Support For Bulkley Valley Products Sought Here by New Milk Distributors

"We look upon the Bulkley Valley in relation to Prince Rupert in the same way that the Fraser Valley is to Vancouver," association president Ray Oulton said. "We feel we are in a position to give you good service here."

In answer to a question by W. F. Stone whether there was any evidence that Bulkley Valley produce was being boycotted here, vice-president Liepe said that is what they were trying to find out.

Prince Rupert Resident Dies in Hospital

Phyllis Dye, 79, a resident of Prince Rupert for the past 29 years, died in hospital here last night after having been an invalid for several years.

She was born in London, England, she came to Canada in 1907 with her husband and family and lived in Meleta, Manitoba, and British Columbia, before coming to Prince Rupert. Her husband, John, who died in 1943, was employed in the CNR baggage room. She was active in Anglican church activities here until she started some 12 years ago. She had resided with a Mrs. George Thain, 528 Avenue West, since the death of her husband.

Survivors include two sons in Vancouver and one in Selkirk, Man.; two daughters, Mrs. R. W. (Lil) Mat- terrace and Mrs. Len- here; a sister, Mrs. W. W. Kitsilas, B.C., and grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A service will be held in Prince Rupert, with burial at

Police Quell Rioting Italians

ROME.—Club-swinging police beat back protesting Italian students in front of the Russian embassy today as demonstrations over the disputed free territory of Trieste broke out in various parts of Rome.

The students answered the police club attacks with sticks. Many of the demonstrators were bruised, but no serious injuries were reported.

Hundreds paraded elsewhere, carrying Italian flags, angrily shouting against Yugoslav President Tito's stand on Trieste and demanding the strategic Adriatic peninsula be returned to Italy.

It was the first demonstration in Rome on the Trieste issue since the United States and Britain announced Oct. 8 they planned to pull out their 7,000 occupation troops from Zone A of the free territory, including the port city of Trieste, and turn the area over to Italian administration.

The demonstration in front of the Russian embassy apparently was in protest against the Soviet demand that the Security Council meet soon to appoint an international administration for the area under permanent United Nations supervision.

Reds Stall Explanations To Anti-Red Prisoners

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The delay-riddled Communist efforts to woo 22,400 ex-Red soldiers home to communism halted indefinitely today after the Reds were turned down flat on demands that the PoWs be dragged to the explanations by force if necessary.

Slung by the rebuff from India, Switzerland and Sweden, the satellite Polish and Czech delegates on the neutral nations repatriation commission walked out Monday and gave no indication when they would return.

The explanations apparently were postponed indefinitely—at least until the commission can get operating again.

Observers speculated that the Red Walkout could be a prelude to dropping their persuasion efforts entirely in an effort to avoid more of a propaganda

Native Baby Dies of Burns

A five-month-old native baby died early this morning in Prince Rupert general hospital as a result of burns received in a stove explosion at his Port Edward home last night.

Lyle Alexee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Alexee of Port Simpson, was brought into hospital at 10 p.m. last night and died at 5:15 this morning.

RCMP are investigating the accident and a coroner's inquiry will probably be held by deputy coroner George Daves.

The baby is survived by his parents, three brothers, Gary Edward, Charles Franklin and Gene Wayne and one sister, Sharon Darlene.

32,000 Pounds Of Black Cod Landed Here

About 32,183 pounds of black cod have been landed in Prince Rupert since October 1, it was reported today. The catches were made by two boats, the Kenn Falls and the Parma.

Kenn Falls landings included 5,994 pounds of black cod, 1,468 pounds of red cod and 146 pounds of halibut. Parma brought in 26,189 pounds of black cod, 2,355 pounds of red cod and 4,589 pounds of halibut.

Under fisheries department regulations fishboats are allowed to land halibut in a ratio of seven pounds of black cod to one pound of halibut or other saleable fish other than salmon or tuna.

The season ends November 15.

