

Lover's Lane Falling

OF THE MOST FAMED LOVERS' walks in Canada, the 100-year-old byway hugging the shore behind the Parliament buildings at Ottawa, is falling into the Ottawa river and becoming overgrown with bushes and trees. For years romantic couples found sanctuary on one of the benches lining the walks or wandering along the shady path. It was closed to the public in the Second World War because parts of the walk were crumbling into the river.

Credit Union Manager Acquitted on Driving Charge in Police Court

36-year-old credit union manager was acquitted in police court this morning of a driving charge arising out of a two-car collision May 21 at the corner of Third Avenue and McBride Street.

Magistrate W. D. Vance said George Viereck, secretary-manager of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Credit Union, was charged with driving recklessly. A. Bruce said: "A man who should have been charged is James Cripps, who was a crown witness, was charged with driving recklessly. Cripps is also charged in connection with last night's robbery of the Government liquor store here.

Magistrate Vance said that the 17-foot skid marks behind the vehicle driven by Cripps and described by Const. Miller were "the most significant evidence" and that it appeared Cripps had gone through the intersection on a red light.

Corporal Cawdell, RCMP, prosecuted the case and held that Viereck had swung too sharply in making a left turn.

Const. Miller, who investigated the collision, later laid the charge against Viereck, after taking measurements on the location of vehicles and several photographs. Evidence showed that Viereck, driving a coupe, had approached the Third and McBride intersection from the east, and Cripps had approached along Third from the west.

Cripps testified that he approached the intersection "at about 20 miles an hour" and entered the intersection proceeding east on Third Avenue when the signal light turned from green to amber.

"Just as I looked up I saw a car in front of me," said Cripps. "I slammed on the brakes and we collided." He said he had seen no signal by hand or flasher from the turning car.

Mr. Brown called three witnesses, besides accused, to testify in defence. Mrs. Beatrice Breaks, 344 Sixth Avenue West, and Rudolph Olsen, 134 Fifth Avenue West, were passengers with Viereck.

Both testified that their car had entered the intersection on a green light, that it turned to amber as they were well into the intersection, and that Viereck had signalled a left turn with his arm.

Both said that the oncoming panel with which they collided came on them at considerable speed, and that Viereck had stopped the car seconds before the collision.

"If Mr. Viereck hadn't stopped when he did, the truck would have hit us at the door where Mr. Olsen was sitting," said Mrs. Breaks.

Viereck himself testified that he thought the oncoming vehicle would stop when it approached the intersection on an amber light.

After the collision, Viereck said he got out of the car and telephoned the police.

Magistrate Vance cautioned Viereck to "always leave enough room when making right or left turns. Make them good and wide, it also gives you a chance to see pedestrians stepping from the curb."

"I could not say that I did not kill Mrs. Smith and I cannot deny the evidence given in this court by police officers to prove I was the man that did it," the Negro youth said.

The prosecution charged that Matthews killed Mrs. Smith on March 4 because the Negro woman had "interfered and frustrated" his love affair with a Negro girl named Peggy Bowen—the girl he planned to marry.

On the day that Mrs. Smith was killed the woman who lived in the same house, Mrs. Jocelyn Wallberg, was found bound and brutally beaten and she identified Matthews as her assailant.

Rhee Orders Release of 25,000 Anti-Red Korean War Prisoners

Nine Killed, 16 Hurt In Dash to Freedom

By The Canadian Press

TOKYO.—About 25,000 militant, anti-Red North Koreans fled Allied prison camps today as South Korean guards turned their backs in open revolt against the United Nations command.

A few hours later the UN command handed the Reds a letter at Panmunjom reporting Republic of Korea guards had been replaced by U.S. troops and that every effort is being made to recapture 24,000 prisoners still loose.

A high South Korean military authority said most of the prisoners released would be enlisted in the South Korean army.

President Syngman Rhee ordered the prisoners freed in an unprecedented move that caught his allies flat-footed and left them resentful.

DIRECT ACTION

Rhee's arbitrary order for the first time turned South Korea's vociferous anti-Red threats into direct action.

No official source would speculate whether that would delay or block the armistice that had seemed only an arm's-reach away.

First reaction from observers was that Rhee's move would not keep the Allies from signing an armistice agreement.

