NEWARK Airport Closed After Third Fatal Crash

Thirty-Two Persons Killed as Elizabeth Hit Again by Disaster

Umbrella of Death Banned—DC6 Crashes Into Apartment in Ill-Fated New Jersey City

NEWARK, New Jersey (CP)—Operation of the huge $53,000,000 Newark airport, called an umbrella of death over nearby Elizabeth, shut down today after a third air crash shot the total death toll to 119. The closure order came even before a National Airlines DC6 plane sheared into a 52-family apartment house in Elizabeth early today, killing at least 32 persons, frightening residents who threatened to block the runways with their bodies.

TEHRAN (CP)—Tehran radio reported Sunday that an angry mob in the Afghan border town of Zabol beheaded the provincial governor and three officials Saturday in election violence. Troops moved in to clamp down martial law on the area following lynchings. It is believed here the violence was carried through by non-communist opponents to the regime of Premier Mohammed Mossadegh. Other despatches said two persons were killed and many others injured at Damghan, northeast of Tehran, when rival politicians clashed Saturday. This raised the unofficial toll of dead in Iran's national elections to at least 31—among the highest ever recorded in the country's always violent election history. The radio report said the Zabol mob stormed the governor's office in a demonstration of protest against the newly-appointed election supervisors.

King Back in London For Last Time Today

Bereaved Capital Receives Dead Monarch with Solemn Mourning

LONDON (CP)—King George VI returned to his capital today for the last time. His mourning subjects paid homage as his funeral cortege wound through crowded silent black and purple shrouded streets. His train, bearing Queen Elizabeth II and her family, edged noiselessly into King's Cross in a downpour of rain and sleet at 2:45 p.m. after private funeral service at Sandringham, where he died Wednesday.

Despite the drenching, thousands lined the three-mile route to Westminster Hall where the body of the late monarch will lie in state until burial at Windsor Friday.

Windows all along the route, many engaged by enterprising rental agencies, were crowded and many spectators on the streets held umbrellas.

The black-veiled young Queen, now head of the Royal Family at 25, stood by as Grenadier Guardsmen lifted the oak coffin from the black hearse coach. She was pale and drawn but hiding her grief.

The Queen Mother Elizabeth, Princess Margaret, Duke of Edinburgh and the king's brother, Duke of Gloucester, rode from London to Sandringham with the Queen in her limousine, just behind the car which bore the coffin.

Just before the royal party stepped from the train, a royal attendant in top hat climbed into the hearse coach and placed the Imperial Crown with its 3,094 jewels on the King's casket.

The Queen and women of her party did not wait to follow the procession in its slow progress to Westminster but left at once by limousine for Buckingham Palace.

HUSH PREVAILS

Guardsmen carried the casket across the scarlet platform to the horse drawn gun carriage amid a hush.

The silence was broken only by the escape of steam from the royal engine and commands of officers of Navy, Army, Air Force to guards of honor standing by.

The Dukes of Edinburgh and Gloucester, wearing long black coats and high silk hats, walked slowly across the platform and took up positions just behind the green and mahogany gun carriage. At the command of an honor guard officer, the cortege moved out past thousands, many of whom had waited in the chill drizzle for hours, some all through the night.

Six bay horses of the King's troop of Royal Horse Artillery pulled the caisson past the silent throngs.

Headless of wind and rain, the Duke of Edinburgh doffed his hat and walked bareheaded behind the gun carriage in the procession as it moved toward Westminster. The Duke of Gloucester was bareheaded too. Behind them trudged black-coated officials of the Royal Household.

The body of the 56-year-old monarch lay in state mid simple surroundings of the country church of St. Mary Magdalene at Sandringham until this morning to enable neighbors to pay their tribute.

Skirling bagpipes sorrowfully bade the King farewell at Sandringham as a gun carriage took the body two miles over country roads to nearby Wolferton station for the last journey to London. Every station along the 103-mile route to London was closed.

United States' Greatest Jet Ace Killed in Korea

TOKYO (CP)—Major George A. Davis, greatest United States jet ace, was shot down over Korea's "MIG Alley" and presumably killed Sunday, after bringing down two more Communist MIG 15's in his battle, the Far East Air Force announced.

Davis had a total record of 21 jet kills—11 MIGs and eight bombers in Korea and Japan during World War II.

Run-Off Normal

Dominion Water Branch Does Not Predict Floods This Year

VANCOUVER — Dominion Water Branch, in a preliminary survey, estimates that the spring run-off this year should be average. No serious floods are predicted. However, there will be another survey later in the spring.

On the coast and the western part of the province snow conditions are about normal in the mountains. In the eastern part of the province there is more snow.

Seven Die in War Practice

CAMP DRUM, N.Y. — Seven service men were killed Sunday in crashes that marred the army air force winter maneuvers at this sprawling encampment in northern New York.

Nineteen others were injured in the full scale practice warfare.

The crash of a twin-engine Air Force plane took four lives.

Three airmen were killed when a C-46 Curtiss Commando plummeted to the ground immediately after taking off from the Wheeler-Sack airfield with 32 paratroopers of the 11th airborne division aboard.

The fourth died several hours later in camp hospital.

