KILGARD, 2½, looks a little petulant, as her cousin Johnny Barnes, 4, drives the pint-size car he built for them in Moline, Ill. Debra probably would like to be in the seat herself! The little car is powered by a three-horsepower engine and can do seven miles an hour, running 30 miles on a quart of gas. It has two gear shifts—forward and reverse—and six months to build. The vehicle was made from parts of an old auto, washing machine and refrigerator.

Search Party Crews Escape Raging Blaze

Airman Reported Dead In Fire As Sandspit Hotel Destroyed

An RCAF air crew member was reported burned to death, and one or more men seriously injured in a fire that completely destroyed the Sandspit hotel on Moresby Island at about 3 o'clock this morning.

Twenty-nine men escaped unharmed but lost all their personal belongings.

The airman was one of a Lancaster bomber crew presently engaged in the search for Ellis Hall, missing American businessman. It is not known whether he died while fighting the fire or whether he was caught in the hotel which was serving as a headquarters for crews of three bombers from 407 Squadron, RCAF Station Comox.

Group Capt. G. S. Austin, officer commanding at Station Comox is on his way to Sandspit to conduct an investigation.

The 30-year two storey hotel, was operated by Johnny Mayne and owned by Mrs. Della Beaven of Sandspit.

Coroner Dr. Don Watt and RCMP Const. Brown of Queen Charlotte City are in Sandspit investigating and no further details are available until they return.

One report stated that the Lancaster bomber was in for refueling at the time of the fire and that crew members of both Lancasters plus airport and department of transport personnel fought the blaze which was not far from the airstrip.

Name of the dead man and the one or more injured are being withheld pending notification of next-of-kin.

Destroyer Rescues Freighter

HONG KONG (Reuters)—The British destroyer Cockade today fired a warning shot over the bows of a Chinese Nationalist gunboat chasing the 946-ton British freighter Nigelock, carrying cargo for Communist China.

The Royal Navy rushed to the rescue in the straits of Formosa in answer to an urgent request for help from the Nigelock, which radioed she was being pursued and fired on by the gunboat.

A British statement said that the Cockade fired a warning shot at the gunboat, which "was enough to cause her to break off her pursuit."

The destroyer "rebuked the gunboat and warned her against committing further acts of piracy" before leaving the freighter to resume her voyage from Shanghai to Amoy, Communist Chinese ports.

The British freighter St. Bride's Bay rescued the Nigelock from a Chinese Nationalist warship in the Formosa straits Aug. 17. The same freighter was fired on and chased by armed vessels July 25, but escaped.

Unidentified gunboats Sunday intercepted two other British freighters near the Chinese port of Foochow, about 400 miles northeast of Hong Kong, reports reaching here said today.

Body Found In Morice River

BURNS LAKE—Body of Fred T. Whiting, 62, Chicago, vice-president of Westinghouse Corporation, was flown from here to Seattle yesterday after it had been found in the rushing waters of the Morice River. RCMP reported that the body was found in 15 feet of water just after noon Saturday after 12 hours of dragging.

An inquiry held at Burns Lake by Coroner Aubrey Clark established death had occurred from drowning and the body was released.

Russia Makes Sweeping Concession To Bolster Wobbly Grotewohl Regime

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has made sweeping concessions in a new pact with East Germany. The Kremlin agreed to exchange ambassadors with the Soviet occupation zone, end repatriations after Jan. 1, cut occupation costs, provide additional economic aid and release some German war prisoners.

A joint communique announcing the pact was issued Sunday at the end of a four-day conference between top Russian leaders, including Premier Georgi Malenkov, and an East German delegation headed by Premier Otto Grotewohl.

Western observers in Germany viewed the agreement as an effort to prop up the wobbly Grotewohl regime. Its prestige has been at a low ebb since the June 17 hunger riots in the east zone.

These observers also considered the pact an obvious Russian attempt to undermine the pro-Western government of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, now locked in a life-and-death election campaign against the Socialists in preparation for the Sept. 6 parliamentary elections.

The communique, signed by both Malenkov and Grotewohl, disclosed seven major points in the new treaty:

- Diplomatic representation in East Berlin and Moscow will be raised to embassy level.
- Soviet-run enterprises in East Germany will be returned to the East Germans.
- Soviet occupation costs will be reduced to a level of not more than five per cent of total East German revenues.
- Russian authorities will take measures to release German war prisoners. Excluded from the pardon will be those "who committed particularly wicked crimes against humanity."
- East Germany's debts to Russia since the war will be wiped out.
- Reparations payments to Russia will end after next Jan. 1. The amount still due was listed at $2,537,000,000.
- Russia will bolster the East German economy with shipments of food, coal, steel and other metals, cotton and other goods worth 590,000,000 rubles ($147,500,000) at the official Soviet exchange rate and will extend credits of 485,000,000 rubles ($121,250,000).

RCAF Sabre Jets Score More Than 100 "Kills" Win Praise From British Fighter Chief

NORTH LUFFENHAM, England (AP)—Security regulations eased today at this RCAF base in the wake of the largest air exercises ever held over Britain.

"Exercise Momentum" ended Sunday night with four Canadian fighter squadrons of Sabre jets claiming more than 100 "kills." Off and on since Aug. 1, Canadian pilots have been operating in the front line of Britain's fighter defence, striking against invading planes from the continent. Their work drew high praise.

The exercise was designed to give a workout to the various parts of the country's air defence, including reserve elements. As part of the plan to test the mobility of RAF fighter command, two squadrons of Canadian Sabres were moved to east-coast fighter bases, complete with ground crews.

Two others, including one drawn from an RCAF base in Europe, operated from this base, which imposed strict security regulations in simulating wartime conditions.

