Army Saves Girl's Life

CHATHAM, N.B. (CP)—Dramatic story of Marie Mazerolle had a happy ending Sunday when the eight year old girl, suffering from a ruptured appendix, was airlifted from the snowbound village of Point Sapin and underwent a successful operation here. Her condition is reported favorable with every indication of recovery.

Capt. James Gilbert, Canadian Army doctor, who parachuted into the northern New Brunswick fishing village last Thursday, said he was well pleased with the outcome. The Army doctor, who was accompanied on the combined Army-Air Force operation by Cpl. Thomas Roycroft of Edmonton, was unable to move the child when he first landed and spent a couple of days administering drugs to put her in shape to travel.

Rupert Entry Injured In Tourney Ski Jump

BURNS LAKE.—Injured in a trial jump Sunday, Prince Rupert's entry in the Northern B. C. Ski Tournament was not expected to enter competitions. John Skaldney fell on the first trial jump, the only stretcher case so far in the tournament.

He was apparently not seriously injured. Skaldney returned to the jump hill but could not make another trial. He was at a disadvantage as he arrived too late for practice jumps.

Ideal weather and a heavy field faced the judges at the opening Sunday.

The finals will take place tomorrow night. There have been several close decisions.

Spying on Old Sol

Conditions Good For Study Of Eclipse in Sudan Today

KHARTOUM, Sudan — Lights went on as the sun went out of this capital of Sudan today.

The moon covered Old Sol completely for just over three minutes in a total eclipse shortly after 11 a.m.

Visibility seemed favorable for seventy scientists from ten countries who had waited for weeks to record the phenomenon with great mass of complicated equipment.

From their observations, they hoped to find out more about what is around and behind the sun and whether Einstein was right about relativity and how wrong the world's maps are.

Reports Differ As To Coronation Date

LONDON — The Sunday Pictorial said Sunday that the Queen may have her husband crowned "King Consort" instead of "Prince Consort."

LONDON (CP) — Coronation of the Queen will take place some time in 1953, an authoritative source said tonight. The Press Association said it had been learned authoritatively that the coronation will not take place this year. Court circles said the exact date was now being considered. Consultations with Commonwealth governments are in progress.

In established order of royalty, the 30-year-old Duke of Edinburgh has been expected to receive the princely title devised a century ago by Queen Victoria for her consort, Albert, but the Pictorial predicts a surprise announcement giving the Duke the King's title because the new Queen wants it that way for her husband.

"The Duke is a man of independence," the newspaper says. "His brain and personality are a great potential asset for the country."

Naturally the Queen would still reign alone. Either as King or Prince, her husband's title would have the telling qualification—"Consort."

The Sunday Pictorial also said that September 9 was the likely date for the Coronation.

Question of Neutral Observers Unsettled

MUNSAN (Canadian Press) — United Nations truce negotiators today moved to break the deadlock over selection of neutral truce supervisory commission, offering to withdraw their nomination of Norway if the Communists will give up Russia.

Earthquake In Germany

Ludwigshafen Thought It Was Blast In Chemical Works

LUDWIGSHAFEN, Germany — An earthquake shook Ludwigshafen area Sunday night as gases were being released skyward from the huge Badische Chemical Works. The city panicked in fear that an explosion had occurred.

Thousands of workers rushed to the plant to give emergency aid, remembering a tragic blast that killed 207 there in 1948.

But at the gates of the plant, managers told excited crowds that there had been no new disaster.

Heidelberg University observatory, less than ten miles from here, said the earth jar was so violent that instruments were unable to record its full intensity.

The tremor was felt at Frankfurt, 50 miles to the north, and at Stuttgart, 120 miles southward.

Air Marshal Edwards Dies

OTTAWA (CP)— Air Marshal Harold (Gus) Edwards, C.B.E., aged 59, chief of the Royal Canadian Air Force overseas during the early part of World War II from 1941 to 1943 and prominent in organizing the Commonwealth air training scheme, died Saturday night in Scotsdale, Arizona, RCAF headquarters announced Sunday.

Word of the death of the colorful veteran reached headquarters Sunday. The Air Marshal retired from the RCAF in 1944 and had been in ill-health for some time.

He had been living for some years at St. Sauveur des Monts, Quebec, and went to Arizona several months ago.