Two were killed in a collision between a New York Central railroad train and a troop-loaded truck at a grade crossing. Five were injured in this accident.

One paratrooper was killed in a jump and nine other paratroopers suffered jump injuries.

The Boys Killed in Crash of Cessna Sunday

VICTORIA — Gerry Ralph, an 18-year-old Victoria Flying Club member, and his passenger, Fred Roberts, 17, were killed Saturday afternoon after taking off from a light plane from the Patricia Bay airport near here.

Witnesses said the plane, after several, making short circuits around the airport, suddenly plunged straight down from several hundred feet. It hit a ploughed field with a few hundred yards of the crop, burying much of the plane. Both pilot and passenger were killed.

The plane was the Cessna-120.

Canada's Biggest Girder Loaded

MONTREAL — The largest steel girder ever made in Canada was loaded at the week-end on three flat cars for shipment over Canadian National lines, from Lachine, Que., to Hamilton, Ont.

Measuring 112 feet long and 12 feet, three inches high, the 86-ton giant is one of 14 being fabricated at the Lachine plant of Dominion Bridge Company Limited. They will form part of a new open hearth shop being erected at Hamilton to increase Canada's steel output.

Loading operations were carried out by two 60-ton cranes which lowered the girder on two of CNR's new depressed centre flat cars with an idler car in the middle.

The 14 girders are being fabricated at the rate of one per week with the last scheduled for shipment in mid-April.

CBC Closing Down Friday

TORONTO — Canadian Broadcasting network will close down on Friday, the day of the King's funeral, except to carry the service from London at 11 a.m. with a re-broadcast at 6 o'clock in the evening followed by a brief news broadcast.

HALIFAX (CP) — Nova Scotia school teachers' demands for higher wages have threatened to mushroom into the first province-wide strike of its kind in Canadian history.

STEAMER ALLOWED TO PROCEED AFTER RANSOM PAID

HONG KONG (CP) — Armed pirates attacked the 3,560-ton British steamer Wing Sang off the China coast today and held a United States diplomat and British master for $10,000 ransom.

Messages received here tonight by the British Navy said the ransom had been paid and the vessel proceeded.

The Wing Sang was enroute to Keelung on the north tip of Formosa from Hong Kong.

The Keelung radio station said the vessel's position was near Communist held Amoy.

RCMP Lauds Behavior Of Indians

VICTORIA — British Columbia Indians Saturday got a pat on the back from provincial authorities for general good behaviour since the province relaxed its liquor restrictions against them last December.

There was a brief period of trouble following lifting of legal barrier that prevented the Indians from drinking in beer parlors.

Shortly before Christmas, the RCMP made mass arrests for drunkenness, at Williams Lake and Smithers.

The Minister of Labor, John Gages, who has charge of Indian affairs in British Columbia, said Saturday there is no cause for concern. There had been no great over all increase in the number of Indian Act convictions.

"The Indians are trying their best to be good citizens," he said. "The RCMP at Alert Bay have formed their own council to keep an eye on the bad boys."

Avalanche Kills Nineteen Skiers

VIENNA — Nineteen skiers were killed and ten injured today when a huge avalanche buried an alpine hut near the Arlberg Pass, a news agency said.

Twenty other persons in the hut were dug out from the snow mass by mountain rescue squads. Most of the dead and injured were German skiers.

Speeding Up on Cargo Handling

To facilitate freight handling in this port, Union Steamships are inaugurating the "palette board" system of transferring freight from vessel to dock. Widely used in Vancouver and American ports, principal feature of the system is less manual handling. "We feel we may reduce breakage claims in half by this system," says Frank Skinner, company agent here. Freight is taken out of ships' holds, loaded on boards which sit several inches above the decks. When slung on to the wharf, the fork loader is used to pick up the entire load in one trip for further conveyance.

Roosevelt Park

SOME six years ago when the Roosevelt Park naming idea was mooted and before the city undertook improvements and special financing undertakings in connection therewith, the Daily News questioned the efficacy of the scheme and suggested that it might possibly fail of satisfactory consummation. Nevertheless, we talked of ambitious plans and decided to take it on. But, as we feared, Roosevelt Park is today little more than a wind-swept barren, certainly no creditable memorial to the man who in our postwar enthusiasm we set out to honor. In fact, Prince Rupert people must feel a little ashamed when they take American visitors, who come in large numbers every summer, to see the cairn we put up in honor of their President and the scenic prospect from the highest point of land on Prince Rupert's townsite.

Doubtless, Roosevelt Park is adaptable to attractive large school park planning if enough money could be found for such adequate development and maintenance thereafter. But we very much doubt if, in view of our many other needs, we are going to have the money for many years to come. Further, it is doubtful if it would ever be of so great value as a recreational utility to the people of the city.

Certainly as a sports field or stadium site, it is not very practicable, its very elevation being a handicap which has often been pointed out even by the sporting interests themselves who consider it desirable that there should be a more centrally located and less lofty venue. The same height also makes it undesirable as a recreational centre for children. We may be getting lazier but it certainly is to be observed that people don't climb Acropolis Hill any more like they used to and that despite the fact that there is larger population in the community.

