LIVING COSTS DECLINE SEVEN-TENTHS OF POINT

OTTAWA—Living costs took their biggest drop in 10 months during February as lower food and cigarette prices and the new consumer price index by seven-tenths of a point from 115.5, the Bureau of Statistics reported today. The drop was the fourth in a row and the biggest since the index of nine-tenths of a point in April 1952. It pushed costs back to about where they were in June 1951.

Russia Frees 15 Doctors Another Surprise Move

OTTAWA—The Soviet Union, in an amazing surprise announcement today, has freed 15 Jewish physicians. The move is seen as a signal that the medical profession is being reopened. The Soviet government said today that the 15 doctors released had been charged with killing or plotting to kill high state leaders. The Soviet government said today they had been falsely accused. An official announcement also disclosed: 1. Testimony from the doctors, allegedly confirming the accusations, had been obtained by "strictly forbidden" means. 2. Persons accused of "incorrect conduct of investigation" have been arrested and brought to justice. 3. A woman doctor has lost the Order of Lenin she received on January 20 for exposing nine of the arrested medical men.

World Peace Congress Called Largest Movement in History

Vienna, the peace movement had grown beyond measure. The most recent congress held at Peking where all Asiatic nations were represented. TELLS OF THREAT "There the opinion was that the greatest threat to peace, aside from hostilities now going on, was the militarization of Japan," the speaker said. "The men in charge of this program are the same who brought Japan into the last war. Japanese delegates there said 70 per cent of the national budget is being spent on armaments in spite of the fact that the present constitution forbids war expenditures. He described interest in the congress as being so keen that many of the delegates walked for several months to the nearest railroad so that they could attend. Turning to the war in Korea,

Twenty Sailors Trapped In Sub Sunk After Dardanelles Crash

Wreckage Of Jet Found

ANCHORAGE, Alaska—Wreckage of a U.S. Air Force all-weather jet fighter, one of three lost in Alaska this week was found late Friday atop Mount Susitana where it had smashed into a canyon wall. The pilot and radar observer, only men aboard, were killed outright. The jet vanished Thursday on a routine training flight. The jet was the fifth plane in Alaska involved in mishaps in four days. A northern Consolidated Airlines plane has been unreported since Wednesday with one man aboard on a flight from Anchorage to McGrath. The plane may have landed on a lake and the pilot been unable to report in. A jet pilot and his plane failed to return to Elmendorf Air Base from a training flight Monday. In the same area, two fliers bailed out of a jet before it crashed Tuesday. Search is on for all three fliers. One of six jets coming in for a landing spun out of control on a runway at Elmendorf and struck a taxiway light. The plane was damaged but two men aboard escaped injury.

Rupert Liberals Favor Sloan For Leadership

Chief Justice Gordon McG. Sloan is favored by the Prince Rupert District Liberal Association to lead the party in the coming June 9 provincial election. A resolution was passed unanimously at Thursday night's association meeting that the provincial convention ask Chief Justice Sloan to accept the leadership. The convention to name a leader and to form a party platform will be held in Vancouver next Friday. Ten delegates were named by the meeting to attend the convention in person or by proxy. Naming of a candidate to represent Prince Rupert riding was deferred until after the convention in order to give out-of-town delegates an opportunity to vote and discuss selection of the candidate. Date set for nomination here is April 15. This decision was made after considerable discussion. The meeting originally had been called by district president T. Norton Youngs for nomination of a candidate. During the discussion, several members referred to Jack McRae, former MLA, as the "only candidate we have." Other resolutions, which will be presented by delegates to the Vancouver convention: 1. Endorsation of the system of sharing the provincial sales tax on a per capita basis. 2. That native villages share in the tax. 3. Confirming endorsement of compulsory hospital insurance. 4. Deploping government action in setting up a part time labor relations board. 5. Deploping lack of action in implementing the people's wish on the liquor question.

Ex-King Carol Dies Suddenly

LISBON—Ex-king Carol of Romania died near here early today of heart attack. He was 59. Princess Helena was at his bedside when he died. Marshal Urdarianu, former minister at the Romanian court who announced his death, said Carol felt well until just before midnight when he was suddenly taken ill. Carol had lived at Estoril, fashionable seaside resort about 15 miles from Lisbon, since October, 1947.

Skating Rink Open Today

The Prince Rupert curling rink today became a skating rink until further notice. Jack Laurie, curling club president, announced that the rink will be open daily from 1 to 4 p.m. for young children and those in elementary school and from 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. for adults. There will, however, be NO skating tomorrow—Easter Sunday.

