Massey Lauds Townsite, Plants File on Kitimat, Kemano Tour

at present there are 20 families living at the townsite and 50 houses are nearly completed. The official party was shown the completed Hudson Bay house and Charles Pelletier's house. Mr. Pelletier was the first president of the embryonic town. After leaving the townsite Mr. Massey and his party returned to the main camp, stopping off at the camp school enroute.

The governor-general won the hearts of all with an informal address to groups of school children, Scouts and Cubs.

"I want you to remember this occasion as the Queen's holiday," Mr. Massey said as he declared Friday an official school holiday.

At the campsite recreation hall a public reception was held at which the governor-general shook hands with the scores of people who had turned out in welcome.

An informal luncheon with the Alcan guides was held in the blue room of the cafeteria after which the party boarded HMCS Sioux for a trip to the power site at Kemano.

The party spent the night in the Kemano guest house and embarked this morning on a tour of the power site, with a trip via aerial tramway to the 2,600-foot level of the Alcan power project scheduled. In all, the party covered an 11-mile course in its tour of operations.

Lionel Massey, secretary to his father, said Mr. Massey was particularly interested in the scope of the operation and the detail that has gone into the planning of the entire community.

Accompanying the governor-general from Kitimat to Kemano aboard the Sioux was an RCMP contingent headed by Inspector Taylor of Prince Rupert. The police planned to return to Kitimat by police launch.

At a public reception this afternoon, preceding the Sioux's were the governor-general, Mr. Dubose and Mr. Turney, the governor-general's nephew Lionel Massey and Lieut. Ian McPherson, aide-de-camp.

The visitors were taken around the main smelter which at present houses two pot lines and also the carbon paste plant which is already in operation. The official party then toured the Kitimat townsite, located some eight miles from the smelter.

Search Ends For RCAF Jet

LONDON (AP)—The air search for a Sabre jet fighter missing since Monday from the RCAF base at North Luffenham has been called off, an RCAF official said today.

The plane was piloted by Wing Cmdr. Walter F. Parks of Regina, and failed to return from a formation flying at 30,000 feet over the North Sea off the coast of Lincolnshire.

Pair Remanded For Sentence

VANCOUVER (AP)—Mike Moshenko, 22, of Prince Rupert and Frank Adams, 21, of Nanaimo, charged with escaping from Oakalla prison farm Wednesday, pleaded guilty when they appeared in suburban Burnaby police court Thursday. They were remanded for sentence to June 3.

Coldwell Urges Cut In Forces

Says Millions
Would Be Saved

OTTAWA (CP)—CCF Leader Coldwell has suggested cutting Canada's air strength in Europe by half and troops in Korea by a third.

The two proposals, placed before the Commons Thursday were among a list of suggested economies which he said could slice "several hundreds of millions of dollars" from a $2,000,000,000 defence program this year.

He was one of several opposition members who proposed economies as the defence department's 1954-55 estimates came under consideration.

Maj. Gen. G. R. Pearkes VC, Progressive Conservative military critic, said that a sincere desire to save could have brought about a $100,000,000 cut in defence estimates. He urged a detailed study of departmental operations by non-government efficiency experts.

They spoke after Defence Minister Claxton outlined the government's defence program and in particular, joint efforts with the United States for defence of the North American continent.

PRIMARY AIM

Mr. Claxton said the primary aim of continental defence is to protect the West's capacity for massive retaliation, the U.S. strategic-bomber force.

The defence against Russian air power could destroy nine out of 10 attacking planes. That percentage still was not good enough, however, and "no doubt additional steps will be taken from time to time" to strengthen continental defences.

OPERATING THIS FALL

Canada's plan of radar, communications and jet fighters to intercept attacking bombers would be in complete operation by this summer or early fall.

Mr. Coldwell said Canada left herself almost defenceless in the air when she sent 12 RCAF squadrons to Europe. Six squadrons should be returned, to save money and give Canada better protection.

