Little Timber To Be Lost By Alcan Flooding

VANCOUVER — Reports that "vast amounts" of timber would be flooded by Aluminum Company of Canada's development in British Columbia were discounted Thursday by P. S. Bonney, forestry engineer. He made a survey of the area for Hecate Development Ltd. and reported: Only a relatively small amount of merchantable timber is within the area to be flooded by the Nechako dam in the Ootsa-Tahsa lakes area. Based on cutting practices of the district, there is 28,000,000 feet of merchantable timber to be flooded, and of this only 10,000,000 could be logged on an economic basis. Mr. Bonney reported that the best timber has already been sold by B.C. Forest Service, leaving from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 feet recoverable by standard logging methods. Lands to be flooded at full reservoir level has been estimated at 117,000 acres. Private lands total 9,300 acres; Indian reserves, 500, and crown lands 108,100 acres.

Two Parties Contest All Seats; Voters Increase

VANCOUVER (CP)—A total of 212 candidates Thursday filed official nomination papers for June 12 British Columbia general election. Number is largest on record. In the scramble for 48 seats are 48 Liberals, 48 CCFers, 47 Progressive Conservatives, 47 Social Credit, eight Christian Democrats, six Independents, five Labor-Progressives (Communists), two Labor and one Socialist party of Canada. Progressive Conservatives were nominated in all except the Fernie riding, held for last 32 years by veteran Laborite Tom Uphill. Social Credit placed candidates in all except Atlin constituency, now held by CCF's Frank Calder, only Indian member of Canadian Legislature. Christian Democratic Party, emerging on the political scene at the last minute, is running eight candidates in greater Vancouver ridings. Party said it is for minority rights for education and thus would support separate school aims of the Roman Catholic Church. Party added, however, it is non-denominational though all its candidates are Roman Catholics. Total of 793,428 persons are eligible to vote, 144,409 more than in the 1949 general election. In the last contest, 73.65 percent of those eligible cast ballots and party leaders said they expected the percentage to be even higher next month. Standing in Legislature at dissolution April 10 was Liberal 23, Progressive Conservative 11, CCF eight, Coalition three, Independent two and Labor one.

Citizenship Day Message From Prime Minister

OTTAWA — Canada has shown the world what groups of different origins can do through understanding and co-operation, said Prime Minister St. Laurent in a special message for Citizenship Day, May 23. Text of the Prime Minister's statement: "On Friday, for the third successive year, citizens of Canada will be celebrating Citizenship Day. The ceremonies that marked the two previous observances will be repeated in every province of our nation. "The economic expansion of Canada and its growing importance, nationally and internationally, entitle us to be justifiably proud of being Canadians. "As the various elements that make up our population continue to draw closer, it seems altogether fitting to observe our common citizenship and our common loyalty to Canada. "Thanks to the contributions made by the two older groups and added to by the other peoples who have come to Canada, we have formed one nation and we have shown the world what groups of different origins can really do when they practise understanding and co-operation. "In spite of the stresses and strains of the present international situation, we remain confident and we will continue to work together towards a common ideal: that of a nation ever more united and anxious to contribute fully to the preservation of peace in the world and to the improvement of human welfare."

Cheery Outlook For Week-end Says Weatherman

Tomorrow, the 24th of May, is regarded throughout his province as the day on which beaches, resorts and all kinds of summer sports and entertainment officially get underway. In Prince Rupert, the season will get away to a good start with the May Day celebration at Roosevelt Park. But, foremost in the minds of all is the weather, so the forecaster has dug down with this cheery prediction: "Weather will be very pleasant throughout the province." Of course, he has a lot more to say about storms, but they are not big ones. For those who may wish to leave the city for the holiday week-end, public works department officials report roads in fairly good condition all the way to Smithers. Danger of the Skeena and Bulkley rivers flooding is abating, although the situation could change. Railway officials said the Skeena has dropped two feet since Wednesday.

Kitimat Supplies From Rupert

All meat used for feeding more than 1,200 men at the Kitimat site of Aluminum Company of Canada's future smelter is being shipped from Prince Rupert, meat packers said here today. About nine tons a week are purchased by Kitimat Constructors. It is shipped here from Edmonton, then loaded aboard Canadian Pacific Steamships for the down-coast tow. All packing plants here expect they will be given equal contracts.