Meantime, the city has been imposing a one mill tax rate for the past three years earmarked for Roosevelt Park development purposes. There is a fund of about $12,000 now and another two years will bring it up possibly another $10,000. It is obvious that the fund could only be a drop in the bucket towards an effective contribution to the park development. Therefore, there seems to be considerable force to the idea that was suggested when the 1952 Parks Board met for the first time that some means should be found of releasing the fund from the Roosevelt Park commitment and make it available for more practicable, if less esthetic or sentimental, use in other and more accessible parts of the city.

With the fund now earmarked for Roosevelt Park by a money bylaw which originally authorized it, the moneys, of course, could not be converted without another reference for approval of such conversion. The Daily News thinks the citizens might well feel differently about Roosevelt Park today and that they should be given the opportunity of telling whether they may not feel disposed to change their minds. Meantime the accrued fund could be conserved pending such a new expression of opinion which could be recorded on the next occasion the electors are called to the municipal polls on some other matter.

The impracticability of the whole Roosevelt Park improvement idea seems now to have become pretty well established through the very fact that nothing has been done about it. The money could, we believe, be used to good and immediate advantage in the development of a new sports field—Algoma Park is being suggested a good deal—and lesser parks and playground projects elsewhere in the city.

Awakening of Church

St. Paul's Lutheran Church opened a revival campaign yesterday with well attended services to hear Pastor Sterling Johnson of Camrose, Alberta.

Services brought two very challenging messages from the Word of God, emphasizing the need of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

The evening message was based on Revelations 3:14 referring to the lukewarmness of the churches at Laodicea.

There were two charges against them:

Sleeping—They were not on the job. Because of their indifference toward God, they were not able to see the world with a spiritual eye. They did not have any compassion for perishing souls.

Compromising—They were not willing to come out and separate themselves from the world and live all out for Christ.

They were in need of Christ's righteousness, peace and joy. Christ's holiness and purity. They were in need of a spiritual vision that they might realize that the world is in need of Christ.

Christ's nearness was referred to "Behold I stand at the door and knock."

Pastor Johnson continues his services nightly throughout the coming ten days.

Bells Toll for UN?

SOME of the European papers are predicting the end of UN as a result of the unsatisfactory results of the Assembly meeting in Paris.

Sagittarius, who writes such clever poetry in the London New Statesman and Nation, has produced her most powerful poem in several years. She "hears the tolling of the bells, UN bells," and warns that the tolling of the UN bells would be the tolling of the bells for you and me, and ordinary people everywhere.

My own view is that the next year or two will finally make or break UN. If it breaks, the chances of averting a third world war will be drastically less than they are now. But I don't hear the tolling of the bells for UN, not yet, anyway.

THE MOST significant development at Paris was, not only the revolt of the smaller powers against the Big Two, but the even more significant indications from the British Commonwealth of nations, and western Europe that they find United States leadership increasingly hard to follow.

The United States took its first outright defeat in the history of the UN when the political committee voted for the "package" admission of the 14 rejected applicants for membership in the UN.

This defeat for the U.S. was not final, for in the subsequent vote in the plenary assembly the package admission plan failed to pass by the necessary two-thirds majority. But nobody in the U.S. state department could be dense enough to fail to see the point. For the revolt against U.S. leadership on this point was started by a Latin American country. It was supported by all the Asian, Arab and African countries. The British Commonwealth countries "abstained" from voting—but the inference was obvious.

IT IS ABSURD for the United States to bar the admission into UN of Hungary, Bulgaria, Albania, Rumania and Mongolia. These countries are, of course, Soviet satellites—just as much as Cuba and the Philippines are U.S. satellites. Indeed if all satellites were banned or expelled from the UN there would only be two countries left—for however we may try to blink the fact all the rest of our nations, in varying degrees, subordinate to either Uncle Sam or Uncle Joe.

It is even more absurd for the Soviet to bar Italy, Austria, Ireland, Portugal, Finland, Libya, Ceylon and Nepal.

But in this case Uncle Sam's orneryness seems just a little harder to take than Uncle Joe's. For of the 14 countries waiting for admission, nine would surely vote with Uncle Sam and only five with Uncle Joe. Hence even Uncle Sam's smaller supporters cannot see the point in arguing, year after year, on this log-jamming question.

FOR YEARS back the Secretary General of the UN, Trygve Lie, has strongly urged the principal of universal membership in UN. At the moment he urges the package admission of the whole 14 rejected applicants.

In the end, if the UN survives at all, not only the above unaccepted nations will have to be admitted, but so will Japan, Ger-

LETTERBOX

S.C. OPPORTUNITY

Editor,
Daily News,
Social Credit offers the greatest opportunity ever held out to the children of men, and will so improve living conditions that any people first to apply it, will be leaders out of our economic difficulties and first to experience unprecedented prosperity, happiness and independence.

It will supply purchasing power (money) free from debt, free from interest, created and issued from your and my credit (value) to buy all the goods and services of the nation. Wipe out taxation and the necessity of borrowing and paying interest! Encourage all production! Perfect the standard of living! Wipe out unemployment! Make bank robbery and all underhand schemes useless and non-attractive, uninteresting! Every undertaking physically possible will be financially possible. Money will be the financial means provided to carry out all ventures! All national, provincial, municipal, city and hamlet and town debt will be paid. Why not? Learn how and when Canada and also United States signed away their right to issue money to the chartered banks.