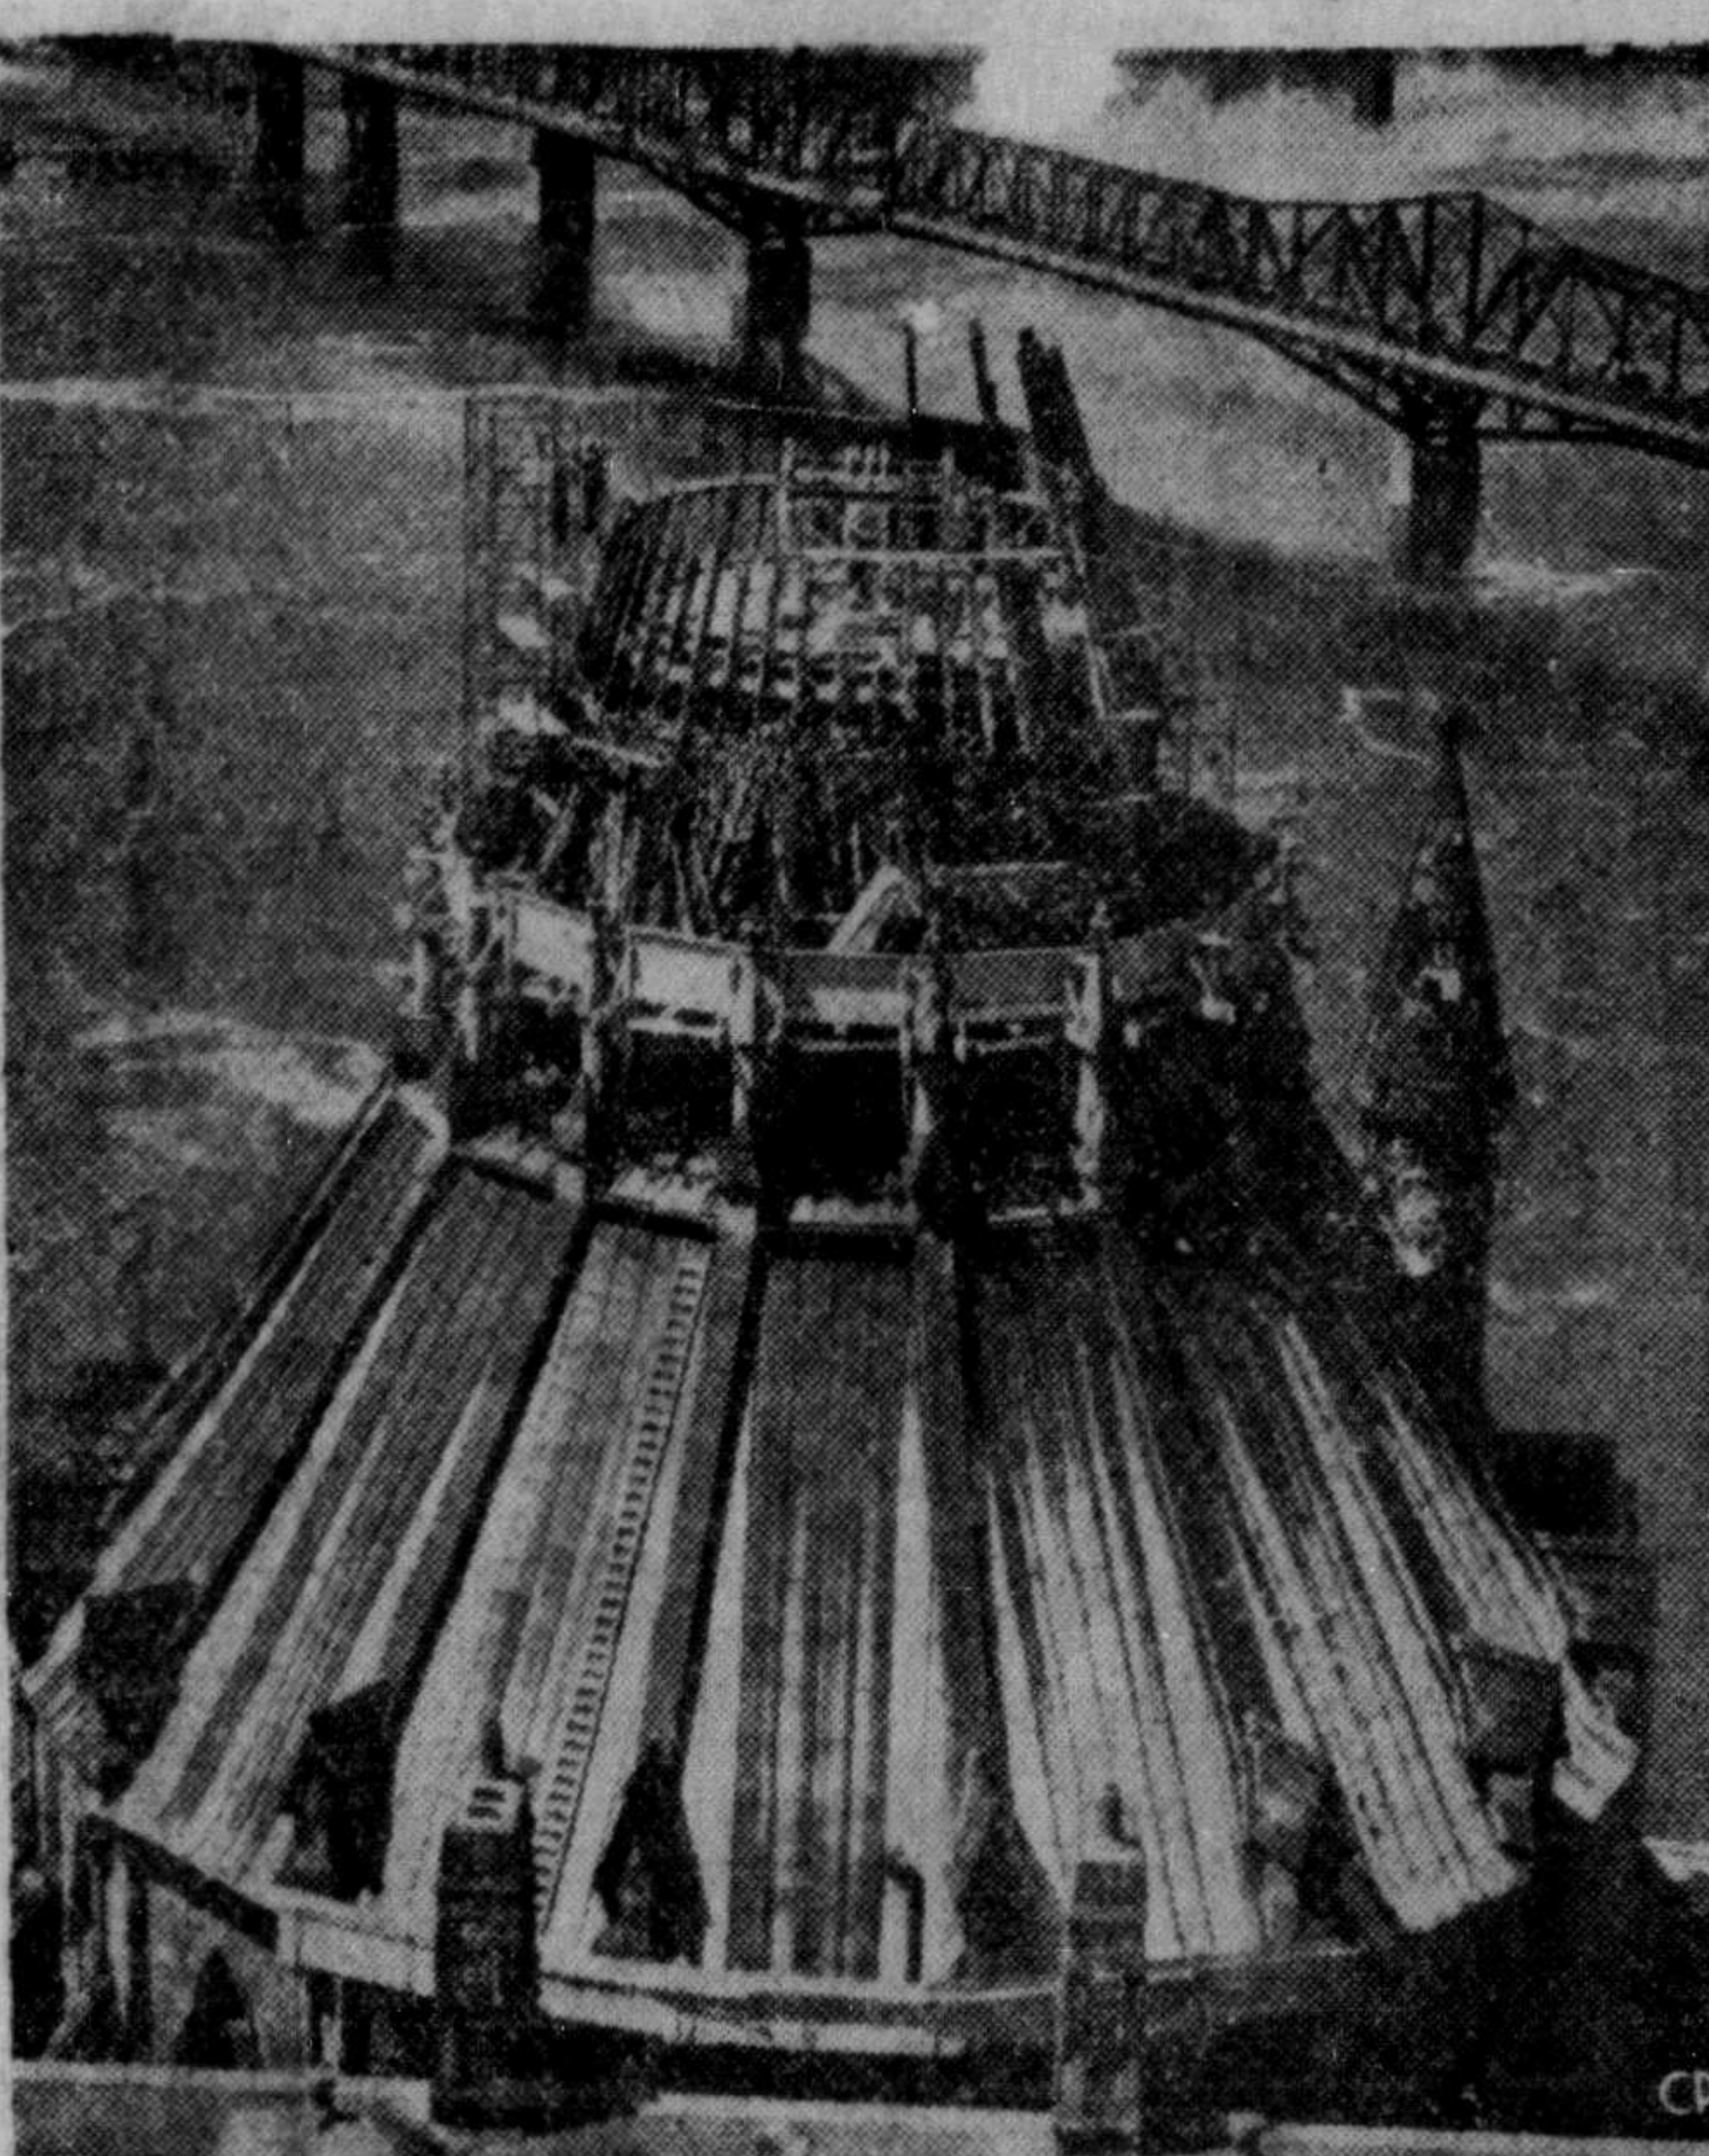

As for Canadian troops in Korea, he said that if the United States follows plans to bring home some troops Canada could bring back at least one of the three battalions in the 25th brigade.

Spain Claims Churchill Pledged U.K. Aid on Regaining Gibraltar

MADRID (Reuters)—The Franco government claimed today that Sir Winston Churchill promised during the Second World War that Britain would help Spain regain her past glory as a great power as a reward for neutrality.

The British leader also offered to discuss the return of Gibraltar to Spain, a Spanish foreign office communique said, quoting alleged wartime documents in an attempt to refute Churchill's statement in the House of Commons in London Thursday that Britain made no promise during the war to cede Gibraltar to Spain.

Gibraltar was turned over to Britain by the Treaty of Utrecht in 1713. Spain has been agitating for its return in recent months. Churchill made his statement in reply to an article written in a Spanish magazine by Generalissimo Franco under a pen-name, which accused Britain of

Residents, Emergency Crews Keep Anxious Eyes on Rivers

VANCOUVER (AP)—Anxious residents and emergency crews are keeping a 24-hour flood vigil in the British Columbia interior as swollen creeks creep up to the danger levels.

Cooler temperatures prevailed in the area Thursday, helping to slow down the runoff from snow-clad peaks. Public works officials at Victoria reported that the situation throughout the province was "fairly steady" during the day and no localities were in a serious position.

A special snow report issued by the government Thursday, consolidating surveys taken up to May 15, expressed cautious optimism, while warning that the critical period was still to come.

