MAYOR URGES SUPPORT OF CITY AIR CADET WEEK

Prince Rupert citizens today were urged to support the Squadron No. 539, Royal Canadian Air Cadets, during the local Air Cadet Week, by Mayor George E. Hills. Hills said that cadets would stage a tag day Saturday to help for their training, the mayor said cadet work was a great opportunity for the boys. They benefitted much from the esprit de corps as well as from the training which kept Canada abreast of advances in flying, both in the air and on the ground. Hills emphasized that cadet training is at practically no cost to the parents, the mayor said this is the one opportunity of the parents and others to assist in the work—"a work which warrants the earnest support of everyone."

Most of B.C. Fleet Switches Registry

PRINCE RUPERT (CP)—Last of the fleet of the Western Steamship Company is limited to sail under the Canadian flag changed to British registry here Tuesday. The SS Lake Minnewanka, which arrived during the week-end, hoisted the British flag and switched its home port from Vancouver to Glasgow, Scotland before leaving on its next tramp assignment. A new British crew is being brought here to take over from 34 Canadian officers and men. The vessel will remain under command of Western Canada's senior master, Captain George E. Miles. The Vancouver company has five freighters roaming the seven seas and the Minnewanka is the fifth to change to British registry. A company spokesman said the trend was forced by high operating costs under the Canadian flag with wages paid Canadian seamen the main factor.

Members of Fishermen's Union Aid To Prevent Violence

PRINCE RUPERT (CP)—Einar Meining, business agent of the Alaska Fishermen's Union, announced he was resigning and the Coast Guard to discontinue the inlet to Woodshed and violence against fishermen. Meining told radio station that opening of the fishery found only 35 boats in the United States—and several hundred fishermen refusing to fish canneries have cut the price. Meining said the action by the operators in accepting prices has caused much bitterness. Meining estimated that canneries have cut the price for fish from 10 per cent but a cannery said it was four to five per cent.

Non-Operating Rail Workers Make Plans For Strike Vote

100 Dead, 220 Hurt In Blasts Carrier Swept By Explosions

QUONSET, RI (CP)—More than 100 men died and 220 were injured early this morning in two explosions and fire aboard the U.S. aircraft carrier Bennington as she cruised along the eastern coastline. Several hours after the U.S. Navy had announced that 79 were killed and 220 injured, the ship's skipper, Capt. William F. Raborn, Jr., told newsmen that "more than 100" were killed. The huge craft came into this port shortly after noon today, its decks lined with tired crewmen, their faces blackened by smoke.

TOM LODGE, 18-year-old English youth, with a guitar slung over his shoulder and $50 in his pocket, plans to take up ranching in Pincher Creek, Alberta. Lodge, grandson of the late Sir Oliver Lodge, first principal of Birmingham University, found life in a southern English village too dull, sailed on a small Greek freighter from England to Canada. He arrived in Montreal and hitched his way west, making a brief stop at Winnipeg where he posed for this photo. (CP Photo)

Coast Guard Saves Crew Of Packer

ANACORTES, Wash. (CP)—A tense battle with the sea by two United States Coast Guard cutters and a tug saved the lives of six Vancouver seamen early today, when the fish-packer Cape Roger Curtis hit a reef and filled with water. The 98-foot vessel smashed onto rocks in Rosario Strait, some 55 miles south of Vancouver. The vessel, holed in two places was finally towed here for repairs. Meanwhile the U.S. fishing vessel Vivian, which sank off the northern tip of Vancouver island yesterday now has been refloated and is being towed to Bull Harbor, B.C. The vessel struck a rock near Godkin Point, B.C., ripping two holes in the hull. Temporary repairs were made so the ship could be refloated and it was picked up last night by the seagoing tug Chief Seagay. There was no report of how many crewmen were aboard the vessel, but all are believed uninjured.

Medical Team Reaches Goal

VANCOUVER (CP)—A medical "mopping-up" team, headed by Dr. G. W. J. Fiddes of Miller Bay Hospital, was expected to arrive today at measles-ridden Telegraph Creek, Dr. W. S. Barclay of the Indian health services said today. The measles outbreak, which during its peak saw 50 cases under treatment, is now under control, reported Dr. Barclay, and the three-member medical team, is expected to report soon of any after effects of the epidemic. The major concern of the medical team, he said, was to prevent respiratory complications.