Big Industrial Site Smashed by Sorties

SEOUL (CP)—United Nations planes smashed a huge industrial complex southwest of Pyongyang today in culmination of what United States Air Force called its greatest saturation bombing attack in the Korean war. Nearly 800 fighter-bomber sorties were flown against the target. Burned and blasted were Communist hand-grenade arsenals, surface works of coal mine storehouses, and nearly a half-mile of machine shops and wire houses between Pyongyang and its port city of Chinnampo. Earlier Communist big guns staged their biggest firepower show in months—a saturation barrage of a small United Nations sector on the western Korean front. In less than an hour, the Reds poured about 2,400 artillery and mortar shells across the 3½-mile front of northwest Yonchon. Allies replied with infantry and artillery fire. About 46 Chinese were killed. Naval ships, too, were in action today. Canadian destroyer Athabaskan and Royal Navy destroyer Comus bombarded troop and gun positions on Ongjin peninsula, west coast of Korea. At Panmunjom, Communist delegates today agreed to a three-day recess in the tightly deadlocked armistice talks after Allies' new chief delegate Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr. told them "our stand is unshakable—we will make no further concessions." Harrison told newspaper men later he made the recess short "because we want to get an armistice."

RCMP Still Investigating

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY NEWS KLEMTU—A parachute bearing U.S. markings with some human bones and branches of a tree entangled in it was brought to this little village by Lewis Clifton of nearby Harley Bay. The parachute was hooked by a native halibut fisherman off Ashdown Island last Wednesday. It is thought the remains may be one of the crew of the U.S. B-36 bomber which crashed off Princess Royal Island two years ago with 17 men aboard. The crew of the huge bomber bailed out and all but five of them were rescued. The plane was enroute from Fairbanks, Alaska, to Fort Worth, Texas. RCMP at Ocean Falls investigating. The find will be sent to Prince Rupert where it will be turned over to American authorities.

Logger Charged With Murder As Victim Dies

VANCOUVER — William Moon, 24-year-old logger from Campbell River, was charged with murder Thursday after a man beaten in a skid road robbery, died in hospital. Renaldo Valpe, 74-year-old rooming house watchman, was brutally beaten May 14 by two men who robbed him of $20 and a wrist watch. He died Thursday, and Moon, held on suspicion of robbery, was charged with murder in his death. Another man is still sought following the robbery which, police said, followed a drinking party. Valpe was found in his room and taken to hospital suffering from a broken hip and fractured jaw.

Fish Sale Charges Bring $100 Fine

VANCOUVER — Four men, one known to fishermen at Prince Rupert, were convicted in police court here Wednesday on charges of catching, handling and attempting to dispose of out-of-season halibut. Julius Barth, who operated in fishing grounds near Rupert last winter, was fined $100 for catching halibut near Prince Rupert. Magistrate Oscar Orr fined George Jackson, Limited, and Lam Tin $100 each for attempting to dispose of 500 pounds of halibut. Lorne Sims, who sold the fish to the Jackson company, was sentenced to 20 days in jail. His sentence will run concurrently with a two-month term he now is serving for breaking and entering.

Unions Finally Settle U.S. Rail Labor Dispute

WASHINGTON — The three-year U.S. rail labor dispute ended when three big unions reluctantly accepted a White House peace proposal. Approval of unions foreshadowed a quick return of seized roads to private ownership after 21 months under government control. Carriers accepted the White House proposal Monday night. More than 150,000 members of engineers, fireman and conductors will get an immediate wage boost up to 37 cents an hour and lump sum payments of $600 to $1,100 for back pay to October 1950. Back wages will cost railroads about $100,000,000.

Legion Endorses Conscription For Defence

MONTREAL — Canadian Legion's national convention has re-endorsed its 1950 stand for immediate conscription, but accepted a Quebec proposal that it should be called selective service instead. Convention reaffirmed a sweeping declaration which, if adopted, would mobilize all Canada's resources in a preparedness program and in event of war. For the first time, two clergymen were elected to top jobs in the Legion. Dr. C. V. Lumsden, 57, Baptist minister from Wolfville, N.S., was elected president, and Dean J. O. Anderson, 39, of Winnipeg, Anglican clergyman, named first vice-president.

Let's Help Our Children

IT'S OUR DUTY as well as a privilege to help the children in our city. There are dozens of service clubs and other organizations throughout the world that spend many hours and dollars to see that our children have fun and games.

The Kinsmen Club of Prince Rupert during the past eight years has raised nearly $20,000 to provide a summer camp for our children.

Their cause is a good one that deserves the support of every citizen.

This Saturday, the Kinsmen are staging their annual 24th of May celebrations. The money derived from this event will be spent on the kiddies' camp, built and maintained by the Kinsmen near Terrace.

Let's all get behind this club. Support them, buy a ticket, even if you don't attend the celebrations.

Remember the proceeds are used to help those kiddies whose parents cannot afford to send them to summer playgrounds.

Besides this yearly affair, the Kinsmen hold annual Christmas and Hallowe'en parties for our children.

Let's all help the Kinsmen help the kiddies.

No Room For Discrimination

TODAY is Citizenship Day in Canada, an event which is being celebrated for the third year. It is observed to remind us of the privileges and duties of Canadians.

Citizenship Day is also observed to welcome new citizens into our community and to show to prospective new citizens that we enjoy our freedoms and democracy.