Air Marshal Edwards was born in England but came to Cape Breton as a small boy with his parents.

MAY STAY ON—Arthur MacNamara, 66-year-old Deputy Minister of Labor, is expected to be asked by the government to stay on the job for his third one-year extension beyond the statutory retirement of 65. Announcement of an order-in-council authorizing the extension is expected during the next month. He has been Deputy Minister nine years. Before that he held similar positions in Manitoba. He has held other Federal posts. (CP PHOTO)

Contract Let for Woolworth Building—Cost Over $100,000

Contract for construction of the new F. W. Woolworth Co. Ltd. store here has been awarded to Northwest Construction Co. Ltd., a local firm. Cost of building is "well over" $100,000, a construction company official said.

Property on which the new all concrete building will be located is situated on Third Avenue, across from the Post Office. It was purchased several months ago from G. W. Nickerson and W. J. Scott.

Building will be two-story type, 64 by 100 feet, constructed of concrete blocks and cement render, said George Martin, director of the construction company.

Construction is likely to begin first week in March. Job is expected to be completed within five or six months. Store front will be of stucco and extruded aluminum.

Meanwhile, another company project, remodelling of Wallace Department Store, is expected to be completed within 30 days. The Woolworth contract will be signed March 1, said Mr. Martin. The chain store company architects designed the building.

Foot-Mouth Disease Is Diagnosis

OTTAWA (CP)—Department of Agriculture today announced that the contagious animal infection in the Regina area has been identified as the dreaded foot-and-mouth disease.

Infected herds will be rounded up and destroyed. Farmers will be compensated for losses through federal funds.

It is estimated that probably at the most only three hundred head of cattle and perhaps 200 hogs may be destroyed.

Canada has a total of 9,000,000 cattle and 4,500,000 hogs.

Meanwhile in Washington, Representative W. R. Poage (Democrat, Texas), said the United States Department of Agriculture has barred imports of cattle, hogs and other cloven-foot animals from Canada because of the outbreak.

Mr. Poage said that the United States Agricultural Department's Bureau of Animal Industry was sending experts to Canada to help Canadian officials combat the disease.

Foot-and-mouth disease is feared by cattlemen throughout the world. It is as damaging to livestock as smallpox and bubonic plague are to humans. It spreads like wildfire and the only way to halt it is to slaughter infected animals and bury the carcasses.

The department says that the danger of human beings contracting the infection is "extremely remote," according to best medical advice.

Mr. Poage also said that the Canadian meat supply was not expected to be imperilled by the outbreak.

"Not unless the outbreak were allowed to get completely out of hand would the meat supply be noticeably affected," the department added.

EFFECT OF EMBARGO

There are fewer than 400 animals now under quarantine and they are likely to be slaughtered immediately. They are on 24 different premises in the Regina area.

A United States embargo on Canadian livestock, resulting from the foot-and-mouth disease in Saskatchewan, may have some effect on beef and pork prices in Canada.

"The situation at the moment is not very clear," said Acting Agriculture Minister Winters at a press conference.

If livestock cannot go to the United States, supplies will back up in Canada, possibly causing some surplus that may cause meat prices to go down.

Canada Wins Championship Charge Youth With Kidnap

MONTREAL (CP)— A pimply-faced 16-year old youth read a torn comic book in a police cell Sunday, seemingly unconcerned that police are preparing a kidnapping charge against him.

A three-year old girl, Barbara Nemeroff, whom he had allegedly kidnaped, was returned, apparently, unharmed to her parents Saturday.

Identified by the police as Robert Patenaude, the youth has not yet been charged. Officials said that the investigation has not yet been completed.

Police questioners said he told them: "I don't know why I took the little girl but I wanted money. I haven't got the faintest idea what I would have done with it. Probably I would have buried it somewhere."

The youth was arrested on crowded St. Catharine Street on Saturday. The little girl and he were walking along hand in hand.

OSLO Wins Ski Honors

OSLO (CP)— Canada Sunday night won the Olympic hockey championship for the fifth time with a 3 to 3 tie with the United States in the final round, giving Canada first place in the nine-country standing.

Edmonton Mercurys ended the series with seven victories and a tie for a total of fifteen points. The tie ensured United States of second place with 13 points.

Czechoslovakia and Sweden ranked next with twelve points each.