City Grants $350 Payments For Civic Centre Operation

CITY COUNCIL, at its regular meeting last night approved interim payments of $350 monthly to the Civic Centre for current operating expenses. This monthly sum represents an increase of $200 per month and the grant will be effective from January 1 of this year. The payments will be applied against the $6,000 approved for the Centre by a referendum last December. The balance of the $6,000 will be forwarded to the Civic Centre at the end of the year, should the deficit warrant further payment.

Union Asks Benefits Set at $60,000,000

MONTREAL (CP)—Plans for a strike vote among 135,000 non-operating employees of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways were announced today by Frank H. Hall, chairman of a union negotiating committee now involved in a contract dispute with the railways. Mr. Hall said ballots will be distributed in mid-June and will be marked for return not later than Aug. 2. Allowing time for compilation of the vote, this could mean that the result of the strike ballot may not be known until mid-August. Mr. Hall said Labor Minister Gregg was notified by letter today of the decision to take the strike vote. The decision came in the wake of unsuccessful attempts since late last year to reach a new contract with the railways.

FBI Arrests Puerto Rican Nationalists

WASHINGTON (CP)—Attorney General Herbert Brownell today announced the arrest of 11 leaders of the Nationalist party of Puerto Rico on charges of seditious conspiracy to overthrow the United States government. Six of the arrests were made in Chicago, four in New York city and one in San Juan, the capital of Puerto Rico, a U.S. dependency. At the same time, Brownell placed detaining orders against six other members of the Nationalist party, including the four in jail here charged with shooting and wounding five members of the U.S. House of Representatives on March 1. The other two detainees were placed against two Puerto Ricans now imprisoned in the federal correctional institution at Sanbury, Conn. The roundup resulted from a lengthy FBI investigation into Nationalist party activity extending back to 1936. FBI director J. Edgar Hoover noted in connection with today's roundup that members of the party were responsible for a bloody revolutionary attempt in Puerto Rico in October and November, 1950, for the attempted assassination of former president Truman in November of that year, and for the recent shooting affray in the House here.

Theft of Car Sees Youth Sent to Offenders School

A desire to own a car resulted in Walter Moore, 16, charged with theft of an auto, being sentenced to six months determinate and one year indeterminate in Newhaven Borstal school this morning in police court. The charge arose after Moore took a car on the strength of a potential purchase from Rupert Motors while waiting sentence on a charge of joyriding. Moore was later fined $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty to taking the car owned by Dyke McMillan May 4 on the pretext of using it for business in town. The car was later found near Smithers, damaged to the extent of between $400 and $500 with the accused in attendance. Asked by Magistrate W. D. Vance why he took the Rupert Motors car, Moore replied that it was because "I've always wanted a car." He told the court that he had taken the vehicle to go to Port Edward after a job. "You told them at Rupert Motors that you wanted to buy a car, yet you had no money to buy it. You were deceitful throughout the whole transaction," Magistrate Vance said. "I believe this boy should have a psychiatrist look him over. Maybe there is something that can be done to straighten him out," he said. Magistrate Vance said that he had just returned from a magistrate's convention at which a great deal of time had been devoted to the problem of juvenile offenders.

Special Times Given Firms For Dumping

The city sanitary fill will be opened Saturday nights from 6 to 8 p.m. for seven months to six city firms it was decided by the City Council last night at its regular meeting. Decision followed receipt of a signed application from Rupert Freezing Company, Sheardown's Super-Valu, Family Meat Market, Overwaita Limited, Rupert Butchers and Blain Brothers for additional garbage disposal service at a total cost of $16.50 per week for the businesses concerned. City Clerk R. W. Long explained that the $16.50 covered the wages of an operator at the sanitary fill for two and a half hours and the operation of the "cat" for one and a half hours. The additional service will be charged on the regular utilities bill to each firm every month. In a discussion of the increased garbage services, Mayor George Hills made it clear that if the smaller firms were not able to continue participating in the scheme, the cost of $16.50 would have to be absorbed by those businesses still left in the agreement.

A further postponement was called for yesterday by deputy coroner George Dawes in the inquest into the death of Kelly Wallace Morgan May 16 in order that new evidence may be introduced. The six-man coroner's jury under foreman George Abbott will re-convene tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the court room at the City Hall. That is, he was, until faithful Spot seemed to get other ideas. Now, with a pleading expression and a firm grip on the canine's tail, the youngster's first job is to get Spot to go along, or all his plans will have to be changed.