Britain, U.S. May Slow Down Troop Removal From Trieste

WASHINGTON (AP)—Britain and the United States are reported to have decided to slow down evacuation of their troops from disputed Trieste while they try to resolve Italy's and Yugoslavia's bitter quarrel over the area.

U.S. State Secretary Dulles had an appointment to review this potentially explosive problem with President Eisenhower today in a personal report on the London Big Three foreign ministers' conference.

Diplomatic officials familiar with the Trieste manoeuvring said Eisenhower and Dulles both believed it would be best to move slowly in evacuating some 7,000 American and British troops now garrisoning Zone A.

New Offer for Airport

VANCOUVER (AP)—Mayor Fred Hume disclosed Monday that the federal government has offered Vancouver $1,100,000 for its interest in International Airport, an increase of $100,000 over the last offer.

Mayor Hume declined immediate comment on the proposal. Previously, the city had put a $1,250,000 price tag on the airport.

MLA Refused Old Job

VICTORIA (CP)—Percy Wright, who walked off his job to represent Victoria riding as a Social Credit member of the legislature, resigned his seat Monday night to make possible a by-election that is intended to seat a B.C. cabinet minister.

Mr. Wright said at a Social Credit constituency meeting here he was giving up his seat to allow a by-election for Finance Minister Einar Gunderson defeated in the June provincial election in the neighboring riding of Oak Bay.

Search Party Leaves For Crash Scene

A Pacific Western Airlines plane missing with five persons aboard was found "totally wrecked" in the mountainous Garibaldi country, 55 miles north of Vancouver, shortly after noon today.

Brief reports received here said no survivors were sighted.

A company spokesman in Vancouver said the plane was located "on the ground" near Garibaldi station on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway and that a ground party has started for the scene.

Names of only three of those aboard were known by PWA officials. They were identified as Bob Drinkwater of New Westminster, pilot; Lucille Warden of Langley Prairie, a nurse, and a Mr. Neumayer, a miner. Two unidentified men passengers were also on the aircraft, which went to Gun Lake Monday morning following an urgent call to transport the miner to hospital in Vancouver.

Twenty planes, including four RCAF Canso flying boats and a crash boat, combed inland seas in Howe Sound this morning.

They took off at dawn to join a fleet of fishboats and the RCMP patrol launch which searched dark, rain-swept waters Monday night for the missing single-engine De Havilland Beaver.

It had been overdue since Monday afternoon on the 125-mile flight from Bridge River to Vancouver.

Land Seized From Leaders Of Mau Mau

NAIROBI, Kenya (Reuters)—The war against terrorism in this once carefree colony entered its second year today with the government announcing new measures of retribution against the anti-white Mau Mau movement.

Governor Sir Evelyn Baring told the colony's Legislative Council that all land owned by past and present Mau Mau leaders will be confiscated, and terrorist chieftains will be banished from the colony forever.

The seized lands will be used for clinics, schools of agricultural experiments. Entry of Kikuyu tribesmen — among whom the dread movement originated — into African areas will be controlled "for some years to come."

The government also will push development of agriculture and industry, which he admitted has bogged down since the Mau Mau nightmare descended on the colony.

Kikuyus who went back to pre-serves will not be allowed to return to European-settled areas, and Kikuyu independent schools, now banned will not "in any circumstances" be reopened.

Douks Demand 'All Children'

NELSON, B.C. (CP)—More than two dozen Doukhobors staged a disturbance in court here Monday during a hearing of an application for the release of Doukhobor children.

Children of more than 100 Doukhobors jailed on nudism charges are being held at New Denver, B.C., near here.

The Doukhobors, members of the radical Sons of Freedom sect, charged that some of the children had been released to live with relatives other than their parents. They refused to sign applications to have the children returned to those parents not in jail.

"We want all or none," they shouted. "If we can't have all our children, we don't want any."

Magistrate William Evans said there would be no resumption of the hearing unless the applications were signed by parents only. Then he adjourned court.

Many of the Doukhobors present were uncles and aunts of children in welfare department custody.