Norway Wins Ski Honors

OSLO (CP)— Arnfinn Bergmann, Norwegian, who lives in Revelstoke, British Columbia, on Sunday won the Olympic ski jump for his native Norway and assured the Norwegian team of victory in unofficial point standings.

Jacques Chavrand of Three Rivers, Quebec, placed twenty-fifth and Luc Laferte of Three Rivers, forty-first.

Soviets Plumping for Scandinavian Alliance

By THOMAS HARRIS
STOCKHOLM (Reuters) — Russia, using Finland as a bait, is trying to get Norway and Denmark out of the Atlantic Pact.

Soviet diplomats, over cozy lunches for Scandinavian politicians and officials, have been hinting for some time that Moscow now favors a neutral alliance between Sweden, Norway, Denmark and Finland to keep northern Europe out of any future war.

Hitherto, Russia has strongly opposed any agreement between Finland and the other three Scandinavian countries on the ground that such a neutral bloc would side with the West in a war.

Now she appears ready to trust the four countries to remain genuinely neutral.

It is believed that Sweden, who worked hard to bring about a neutral defensive alliance with Norway and Denmark in 1949 but failed, would welcome the formation of the four-power bloc advocated by the Russian diplomats.

It would strengthen Sweden's neutrality policy which is firmly supported by all Swedish political parties.

Denmark officially has said several times that she is well-satisfied with membership in the Atlantic Pact. But many Danes would feel even more satisfied in a neutral Scandinavian bloc if it could be created.

The Finns would be overjoyed to enter a neutral bloc with Russia's blessing and keep out of the way of any clash between the great powers.

Norway, on the other hand, has no faith in the Atlantic Pact and it would take a lot to get her out of it.

Nevertheless, Russia still seems hopeful of getting Norway and

Denmark out of the pact, and apparently has found an ally in Finland's Agrarian party prime minister, Urho Kekkonen.

Kekkonen has made an indirect public appeal to Norway and Denmark to withdraw from the pact through the Agrarian party publication Maakansa.

He began by explaining that Finland's military assistance and friendship pact with Russia would operate only if Finland were attacked, or if Russia were attacked through Finland.

This is a new and freer interpretation of the pact, which also binds the two countries to consult on mutual defence measures in a war or threat of war.

Some observers here, citing Kekkonen's good relations with the Kremlin, believe Russia may have agreed to "tone down" the pact in exchange for Kekkonen's help in her anti-Atlantic Pact drive in Scandinavia.

Queen to Visit New Zealand And Australia

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (CP)—Prime Minister Sidney Holland said Sunday night that Queen Elizabeth will tour New Zealand as soon as circumstances permit. She will also visit Australia.

The Queen and Prince Philip were in Kenya enroute to Australia and New Zealand for a state visit when she was recalled home February 6 by the unexpected death of the King.

Pancake Day

PANCAKE DAY, which falls tomorrow on Shrove Tuesday, is a centuries old traditional holiday. Even older than Pancake Day, however, are the pancakes for which it is famous and the Lenten season which it immediately precedes.

Although they did not realize what they were doing, men and women in the Neolithic Age (the Stone Age) created a food which was destined to be the main dish for this world-wide celebration.

The pancake was actually the first known form of cooked bread. Naturally, in this interglacial period, nothing was known of leavening agents. The cave men discovered that moistened ground grain baked on stones made a very good pastry.

Pancake Day, as we know it today, originated in the year 1000 A.D. At this time an English clergyman, Abbot Aelfric, set forth the proclamation that "in the week immediately before Lent everyone shall go to his confessor and confess his deeds, and the confessor shall so shrive him as he may then hear by his deeds what he is to do."

In old England it was quite an event when housewives flocked to churches on Pancake Day to be "shriven" or absolved of their sins. At the tolling of the bell in the morning, it was customary for the housewife to drop whatever she was doing and hurry to the confession.

Those early pancakes were made of four symbolic ingredients: eggs for Lenten sacredness; flour for the staff of life; salt for wholesomeness; and milk for innocence. The housewives all made their pancakes according to this precise formula.

Reflects and Reminisces

Nowhere in Canada should the recent death of Sir Allan Aylesworth, at 92, awaken livelier interest and conjecture than in Prince Rupert. He was the central Canadian figure half a century ago in the famous - or infamous - Alaska Boundary Tribunal.