Rhee's order came Wednesday night and by 5 a.m. 25,000 prisoners had slipped away in the darkness and scattered through South Korea.

With most of the 16,000 South Korean guards standing by idly, small numbers of surprised U.S. soldiers tried to stop the flight with rifle fire, but they were too few.

Nine prisoners were killed and 16 were wounded.

As the news became known, the 8th Army cancelled all leaves for Allied troops.

The problem of rounding up the prisoners appeared almost impossible—many were South Koreans who had been pressed into the North Korean army. All could blend into the mass of other South Koreans, unmarked by language or physical differences.

Militia Demanded In Doukhobor Area

NELSON (CP)—Demand that the militia be called in immediately as protection against any new violence by radical Doukhobors was made here Wednesday night.

The demand was made at a meeting of representatives of the Slocan Valley Citizens' Committee and railwaymen who take trains through the Doukhobor area.

The telegram was sent to Premier Bennett and Attorney-General Bonner. It said:

"We do not consider the Doukhobor situation in the Kootenays under control, as the situation is a definite revolt against the British Columbia government.

"RCMP protection is not sufficient. We therefore demand that the militia immediately take over as per Premier W. A. C. Bennett's promise to these committees, June 3."

Another telegram, asking that representatives of the federal and provincial governments meet with the committees "immediately" was sent to Prime Minister St. Laurent, Justice Minister Garson, Premier Bennett and the attorney-general.

128 Killed In Tokyo Plane Crash

World's Worst Air Tragedy

By The Canadian Press

The Globemaster hit the ground trying to turn back to base. The crash was only four miles from the runway.

The worst previous air disaster occurred last December 20 when the same type of plane crashed after a takeoff from Larsen Air Force Base at Moses Lake, Wash. Eighty-seven U.S. soldiers on their way home for Christmas were killed and 30 survivors were injured.

Huge Military Warehouses Destroyed in Alaska Fire

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (CP)—

Wind-blown flames which started in surrounding timber destroyed two huge, multi-million dollar military warehouses at Whittier, 72 miles southeast of here, Wednesday night and are burning uncontrolled.

Alaska Defence Command officials said the flames were raging through the port's dock and had reached the vicinity of the Alaska Railroad depot.

Damage was estimated by railroad officials as "at least several million dollars" in destruction of the warehouses alone. They were bulging with military supplies when the blaze started.

The fire started at 5:45 p.m. Alaska time and quickly spread through the sprawling new area which serves as a military port of facility for the entire territory of Alaska.

A special trainload of troops was to leave here at 6 a.m. today to help military stevedore companies stationed at Whittier in fighting the blaze.

The town is isolated except by rail and air and the only communications facilities are military. They were clogged and no civilian messages were being accepted.

Riots Take 16 Lives

Armored Troops Encircle Berlin

By The Canadian Press

BERLIN.—An uneasy quiet settled over embattled East Berlin today as the half-city nursed its wounds in the wake of anti-Communist riots that took at least 16 lives.

German truck drivers crossing 106 miles of highway between West German and Berlin relayed to West Berlin police unconfirmed rumors that Red police also had shot and killed 22 rioters in Magdeburg Wednesday, and that similar riot-strikes against the Communist government erupted in Dresden, Chemnitz, Dessau and Brandenburg.

Ten thousand Soviet armored troops encircled Berlin's Russian-occupied sector, some pointing their guns westward, others directing their ominous attention toward the East Germans.

Machine-gun fire that ripped along the east-west zonal frontier in the heart of the city from Wednesday noon into the night was heard again early today.

Martial law, slapped on East Berlin Wednesday at the peak of bloody street fighting, was extended today to other cities of East Germany.

The tower (left) was badly damaged by a severe wind and rain storm which reduced its height by one-fourth (right). Built in 1833 by Antonio Antonelli to serve as a synagogue, the tower was later completed by the city of Turin and turned into a museum in honor of former King of Italy Victor Emanuel II. The roof damage was caused by falling bricks.

Battery Eleven Play 2-2 Tie With CYO

In a hard-fought game last night, a Battery team tied with CYO 2-2.

Battery was short Darrow, Ian Dunbar, Georgeson, and Mazzoni so two players from the CYO turned out for them. These were the star-half Rutton and forward Nuyten. Both played hard though they were slowed up by recurrence of an old injury.