In 1791 Alexander Hamilton prevailed on the Congress of the United States to pass a bill granting a charter to a group of bankers for what was termed the "First Bank of the United States." This charter gave the banks a right to "issue" notes or paper money. When the bill was presented to President George Washington for his signature, Thomas Jefferson pleaded with the President in an effort to show that the bill was not only a violation of the Constitution but was also inconsistent with the principles of democracy.

Jefferson said: "If the American people ever allow the private banks to control the issue of the currency, first by inflation, then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them will deprive the people of all property until their children will wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered."

President Washington hesitated a long time before he signed but Hamilton had some kind of strange influence over him like Harry Morganthau had over President Roosevelt. In the end the bill was made law.

We are not in possession of any record where anyone fiercely objected to surrender of this power by Canadian Parliament which it did in 1871 and the pattern followed in United States was also followed more or less closely in Canada until 1934 and 1935 when William Aberhart of Alberta championed the fight to return this long lost blessing of the issue of money to the people of Canada, first endeavoring to set his own province right.

Alberta's MLA's and Members of Parliament are constantly endeavoring to impress on both Ottawa and all of the provinces the inestimable hardship our leaders handed down to us when they signed away rights to issue the nation's currency.

Think of the billions of dollars the people of both countries have been compelled to pay as interest (hire) on money created from their own credit. To enjoy National Social Credit will require that candid, energetic people wake up to their responsibility and opportunity and form study groups, call conventions, select representatives for both provincial and federal seats.

Scatter the idea: "Knowledge is power."

Churches Mourn King

Special Service of Respect At Passing of Monarch

While the community service will take place at the Civic Centre on the morning of this Friday, Prince Rupert churches had memorial services of appropriate reference yesterday for the late King George VI.

The British monarch is the titular head of two churches—the Anglican Church and the Presbyterian Church of Scotland.

In St. Andrew's Cathedral, Rt. Rev. James B. Gibson preached an appropriate sermon. The loss of a great and good man, who had won affection, esteem and admiration of all of his subjects, was felt as a personal loss. His death left more than an "empty throne." It left an "empty family chair." Due and fitting reference was also made to the new Queen.

Rev. Dr. E. A. Wright conducted his memorial service at First Presbyterian Church last night and preached in appropriate theme, paying tribute to the splendid characteristics of an exemplary ruler whose passing was deplored by all people of the Commonwealth.

In First United Church, Rev. L. G. Sieber told in the morning of personal impressions of the King's visit to Calgary in 1939. "Here was a man," said Shakespeare had said, could rightfully be applied to George VI. Here, indeed, the greatness of quiet simplicity and devotion to duty was exemplified.

Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs color parties attended some of the services.

Escaped Death In Bus Crash

HAMILTON (CP)—An inter-urban bus, skidding on icy pavement, ran off the highway into a 100-foot-deep ravine here Saturday.

Two persons were injured severely and at least eight others suffered minor hurts.

No one was killed. The bus toppled on its right side at the bottom of the ravine and broke in two.

Reflects and Reminisces

Some chisel out a career, others just chisel.

At the moment, says the Province, Canada has no city, town, post office or railroad whistle-stop bearing the name "Elizabeth." But there are seven geographic features in British Columbia. All the points are in the coastal area, well to the north of Vancouver. One is just northeast of Porcher Island and another is on the east coast of Digby Island. Also let it be remembered, in Prince Rupert is that new apartment block on First Avenue known as "Elizabeth."

Thus, Mr. Lawyer, from now on it will be "QC" instead of "KC."

An Ontario resident, Mr. Burton, who spent his boyhood in Dawson more than half a century ago, has been giving Sunday evening broadcasts lately. He could remember the days of '98, and succeeding generations out west like to hear them described, as he has shown himself capable of doing. When he was a playboy kid, Dawson had a population of 40,000, and it has since dropped to about 800. Yet, what tales can't be told about the world-famed camp, be it hours or faded out, "way up there."

A market feature, of late, been a decline in the price of meats. It made interesting, anxiety-compelling news. Sometimes sudden changes are advisable, where cash is needed. Anyway, we always prefer t-bone to stewed tripe.

Living in Elizabeth, New Jersey, U.S.A., is becoming a serious business. Last December plane crash, between flames and injuries, cost fifty-one lives. There had been a serious one before that. Anyway, meetings were held. Last night third crash hit the same city.

You are as old as you feel before breakfast, says a new authority. We would not believe it possible for any man being to be that old—awa (Ont.) Times Gazette.

Early sow
Early mow

"Now I've caught up with Grandma!"

Grandma was one of those unforgettable characters you read about. And every time I think of her, I remember one of her favourite sayings: "Early sow—Early mow".

Many years have passed since Grandma died. But just the other day something happened to remind me of that old motto of hers.

I was working over my budget, trying not to admit what the figures told me: My savings had slipped. At this rate, it was a cinch that some of the things I'd started to save for would have to wait. Suddenly I remembered "Early sow..." "Old-fashioned stuff!" I told myself. Then I got to thinking. "Maybe it is tough to save today. But it's still important... still my only hope of getting some of the things I want most.