The Alaska Panhandle, rightly, belongs to Canada but for fifty years she has been relieved of about one-half of her front door on the Pacific. Between Lord Alverstone in London and veiled threats in Washington, Canada and her representatives were powerless.

We have mentioned Prince Rupert. Suppose, for generations, this northern port had had an uninterrupted coast line all along British Columbia's Pacific front. There might have been a different site for the terminus although a better harbor would have been hard to discover.

border - the boundary that should have been, in fairness and justice.

A two-storey frame building on Second Street, tenanted originally as a residence and undertaking premises, but unoccupied for a considerable time, has by this time, had most of its windows smashed. There was no necessity to break an inch of good glass which costs money.

Education Week in Canada will be between March 2 and 8, its purpose being to arouse interest. A veteran teacher and inspector, with more than forty years of experience back of him, says the present system is all wrong.

"Is the modern school turning out students of comparable attainments in knowledge or behavior? It is a shocking fact that the typical school graduate today spells badly, is largely incapable of writing a good English sentence, is ignorant of the simplest facts about his country and is completely muddled about the rest of the world."

"I contend that the modern Canadian school is betraying the youth of this country. I am opposed to its 'freedom to express yourself' philosophy, its lack of intellectual discipline, its improperly balanced curriculum, its mechanical rotary systems and above all its adoption of the typical American aim in education. Surely, Canadian leaders are aware that our American friends are at this very moment trying desperately to rid themselves of these false ideals."

New China A Fact

THE CBC asked me to be chairman of a recent Citizens Forum broadcast on the subject "What Should Our Policy Be Toward China?"

I half liked and half hated the job. It is nice for a change to be a moderator instead of a debater. But it is tough for a person like me to have to stay out of the argument.

HERE ARE some reasons why I think the new government of China should be recognized in U.N. as representatives of China, as soon as there is real cease-fire in Korea:

1. Because it is in fact the government. To use the ancient phrase, "its writ runs" from one end of the vast land to the other. It is in fact the most effective government that there has been in China probably for a century, certainly since the revolution of 1911.

2. Because the new government of China is recognized as the lawful government, not only by its own 475 million people, but by all its free neighbors in Asia, including India, Indonesia, Ceylon, Burma and Pakistan.

3. Because the actual government of China is also recognized by the most sincere peace-loving nations in the west including Britain, Netherlands, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Switzerland.

4. Because the Charter of the U.N. plainly states that "China" is to have one of the permanent seats on the Security Council, and it is a plain hypocrisy to pretend that Chiang Kai-Shek's little group of refugees, hiding behind the U.S. fleet in the island of Formosa, is "China."

5. Because the question of recognition of China in U.N. is bound up with the larger one of war and peace in all Asia. If China is not recognized, and given her allotted seat in U.N., the war in Korea is inevitably just the fore-runner of another one on a vastly greater scale.

In such a war Hong Kong would fall in a matter of days or weeks. What happened to Canadians in 1941 in Hong Kong should be a warning to all of us. It would be as insane as immoral a bargain for British Commonwealth countries to "go along" with Senator Taft, General MacArthur, and agree to make Formosa a spring board for a future Chiang Kai-Shek attack on the Chinese mainland.

NEHRU is convinced that early recognition of the actual government of China is the vital key to long range peace in Asia. He told me in New Delhi, just a year ago, that the Commonwealth Prime Ministers had made a tragic mistake by failing to stand up for the conclusion they had jointly reached in the January 1951 meeting in London. The core of that conclusion was that the new government of China should be accepted as a fact, at the earliest practicable moment.

THE PRIME Minister of India did not discuss with me the future of Formosa - the off-shore island on which Chiang Kai-Shek is hiding out. But I learned from other sources that Mr. Nehru's idea is that it should be neutralized for some years to come.

In the present temper of the U.S. government there is no hope that Washington would agree to a "Hands Off China" policy - to the extent of letting the Chinese Communists take over Formosa. Moreover, I don't think any realistic person can blame them for that, so long as we do not know whether or not we are "in for" world war three. But any sane "cold storage" policy for Formosa would involve the removal of Chiang Kai-Shek and his troops - who by the way are detested by the overwhelming majority of the natives.