Introducing Tree Farms

FOR MANY years the B.C. branch of the Canadian Forestry Association has stressed the importance of forest fire prevention as a vital part of the forest conservation program.

This year, in addition to its five prevention activities, the Association is introducing a tree farm program which is expected to pay good dividends in improved land management.

The first tree farm to be certified under this new program is the University Forest operated by the UBC faculty of forestry and officially dedicated last week.

The significance of the tree farm in the overall conservation effort lies in the fact that certification provides a powerful incentive to the grower to manage his land and timber intelligently. Certification carries with it a real sense of achievement and confers on the holder of a certificate a special standing through its recognition of the tree grower's efforts to develop his holdings to their fullest potential.

The movement, which originated in the United States some ten years ago, has thoroughly demonstrated its practical value in thousands of flourishing tree farms scattered throughout the nation. The Canadian Forestry Association and its branches are now putting this experience to good use in Canada.

What He Forgot

HE BRUSHED his teeth twice a day with a nationally advertised tooth brush and a miraculous tooth paste that killed germs, kept his teeth white, and gave him an irresistible smile.

The doctor examined him twice a year. He wore rubbers whenever it looked like rain. He slept with the windows open. He stuck to a diet with plenty of fresh vegetables. He golfed, but never more than 18 holes. He never smoked, drank or lost his temper. He got at least eight hours of sleep every night. The funeral will be held next Wednesday. He is survived by 18 specialists, four health institutes, six gymnasiums and numerous manufacturers of health foods and antiseptics. He had forgotten about trains at grade crossings. —The Baltimore and Ohio Magazine.

Ray REFLECTS and REMINISCES

It's all right to drink like a fish if you drink what a fish does.
 Buffalo Bill was in Prince Rupert last week but no one seemed aware of it. It's doubtful if such ever occurred before. The motor vessel Buffalo was the name on the figurehead on the bow, loading on this coast for overseas. The ship, a huge craft is Norwegian, and Colonel Cody it might be said made a surprise appearance.

Canadians realize he was the original "Uncle Tom" of the world famous novel of that name by Harriet Beecher Stowe. He was, one might almost say, part of the continent's dramatic story. But are our schools aware of this?
 Can you ever remember a time when there weren't some people who were worried about conditions?—Journal of Living.

DOING HIM A FAVOR

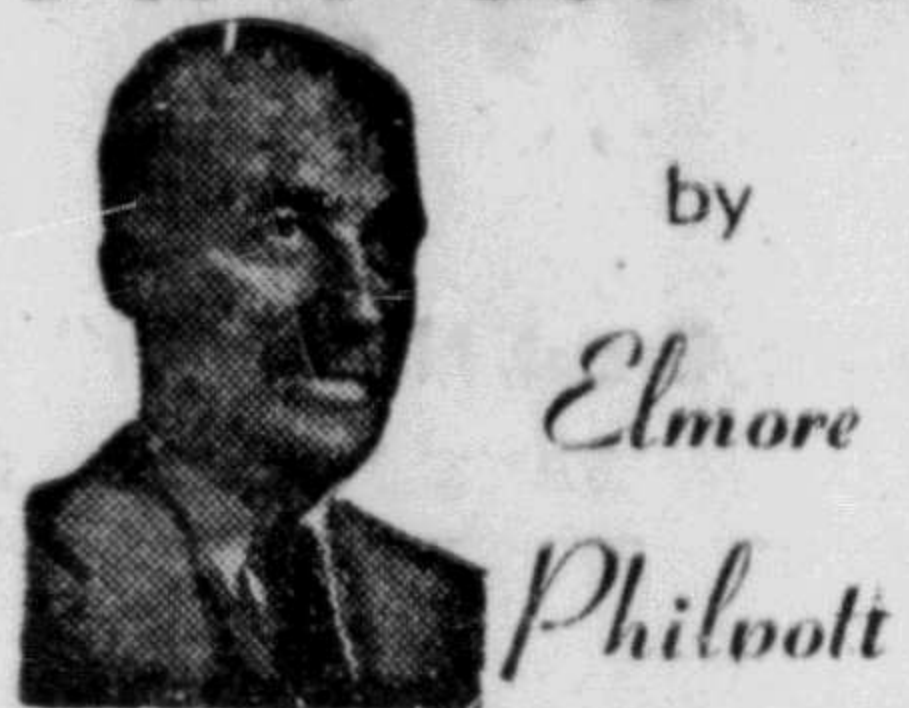

Looking back over old days, there were moments in Prince Rupert police court affairs when incidents could be regarded as unexpected. For example: "Order in court."
 Up rose everyone who chanced to be sitting, and stood for a few moments in heavy silence. Cases were few, and apparently unimportant, but there was one unhappy defendant who wished to make speech with the magistrate.
 "Your Honor," he began nervously, "could you do me a favor?"
 "What is on your mind?"
 "I'd like to be given a jail term for a few weeks. It would rest me, too! Besides, the wife who doesn't like me would wonder until I felt like going home."

