Celebrating Birthday

THE CITY OF STRATFORD, in southwestern Ontario, founded 121 years ago, is celebrating Old Home Week from June 28 to July 5. The Shakespearian atmosphere is strong in the city of 39 industrial plants, dominated by railway shops, furniture and fabrics manufacture. It was named after the Warwickshire market town where The Bard lived. A bust of Shakespeare is in the beautiful Shakespeare Gardens along the Avon river. Noted also for its hockey, it was here that the late Howie Morenz, one of Canada's all-time hockey greats, stepped out of junior ranks where he was known as the "Stratford Streak."

Thousands of Chinese Reds Hit Allied Lines on Both Ends

By MILO FARNETT

SEOUL (AP)—At least 13,000 Chinese Reds hit Allied lines on both ends of the Korean battlefield today, but South Koreans buried back most of 10,000 Communists who attacked eight strategic outposts in the west.

U.S. Sabre jets shot down two Communist MIG jets and damaged another in air battles over North Korea this afternoon. The large-scale Red assault opened the fourth year of war on this battered peninsula. Heavy fighting still raged on the east-central front where 3,000 Communists attacked Republic of Korea positions near the junction of the Pukhan and Kumsong rivers.

The 8th army said the new attacks left U.S. and other Allied troops virtually untouched and concentrated on ROK positions. The main weight of the Red assault fell on Allied lines blocking one of the old invasion routes to Seoul. But the 8th army said most of the Chinese were thrown back from eight important hill outposts west of Yonchon, in the little Nori and Gid Bado sectors.

Missing U.S. Plane Sighted In Rugged North Country

Three Americans missing on a flight into northeastern B.C. have been located alive, according to a late report. It is not known whether they were injured. Their wrecked plane was spotted northeast of Fort Nelson.

EDMONTON — Hope for the safety of three Americans missing three days in the rugged northeast corner of British Columbia rose today with the report that a search plane has spotted wreckage of a red aircraft northeast of Fort Nelson, 200 miles northwest of Edmonton.

The report, received here from searchmaster Ftl. Lt. S. N. E. Auchamp at Fort Nelson, said there were no signs of life near the downed plane, but a panel laid out on the ground in an arrow-like shape indicated there were survivors and they were trying to walk out to safety.

The Americans, James Kelly of Vancouver, Wash.; pilot, Norval Foster, Vancouver, Wash.; and D. L. Dutton of Portland, Ore., were flying a four-passenger red Stinson aircraft. They were reported missing Tuesday night after leaving Fort Nelson for Smith River, B.C., 155 miles northwest on the Alaska highway.

The crew of the RCAF Dakota spotted the downed plane on a 4,000-foot plateau. The RCAF here said a helicopter from Whitehorse, Yukon, will be flown to the scene. Meanwhile, a supply drop will be made today at the scene in the hope there are survivors at the wreck or that they will return to the plane.

The panel on the ground pointed in the direction of Smith River, the RCAF said, but any attempt to walk the 32 miles to the settlement would be almost impossible. It would be very difficult for a well-equipped ground party to reach the wreck, the RCAF said. The aircraft which spotted the plane was unable to proceed in the direction indicated by the ground panel because of poor flying weather which has dogged the search for more than 48 hours.

Three Dakotas are taking part in the search. One was flown to Fort Nelson from Whitehorse, one from Rivers, Man., and the other from Naino, near Edmonton.

Rotarians Honor Fred Scadden For 12-Year Perfect Record

Fred Scadden, pioneer Rupert resident and president of the Rotary Club here during the 1951-52 season, last night was presented with a special Rotary pin in recognition of perfect weekly attendance for the past 12 years.

The presentation was made by newly-installed president A. P. (Tony) Crawley at a dinner in the Aero Club, at which officers for the 1953-54 season were sworn into office by Major W. C. Poulton, OBE.

Mr. Crawley told briefly of Mr. Scadden's long association with Rotary and said "his regular attendance proves he has more than just a passing interest in this service club."

Even while travelling in England and across Canada and the United States, Mr. Scadden always managed to attend a Rotary meeting each week.

Retiring president Harry Black thanked club members for their co-operation during his term and said the club this year would spend $2,500 on a new extension to the hospital.

Maj. Poulton, in a brief talk said "one of the things that makes life worthwhile is flattery, providing we know that there is sincerity behind it."

Officiating at the installation ceremony for the third time in four years, Maj. Poulton spoke briefly on the ideals and ideas of Rotary then welcomed president Crawley, secretary Trevor Hill, treasurer Walter Vance and directors Tommy Black, Bill Scuby and Doug Frizzell.

Eight new members also were installed. They were: Pat Deane, Peter Bird, Jack Deeth, Jack Martin, Dr. Don Oakley, Alex Haig, Bill Dumont and Neeley Moore.

Congratulating Mr. Crawley on his election to the presidency, Maj. Poulton said "you have experienced rough seas crossing our harbor and you can expect some rough seas, as well as some calm ones in Rotary."

"This position will present some of the same challenges as the sea and I know you will meet all the obstacles."

Addressing directors Scuby, Frizzell and Black, Maj. Poulton said: "Upon you we expect ideas based upon ideals. I charge you not only with the duty of working with the officers, but with bringing forth new ideas to better Rotary."