Because of their speed, the RCAF Sabres were used for high altitude work, ranging deep into the Continent to attack Canberra jet bombers, U.S. Sabres, Thunderjets and other types of attacking planes from the RAF or North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces.

Kills were scored in accordance with the story told by camera shots of the dog-fights.

"The Canadians put up a very good show indeed—they always do," Air Marshal Sir Dermot Boyle, commander in chief of fighter command, said today.

"We're always pleased to have them with us," he added.

Air Vice-Marshal H. P. Fraser, senior air staff officer of fighter command, said the RCAF had done very well in last year's air exercise and "this year they were much better."

Fraser said they are "so well knitted in that they operate almost unnoticed."

RCAF planes at No. 2 and No. 3 fighter wings in Europe were not idle. They were used in attacking Britain, but had to refuel at North Luffenham, where, an air force spokesman said today, they were treated in a "hostile manner."

He reported that nobody had much contact with them during their brief stopovers. A sign said: "Enemy airmen—coffee and donuts here."

Help Wanted To Catch Sneak

A CRIMINAL of the meanest type is at large in Prince Rupert. He is the sneak who is plundering gardens at night and ravaging the blooms which others have nursed with care and pride.

Possibly there is more than one individual involved as the destruction takes various forms. In some cases the heads of flowers are lopped off and left strewn about the lawn. One householder reports that her peonies were sheared away and dumped in a pile over a nearby fence. In another instance a rhododendron bush disappeared but was taken without most of its roots, so there could be no hope of transplanting it.

In other cases, however, the depredations show a certain amount of thieving skill. Two women who had cultivated an attractive bed of begonias awoke one morning to find nothing left but a series of carefully spaded holes. In another garden on another night an entire bed of daffodils was removed by some painstaking thief. One householder who was just starting a garden was robbed of two beautiful gladioli. They were virtually the only flowers he had but evidently caught the fancy of the marauder.

This desecration of others' property is particularly shameful in a city where every bit of extra beauty counts for so much. The police are alert to this menace, and every citizen—particularly those who grow flowers—also should be on the lookout for the human slug which is infesting our gardens.

If anyone spots him, the first move should be to call the police. If this is not possible at the time, our advice would be to identify him closely for future reference and give a description of him to the police as quickly as you can.

This kind of worm deserves all the punishment he is asking for.

Plaudits for The Parks Board

BOUQUET of the week goes to the parks board for its enterprise in arranging yesterday's swimming meet. Both competitors and spectators had a good time around the Gyro pool, and the variety of events showed originality of thought in planning the occasion.

One feature of the program which went over well with youngsters present was the free distribution of ice cream. This item was also appreciated by parents who often go out for a relaxing outing of this sort only to find themselves making an expensive and unrelaxing outlay for refreshments.

The parks board has started a good thing in promoting this event, and we look forward to seeing it prosper.

Worst Foe of Dr. Mo

DR. MOSSADEGH is a wily, cunning old man who has ridden the wild horses of Persian politics with amazing skill. But he was bound to come to a smash-up sooner or later, for more and more he became a one man ruler.

First he was in alliance with the fanatic religious leader Kashani—now his mortal enemy.

Then, the parliament was his main tool—with M.P.'s afraid to vote against any of Dr. Mossadegh's measures for fear of personal assassination. But in the end Mossadegh dissolved the parliament in a plebiscite in which every voter had to vote on the dissolution and plainly sign his name and address and mark his thumbprint on the ballot which became government property.

REGARDLESS of the outcome of the latest strife between Mossadegh and the generals of the Shah's army, the old man cannot win indefinitely.

He cannot win for exactly the same reason that aged Dr. Syngman Rhee cannot win in the long run in Korea—their days are numbered by nature more than by politics.

Neither old men can go on forever.

More and more in recent months Dr. Mossadegh's government has had to lean on the Tudeh party, of which the hard core is Communist.

This strange alliance was even more cynical than the earlier alliance between Mossadegh and Kashani. Mossadegh's followers and the Tudeh party had in fact clashed violently more than once, and each time they clashed Mossadegh won.

But there too the real joker was Mossadegh's age, and the individualist nature of his leadership. The Tudeh party is a highly disciplined and permanently well organized movement. It could afford to wait.

ANYONE who wants to get the best background story of what is going on in Persia, or Iran as they now call it, should read "Strange Lands and Friendly People" by Justice William O. Douglas. Judge Douglas shows: That four out of every five children born in Persian cities die before they reach one year of age, dysentery being the main baby killer.

That the most popular radio programs are The Voice of India first, the Soviet Radio second, and the BBC third. Nearly everyone in Persia has access to a radio.

That the poor who are the vast majority are so desperately poor that no change could be for them, for the worse—hence the one thing they want above all is a change.

DURING their occupation of northern Persia the Russians set up a stooge government in Azerbaijan under a native Communist called Pishvari. When the Russians were forced out, the regime was quickly overthrown by the Persian army.

But here is the comment by a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States which tells the whole story of Persia in two sentences:

"Pishvari's program was so popular—especially land reforms, severe punishment of public officials who took bribes, and price control—that if there had been a free election in Azerbaijan in 1950 Pishvari would have been restored to power by 90 percent of the people. Yet not a thousand people in Azerbaijan out of a population of 3,000,000 are Communists."

Germany Leading Rest of World in Translating of Foreign Books

PARIS—Germany leads the world in translating foreign books, according to the latest translation index issued by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (Unesco).

More than 1300 books were translated into German in 1951, as compared with about 1000 into French, Italian and Japanese. That year, about 500 translations were available to the British reader and 450 to the American.

The Unesco index, known as the "Index Translationum," points out that translations from almost all major languages are published in Germany while other countries work from a maximum of two or three languages. (The index does not differentiate between books published in the eastern and western zones of Germany.)