SOUND IDEA

Now that what is known as the square frying pan has made its appearance in eastern Canada, the suggestion has been heard that Nature should study production of the square egg. This, of course, will necessitate the square hen and by that time, all of us should be well on the way toward settling down to a square meal.

Kremlin Beware

THE AMBASSADORS of foreign countries rarely turn up to debates in the Parliament of Canada.

Also, they turn up to the wrong debates.

Take, for instance, the speech made by a private member late one night last week, with only a handful of MPs in the House.

In my judgment, that speech was the most significant that I have heard since I came to Ottawa.

For that speech said, as plainly as anything could be said: Kremlin watch your step.

THE SPEAKER was Claire Gillis, who for fourteen years has ably represented the coalminers of Cape Breton in this House.

Mr. Gillis is a Member of the CCF, but he often takes an independent line, as he clearly did in this case. He is a war veteran, and is generally credited with having written the first rough draft of what became the War Veterans' Allowance Act of Canada.

What he did say boiled down to this: The nations of the West were threatened by a new type of aggression, which had its centre, heart and head, in the Kremlin at Moscow. That new aggressive world force was advancing by a series of local attacks on the fringes of the Soviet power bloc. The West should never again get drawn into such "sideline issues" as Korea or Indo-China. Rather if a showdown had to come, the West should pick the place for that showdown. Mr. Gillis argued that a good general picks the time and place for the crucial battle if he knows he has to fight.

A CLOSE reading of Mr. Gillis' speech will convince any student that it has serious holes in its reasoning. For instance, in one place, the forthright coalminer from Cape Breton suggested that in the event of war our NATO forces in Europe would be of little value—easily to be pushed aside by the Russian army. He therefore suggested that at least half of all the Canadian air squadrons now in Europe be brought home to defend America. That suggestion hardly ties in with Mr. Gillis' larger proposition that, if the allies are going to have to fight Russia, they had better hit, at the heart land of Russian power, rather than try to contain it on its outermost fringes.

I THINK that the Gillis' speech is of extreme importance, precisely because it does not represent official opinion of the Parliament of Canada—in fact, it quite clearly does not express the official policy of the CCF.

But it does seem to me that it truly represents a crystallizing idea in the minds of a great many people in western lands, but especially in the U.S.

That is, such people cannot see any way out of the never-ending struggle, caused by the dynamic and aggressive nature of world Communism. There is a steadily growing fatalism in the minds and hearts of people everywhere, that the basic nature of world Communism makes a struggle with it a foregone conclusion.

The very fact that the recent local battles in Asia have gone against the West strengthens the conviction, in the minds of such people, that if we are going to have to fight we might as well fight on the kind of a battlefield where we have a real chance to bring the struggle to an end.

READERS of this column are aware that I do not share the opinion held by Mr. Gillis, for whom, nevertheless, I have a deep respect. I think his reasoning on this question is faulty—and if carried to its logical conclusion could be extremely dangerous, from every point of view.

But it seems to me that the men in the Kremlin could make no greater mistake than to ignore the importance of what people like Mr. Gillis are thinking, and at times saying.

DEFTLY ADDING the finishing strokes to another canvas, Robert E. Coe, United States Ambassador to Denmark, sets aside his official position for a time, to indulge in his favorite hobby. Coe, who told the United Press painting had been his pastime only for the past four years, recently drew approval for two of five canvases, from the Charlottenborg (Denmark) Exhibition committee of judges. The Ambassador, tremendously productive and fast-working, completed this canvas, called "Danish Jungle," within six hours.

OTTAWA DIARY By NORMAN M. MacLEOD

There is a more than passing interest in Parliament Hill political circles in the highway scandals that are currently rocking the Frost Government at Queen's Park.

The situation has all three major political parties strongly intrigued. As the last remaining citadel of strength of the Conservatives, Ontario is a sort of political Gibraltar. If it should fall, the consequences for all parties would be at least considerable.

