Line Drown s Big Wave its Chicago

Water Rises 6 to 20 Feet

CHICAGO — A giant Michigan wave rolled over Chicago's beaches and piers Saturday, keeping more than a score of fishermen in rising waters. Four bodies were recovered and the estimate at least 10 others drowned.

Fishermen said the wave rose 20 feet over beaches and piers on a 25-mile stretch of Chicago's south side to Evanston in the north. It was the seventh freak tidal surge or seiche on the Great Lakes in this century and probably caused the most fatalities. Five persons were drowned in Holland, Mich., in a similar surge in 1938.

Britain Said Set To Move Suez Troops

NEW YORK — The New York Times today said that Britain has agreed on a plan for the total withdrawal of 10,000 British troops in the Canal zone.

The Times quotes "high diplomatic sources" as saying that Winston Churchill and President Eisenhower were prepared to back a proposal for complete evacuation from the zone over a two-year period.

The Herald Tribune, in a Washington story, carries a similar account.

Former Mayor of Winnipeg F. Gray Dies

VICTORIA — Charles Frederick Gray, former mayor of Winnipeg during a general strike in 1919, died Sunday. He was 84.

A sailor, prospector, engineer, adventurer, Mr. Gray moved to Winnipeg in 1911 as chief engineer for Westinghouse Corp. in charge of the installation of a main power plant and eight turbines.

He subsequently went into business for himself in Winnipeg as a consulting electrical engineer. He was elected to the council for four years and mayor for 1919 and 1920. During the general strike he was arrested with containing the strike within the confines of the city.

Addition of Canadian Dollar For Trade Sought by Japan

TOKYO — The Japanese government is working on a plan for recognition of the Canadian dollar as an official foreign currency for Japan's foreign trade.

Official foreign currencies are at present limited to the United States dollar and the pound sterling.

Japan in the last three months has slammed the brakes on the downhill plunge towards bankruptcy and social chaos.

The hands at the controls belong to hard-bitten Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida and his conservative-minded Liberal party.

This is Japan's economic problem: It is buying products, mostly raw materials for factories and food for the people, from other countries at the rate of $2,300,000,000 a year. Japan is selling abroad only about $1,200,000,000 a year.

Now Japan has only $800,000,000 in foreign currency in reserve to buy the things she needs from abroad.

To halt the drain, the government first tackled inflation by reducing the budget and the supply of credit. This will help increase exports by cutting prices of the things Japan sells.

It also helps to cut imports by taking from circulation the money people would use to buy luxury goods.

Government economists, architects of an "austerity" program, see an increase in unemployment and propose a social security program of unemployment insurance and the like to ward off unrest.

Japan is concentrating on building up industries where it can be competitive in the free world — optical equipment, cameras, textiles, machinery, toys, canned fish and plastics.

To help sell these products abroad, small trading companies are combining into large firms reminiscent of the pre-war "saibatsu" literally "money cliques," the giant cartels blamed for sparking the last war.

Boys Admit Derailing

VANCOUVER — Two boys aged five and seven years, Saturday admitted derailing the east-bound Canadian Pacific Railway passenger train here Thursday night. The case has been turned over to CPR police.

Detective Sylvan Armeaneau said the two admitted placing rough planking and rocks on a curve.

The boys were picked up by city police after residents of the area saw them playing by the tracks just before the engine and three cars jumped the rails. No one was injured.

Detective Armeaneau said: "All they'll probably get is a spanking by their parents."

Salmon Plan Found Success

PORT ANGELES — A tank truckload of 67,000 tiny silver salmon dumped into the Litty river near here Friday marked another milestone in the state's attempt to bring back salmon runs to dam-blocked streams.

State fisheries officials said that tagged fish from experiments had been found throughout Puget Sound, down the coast and in the Columbia river, indicating the wide effect of a single river restoration.

Racial Murder in Russia Described By Former Soviet Police Commander

MUNICH, Germany — A former Russian secret police commander told in chilling detail today how he helped betray and deport a million of Stalin's subjects because they wanted independence from the Kremlin.