When court adjourned, the Doukhobors refused to leave until escorted from the court by four RCMP guards. Outside, some of the women burst into screams and shouted at the officers in Russian.

Bonner Given Education Post

VICTORIA (CP)—Attorney-General Robert Bonner was sworn in Monday by Lieutenant-Governor Clarence Wallace as Minister of Education to replace Mrs. Tilly Rolston, who died last week in Vancouver.

Following the ceremony, the Premier said "Mr. Bonner will hold the education portfolio until the successor to the late Mrs. Rolston has been chosen."

"Mr. Bonner's appointment is only temporary."

Percy Wright Resigns Seat To Make Way For By-Election

VICTORIA (CP)—Percy Wright, who walked off his job to represent Victoria riding as a Social Credit member of the legislature, resigned his seat Monday night to make possible a by-election that is intended to seat a B.C. cabinet minister.

Mr. Wright said at a Social Credit constituency meeting here he was giving up his seat to allow a by-election for Finance Minister Einar Gunderson defeated in the June provincial election in the neighboring riding of Oak Bay.

Mr. Wright, officially told 12 hours before that he no longer worked for the city of Victoria, also said he would try again today to regain his post as assistant city clerk.

Almost all the provincial cabinet except Mr. Gunderson, holidaying in Peru, attended the meeting. The by-election date was not announced.

Mr. Wright emphasized that the decision to resign—"one of the hardest" of his life—was his own. He had not been asked to do so.

As I See It

Jehovites' Case

The Supreme Court decision in the case of the Witnesses of Jehovah seems to me to be one of the most important ever made in Canada.

The most significant feature of it was that the five-to-four division cut across religious lines. It was not five Protestant judges who over-ruled four Catholic colleagues.

Surely this was striking proof that Canadians are more and more cutting loose from the automatic denominational reactions to any public questions in which churches are involved.

The Jehovah's Witnesses are a world-wide organization which opposes the two most powerful institutions on earth: organized religion of all kinds, and the national state.

Many people find their robes, if misguided, opposition to war admirable. I cannot conscientiously accept anybody's pacifism—not even Gandhi's.

Yet, for all that, I can see the pacifists' point. Suppose that if in 1914 people all over the world had said "No—we simply refuse to shoot our fellow men—we refuse to march to fight."

Maybe the Jehovah's Witnesses, Quakers and Gandhites and Doukhobors are right on this one matter—who knows? Certainly I for one would regard it as a feather in the democratic if any pacifist organization were forcibly prevented from preaching its ideas on peace.

THE QUEBEC cases sprang of course from the Jehovah's attacks on the Roman Catholic Church—not on peace, for there are Catholic pacifists, and fine ones. There is no doubt that these attacks are offensive and really obnoxious to the vast majority of the people of Quebec.

But what the Supreme Court decision says, in effect, is what has been said in other ways and places before:

"Freedom of expression is indivisible."

CANADA has stern laws against blasphemy, libel, slander, sedition and defamation. If there are existing loopholes in them we have parliament, elected by the people, to keep law up to date.

But as Mr. Justice Rand pointed out, the Bible itself shows that public highways were used thousands of years ago for handing out the equivalent to modern tracts.

Times Resumes Publication

SEATTLE (AP)—The Seattle Times resumed publication Monday after a strike that brought a 95-day closure.

An American Newspaper Guild (CIO) strike over wage increases closed the afternoon newspaper for more than 11 weeks.

The newspaper remained closed another two weeks during negotiations between the management and mechanical department union.

VICTORIA REPORT

by J. K. Nesbitt

VICTORIA—The last session of B.C.'s 24th Legislature is now history. It ended on a note of sadness, just at the time of the death of one everybody admired and liked a lot—Tilly Jean Rolston.

The House will never be quite the same without Tilly Jean. For 12 years she was a bright light, a great one to work hard, a great one to laugh, and her courage in the face of an illness she knew was sapping her life, and causing her great pain, was an inspiration to all who knew her.