For the Battery, Schroeder opened the score and Rutton headed in a second. In the second half the CYO had more of the play and Van Ierland and Nuyten equalized the score.

Stars for the Battery were McDougall who, in his first football game, gave a surprising display in goal and saved several shots that might have scored. The Maron brothers played stoutly at back while Rutton was a one-man team in himself. The young Schroeder brothers gave a fine display. Boulton and Fabris played hard and Stansfield and Mohan were good. White was a willing worker.

Hurley kept a good goal for CYO. Caroli and Skatani defended strongly. Romano kicked well and tackled hard. Phillips was always a dangerous forward, crossing the ball early and well. Tambourini found his former team-mate a hard man to beat and was well checked by Rutton. Varhaar and Nuyten fought hard.

Friday evening's game between the General Motors and the CYO is the crucial game as a win for CYO gives them the North Star trophy but a win for the General Motors leaves the league still undecided.

At the same time, Fashion wear successfully defended Rupert Radio challenge cup against Columbia Cellulose team with a total score of 84.

The next shoot will be held on Monday Day, July 1. Members asked to let Tommy Boulton as soon as possible whether they would prefer the shoot to be in the evening or in the day.

It is proposed to hold a shoot in two weeks during the summer every other Wednesday starting at 7:00. Further changes for the trophy are expected. The club also expects to have a few prizes available for competition.

Little League Game Changed To Friday

The "Little League" baseball game between the Pirates and the Wild Cats, scheduled for Saturday at 1:15 p.m. in Algonia Park has been set ahead to take place instead at 6:30 p.m. Friday, same place.

First game between the newly-organized baseball clubs took place last Saturday when Wild Cats edged Pirates 33-30 in a hard-slugging fixture.

Volunteer adult umpires are asked to take part in the event Friday. Spectators are welcome. Members of the two clubs are youngsters of 13 and under who "just want to play ball."

REMEMBER WHEN

Pancho Villa was declared world's flyweight champion when he knocked out Jimmy Wilde, the English titleholder, 30 years ago tonight at New York. The Filipino put on a terrific offensive in the seventh round when he sent Wilde to the canvas. Villa died two years later.

Eight-Week Spring Salmon Derby Ends This Week-End

This is the final week of the Rupert Rod & Gun Club Spring salmon derby, winding up this week-end—June 19-21—with a three-day special derby.

Three top prizes will be awarded to the three heaviest Springs weighed in during the special event which opens 5 a.m. Friday and closes at 10 p.m. Sunday, with each day also closing at 10 p.m.

Eight weekly prizes also will be awarded for the heaviest fish weighed in each week beginning with April 26, and a prize each will be given to the heaviest three fish weighed in throughout the eight-week period.

Special prizes for women, juniors and consolation entries also will be awarded.

Prizes are in valuable merchandise and fishing tackle. Leading all entries so far is a 38-pound Spring—properly named a Tyee (over 30 pounds)—weighed in by Ed Garner.

The derby is open to all anglers. Derby tickets are available at the Prince Rupert Yacht Club, the official weighing-in station and from Joe Scott at Kalen's Hardware.

Point Fortune, Que., 55 miles northwest of Montreal, formerly was an important Ottawa river navigation centre.

THE 21-YEAR-OLD son of the premier of New Brunswick, Gerard (Moose) Flemming, is trying out with Detroit of the American League and has officials of the tail-end Tigers enthusiastic. Fred Hutchinson, Tiger manager, watched Flemming work out and said the tall 185-pound centre-fielder "has all the equipment" to make the grade. A student at Bowdoin college, Brunswick, Me., Flemming was top hitter of the state college series.

Derby officials said today that competition in the derby has not been "too keen" and that there are a good number of prizes to be awarded.

"Practically anyone who weighs in a salmon will merit some kind of a prize," said officials.