FEDERAL CABINET POST LIKELY FOR APPLEWHAITE

Possibility of a federal cabinet post for E. T. Applewhaite, member for Skeena, is seen by Arthur Blakely in the Montreal Gazette, who comments: "If the Liberal government should be returned to office at the next election, E. T. Applewhaite (L-Skeena) will likely draw a post as parliamentary assistant. He could land in the cabinet itself. It's generally conceded that he's one of the ablest Liberal MPs who entered the Commons as rookies following the 1949 election."

Swedish Ship Held For Investigation

ISTANBUL—The Turkish submarine Dum Lupinar sank in the Dardanelles early today after colliding with a Swedish merchant ship. At least 70 sailors died, the Turkish Navy announced, and 22 men are reported trapped and still alive in the hull. The office of the chief of staff of Turkish naval forces said telephone communication had been established with the submarine proving there were some survivors. Five of the crew in the conning tower at the time of the collision were saved. One other man died of injuries suffered in the collision. The submarine, a 1,526-ton craft transferred to the Turkish Navy in 1944 under the U.S. military aid agreement collided with the 4,000-ton Swedish ship Naboland, near the southern end of the Dardanelles Strait, and went down in 132 feet of water. The Dum Lupinar was equipped with a snorkel underwater breathing device, but presumably the depth prevented its use. The captain of the Naboland gave the first report of the accident saying he had put out small boats but found nothing. Istanbul authorities said the Naboland was being detained for routine investigation.

'All Aboard' Starts Today In The News

The Daily News today introduces a new weekly column by G. E. Mortimore, a young B.C. newspaperman who has some passing opinions to offer on almost every conceivable subject. "Gem," as he is known to his friends, and occasionally to his city editor, alleges that he makes a living writing for a Victoria newspaper and that his column All Aboard, is "just for fun." It is fun, at that. Please see page 2.

CPA Begins Two Flights

Effective Monday, Canadian Pacific Airlines will make two trips to Sandspit to connect with the Vancouver plane. Larger planes are to be put on the Vancouver-Sandspit run, it was learned, relieving the new Convair planes for other routes. The new four-engine aircraft have greater space for passengers, cargo and mail. The first flight from here on the land-sea-air plane to Sandspit will take off at 10:15 a.m. Monday and the second 15 minutes later. Each plane can take 20 passengers.

Canada May Experiment With Atomic Power Soon

OTTAWA—Canada should be experimenting with commercial atomic power within the next year, production minister Howe says. In an interview Friday, Mr. Howe disclosed that both the ruptured atomic pile NRX at Chalk River, and the new pile, NRU, which is under construction, will be used experimentally for production of atomic power by a fourth pile, yet to go on the drawing boards. NRX, which sprang a "leak" last December 11, is being rebuilt with a view to experiments in power generations, Mr. Howe said. "The new pile NRU underway at Chalk River also is being built for experimental use, but we won't be into commercial atomic power until we have our fourth pile."

Young Tenor Rose to Fame After Debut

When the young American tenor, Raymond Manton, sings here on April 8 at the Civic Centre in the last of this season's Alaska Music Trail concerts, Prince Rupert will hear an artist whose success following his debut at San Francisco has been phenomenal. After he had performed as soloist with the symphony orchestra there, the entire audience rose to applaud. Since then he has had a large number of engagements in opera, radio, television and concert hall recitals. He made his television debut a year ago with famed violinist Yehudi Menuhin. "Manton recalls the young Benjamin Gigli, metropolitan opera star, not only in appearance but in depth, power and range of his bel canto," one critic said. Another observed that "Manton's voice is one of those clear-cut columns of sound that does not seem to have a single weak spot in it." Mr. Manton will be assisted at the piano by Donald Jones, a brilliant musician in his own right who studied in Germany.

Dorothy Green Married Pretty Wedding Here

First Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty evening wedding, Thursday, when Dorothy Green became the bride of John MacIntosh.

Dr. E. A. Wright officiated. The bride was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John MacIntosh, a fragrant floral and white lace and sequined gown. The bride's hair was styled in a soft, wavy fashion. The bride's veil was of fine tulle and carried pale blue carnations.

The bride's gown and that of her attendants were all made by Miss Mary Basso.

Mrs. Roy Wicks sang "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register.

Best man was Mr. Ken Johnston and ushers were Stan Wozney, Murray Johnson, Bill Richardson and Dick Bell.