"Well, at least I'm keeping up my life insurance payments," I thought. "That's a way of saving which combines protection for my family as well. And maybe if I make an extra effort to put more money aside I'll reach my goals sooner."

"So here goes!" I'll try again. I'll find some new ways to economize. Somehow I'm sure I can manage to be more thrifty. And you know—it's a funny thing! The moment I made that decision, I realized that Grandma's idea was not old-fashioned. I've just caught up with her now!

LIFE INSURANCE works for you these other ways:
Every dollar you set aside in life insurance — or in savings of any kind — works to check inflation, thus protecting the value of all your money.
Your life insurance helps to improve your living standards too! A large part of each dollar you pay in premiums is invested for you in ways that help provide new homes, schools, highways, power plants, oil pipelines and other vital projects throughout the nation.

Today nearly five million thrifty Canadians are providing security for their families — and promoting progress in their own and other communities — by their ownership of life insurance!

Defender Discards Club Ace To Win 2 Trump Tricks and Set 4-Heart Contract

Mr. Masters discarded his ace of clubs to make sure he would win tricks with both the king and eight of hearts.

This sounds fantastic but it actually happened in today's deal. If it needs a bit of explanation, here's the way the play came up.

Mr. Masters opened the king of clubs which was ruffed on the board with the deuce of hearts. Mr. Champion correctly decided he had no chance for 10 tricks unless he could ruff all four of his losing clubs.

TRUMPED WITH ACE

Therefore at trick two he cashed the ace of diamonds, led a small diamond and ruffed it with the four of hearts. He led a second club and ruffed it, then came to his hand again with the ace of spades and ruffed a third club.

At this point the problem was how to get to the closed hand again. Mr. Champion decided it was plain silly to ruff another diamond low as Mr. Masters was almost certain to have the king of trumps. He could over-ruff and return a trump. This would take the last trump off the board and leave Mr. Champion with a closing club.

So a diamond was led from dummy and trumped with the ACE of hearts. Mr. Champion was willing to lose a trick to the king of trumps—but not now.

PARTNER COMES THROUGH

The last club was led and ruffed with dummy's last trump. Next came the 10 of spades and Masters was in with his queen. He returned the king of spades and Mr. Abel rose to unexpected heights as he often does when Mr. Masters is his partner.

He ruffed the good spade and led back a high diamond. At this point Mr. Champion was down to H Q J 6. Mr. Masters' last three cards were the ace of clubs and the king-eight of hearts.

Germany Would Recruit Army

BONN (CP)—The West German Bundestag Friday night approved Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's plan to recruit soldiers for western defence. But it added a string of conditions including an equal voice for Germans in the strategic councils of the west.

The vote was 204 to 156. Six deputies of the Bundestag, the lower house of parliament, abstained.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

Manson's Down Bulger's Again

Manson's came back to life Saturday evening when they handed Bulger's their fifth defeat in the Junior Basketball League by winning 44-25.

In the first half Bulger's were not more than six points behind at any time and sometimes were leading by two or more points. In the last half it was a different story as Manson's surprised their opponents to win by nineteen points. Bulger's gave their rivals a good fight until the breather when their defence fell apart.

Scoring at periods was: 8-5; 18-14; 22-20 and 44-25 the final score.

Anderson of Manson's led his team to victory as he scored fourteen points while Sedgewick and Smith were high for Bulger's with eight points each.

Scoring:
Bulgers—Pillford, Husvik, Saville 2, Newfield, Flood, Sedgewick 8, Smith 8, DeMan 7. Total 25.
Manson's—Webber 4, Helin 6, Anderson 14, Hodgkinson 2, Brentzen 4, Mostad, Barnes 2. Total 44.

Close Game in Pee Wee League

In an unexpected upset Saturday morning the Civic Centre Arrows edged out Borden 16-14 in Pee Wee League Basketball.

While Borden showed little life, the Arrows were firing on all cylinders in one of the tightest games played in the Pee Wee League.

Borden led at each quarter except the last when the score was fourteen all.

Quarter time-scores were: 3-0; 5-4; 10-8; 14-14.

Amidst a considerable number of uncalled fouls, Fleming of the Arrows, in a three minute overtime, scored the only basket to make the score 16 to 14.

Leeman was high scorer for the Arrows with nine points, while Rensvold with eight was high for Borden.

Ski Heil

By MARNIE BULGER

Skiers Sunday took to jumping over a small "run-off" constructed in the middle of Heartbreak Ridge. A lot of talent was displayed and in spite of falling snow, many skiers enjoyed yesterday's activities on planks.

The day was rounded out by the first bean party of the year held in the "Ski-doodlers Lodge"—cabin of Harold and Odd Eidsvik. Daisy Arden, Rusty Thain and Marnie Bulger's cabins were hostesses of the affair. Although the beans heated much slower than was predicted, the party was evidently a success.

Rusty Thain has now been nominated the club's "Miss Carrot Salad" of 1952. Rusty promised to arrive with the salad for the bean party but she was late down the hill.

Next week-end activities are planned for the main lodge. The promise is for entertainment, but members are asked to bring a few spare nickles also. This is the debut of the new Ski Tow Campaign.