It was a good session. There was much hard work, and many good laws were passed. The government had an easy time of it. Seldom has any government been so generally praised and thanked by the Opposition as the Social Credit government of this amazing man, W. A. C. Bennett.

The last grind top prorogation was frantic. It was just as bad as ever. And, as usual, the opposition howled its head off, but Mr. Bennett was grim, and determined to get through. Of course, he wouldn't admit that.

Liberal leader Arthur Laing protested what he called "legislation by exhaustion." Liberal Mr. Gibson of Lillooet said the rush was so fierce nobody knew what they were talking about.

Mr. Moore of Comox said he wondered what the use of an opposition, for, he said, the government ignores the opposition.

Mr. Moore thought he might as well go home, or loiter around in a coffee room. "Wait 'til you've been here 20 years—and then you'll really wonder," snapped Burnaby's CCF Mr. Winch.

Mr. Uphill, to relieve the tension, wandered about the House one midnight and sat down in Mr. Chetwynd's seat. CCF Mr. Strachan of Cowichan-Newcastle noted that there appeared to be a new Minister of Trade and Industry.

"There are always great developments on this side of the House," said the Premier. "Anything might happen this time of night," said Mr. Winch.

Liberal leader Laing, whose party would have been wiped out of the Legislature under the old straight X system of voting, which is now the law again, wanted to know why there was such a rush to get rid of the alternate system of voting.

South Eastern Alaska and Northern British Columbia, together can create industry on a huge scale. It's all waiting for development. This is the time and here is the place.

Maybe our health standards are improving today because we cannot afford to become sick.

Shell Out!

TOMORROW parents will begin to notice a determined gleam in their children's eyes and a certain preoccupied air which suggests that something is in the wind.

Something is, for tomorrow signals the start of the Kinsmen's shell-out week during which schoolchildren throughout the city will vie with each other for prizes awarded to those who sell the most tickets for Hallowe'en celebrations.

This competition is the first step in the Kinsmen Club's annual program to make Hallowe'en safer and more fun. Proceeds from the ticket sales, along with returns from Peanut Day, are used to finance the Kinsmen's bonfire festivities which have become the centre of enjoyment when ghosts and goblins traditionally go prowling.

This year the bonfire party is to be enlivened with the inclusion of Port Edward, Digby Island is also to be brought into the show by sending hot-dogs there for still another bonfire feast.

All this represents a big undertaking by the Kinsmen which every parent—and everyone else, for that matter—will appreciate. It induces children to stay off the streets and still provides them with a much better time than they can have in disorganized entertainment.

Because of the Kinsmen's efforts, the city can look forward to Hallowe'en each year with complete peace of mind. The cost to us is the small one of purchasing tickets. So when some youngster asks you in the next several days to buy tickets, there is only one thing to do—shell out.

OTTAWA DIARY

By Norman M. MacLeod

The more thoughtful amongst the rank-and-file MPs who visit the Capital these days express real concern over the news that the House of Commons rules of procedure are to be streamlined.

They are afraid of what such a move will do to the remnant of importance that they hitherto have succeeded in preserving for themselves in the complicated picture of Parliamentary government.

That remnant hasn't been too great. And if it is reduced any further some MP's foresee a situation in which the individual Commoner's actual importance in the legislative scheme of things would be about on a par with the importance wielded by any individual member of the Senate.

Up to the present your rank-and-file MP has had at least two occasions guaranteed to him each session on which he could strut his stuff for the benefit of the folks in his home constituency.

One occasion has been the Speech from the Throne; the other has been the budget debate. On both these talking marathons any MP has been at liberty to get up in his place and address "the House and the country." Result: both debates have been known to last a month or longer.

The plan now being talked about is to limit each of these debates to three or four days at the most. That will restrict participation to the Cabinet Ministers, Party Leaders, Parliamentary Under-Secretaries, and a few of the more prominent front-benchers.