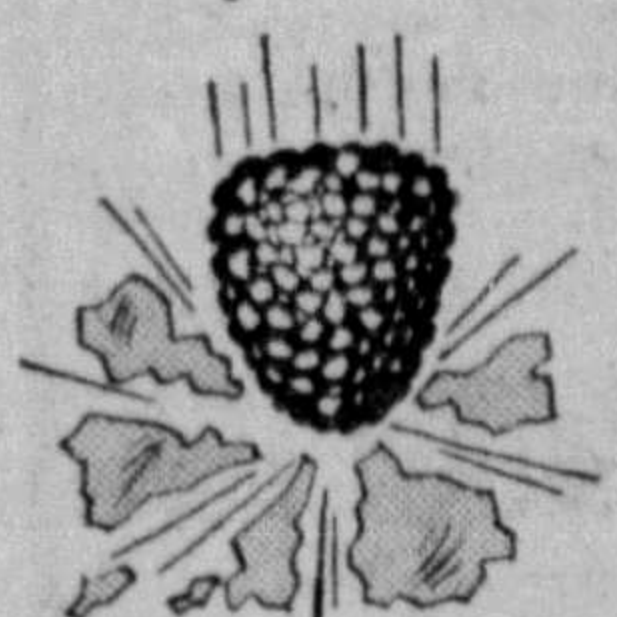

A good run of Springs is reported to have entered the harbor in recent days. Five good-sized fresh runners were hooked last Sunday off a waterfront dock, two were landed, weighing 18 and 19 pounds.

Bright-Colored Schoolrooms Produce Better Marks, Psychologists Discover

BALTIMORE (AP)—Schoolrooms painted in bright colors produce better marks and, surprisingly, more so among young boys than girls, Johns Hopkins University psychologists report.

ARMY DOCTOR REPORTS NEW POLIO CASES AT WHITEHORSE

EDMONTON (C)—Col. E. J. Young, chief medical officer for the army's Western Command, said Wednesday several new cases of polio have developed at Whitehorse, Y.T., "some of them serious."

Although Colonel Young declined to quote a figure, he reported last week on returning from an inspection trip to Whitehorse that the disease had affected a total of 53 Canadian servicemen and their dependents. Civilian sources then reported 80 cases.

The psychologists found that planned color painting has a definite effect on the behavior and performance of school children.

The greatest improvement was among kindergarten children.

"Perhaps the most surprising revelation was that boys show greater color response than girls," the psychologists stated after two years of research.

Complete scholastic and attitude reports were kept on all the children during one year in three schools needing new paint. Then one school was repainted according to the principles of "color dynamics," the second in the usual light buff walls and white ceilings, and the third untouched.

The second-year performances of the students were next compared with the first.

"A study of the work-play and language performance of kindergarten children shows a 33.9-per-cent improvement between the first and second year in the school painted with dynamics; 7.3 per cent in the second painted with conventional color; and only three per cent in the unpainted school," the psychologists found.

In Grades 3 through 6 the color environment school led with 8.9 per cent improvement; the conventionally painted school showed only .5 per cent improvement, while the unpainted school showed a decrease of 2.7 per cent.

The "color dynamics" treatment called for painting of corridor walls in yellow with the doors and baseboards in palace gray. The rooms with northern exposure were done in pastel rose; those facing south, in blue and green.

The front walls were done in a danger shade of the predominating color in each room. "This had the important effect of reducing wall glare, thus making it more restful for the eyes to be turned in that direction, focussing pupil attention toward the front of the room," the psychologists said.

Slate boards were painted green instead of black.

Increased Trade Urged By Johnston

VICTORIA (C)—Eric A. Johnston of Washington, D.C., president of the Motion Picture Association of America, said here lowering United States tariff barriers would not solve free world trade problems.

"Even if the U.S. were to wipe out all its tariff duties we would not by that action alone solve the problems that exist," he told the annual convention of the Washington State Bankers' Association.

He said the U.S. should import more, but he emphasized it is incumbent upon other countries to take "real steps" to increase trade among themselves.

"Some nations have restrictions and barriers to the free flow of trade that are more stringent than ours," he added. He said highest priority should be given to stimulating increased flow of capital around the world to help countries needing development capital.

Mr. Johnston is a former president of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Sons Burn 14 Homes On Sunday

NELSON, B.C. (C)—Fire-raiding Sons of Freedom Doukhobors destroyed 14 homes in the West Kootenays early Sunday in an apparent retaliation for the 14-year prison sentence passed Saturday against Paul Popoff.