After President Crawley presented Fred Scadden with his 12-year pin the entire club, their wives and friends who had enjoyed refreshments and dinner, burst into singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Dancing to music by Dyke McMillan followed the meeting.

U.S. Envoy Holds Talks With Rhee

SEOUL (AP)—President Eisenhower's special envoy and South Korea's president, Syngman Rhee, conferred at length today and it was hinted later they might reach an understanding on the armistice crisis.

The envoy, Walter S. Robertson, U.S. assistant secretary of state, told newspaper men after the 2 1/2-hour meeting:

"We hope we are making progress in removing misunderstandings."

He said there would be further discussions with Rhee, but did not say when.

The Korean public information office quoted Rhee as saying the discussions had been "very good" and that an understanding might be reached.

Beyond that, there were no indications of any change in Rhee's insistence on drastic revision of the armistice terms.

The truce teams on July 9 had removed their last major obstacle to an armistice when they agreed on a formula for disposing of Chinese and North Korean war prisoners refusing to return to Red rule.

However, the expected full agreement was interrupted by the release and escape of more than 27,000 anti-Communist Korean prisoners last week on Rhee's orders.

Rhee insisted his government would never accept an armistice on present terms. He demanded withdrawal of all foreign troops and mutual security pact with the United States as his "minimum conditions."

Robertson this afternoon called on the foreign minister Pyun Yung Tai, one of the most outspoken opponents of a truce, who said later "helpful vistas were opened."

Robertson made no comment on that meeting.

Before the conference, Rhee released written replies to questions from The Associated Press.

Asked by the news agency whether he thought the Allies would sign a separate truce with the Communists without South Korea, Rhee replied: "I do not think the U.S. will, nor do we ask the U.S. to hold the signing of the truce either on the present terms or with some alteration because of Korea's refusal to accept the truce."

RCMP Bring Fisherman's Body Here

Body of a 48-year-old fisherman was brought into Prince Rupert yesterday by RCMP launch from Porcher Island where he was found dead on his boat.

Dead is Ralph Lagaard of Ladner, B.C., owner and operator of the trolling boat Escort L. Fishing in Freeman Pass, his boat was tied up alongside another fishing vessel at the floats when he was found Wednesday lying in his cabin by a friend and former partner, Hartvig Knudsen and Jens Grindrud, said Coroner Don Forward.

Lagaard had been living with Ole Larsen, Westhalm Road, Ladner, B.C., his friends said.

Gillnetter Lands 150 Fish

An average of 40 sockeye a day per boat are being reported taken on the Naas and Skeena rivers by gillnet fishermen, with a high of 150 fish by one boat reported from Edye Pass.

No Halibut Boats in Dock

No halibut vessels unloaded here today, but 129,000 pounds were sold on the exchange yesterday, highest price being 19.6 cents.

Only two days old, the double-humped animal was taken from its mama, aptly named Meanie by zookeepers because she had killed her last two offspring.

JOSEPH LANIEL APPROVED AS PREMIER OF FRANCE

PARIS — Joseph Laniel, 63, today was approved as premier of France's 19th post-war government, ending a 37-day governmental crisis that has twice delayed the "Big Three" Bermuda conference. Laniel received 389 votes.

Only 314 votes were necessary to assure the premiership. Laniel is a textile manufacturer and a member of the Independent party.

Nehru Calls For Immediate UN General Assembly Meet

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Over strong United States opposition, India tried today to line up support from a majority of the 60 United Nations for an immediate UN General Assembly session on the Korean truce crisis.

Prime Minister Nehru of India told newspaper men in Cairo it was time for the UN to "make it perfectly clear that the UN command is master of the situation and nobody else—not President Syngman Rhee."

Some observers speculated that Nehru's call for the session, made in a cable Thursday to the Assembly president, L. B. Pearson of Canada, was the premier's way of pressuring Rhee to agree to a Korean armistice.

Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold was flying to Ottawa today to discuss Nehru's message with Pearson.

An Assembly resolution in April directed Pearson to call the group back into session after an armistice or whenever a majority of the nations agreed Korean developments required a meeting.

Chief U.S. delegate John Cabot Lodge, Jr., said, however, he could imagine nothing more likely to prejudice current U.S. efforts to reach an armistice than the Assembly meeting Nehru seeks.

Officials in Washington also said they did not feel an Assembly session would be useful at a time when the Korean situation was so fluid. The U.S., they added, does not concede the truce efforts have broken down.

Britain's UN delegates said it felt nothing like a special session should occur until after President Eisenhower has had every opportunity to bring Rhee around or otherwise work out the stalemate truce.

Dr. Kemp Committed For Trial

VANCOUVER — Dr. W. N. Kemp, charged with criminal libel, was formally committed for trial by Magistrate Oscar Orr.

The charge was laid by John J. Perdue, president of the Social Credit League of British Columbia.

Mr. Perdue charges defamatory statements had been made by Dr. Kemp during the provincial election campaign. Bail was fixed at $1,000.

Before committal, Paul Murphy, counsel for Dr. Kemp, argued that Mr. Perdue should enter into a recognisance to prosecute to ensure the case would go ahead.