Asian literature is rarely translated into English and other European languages, according to the index. And, except for Japan, translations of western books are equally rare in Asia.

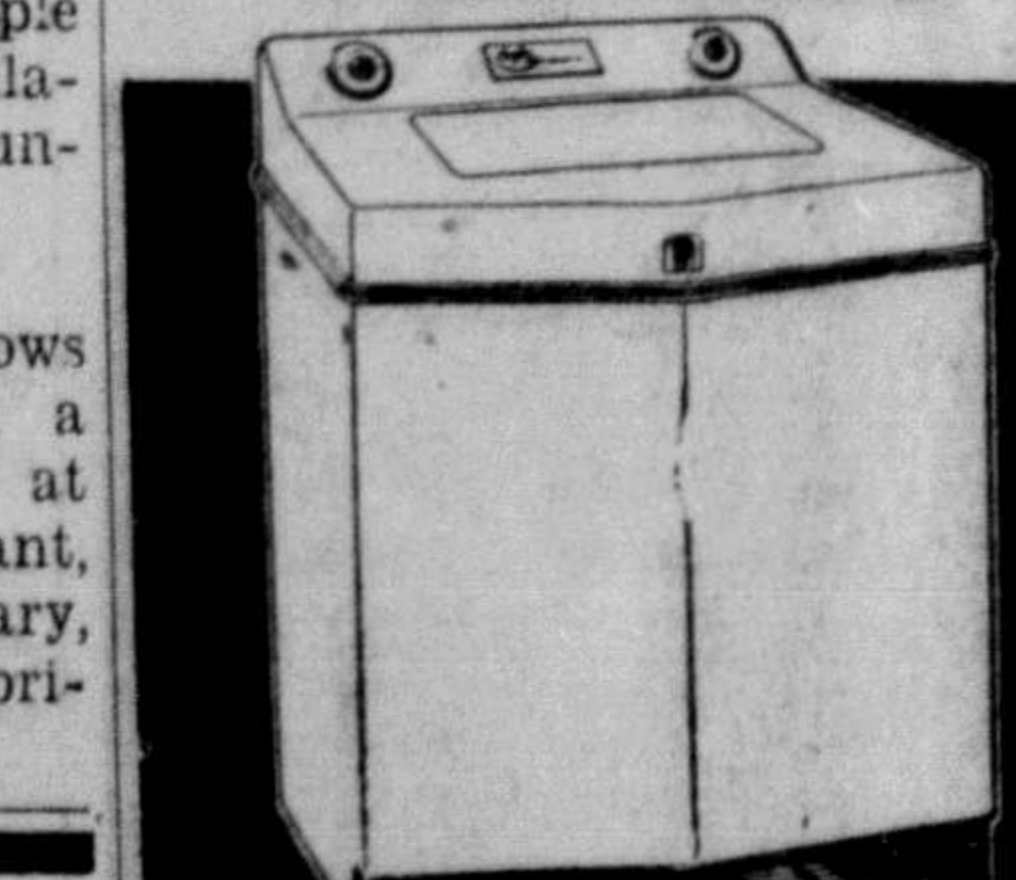

The world's best seller is still the Bible, according to the index.

Financial Writer Pays Tribute to Hugh Dalton Who Heads B.C. Division of Canadian Manufacturers

BY JAMES RHUDE
The death in Vancouver of Hugh Dalton, manager since 1917 of the British Columbia division of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, will cause sorrow to many newspaper men. This writer, in his years in Vancouver, 1927-29, felt that no one knew British Columbia so well as Dalton.

He was a veritable encyclopedia concerning the province.

Spencer Estate Set at $2,500,000
VANCOUVER — The late Chris Spencer, pioneer British Columbia department store owner, left an estate valued at $2,500,000, his solicitors have announced.

The government will collect more than $1,000,000 in succession duties from the estate of the white-bearded business man known internationally as "Mr. Chris," who died last May at the age of 85.

Major bequests in the will provide for annuities of $5,000 for each of his two daughters, Mrs. Fred McGregor and Mrs. W. Armstrong, both of Vancouver; incomes from each of two $60,000 trust funds for his son Lloyd in Australia and his granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Arenz, Portland, Ore., an $1,800 annuity for his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd Spencer, Vancouver, and a number of legacies to employees. Balance of the estate is to be divided among seven grandchildren.

What he didn't have in his head, he had in his desk drawer. If, by chance, he didn't have the information himself, he probably knew who did have it. When one wanted a story on some phase of British Columbia industry or development, one scarcely needed to go farther than Dalton for factual information. If a wild rumor were about, Dalton probably knew whether or not there was anything in it.

Although he gave so much information, he was an extremely shy man so far as personal publicity was concerned, and his name rarely appeared in print. At the same time, he had firm opinions. One might not always agree with these—but one could depend on the information he gave, for, in my experience, he never misled a newspaper man.

He was a unique character who held a unique position in the British Columbia community. A visit to Vancouver the same without a call in his office overlooking Inlet where he had much happen along British Columbia's path to growth.

To The Citizens of Ketchikan and Southeastern Alaska and British Columbia:

The relatives and friends of Ellis Hall and family and of Patrick Hibben, want to express their deepest appreciation and thanks for the wonderful effort being made and the interest shown by all of you people, including civilian fliers, fishermen, United States and Canadian Armed Forces, Pan-American Airways, newspapers, radio stations and all others in searching for the lost plane, a light green, twin-engine DeHavilland Dove. It is extremely important that Bob Ellis of Ellis Airlines, Ketchikan, and Commander McMullen at Annette Island secure any reliable bits of unreported information that might be available from anyone sighting or hearing of the plane after its take-off from Annette Field about 4:30 p.m. on Monday, August 17th. If any fishing boats, trap watchmen, or other citizens heard or saw an airplane after this time and noted the time of day and direction in which the plane was travelling, please report this information to the above men by telephone, collect.