Speaking of electricity, Canadians can take pride that the largest stranded electrical cable ever made for an overhead transmission line has been delivered by Alcan's Shawinigan Falls plant to the West Coast, to carry power to our new smelter now a-building at Kitimat. My wife became like the legendary well-behaved child—seen but not heard.

The prospect worries the MP's concerned. They're afraid their constituents may draw the dangerous inference that they are not such terribly important people after all—perhaps not really worth the indemnity increase that it is going to be their first business to seek once they get settled down to work.

The government's stand in the matter is that the new rules need not work hardship to the interests of anyone, except possibly to the Opposition parties over whom it isn't too greatly concerned. The individual MP, it is argued, will find more scope for his individuality in the increased importance which the Parliamentary committees will have than he ever enjoyed in the House of Commons itself under the old system.

Citizenship Council Names New Officers

The Rev. Lawrence G. Sieber was elected president of the Prince Rupert Citizenship Council at that group's annual meeting last night in the Civic Centre.

Other officers named were Mrs. W. L. Hitchcock, secretary; Mrs. W. A. MacLean, treasurer; Miss Evie Rivett, librarian. The vice-president will be elected at the next meeting.

The members, whose major function is to welcome New Canadians in Prince Rupert, planned to donate two copies of the book "A Pocketful of Canada" to the public library. The book is a collection of poems, essays and sketches about Canada illustrated with a variety of photographs.

Mrs. Jens Munthe, in her report for the social committee, suggested that women of the council hold a monthly social meeting, and the matter was referred to the executive.

The council will encourage all racial groups in the city to enter the Christmas Carol Festival and carol sing to be held here in December.

Parents Urged to Pay More Attention To Health Needs When Planning Menus

Canada's Food Rules, a basic meal pattern developed by Canadian nutritionists for good health, were outlined last night for members of city Parent-Teacher groups by Mrs. Lorraine Arseneault, a nutritionist from the department of health.

Noting that food studies undertaken in various schools throughout the province in the past two years had uncovered deficiencies in the diets of a large percentage of the families surveyed, Mrs. Arseneault urged parents to pay more attention to health requirements when planning menus.

She said that, in the studies, it had been found that only 40 per cent of the youngsters were getting enough Vitamin C, only 10 per cent enough Vitamin D and only 40 per cent enough milk.

The surveys had shown that those lacks were not due to financial difficulties, because 90 per cent of the children were getting meat at least once a day, and many twice a day, and they were eating excessive amounts of expensive candy, gum and soft drinks.

She noted that in Prince Rupert especially, where there was so much rain and so little sunshine, children needed Vitamin D (the sunshine vitamin) in their diet, and said that pills were the easiest and probably the cheapest method.

She told the group that if finances were a major factor in their food shopping, then they should watch their buying and cooking methods. In purchasing meat, they should consider the edible portion per pound and make use of meat extenders or alternates such as cheese, eggs and beans.

QUESTION PERIOD

During a lively question period, Mrs. Arseneault said canned fruits and juices were as nutritional as fresh fruits if the fresh fruits had been shipped a long distance. In many cases, she said, canned fruits and juices were fortified with extra vitamins. Modern canning methods allowed only minor loss of food value.

Frozen foods, she said, had slightly more nutritional value than canned goods.

Canada's Food Rules list the following foods as necessary each day:

Milk—Children up to 12 years, at least one pint; adolescents at least one-and-one-half pints; adults, at least one-half pint.

Fruit—One serving of citrus fruit or tomatoes or their juices, and one serving of other fruit.

Vegetables—At least one serving of potatoes, at least two servings of other vegetables, preferably leafy, green or yellow, and frequently raw.

Cereals and Bread—One serving of whole grain cereal and at least four slices of bread (with butter or fortified margarine).

Meat and Fish—One serving of meat, fish, poultry or meat alternates such as dried beans, eggs and cheese. Use liver frequently. Also, eggs and cheese at least three times a week each.

Vitamin D—At least 400 International Units for all growing persons and expectant or nursing mothers.

The group also was shown a film on a school lunch program.

