Modern Pioneer

A MACHINE will soon go into action on the CNR line under construction between Terrace and Kitimat which can handle the entire work of laying ties and rail. Like some monster with the brain of a robot, it grinds ahead over the bare road-bed, leaving a completely assembled track behind it.

While it is wonderful to have such a machine for this difficult operation, we are inclined to think it fortunate that it has not always been in existence. A vital part of Canadian history was written by the man with a hammer driving spikes into rail ties. He was the rugged, roistering successor to the man in the covered wagon. Perhaps history has colored him up a bit, but he leaves the impression of having been a brawny, fearless fellow whose essential attributes were a big muscle and a bottle of strong whiskey.

One of the most famous pictures in Canadian railway history is that of driving the last CPR spike at Craigallachie. But how could they ever have posed this if all the work had been done by a tie-splitting behemoth with the photogenic qualities of a street-car? And how could the rail gangs of the past have gathered around the pianola to sing "I've been working on the railroad" if the principal character was the dumb monstrosity standing out there in the rain?

Yet the ironic part is that the thing is called a pioneer. Probably we should bless its metallic, cluttered-up soul. Without such a contrivance, rail lines in this age might never be built. But how unfortunate is the schoolboy of the future whose story of Canada will feature pioneers of such uninspiring character!

Who Goes There?

EVERY so often, the press associations carry a story that seems to break off in the middle, leaving the reader's tongue hanging out with unsatisfied curiosity.

One such item came from the Geneva conference the other day. It told how a Swiss sentry on duty at the villa occupied by the Soviet delegation heard a noise in the bushes. He fired one shot. Then, says the dispatch, "the noise stopped." And with that the story ends.

Please, tell us more! Who was in the bushes? Vashinsky? Senator McCarthy? What did they do with the body? Surely we shall learn the answer in tomorrow's thrilling instalment.

—The Edmonton Journal.

Ray REFLECTS and REMINISCES

I couldn't buy a millionnaire. I married an ordinary girl. I couldn't have a mansion, but our own small cottage we have. I live with seven wives. I wish that let in sun and sweet air. We don't have a central heating, but we have a friendly black iron stove, good grub and a welcome for anyone. Neither of us have an education, but we have good reading—and two sons, a dog, two cats, three hens, an extravagant sense of humor along with a love for each other's companionship.—Ed.

HEEL THE CHANGE
Twelve hundred Canadian nurses have been holding a convention to last five days in Banff. If this isn't a first class holiday, it ought to be. Things automatically change the moment you strike Banff.

Trade between Italy and Canada has widened, according to late advice from Ottawa. What kind of trade? Codfish, of course. Where did those fleets of alien fishermen hail from centuries ago, but from across the Atlantic.

Half the front page of the section "section" of the Vancouver Sun is occupied with a scarehead picture of Vancouver. That's all. It comes along every now and then. By that is meant every few days—sometimes more, sometimes less.

Spain's claim to Gibraltar cannot be based on law. She has not only repeatedly recognized sovereignty, but accepted Florida as compensation. Great Britain has held Gibraltar longer than Spain ever did, and the Moors held it longer than either.

Convalescence is retarded chiefly by boredom and despondency says Hal Weir. The patient gets so utterly sick of himself that he starts thinking about death and coffins and such like. That's bad. But when a bright young nurse walks into the room, attractively attired he doesn't think of death any more. He may think about many things. But not about coffins. That's good.

As I See It

TV Messiah

ONE advantage of being an MP is that you can get the new books on loan from the parliamentary library.

One startling new novel, which is causing quite a stir on the book pages of U.S. papers is "Messiah," by Gore Vidal, published by Duttons, at $4.50.

It is written in the vein of all the futuristic fleshcreepers.

Vidal's novel is about the coming of the anti-Christ, whose advent was foretold very clearly in Holy Writ.

HERE is the outline of the story:

John Cave is an undertaker's assistant, who suddenly gets the idea that the dead are better off than those alive. He is a rather simple type, but with that dreamy, hypnotic quality about him which characterized Hitler. He begins to give talks in the chapels of funeral directors. They are along the line that death is not an enemy but a friend, and that nobody should ever shun death.

John Cave is taken up by a couple of clever women, such as one often finds behind the scenes of high politics. But the really sinister figure in the story is the big shot advertising man who takes over the running of the whole show.

The whole movement, Cave Incorporated, is on a strictly-for-profit basis. Within a few months the manipulators have made John Cave the best known TV character in the U.S.A.

Linked to the scheme are a chain of clinics which apply all the techniques of modern psych-analysis such as the Communists have done to secure their famous brain-washed confessions.

The anti-Christ first destroys the institution of marriage, and then gradually is drawn into a total struggle with the religions, including the Christian church, both Catholic and Protestant. Finally, Cave incorporated rules half the world, absolutely.

THE story is told in the first person by the man who was the main "ghost writer" for John Cave in the days of his rise.

In the end, suicide becomes the highest virtue. The climax of the book comes when John Cave, the anti-Christ himself, is

Advisory Group On Education Almost Complete

VICTORIA — The British Columbia government has almost completed the first step in what it hopes will be a method of giving the people more say in what goes into school curriculums.

The names of persons from all walks of life who have agreed to sit on a new Provincial Curriculum Advisory Board, have been released by Education Minister Ray Williston.

The board replaced the curriculum committee of the department of education which was disbanded recently. The committee was composed entirely of professional educationists and the government felt a more representative board should take its place.

About 22 persons will be on the board. They will represent education, industry, labor, the professions, agriculture and other walks of life.

Later another committee called the central revision committee and composed of technical men will be set up to consider how to implement the recommendation of the advisory board. Bulk of the men on the committee will be the technical men from the boards.

worked into a position where he must commit suicide, in line with his own teaching. He tries to draw back, but can't.

But at that point the teller of the story leads his great rebellion and atones in part for his monstrous evil part in the subversion of mankind by a ringing declaration of how life, and not death, is the highest human value.