"We are most anxious to have this matter come before a jury as soon as possible, and want to make sure the case will go ahead after committal," Mr. Murphy said.

Magistrate Orr, in refusing to insist that Perdue be held responsible for the continuance of the case, remarked: "If the Crown doesn't see fit to prosecute this private case, then you have made a point."

Phone Error Made On Election Night

Fifty-three "missing" votes in the Prince Rupert riding cast in the June 9 provincial election were "discovered" yesterday in a check by returning officer Scott McLaren.

All votes went to Liberal candidate Arthur Bruce Brown.

The votes came from Port Simpson, Indian village 25 miles north of here. Original count there, transmitted by radio-telephone, had been recorded by Mr. McLaren as 17 votes for Mr. Brown. In checking the actual ballots yesterday, the count was 70—"simply an error in receiving the verbal transmission," said Mr. McLaren.

Other candidates' votes from Port Simpson were:

Bill Murray, Social Credit, 13, and George Hills, CCF, 16. Neither status was changed.

The new count reduces Mr. Hills' lead over Mr. Brown to 110 votes and increased Mr. Brown's lead over Mr. Murray to 166.

The standing now is: Hills, 1839; Brown, 1729; Murray, 1563.

Mr. McLaren said he came across the error when checking returned ballots from outside polling divisions against results telephoned or telegraphed on election night, June 9.

LIGHT VOTE

It was thought earlier by candidates and also by the returning officer that most of the voters registered in Port Simpson were out fishing, thus accounting for the light vote.

Mr. Brown was elated when informed of the corrected count by Mr. McLaren. "That brings it more up to my expectations," he said.

Mr. Hills, who suffers most by losing 53 votes off his first-count lead of 163, said:

"This is going to make the race much closer when the seconds are being counted."

But Mr. Hills said that while the news shocked him at first, he had "mentally calculated" that a similar number of absentee voters from Port Simpson would give their votes to the Liberal candidate.

ALWAYS LIBERAL

"Port Simpson always has been a Liberal stronghold," he said.

Mr. Murray had no comment, but stated that after some 600 absentee ballots have been counted, the Social Credit here "will likely ask for a recheck" of all ballots.

This would be done so the returning officer could rule on each ballot rejected by clerks during counting of the votes on election night.

"We have reason to believe that there was some controversy in judgment on what constituted a spoiled ballot under the preferential voting system," said Mr. Murray.

Mr. McLaren said he expected to complete checking of absentee ballots by tonight. Initial checking is done as the ballots are mailed in. Names of the applicants are compared to the voters' list for their authority to cast ballots.

BEGINS JUNE 30

Counting of the absentee ballots takes place at the Civic Centre and will begin at 9 a.m., June 30.

This may take some time, said Mr. McLaren. After the ballots are counted, a recheck of all ballots cast on election day must be made is required.

Then, all first-count ballots of the candidate receiving the least number of votes are counted again for second-choice votes, these being distributed among the two remaining candidates.

There is no possibility of any candidate here winning on the first choice count by a 50 per cent majority, even with absentee ballots. Second count will decide the winner by straight majority.

If the count is close, there may be a request from the losing candidate for a complete recount.

"We may be through counting seconds some time July 1," said Mr. McLaren.

Fruit Truck 'Stripped' in Strike Area

VANCOUVER — A truck which crossed a picket line to load fruit and vegetables was stopped short of its destination Thursday and stripped of its cargo.

Non-union trucker Lawrence Warkentin said he was trailed by a caravan of seven cars after leaving the strike-bound Slade and Stewart Ltd., warehouse here, where tension mounted as trucks disregarded the picket line.

The 24-year-old trucker told police his truck enroute to the Fraser Valley with a load of bananas and potatoes, was forced to the side of a road in neighboring Burnaby.

He said he locked himself in the cab and watched unidentified men pack the cars with cartons of bananas and 22 sacks of potatoes, spilling some onto the roadway.

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD GARY NELSON of Minneapolis isn't one to use words lightly. The folks who laughed when he said that his rendition of "Chopsticks" would "bring down the house" are going to have more respect for his musical ability when he shows them this picture. (Just between-us, Gary really found the piano amid the ruins of a house being torn down by wreckers.)

A Complicated Situation

IT IS REALIZED that the Korean situation is complicated. But the fact remains every time the Allies engage in peace talks the Reds capitalize on them.

During these talks under President Truman's administration they gained time to build up their forces and equipment.

During the present peace talks, even though many compromises have been made in their favor, they keep finding fault with some technicalities in order to keep from making a definite decision. They keep throwing more troops into the war, stalling on peace from day to day.

Most of us do not understand why the Allies don't set a definite time limit for the Reds to either reject or accept peace terms.

Of course, it is generally known that Russia itself is the main instigator and is using the Chinese Reds as mere puppets.

It also must be remembered that Chinese lives are held lightly and expendable by the Red masters. Their only handicap is in getting supplies, ammunition and planes. Thus far these mostly have been supplied by Russia.

The escape of prisoners in Korea is another sensational move to say the least. President Rhee is said to have aided their escape.

The prisoners are those who do not want to be returned to the Reds in North Korea or China. Thus they are no threat to the Allies. Yet UN troops have been ordered to round them up and already have killed some in the process. This again is aiding the Reds.