Because we have been delayed by the weather and because time is so important, we are offering to donate the sum of $5000. to a local public cause or charity to be selected by the finder of the plane, in addition to the $25,000 reward heretofore offered for the discovery of the Hall party or its plane. This extra $5000 may be used for a building such as a Civic Centre or Library, as a permanent reminder of the co-operation of those taking part in the search. We know that you people are busy with your work. We hope that this extra incentive will be an inducement for you to spend time in covering the shorelines and land in this area.

The plane, after leaving Annette Field, was to fly to Smithers, B.C. and south via Prince George to Bellingham, Washington. Due to possible radio or motor failure and weather conditions, the plane may have landed or crashed anywhere south and east of Ketchikan or in this vicinity. It is possible that radio messages from the plane may have been heard by independent radio listeners and if so, we would like to have this information from them.

Your continued assistance and co-operation will be greatly appreciated.

Famous Scientist Lists Local Museum Exhibits

Prince Rupert was host Saturday to a world renowned biologist and biologist, Professor Ruggles Gates, formerly general biologist and biologist at the University of London and now research biologist and anthropologist at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

Dr. Gates spent the greater part of the day examining and cataloguing for his own use, the collection of Indian skulls at the Prince Rupert Museum. He also evinced great interest in a dance apron adorned with Chinese coins representing several dynasties.

Dr. Gates' principal line of research has always been genetics, both plant and human, the latter, as he points out, being simply an expansion of the former.

A seasoned world traveller and explorer in the course of his work, Professor Gates has led exploration parties both up the Amazon river in South America, and up the Mackenzie river in Canada. He has done both botanical and anthropological research in Africa, South America, India, Tibet, Mexico, West Indies, Alaska, Canada, and the Arctic from coast to coast.

Recently, on a research foundation grant, he studied the intermingling of the Chinese and the Negroes in Cuba. While there, he discovered, in the mountains, a hitherto unknown tribe of Indians.

Dr. Gates has published eight books, his "Human Genetics," MacMillan Press, 1946, being a standard treatise for universities. Others for which he is internationally noted, and which have enjoyed a wide translation are "Human Ancestry," a treatise on the evolution of man; "Negro Genetics," a study of the origin of the negroid races; and several hundred scientific papers on botany and anthropology.

As a result of his own early research, and of the work of Heyerdahl, the problem of the origin of all native peoples has been his ultimate goal. Professor Gates, in collaboration with Dr. Darby, medical superintendent of the Bella Bella hospital, has done considerable work on the blood-grouping of the North Coast Indians and Eskimos, and a paper has recently been published based on their findings. Professor Gates hopes eventually to do complete blood groupings on representative groups of native peoples in all countries.

From Prince Rupert, Professor Gates is proceeding to the north shore of Lake Superior for a series of botanical experiments on the "Evening Primrose." This plant is the one on which the Mutation Evolution Theory of DeVries is founded, and closely follows experiments in the Professor's own work some 40 years ago, when the term, "Parallel Evolution" was first promulgated by him.

Swim Gala Trophies Won By Don Way, Ann Eyolfson

Despite dull skies a good crowd attended the second annual Prince Rupert Parks Board swimming gala staged yesterday afternoon at McClymont Park and saw ambitious youngsters putting their best efforts into swimming and diving events to make the meet a complete success.

Don Way captured the open swimming event and the Parks Board cup that goes with it with a 1 minute 35 second win over Derek Allan for the four-length race. Jimmy Currie was third and Neil Forman fourth.

The girls' open event for the Parks Board cup was won by Ann Eyolfson who completed the two lengths in 45 seconds, with Myrna Knutson placing second.

Way also won the boys' 40 years and under event, winning both the first heat of one length which he covered in 15 seconds, and the two-length final in 35 seconds. Derek Allan, who won the second heat in 17 seconds, was runner-up in the final.

Ann Eyolfson was a double winner also capturing the girls' 16 and under event from Jean Currie in 21 seconds.

Competition in the diving event, judged by pool instructor Miss Marilyn White, was extremely close with Bill Watmough emerging winner after 14 competitors had been given two chances and ten dives. Four boys and two girls had to demonstrate the plunge, high dive, racing dive, running one-foot take-off, back dive, jack-knife, swan dive, black flip, front flip and half twist. Mrs. Bill McGinnis assisted Miss White in the judging.

Close behind Watmough were Carl Miller and Doug Letourneau who had to do two more dives to break a tie, with Miller annexing second place. Other divers were Ray Winkle, Myrna Knutson and Judy Lloyd.

Selection of prizes was made by parks board commissioner Art who also took care of the announcing and starting. Parks board chairman Pat Forman and commissioner Bob Armstrong were in charge of the running of the meet. Mrs. Armstrong was time-keeper.

Other results:

Marking the year of its greatest expansion, the Pacific National Exhibition, the West's largest Fair and among the top three on the entire Pacific Coast, opens Wednesday, August 26 at Vancouver, and runs for 11 days through September 7.

New exhibit buildings costing $1,400,000 will feature the annual show which last year drew more than 716,000 persons. President J. S. C. Moffitt and general manager, V. Ben Williams are hopeful for a substantial increase in attendance with exhibits and entertainment in keeping in number and quality with the expanded facilities.

More than $94,000 is being spent this year on the five non-revenue competitive departments, livestock, junior farmer, horticulture, home arts and poultry. Entries in each have taxed capacity. Highlighting the Junior Farmer Show is the visit of two young 4-H Club members selected from the 1,000,000 members of the clubs in Japan. They are PNE guests.