THE story has its lessons when a good many people can only be happy when they are "blotto" and when nihilism appears in many more subtle forms than the big power argument race, where each side has enough H bombs to blow the other off the map.

Canada Sending More Fighters Under NATO Plan

OTTAWA — Canada is going to transfer 110 more Sabre jet fighters to Greece and Turkey, the RCAF announced today.

This country already has agreed to send 54 Sabres to Greece and Turkey this summer and fall as mutual aid under the North Atlantic Treaty. When all the planes have been transferred each country will have 82 of the Canadian aircraft.

The planes will be equipped with a spare engine each and, the RCAF said, another 195 spare engines will be included in the transfer to each country.

The jet fighters, scheduled to be transferred from among those used by Canada's 12 squadrons stationed in Europe to make way for a newer version of the Sabre, will be reconditioned in the United Kingdom before delivery to Greece and Turkey.

OTTAWA DIARY

By Norman M. MacLeod

There's an outside chance that Parliament may prorogue this coming Saturday night and go on a few holidays before reconvening for the Autumn session.

But there's also another outside chance that it may go right on sitting until the end of July or even until the end of August.

It all depends upon what the government decides to do about the report of the special committee which has been considering revisions in House of Commons procedure with a view to speeding up the work of the Chamber.

The committee's report will be laid on the table of Parliament almost any day now. It is said to recommend—as a result of the Liberal majority which had their way in framing it—that the maximum length of House of Commons speeches be cut from 40 to 30 minutes, and that a limit of eight sitting days be placed upon the usually marathon Throne Speech and Budget debates.

If the committee's report is merely laid on the table of Parliament and no motion made for its adoption, then it simply is pigeon-holed along with other sessional documents and nothing is done about it. Such a course would meet with the full approval of the Opposition groups and the session would have an even chance of closing this coming Saturday.

But a motion for the adoption of the report, if passed, would mean acceptance and enforcement of its recommendations. P. C. Leader George Drew is reported as saying that the Conservatives will hold the House in session until the end of July if any attempt is made to enact the report. CCF Chief Whip Stanley Knowles is quoted to the effect that the Socialists are willing to sit to the end of August to fight the special committee's proposals.

Ordinarily the decision as to the course to be followed in respect to the report would lie in the hands of the government, and in the interests of cleaning up the work of the session speedily, the Government is said to be willing to let the whole matter drop.

But in the case of any committee report it is also the privilege of any private M.P. to move adoption. And back-bench Liberal M.P.'s are reported to be so weary of the long-wind debates which the Chamber has heard during the present session as to be determined to take the matter into their own hands. Some of them are said to be willing to sit until September if, by so doing, they can shorten future sessions.

The reason the Opposition groups are so wrought up over the situation is simple: they figure that, with the authority which the government wields over the conduct of debates in the chamber, any saving in time that is made is going to be made at their expense. They see the possible threat of gag rule in the committee proposals.

Anti-Semitism Dying Out Jewish Council Meet Told

LONDON (CP)—Anti-Semitism is dying in Canada, says Mrs. Benjamin Robinson of Montreal.

Mrs. Robinson, hands-on silver-haired president of the National Council of Jewish Women in Canada, made this statement in an address to the International Council of Jewish Women meeting in London.

The soft-spoken leader of more than 5,000 Canadian Jewish women said the gradual death of anti-Semitic sentiment arises from the fact that Canada is composed basically of two great ethnic groups.

The French- and English-speaking groups living side by side, had helped all Canadians to accept the right of others to be different.

MANY FACTORS HELP

The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, the National Film Board and Canadian newspapers, she said have also helped to encourage mutual understanding.

Jewish Canadians, like all others, have both contributed to, and benefitted from, this attitude.

"Organizations such as the Canadian Jewish Congress, the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews, and the National Council of Jewish Women have supported the Fair Employment Practices Act, passed both in the provincial and federal governments, which outlaws restrictive covenants and recognizes the rights of minorities."

Turning to her own organization, Mrs. Robinson outlined its growth and work for the delegates representing 14 countries.

First formed 50 years ago as a branch of the United States council the group became a Canadian division in 1934 and was recognized as a national organization in 1946.

It now has branches in 15

Canadian centres, drawing its members from 220,000 Jews living in Canada.

Mrs. Robinson said the Canadian council has concentrated recently on mental health work, supporting both the Mental Health Organization of Canada and the World Mental Health Congress.

"Our present program specializes in work with elderly citizens, emotionally disturbed and retarded children and citizenship—especially integration, social legislation and community service."

It has provided 11 golden age clubs for elderly persons, four fellowships for Canadian university professors to study care of the aged abroad, and last year made available 73 Canadian scholarships for advanced study.

Viscountess Hopes to Gain Much In Study of Canadian Youth

LONDON (CP)—Viscountess Alenby of Meggido and Felixstowe has one aim firmly in mind for her visit to Canada this summer.

"I want to make a good impression," she said in an interview. "I'd like to leave behind at least a trace of good will."

The viscountess who is making her first trip to Canada, is vice-president of the 3,000-strong Kent St. John Ambulance Association Cadets. She heads a committee planning the first post-war youth camp for Kent, and she is keen to study similar camps in North America. "I think Canada and the United States can teach us so much in this line," she said. "And I want our Kent youngsters to have the best." She will visit Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto.

Her original plans were to "live rough" in North American camps to get to know the youngsters enjoying camp facilities. However, she decided to leave her program in the hands of W. J. Bennett and C. A. Gray of Ottawa's St. John Ambulance group.

What's news at Inco*?

Creating a fresh breeze a mile underground

Before long, in Inco's Creighton Mine, that portion a mile or more underground will become a hive of industry as men and machines begin to burrow a network of passages around and into the ore.