In a news item yesterday, a leader in the community was quoted:

"We want to show our new citizens and future citizens that they are needed and wanted in our community." He went on to say further that "by showing these people they are a part of our community we can help to avoid discrimination."

While in Canada we see all groups of people engaged in the common effort of being good citizens, we cannot hide the fact that there are still minority groups, practically segregated from our community life.

Such conditions do not lead towards unity of a nation. On the contrary, such conditions are the wedges that can be used in attempts to split up our nation. These splits are often attempted right under our noses in our own communities.

With enough splitting, we could be torn assunder.

In order to strive for unity we must first face the facts that as people, one group is not superior to the other. Regardless of race, creed or religion—we are all Canadians and as such must be accepted with equal prestige in any Canadian community.

Let us remember this, not only today but from one Citizenship day to another.

As I See It

by Elmore
Philpott

Ottawa Final

OTTAWA: When the Prime Minister walked with me to the door of his office the other day, after an interview about which I have written previously, he said:

"You must have a very interesting life, Mr. Philpott."

I think he may have gleaned the rather mistaken impression that I am constantly travelling to foreign lands. Anyway, I know he was pleased by what I told him of our Canadian representatives abroad. It was that in the umpteenth countries I visited last year the Canadian official people struck me as the most fair minded and level headed of all the professional diplomatic crowd.

By that I mean that no matter where you go the Canadians seem to give you the least prejudiced reports on the background of the situation in which they are in. They do not seem to go off the deep end, or take sides in local causes or regional squabbles as some other nations' representatives seemed to.

me too much and too often to do.

I FOUND that true in Egypt, Pakistan, India and Yugoslavia, for instance. Yet in all those countries most foreign diplomats, and their staffs, were markedly partisan.

Take the touchy case of India and Pakistan—two new nations or reborn nations which had recently been fighting each other. Most of the foreigners I met out that way were either fervently pro-Pakistan or pro-India. But I did not find a single Canadian, in high office or more humble capacity, who took a slanted or even one-eyed point of view. All of them seemed to have the faculty to look all around the matter and to give you a fair and balanced sum-up.

NOW at the end of this brief look-see visit to Ottawa I see the other side of the coin. As a people we Canadians are dependable, steady going, unenthusiastic and unostentatious. Nobody could call us fatheads, for as a nation we are certainly not stupid. But friendly critics might call us the flatheads without insulting us too much, for here we have a profound instinctive distrust of anything or any person too far out of line with the ordinary.

That seems to me the key to why our diplomats and other officials abroad are so fair minded and impartial. But it also seems to me the key to why our politics at Ottawa are duller, less spectacular than those of some other countries. We have few geniuses, few freaks.

There is such a broad basis of underlying agreement between all the parties that you just don't get the sparks which fly from the clash of flint against steel. We have no groups in parliament that are anywhere near as different as flint from steel.

THE FIERCE debate this year on NATO seems to me to have done a wonderful job of crystallizing support for Canada's foreign policy of 1952. Now everybody knows what is what and where we are really trying to go.

Even on the thorny and ticklish question of Germany I find a very wide basis of agreement amongst the Liberal, Conservative and CCF parties. I think that all the well informed MPs are alive to the danger of what a re-armed, aggressive Germany would mean, slam bang in the middle of Europe, and hence would much prefer some agreed solution which might transform Germany into what we might call a bigger Switzerland.

But the best informed are also aware that if we too readily swallowed the Russian offer for all foreigners to walk out of both east and west Germany—the net result might be a set-up for another Communist coup on the Czechoslovak model.

RE the re-armament program—the top men seem to have no acute worries over man-

Women Drivers Good or Poor

TORONTO (CP)—There are two types of women drivers — good and poor, says Mrs. Kay Petre, famed woman racing driver.

Mrs. Petre first began racing in 1933 on the noted British track, Brooklands. She wound up third in her first crack at car racing but in 1937 she set a record for women drivers of 150 to 160 miles an hour.

She thinks there are more good than poor women drivers in Canada, and that, she says, is because they start driving at an early age.

Mrs. Petre, women's advisor to the British motor industry, is in Canada to find out what Canadian women drivers like in cars. They've told her they like gay, attractive colors, inside and out. They want handy ash trays that don't stick, roomy glove compartments, leather upholstery and lots of windows.

Camera's Value

MONTREAL (CP)—"Photography is an artistic medium of expression," said provincial Under-Secretary Jean Bruchesi in opening an exhibition of photographs here. He said "it compares very well with painting, sculpture and architecture." The exhibition is sponsored by the Montreal Camera Club which observes its 20th anniversary this year.

Youths Warned

MONTREAL (CP)—Warning that such "toys" as air rifles sometimes lead youths into the paths of crime was issued by Police Director Albert Langlois here. Police are cracking down on the use of BB guns and similar weapons, which may not be sold to children under 14 without a permit.