But will it fall? That is the question that all three parties are trying to answer. A few short weeks ago the gossip was widespread and apparently well informed that Premier Frost intended to go to the country this autumn. It is less certain now that this is his intention. But the whole situation is known to be hanging in the balance, with the course to be followed depending upon the judgment of Board of Strategy which surrounds Mr. Frost at Queen's Park.

Obviously the uncovering of the large-scale contract irregularities in the Highways Department cannot have strengthened the position of the Conservative administration with the province's voters. Some Federal circles regard the confinement of Premier Frost, to a Toronto Hospital as evidence of the deterioration of the government's position. While an old wound incurred in World War I is credited as the active cause of the Premier's illness, worry over the political situation in which his government is involved is also rumored to be a contributing factor in his breakdown.

A fair part of the Premier's anxiety is further said to stem from the extent to which he has been personally active in the Highway Department's affairs. It is no secret here that, while Hon. George Doucette was nominally Highways Minister, Premier Frost handled a number of major highway situations personally. This situation of divided authority clearly may boomerang against the Conservative administration before the present administration is over. Hon. Mr. Frost may have to bear his share of direct responsibility.

Curiously enough, the Ontario Liberals aren't too jubilant over the difficulties besetting the Conservative administration. One reason is the threat of the investigation back into the days of the Hepburn Liberal government, if the Liberals really get hard to handle. It is pretty well known that road contractors didn't starve in the Hepburn Government era either.

Thus only the CCF is really happy in the situation. The Socialists have the feeling that their moment of opportunity may have arrived. And they are preparing lustily to make the most of it. The scope that they are to be given will depend upon the decision of the Frost Board of Strategy in respect to an election this autumn.

Rupert Delegate Set Mayors Convention

The city will build a shield or guard for the D-6 Caterpillar diesel as recommended by the board of works committee. Cost of the shield is estimated at $250.

Alderman Norman Bellis pointed out that the Workman's Compensation Board calls for such a shield to be installed for protection of the operator.

City Clerk R. W. Long was instructed to draw up a summary of revenue and expenditures for the city which could be printed on a flyer for enclosure with annual tax notices, soon to be mailed out.

Showing council members a sample of a flyer printed for Esquimalt municipality, Mayor George Hills recommended that Prince Rupert take similar steps to show the taxpayer how the tax dollar was collected and spent.

"It's good advertising and money well spent," Mayor Hills said of the proposal.

The completed draft of the flyer will be submitted to the finance committee for approval before printing.

Museum Briefs

By JOCELYN BOLTON

This week has been a busy one in the old building but it has taken on a clean look inside. We are very grateful to the Junior Chamber of Commerce for their paint job last Tuesday night.

Also during Monday Mrs. Peter Bird kindly assisted in taking down the various exhibits and cleaning as we went. Wednesday, Thursday and part of Friday the house cleaning was accomplished with the expert help of Mr. J. Kempster and his equipment, and a thorough job was done.

We are now clean and everyone who has since visited us is impressed by the shining pictures, show cases and the freshness of our Museum.

Even though we are not officially open we had people banging at our door and begging to come in. We relented in a few instances in spite of the fact the vacuum was working and we who were cleaning were not in welcoming attire or mood. However they were so interested and appreciative that we were glad they came.

During the week we had an interesting young man, who was born and educated in Honolulu and had been teaching in Alaska. He was homeward bound and enjoyed our Museum. We have many children, some of the older ones being interested in the exhibits and ask ques-

FIND IT HARD to relax in the dentist's chair? Then you'll be glad to know that the dentist's drill now has a rival—a new device which "drills" teeth by means of a fine spray of aluminum oxide powder. They say the new technique takes the "ouch!" out of having a tooth fixed.

Manufacturers in many fields keep coming up with new uses for aluminum. And our research people are often called on for help in finding a remedy for their production aches and pains. Many times the result is another Canadian plant opening up to make a new and useful aluminum product. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

Yankee Win Closes Gap As Sox Scalp Indians

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer
Cleveland Indians might have known that when their winning streak was broken the villains would be Chicago White Sox.

The Indians put an 11-game string on the line in Chicago Tuesday night and the White Sox promptly snapped it with a 4-2 decision. If the streak had been the other way around, Cleveland probably would have won.

That's the way these perennial runners-up in the American League have been going at each other regularly during the last three seasons.