Maple Leafs Pull Ahead

NEW YORK (CP)—Second place Toronto Maple Leafs picked up four points with two victories in week-end National Hockey League action to pull three points ahead of the closely-pursuing Montreal Canadiens.

The Leafs nipped the Canadiens 3 to 2 in Toronto Saturday night following up with a 4 to 3 decision over New York Rangers in New York Sunday night.

The Canadiens shared one victory during the week-end, turning back the last place Chicago Black Hawks 3 to 2 in a Sunday matinee game in the Windy City.

Goalie Terry Sawchuk registered his eleventh shut-out of the season as league-leading Detroit Red Wings downed the Boston Bruins 2 to 0 in Boston Sunday night.

New York exploded for three goals within 63 seconds midway in the first period and then coasted to a 4 to 2 victory over Boston in Saturday night's other National Hockey League game.

Syd Smith and Max Bentley scored twice each to give the Maple Leafs their verdict over New York.

Ed Slowinski scored all three goals for Rangers but Smith's second goal—at 11:51 of the final period—proved to be the winning tally.

Conductor Tells Of Moose Death

PRINCE GEORGE—The moose in B.C.'s north country have long been known as pretty rugged customers, but this week one of them found out he was not rugged enough to tackle a train single handed.

Conductor A. A. Clapperton tells more about the moose which ran into the side of a westbound Canadian National freight train near Bednest, about 20 miles west of Prince George, unslatched a coal car door and spilled almost half the contents of the car.

While inspecting the car, Conductor A. A. Clapperton found moose hairs on the ratchet of the car door and the animal's remains under the train about eight cars back.

Vanderhoof Wins Hockey

TELKWA.—Vanderhoof Peewees were victorious in Smithers as well as in Telkwa in last week's hockey.

Mild weather caused the ice to soften which showed the games and made playing extremely difficult.

Vanderhoof got away to a good start with two goals against Telkwa in the first period. Telkwa players pressed hard in the second period to bring the score up to 4-3 with Vanderhoof still in the lead. In the third period Telkwa boys found it impossible to hold the visitors back in spite of hard checking and another 3 goals were checked up for the Vanderhoof team, making a total score of 7-4 in favor of Vanderhoof.

Gordon & Anderson Tie Second Place in League

Gordon & Anderson 43, CCC 300 36
Hi-Greens 41, Merchants 22

In their last league game for the season, Gordon Anderson surged ahead in the last four minutes to edge out CCC 300 43-36 in Saturday night's league basketball feature. Combining strength and experience, Flaten and Holkestad forced the win. The score was high with 14 points.

At the beginning, Gordon Anderson saw their early lead slip and for most of the game-time it belonged to pulp mill workers. Joe Houtman was in his first good game of the season and, along with Dumas and Marshall, led the play throughout.

Flatten tied the game with Manson's for second place in the senior league, while the millers were edged further into the cellar. It was a good spectator game the handling crowd was up mainly of players and their relatives.

The intermediate league set was a walk-over for Hi-Greens who swamped Merchants 42, Ford was high with 12 points.

Challengers Show Well

Bill Confident of color "A" Ability

Up-challengers' Coach Alex is more pleased today than proverbial lark, following the name of Saturday night's bout with Port Simpson's senior team.

It is not so much the fact that Challengers came away with a 50-50 point win, says Mr. Bill, that the team plays he's working out with his men. The times a week are "working a clock."

It is now that we'll make good showing in the Senior "A" class, says Alex today. To be sure he means, he told all except 10 or so points of 100 were made under the 100-point play-ups.

Up recently, Rupert's all-around, not having any outside night, have depended on their fast breaks and field goals.

But we've been caught sometimes when our shooting isn't hot. With these tactics we are to overcome this," says Bill. In the game against the Simpson team, who, by the way are coached by former Rupert all-arounder, Bonyon—Don Scherk, Spring and Mickey Webster shot in the twenties, headed by Bonyon 24.

There was plenty of competition all right, said Bill, but Rupert's in the key seemed to be the losers' downfall.

In the last five minutes of play, Bill's men jumped their score to 100 as the enthusiastic crowd clamored for the three-point tally.

HOUSEKEEPING...

PANCAKES, OLD BUT ALWAYS NEW, STILL POPULAR TODAY

One of the first made dishes of man consisted of a mixture of meal and water, baked on hot rocks. This is believed to be the original pancakes, griddle cakes or flapjacks.

During the early Christian era, eggs, butter and milk were forbidden during Lent. Any of these foods that the housewife had on hand, had to be used up, and a special recipe was prescribed by the church in which flour was symbolic for the staff of life, milk for innocence, salt for wholesomeness and eggs for vitality. Hence, pancakes became the official meal of Shrove Tuesday, the last day before Lent. In many communities today, Shrove Tuesday is still pancake day.

Golden brown pancakes are not typical of any one country; they appear among the foods of all nations, in one form or another. In North America, corn meal was used by the Indians, but today pancakes are made with a variety of grain products, for example, white flour, buckwheat flour, bran, oatmeal, raw or cooked potatoes or bread crumbs.