But first, provision must be made for the health, safety and comfort of the men. Fresh air is vital. So, from the present mine workings, a shaft 13 feet in diameter is being cut straight down through solid rock to a point more than a mile below the surface. Its upper end will connect with another airway to the surface. Through this shaft, all smoothly cemented like a silo, 350,000 cubic feet of air per minute will be forced down into the lower workings of the mine.

Prince Rupert Bridal Pair Honeymoon in South B.C.

Honeymooning in southern British Columbia are Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Brown, whose marriage took place here at the First Baptist Church June 4.

The Rev. F. Antrobus conducted the rites which united Gertrude Loretta Weick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Weick, 217 Seventh Avenue East, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Brown, Elizabeth Apartments.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a smartly styled suit of dove grey with pink accessories and carried a bouquet of pink, white and red carnations.

Her only attendant was Miss

Gwen Alger clad in a powder blue boucle suit with white accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

Attending the groom was Mr. James Hogan.

At the reception in the Broadway Cafe, the bridal pair were assisted in receiving guests by their parents, with Mrs. Weick wearing an afternoon dress of dark blue with a corsage of pink carnations, and the groom's mother choosing a pale blue suit with yellow carnations en corsage.

Following the reception, the newlyweds left by car for southern B.C. points. They will return at the end of the month to make their home in Prince Rupert.

Women Add To Court Says Female Jurist

LOS ANGELES (P)—Is a woman juror more responsive to emotional appeal than a male? Is she more stubborn, more impatient?

A considered "no" is the answer from Judge Mildred Lillie, who should know. At 39, she's a judge with seven years on the bench.

Not only that, she's indisputably feminine - attractive, poised, with reddish hair and blue eyes. Outside a courtroom, you would never guess she is a judge.

She thinks women have contributed much to the courts, not the least of which is sprucing up the male lawyer.

WOMEN AND DIGNITY

"He is more careful of his personal appearance and his manner of speaking," she says. "The end result of women's presence in the jury box is more dignity, more courtesy and more consideration all around by lawyers in the courtroom."

A male might have some misconception about a woman's stubbornness during a juryroom argument, but not Judge Lillie.

"She generally does not permit pride to keep her from changing her mind, providing a matter is logically and clearly presented and she conscientiously feels she is wrong. But women are not easily led, either."

What appeals to women most in the conduct of a trial?

"Perhaps the idea of fair play. They dislike 'finagling' of any kind, evasiveness and deceit. They like a concise and open approach to the problem at hand, and they are hard to fool."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white ballerina length gown of rose-point lace and nylon tulle over taffeta, featuring a strapless bodice of shirred tulle, bouffant crinolined skirt of lace and tulle and jacket of lace with lily point sleeves.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion an afternoon dress of navy blue with white accessories and corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother was attired in azure blue nylon mesh with white and navy accessories and pink carnations en corsage.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Alex Mitchell, who also read several congratulatory telegrams from relatives and friends in Guelph, Rockwood, Winnipeg, Vancouver and Nanaimo.

The bride's table held a frothy cake embedded in tulle, dotted with pink rose buds, and flanked by tall white tapers in silver holders and vases of pink and white carnations.

Serviteurs were Miss Marjorie Tattersall, Miss Pat Mitchell, Miss Ann Petroff, Miss Evelina Boulanger, Miss Donna MacArthur, Mrs. William McIntyre and Mrs. Blanche Grant.

Among special guests at the wedding were the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lawrence of Woodrow, Sask., and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack McDougall of Rockwood, Ont.

Annunciation Church Scene Of Guidi, Amadio Nuptials

The Church of the Annunciation was the setting for the marriage Thursday of Louise Amadio, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Amadio of Prince Rupert, to Franco Guidi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guiseppe Guidi of Rome, Italy.

Rev. Fr. O. P. Mohan, O.M.I., said the nuptial mass and performed the marriage rites.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle-length wedding gown of white lace over taffeta with a short pink jacket. Her shoulder-length veil draped from a taffeta and lace cap, and she carried pink elf roses.

The bride's attendant, Miss Martha Duggan, wore a ballerina-length pale blue dotted swiss with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations.

The groom was attended by Mr. Primo Rosin, and Miss Olive Strand provided wedding music.

The reception was at the home of the bride's parents, 732 West Sixth Avenue, which was tastefully decorated in pink and white carnations and roses. The bride's mother, wearing pale blue crepe with matching accessories, was assisted by Mrs. Bonnie Sprinkle and Mrs. Walter Lahti.

The young couple left for a two week vacation in Vancouver. For the trip the bride wore a grey flannel suit with navy accessories and a grey straw hat.

On their return, the newlyweds will reside in Prince Rupert.

He's changing the nation's landscape

You may see the result of what he is doing in the city's changing skyline — or out where the corn grows tall . . . in the mushrooming suburbs — or in the new look of Main Street in a mellow old town.

Where many a vacant lot once stood, he helps fill it with a fine new school. Where you used to see a structure that was an eyesore you may now see a new apartment house, store or other building he played a role in providing.

Thanks in part to him, many houses rise here and there, or row on row, in community after community. New black ribbons of asphalt tie town to town. Somewhere, a new bridge is built.

New industrial plants, too, are sometimes the by-products of his helping hand. Perhaps one of them has provided you with a job.

And do you see those great steel towers that parade across the rolling farmlands, bearing power-laden wires in their outstretched arms? They may be monuments to this same man.

More Canadians Paying Visits To Old Countries

By JOE MacSWEEN
MONTREAL (CP)—Each year more and more Canadians visit the lands of their ancestors.

Canadians, rapidly becoming known as the most travel-hungry peoples on earth, are expected to maintain the pace this year, equalling or even increasing 1953's record figures.

Shipping and air officials report nearly solid bookings for the early part of the season. Although there was no single event to equal the "draw" of the Coronation last year, interest in travel has not diminished.

The traditional flow is to the United Kingdom and Europe, but a growing number also plan visits to such places as Hawaii and the Caribbean islands.