Door prizes at the Rotary Club Ladies' Tea yesterday afternoon were won by two women who live only a block apart on the same street. Mrs. D. Radford of 1944 Atlin Avenue won a coffee table donated by Tom Christie of Wood-Bilt Products, and Mrs. George Shenton of 2058 Atlin, won the furs donated by Bill Scuby, owner of the fur store here which bears his name.

Timely RECIPES

From feast to famine, that's been the lot of potatoes the last couple of years.

Rich cream sauce seems such an appropriate dressing, why not combine them with your main dish and serve the sauce over all?

SALMON CREAM POTATO CASSEROLE

Cook new potatoes in their jackets (vitamins, you know) then skin and dice. Add to plenty of cream sauce. Add a chopped sweet onion and pour into a baking dish. Make up a recipe of salmon loaf and spread over the top. Bake at 350° until properly browned on the top.

Or vary your cream sauce in the French manner:

SAUCE SOUBISE (Serves 4)

Chop 2 large white onions and cook gently in 3 tablespoons butter or margarine until tender but not brown. Blend in 2 tablespoons flour. Add 1½ cups of milk, including top milk, gradually and stir until thickened. Season with salt, pepper and a pinch of marjoram. Serve over eight freshly boiled new potatoes.

And here's a different twist, something rather crisp to serve, for instance, with a creamed main dish such as chicken:

Crumbled New Potatoes (Serves 6)

12 new potatoes
½ cup melted butter or margarine

½ cup fine cornflake crumbs
1 tablespoon salt
2 additional tablespoons butter or margarine

Wash potatoes and cook in skins until tender. Remove skins. Roll potatoes in melted butter, then in crumbs mixed with salt. Saute in remaining butter until golden brown.

Rotary Men Pour Tea And Women Love it

If a lot of Prince Rupert's Rotary Club members complain of aching backs or sore feet today, they have good reason.

They worked hard yesterday afternoon but none complained, they enjoyed it.

The men served the ladies at the club's annual tea in the auditorium at the Civic Centre.

And the ladies loved it. The men, all leading business in the city, poured the drinks—tea or coffee—served sandwiches and cake and performed all the duties required to make their guests comfortable and happy.

To top off the party the men staged a fashion show.

Latest in men's summer attire was modelled by club members while Henry Pluyme, pianist for the Rotary choir played soft music, and Garnet Hull described the material and styles of store shirts, slacks, jackets, suits and coats supplied by Watts & Nickerson.

The tea got underway shortly after 2 p.m. when Mrs. J. Parks of 716 6th Avenue West, and Mrs. R. B. Morgan, 636 Taylor Street, entered the auditorium.

A LITTLE NERVOUS

They were greeted at the door by nervous club members who had taken their "posts" only a short time earlier.

The pourers, looking trim in business suits and wearing black bowler hats, reached for their pots, but the strain was eased as the two ladies and many others who were directly behind, visited the cooking booth and other stalls before being seated.

HIVE OF ACTIVITY

However, by 3 p.m. the auditorium was a hive of activity. Men rushing around with sandwiches, cake, tea and coffee, the ladies watching, whispering, greeting each other and generally enjoying themselves.

The men set up 24 tables and arranged several chesterfield suits on which the ladies relaxed.

No cups were broken, no trays were dropped, nobody had tea or coffee spilled on them and everybody went home—the ladies happy and relaxed, the men happy, but tired.

Proceeds from the event will be used by Rotary to complete another of the club's ventures—the tennis courts.

Permanent Operation For Rupert Elevators

Enough Grain For Steady Business

Prince Rupert's grain elevators, recently brought back into service after many years of idleness, are to be operated and staffed on a permanent basis.

Announcement was made today by Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce, according to a wire received from E. T. Applewhite, MP for Skeena.

The elevator will be staffed on a permanent basis and kept open for business.

"I have good reason to believe enough grain trade through Prince Rupert is in sight to keep our elevator busy," said Mr. Applewhite.

Inactivity of the large grain distributing system here has long been a subject of persistent campaigning by Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce.

Several resolutions by the local body have been forwarded in the past calling for continued operation of the elevators. A similar resolution was adopted at last year's Central B. C. Associated Boards of Trade convention here.

Said Chamber of Commerce President T. Norton Youngs: "We have been a long time seeing this come to pass, but it's in line with the general industrial boom of the north."

From his recuperation bed at his home, J. D. (Jack) McRae, member of the last Legislature, said enthusiastically:

"This is further proof of the interest shown in this northern seaport of British Columbia."

"It bears out my contention for many years that the economy of shipping to the Orient from Prince Rupert is proving itself. Prince Rupert does not have to be subsidized like other west coast ports, such as New Westminster. It can operate on straight economy with trans-Pacific shipping."