The report said that between 20 and 30 per cent of the snow pack had melted already in the areas of the major rivers, Columbia, Kootenay and Fraser. The worst region in B.C. was along the turbulent Similkameen river, which burst its banks in six places in the area south of Princeton.

BRIDGE WASHOUT

Side roads were cut off and small bridges swept away, while CPR crews worked round-the-clock bridging a washout on the Kettle valley line near Manning, 15 miles west of Princeton.

In the Kootenays, flood control officials at Creston kept a close watch on the Kootenay river which flowed over its banks and inundated 3,000 acres of farm land upstream at Bonners Ferry, Idaho.

"It's all in the lap of the gods now," said Guy Constable, secretary for the Creston water district. "The high water which struck Bonners Ferry was only the run-off from local snow."

"There's still plenty of dynamite left in the hills, masses of ice and snow which, if a hot spell comes up, could cause a very serious situation here."

Rhee Wins Majority

SEOUL (AP)—Unofficial returns from almost 90 per cent of South Korea's 203 assembly districts indicated today that President Syngman Rhee's Liberal party won a majority in the one-house legislature in Thursday's election.

Wing To Be Named After J. E. Moody

A bequest of between $7,000 and $8,000 has been made to the Prince Rupert General Hospital from the estate of the late John E. Moody for equipping hospital with a completely modernized maternity department.

The gift was announced at a meeting of the hospital board last night in a letter from Dr. R. G. Large, trustee of the estate.

With work expected to start this year, the new ward will be located in a section on the second floor now used for laboratory work and general utility purposes. It will be called the John E. Moody Memorial Wing.

Mr. Moody was an old-time resident of Port Simpson who, in ill-health for much of his later life, became interested in the development of hospital facilities in this area.