Despite the tightening in the general economy, resulting in unemployment and tough markets, there has been no corresponding drop in the demand for bookings, officials said.

"In fact, it sometimes works in the opposite way so far as the business trade is concerned," said one source. "Canadian business men are travelling more in search of markets—and so are their counterparts from the other side."

GIVES ESTIMATES

W. Gordon Wood, vice-president of traffic for Trans-Canada Air Lines, said 25,000 tourists and 2,400 first-class passengers are expected to be flown to the U.S. this year as compared to a total of 24,000 in 1953.

Cunard and Canadian Pacific Steamships, biggest overseas carriers from here, both report they expect at least as much business as last year.

Independent sources estimated that a total of 63,000 persons sailed from Canadian ports to North Atlantic European destinations last year.

This compared with 304,000 comparatively small number when the differences in population are taken into consideration.

"Many, many people go back to see the land of their ancestors," an official said. "Often a man waits until his retirement, then makes the trip with his wife."

WAR MARRIAGES FACTOR

Another factor was the marriages of Canadian servicemen to British and European girls during the war. Many of these couples take their children to visit their grandparents, and often the grandparents visit this country.

The Marian year observances in European shrines were cited as a big attraction for eastward travel. Pilgrim parties, each numbering about 30, make the trip under the leadership of Roman Catholic clergy.

One official said new Canadians make up only a small part of the eastward traffic.

But westward, the story is different. More than 170,000 newcomers are expected this year, adding to the more than 1,000,000 who arrived since the end of the war.

ANCIENT PRACTICE

The mosaic decoration of floors and walls reached a high perfection in Roman times.

RICCI JAMES MARTIN, born September, 1953, makes his camera debut with proud parents Dean and Jeanne, on the set of Paramount's "Living It Up," in which his daddy and Jerry Lewis are co-starred in the movie version of stage hit, "Hazel Flagg."

CRASH KILLS QUESNEL MAN

QUESNEL, B.C. (CP)—Herb Foster, 21, of Quesnel was killed near here early Sunday when his car collided with an oil truck on the Cariboo Highway.

RCMP identified the truck driver as James C. Maxam. Three passengers in Foster's car, Henry Teichroeb and Mr. and Mrs. Dahl, escaped with minor injuries.

BLACKWOOD on BRIDGE

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Defender "Reads" Foe's Mind, Sets the Contract

Mr. Masters used a fine point of bridge humanics to defeat this contract. He opened the five of spades, dummy ducked and Mr. Muzzy won with the king. The nine of spades was returned and taken by dummy's ace.

At this stage Mr. Meek noted that the last quick entry to the board was gone. How could he get up the club suit—and then reach it later? He figured he would have to have a little luck—or else some help from his opponents.

At trick three he led the four of clubs from dummy. Now if Mr. Muzzy had played the king here, it would have been much easier for Mr. Masters to defend correctly.

That's where Mr. Meek would have won with the ace and continued clubs. But Mr. Masters would have led off the second round and won the third with his queen. Thus he would have ruined Mr. Meek's chances of entering dummy via the club suit.

Actually, however, Mr. Muzzy played the nine of clubs at trick three and Mr. Meek finessed the ten. Before making a play of winning with the queen, Mr. Masters paused to check the situation over.

Mr. Muzzy's nine could be assumed to be his lowest club. Now if the nine were a singleton, Mr. Meek's club holding would be A K 10 3. And that would give him a total of nine clubs with four honors including the ace and king.

With that holding Mr. Meek always lays down the ace and king. He has a horror of losing a king queen on his left. It would be completely out of character for him to take a first round finesse.

Masters ducked the first club lead, figuring Mr. Muzzy for A 9 or (more probably) K 9. Looking a little surprised, Mr. Meek cashed the ace of clubs and led a third round.

Mr. Masters won this last trick and fired a spade, clearing that suit. There was no way for Mr. Meek to reach dummy's good clubs without letting Mr. Masters in, and he was down on the hand.

Movie Industry Making Gains Against Video

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK (CP)—The movie industry, attempting a comeback after a body blow by television, is maintaining its hard-won gains of recent months.

Fighting back with new processes, better quality in story and technique and more films in color, movies now are estimated to be attracting 5,000,000 more a week than in 1952.

And reports from headquarters of the film companies here reflect humming activities in Hollywood studios, with production at probably the highest level in two or more years.

Technical advances
Theatre owners in some sections, particularly where TV newly arrived, still are having rough going but overall a clearance is well above the post-war low. Noticeable pickups are being reported from areas that have had TV a long time.

Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association of America, says a number of factors combine "to indicate a somewhat brighter economic picture for the industry during the coming year."

These include, he says, the new technical advances, an accent on higher quality pictures, economies all along the line, and record foreign revenue from American movies shown in other parts of the world.

Writing Letters to Editor Lifelong Hobby to Britons

LONDON (Reuters)—A retired army colonel wakes one morning in a crabby mood and finds a butcher's boy whistling as he delivers the sausages.

"Why do errand boys have to make that ghastly noise?" he rouses to his wife. "I've a good mind to write to the Times about it."

A gentle spinster looks in her garden and sees an unusual species of bird.

"Oh, I must write to the Times about that," she says.

Throughout Britain today thousands of people have pen and ink out and are busy scribbling letters to the editor of the Times, or any other newspaper that publishes a column for its readers.

VERYBODY WRITES
The "letter-to-the-editor" habit has been an institution for many years. The correspondence column of the Times is undoubtedly the most famous of all. For nearly 180 years the humble and the great have been contributing to it whenever they felt they had something they wanted to say.

The first letter to the editor was published in the Times in its second issue in 1785. It was from Billy Bumper, who expressed his views on the drinking of toasts as "an easy and pleasant method of educating young men of fortune."

Charles Dickens, the author, wrote a fervent letter in 1849 against public executions.