Dr. Wright proposed the toast to the bride at the reception in the Canadian Legion Auditorium, after the assembled guests had greeted the happy young couple, who stood under a white and pink decorated arch. In the receiving line were Mrs. MacIntosh who chose a navy blue street-length crepe dress with navy accessories and carnation corsage, and sister of the bride Miss Beatrice Green, wearing a floor-length gown of pink tulle and carnation corsage. After the very fitting reply to the toast by the groom, Mr. Ken Johnston proposed a suitable toast to the bride attendants. Master of ceremonies Mr. Roy Evans then read many telegrams of congratulations and expressed the special good wishes of the 120th Heavy Battery Regiment.

The three-tiered silver and white wedding cake was then cut and dancing to the music of Robert Woods was begun.

When leaving for a honeymoon trip to the United States and east to Calgary, the bride chose a chic ensemble of an aqua wool knitted suit with snakeskin accents, topped by a white stole. Her hat was white brushed felt and she wore a three-rose corsage.

The bridal bouquet was caught by Marna Mark.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. MacIntosh will reside in the city.

THE RESURRECTION
—The Essential Fact of the Christian Faith

By REV. F. ANTROBUS
Pastor, First Baptist Church

Everything hangs upon the Resurrection! If it could be proved that no living Christ ever issued from the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, then that tomb becomes not the tomb of a man only, but also of the Christian Faith, with all the hopes based upon it, and all the splendid enthusiasm and achievements it has inspired.

Yes, the whole conduct of the Church testifies to the saneness and reality of its beliefs. For there is no explanation of the Church apart from the Resurrection of Jesus Christ; it could never otherwise have been born. In spite of the hatred of its enemies, the foolishness and weakness of its followers, the Church has gone on, through dungeons and arenas of death, through the fire and water of persecution, and even the gates of hades, have not been able to prevail against it.

Paul was certainly right when he declared, that if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain, you are still in your sins. If Christ be not raised, there is no Mediator between God and man; the gulf between the soul and its Creator remains unbridged; God is still unapproachable; man is still in his sins.

But the great apostle goes on to say; "Now Christ is risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept . . . so also in Christ shall all be made alive; but every man in his own turn. Christ the first-fruits; afterwards, they who are Christ's at His Coming."

Something happened over nineteen centuries ago in Judea, on the morning of the third day, that has changed the whole current and flow of history; men's lives, their homes, the rights of children, the lot of slaves, the position of women, the whole order of society—in all these areas, men have been greatly blessed and uplifted.

The integrity of Jesus Christ depends upon the Resurrection. For any man could say, "I have power to lay down my life," but only God could say, "I have power to take it up again." And Jesus said, "Destroy this temple, and in three days, I will raise it up. He spake of the temple of His body."

The Resurrection is the supreme proof of His Deity. He is God the Son! Read Col. 1:19, and 2:9, and John 5:17-27. The Resurrection is also the supreme proof of His central place in the work of Redemption. It was the divine seal set upon His earthly work: Rom. 1:4, "declared to be the Son of God with power, by the resurrection." This was God's unanswerable argument, His sign of approval for all the world to see, that the salvation wrought by the Son was perfect. For who can answer a God Who speaks in thick darkness, earthquakes, open graves, and resurrection.

Let the Message of the Resurrection speak to your heart this Easter. Make this Christ your own Savior and Lord. He said: "Because I live, ye shall live also."

Charles Ready For Marciano

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO — One-time heavy weight champ Ezzard Charles, back in the title hunt with a smashing 10-round win over tough Rex Layne, told the boxing world Thursday "I think I can beat anyone now."

The 31-year-old Cincinnati Negro put on one of the finest battles of his lengthy ring career when he battered the Lewiston, Utah, gamester into a bloody hulk Wednesday night at Winterland.

Millions of nationwide television viewers and 7,500 fans at the indoor arena saw Charles floor Layne four times—in the first, sixth, seventh and tenth rounds.

Burley Rex gained his feet every time but the beating he took probably will shelve him for weeks. He suffered cuts near both eyes and under the lower lip.

Charles, fighting for a title shot, beat Layne in savage fashion.

He pounded the 203-pound Rex in the mid-section and belted his head with stinging left hooks and sharp right crosses to the face. Layne was groggy from the sixth round on. Charles, unmarked after the brawl, said he would challenge the winner of the Rocky Marciano-Jersey Joe Walcott championship rematch at Chicago April 10.