In expressing appreciation of the legacy, board members pointed out that establishment of a new maternity ward will coincide with plans to make greater use of the hospital's attic space. The intention is to equip the attic with rooms which will contain the radiology department—including an X-ray room with the most modern equipment available—sterile stores, laboratories and storage space, and serve other general purposes.

INCREASE SPACE

Much of the equipment to be moved to the attic now occupies space in the section where the new maternity department is to be located. The move will increase the hospital's useable space by 12,000 square feet.

It was decided at the meeting to call for tenders on the attic work, which will include extension of the elevator shaft, without delay. Before work commences, final approval of the project will be asked from Victoria.

LACK OF INTEREST

In other business at the meeting, administrator Douglas Stevenson expressed doubt that the hospital will offer another open-house invitation to the public on the annual Hospital Day. He said that the only visitors who showed up when this invitation was extended last week were those already well acquainted with the work of the hospital.

He said it was unfair to ask members of the staff to give up their evening when there was such a lack of public interest.

Miss Elizabeth Clement, nursing superintendent, reported that on the other hand the Women's Auxiliary tea was well attended. She expressed confidence that this event would be continued.

It was decided at the meeting that quiet-zone signs should be placed along Fifth Avenue in front of the hospital instead of speed-reduction signs. It was felt that this would eliminate the excessive traffic noise now caused by heavy vehicles changing gears.