The Electrical and Manufacturers Buildings, two of the new units, will feature the most modern developments in industry. The Pure Foods building, Palaces of Modern Living and Outdoor areas again are jammed with commercial exhibits. The Armed Forces have their finest display in the history of the PNE. The Hobby Show also has a record entry list.

On the entertainment side is the famous Shrine-PNE Circus with daily performances in the Forum; the daily card of eight running horse races, a newly decorated Gayway with new rides, games and shows and the Free Outdoor Theatre with continuous entertainment from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. Many other features, including navy displays, are programmed.

NOTICE

The public is advised that the Skeena River Bridge No. 135 on the Northern Transprovincial Highway No. 16 at Terrace will be closed to all vehicular traffic on Tuesday, August 25, 1953, between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 10:00 P.M.

One of Two Timber Wolves Shot on Outskirts of Stewart

STEWART—It is very seldom she will teach the elementary class at the school there. Last time of the year, at least not the four-footed variety, but this week saw that occurrence. Two large timber wolves were seen near the southeast corner of the townsite and word was brought to Constable R. A. Seaton who, with his rifle, hurried to the scene. There was only one to be seen when he arrived, a large male which dodged into the brush but on emerging was dispatched by Const. Seaton. The female had taken flight.

Miss Ella Haathi, student nurse at St. Paul's hospital, is spending the summer holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Haathi. Miss Haathi expects to graduate this fall.

THIS WEEK

Music and Drama Association meets Wednesday, August 26, at 8 p.m. Civic Centre. New members welcome.

According to unofficial reports the operations of the C M & S Co. Ltd. at Anyox are giving good results. Owen McFadden has been asked to send four head of his pack stock to Anyox for the use of the company and it is possible that more may be needed as the work progresses.

Word from the Silver Tip mine is that the main tunnel is in six feet of a good grade of ore and the management is confident of the ultimate success of the property. J. McGillivray, president of the company, came in recently and proceeded direct to the ultimate success of the proceeding at a rapid pace under the direction of Hunter Smith.

Miss Juanita Hawkinson is here visiting her father, J. P. Hawkinson before proceeding to Halls Prairie near White Rock where

THE Austin A-40 SOMERSET

*City or Provincial taxes extra in some areas

There are two reasons why more than 80,000 Canadians now drive Austins.

One of them is a sensible economy that brings motoring costs down to earth.

The other is Austin performance.

You'll be pleasantly surprised at both. To begin with, the low first cost is the complete price with no extras to buy. It includes:

Super-heater with air-conditioning.
Durable, comfortable foam rubber cushioning.

Long-wearing, genuine leather upholstery.

Powerful 12-volt electrical system.

Non-stalling electric windshield wipers.

Directional signals.

The operating cost is far and away below average—giving owners savings up to 50¢ on each operating dollar.

And the performance is excellent both in traffic and in day-long comfort on the open road.