Senator McCarthy is quoted as saying he does not blame Rhee for aiding or allowing the prisoners, mostly guarded by Koreans, from escaping.

Rhee denounces the peace terms as a "sell-out" for Korea. It must be confessed there is a lot of justification for his accusations.

It also must be remembered that President Eisenhower's hands are tied since the war in Korea is the "baby" of the United Nations. However, Eisenhower's apparent expressed opinions to compromise for the sake of an expected truce is hardly in line with standing firm for bed-rock principles.

100 Killed as Train Crashes Through Sabotaged Viaduct

SAIGON, Indo-China (AP) — Railway officials announced on Wednesday that about 100 or more persons were killed when a passenger train plunged 50 feet through a sabotaged viaduct Tuesday in east Indo-China.

Two locomotives and 18 cars crashed down into a ravine at the Col des Nuages ("Pass of the Clouds"), a mountain pass on the route between the ancient Annamite capital of Hue and the port of Tourane. The pass has frequently been the scene of attacks by the Communist-led Vietminh rebels.

Rescue crews still searched the wreckage today and fears were expected that the death toll would rise. There was no estimate of the number of injured.

Putting your youngster through high school and college is a costly business. And, if you're like most people, you will have to prepare for that expense well in advance.

An easy way to do it, should you need the Family Allowance Cheques for their primary purpose of paying for the youngster's day-to-day expenses, is to earmark all of them for his later education. The cheques for one child, saved in a B of M account until the age of 16 is reached, total more than $1,300, including interest. It's a handy start toward a higher education. And it means you have ready money in the bank available for any unexpected opportunity or emergency.

Start while your youngster is still tiny, and you'll have a sum which will really count when the first college bills arrive. Why not drop into the B of M next time you are passing, and open your child's "Fund for the Future." Ernest Paulding, manager of the Prince Rupert branch, says any member of his staff will gladly welcome the opportunity of assisting you in putting this good idea into practice. (Adv.)

Crack Down on Rhee

THE LANGUAGE used by Prime Minister Churchill in denunciation of Dr. Syngman Rhee's sabotage of the Korean truce was the strongest in diplomatic history.

He called it "treacherous violation" and he said flatly that the British Commonwealth had no intention of helping to conquer North Korea to install Dr. Rhee as head of the forcibly-united nation.

Rhee has later added insult to injury by warning he will use force to oppose Indian troops, if they land to carry out their assignment under the UN peace plan.

But the senile old scoundrel has surely overstepped the mark on this. He completely misunderstands the temper of Nehru's India if he imagines that the Indian army—as fine and brave as any in the entire world—will be scared away by his threats. His insulting sneer that India is really a "Communist country" will forfeit him any last remaining vestige of sympathy in India, which incidentally is the only country in Asia which is successfully combatting Communism without violence.

ONCE AGAIN the CCF leader, Mr. Coldwell, has given Canada a timely lead on this matter. It will be remembered that the CCF was the first political party in Canada to urge resistance to Red aggression in Korea.

That statement might seem premature in view of the fact that the sabotage by the president of South Korea has postponed the cease-fire in Korea. It remains to be seen if the Communist enemy will accept the truce now that Rhee's "treacherous violation" has snarled up everything.

But if the enemy does accept the UN truce—subject to our promise to re-assemble as many as possible of the released war-prisoners—Rhee's nuisance value is no longer decisive.

It is ludicrous for him to talk of fighting on alone against North Korea and Red China. His army of 14 divisions is now a formidable force. But it lacks tanks and planes. It could not hold out for a single month against the enemy to the north, were it not for United States support.

REGARDEE of Rhee's sabotage, there is only one course for the UN to pursue now in Korea.

That is to bring the war to an end, as nearly as possible on the basis already agreed upon. It may be necessary to continue to use force to keep the Communists from driving south. It may even be necessary, if Rhee is determined to force the issue, to drive a wedge of UN troops between the North and South Koreans—even if, as Sir Winston Churchill suggests, we may have to send reinforcements to Korea to make the peace stick!

The point is that we can't quit now in Korea. We have to make the best of a bad job.

ANY impartial history of Korea will show that time after time that ancient, evil man, Syngman Rhee, blocked efforts at the peaceful unification of the country.

Maybe Rhee's rebellion will finally remove Rhee and make unification by agreement possible.

Native Hero

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (CP)—For the first time in 11 years the Transvaal Chamber of Mines' bronze medal has been awarded to a native-born boy, Richard Simelane of the City Deep Mine. He helped rescue 19 other native workers trapped by a fall of rock last December.

THE MOST DEVASTATING FLOOD in the history of Lethbridge, in southwestern Alberta, recently forced evacuation of 150 persons, flooded the city's powerhouse and cut water supplies to less than half of normal. Torrential week-long rains swelled the Oldman river, which overflowed its banks across farm lands, highways and railroads.

EVERYTHING COMFORTABLE

Truman might have spared the Rosenbergs for a few days, but there is nothing today for the former president to worry over, and that goes for both past and future. He arrived in Washington last week, cool in shirt sleeves, smiling at old friends, and making ready to write his memoirs. This will be a happy responsibility, for every president does not collect six hundred thousand dollars.