Popoff was convicted of starting fires which destroyed a $45,000 planer mill, a community hall and house during Doukhobor raids last summer.

"I cannot see where there is hope for reformation for this man," Mr. Justice H. S. Wilson said as he pronounced sentence in assize court.

A jury acquitted Nick Konkin after he had been exonerated by Popoff's court testimony.

A one-room log school house also went up in flames Sunday. The 14 homes, most of them small log cabins, all belonged to the Sons of Freedom.

Twelve of the fires were in the Krestova district. Two were at Appedale and the other was at Winlaw in the lower Slokan valley.

The fires followed the usual pattern of raids that have terrorized the district in the past.

The radical Freedomites struck fast, using gasoline bombs made with beer bottles.

Baggage Man Retires, Rode With Royalty

VANCOUVER (C)—An ambassador's brother and a member of the 1939 royal train crew, Edward Bull, Canadian National Railways train baggage man, lifted his last pieces off the train this morning.

He is retiring on pension after serving 45 years with the CNR, making him the senior trainman west of the Great Lakes. As he completed his "last run," many of his railway friends were at the depot to greet him and wish him many years of health to enjoy his retirement.

The highlight of "Eddie" Bull's career came in 1939 when he was assigned to the royal train carrying the late King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, now the Queen Mother, from Vancouver to Kamloops.

The son of a doctor in Oslo, Norway, Mr. Bull came to Canada in 1907 to go farming in Saskatchewan. He is the only member of his family to come here.

His brother, Iens, entered the Norwegian civil service and was a deputy minister at the time of the German invasion in 1940. He spent the war years in Sweden but, with liberation, returned to Norway and was appointed ambassador to Holland. For the past year he has been Norwegian ambassador to Denmark.

"Eddie" has not seen him, or any other member of the family, since 1913.

Mr. Bull thinks he may go back to Norway for a visit, now that he is retired, but he still prefers Canada and intends to continue living here.

Organized Marketing Board Urged

SMITHERS—"Our natural market is to the west, where Prince Rupert is established and growing, and the new town of Kitimat, with an expected population of at least 15,000 people in the next few years, offer an incomparable opportunity for this valley to sell all the foodstuff it can produce," W. T. Burns, superintendent of the Dominion Experimental Substation at Smithers told the Bulkley Valley Co-operative Seed Growers' Association.

Based on a 15,000 population, Kitimat will consume at least 2,750 tons of potatoes, 1,375 tons of meat, 360,000 gallons of milk and 300,000 dozen eggs in a year, he declared.

An organized marketing board would be necessary to regulate supplies to wholesalers and retailers, Mr. Burns considered. He emphasized the importance of continuance an easy quantity flow of produce.

It was Mr. Burns' opinion that the present high cost of farm produce would be overcome by co-operative marketing should time spent by farmers in marketing be applied to production. He estimated as much as 25 per cent of productive time was being lost by the present inefficient marketing methods.

It was also his opinion that Bulkley Valley farm units could produce more economically if of suitable size to allow for a farmer's full time occupation. A good marketing organization, he thought, would take the selling of produce off his hands and leave the farmer free to concentrate on the growing of crops.

Farm produce most likely to be in demand were meats, milk, eggs and vegetables, said Mr. Burns. In closing he offered whatever time and advice he could in his official capacity as experimental station superintendent to get such a scheme going.

B.C. CIVIL DEFENCE FORCE STRONGEST IN CANADA

VANCOUVER (CP)—Provincial officials said today British Columbia's civil defence force is the strongest in Canada—but that it's still not good enough.

The provincial secretary of the civil defence department said B.C. has 35,342 persons engaged in defence work. That is more per capita than any other province. There was also a greater percentage of trained personnel in B.C. than in any other province.

Player Drops Single Trick To Pick Up 3 in the Suit

Mr. Dale tried several unsuccessful safety measures in today's hand, in his efforts to prevent Mr. Abel's getting the lead. Finally, he got a favorable break which enabled him to accumulate nine tricks.

Mr. Abel led the jack of hearts, dummy ducked and Mr. Champion won with the king. A heart was returned and won with dummy's ace. Now Mr. Dale made the right choice of suits to set up by leading a club to his king.