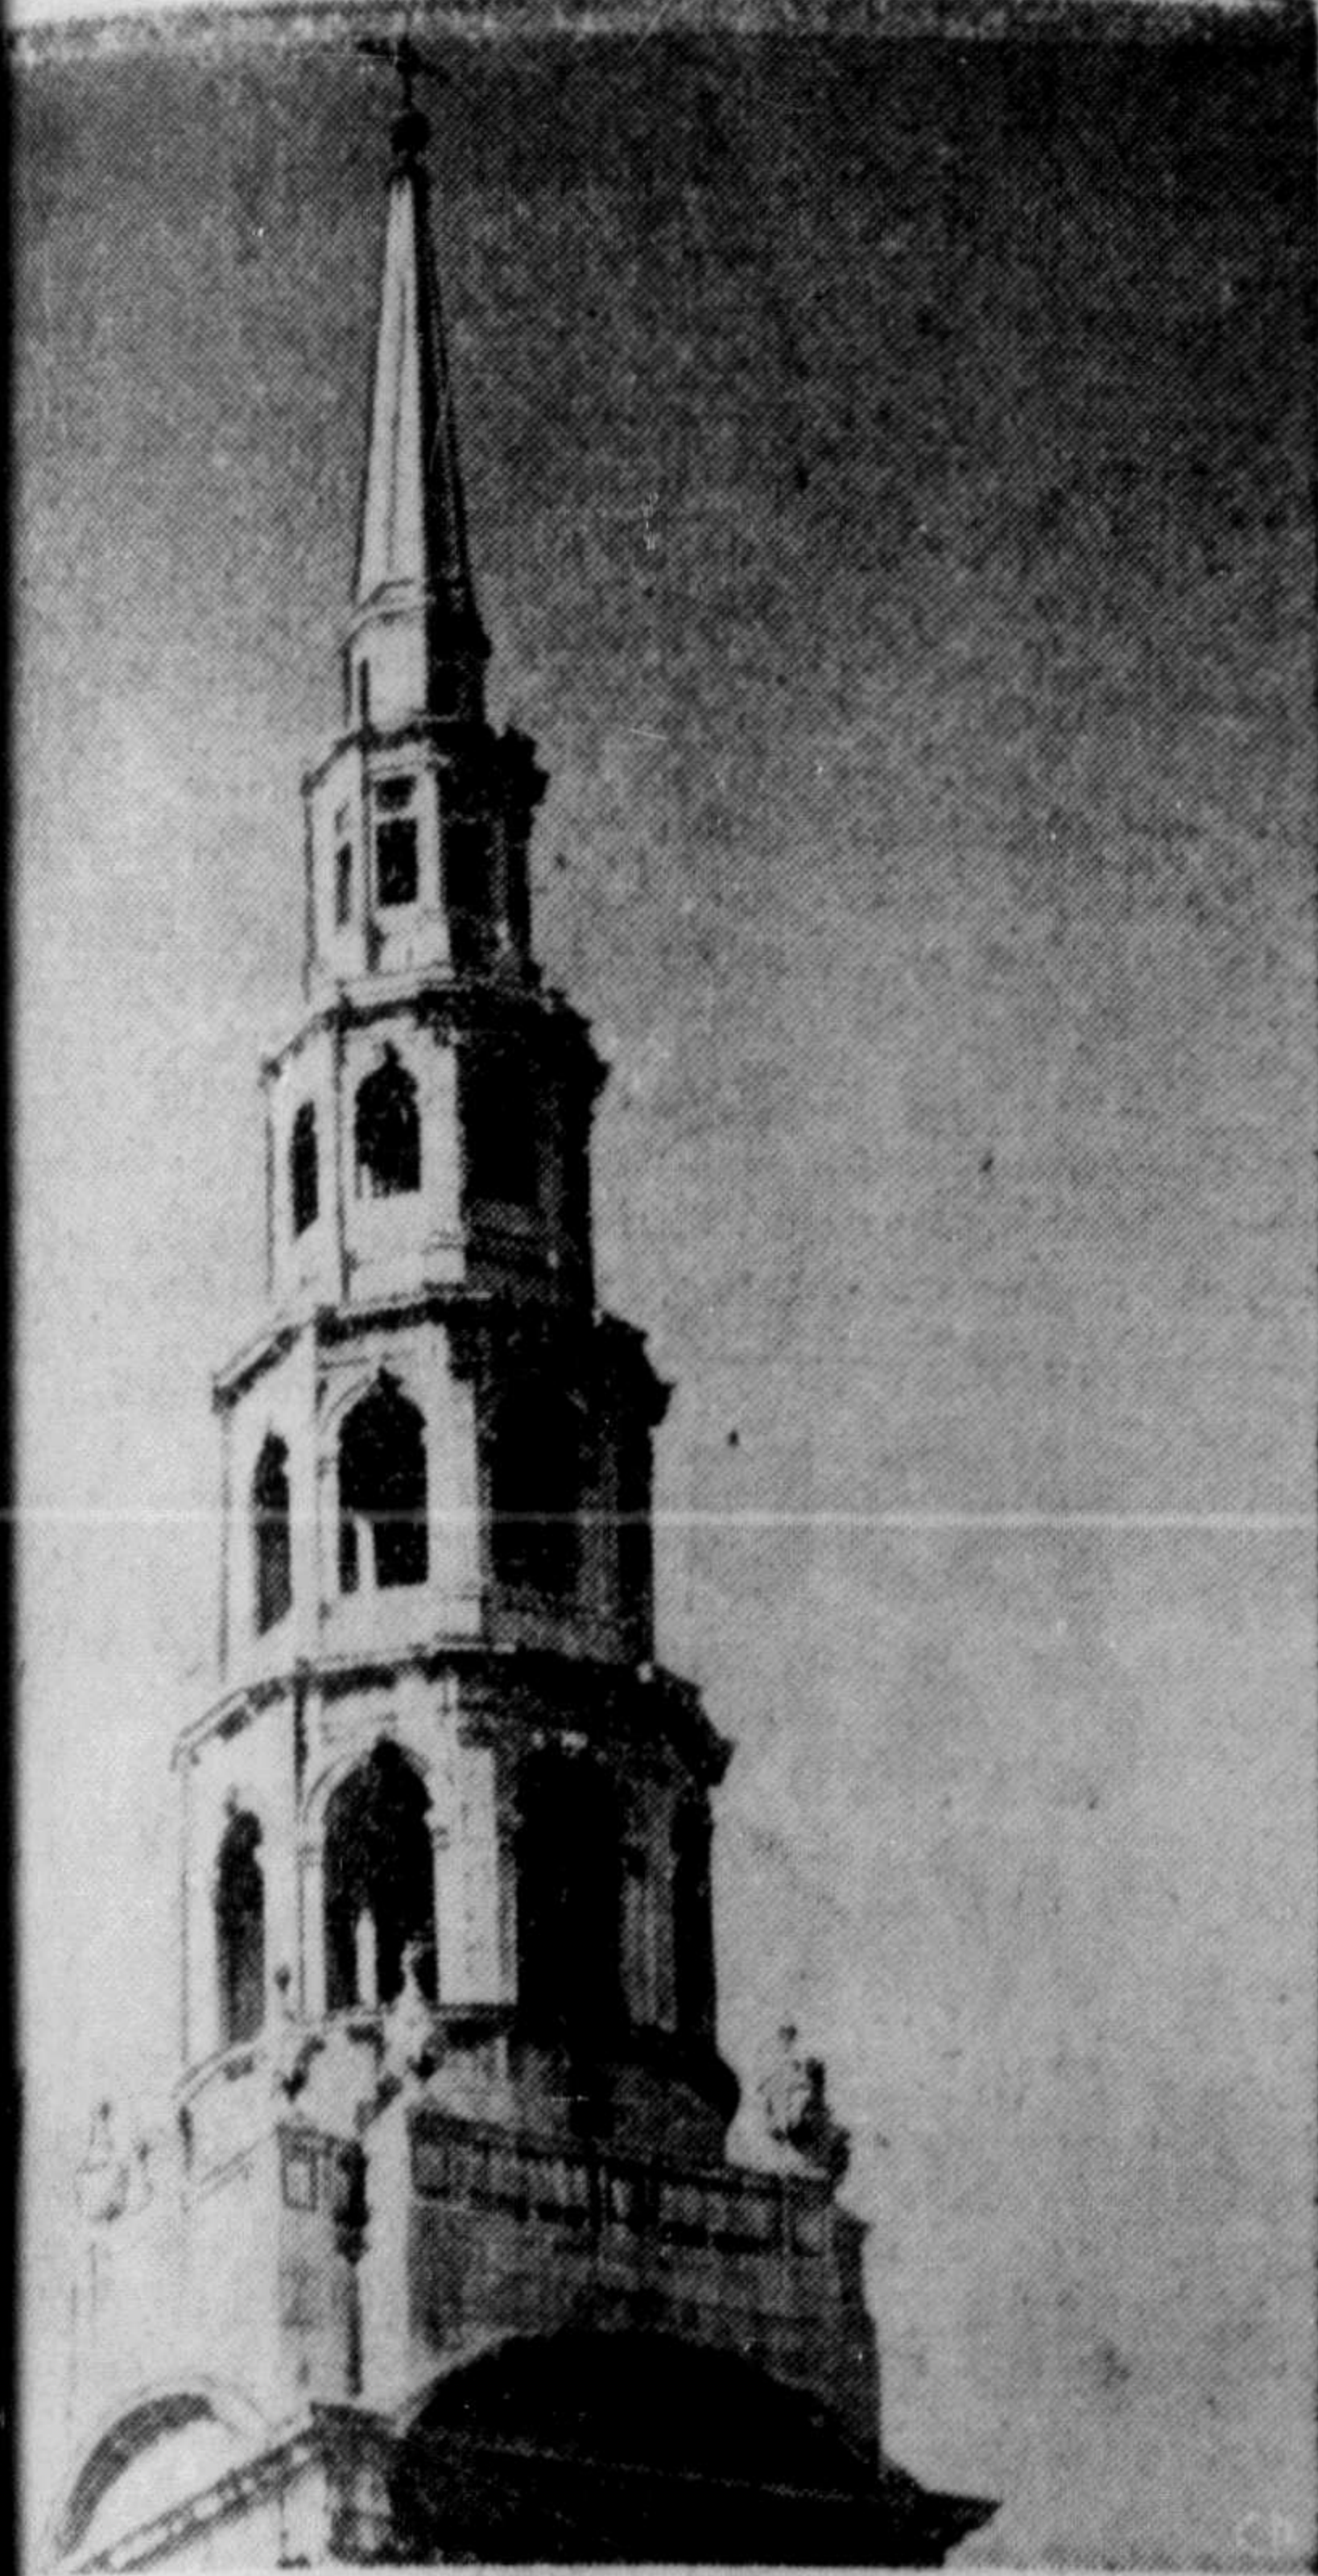

Prove it! Ask for a demonstration today.

Rosen Headed For Triple Batting Title

Cleveland's vanishing Indians may rate as the biggest flop in the American League, but Al Rosen, their chief hatchet man, is heading for the triple crown as well as the circuit's most valuable player award.

Rosen, who led the league in home runs in his rookie year in 1950, is the No. 1 guy today in batting, runs-batted-in as well as homers.

Only six players have been able to win the triple crown. They were the American League's Ted Williams, 1942-1947, Lou Gehrig, 1934 and Jimmy Foxx, 1933; and the National League's Rogers Hornsby, 1922-1925, Chuck Klein 1933 and Joe Medwick, 1937. Rosen boosted his batting average to .326 Sunday, getting three hits in six times at bat as the Indians clubbed St. Louis Browns twice, 2-1 and 9-0. Al homered his 33rd homer and batted in four runs to boost his total to 116.

Despite the double victory, the third-place Indians still remained 13 games behind the league-leading New York Yankees, who blanked Philadelphia Athletics 4-0. Chicago White Sox swept a twin bill from Detroit Tigers, 2-1 and 11-6. Boston Red Sox downed Washington Senators 5-4.

Brooklyn's National League pacemakers increased their margin over Milwaukee Braves to nine games, drubbing Pittsburgh Pirates twice, 10-4 and 9-7. Johnny Klippstein pitched the Cubs to a 7-2 triumph after Warren Spahn had hurled his 16th victory in Milwaukee's 10-2 opening success.

Giants' Earl Torgeson drove in three runs with a home run and single to give Philadelphia Phillies a 6-3 triumph.