In 1925 Benito Mussolini wrote

All-Star XI Wins 4-2 In Top Soccer Display

An all-star team picked from the four clubs in the Prince Rupert unofficial district soccer league defeated a visiting eleven from Greenville 4-2 Saturday night at Roosevelt Park.

The large turnout of fans who witnessed the game saw good football played by both sides, and an outstanding performance turned in by Adriano Tamburini, all-star centre forward, who accounted for three of the Prince Rupert goals.

Tamburini, who regularly captains the Gondola eleven, scored twice in the first half and once in the second.

The Prince Rupert all-stars opened the scoring after 10 minutes of play, when left half Rod Tait took a pass from wingman Charlie Mills and managed to beat the Greenville goalie, whose backs couldn't clear the ball away in time.

Shortly after, Tamburini rapped the ball through the posts but was ruled offside by referee Henry Lindquist. The starry Rupert centre forward made it 2-0 shortly after however on a pass from the wing.

Tamburini scored again before the close of the half and his goal brought protests from the Greenville players. Greenville claimed the ball hit Tamburini's hand before he put it through the goal, but referee Lindquist was not in position to see the alleged foul, and the goal was allowed.

Playing downhill in the second half, the Rupert club missed the chance to add another goal when Maurice Bishop was wide of the goal by a two-foot margin on a penalty shot just after the half opened.