Cleveland leads the league by a game and a half over the Sox, with the third-place New York Yankees uncomfortably close, only two games out.

The Yanks took advantage of the Indians' misfortune to close the gap, beating Washington 9-3. Detroit shaded Baltimore 5-4 in 12 innings. Boston left Philadelphia Athletic in last place all alone by winning 3-2.

In the National League, Milwaukee Braves won their eighth in a row, 3-1 over Cincinnati. New York Giants slammed 22 hits in beating Pittsburgh 21-4. St. Louis defeated Chicago Cubs 9-4. Philadelphia at Brooklyn was postponed.

LEMON'S FIRST
In beating Cleveland, the White Sox not only broke the team's winning streak but they pinned the first loss of the season on Bob Lemon, who had won six. Two of their runs off Lemon came without a hit.

Whitey Ford went the distance for the first time this season as the Yankees ruined Bucky Herris' night in Washington with a 17-hit assault. Mickey Mantle led the Yankee attack with a home run and two singles.

Detroit's long-ball attack ruined Baltimore's hopes of breaking out of a losing streak which now runs to five games. Trailing 3-2, the Tigers tied the game in the last of the ninth on a home run by Jim Deising. The Orioles scored in the 11th only to have Johnny Pesky get his first hit of the season, a pinch homer, in the last of the 11th. In the 12th, Al Kaline singled and Bill Tuttle drove him home with a triple.

Catcher Sammy White turned from goal to star with a ninth-inning home run for Boston over Philadelphia. He had hit into three double plays earlier in the game.

HOMERS FEATURE
Two home runs sewed up Milwaukee's victory at Cincinnati. Joe Adcock doubled in the fifth and Hank Aaron homered. Then pitcher Warren Spahn, who allowed only six hits, followed with a home run to sew up his fifth victory.

The Giant's assault on the hapless Pirates was the second heaviest of the season, topped only by Chicago's 23-13 victory over St. Louis late in April. The Giants scored 11 runs in the eighth inning, tops in either league so far. In the seventh they scored five as Whitey Lockman hit a grand-slam home run.

The Cardinals' victory over the Cubs was a runaway for rookie Wally Moon, who stole four bases. The modern National League record of five in a game was set 50 years ago this week by Dan McGann of the Giants.

FIVE CANADIANS SURVIVE IN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (P)—Don Doe of Granby, Que., advanced today in the third round of the British amateur golf championships with a 6-and-4 victory over Robin Galloway of Scotland.

Four other Canadians survived Tuesday's second round. Walt McElroy of Vancouver met Sid Ball of England, Gordon Taylor of Montreal played Charles Carlow of Scotland, Bob Fleming of Victoria was pitted against England's Malcolm McKnead and Doug Silverberg of Red Deer, Alta., met A. J. Cochran of Scotland.

Edmonton Cuts Caps' Lead; Indians Out of First Div

Veteran Charlie Oubre pitched a one-hit shutout for Wenatchee Tuesday night and Spokane tumbled out of the Western International Baseball League's first division.

Oubre struck out eight and walked six as he paced the Chiefs to a 6-0 triumph over the Indians. Eddie Murphy's sixth inning single was the only hit given up by the righthander.

The loss dropped Spokane into sixth place. Edmonton, meanwhile, shaved Vancouver's first-place margin to two games by shading the Capitanos 3-2 in a thriller at Vancouver. Lewiston edged Yakima 4-3. Victoria drubbed Calgary 12-7 and Tri-City got by Salem 5-2.

Oubre, a mainstay of the Wenatchee pitching staff, was backed by some fine fielding as he posted his one-hitter. Double plays cut off two Spokane threats and no Indian got past second base. The Chiefs got seven hits off Ralph Romero, the losing pitcher, and reliever Virgil Giavannoni. Joe Unfried's first inning double scoring two men was enough to win the ball game.

The normal heavy hitting Capitanos managed only four safe blows off Edmonton's John Conant at Vancouver. Three of the seven hits given up by Jack Nicholas produced the Eskimos' first two runs in the eighth. A pair of singles and a sacrifice in the ninth brought in the winning run. Vancouver scored twice in the bottom of the inning after two were out on a walk, a single, a wild pitch and a double but Arnie Halgren fled out to end the game.

An unearned run in the seventh was Lewiston's margin over Yakima. Bob Williams went to first on an error after Clint Cameron doubled and Al Helst walked. Mel Wasley's single scored the tying and winning runs.

