariably due to a slight variation in the composition of the dye," Mr. Thomson says the condition is not dangerous.

Finally, "the use of cosmetics should be judicious and should be used to heighten the natural beauty," said Mr. Thomson. He added with a twinkle: "But don't you ever think men can't tell when lipstick and rouge have been applied—they can."

ALLOWANCES FOR OUT-OF-TOWN STUDENTS MADE

"Boarding allowances" for five children from the interior part of this school district who are attending city schools were approved by the School Board last night after members learned that the school law authorizes it to pay up to $14 a month in such cases.

The Board took the action following receipt of letters from parents of two families in the East Kwantlen region having children attending school here. The allowances are designed to aid in the cost of their education away from home.

Board Chairman Dr. R. G. Large said that the Board should make allowance in next year's estimates for such costs. Previously only two children were attending school from outlying points.

Also approved by the Board was a scale of transportation costs submitted by Kalen Island Stages Ltd. for carrying seven Port Edward children to and from school here. The rate quoted by the stage company was $4 a week for children over 12 and $2 a week for children under that age.

ONLY LIBBY'S BABY FOODS ARE HOMOGENIZED FOR EASY DIGESTION

Mothers, do you know that Libby's alone takes an extra step in preparing fruits, soups and vegetables for your baby? After straining the foods, Libby's homogenize them.

This exclusive Libby process, which breaks up the food cells, makes Libby's Baby Foods at least ten times finer in texture than foods which are only strained. By breaking up the coarse, irritating food fibres which often cause digestive upsets when baby first starts on solid foods, it removes the cause of indigestion from these foods. Clinical tests show that even a six-week-old baby can digest Libby's easily, without upsets. This is true only of Libby's, the only baby foods which are homogenized.

Think what this means at the critical time when you start feeding fruits and vegetables! What a continued safeguard it is! And Libby's are the only baby foods which offer these extra benefits.

THE DIONNE QUINTUPLETS
The first quintuplets in recorded history who survived infancy, the five Dionnes are the picture of health at 15. The famous doctors who cared for them during the critical months of their babyhood prescribed Libby's Baby Foods—the only baby foods which are both strained and homogenized.

WINNIPEG TESTS ARGOS' IMPORT TALENT—A Winnipeg Blue Bomber hits the Argos' line in one of the exciting moments of the East-West pre-season exhibition game at Varsity Stadium, Toronto. Argos won, 23-11, and presented, for the first time their talent imported from the U.S. Russ Reader, one of the seven ex-U.S. players, was a stand-out and most of the others showed they knew what rugby was all about. Bob Sandberg, of Winnipeg, scored the first Bomber touchdown and gave an all-round exhibition of passing, running and kicking that had the fans cheering.

SPORTS PLAY BALL

TIGHTENING UP ON BALL RULES

When the executive of the City Baseball league met last night, a motion to refer a Merchant protest of the Sunday Commercial-Merchant game to a protest board was defeated on a technicality. An alternative plan whereby the Commercial forfeit their right to a bye in the play-off was approved and, in the draw for play-off positions, the Savoy team gained the right to meet the winner between Commercial and Merchant. The latter two teams begin the best-out-of-three series tonight.

Evening games will be seven innings while Sunday afternoon's contest will go the regular nine innings. Final round of the play-off will also be decided on the two wins basis.

Justification of Merchant's protest was not discussed but laxness in enforcing the rules of the constitution was admitted and President Art Murray gave assurance that future infractions would not be tolerated. This will mean that players involved in the dispute will not be allowed to play in further games this year. No player may be signed by a team after the middle of the schedule without executive approval.

Two athletes whose baseball history is part of the legend of Prince Rupert will be honored Sunday, September 8th when it will be Lambie-Windle day. Tribute will be paid to Benny Windie and Bill Lambie by the league and fans in appreciation of their outstanding play and fine contribution to baseball that has covered a period of more than twenty years. The league will present suitable tokens to each and many local firms have expressed desire to show their esteem.

CRUISED NORTH WITH NEW YACHT

A projected cruise as far north as Stewart was cut short by Dr. R. G. Large at the first of the week when one of the propeller shafts of his new power cruiser 4400, started running hot, necessitating closing down of one of the twin engines. Accordingly the vessel returned after getting as far as Wales Island, getting back to port on Tuesday afternoon. Otherwise, Dr. Large was well satisfied with the performance of the craft. Making the trip with him were T. H. Wilford, A. R. Nichols and C. A. Berner.

Modern Etiquette

Q. If a woman is seated when she receives an introduction to a man, should she rise?
A. She remains seated if she prefers to do so. Some women regard it as more cordial to rise under these circumstances. If the man who is introduced is elderly, a young woman always rises when he is presented.
Q. When corn on the cob is served at dinner, should both hands be used to hold it?
A. No; only one hand is necessary.
Q. Should a player or his caddy smooth over holes or footmarks in a bunker on the golf course?
A. The player. The caddy should not enter a bunker.

HOW CAN I ???
By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove lime from a teakettle?
A. This is caused by hard water. If the deposit is light, a dilute acid, such as vinegar will dissolve it, if allowed to stand in the kettle. Add a little salt to hasten the process. If little bubbles form, it indicates that the lime is dissolving.
Q. How can I make a mouth wash?
A. By mixing 20 drops of tincture of myrrh in 40 tablespoons of water. This solution is both healing and cleansing.
Q. How can I test dye to see if it is a fast color?
A. Dampen a small piece of the dyed cloth and then rub it on a piece of clean white paper. If it leaves no stain, the dye is fast.

TERRACE BARBECUE

Prize Winners at Labor Day Celebration

TERRACE—The opening of the barbecue pit drew a big crowd and the luscious beef was carved by Bert West, O. Kaulbeck, J. H. Smith. There were plenty of barbecued sandwiches for everyone and the demand for them was heavy at the big evening dance. However, there were still enough left to give the youngsters a free barbecue on the Tuesday evening.

Although a great number of Terrace citizens took the opportunity of the fine week-end to drive out to Lakelse or further up country for the last holiday of the season, there was no dearth of volunteer help in the Civic Centre.

The drawing for the gate prizes was made by Marjorie Thomas, this year's May Queen's first official duty, at the evening dance. The first prize, an electric range, went to Collin Cooper; second prize, a portable radio to Mrs. E. Haukland and third prize, a 26-piece set of silverware to Mrs. M. M. Palmquist.

Telkwa Celebrates Barbecue Is Big Success

Rodeo Events Are, As Usual, Feature of Historic Labor Day Event

SMITHERS—Although Hazelton defeated Telkwa 9 to 4 in the Labor Day ball game played at the Telkwa Barbecue Fair day was a great success. Huge crowds from many points attended to see the old-time riding and roping, to enjoy the free sandwiches and to take in all the many side shows, including fortune telling by the great Fagan of California, who also gave a show of magic and hypnotism in the hall in the evening.

The C.N.R. prize winning train from the Smithers Fall Fair was in attendance all afternoon giving rides to swarms of children and adults.

Much fun was caused by an imported cowboy clown "interfering" with events and generally "acting funny."