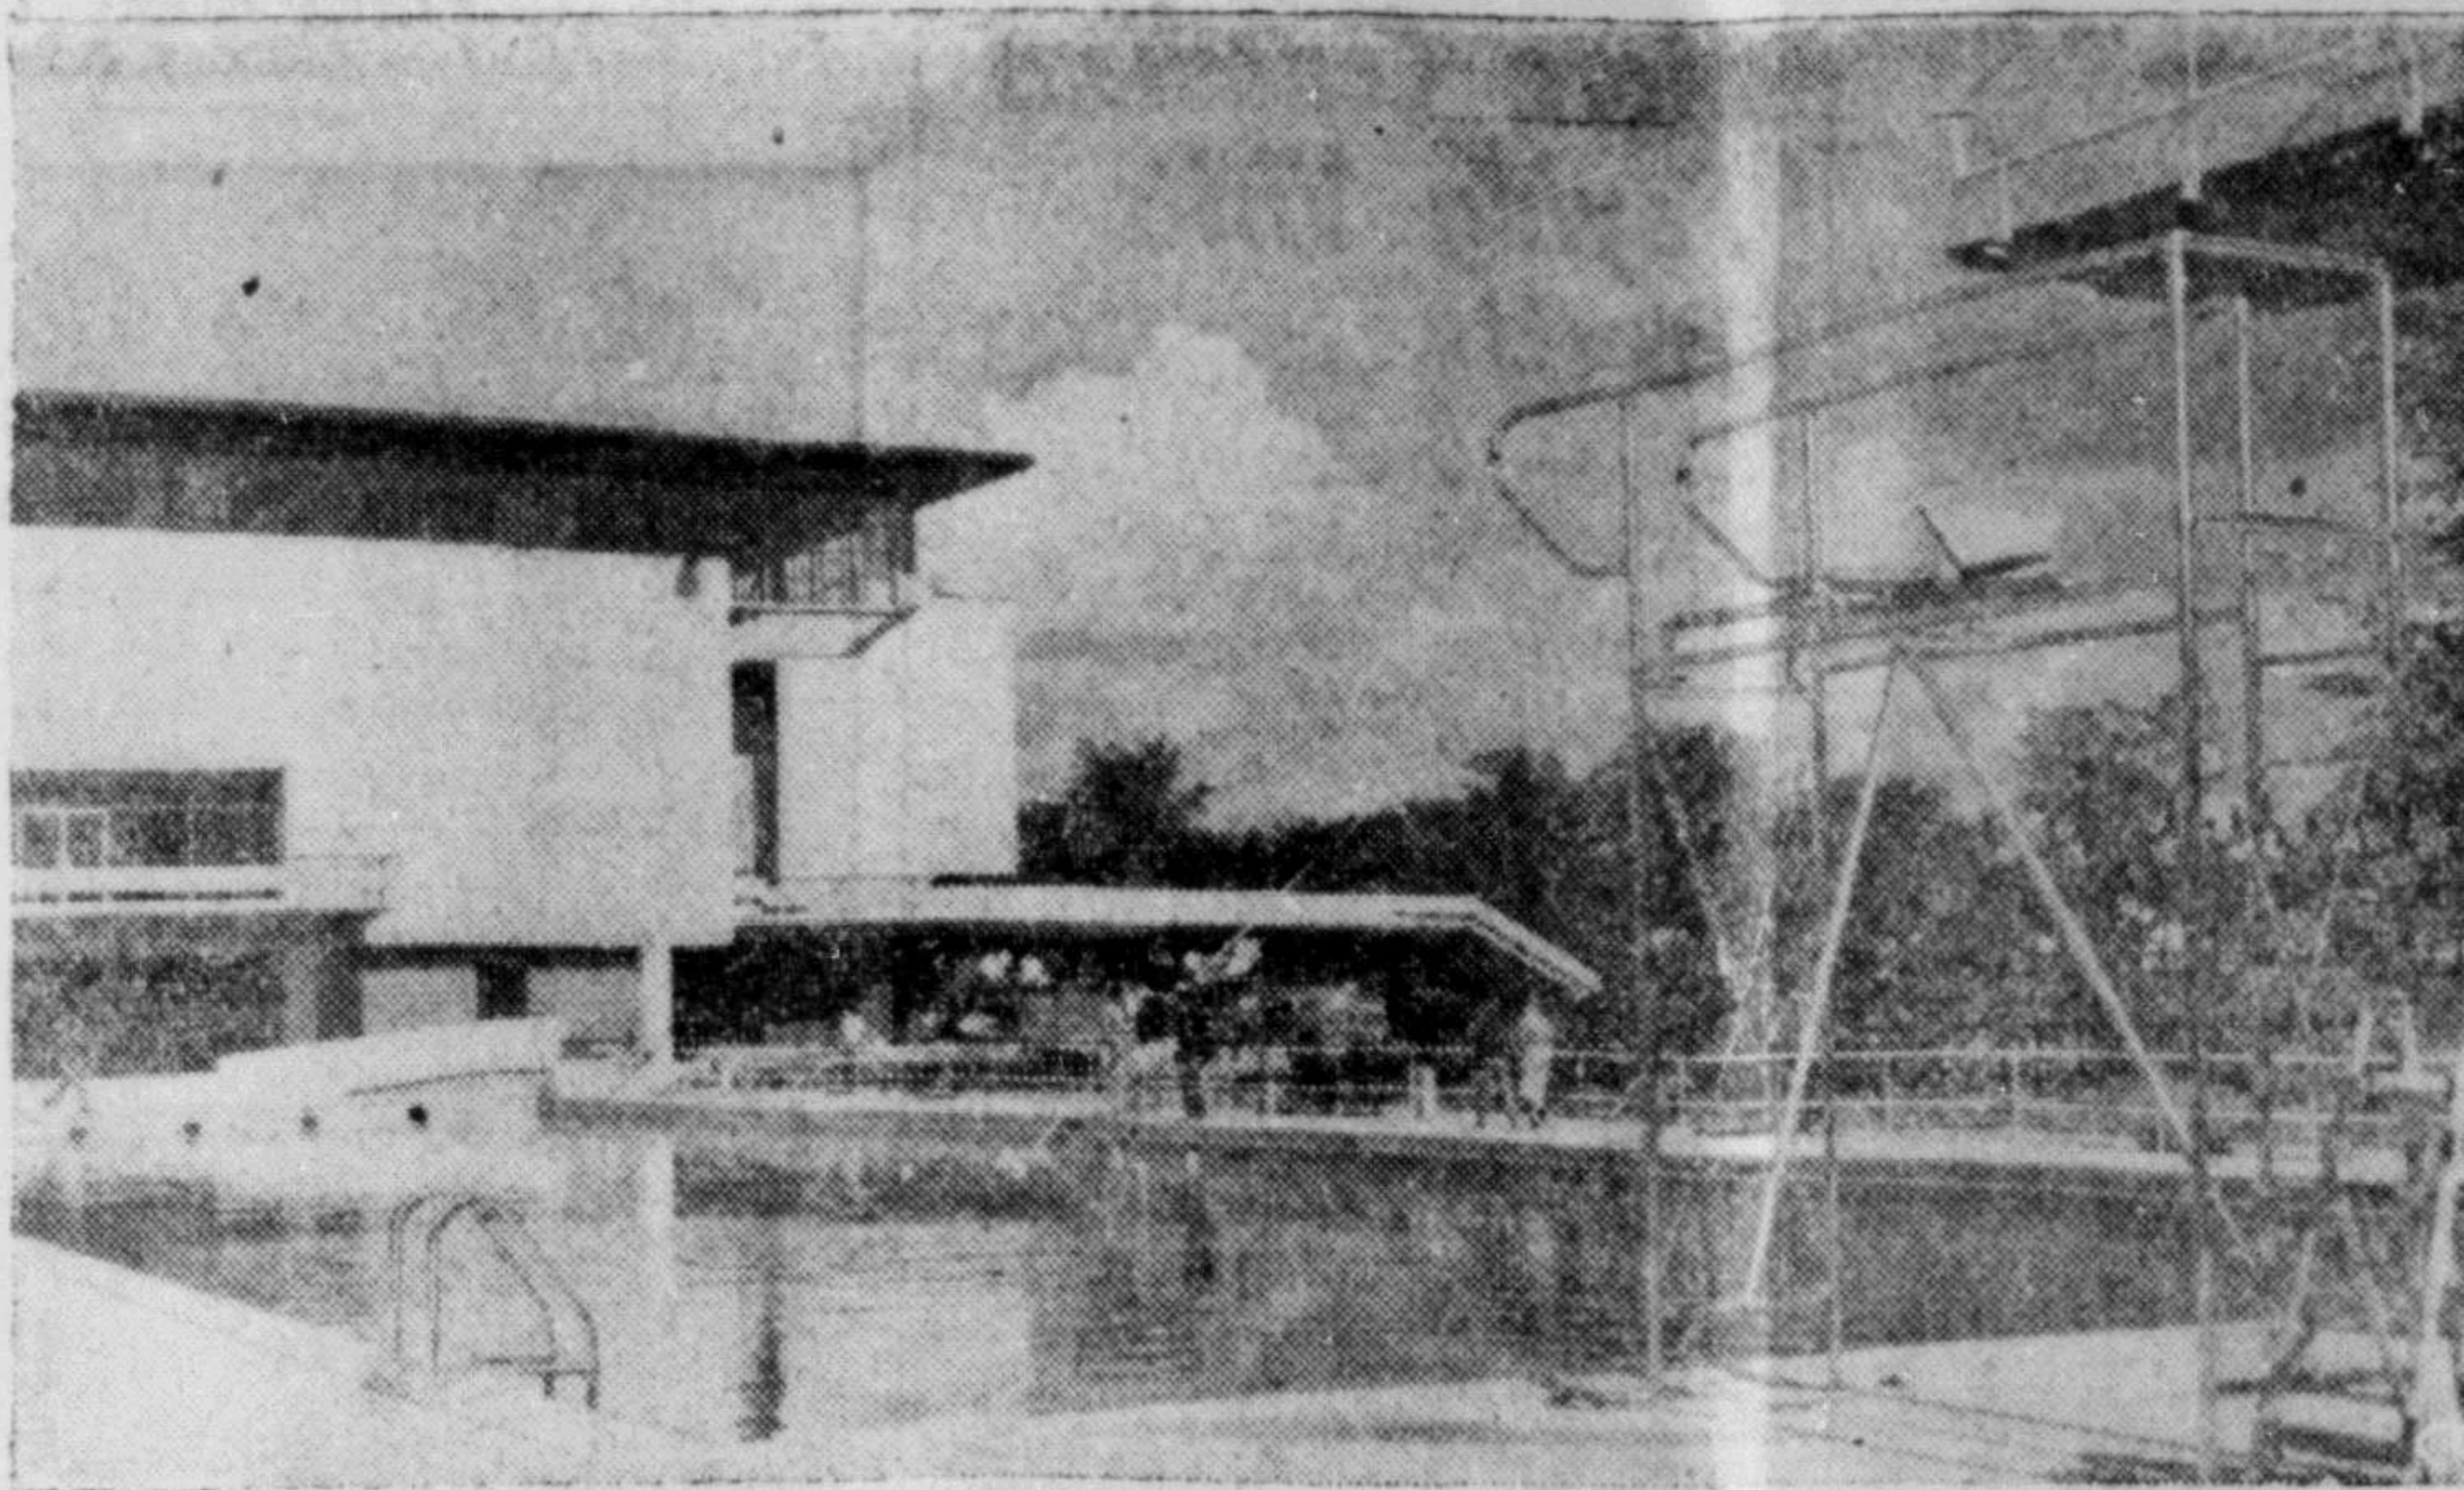

Tamburini tallied again in the second half to end the Rupert scoring.

With 20 minutes remaining the Greenville eleven started a rally and scored two goals within 10 minutes, but despite a hard pressing forward line, the visitors could not overcome the two-goal deficit before the final whistle blew.

Fans who turned out for the exhibition contributed more than $21 to offset expenses, and soccer league president Bishop says that the excellent brand of football played should warrant a return match before the season ends.

This coming Wednesday, June 16, the Pulp Workers Local 708 meets the Gondola Cafe in a regular district soccer league fixture at Roosevelt Park. Saturday, June 19 the game between Port Edward and General Motors will be played. It was postponed so that the Greenville exhibition match could be arranged.

The June 19 game will complete the test period of the four-team league, Mr. Bishop said, and if all teams wish to continue in the league a new schedule will be drawn up.

THE GLEAMING NEW British Empire Games pool now is nearing completion at the University of British Columbia campus in Vancouver. The pool, Canada's finest, will conform to Olympic standards: 165 feet long, 50 feet wide. Three diving boards will accommodate divers from three, five, and 10 metres. Cost is $270,000. The modernistic building in background is the university's war memorial gymnasium. (CP Photo)

Canadian Divotters Go Under Before Strong U.S. Attack

By GERRY LOUGHEED
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP)—You can stem a flood only so long with your finger in the dike.

Canada's professional golf team found that out during the Hopkins Trophy matches against the United States.

The Canadians held off the American pressure as the three-day match play tournament got under way Thursday with a 9-9 split in points from the six singles matches.

Friday the long-driving U.S. team picked up another 8½ points in best-ball foursome play. The Canadians, even with South Africa's great Bobby Locke on their side, salvaged only a half-point.

By the time it was over Saturday the United States had swamped Canada 42½ points to 20½.

The tournament is conducted under the Nassau system which gives a point to the winner of each nine holes and another point for the match. Canada has yet to win the event.

LOCKE DEFEATED

Little Jerry Barber of LeCanada, Calif., the tournament's most consistent winner, blanked Jules Huot of Montreal in one morning round match and Ted Kroll of Edmonton's Henry Martell, the Canadian captain, in similar fashion in another.