Victoria capitalized on Calgary errors to take the third straight win over the Stampeders. Five miscues were logged against Calgary and only four of Victoria's 12 runs were earned. There were four home runs, including Neil Sheridan's inside-the-park four-bagger for Victoria.

Little League Opener Slated Tomorrow Night

Civic and league officials will be on deck tomorrow night at 6:30 at Algoma Park to take part in the opening ceremonies that will see the 1954 Prince Rupert Little League officially underway.

Mayor George Hills will throw the first ball to start the season and the first game between the Kinsmen and Lipsett's Sea Kings. Little League officials said this morning that all players from the four teams will be on hand and the managers and team sponsors will be introduced.

Also expected to be on hand for the opening will be members of the Parks Board. The Navy Band from HMCS Chatham will be in attendance.

Uniforms for the four teams arrived yesterday. Jim Foster of the league executive said this morning and will be distributed to team managers.

Mr. Foster pointed out that this year the uniforms will remain the property of the Little League at all times. "If a boy leaves town for any reason, his uniform must be turned in," he said.

A work party is scheduled for tonight at Algoma Park to get the diamond, stands and backstop completely ready. A new set of stands have already been built and the screen will be re-netted tonight, Mr. Foster said.

Players not chosen on first string teams will be on the league's farm teams, players' agent Art Williamson said this morning. Farm team players will be called on as spares through the season.

Boys will not be penalized this year for being away on holidays, Mr. Williamson said, but if they are in town they will be expected to be at all games and practices and help farm team players improve their game.

"First string players' help to farm team boys is a definite part of Little League training," Mr. Williamson said.

Final line-ups for the Little League follows:
Kinsmen Club—K. Dockendorf, R. Hebb, T. Holder, T. Roberts, B. Seymour, R. Adams, R. Armstrong, B. Foster, K. Murray, D. Turner, J. Dominato, R. Ericson, J. Olsen, J. Turner, A. Voagen, J. Super Valu—J. Morrison, J. Rosedale, B. Love, J. Jensen, J. Martin, H. McKenzie, R. Windie, J. Russell, G. Erickson, W. Balingier, J. Mutch, L. Mathew, G. Calderoni, B. Main, B. Mintenko. North Star—T. Careless, B. Thom, D. Turcotte, R. Oakey, N. Patrick, B. Kangas, K. Cameron, G. Oakey, M. Wells, B. Kurdziel, G. Maskulak, R. Robb, B. Tindal, J. Colussi.

Lipsett Sea Kings—M. Greene, D. Grantham, G. Ogilvie, B. McLeod, A. Hunter, B. Robertson, B. Mechan, C. Downing, D. Allan, G. Jones, J. Lindsay, J. Keer, M. Fleming, A. Johnson, B. Ogilvie. B. Mechan will be replaced in one month by J. Schuman.

Sacramento had a 7-6 lead when the roof fell in the last of the seventh. Oakland's Art Culti tripled and Gene Hermanski singled him home. Pitcher Al Cicotte was yanked but Oakland produced two more runs on a walk, an error, another walk and a foreout. The Sacs outlast Oakland 15-7.

Stars Mangle Padre Ace
Hollywood Stars have lengthened their lead in the Pacific Coast League race to 4 1/2 games. They beat the ace of the San Diego staff, Eddie Erault, in last night's opener of a seven-game series at Gilmore Field, scoring a 6-1 victory. The winner was the league's top pitcher, Mel Queen, who won his 10th consecutive game.

It was the sixth straight win for the Stars, who three weeks ago were in seventh place. Oakland prevailed over Sacramento in a slugfest 9-7. The defeat bumped the Sacs out of third place.

Dummy Reversal Play Powerful Trick-Maker

The dummy reversal play is a powerful trick-maker. Miss Brash won five trump tricks in today's deal, which is the same number she would have won if she had held A K Q J 10 of spades in her hand, with two small spades in dummy.

Mr. Champion led the deuce of hearts and dummy's ace won. Miss Brash made a mental note of the fact that the trump suit was slightly weak. However, there was nothing in her manner to indicate that she was in any kind of distress.

BRASH "COVERS UP"

Playing as if the situation was a routine one, she led a heart from dummy at trick two and ruffed it. She entered dummy with a low club to the king and ruffed another heart. A small diamond to the king put dummy in again for another heart return and ruff.