A provincial election next month and a Federal contest the month after that. We are unable to think of anything special later on unless it's re-opening of the schools.

HARD TO DISCOVER

The Baptist ministry in Ontario fears fewer clergymen. The shortage shows a steady increase. A situation that can be described as critical may be claimed, if anyone cares to read the 65th annual convention report. One of the reasons is that it is impossible to find a parson. Perhaps another is that it's impossible to find a salary.

It's healthy to breathe through the nose, comments an observant friend. The practice can also help one avoid troubles. Non-use of the tongue can give valuable co-operation.

A broadcaster played up Cariboo Wednesday evening. It was his first visit, and if you have yet to ramble through ancient Barkerville and inspect the ancient church and piano, then you must be reckoned lucky. How many in Prince Rupert or Skeena have ever roamed through Cariboo, where they still seek the nuggets? Some perhaps, yet the majority prefer other directions.

Churchill need not go to Buckingham Palace when he feels disposed to attend a garden party. He gave one himself the other day at Blenheim, a stately palace where he was born. Sir Winston was host to upward of 1,000 guests, wearing a grey suit and top hat and smoking an extra lengthy cigar.

OTTAWA DIARY

By Norman M. MacLeod

At the outset of the election campaign the political arithmetic being used by Progressive Conservative National headquarters counts upon a minimum of 17 seats from the four Maritime provinces.

Since at the present time the strength of the PCs in that area stands at 10 MPs—actually 10 ex-MPs, since Parliament now is dissolved—the expectation at first sight might seem excessively optimistic.

But the Drew headquarters contend that actually the estimate is a minimum one. Any factor of error in it, they say, will be found to exist on the side of moderation. Here's how they reach their total:

In Newfoundland they're counting upon a minimum of three seats—the two they held in the last Parliament and one other. They are NOT counting upon defeating tyro Cabinet Minister Jack Pickersgill.

In Nova Scotia they look forward to doubling the representation of three which they had in the last House. Possible retirement of Frank Stanfield won't change the situation in that riding (Colchester-Hants) they say. But they're counting on taking the measure of Nova Scotian Minister "Bob" Winters in his Queen's-Lunenburg riding.

In New Brunswick the current PC forecast calls for four seats at least. The addition to the three held in the last House is understood to be York-Sunbury. This riding used to be accounted a Tory stronghold. In the recent Parliament it was held by New Brunswick Minister Milton F. Gregg. The PC's believe that it's now ready to turn back to its traditional allegiance. In addition, they're not giving up hope in Westmoreland. That riding could end up in their column, they say, depending upon who is the Liberal nominee. The word in Ottawa circles is that it is a toss-up between Col. "Eddie" George, ex-MP, and Austin Taylor—with the odds on the latter winning. The PC's believe they could beat Col. George this time.

In Prince Edward Island the Drew forces are counting on sweeping the boards. At the present time they hold two out of the four seats. But the story reaching Parliament Hill is that the government's recent appointment of Premier Walter Jones to the Senate was an unpopular move amongst the Liberals. Rightly or wrongly, Jones was considered in his own party to have contributed to the defeat of two of the four Liberal candidates in the last Federal contests. The reward to him of a Senatorship is reported to have been poorly received in Liberal political circles in the Island in consequence. PC's believe that this story of dissatisfaction is genuine. They're counting upon it in their hopes of capturing all four Island seats on August 10th.

Thousands Ruin Ballots in General Elections

OTTAWA —There are any number of ways an elector can bungle the job of marking his ballot, and Canadians may be expected to discover most of them during the Aug. 10 federal voting.

In every general election, tens of thousands of voters manage to fumble the task of marking an X, and there's no indication this time will be an exception.

The simple—and only—way to do it is to place an X in black lead pencil beside the name of a candidate. But up to almost 60,000 people at a time have found this too complicated.

Some of the ways they can go wrong: Using any symbol but a cross; marking for more than one candidate in a single-member riding; using ink or colored pencil; marking the ballot in a way that can identify the voter.

An all-time high of 59,063 lost their votes in 1945 for not marking ballots correctly. However, they dropped off to 54,601 in 1949 despite the fact the number voting went up to 5,903,572 from 5,305,193.

Nelson Castonguay, chief electoral officer, points out there is a distinction between "rejected" and "spoiled" ballots. If a voter makes a mistake in his ballot and spots it, he can hand the ballot back and get a new one with the original discarded as spoiled. But if a wrongly-marked one goes into the box a voter cannot obtain a new ballot and it is rejected during the count.

Civil Servants Seek Change In Procedure

QUEBEC (CP)—The Civil Service Federation of Canada voted against "absolute" preference for overseas veterans who want to enter the civil service.

Instead, delegates to the federation national convention voted to ask the government to substitute a point system in the civil service examinations. Through this, disabled veterans would receive an automatic 10-per-cent mark-up to their total passing marks.

The general session voted down a resolution, suggesting that retirement from civil service be mandatory at the age of 65. A number of delegates said the resolution implied that an employee would be unable to perform his duties when older than 65.

Girl Guide Receives Top Award From Commissioner

For the first time in the history of Prince Rupert a city girl has won the highest honor that a guide can receive.