Beginning in November, eight ships have loaded some 22,720,000 bushels of wheat and two others, nearly a million bushels of barley, all shipped to Japan. At present, the third "barley ship" is loading.

Before November, 1951, the elevator had been idle for nearly 20 years.

Russ Protests American Aid To Iran Army

MOSCOW (C)—Russia, in a stiff note, has protested Iran's acceptance of American military aid and warned it works against good relations with Moscow.

Note was delivered by Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky to the Iranian ambassador here on Thursday. It charged that by taking American military aid Iran had violated the Soviet-Iranian treaty of 1921.

The Soviet note was published in all leading newspapers.

It declared "by this token the Iranian army loses its character as a national army of an independent sovereign state" and any acceptance of aid "is putting the Iranian army under control of the United States government."

Russia accused Iran, her neighbor to the south, of co-operating with the U.S. "in the implementation of the latter's aggressive plans directed against the Soviet Union."

It came just four weeks after America announced resumption of military aid to Iran.

Legion Calls For Meyer to Serve For Life

MONTREAL (CP)—Canadian Legion called on the government Thursday to make Maj.-Gen. Kurt Meyer serve his life term in prison for wartime atrocities against Canadian troops.

Decision was made at the national convention after chairman and Defence Minister Claxton had written to the Legion "to give assurance there is no intention at this time to deal with Meyer's sentence," and to say the Federal Government still retains ultimate control of Meyer.

Delegates, by a slim margin in standing vote, rejected Ontario delegation's request Meyer be brought back to a Canadian prison from Germany, "to restore confidence in the statements by the government and to keep faith with our dead comrades."

Issue was provoked by reports Meyer may be referred to an International Clemency Court when West Germany signs the peace pact shortly.

Mysterious Diplomats Now Fired

LONDON (AP)—Guy Burgess and Donald MacLean, the two diplomats whose disappearance has embarrassed Britain for a year now, were dropped quietly from the foreign office roster today.

They have been absent without leave for long enough. Foreign Under-Secretary Anthony Utting explained, and their appointments are being resumed as "a routine disciplinary measure."

Nutting announced the matter to the House of Commons yesterday in a brief statement on the two diplomats, last seen hurriedly out of Britain to France on May 25, 1951.

MacLean, 38, was head of the foreign office's American department. Burgess, 40, had been recalled from the British embassy in Washington, where he was second secretary.

There has been no real word of their whereabouts since then. Speculation is that they have been swallowed up somewhere behind the iron curtain.

What is

ALTERNATIVE VOTING

and how does it work?

1 IT'S FAIR!

The Alternative Vote, to be used in the coming election, prevents the election of a candidate on a minority vote. The Alternative Vote is a fair method of voting because it enables you to vote for your favorite candidate as number one, your second choice as number two and so forth. You are thereby given the opportunity of selecting the candidates in order of your preference.

2 IT'S EASY!

It's as simple as before, only instead of marking an X against your one favorite candidate only, you can mark 1-2-3-4 with your first choice as number one. In the majority of ridings where one member only is to be elected you will mark one ballot only, listing the candidates in order of your preference. In a few ridings where more than one member is to be elected, more than one ballot will be used. Marking of these ballots, however, will be done exactly the same way as where only one ballot is used.

There is no problem or anything difficult in Alternative Voting. It is simple and fair. Under the old system of voting, it was possible for the candidate or party with a minority vote to get elected. For instance, if two candidates had 1000 votes each and the third had 1025, the third candidate would win even though 2000 votes had been cast against him. Under the Alternative Vote this is impossible. You mark the ballot thus: 1-for your first choice; 2-for your second choice and so on. If, on the first count, there is no absolute majority for any one candidate, the one with the fewest ballots marked in his favor is dropped and his ballots distributed among the candidates according to the second choices as indicated on these ballots. Again, if on the second count, no absolute majority is reached the same process would be used again. Then, when the candidate who has more votes than all the other candidates together is found, he wins and is elected.

Remember, all you have to do is to mark a numeral 1-2-3-4 against the candidates listed on the ballot in order of your preference.

Mrs. Keen Wince at Partner's Bidding

Mrs. Keen closed her eyes in resignation when, after her one no trump response, Miss Brash bid all the way to five diamonds. She had all her one no trump bid promised, but with such stodgy distribution, her hand probably would take no more than two tricks at best. And if Miss Brash had held nine winners she would have opened the bidding with two diamonds.

Anyway, she lived to see the contract made by her partner's sharp, thoughtful, well-timed play.

SNAP JUDGMENT POOR

MONTREAL (CP) — So-called "miracle men" who claim they know a good man when they see one were criticized at the McGill Personnel Appraisal Institute here. Dr. N. C. Kephart of Purdue University said good selection of employees depends on careful accumulation of knowledge concerning the man and the job.