An old English saying, "Pancakes on Shrove Tuesday keep you merry all day," should be reason enough to serve this delicious, economical dish to the family more often. Until recent years pancakes were considered a breakfast specialty, but today they may be featured at lunch, dinner or as snacks.

Home economists have passed along a few tips that should be kept in mind when golden brown, light, tasty pancakes are the order of the day:

1. Measure all ingredients carefully.
2. Add liquid all at once and stir lightly; small lumps will come out in the cooking.
3. Use a properly seasoned griddle or heavy frying pan.
4. Grease lightly with unsalted shortening each time before using, heat slowly.
5. Pour the batter for each pancake from a cup or jug, instead of spooning the batter on to the griddle, to insure even cooking.
6. Turn pancakes once, when the top is covered with little bubbles.
7. Serve hot.

These easy-to-make, old-fashioned pancakes may be made with fresh or sour milk. So, if there is sour milk in the refrigerator, here's the place where it may be used to give a tender texture and a nutty-rich taste.

Butter and pancakes belong together, especially at breakfast time when syrup, particularly maple syrup, is poured over them. Other combinations for morning enjoyment include pancakes with sausages or bacon.

For lunch and dinner, pancakes may be made any size, small or large, rolled like a jelly roll, folded in half with fillings or stacked for variation. For a quick special lunch serve potato or cheese pancakes with hot apple sauce.

The home economists have sent this recipe for cottage cheese pancakes:

COTTAGE CHEESE PANCAKES

- 3 eggs
- 1 cup cottage cheese
- 1/4 cup sifted all purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons shortening, melted

Beat eggs until light. Add cottage cheese, flour and salt. Beat well. Add melted shortening. Cook on a hot, slightly greased griddle. This recipe yields 1 dozen thin 5-inch pancakes.

To win approval at dinner, serve pancakes with ham and honey; fill with leftover creamed meat; in place of pastry shells for chicken a la king, served plain with creole sauce or meat and mushroom sauce or filled with vegetables, such as asparagus, and served with a cheese sauce. A salad and a dessert will put the final touch to the meal.

To please the sweet tooth members of the family, serve pancakes as a dessert or as a party snack after a skating or skiing party on cold winter evenings. For these occasions, fruit could be added to the batter or the pancakes may be served with fruit in the form of a shortcake. Pancakes could also be rolled or folded, with jelly or preserve filling and confectioner's sugar sprinkled on top.

boomed up five sections and had been paid for his work.

Then Riley had approached him for a contract to haul logs out of the woods and boom them.

"I knew $12 was pretty steep but I had a broken leg—couldn't work—and wanted my machine out of the woods before the snow."

Dunlap testified the agreement called for Riley to hire his own crew. Equipment to be used belonged to the logger. Riley got his crew and came to work beginning of September.

The logger said the crew used his gas boat to make the run of 1 1/2 miles to the set from the camp.

"They got salt water into the engine and ran it that way until the thing stopped working."

"Then I let them use my other boat."

BAWLED HIM OUT
Soon after, Dunlap saw the crew return on the boat one evening and noticed the port stern side "all calfed up."

"I knew they had tied the boat up to the windy side of the A-frame and it got all chewed up."

"I bawled Riley out this time and asked him what he was going to do about it."

"Riley said 'nothing,' so I told him he would have to pay for it. Riley said he wouldn't pay."

Meanwhile, the crew had gone to the bunkhouse, said Dunlap. Riley appeared a few minutes later, saying:

"The crew has quit—just like that. He didn't give me any reason."

That was when Riley and his crew left for Prince Rupert, said Dunlap.

The narrative was taken up by Mr. Glassey, next witness, testifying how Riley had come into his office with his request for money.

"He told me he was hiring another crew to go back up to Crow Lake the next day by plane. I've checked with the airlines and was told the reservations were made."

Mr. Glassey also said he had not seen Riley then until two weeks ago "when he came into my office and said he was out on bail."

Two other witnesses were called by Crown Counsel Brown, Clifford Renie and Donald Magnusson.

Rennie said he met Riley in a downtown hotel and was hired to sling rigging at $16 a day, less $2.50 a day he was to pay Riley for board and room.

The logger said he started work October 5. On October 25, he said Riley came to the crew and told them they were fired by Dunlap.

"He says you are a no good bunch of loafers and might as well go into town," quoted Rennie.

On the stand, Dunlap denied suggestions by Defence Counsel Hogarth that he had fired anybody.

"Those men weren't working for me. I didn't hire them, and I didn't fire them," he stated.

Dunlap admitted there may have been "about 100,000 feet of logs ready to dump from the cold-deck tree, but contended that "was worth nothing unless they were in the water and boomed."

Rennie said the rigging equipment was in "bad shape" and that he had spent "four or five days" repairing it.

Magnusson, the boom man, had been hired, he said, "either on contract or by the hour."

He said he had worked for a while on logs already in the water but left when no more logs were dumped. He said no logs had been hauled out of the bush by Riley and his crew.

"Would you go back to work at that camp?" asked Mr. Hogarth.

"You mean, in the bush?"

"Yes, to haul out the logs."

"No, I wouldn't. I don't think the machine he has is big enough for the job."