Church Hits Queen's Act

INVERNESS, Scotland (Reuters)—The Free Presbyterian Church of Scotland has told the government that the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh committed an act of "idolatrous worship" by taking off their shoes to visit Ceylon's Buddhist Temple of the Tooth during their royal tour.

Canada's prime minister St. Laurent did the same when he visited the temple during his world tour.

Church ministers in conference here Thursday unanimously decided to send a message of "grief and alarm" to Prime Minister Churchill.

"Had Her Majesty refused to attend this ceremony the vast majority of her Protestant subjects would have rejoiced," they stated.

Liquor Licence For Union Ships

VICTORIA (AP)—The Union Steamships Co., five Vancouver and four Vancouver Island premises were granted liquor licences Thursday.

A dining lounge licence was issued to Trail City Club.

One Vancouver outlet, the Horseshoe restaurant, set a new precedent in liquor licensing. Although located far from the centre of the main downtown area, it received a dining room licence to serve beer and wine with meals.

Union Steamships were issued six dining room licences for its coastal service.

The only cocktail bar was awarded to the Newsman's Club of British Columbia in Vancouver.

Halibut Prices, Landings Higher

The largest individual catch to date in the halibut season was a 32,000 pound load brought in to the Co-Op this morning by the Advance.

Meanwhile, prices at the Halibut Exchange climbed slightly as only one boat's catch was handled, and fisheries spokesmen said that business was somewhat slower than at the same time last year.

Prizes of 14.7 for mediums, 14 for large and 12.7 for chicken were bid this morning as Royal Fish Ltd., bought the 23,000 pound catch of the Sea Pride at the exchange.

Catches brought in to the Co-Op this morning, besides that of the Advance, were: Shirli, 27,000 pounds; North Cap, 14,000; Olympia II, 16,000; Nornen, 9,000 and Nord, 18,000, making the total received at the Co-Op today, 116,000.

VIC. B.C. (AP)—A three-year-old girl is recovering here after "miraculous" operation in which she was revived by heart after being "dead" for a minimum of seven minutes. The first of its kind attempted in Trail-Tadana hospital, lasted 6 1/2 minutes, the surgeon said Thursday. The child "died" under anaesthesia on the operation and was revived after being dead between seven and

In Search Of Happiness

LATE spring and early summer see the start of more quests for happiness than do any other seasons. It is at this time of year that thousands of young men and women leave our schools and universities, setting out to chart their course and sail their ships through life.

Many routes are open to them. Their problem is to choose one along which happiness may be found.

Opinions differ from age to age as to what happiness is. As the Royal Bank of Canada points out in its monthly letter, popular "how to" books of the 18th century were chiefly concerned with the subject of how to die a good death; those of the 19th century moved on to the subject of how to make a good living; and those of the 20th century are devoted to telling us how to live happily.

Many people—perhaps the majority—would say the greatest happiness they could achieve would be freedom and ability to do what they want. That is not a very good description of happiness because it is difficult to be sure just what one wants to do today, let alone next year and 20 years from now.

Human beings are changeable. What may seem the supreme material good today may be completely out of date within a few months.

Happiness arises from the mental qualities of contentment, confidence, serenity and active goodwill. It includes the pain of losing as well as the pleasure of finding. It thrives best in a crowded life. The men and women who are recorded in history as most happy were people with always somewhat more to do than they could possibly do. Every waking hour of their lives was occupied with ambitious projects, literature, love, politics, science, friendship, commerce, professions, trades, their religious faith, and a thousand other matters.

The secret of life may be found by making each of those interests count to its utmost as part of the fabric of life.

As for those who took their first steps out of school and university years ago, they should find comfort in the thought that happiness, though it may be menaced by many forces, is saved by hope. Everyone has, or may attain, the faculty of making use of what befalls. If he can say at the end of a day that it was not an empty, not a lost day, is that perhaps happiness?

Ray REFLECTS and REMINISCES

Dr. Penfield of McGill University staff is urging public support of removal of the language barrier in Canada. It is, he would appear, far less costly and easier to learn two languages when children, say French and English are between the ages of 10 and 14. Life would not be so complex.

Police is the ability to continue thinking as the other fellow picks up the check, observes the Galt reporter.

In Canada, sailors must be different from most folks. The Royal Canadian Navy issued a letter recently, setting down some rules for sleeping. In case anybody was in doubt it specified: "All men sleeping in bunks should sleep with feet aft. Bunks should be arranged horizontally."

"We have a railway problem, too," says G. W. McLeod, representing Okanagan-Revelstoke, in the course of an address to Hansard. "The PGR has no coast outlet. For years we have heard of the need for a Peace River outlet. Mr. Speaker, this is it. From Dawson to Vancouver via PGE would be 516 miles shorter than between the same two points via Edmonton. This road, if completed, would also give a short rail route from the Peace River to the port of Prince Rupert via Canadian National Railway from Prince George."

OTTAWA DIARY By NORMAN M. MacLEOD

One accusation that definitely cannot be levelled against Members of Parliament is that they lack sporting spirit.