In the afternoon, Barber defeated the formidable Locke. Huot again lost three points, this time to Marty Furgol. Martell met a similar fate against Dave Douglas.

Italian Auto, Mixed Crew Wins Top Race

LE MANS, France (Reuters)—An Italian Ferrari, driven by a Frenchman and an Argentinian, won the 24-hour Le Mans Grand Prix sport car race here Sunday, with a British car and an American one three miles behind.

The winning Ferrari auto, driven by Froilan Gonzales, Argentinian, and Maurice Trintignant, France, completed 301 laps of the 13.49 kilometre (about 8½ miles) course in 23 hours, 56 minutes, 26.6 seconds.

Presentations To Be Made At Final Meet

Presentation of pins and crests to members of the Civic Centre Youth rifle club will take place tomorrow night in the auditorium of the Civic Centre when the rifle club holds its final meeting of the season. Also scheduled are two films about the RCMP, one about the McKensie District and the other "Making Mounties" which depicts the early training of recruits after joining the RCMP. Parents and friends are invited to attend the entire meeting.

Charles Not Training Right Says Louis After Seeing Ezzy's Pre-Windup Workouts

By JACK HAND
MONTICELLO N.Y. (CP)—Joe Louis thinks Ezzard Charles is training for the wrong kind of fight in his bid to win back the heavyweight title in his bout with Rocky Marciano Thursday night at Yankee Stadium.

The Bomber watched Ezzy go five rounds yesterday, pressing the attack as though he meant to carry the fight to Rocky.

"You don't go in there and mix with Marciano," said the former champ, who Saturday called Marciano "stale."

"The way to beat Marciano should be to stick with your left and then throw the right when he missed. If Charles fights Rocky like he fought against me, he could beat Marciano. But he doesn't seem to be training for that kind of fight."

Tom Tannas, one of Charles' co-managers, said the 32-year-old Cincinnati Negro is perfectly tuned for his best fight.

Charles plans one more workout, and possibly two, before he breaks camp Wednesday afternoon. His five-round drill Sunday boosted his training total to 143 rounds.

Marciano finished the heavy work Sunday, going two rounds with Keene Simmons for a total of 183 since April 2. He will loosen up with a little shadow-boxing to hold the edge.

"I'm in the best physical shape of my career," he said. "I'm certain in my own mind that I'm a much better fighter than I've ever been."

To Be Considered For Title Bouts

LONDON (CP)—The British boxing board of control today announced plans for a committee to govern British Empire title bouts.