Southpaw Kenny Raffensberger pitched and batted Cincinnati Reds to a 5-3 victory over St. Louis to drop the Cardinals into fourth place.

CRACK CANADIAN SHOTS TO COMPETE IN U.S. MEET

MONTREAL (AP)—A crack Canadian team of small-bore marksmen will compete for the first time in a three-country match to be fired at the American national matches at Camp Perry, O., Wednesday.

K. N. Morris, executive director of the Canadian Civilian Association of Marksmen, said Canada will enter the National Rifle Association of America Pershing Trophy match, previously closed to all countries except the United States and Britain.

The trophy was won by Britain in 1931 and 1937 and by the U.S. in 1939.

The Canadian team is captained by veteran Bisley shot James Boa of Toronto. Lt.-Col. Stephen Johns of Calgary is adjutant.

Pennant Race in WIL Still Wide Open

By The Associated Press

It's still a wide open race in the Western International Baseball League as the Class A loop heads into the final two weeks of the 1953 campaign.

Spokane, Lewiston and Salem are bunched in a virtual dead-heat turning into the home stretch and Vancouver, three games off the pace, still rates as a contender.

Spokane, after losing seven in a row to Lewiston, ended the Broncs' victory skein with a 23-hit 12-0 shutout Sunday, and the Broncs, who gained first place with 5-3, 5-3 wins in Saturday's doubleheader, fell back into second place only one percentage point behind the Indians. Salem was a game back. Wenatchee won the Yakima twin bill, taking the opener 4-2 and the nightcap 8-6.