The present Eat-More-Fish campaign in the Parliamentary restaurant is complete proof of this statement. For the MPs have thrown themselves into that crusade with real gusto and with reckless lack of regard for the possible consequences.

The consequences could be fairly serious. For it is a reasonably well established scientific fact that fish is a very potent brain food. What happens, then, to those MPs who, in spite of their new addiction to a fish diet, fail to develop scintillating qualities of intellect? The obvious inference will have to be that they were lacking in the raw material which the diet needed to work on.

But the MPs are nothing if not game. And the Parliamentary restaurant is serving vast quantities of fish these days to statesmen who risk embarrassing exposure if the diet fails to work in their cases the miracles of stimulation of brain power that it has accomplished elsewhere.

So watch your local MP for signs of brighter sayings and more brilliant performance. If you observe them, credit the happy circumstance in part, at least, to the Parliamentary restaurant.

Maritime Senator Neil McLean unquestionably is entitled to the lion's share of the credit for the effort to make the MP's more fish-conscious at meal times. For years he has battled on the House Restaurant committee to secure for fish dishes the recognition that they deserved on the Parliamentary menu. Frustration has been his lot right up to the present session. Then the advent of a new chef gave him his opportunity.

He insisted that the newcomer should be hired on the basis of his ability to improve and not ruin fish in the cooking.

From the start of the session the consumption curve of fish in the Parliamentary dining-room has been rising spectacularly. Trout amandine, sole with shrimp sauce, sea-food salads and zesty chowders, have been running strong competition with such old-established favorites as steaks, chops, and mixed grills.

To Senator McLean promoting the fish industry is an old story. He likes to recall his failure to persuade the Saint John authorities to serve Saint John harbor salmon to the King and Queen on their 1939 visit. The banquet committee decided in favor of a more distinguished menu with fowl as the feature course. But the Royal couple reached Washington on the same day as the arrival of a couple of Saint John salmon from Senator McLean to his old personal friend President Roosevelt. The President immediately scrapped the menu he had planned for his personal dinner to Their Majesties and substituted the Saint John salmon as the main and featured course. It was the great Roosevelt's idea of a dish fit for royalty.

WHY OUTFIELD FENCE?

The Editor, The Daily News:
The Parks Board has been on the receiving end of considerable criticism in its short career but its approval to fence in the outfield at Roosevelt Park should keep it in "hot water" for years to come.

Just why do we need a fence in the outfield?

The only reason we can conceive is to produce home runs from blooper fly balls. And if the baseball league is depending on phoney home runs for its success it is time for baseball to fold up.

On the other hand if the Parks Board has a bunch of lumber they must use up, how about some thought towards a wind-break and rain shelter for the paying customers?

As I See It

Which War On?

A WORKING man in Vancouver writes me about what he thinks is a serious mistake.

"Your columns show good commonsense. But when you talk of world politics they look really. You persist in talking about a possible future war. Don't you realize that the war is on already?"

My friend suggests that Russia and China are only using the present "phony truce" in the Far East to strengthen their position.

I know very well that there is a war on, not only in Indo-China and certain other countries of Asia. That state of real or potential civil war meets us in every country on earth. It is the aim of the Communists to magnify what they call "the class struggle" to the point of actual civil war in every country. According to their dogma, Communism must emerge victorious in all such civil wars. Then the "dictatorship of the proletariat" is set up. The old order is smashed to bits and pieces in the country concerned. That country goes through the revolutionary process made familiar in Russia, the satellite countries of eastern Europe and, finally, China.

GRANTED that this type of war is on already. But that is a very different type of war than would be in effect if Russia and the U.S.A. were engaged in world war three.

It seems to me that the democratic nations of the West are faced with a deadly danger because of the confusion in their own thinking. People are talking about intervention in the civil war in Indo-China, for instance, as if it were just another total war.

Even Professor Frank Underhill, in his recent week-end reviews in the Sunday night series for the CBC, has strongly urged Western military intervention in Indo-China. He talks in terms all too reminiscent of the loose phrases used by American commentators, who draw no distinction between the native Communist armies in Indo-China and invading armies from Red China or Red Russia.

IN MY opinion, this confusion in our thinking could lead to the greatest catastrophe of modern times. For if we intervene in any local civil war, on the mistaken assumption that the whole U.N. will ratify and support such intervention, we are headed for a rude shock.

There is a vast legal and moral difference between the invasion of Indo-China by the armies of Red China or Red Russia and the victory of a local, native movement of insurrection—even though that attractive is led by native Communists.

The United States, and the countries of Western Europe, undoubtedly have the physical power to land forces in Indo-China in support of the French imperial power—now fighting with its back to the wall. But in the eyes of the vast majority of the people of Asia, the western nations would have no more legal and moral right to send in armies to help the French than Red China, or even Red Russia, would have the legal right to send in armies to help the native rebels.

YOU CAN fight bombs with bombs, tanks with tanks, planes with planes, rifles with rifles, and ideas with ideas.