Fingerling Trout Migrated From West to Eastern Lakes

MONTREAL, Que.—Eight thousand lake and speckled trout fingerlings from the government fish hatchery in the lower Maligne River near Jasper Park Lodge, Alberta, will be shipped early in June to certain lakes in Prince Albert National Park, Saskatchewan, and Riding National Park, Manitoba, in the hope of developing trout fishing in those areas within the next few years.

Canadian National Railways said here today that the National Parks Branch Department of Resources and Development had completed arrangements with the railway to provide a baggage car at Jasper on June 5 for shipment in tanks of these fingerlings.

Representatives of the National Parks branch will accompany the shipment to supervise the servicing of the tanks en route and the planting of the fish on arrival.

At Saskatoon the tanks containing 2,000 young speckled trout will be removed from the train and immediately motored to selected lakes in Prince Albert National Park.

bert National Park. A similar operation will take place at Rivers, where the tanks containing 6,000 lake trout fingerlings will be trucked to the lakes in Riding Mountain National Park. Both parks are located away from rail lines.

Beavers Foil Attempts Of Power Crews

CAMPBELL RIVER (CP) — The British Columbia Power Commission is having beaver trouble and it looks like a long battle.

Trouble started last year when power lines were laid from Duncan sub-station to a paper mill. A family of beavers dammed a small stream along the island highway.

Engineers dynamited the dam because it flooded the highway. The beavers moved a short distance upstream and built another dam. When this was dynamited, they built another. This was destroyed and they are working on still another.

Frank Assu, who lives at a nearby reserve, swears he saw beavers filling a six-foot hole for a power pole, replacing four feet of dirt.

Improvements Needed

PICTOU, N.S. (CP) — The Supreme Court grand jury here recommended that a prison farm system be instituted in Nova Scotia so that prisoners may be provided with useful occupations. Mr. Justice W. L. Hall had told the jury he was convinced the present jail system "is a disgrace."

Artists Help

AULAC, N.B. (CP) — An art exhibit of pictures of Prince Edward Island scenes will be a feature of the P.E.I. Information Bureau here in July and August. The display will be changed every 10 days for benefit of travellers through here, junction point for roads into Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

TRAIN BOATMEN

LONDON (CP) — Trustees of the London Parochial Charities have earmarked £50,000 from surplus income during the next five years to encourage training in seamanship and river-craft on the River Thames.

RECALLS DARING FEAT

OSLO (CP) — The former Nazi troop and prisoner transport vessel Donau was raised from the bottom of Oslofjord and will be renamed Bergensiana after extensive alterations. The 12,000-ton vessel was sunk at its dock in January, 1945, by Norwegian saboteurs after they learned it was to carry reinforcements for the Germans' last stand in western Europe.

Paper Mill Increases Price Newsprint

POWELL RIVER (CP) — Powell River Company Limited Wednesday announced a $10-a-ton increase in newsprint prices effective June 16 on newsprint shipped to the United States.

The price now will be $126 a ton, including certain delivery charges.

M. J. Foley, president, said the increase was the result of the increase in production and the premium of U.S. funds presented a problem to the mills. Mr. Foley said the increase was a result of the Canadian government's consultation with the United States, which has permitted an increase in revenue.

Washington Towards Canadian Deal

WASHINGTON (CP) — Congress and major United States aluminum producers Wednesday received coolly a Defence Administration proposal to buy up to 175,000 tons of aluminum yearly from Canada. The deal would be accompanied by an increase of about 75,000 tons in U.S. aluminum capacity drafted by deputy DPA

Reds Charged Using Truce Talks To Stall

MUNSAN (CP) — Vice-Admiral C. Turner Joy in final statement as the chief of Allied truce delegates accused Reds today of using armistice talks as a "stall hands," the admiral declared.

"There is nothing left to negotiate — decision is in your hands," the admiral declared.

Joy, upon completing his prepared statement, strode from the conference tent. His action threw Communist delegation into a flurry.

Joy was a member of original five-member Allied team which began truce talks July 10. He is leaving to become commandant of U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Administrator Samuel W. Anderson as a "moderate" step towards building sufficient capacity for an all-out war.

In a closed meeting with key senators and members of the House of Representatives, the DPA administrator Manly Fleichman agreed to withhold action hearings by a Senate-House committee on defence production, on the Canadian deal pending probably next week.

Earlier, the "Big Three," U.S. aluminum producers recommended against a Canadian contract. They advised "caution" on any expansion but, if one is decided on, offered to undertake the job themselves.

Best Fishermen Are Russians Says Moscow Radio

LONDON — (AP) — Moscow radio sounded a few loud sners today at the achievements of capitalist fishermen. In Russia, a broadcast said, everybody fishes better.