Besides Lewiston's twin killing at Spokane Saturday, Tricity dropped Salem 5-1, 4-1; Calgary drubbed Vancouver 7-3, 5-1 and Edmonton rapped Victoria 6-5, 6-5.

In the Pacific Coast League, the improving Seattle Rainiers will try to make it six against Portland Beavers in the wrap-up game of their series tonight. The game, at Seattle, will make up for the contest out by Saturday night storm. It will be the meeting of the year between longtime PCL rivals.

The clubs divided a doubleheader, Seattle the opener 4-2, then the nightcap 3-0. First place wood and Oakland, 9-5 and 0-3, and the maintained 9½ games in the Rainiers.

In other games, San Diego copped a pair from San Francisco 6-4 and 4-2; and Los Angeles nipped San Francisco was clubbed 8-2.

Esquires Spoil Commercial's Opportunity Of Nudging G & A For League Leadership

Dick Letourneau pitched shut-out ball for eight solid innings yesterday afternoon at Roosevelt Park as he helped Esquires act the role of spoilers as they downed Commercial 4-2 and ruined the hotelmen's chances of winning the Prince Rupert Senior baseball league in regular scheduled play.

Going into the game needing a win to tie league leading Gordon and Andersons, the loss left Commercial still trailing by one game with only one more game to play, and that against G & A.

Up until the seventh inning Letourneau had allowed four scattered singles, and although Commercial reached him for three safeties in the seventh and two in the eighth, he still had sufficient control to keep any hotelmen from crossing the plate.

Esquires played errorless ball and Letourneau gave up no walks which compensated for the Esquires being out-hit 13-9 by Commercial.

Gordon Cameron handcuffed Esquires up until the fifth inning and it was an error which paved the way for the first Esquire run. The error plus a walk and a single by Hawryluk saw Lindsay and Sharpe come in.

In the seventh a triple by Lindsay and a single by Sharpe gave Letourneau a 3-0 cushion with which to work. A walk and another error in the ninth saw Lindsay cross the plate a third time following a single by Sharpe.

Commercial finally got into the scoring column in the ninth on a single and stolen base by Davis and singles by Carlson, Bruce Simundsen and Gunn.

Letourneau in winning struck out 11 and Cameron the loser fanned 10 and walked four.

League Topped By Hazelton

Special to Daily News
SMITHERS—Hazelton Muckers finished in first place in the newly-formed Bulkley Valley Senior baseball league, topping Smithers A's by half a game. A 20-game schedule has been played by six teams, two from Smithers and one each from Hazelton, Moricetown, Telkwa and Houston. Houston wound up in third place with Telkwa fourth. Smithers B's and Moricetown finished in that order.

Preliminary play-offs started Sunday in a best two-out-of-three series between the Muckers and Houston. Smithers A's and Telkwa. Winners of this series will play off for the league championship.

NEW YORK (AP)—There has come to this desk a rather remarkable documentary, the annual brochure of the Massillon Ohio high school football team. We feel it deserves wider distribution than it might otherwise receive.

Massillon is a city of some 29,000 population whose name has become known to virtually every football fan in the country through the amazing exploits of its high school Tigers. The capacity of its high school stadium is 22,000.

The present Massillon coach, Charles Mather, has a record of 47 victories and three defeats in the last five seasons. The current brochure lists 84 players expected to report to Mather and his five assistant coaches next month when the Tigers start looking for their sixth straight state title. Their 10 opponents will include every Helen Wills Moody won her sixth United States women's tennis championship 24 years ago today at Forest Hills, defeating Mrs. Phoebe Watson of England 6-4, 6-2. She won the title again in 1931 but in 1933, facing apparent defeat and near collapse, she conceded victory to Helen Jacobs.

Every Hand With Mr. Muzzy Is Potential Catastrophe

There are a lot of players like Mr. Champion. They're good. They're very good. They like to think they never make an incorrect bid. And it would be hard to prove they do.

But they're speaking from the technical standpoint — which isn't the whole story at all.

Mr. Champion made just one bid in today's deal and who could say it was a "bad" bid? His hand was a good dummy for a heart contract and he had practically no defensive power against an opposing game contract at diamonds.

His opponents were vulnerable and he was not. His three heart call was intended to show his partner a sacrifice in hearts might well be a paying proposition, depending of course on the later progress of the bidding. Makes considerable sense doesn't it?

Nevertheless, Mr. Champion's bid was a bad bid. It was bad with this particular partner and against these particular opponents. He had forgotten humanics—the art of playing the people as well as the cards.

Here's the way he should have reasoned. His partner, Mr. Muzzy was the weakest player in the game. What sense would there be in encouraging a sacrifice, which would merely prolong the rubber and increase the number of hands to be played with Mr. Muzzy?

Every hand with Mr. Muzzy is a potential catastrophe. Why not get it over as soon as possible?

Why not indeed? But Mr. Champion failed to ask himself these questions. His suggestion of a sacrifice at hearts was eagerly accepted by his partner. So much so the opponents were eventually driven into a six diamond contract.

Mr. Muzzy doubled confidently then proceeded to lead the only suit which would give Mr. Dale a chance for his contract. The lead was a heart. Mr. Dale won two heart tricks with his ace and queen, discarding two spades from dummy. He lost only one trick—the ace of clubs. If Mr. Champion had stayed

Jones Captures Golf Tourney

Tommy Jones won the Smithers Golf Club championship and the club trophy in a final 18-hole playoff on the local greens against Arnold Rennison by a 76 to 79 score. First round totals were tied at 40 but Jones forged ahead with a 36 on the last nine holes.

Both are expected to be contestants in the annual Northern B.C. Championship play here in September.