Presenting the Gold Cord last night at Annunciation Hall, Miss H. L. Silversides, district commissioner, congratulated Company Leader Jean Golds for working so hard for the award.

Jean, a pupil of Booth Memorial High School, and a guide for four years, had to pass every guide test before reaching the age of 17.

Some of the badges take a year to earn. For her World Knowledge badge Jean had to correspond with a sister guide in a foreign country for at least one year.

Mrs. D. F. Baldwin, her Company leader, said Jean passed all her tests by May. She reached her 17th birthday in June.

Two members of the Cathedral Guides, Nancy Lund and Julie Prockter, won their 1st Class badges.

Visiting Engineer Outlines Aims of Group at Meet Here

Steve Bentall, vice-president of the Association of Professional Engineers of B.C., outlined its aims and objects at the annual meeting here of the Prince Rupert branch.

Other guest speaker was Jack Merchant, registrar. Both are of Vancouver.

Mr. Bentall said the association was formed to protect the public interest by declaring such persons who are authorized to practice as fully qualified engineers in this province.

To become a member, an engineer must be a university graduate or have written equivalent examinations and have four years of active engineering experience.

Mr. Bentall also referred to the association's objective of uniform registration requirements across Canada. At present, each province has its own measure of qualifications necessary for membership.

The meeting was held in conjunction with a dinner at the Commodore Cafe. Neely Moore, president of the Prince Rupert branch, was chairman. Gene Bartlett is vice-president and George Van Roche, secretary.

The local branch has a membership of 25, majority of whom are engineers at Columbia Cellulose Co. Ltd. pulp mill.

Indian-Yankee Series Renewed This Week-End

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland Indians get another chance this week-end to make the American League pennant race look as though it is a pennant race.

The Indians, trailing by nine games, renew their one-sided rivalry with the league-leading Yankees in a three-game series tonight in New York.

In Milwaukee, the deflated Braves, who like the Yankees have dropped four straight, collide with the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers. The Brooks will play two games.

The world champions have won seven in a row from the Indians this season and they look on the visit of the Indians as a pleasant change from the company of Chicago White Sox. The Sox left town Thursday night after sweeping a three-game set with the Yankees.

But the prospects of meeting the Dodgers in three games can't bring many smiles in the Braves' camp. Brooklyn won four out of two on its last Milwaukee visit and two Dodger victories this time would cut the Braves' lead to zero.

The White Sox waited until the ninth inning Thursday to pull out a 4-2 triumph. Cleveland blasted Boston 15-4. St. Louis Browns won their fourth straight 3-1 over Washington. Philadelphia finally caught up with Detroit after two setbacks 5-2.

Milwaukee went 12 innings before bowing 6-4 to Pittsburgh. Brooklyn swamped Cincinnati 11-1. Philadelphia squeezed into third place by beating Chicago 2-1 while St. Louis Cardinals slipped to fourth in losing to New York 9-4.

Backed by Good Fielding, Christensen Pitches G&A to 3-2 Win Over Hotelmen

Gordon & Anderson fielders closed in behind their pitcher Freddy Christensen last night to hold rallying Commercial to two runs off five hits and win the game 3-2 in the sixth of a seven-inning league event.

Three costly errors by Commercial in the sixth frame gave G-As their winning run after Gordie Cameron had pitched a scoreless game until the bottom of the fifth.

First run came in when Andy Marshall, lining out a tremendous three-bagger with two away in the inning, stole home while Cameron wound up on the mound.

Marshall's was the third hit for G-As. Sunberg also drove out a three-base liner in the fourth inning and Enridge had singled in the third.

Marshall's run was tied by Commercial in the sixth and another run put Hotelmen in the lead the same inning.

An error-free ball game up to the sixth inning, first serious trouble came when Commercial's third baseman, rookie Gus Nickerson, dived in front of the pitcher to catch a pop-up by Hartwig then overthrew to first while Ford had gained with a single.

When Ford gained third on the overthrow, Miner Simundson, Commercial's playing manager, raised the roof, declaring the game under protest. Umpire Cec Downing waved him off the diamond but Simundson argued and Downing relented.

Simundson's protest was against Ford taking more than one base on an overthrow, claiming ground rules limited the runner to one base only.

A double error at first base on a dribble by Sunberg brought Ford home with the tying run. Sunberg, however, was a near victim of a hidden ball trick.

Base umpire Dido Gurvich already had called him out when G-A manager Rusty Ford suddenly protested.

An overthrow ball on which Sunberg had reached second had been picked up by second baseman Bill Gunn and quietly carried to second. Gunn, without returning the ball to Cameron on the mound, tagged Sunberg on a lead-off. But the "trick" didn't work.

Sunberg came home on an error by catcher Herbie Morgan.

Commercial's rally in the sixth began with a single by Cameron but Gurvich called him out on a pick-off by catcher Don Scherk.

Lead-off batter Bruce Simundson got on by a walk, and brother Miner brought him home with a line double for Commercial's first score and tied the game.

Gunn singled to bring home Miner for the leading run.

Cameron allowed four hits and one earned run; Christensen gave up five hits and two earned runs.