The big fish story was set off by the return of a Soviet whaling flotilla after seven months in the Antarctic. The Russian fishermen, the broadcast said, had accounted for "great achievements."

"Vasily Tupikov, for example, killed 372 whales. A hero of Socialist Labor, Afansy Pudgin, killed 333 and Georri Ofsyanikov, 319," Moscow boasted, adding:

"The Norwegian harpooner Marius Jakobsen, of 20 years standing and the best harpooner in the Capitalist countries, has during one season killed only 151 whales."

"His record," Moscow calmly added, "was beaten by all Soviet harpooners."

"WHERE'S UNCLE?—Among the crowd of more than 10,000 who greeted the arrival in Vancouver of 1,157 Canadian soldiers returning from Korea was this forlorn little figure. His flag drooped and tears were close as John McGillivray, 2, asked everyone, 'Where's Uncle Fred?'" (CP PHOTO)

Korean War Veteran Returns After Week's Visit At Home

by ERIC SANDERSON

A farewell dinner party last night brought to a close a week-long visit home by C. E. (Ted) Mills.

The 32-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mills, 518 Musgrave Place, left early today for Esquimalt where he will return to duty July 4 with the Royal Canadian Navy.

Only Prince Rupert man to take part in action in the Korean War, Ted has been renewing acquaintances since his return here from a 20-month stretch aboard HMCS Sioux.

A veteran of five years service as a member of the RCNVR during the Second World War, Ted joined the active navy in 1946 after a year of civilian life.

"I got an E-charge in 1945 and went to work for the Blackall Ferry line in Victoria, but missed navy life, so I quit and went back," said the Prince Rupert-born man.

"We were in plenty of action over there, but I have three brothers-in-law in the Princess Pats and I bet they'll see lots of action too."

Ted, who is now a chief petty officer, joined the naval reserve here in 1944, at the age of 17 as an able seaman. He went active at the outbreak of war and left here in May, 1940, aboard the S.S. Peur, a converted yacht, for Victoria.

He's not very impressed with Korea, although he said "the navy boys have a much better life than the soldiers."

"I feel sorry for the troops. They've got some tough ground to cover."

After a short spell there, he was sent to Halifax to board HMCS Iroquois which saw plenty of action off the coast of France. He became a petty officer in 1942 and held that rank when discharged.

Just before he left Prince Rupert in 1940, he had started work as a clerk in the Canadian National Railways office here.

Ted isn't sure what he'll be doing at Esquimalt.

"I've still got another month's leave before I return to duty," he said shortly before boarding SS Prince Rupert. "It was sure good to get home but I want to get some more time with my wife and the kids (four little ones) before I go back to duty."

TRURO, N.S. (AP)—Seal hunting may never become a regular sport in the Salmon River here but Herman Weatherbee got one. He spotted the seal which apparently came in with the tide and bagged it after exchanging his fishing rod for a rifle.

Rum stories...

"To train the shark was not so simple as you may think," said the boss.

"Fortunately, the brig when she grounded was loaded to the brims with Lamb's Navy Rum. By judiciously rewarding my finny friend with dark invigorating tots, I so influenced his mind that he would give me the better fish such as turbot, retaining for himself only inferior qualities like cod. A trivial point, perhaps, but I thought good for discipline. I was about to send him to bring me a wife from among the girls bathing in a distant lagoon, when suddenly I sighted a sail. Instantly mounting the shark I went alongside and pausing only to present him with the corkscrew, climbed aboard."