Mr. Abel was the danger hand since the ace of clubs was the only quick entry the defenders had, it had to be knocked out first.

Mr. Abel won the third trick with the ace of club and fired another heart, clearing the suit. He was now known to have two good hearts left and it was vital to keep him from getting in again.

Winning the third round of hearts in his own hand with the queen, Mr. Dale led a small diamond and put in dummy's nine spot. This lost to the 10 and a spade was returned. Mr. Dale went up with the ace. There was a remote chance of dropping the one king and if it turned out that Mr. Champion had that card, the lead could be safely surrendered to him later, as he was out of hearts.

Three clubs tricks were now cashed. Mr. Dale discarding the cur of spades on the last one. Mr. Abel had to make two discards and he dropped a spade and a diamond.

The top diamonds were cashed next and, when that suit broke, nine tricks were in sight. True, Mr. Dale could have made four-odd all the time if he had led the king of diamonds, returned a diamond and finessed the jack. But that play would have lost the contract if Mr. Abel had started with the queen of diamonds and even only one other card in the suit.

Mr. Dale was glad to give up one diamond trick to increase his chances of winning three tricks without surrendering the lead to his lefthand opponent.

Shapely Billie Nelson of New York makes it patently obvious why she was chosen the "1953 Vacation Queen" in a contest among vacationers in New York State hotels. As a contestant, Billie made it a bit unfair for the others in the race, but she made it easy for the judges to pick the winner.

St. Laurent Backs Pearson

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent enunciated a hands-off attitude towards the internal politics of Asian countries, whether or not they are run by Communists.

He called, too, for "a realistic" approach in dealing with all foreign governments—presumably including that of Red China under appropriate circumstances—saying that nations have to deal with the leaders over which they have authority.

In making these statements at a press conference, he reaffirmed External Affairs Minister Pearson's Harvard University speech of Thursday in which Mr. Pearson told the United States there would be little outside support for any attempt to oust Red regimes in Asia.

His words also recalled Mr. Pearson's statement that the Canadian government would be ready to consider recognition of the Chinese Communist regime once the Korean war is ended and withdrawal of Chinese troops ordered.

Mr. St. Laurent, replying to a question about the Pearson speech, said discussions he has had—just returned from the Commonwealth prime ministers' conference in London—have led to the conclusion that Communism as such is not the main concern of the Asian peoples.

They were concerned with reforms, and reforms were being made by people who perhaps had Communist leaders but who were concerned not with Marxist theories but with better government.

SMITHERS—The Bulkley Valley is one of the most favorably located farming districts of British Columbia, according to Tom Leach of the CBC Farm and Fisheries broadcast department. Mr. Leach visited the district on his itinerary through the central Interior, accompanying C. and J. F. Wilson of CBC engineering staff.

While here he visited many of the district's farms and met and talked with many of the farmers. Conductor on his tour was Ken Jameson, provincial agriculturalist, whose office is at Smithers. Impressed with the work being carried on at the Dominion Experimental sub-station five miles east of Smithers, he spent some time there and made a number of recordings for broadcast. Walter Burns, sub-station superintendent, discussed with him the problems confronting farmers as the potential markets for farm produce building up at the can's Kitimat, Terrace, Prince Rupert and Smithers.

CBC engineers with whom Leach was travelling were making their regular trip through the Interior checking on broadcasting stations of the transmission system. A few minor changes were made at Vanderhoof and Smithers. Stations at Prince George, Burns Lake and Hazelton were rebuilt where a change in design was considered desirable to provide the greatest coverage possible and a clearer signal.

Planned Comet Jet Service To Be Delayed

VANCOUVER (CP)—Canadian Pacific Airlines' proposed Comet jet plane service between Sydney, Australia, and Honolulu will not be inaugurated this year.

F. M. McGregor, manager of overseas lines, said the South Pacific route—Vancouver to Sydney via Honolulu, Fiji and Auckland—is being flown with new Douglas DC-6B 64-passenger airliners.

First Comet to be delivered to the airline crashed in Pakistan some months ago and all aboard were killed. There were no passengers.

The announcement said the airline now has only one Comet available for delivery this year and it is not feasible to operate a scheduled service on this basis.

Quebec is the only province in Canada with a bicameral legislature—an assembly and an upper house.