Given a free vote, it is quite probable that these native Formosans would vote for independence, both from Chiang and the Chinese Communists.

newspaper reported the results of a general information test given to prospective students of McGill University. Many did not know the name of Canada's Prime Minister. Some named Viscount Alexander, the Governor-General, others Premier Duplessis of Quebec and still others thought Mackenzie King was still alive and in office. There were quite a few unable to name the date of Confederation. And these were all graduates of secondary schools.

REFUGEES SUFFER - The Korean winter is cold but thousands upon thousands of war refugees must live in tents in huge barren camps. The United Nations Civilian Assistance Command has helped make sure everyone has a roof of some kind. But food is barely above the starvation level and clothing and fuel are scarce.

KOREA SURVEY

U.N. Relief Agency Aids Stricken People To Survive Winter

[Editor's Note: Bill Boss, Canadian Press staff writer in Korea, has completed a two-week survey of conditions among the civilian population during the Korean winter. This article is the first of a series based on interviews with United Nations, Korean Republic and civilian sources.]

By BILL BOSS, Canadian Press Staff Writer

SEOUL, Korea (CP) - Winter has not been as hard on Korean civilians as was feared. The mild weather and an energetic relief program are almost sure to keep Koreans - most of them - alive until spring. But the margin is narrow.

Food is at a bare subsistence level, though enough to prevent starvation. Everyone is under some kind of roof. Many of the millions of refugees are billeted in private homes, the rest in camps. Only a few live in caves.

There is not enough clothing, although supplies have improved. One in 10 refugees must stay indoors to keep warm, but there have been few cases of serious illness or death from exposure.

Long-neglected peat bogs are helping to overcome a shortage of fuel. The record of the United Nations Civilian Assistance Command, working through government agencies of the Republic of Korea, is such that I found no refugee who did not feel everything possible is being done to help him.

The relief program has worked largely because the ground warfare has been static. Major operations would have sparked new refugee movements and disrupted the distribution of supplies.

BIG IMPROVEMENTS

The United Nations still has no "disaster relief" organization after more than 18 months of war experience. Its policy is to use an emergency as a means of educating Korean administrators in problems of civil government. However, vast improvements have been effected since last summer when hundreds of thousands of North and South Koreans were evacuated to rear areas which were not prepared to receive them.

Said one CAC official: "The work of CAC has improved a thousand-fold since last summer. Now there is good leadership and administration at the top. We've been able to do a job in the field and are so much happier now that we are able to do something constructive."

But the Korean government has not mobilized its total resources - except manpower - for the struggle involving its own life. There is no control of essential materials and commodities are not rationed - not even war.

VANCOUVER - Dr. W. C. McKechnie, well known as a pioneer family doctor and heart specialist, died at the end of the week. The funeral took place today.

Dr. McKechnie was a brother of the late Dr. R. E. McKechnie, Chancellor of the University of British Columbia. He was 78 years of age.

Novel Party at Conrad Street.

A gala party, sponsored by the Conrad Street School Parent-Teacher Association, combining the celebration of St. Valentine's Day and Sadie Hawkins Day, brought together not a large but an enthusiastic crowd to the basement of Conrad Street School Friday evening.

In character with Al Capp's famous "Sadie Hawkins" Day, proceedings featured the Li' Abner comic strip. Ladies held complete sway over all the festivities and also, of course, the gentlemen, a procedure which is most appropriate for this season of Leap Year.

The hall was appropriately festooned with streamers and decked with signs typical of Al Capp's strip, e.g., "Park You! Shootin' Arms Hyar!" "Available Jones will do anything—fo' a price!"

Everyone who did not come in Hill Billy attire was duly fined at the door by Mrs. W. Murdoch. Feature of the evening was the distribution among the gentlemen of looking box lunches prepared by each lady in keeping with the well known "box social" idea. Refreshments were supplemented by liberal quantities of doughnuts and coffee.

Novelty dances including the Hokey Pokey, Circle One Step and Strip the Willow, were greatly enjoyed. Prizes for the balloon dance were won by Mr. and Mrs. A. Bussanich and for the elimination dance by Mrs. L. Murdoch and H. Kellough.

Music was provided by Mrs. Jean deCarlo at the piano. Arrangements for the party were in the hands of Mrs. W. Murdoch and Miss Muriel Hamilton. Percy Downing was master of ceremonies, W. D. Griffiths was in charge of soft drink sales.