Northland May Add Second Freighter

By LARRY STANWOOD
A second freighter may be added to Northland Navigation's weekly service into Prince Rupert if the present trend of increased shipping is maintained, a development which would make this city one of the best serviced ports on the northwest Pacific coast.

Including the 250 tons of cargo unloaded here weekly by Northland's Island Prince, well over 1000 tons is being received at Prince Rupert's docks each week via water shipments.

Northland Navigation brought the Island Prince into service here to fill a breach when Union Steamships were no longer able to operate a twice-a-week service. Fresh produce merchants who found it difficult to provide adequate service to their customers on a weekly supply basis pressed for action from civic authorities and from the Chamber of Commerce.

Unless they could depend on shipments of perishable foods at least twice a week, much of their business would be ruined, the merchants said. But Union maintained they couldn't return to former service, and so the problem remained unsolved for several months.

A major influence on Northland's decision to operate a scheduled freighting service into Prince Rupert were Whalen's Cartage Ltd., the firm which handles all of Northland's through bill-of-lading traffic into the interior as far as Burns Lake, and G. W. Nickerson, agents for B.C. Steamships, which company was reorganized to form Northland.

Whalen's now operate three three-ton trucks regularly servicing interior points on the Skeena Highway with consigned shipments received on the Island Prince. Head of the cartage firm is Harold Whalen, mayor of Prince Rupert, as president. Vice-president is Don Fitch, a former alderman here.

Besides operating a complete cartage service, Whalen's also continue their labelling for fishing companies. As agents for Wells Ltd., of Vancouver, Whalen's label cases of canned salmon for Nelson Bros. Ltd., Canadian Fishing Company Limited and B.C. Packers Ltd., as well as draw samples from certain cases for government inspection.

Besides operating the Island Prince, Northland numbers among its fleet of five ships the larger Alaska Prince which tramps the coast from Vancouver to Alaska and docks here about every 10 days, and the Pacific Prince which makes a scheduled freight run weekly into Kitimat. Head of the firm is Capt. H. J. T. Terry whose visits to Prince Rupert are no rarity

Two trucks, a one-ton special and a five-ton heavy duty, accompanied Don Forward to Kitimat on the Princess Norah Sunday evening to take their part in an era of west coast business history.

Within the next few weeks, Mr. Forward will open up the first business in B.C.'s newest city-to-be when Kitimat Builders Supplies Ltd. begins trading at the site of Alcan's $500,000,000 aluminum smelter operation.

Kitimat Builders Supplies Ltd. with head offices in Prince Rupert, has named Mr. Forward manager. Formerly operating his own business of Prince Rupert Supply House, he is probably best known for his work in the Civic Centre here of which he was secretary-manager from its inception until the fall of 1951.

JOSEPH FISCHER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fischer of Montreal, is believed held a prisoner-of-war by the Russians. The parents say their son was visiting Yugoslavia when the Second World War started and he was drafted into the German army. In 1945 the Red Cross told the parents their son was a Russian prisoner. Recently released prisoners said the Russians still held one Canadian and the Fischers believe it is their son.

Churchill May Clarify Rumors He Thinking of Trip to Moscow

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill is expected to throw some light today on persistent rumors that he is thinking of making a one-man peace pilgrimage to Moscow if Britain's allies continue to cold-shoulder his idea of top-level East-West talks.

Several members of the Opposition Labor party announced they will question the Conservative leader on this and other major policy matters when Parliament reassembles today.

The prime minister's aides said he may make his position clear at that time. Foreign Secretary Eden also was scheduled to make a statement during the opening session of the House of Commons on the decisions reached by the Big Three foreign ministers last week-end.

STILL HAS HOPES

Churchill was said not to have abandoned his original proposal for an intimate round-table discussion of all of the world's problems which are causing tension.

He was said to have broached the subject to U.S. State Secretary Dulles during the Big Three foreign ministers meeting here last week-end, but Dulles was reported to be cold to the idea even though he did not close the door on the proposal.