Salem Sets WIL Record

By The Canadian Press

Salem Senators made it nine-in-a-row Thursday night for a 1953 Western International Baseball League record but failed to gain on Lewiston Broncos, the club they ousted from the loop's top spot 24 hours earlier.

While the Senators were clubbing Spokane Indians 7-5 for a sweep of the four-game series at Spokane, the Broncos, with manager Bill Brenner on the mound, shut out Yakima 9-0.

That left the two leaders still half a game apart as they turned to new opponents Friday.

Tri-City and Calgary moved up in the standings, however, Braves jumping from eighth to fifth place by sheding Wenatchee 7-6, and Calgary moving from ninth to seventh place after an 11-6 win over Victoria. Rain washed out the scheduled Vancouver game at Edmonton.

Two Canadians Join New UN Platoon of Honor Guard

By BILL BOSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

SEOUL (CP)—Two Canadians here say they have "the best jobs in Korea."

They are Ptes. D. T. W. Smith, 21, and Stewart D. Lord, 24, both of Vancouver. A month ago they traded frontline bunkers with the 3rd Patricia for a lush job in Seoul.

Smith and Lord represent Canada at Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor's 8th Army headquarters where they belong to the new United Nations platoon of the honor guard.

Their 37-man outfit, commanded by a sergeant from the Black Watch, comprises Commonwealth, French, Belgian, Netherlands, Thai, Ethiopian and other soldiers from a total of 13 countries. All retain their own uniforms, weapons, drills and customs.

Canadian battalions will take it in turn to provide soldiers for a two-month assignment.

The two Patricias said "the set-up is terrific."

Their Nissen-hut barracks, they said, "are better than Currie barracks in Calgary," let alone the bunkers of a month ago.

Although there are 34 men to a hut, they said, they have more room than they did in Calgary, "and every man even has a writing table by his bed."

CANUCK UNIFORMS

Their hob-nailed Canadian army boots were ruled too hard on the springy composition-type floors and all parades they wear rubber-soled U.S. army boots to spare them.

They say meals taste better, although Canadian units draw the same rations. "Perhaps it's because we don't use mess tins," commented Lord.

On parade they wear the regulation Canadian army uniform—a clean freshly-starched one every day. They have five suits of uniform—four more than they had with the battalion—and the laundering is done for them.

So far the only change in dress is the substitution on the left shoulder of the 8th Army patch for the Commonwealth division's, and the addition above it of a gold-embroidered flash reading "Honor Guard."

With four different shoulder flashes, his medal ribbons and paratrooper's wings, Lord is a technicolor cameraman's dream. Besides daily practice parades, they take turns at gate sentries, stand guard during air-raid alerts, and man the headquarters fence during demonstrations.

Only disadvantages they note are slow mail delivery and lack of Canadian news. Both are being remedied.

Drew Reiterates Stand That Taxes Can Be Reduced by $500,000,000

QUEBEC (CP)—George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, said Thursday night his party stood for "the restoration of the real principles of... Confederation" and the defence of provincial rights.

Speaking at an election rally in St. Sauveur district, Mr. Drew said his party also stood for lower taxes, health insurance, improved unemployment insurance benefits and revised labor legislation.

Speaking in French, he said:

"I have been, I am and I shall always be an arch defender of provincial autonomy."

He charged the Liberal administration with wanting "to centralize power" in Ottawa, and spoke of his party's determination to resist every attempt further to centralize power in Ottawa.

Provincial rights and financial independence of municipalities were threatened by centralization, he said.

Mr. Drew speaks tonight in Winnipeg on the first stop of a western swing that will take him to the Pacific coast.

Charging the Liberal government with "waste, extravagance and incompetence," particularly in the defence department, the former premier of Ontario, who entered political life some 14 years ago, said it was possible to reduce taxation by $500,000,000 without reducing social security benefits and defence expenditures.

Mr. Drew said he did not intend there had been "dishonesty" in the government; there had been "weakness in the administration and that was understandable after so many years in power."

He repeated the party platform he laid down at Guelph, Ont., last Friday to show it was the same in Quebec as in other Canadian provinces.

Speaking of provincial rights, he said:

"Our constitution is threatened more than it has ever been since Confederation."

"If the present trend continues, our federal regime will be destroyed."

"That is one of the great questions, one of the essential questions, of this campaign."

Speaking of communism, Mr. Drew said the Liberal administration had refused to adopt laws to render illegal all activities of "Communist traitors," but that, if elected, his government would "introduce immediately laws to protect our democracy."

"We shall not permit these traitors to use the freedom they are enjoying to destroy this same freedom."

Rubber Lifeboat May Be Clue To Missing American Laborer

NOME, Alaska (AP)—A rubber lifeboat has entered speculation as to whereabouts of an American missing from Little Diomed Island, midway between Alaska and Siberia.

The Nome Nugget reported Wednesday it has investigated further the case of Cecil Stoner, 45-year-old laborer who was described in a Seattle police report two years ago as being of leftist sympathies.

The Nugget said acquaintances here told of his being unemployed and that he had talked freely of "wanting to get to Siberia." The newspaper also said Stoner was reported to have had a rubber lifeboat in which to make the three-mile trip from Little Diomed to Russian-owned Big Diomed.