LUMINOUS BUOYS

If You Do Not Pay Your News Subscription, the Boy Loses

Subscribers of the Daily News who receive their papers by carrier boys are reminded that these boys—our little merchants—are charged for every paper they take out. If you are receiving the paper and are delinquent, the boy has to finance you. This is a reminder to people who may be in arrears, whether it is their custom to pay the boy or pay at the office. It is not the office that loses if you fail to pay. It is the boy. We hope this reminder will expedite the payment by those who may have fallen behind. Prompt payment of your newspaper subscription is a legitimate obligation. The fact that your creditor is one of our boys or girls should make the re-paying of the obligation the more desirable.

Wasp Waistline Fashion's Whim For Springtime

By the Canadian Press
The girl with the spreading waistline had better diet. Otherwise she won't be able to keep with 1952 Easter parade styles. The Canadian Press in a survey of the bib-and-tucker industry discovered that spring suits with "that nipped-in, rounded look" are all the rage this year.

But the short, full jackets may create more hips than style to figures already "rounded" by winter fat. At Edmonton, fashion experts emphasized that spring suits will be more feminine in appearance than last year. There will be more detail in the sleeves. And more detail in the hems. Hand-hemmed suits will be "very full."

Spring styles at Regina were described as "entirely new, gay and beautiful." Favorite colors with western women will be "shrimp," a new coral shade, and navy.

Across Canada spring brides may forsake the traditional door-touching gown of satin for a perky cocktail-length model of tulle or net. One of Toronto's large department stores has the short wedding-gown in a window display.

Montreal designers are accentuating button-holes with satin and braid. The leather belt is coming back on tweed suits. The long, fitting lines of the "princess-style" coat also has returned. Many of these garments are lined with bright material.

ANTICIPATE SPRING
At Winnipeg, fashion-wise women already are wearing silk prints under blonde fur coats. As soon as the weather grows warmer those furs may be exchanged for white or near-white coats.

Those in the know say dress styles in Winnipeg are "reminiscent of 1929." Dresses have adopted the "middy line," and newest box jackets taper toward the hip-line.

"Bat-wing" jackets, "windmill" jackets, "lucked dickies," and bow-ties will be trotted out for Vancouver's feminine tr.

In the Maritimes, millady will continue to wear the crinoline petticoat made popular last season. In Halifax, fashionable women will wear their dresses 13 inches from the ground.

In Newfoundland, the stores so far have displayed little Easter merchandise. However, it was learned that the new "coat" dresses featuring stiff rayon tail-

Masonic Ball Happy Affair

Traditionally an outstanding function of Prince Rupert's winter social season, the annual ball Friday night of Tsimpsan and Tyee Lodges, AF & AM, was no exception to the rule. Seventy couples attended the affair in the ballroom of the Masonic Temple which was gaily adorned with colors of blue, white and gold and emblems of the craft.

Guests were welcomed by the respective masters of the lodges, T. A. Johnstone and Fred Conrad. Dancing was happily enjoyed from 10 p.m. until after 2 a.m., with tunesome music by Mrs. Nora Thompson, Bonnie Sprinkle and Harold Skalmrud and Alex Mitchell as a genial master of ceremonies.

Delicious refreshments were served during the midnight hour. Committee responsible for the success of the affair consisted of Alex Mitchell, T. H. Wilford, E. A. Dawes, Sid Alexander, Frank Hicks and Douglas Shier. George Dawes presided at the door.

New Orchestra at Catholic Social

Music of a new city dance orchestra was featured at a social held last week in the Annunciation Hall by the Holy Name Society, Catholic Women's League and Catholic Youth Organization. The crowd of 150 danced enthusiastically to the strains of the peppy playing of four young men tiling themselves the Rupert Rangers. They were Art Boisvert, accordion; Richard Tweed, first guitar; Jimmy McDougall, second guitar; and Paul Dumont, drums. Master of ceremonies was Johnny Comana. Accordion solos by Miss Stella Chupron comprised another feature of the evening.

fetas will continue to be popular. Corduroy matched skirts and jackets in vivid shades of lilac, chartreuse and coral also are expected to attract buyers. Finally, wherever she lives, the little woman probably will buy a hat this year with "back interest." For the benefit of the uninitiated male, this means the most fashionable hats will depend only on the face for decoration at the front. The back of the hat probably will have clusters of artificial flowers, fruits, veil—perhaps even a feather—to tickle you when she turns around.