"I feel I've earned another shot at the title," Ezzard said. "I'd rather fight Marciano for the title. I think his style is made to order for me."

Enraged Red Wings Trounce Bruins To Keep Stanley Cup Chances Alive

DETROIT (CP)— Striking for three goals in the first four minutes, the enraged Detroit Red Wings whipped Boston Bruins 6-4 Thursday night to stay alive in the Stanley Cup hockey playoffs.

The Bruins lead the best-of-seven, semi-final series 3-2. The sixth game will be played in Boston tomorrow night.

The Red Wings, trimmed in three straight games by the brash Bruins, came out with fire in their eyes Thursday night. Within the first 55 seconds, they scored twice and less than three minutes later their lead was 3-0. Ted Lindsay scored after only 23 seconds of play and after the 55 second mark defenceman Bob Goldham brought the house down by connecting on a 55-foot screen shot to make it 2-0.

At 3:45 defenceman Benny Wolf scored and the Wings headed for their first victory since the opening game.

LATE RALLY

The Wings' early assault offset a late Bruin rally which saw veteran Milt Schmidt score twice in the last 10 minutes of play. That made it 6-4 and the Bruins had several chances to draw even closer in the last five minutes, as the Wings played most of the time one man short as a result of penalties.

Ed Sandford also scored twice for the Bruins but they didn't look like the same team which stunned the hockey world with that three-game streak against the Wings, defending Stanley Cup champions.

After taking their 3-0 lead, the Wings went scoreless until 8:42 of the second period. That was when Gordie Howe skated in all alone to beat goalie Jim Henry with a sizzling 15-foot shot.

SANDFORD CONNECTS

Just 20 seconds later Boston scored its first goal when Sandford clicked. Johnny Wilson got that right back for Detroit 2½ minutes later.

Hawks Need Only Victory Tonight To Knock Canadiens Out of Finals

MONTREAL (CP)— Chicago Black Hawks, backed by the brilliant goal-keeping of Al Rollins, rolled to a 4-2 victory over Montreal Canadiens Thursday night, the third straight for the Hawks in the Stanley Cup semi-final who now need only one more win to take the series.

The 14,426 fans were stunned at the setback to Canadiens who won the first two games last week on Montreal ice and then lost two in Chicago. The sixth game will be played in Chicago tonight.

Three Chicago goals in less than 12 minutes of the first period had Canadiens reeling, and the game finally threatened to blow up in a free-for-all.

Eighteen penalties were called, including majors to Bill Mosienko of Chicago and Jim Macpherson of Canadiens and a misconduct penalty to "Boom Boom" Geoffrion of Montreal.

Fred Hucul, Mosienko, Gus Bodnar and Gus Mortonson were goal-scoring for the Hawks and Maurice (Rocket) Richard and Tom Johnson for Montreal.

NEVER THREATENED

After their first-period scoring outburst the Hawks were never seriously threatened, especially with Rollins putting on his great display.

Canadiens put up their best fight in the second period when Richard cut the Hawks lead to 3-1 but when Mortonson brought the margin to three goals once more, Canadiens faded.

If the Montrealers hope to keep the series alive they will have to take some new and drastic measures to overcome the wizardry of Rollins. The lanky Chicago goalie has been a stand-out in the last three games and Thursday night he seemed to take particular delight in thwarting Richard. The Rocket got one by Rollins but saw several other goal-labelled shots gobbled up.

FINE GAME

Little Billy Mosienko played a fine all-around game for the Hawks and their defence stood up when Canadiens put on an all-out drive in the second period. For several short stretches play was entirely inside the Chicago zone in this middle period and time and again the Montreal attack bogged down under Chicago's relentless checking.

Canadiens tried to get power plays going again in the final period but the Hawks knew they had the game all but sewed up and set up a solid defence.

The game began getting rougher soon after the second period started. Macpherson and Mosienko began tossing punches and were given major penalties.

There was a steady penalty parade in the last period, highlighted by a tangle between Lynn and Meger and culminating in Geoffrion's misconduct penalty for shoving linesman Bill Morrison.

A. B. Chandler, then commissioner of baseball, at Cincinnati six years ago today announced adoption of the major league pension plan for players. The plan which included both annuity and life insurance benefits set a retirement age of 50 for players, coaches and trainers.

Remember When

In the final session, Sandford scored for the second time to make it 5-2 but the Wings bounced right back again when Glen Skov found the range.

The Bruins made their final bid and it was a good one. Schmidt scored at 11:57 and again at 16:46.