Churchill, who will be 79 next month, made his first call for talks on the highest level last spring.

Arrangements for a meeting with President Eisenhower and France's Premier Laniel in Bermuda to prepare for such a meeting with Soviet Premier Malenkov were postponed and then called off altogether because Churchill's doctors ordered him to take a rest.

Most British newspapers renewed reports today, attributed to unnamed diplomatic sources in Paris, that Churchill was determined to try to arrange a direct approach to Malenkov even if he has to go it alone.

The reports said if necessary Churchill is willing to fly to Moscow for such a meeting.

Veteran Tug, Salvage King Sinks at Berth

VICTORIA (CP)—Hundreds of thousands of gallons of water poured on a stubborn, unreachable fire resulted in one of the biggest tugs on the Pacific coast sinking at her berth in Victoria harbor Monday.

The Pacific Salvage Company tug Salvage King, a $750,000 veteran of many salvage operations on the British Columbia coast, is resting on the bottom of Victoria harbor waiting for sister ships to start salvage operations. Only her superstructure is above water.

The fire broke out in the forecastle of the tug early Monday. The heat and smoke from burning bedding and ship stores was so intense that firemen, wearing masks, could not get near the blaze.

Filchok Takes Revenge As Riders Edge Eskimos

By The Canadian Press
 Saskatchewan Roughriders, their coach Frankie Filchok again savouring the taste of victory in the city of his former triumphs, today hold the distinction of having given Edmonton Eskimos their first beating at home and two of their three in 15 Western Interprovincial

Football Union games this season.
 The Roughriders won the distinction with a close 20-19 decision over the Eskimos Monday night to move into second place in the WIFU standings.
 In Calgary, gasoline salesman Neil Armstrong hit a high octane stride Monday night, leading Winnipeg Blue Bombers to an 18-6 victory over Calgary Stampeders in a Western Interprovincial Football Union game.
 It was Winnipeg's first win on the road this season.

The loss meant little to Edmonton. With the league schedule winding up this week-end, the Eskimos are eight points ahead of Riders.
 The triumph must have been sweet to Filchok, for he coached the Eskimos to the Grey Cup final last year, only to lose his job when he came back from Toronto.

Alabama halfback Bobby Marlow, Sully Glasser, former West-pointer Herbie Johnson and Riders' new quarterback find, Bill Todd, led the Roughrider ground attack.
 Filchok, who replaced Glenn Dobbs in the quarterback slot, produced a sparkling passing and ground attack.
 A crucial pass interception by import centre John Wosniak produced Marlow's major, and a boot to the deadline by veteran Ken Charlton brought the winning point with only three minutes of play left.

Other Saskatchewan majors came from end Harry Lampan and Todd.
 Halfback Rollie Miles got Edmonton off to a fast start with his fifth touchdown in two games. Claude Arnold, the Negro speedster danced over the line for the Eskimos second tally. Edmonton's third touchdown came when Oklahoma end Frankie Anderson caught Arnold's 37-yard forward on the Rider goal line for the five points. Snyder converted all three majors, running his successful convert kicks to 33 straight.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By GAYLE TALBOT

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (AP)—There have been some fight training camps that were museum pieces, including one we recall in which Lou Nova delved into the mysteries of yogi and made pals with a live bear, but the one which has been going on here for a number of weeks seems to rank right up with the zaniest of the lot.

Those who have gone through it say they will never forget Randy Turpin as long as they live. The strange character who fights Bobo Olson for the world middleweight title Wednesday night at the Garden has distributed scars which will endure—and none of them on his sparring partners.

By great good luck, it seems, most of our sports writers were busy with such things as the world series and the opening of the football season, and so were largely spared. The principal sufferers were a group of British experts who were here on orders from their respective papers, and Col. Bob Brumby, a gentleman from Georgia who was being highly paid by the promoting IBC to drum up interest in the impending brawl.