BLACKWOOD on Bridge

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Player Stumbles Into Defensive Play That Leaves Everybody Puzzled and Mad
 "I tell you, Muzzy and I beat this contract three tricks," asserted Mr. Dale.

"You can't do it," Mr. Champion blustered. "There's nothing to the hand except the heart finesse. Either it's right and you make nine tricks or it's wrong and you don't. How can you set three no trump with a club opening?"
 "Muzzy didn't open a club," replied Mr. Dale, patiently. "He led the ace of spades."
 "Oh no!" sobbed Mr. Champion, burying his face in his hands.
 "Wait a minute," said Mr. Dale. "It turned out beautifully. Here's what happened. On the deal before this one, Muzzy had led fourth best from A Q 4 2 against a suit contract. In spite of the fact that it got us a sensationally good result, Mr. East saw fit to lecture Muzzy on leading away from an ace-queen. He said it should never be done."

'MISUNDERSTOOD'
 "But Muzzy misunderstood. He thought Mr. East was merely criticizing the lead of the fourth best from such a holding and recommending the lead of the ace."
 "Anyway," Mr. Dale continued, "there Muzzy sat with another ace-queen combination—and he led the ace. Then he asked what the contract was. Told it was three no trump, he was quite upset. After some thought he switched to the four of hearts."
 "The effect of all this on Mr. East was devastating. Naturally enough, he deduced that Muzzy thought he was playing against a suit contract and that he had opened from an ace doubleton in spades, hoping to get a third round ruff."

LOSES TRICK
 "He won the second trick with dummy's King of hearts and led a spade to take what he thought was a marked finesse. He put in the nine and Muzzy won with the 10 and led back the four of hearts."
 "At this point," Mr. Dale went on, "Mr. East was sure it was necessary to keep me out of the lead because he felt sure the ace of clubs was behind his thimble."

Maple Leafs Beat Beavers

The score was 26 to 16 Saturday night when Bo-Me-Hi Maple Leafs defeated the Bo-Me-Hi Beavers in the Junior Basketball League.

The Beavers, in first place in the league, played an off game, having among their difficulties trouble in sinking shots.

Employing their best tactics in the last quarter, the Maple Leafs added nine points to their score but the Beavers were unable to retaliate. The hard-fighting Beavers were also held scoreless in the second quarter. It was only in the first quarter that the Beavers held the higher score. Quarter time scores were: 13-10, 14-13, 17-16, 26-16.

In scoring, Stewart of the Maple Leafs held first place with eight points while Tanaka was high for the Beavers with five.

The Beavers played their roughest game of the season and had twelve fouls called against them. The Maple Leafs had eight fouls.

Lineup: Beavers—Tanaka 5, Nakatsu 3, Yamamoto, Haudenschild 3, Tsuchiya, Matsuba, Christenson 3. Total 16.

Maple Leafs—Parnell, Stewart 5, Shenton 3, Strand 4, Morrison 5, Forward, Donaldson 5, Newton, Forbes 1. Total 26.

Canadiens Move Ahead Of Toronto

MONTREAL 9 — Canadiens took sole possession of second place and the New York Rangers tightened their grip on fourth place, last play-off spot, in weekend National Hockey League games.

The Canadiens moved two points ahead of the floundering Toronto Maple Leafs by whipping the Chicago Black Hawks 7 to 0 Saturday night while the Leafs lost to the Detroit Red Wings 3 to 1.

Detroit made it ten in a row without a defeat by shading the tail-end Black Hawks in Chicago Sunday night.

It was New York's fifth win in twelve games against Boston this season. The Bruins have won three times with four games tied.

Hy Buller and Alan Stanley, both defencemen, Jack Kullman and Reg Sinclair split the Ranger goals.

Detroit, rookie Alex Delvecchio rifled the pay-off goal, as the league-leading Wings edged Chicago. Delvecchio's score came at 3:52 of the final period off a pass from Vic Stasluk.