What is travelling across Asia is the Communist idea, the Communist organization. It works entirely through native agents—native dupes, native fellow-travellers, or native fifth columnists, if you prefer to use those silly names.

Unless and until the West can get equally dynamic ideas, which will travel under their own steam through native minds and hearts, the cause of the West in Asia is lost.

In other words, the West has only one choice re the revolution in Asia, and eventually in Africa. It can read it, or lose it.

SCOTCH PIPER BRIDE

Rupert Man Wed In Vancouver Rites

Of interest in Prince Rupert was the recent wedding in Vancouver Ryerson United Church at which John Lloyd Anderson Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Murray of Prince Rupert, took a Vancouver girl as his bride.

Mr. Douglas Cawthra served as ushers. Miss Betty Murray, a fellow member of the Pipe Band, piped the bridal procession from the church and into the reception at the Legion Hall, Forty-second and Yew.

The newlyweds left for a wedding trip to the Interior, Seattle and Vancouver Island, and the bride chose for going away, seersucker dress with white accessories.

Anglican Caledonia Diocese Marks 75th Birthday in June

The 75th anniversary of the Anglican Diocese of Caledonia will be marked here June 2 and 3, when the 25th synod of the diocese convenes at St. Andrew's Cathedral.

The Rt. Rev. H. G. Watts, Bishop of Caledonia, today announced preliminary plans for the event which will attract clergymen and lay delegates from throughout the large diocese, and which may be attended by a well-known churchman from England.

The Rev. Canon Gilbert Williams, D.D., general secretary of the Colonial and Continental Church Missionary Society in Canada now to attend a variety of Church of England functions across the continent, is expected to attend the synod here, and preach at the special anniversary service June 2.

The diocese, which comprises approximately five-eighths of all British Columbia territory, stretches from the borders of the Yukon and Alaska down the Pacific coast (including the Queen Charlottes) to Bella Bella, and down the Alberta border to the Jasper area, across to Prince George and angles down to Bella Bella. Some 60 churches, plus many parishes without resident ministers are included in the big area.

The diocese was incorporated 75 years ago, but the history of the church in northern B.C. goes back about 90 years, to when the first mission work opened at Metlakatla.

Reed Debut Successful As G & A Downs Eskys

Two home runs and seven costly errors by the opposition gave Gordon and Anderson their third straight win last night when the hardwaremen trounced Esquires 7-4 in a scheduled Prince Rupert Senior Baseball league game at Roosevelt Park.

Before a meagre crowd, young Dennis Reed pitched his first full game of senior ball, striking out nine but giving up six free passes.

Esquires in turn used slow-pitch. Dick Letourneau who lasted only two innings and was replaced by Jackie Sharpe who absorbed the loss.

G & A were first on the score sheet after one and a half scoreless innings, when in the bottom of the second frame, Ralph Enridge was safe on an error, was sacrificed to second by Ian Dunbar and brought home by a well-hit homer by Stan Petrow.

Esquires took the lead in the top of the third after Reed gave up two walks and an error plus another free pass walked in Letourneau. A single by Ken Hill scored Ray McKay and a second one-base blow scored Joe Giordano to give the clothiers a one-run lead.

G & A came storming back in the bottom of the third, Don Scherk got on by an error, Dave Hill grounded out and Enridge then poled a line drive past sun-blinded Ken Hill to make the circuit for an in-the-park home run to put G & A back in the driver's seat.

Both ends of the fourth were scoreless as was the top of the fifth. Reed took down the Esquires' offering one-two-three with an assist from Stan Petrow who made a sensational catch of Paul Poirier's left field blow that went foul, to end the inning.

Three errors and a single by Petrow saw two more runs come in for G & A in the bottom of the fifth and Esquires were only able to reply with a single run after a double by Don Hawryluk and a single by M. Kay.

INSURANCE RUN
Still another error plus safeties by Reed and Scherk gave G & A an insurance run in the bottom of the sixth. Reed struck out Hill, Mundie and Poirier in the top of the seventh to ensure his victory.

After the game Esquires' manager Benny Windle, gave notice that Esquires would not play any future games if an official umpire was not present. Whether or not he intends to file this protest with Baseball Commissioner Stan Moran is not known. Maurice Scott umpired behind the plate after being asked to take the job and with agreement from both G & A mentor Rusty Ford and Windle.

REGIMENT OF CANADIAN GUARDS

Second-to-none on the parade ground. Second-to-none on the battlefield. This is the aim of Canada's newest regiment, The Canadian Guards.

Incorporating the colour and smartness of military tradition at its finest, The Canadian Guards ranks first among the Army's regular infantry regiments.

The men who serve in The Canadian Guards must be able to meet the special physical standards required. They will be proud of the title "Guardsman", but they must be ready to live up to the high standards required of a Canadian Guardsman. For The Canadian Guards must be as close perfect as possible wherever they go — their dress and deportment always above reproach.

Right now there is a requirement for young men who would like to share in the colourful dress and ceremonial activities of the new Canadian Guards. There is a challenge and an opportunity for young men with the ambition to join The Canadian Guards — a regiment destined for the highest honours wherever they are called upon to serve Canada's freedom.