MOODY MAULER

About the first thing Turpin did was let Brumby know that he wanted no part of him. The second was to do everything but sic dogs on his journalistic countrymen. The moody mauler wanted to be left severely alone. The result has been an unparalleled blasting in the British press and a detectable coldness in Brumby's dispatches.

Kid Gavilan To Challenge Turpin, Olson

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—The new middleweight champion of the world—Randy Turpin or Bobo Olson—will have a ready challenger in Kid Gavilan, the welter titleholder.
 The Cuban Keed, training at Summit, N.J., for a Nov. 13 defence against Johnny Bratton at Chicago, is anxious to jump into the 160-pound division against the winner of Wednesday's 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden.

"Win or lose with Bratton we want Turpin or Olson next," said Angel Lopez, Gavilan's manager. "Personally, I like Turpin a little bit. But who knows?"

NOBODY KNOWS

Who knows? That is the story of this Olson-Turpin fight in which Bobo from Honolulu and San Francisco is an 11-to-5 favorite.

Almost to a man, managers and trainers who make boxing their business lean toward Olson. They respect Turpin for his first fight with Sugar Ray Robinson, but they have been over-weighed by his sporadic training.

Turpin may pick up new support if he makes the 160-pound weight as easily as his handlers think. He weighed 161 when examined Thursday. When Randy fought Charles Humez for the European title in June, he had to sweat off a half-pound in a steam bath after the weigh-in. As Asbury Park, N.J., Olson has worked on a consistent schedule of 70 rounds in 27 days. Turpin boxed about 22 rounds in five workouts at his Grossinger, N.Y., camp but did his heavy drills in Britain.

Canucks Notch Fifth Straight
 Vancouver Canucks, still to lose their first game this season, Monday night joined Calgary at the Western Hockey League standings by virtue of a 4-1 victory over Victoria Cougars.
 For Vancouver, the story is five wins and a tie; for Cougars, five losses and one win.
 The Cougars started out in a manner to gladden the hearts of the 3,000 Victoria fans, slapping rubber at Vancouver goalie Lorne Worsley from all angles.
 Jack Lancelotti tied it up for Canucks in the second period.
 Canucks' Fred Brown picked up a loose puck on the boards to make it 2-1.
 Going into the last period, when twice Vancouver's Gordie Kerr passed the puck to Bill Wylie and twice Wylie scored.
 Only game scheduled tonight is at Vancouver, when Canucks meet Edmonton Flyers.

Wait, Lady — It will go faster if you do these three things...

- ADDRESS YOUR MAIL CORRECTLY—Write clearly and give COM- PLETE address; include Postal Zone Number in Quebec, Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto, Vancouver.
- ADVISE YOUR FRIENDS (and some number if applicable)—especially if you have moved to a new address. Get the habit of including your return address on top left corner of envelopes or parcels.
- WRAP PARCELS SECURELY—tie with strong cord—and put on sufficient postage. When in doubt have your Post Office weigh parcels and letters and avoid double postage due.

Keep the following information readily available for reference when you mail

LETTER MAIL
 1st Class requires: Local delivery, 3¢ for the first ounce, 1¢ for each additional ounce; out-of-town (Canada, U.S., and all other countries of North and South America, British Commonwealth, France, Spain) delivery, 4¢ for first ounce, 2¢ for each additional ounce. Air Mail (domestic), 7¢ for first ounce, 5¢ for each additional ounce. (Inquire at Post Office for airmail rates to other countries.)

PRINTED MATTER
 Cards, circulars, etc., entirely printed—when addressed to individuals by name—2¢ for the first 2 ounces, 1¢ for each additional 2 ounces. When such mail is addressed "To Householder" (not by name) it requires 1½¢ for the first 2 ounces, and 1¢ for each additional 2 ounces.

NEWSPAPERS or PERIODICALS
 mailed by individuals to places in Canada, U.S. or Mexico require 2¢ for the first 4 ounces and 1¢ for each additional 4 ounces. CANADIAN newspapers and periodicals may also be mailed at same rate to other places in the Commonwealth, North and South America, France and Spain.