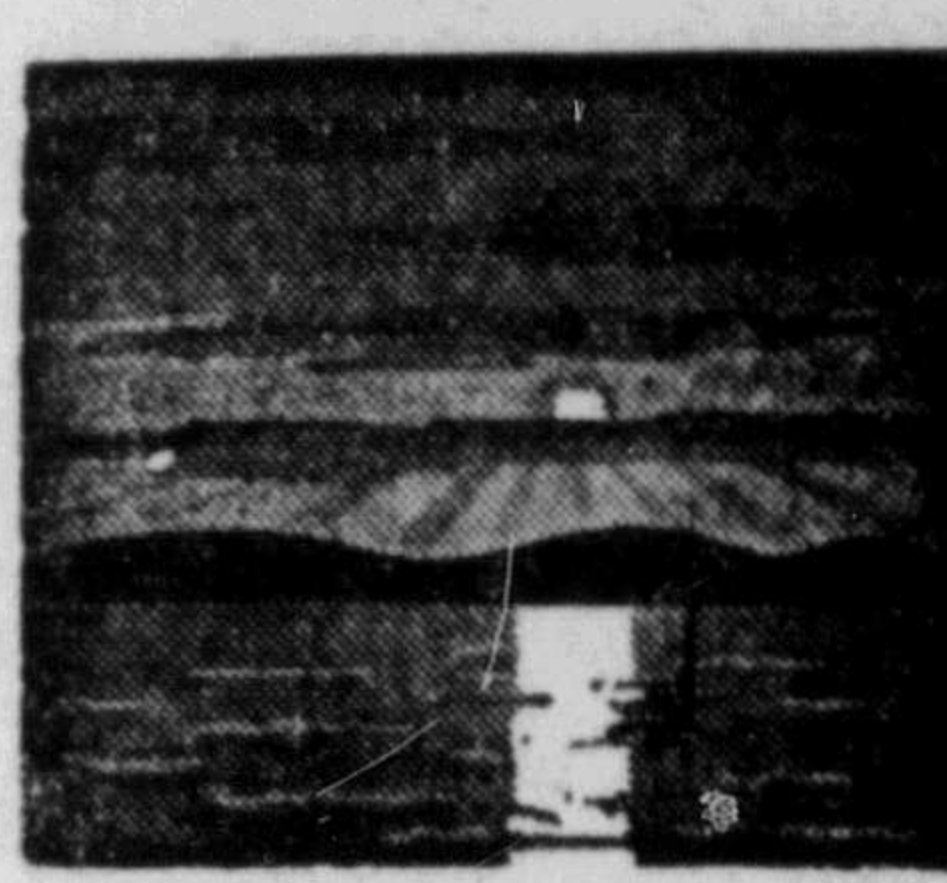

"That's a Rum Story," said the wedding guest incautiously.

"Very kind of you, I'm sure, sir," replied the mariner. "I could just fancy a Lamb's Navy Rum."

WATERFRONT - - WHIFFS

Halibut fishermen seem to be headed for another profitable season.

Since the season opened May 14, more than three million pounds of halibut have been landed at Prince Rupert.

One of the smaller boats, the Mother III, under command of Captain Atonsen, is loading supplies again for her third trip to the fishing grounds.

The Mother III was the first boat to report on the exchange this season, bringing in 24,000 pounds on May 17. The load was purchased by Royal Fish Company.

The company paid 17.4 cents a pound for mediums, 16 for large and 13 for chicken.

On her second trip in Friday, the Mother III sold 29,000 pounds at 17.9, 15 and 13 to Pacific Fisheries.

The boat will probably lift anchor over the holiday.

Further investigation of the damage caused by a rockslide on the Babine River last year is being made by the Dominion Department of Fisheries.

Engineers are expected to reach the scene over a road now being hewed through the hinterland.

The slide was located by officers of the department and the Fisheries Research Board in a canyon of the Babine River, about 12 miles from the junction of this large tributary and the Skeena River.

The rockslide obstructed the upstream ascent of adult salmon proceeding to the Babine Lake area to spawn. Many fish were found dead or dying.

At the request of Dominion Department of Fisheries, three members of the staff of the Pacific Biological Station at Nanaimo, are collecting information about fur seal food and migration routes.

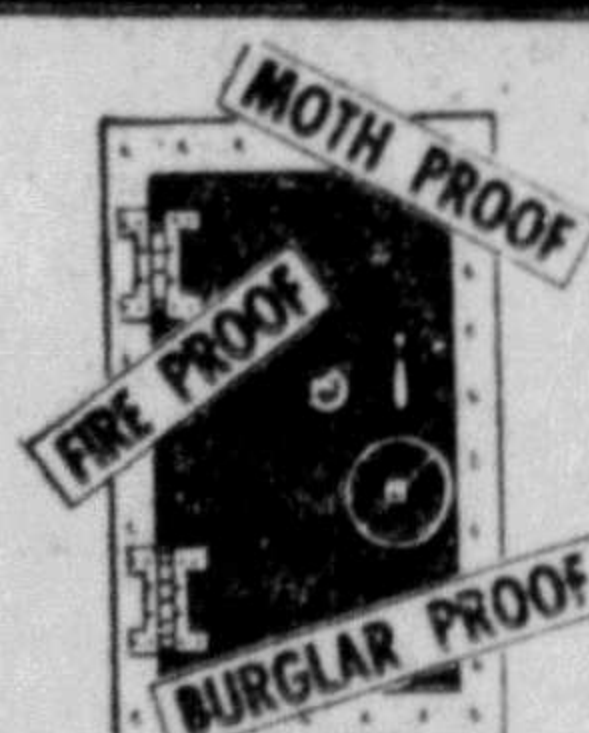

J. I. Manzer is collecting seals off the U.S. coast and F. H. C. Taylor and B. M. Chatwin are carrying out similar work off the coast of northern Japan.

No less than 60 fishing boats of all types were built in Northern British Columbia between July, 1951 and April 1952. In the Prince Rupert and Skeena River zone 43 craft were built.

In Bella Bella area there were eight; five in the Queen Charlottes, and four on the Naas. These added to the whole fleet total 286, valued at $3,140,500.

For a while this spring, it seemed because of wage dispute