Herring Seining Ends In Central District—20 Vessels Beam Trawling

Herring seining has been closed for the season on the mainland of Prince Rupert fisheries district with a total take estimated at 116,000 tons. At 11:45 p.m. last Wednesday night the closure was applied on the central sub-district where seiners have been operating for some weeks for a total of 40,000 tons. The rest of the herring catch in the district was accounted for at Gasboat Passage, Kitkatla Inlet, where a great run netted an aggregate of 56,000 tons in a series of quotas. The central district catch was taken from Laredo Sound, Kildid Sound and Cousins Inlet. Herring seining is still permissible on the Queen Charlotte Is. which are not governed by quota but where fishing may continue until March 10. With the closing of the central sub-district, some of the seining fleet is now tying up but the most of the vessels will be heading for the west coast of Vancouver Island where there has not been much fishing so far. The herring catch in Prince Rupert district this winter was largely used in the manufacture of fish meal and oil at Prince Rupert. Port Edward, Butedale and Namu reduction plants with some also going into halibut bait store.

Upwards of twenty Prince Rupert fishing vessels are still engaged in beam trawling in the Skidegate Inlet area of the Queen

Charlotte Islands where it is estimated some 1,500,000 pounds of soles and other groundfish have been taken so far this winter. Practically all the fish have been landed at Prince Rupert for filleting in the Nelson Bros. (Port Edward), B.C. Packers, Canadian Fishing Co. and Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative plants. Beam trawling will continue until such time as the state of the spawning fish becomes such that they are no longer considered desirable for processing.

Union steamer Camosun, Capt. James Hunter, arrived in port at 8 o'clock last evening from Vancouver and waypoints, sailing at 11 p.m. for Alice Arm and Stewart where she will return here tomorrow morning to sail south at 12 noon. Second Union line vessel of the evening, the steamer Chilcotin, Capt. William McCombe, arrived at 9:30 p.m. from South Queen Charlotte Island points and sailed an hour later for Vancouver and waypoints.

CFR steamer Princess Norah, arrived at 8 a.m. today from Vancouver, Ocean Falls, Kamano and Kitimat with the following passengers for Prince Rupert: Miss N. Gall, R.N., G. Brown, W. Soup Cookery Gives a Boost to Meat

IF THE meat problem "has you up a tree," quick get acquainted with condensed tomato soup.

The rich, ready tomato sauce has special cooking value in this meat-scarce period. Whether hot dogs, fish, or hamburgers are on your menu, the main dish will be more tempting and go further with a tomato-soup-sauce.

Another bright idea. Use the tomato soup and one of the fine canned meats to make a mouth-watering main dish, all from products kept on the kitchen shelf. TOMATO CORNED BEEF HASH is this kind of dish. And the rest of a royal repast can come from the same handy shelf. Feature this casserole "alongside of" green beans in vinegar sauce, peach salad, and butterscotch pudding.

Tomato Corned Beef Hash
1 large onion, sliced
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 1-pound can corned beef hash
1 can (1 1/2 cups) condensed tomato soup
1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs

Cook onion until tender in 2 tablespoons butter in a skillet. Break corned beef hash into small pieces; place half of it in a 1-quart casserole. Pour over it 1/2 cup soup; add onion slices and remaining corned beef hash and soup. Sprinkle top with buttered bread crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) for 20 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

—SOUP SCOOPS—

VALENTINES FOR YOUR TABLE: Make mealtime a festive affair on the day of hearts. Adorn the table with rosy-red tomato soup, topped by heart-shaped croutons. Cut these from slightly dry bread or from biscuit dough. Use a small cutter, or make a cardboard pattern to cut around. Brown or bake and put two or three on each bowl of soup.

SUNDAY SPAGHETTI: Simply scrumptious with a can of spaghetti in tomato sauce with cheese is a liberal addition of good browned chicken livers. Cut about 1/2 pound of the livers into bite-size pieces. Then cook the meat in butter until browned and done. Just add spaghetti, heat well and serve.

SHRIMP IN MUSHROOM SAUCE: You "never had shrimp so good" till you have it sauced with a can of mushroom soup. Blend the condensed soup with 1/4 cup milk and 1/4 cup of sautéed green pepper strips; then add about 1/2 cup of cooked shrimp cut in half lengthwise. Pour this over 3 cups of hot fluffy rice. Curry lovers can blend the rice with 2 tablespoons of melted butter mixed with 1/2 teaspoon curry powder.

"The Milkman" Is Hilarious

It is an interesting life "The Milkman" leads in a hilarious comedy with music, starring Jimmy Durante and Donald O'Connor, which comes this Monday and Tuesday to the Capitol Theatre.

O'Connor has the wacky role of a wealthy playboy who tries to escape the hangers of the war by becoming a milkman. His pal, a 25-year veteran along the milk route, is played by Jimmy Durante. Piper Laurie and Joyce Holden, cast as the comics' respective girl friends, race along with them through a succession of laugh-provoking events. Musical embellishment is added by four catchy tunes.

Supporting cast includes Jess Barker, characterizing a weak-livered milk company executive; Elizabeth Risdon, as his cantankerous aunt and principal stockholder in the dairy firms; and Henry O'Connor, as O'Connor's doting father.