Still later reports, the Nugget said, indicate that a small boat was seen leaving Big Diomed for the Siberian mainland. The mainland is plainly visible from both Diomedes, which are about 150 miles northwest of Nome.

The excursion party with which Stoner went to Little Diomed to take pictures of the Arctic ice and walrus had not returned Wednesday. Fog and ice have delayed them.

George Walker Dies at 78

NEW YORK (AP)—George H. Walker, 78, investment banker and donor of the Walker Cup in British-American amateur golf competition, died Thursday.

Walker was the founder of G. H. Walker and Company, 1 Wall Street, and had been in semi-retirement for some time.

The sports trophy named for him was placed in competition in 1920 while Walker was president of the U.S. Golf Association.

The first matches were held in 1922, and the competition for the cup now is conducted every two years.

Garson, Buck Squabble Over RCMP Document

OTTAWA (CP)—Justice Minister Garson and Tim Buck, Canada's top Communist, became involved recently in an election-time squabble over an RCMP document calling Communists traitors to this country, it was disclosed today.

The justice department released an exchange of letters in which Mr. Buck charged that a booklet entitled "Law and Order in Canadian Democracy" constituted a "lying defamation... of a legal political party."

Mr. Garson replied that description of Canada's Labor-Progressive party in the RCMP booklet is both apt and correct.

Mr. Garson denied a charge by Mr. Buck that the booklet was published to help Liberal party electioneering. The booklet filled a wide public demand for "an authoritative contribution to public knowledge of these important problems."

The letters were dated May 27 and June 15. The booklet, a reprint of a series of lectures, first appeared in 1949.

You can't go ALL-OUT IF you feel ALL-IN

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strain on body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's tense living, lowered resistance, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "tired-out" heavy-headed feeling often follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Ask for Dodd's Kidney Pills at any drug counter.

FIRST To Serve Your Every Need

AQUA CLEAR FEEDERS

If you're tired of a rusted and corroded cooling system in your boat engine—here's the answer. Install an AQUA CLEAR feed and you not only prevent rust and corrosion (which ruins more engines than straight wear) but get more efficient cooling. This applies whether you are running in fresh or salt water.

Water from the intake passes through the lucite cylinder filled with AQUA CLEAR crystals which dissolve very slowly. This is carried into the cooling system where it forms a microscopically thin transparent film on all metal surfaces. This film keeps water from touching metal, stops rust that has started, prevents further rust, and controls electrolysis and galvanic action—saves the cost of complicated fresh water cooling. Drop in and see us about it today!

Dollar Problem Up to U.S.

OWEN SOUND (C)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said Thursday night that solving the dollar-sterling problem is more a job for the United States than for Canada.

In a federal election campaign speech on the eve of closing his Ontario tour, he said solution of the problem can come through the U.S. buying more goods from other countries and enabling those countries to import more.

"The U.S. is such a huge market compared with Canada that we Canadians cannot solve this dollar shortage problem of the sterling area and the European nations by ourselves. And don't let anyone fool us with empty promises that we can."

George Drew, national leader of the Progressive Conservative party, had contended a change in government would "regain" the British market for Canada. Yet during the last four years of Parliament, the Conservatives had produced no "magic formula" to increase trade with Britain, he said.

"If they have some method of putting our overseas customers in funds which they have been keeping secret since 1949, then it is the Conservatives and not the government you should blame for failing to solve this problem."

GIANNELLA de MARCO, 8, child prodigy orchestra leader, spends her time with musical scores instead of dolls when she has a moment to herself in her Rome, Italy, home. Giannella has recently completed a successful tour of European cities conducting standard-sized symphony orchestras. Like the great Mozart, whose music she is shown reading, the youngster is making a name for herself at an age when most children are singing simple school songs. The talented girl is slated to make an American tour in the near future.

BLACKWOOD on Bridge

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Humanics Can Be Used To Make Good Decision

Even though you recognize the need to keep a "dangerous" opponent out of the lead, it is not always clear how this desirable result can be accomplished. Today's hand illustrates how humanics can be used to reach a correct final decision.

Mr. Champion won the first trick with the king of hearts. Mr. Muzzy played the deuce on the trick, definitely requesting a shift. What could he want? Not a club apparently, since there were two club honors in dummy and Mr. Champion had the jack. If Mr. Muzzy had the king he would almost certainly win a trick with it later.

So Mr. Champion made a good shift to the queen of diamonds. Mr. Dale now had a tough decision to make. With this shift he had to lose a diamond trick. He had already lost a heart. And on the bidding he expected to lose a trick to the king of spades. Obviously, he could not afford to let Mr. Champion ruff a diamond lead.

What was that queen of diamonds? With the jack showing in dummy, it was not the ton of an honor sequence. Surely it was either a singleton or the top of a doubleton.

If it were a doubleton, Mr. Dale had to duck in dummy and win the second diamond lead so Mr. Champion would have no more of the suit to lead when he was in with his supposed king of spades.

If it were a singleton, however, the right play to cut the communication between the defenders' hands was to win with the ace at once.

Which play would you make? Mr. Dale decided his best chance was to duck the first diamond lead. He felt it was about 50-50 as to whether the queen were singleton or doubleton. But here was the clincher. His right hand opponent was Mr. Muzzy.