A board official said Commonwealth boxing associations are being approached about a London meeting date, possibly in a month. The official said BBC stewards have been pondering the idea for some time.

Harry Levene, who represents the Canadian heavyweight champion, Earl Walls of Edmonton and Windsor, Ont., in Britain, today said he hopes any committee formed will come up with a ruling on a British Empire title fight between Walls and the British champion, Don Cockell.

Levene recently posted a £500 guarantee with the BBBC—first instalment of a £2,000 sum, he claimed—in an effort to get Cockell to fight Walls. The BBBC said then that they had no authority over empire titles.

Cockell has rejected several fight offers made by Walls' agents on the grounds that he hopes to get a world title fight with Rocky Marciano.

The speculation arose as 50 delegates sat down today for the fourth annual conference of the International Northwest Atlantic Fisheries Commission.

There were reports that an invitation to Russia would be written into the agenda during the next five days of plenary and committee meetings.

Musial, Haddix Combine Talents To Give Cards First Double Win

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Imagine where the St. Louis Cardinals would be today without the man and the kitten? The man, of course, is Stan Musial, the greatest hitter in the National League. The kitten is Harvey Haddix, the winningest pitcher in the senior circuit.

The man and the kitten, combined their talents Sunday to give the Cardinals their first double header victory of the season. Haddix hurled his second straight shutout and his 10th victory as the Cards defeated Pittsburgh 5-0 in the first game. Musial, who drove in two runs in the opener with a pair of singles, snapped a 3-3 tie in the second game with his 21st home run. The Cards went on to win 5-3.

Scoring all their runs in the seventh inning, the Brooklyn Dodgers overcame a 4-0 deficit to edge out Cincinnati 6-5 in the opener and came back to run over the Redlegs 14-2 in the nightcap.

The New York Giants thrashed the Cubs 9-3 and 9-4, breaking through for six runs in the 11th to snap a 3-3 tie in the first game.

The Braves tied the Phils for third place, defeating them 9-5 for Warren Spahn's seventh victory.

Cleveland used the lowly Boston Red Sox to boost its American League lead to 1½ games over the Chicago White Sox and 3½ over the New York Yankees. The Indians' 4-1 and 9-1 triumphs ran their latest victory string to four in a row and slipped Boston into last place.

After dropping their six straight decision to the Yankee 4-2 in the opener of a double header, the White Sox thrashed the world champions 8-0.

The Philadelphia Athletics took two victories from the Detroit Tigers 4-3 and 6-4. The double win moved the Athletics out of the cellar, only a half game behind the sixth place Baltimore Orioles.

Bob Porterfield shut out Baltimore 4-0 after the Orioles had clubbed five Washington pitchers for 11 hits to take the opener 6-4.

Bears, Braves Sweep Games

By The Canadian Press
Yakima and Tri-City swept Western International League baseball doubleheaders Sunday, while Edmonton and Calgary staged another wild slugfest and Spokane and Salem divided a twin bill.

Yakima shaded Wenatchee 3-2 in the seven-inning opener at Wenatchee and added a 10-3 triumph in the regulation nightcap. Tri-City won 12-5 and 9-4 at Lewiston; Edmonton hung up a 23-hit 16-3 win at Calgary, and Salem won 7-3 at Spokane in the afternoon, but lost 7-6 at night.

League-leading Vancouver rested Sunday after defeating Wenatchee 3-1 Saturday.

Vancouver and the Victoria Tyees, who also took Sunday off, meet today in the league's only scheduled games.

Victoria split a pair Saturday with Yakima, winning 8-7 and losing 12-8.

Wenatchee dropped from third to fifth place in the standings, a single percentage point behind Spokane and 5½ games back of Vancouver, after its three weekend losses.

Wenatchee's Billy Waters and Yakima's John Carmichael hooked up in a pitcher's duel in the opener Sunday. Carmichael won his own game in the seventh with a single that drove in the tie-breaking run.

Home runs by Artie Wilson, Bob McGuire and Len Tran paced Tri-City to its afternoon victory at Lewiston.

At Spokane, Salem scored three runs in each of the first two innings of the nightcap but the Indians hacked away at the lead and won the game in the eighth on Mike Durock's homer. John Briggs limited the Indians to five hits in winning the opener.

Edmonton continued to spray basehits all over the Calgary ball park in the wrap-up game of the series at Calgary. Edmonton hopped on the offerings of three Calgary pitchers for a total of 23 safe blows.

The teams divided a doubleheader Saturday, Calgary winning 14-12 in seven innings, and Edmonton taking the afterpiece 20-7.

In other Saturday games, Spokane beat Salem 5-3 and Lewiston edged Tri-City 7-6.

Pony Execs To Meet June 16 To Draw up Weather Rulings

A meeting of Pony League executive members and team managers will be called this Wednesday to draw up rulings for games postponed by weather conditions. It was decided last night following further assessment of a game rained out Friday night. Time and place for the meeting have yet to be set.

The postponed game between Moose and Cyros was started last night at Roosevelt Park, but was called at the end of four innings when team managers deemed it unwise to continue in the downpour.

A ruling will also be sought as to what constitutes a regulation game in the unofficial Pony League. Affiliated Pony Leagues call for five complete equal innings to be played, or four and a half innings constitute a regulation game if the home team has more runs at the end of four innings than the visiting team has at the end of four and a half innings.

Gyro pitcher Walt Osk... had a 4-0 no-hitter going when the game was called and had struck out four of the 11 men who had been at bat. He walked two.

Moose pitcher Charlie Lindstrom ran into trouble in the first, second and fourth innings despite six strikeouts. Lindstrom scored in the fifth after singling, stealing and scoring home on a passed ball.

Smith and Len Giroux came home in the second. Giroux was hit by Osk and Smith and Smith when Lindstrom struck. Passed balls accounted for Smith making the rounds to score the fourth. Lindstrom faced men off-bat, gave up four hits and five walks.