Montreal's victory over Chicago was hammered out before a crowd of 14,506 in Montreal Forum Saturday night. Dick Moore was responsible for three of the Canadiens' seven goals.

Elks 49, CCC 300 28

Another team of senior cagers was knocked out of the semi-final Saturday night and a third jockeyed into top position for the finals.

Manson's washed out Gordon & Anderson by 20 points while Elks sang a victory over CCC 300 to the tune of 21 points.

Manson's total earnings against G & A in their two-game series stand at 127-99, making jewellers top contenders for the championship title. Their opponent will be winner of the last semi-final fixture next Tuesday when Elks and puipt millers meet for the second time.

But if coming events cast their shadows before them, Elks should have little trouble in entering the finals. Saturday night proved to be lop-sided event in which the millers threw everything but their uniforms at the hoop but still couldn't sink points.

Top bucket man Marshall left the floor in the first few minutes of the second half with five fouls called against him before he had a chance to make more than two points.

Thompson, usually good for a fair percentage of points, sank only two and Ratchford with all his tries nabbed a mere nine.

In the second half, CCC became serious checking but not before they allowed Elks a 15-point lead. George Dumas was the most effective in this department, even though this was his second game of the night. He played for Fashions in the intermediate fixture.

Although scoring by Alex Bill's lineup was well below average, several startling plays were made in the key with combination of Carlson, Davis, Don Scherk and Mathews. Carlson and Mathews were high with 10 points each. Two nearly-mel men were stripped. Neither Mel Holkestad or Petterson have seen much of the floor this season.

MANSONS SENSATIONAL
In the final fixture, Manson's owned the floor and were sensational in their shots. Time and again, both Spring and Webster looped in field goals from near impossible positions or barged through full line defence for under the hoop layups.

Each finished with 17 points while Art Olson hooked his way to 14 points.

In the opposite front court, Holkestad and Flaten carried the burden of defence and playmaking while the rest of the team shot and missed. Even so, Flaten pulled ahead in the last half to score 15 points, including three free throws.

Preferences in bowling vary from province to province. Ontario is definitely a five-pin province, but Quebec prefers the native duck pins. The Maritime provinces like candle pins (long and thin) while the west leans more to the ten-pin game. However, there has been a marked trend in the last four or five years to ten-pins across Canada.

The Institute approved a resolution from the Dairymen's Association of British Columbia which held that margarine was detrimental for use in hospitals and institutions.

A communication was received from the Minister of Education authorizing the use of standard saving time in the local school. Five members were in favor of daylight time but the majority felt it would be too confusing.

It was decided to communicate with Cecil Steel, M.L.A., suggesting that the school district of which this is part be divided up into smaller districts. Meantime, it was decided to ask that ways and means be found of transporting to Houston High School students from Perow who were now denied such High School education.

I DIDN'T FORGET, DADDY-- I WAS SO BUSY PLAYING I DIDN'T HAVE TIME TO MAIL IT.

EXCUSES-- ALL I GET AROUND HERE IS EXCUSES.

AND I THOUGHT I ASKED YOU TO PICK UP MY SHOES AT THE SHOE REPAIR SHOP.

I WAS GOING TO DO IT TOMORROW, POP.

AND YOU PROMISED ME THIS MORNING WE'D HAVE CORNED BEEF AND CABBAGE FOR SUPPER.

I'M SORRY, DEAR.

MRS. WOODLEY DROPPED IN FOR A CHAT AND I DIDN'T GET A CHANCE TO GO TO THE MARKET FOR CORNED BEEF.

MORE EXCUSES-- EVERYBODY HAS AN EXCUSE FOR NOT DOING WHAT THEY'RE SUPPOSED TO DO.

I'M THE ONLY ONE AROUND HERE WHO CAN BE DEPENDED UPON-- I WISH YOU'D ALL LEARN TO BE RELIABLE LIKE I AM.

THE LADDER IS BROKEN-- WILL YOU PLEASE HOLD IT FOR ME WHILE I PUT UP THESE DRAPES?

SURE, MOM.

IT'S SLIPPING, MAMA. I CAN'T HOLD IT!

OH, MY GOODNESS.

DAGWOOD, HELP!

HURRY, DAGWOOD, HURRY!

CRASH

MY FOOT WAS ASLEEP.

THAT'S THE WORST EXCUSE I EVER HEARD.