Cards Continue Rampage Shellacking Pirates 17-4

By BEN PHILGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

Can St. Louis Cardinals keep up their tremendous hitting long enough for manager Eddie Stanky to find out if he finally has solved his pitching problems?

If they can, the tight National League pennant race may soon start coming apart at the seams.

The Cardinals arrived home from the east today, a game and a half in front of the nearest of the closely bunched contenders. On the road they won nine of 14 games, including a 17-4 run-away at Pittsburgh last night.

Of even more importance to the Cards was the blossoming of Tom Poholsky as a starting pitcher. He lost a 1-0 heart-breaker in Brooklyn where he allowed only three hits, but went the distance again Thursday night against the last-place Pirates.

St. Louis pitching, the club's biggest question mark from the start of spring training, has left a lot to be desired. Manager Stanky has been using Harvey Haddix, Gerry Staley and Vic Raschi. Then he closes his eyes, pulls a name out of a hat and hopes.

At one time or another everybody except Raschi, the $75,000 acquisition from New York Yankees, has been blasted. Seven times the Cardinals' rivals have scored 10 or more runs.

But while the pitching has been shaky, the hitting has been amazing. The team batting average is .295 and five of the regulars are over .300, topped by Ray Jablonski at .374 and Stan Musial at .367.

Even Poholsky got into the hitting act Thursday night. He singled three times in three official times at bat, sacrificed once and drove in four runs. Musial drove in four with his 13th home run and a triple. Alex Grammas had a triple, Del Rice a pair of doubles.

No other games were played in the majors Thursday. The Giants were scheduled in Philadelphia but were rained out.

Rainiers Break Scoreless Streak But Fail To Win

By The Associated Press

The Seattle Rainiers got off the goose egg diet Thursday night but the three runs allowed them by Bill Sweeney's Los Angeles Angels didn't fatten them noticeably. The Angels won again 8-3.

The Rainiers had gone scoreless for 20 innings before they finally managed a run in the second frame of the Pacific Coast League contest at Los Angeles. Sweeney, Los Angeles skipper fired by Seattle last fall, led the Angels to 3-0 and 9-0 triumphs the two previous nights.

Bob Spicer went the route for the Angels, holding Jerry Priddy's club to nine hits.

San Francisco Seals last night won their ninth game in the last 11 starts. They had to come from behind to whip Portland, 5-3, and scored four runs in the last three frames. Elmer S. Angleton started for the Seals and was relieved by curveballer Bob Muncie in the eighth. San Francisco collected 12 hits to the Ports' six.

Mel Queen, Hollywood's speed-ball right hander, racked up his ninth straight victory as the Stars stopped the meteoric rush of the Sacramento Solons, 6-1 and climbed back into first place in the standings.

Oakland downed San Diego, 6-3, and took over third place from the Padres.

Rayon Pulp May Be Slated For Munitions

VICTORIA — Rayon pulp, to be exported from Canada to Russia, can be used for the manufacture of munitions, it was reported here.

It was announced in the Commons Tuesday the Canadian department of trade and commerce had granted permits for shipment of rayon pulp to Russia.

Prof. Lewis Clark of the chemistry department of Victoria College, said rayon wood pulp can be used to make nitro-cellulose—smokeless powder—which is used in small arms ammunition.

The pulp is produced in two mills in British Columbia.

The Victoria Colonist says in a dispatch from Ottawa today the news that Canada is allowing export of the pulp has aroused "considerable apprehension" in parliamentary corridors.

The dispatch said the pulp is used largely in the manufacture of high explosives as well as for textiles.

A late estimate showed public libraries in Canada had a total of 6,797,000 volumes.

Caps Edge Tyees In 10 Innings To Stretch Lead

By The Canadian Press

Two extra-inning games and a three-hit 1-0 thriller highlighted play in the Western International Baseball League Thursday night.

Vancouver won one overtime affair shading Victoria 10-9 in 10 innings, and stretched its first place margin to 2½ games. Edmonton and Wenatchee also went 10 innings before Edmonton pulled out with a 5-4 decision.

At Spokane, John Marshall of Lewiston and the Indians' Ralph Romero squared off in a pitcher's battle, each allowing but three hits. Spokane got two of them back to back in the seventh inning and won, 1-0.

Calgary edged Yakima 9-8 in the night's other encounter. Salem and Tri-City were idle.

Merv Williams' home run in the top of the tenth at Victoria saved the game for the Capilano. Manager Bob Sturgeon of Wenatchee looped a single into right field at Edmonton to score Dwayne Kling with the winning run.

Yakima sent Roy Machado to replace Ted Edmunds in the ninth inning at Calgary and the Stampeders hopped on the reliever for a home run, a triple and a double, and accepted two bases on balls. Jim Wert singled home the winning run off Don Carter who succeeded Machado with the bases loaded and nobody out.

Remember When

By The Canadian Press

Harold (Hal) Chase, one of the great defensive first basemen of all time, died seven years ago today in California at 64. With New York Yankees from 1905 to 1913, he revolutionized the fielding style for first-sackers, and in 1916 won the National League batting championship with Cincinnati.