The ace of spades was now cashed and followed with a diamond lead to dummy's ace. Next came the king of spades on which Miss Brash calmly discarded a small club. Mr. Champion frowned at this development and began to get a little red.

On the lead of dummy's last spade, Miss Brash discarded a small diamond, both opponents followed suit and Mr. Champion won with the queen. But Miss Brash had the last three tricks with the queen of diamonds and the two high clubs.

CHAMPION ANGRY

"The things that happen to me in this game..." snarled Mr. Champion. "How could you jump to six on a spade suit like that? If you wanted to bid six why wouldn't you try six no trump?"

"We couldn't make six no trump," said Miss Brash sweetly.

"That's not the point, Mr. Champion screamed. "But do you realize that to make six spades you had to find the spades divided 3-3 and the hearts 4-4?"

"You call that a lot to expect?" Miss Brash asked.

Mr. Champion was speechless for a moment. Then, "I'm surprised you didn't bid seven spades," he remarked.

Miss Brash explained that "I bid much more conservatively than I used to," she said.

Australians Preparing for Vote May 29 To Elect 123 Representatives to House

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Australian voters on May 29 will elect 123 members of the House of Representatives for a term not to exceed three years.

Prime Minister Robert Gordon Menzies, leader of the Liberal-Country party coalition, seeks re-election in a four-week campaign in which increased social benefits and communism have been the dominant issues. Opposed is the Labor party led by Dr. Herbert Veze Ewart.

TWO RESTRICTED

Of the 123 members in the House all but two hold full voting rights. The two members representing the Northern Territory and the Australian Capital Territory (Canberra) vote only on matters concerning their constituencies although they have the right to debate any matters before the Assembly.

Most of the constituencies have about 40,000 electors, but there are fewer than 10,000 voters in each of the territory seats.

The Australian Senate has 60 members normally elected for a six-year period with half of the membership standing for re-election every three years. Usually Senate elections are held simultaneously with those for the House of Representatives, but the dissolution of both assemblies in 1951 threw the normal electoral procedure out of gear.

After the dissolution an election was held to choose 60 new senators, 30 of whom held office for three years and the remainder for six years.

The election was held in April 1951, but the new senators' terms dated back to the preceding July 1. Consequently a Senate election had to be held last year, when 30 new members were chosen. The next Senate election will be held in 1956.

VOTING QUALIFICATION

All British subjects over the age of 21, with the exception of Australian aborigines, are entitled to vote provided they have lived in Australia more than six months.

The three main parties are the Liberal party, the Country party and the Labor party.

The Liberal and Country parties have been associated in government and in opposition for many years. The present coalition consists of 51 Liberals and 17 Country party members.

Broadly, the Liberal party represents the urban non-labor vote, and the Country party represents the dominantly farming and grazing constituencies.

In a few strongly anti-Labor seats, both Liberal and Country party candidates are contesting the election. Where Labor is likely to poll well, however, the government parties avoid endorsing two candidates.

The preferential voting system is used in House elections, all constituencies being represented by a single member. For Senate elections, where the senators are elected on a state basis, the proportional representation system is used.

Progress figures are issued at frequent intervals at Australian elections and experienced observers can forecast the result in all but a few seats by about 11 p.m., three hours after the polls close. In some of the big country electorates votes from outlying centres may not be counted until perhaps 14 days after the election day.

Now if we can only train hens to lay eggs that way regularly, just think what a convenience it would be if you want to fry up some ham and eggs. You wouldn't have to reach for two eggs.

Chuck Davey 7-5 Underdog

CHICAGO (AP) — Chuck Davey, who was given a boxing lesson by welterweight champion Kid Gavilan in his last Chicago Stadium appearance, steps into the same ring tonight against slugging Vince Martinez as a 7-to-5 underdog.

Martinez, 25-year-old Paterson, N.J. fighter, is ranked sixth in the welterweight bracket and has 20 knockouts among his 33 victories in 36 fights. It is his first Chicago start.

Davey, 23-year-old former Michigan State collegiate champion with a master's degree in education, returns to the scene of his most disastrous bout.

On Feb. 11, 1953, Gavilan stopped the one-time television gladiator in the 10th, handing the southpaw swinger his first defeat in a rapid build-up to the championship bout.

Gavilan did his job with such thoroughness and comparative ease that Davey was reduced in stature to just another welterweight.

But instead of forsaking the ring, as some expected, the quick-fisted Davey started his campaign all over again. Since that time he has had six bouts, winning half of them.