Lt.-Col. Grigori Stepanovich Burlitski, 36, emerged into the glare of television floodlights to tell of racial murder in the Soviet Union. He deserted to the West last June but it was kept secret until he testified today before a U.S. congressional committee on Communist aggression, now in session here.

As the tiny, blue-eyed Cossack left the crowded committee room for the lunch recess, chairman Charles J. Kersten (Rep. Wis.) told everyone to remain seated for one minute. This was to allow guards to whisk Burlitski safely away.

Speaking through an interpreter, Burlitski described how rebellious non-Russian peoples like the Cecheno-Ingush mountain people in the Caucasus and the Tartars of Crimea were trapped by Soviet security forces in merciless "trojan-horse" operations.

MILLION FOOLED

He told how a million people were fooled into believing Soviet overtures of friendship so that they dropped their guard. Then they found themselves herded into cattle cars for deportation to the wastes of Siberia under the guns of men they had been entertaining as guests.

Burlitski said the Kremlin could not tolerate any independence movements so simply wiped out whole regions, leaving the land silent and deserted until new settlers could be found.

Burlitski said the Kremlin during the Second World War wiped out the tiny autonomous state of Cecheno-Ingush in the Caucasus. Its 500,000 independence-loving people were deported "to distant and unknown parts of the Soviet Union," he said.

HOOR TO PACK

He said the people were rounded up Sept. 23, 1944, under the ruse of a festival celebrating Red army victories. Stripped of all weapons, they were given an hour to pack then loaded in railroad cars which were locked and sealed.

The witness said he also participated in a terror campaign in 1944 aimed at wiping out a so-called bandit movement in Lithuania. "These bandits," he added, "were Lithuanians fighting for the freedom of their country."

Adenauer Suffers Setback

Communists Gain No Seats

DUSSELDORF, Germany — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democrat party suffered a setback today in the state election involving a quarter of West Germany voters.

A Christian Democrat-Centre Party coalition in the North Rhine-Westphalia district, Germany's biggest state lost its majority in the face of Social Democrat gains in state polling Sunday, according to unofficial results announced early today.

The coalition's campaign rested almost entirely on the Chancellor's popularity.

Social Democrats won 76 seats in the new 200 seat House, the Christian Democrats 90, Free Democrats 25, Centre Party 9.

In the old 215-seat House the Social Democrats had 67, Christian Democrats 94, Free Democrats 26, Centre Party 16, Communists 12.

The Communists were wiped out in this election.

$500 Fine or Six Months Sentence For Contributing

A fine of $500 or in default six months in jail was imposed this morning on Edwin Charles Harrington, found guilty last Wednesday by Judge of Juvenile Court W. D. Vance of contributing to juvenile delinquency.

In passing sentence, Judge Vance said that he had no choice but to believe the eight juvenile witnesses who had testified for the prosecution, as he felt that they had a sense of honesty and knew the true meaning of the oath they had taken before giving evidence.

He said that in view of the seriousness of the charge and also the fact that it was the accused's first appearance in court, he was imposing the maximum fine.

"I hope this will be a lesson to you and that you become a good citizen," he said.

Maximum sentence is $500 fine plus a jail term.

NO DOUBT

The juvenile court judge asserted that there was no doubt in his mind as to the guilt of the accused and that the case would have been dismissed if there had been.

Appearing for Harrington, Jerry Pettenuzzo asked the court to bear in mind the youth of the defendant, who was thought of highly by his associates.

The defence counsel stated that society would impose its own sentence and that the accused's chosen profession of teaching was closed to him. He concluded by stating that the case was an appropriate one for suspended sentence.

Crown counsel, T. W. Brown, QC, however, stated that parents should have the assurance that their children are safe when at school. He went on to point out that children involved in circumstances similar to those brought out by evidence in the case "may have a feeling of resentment to all authority" as they were just at the formative period of their lives.

Mr. Brown said the Crown could not entertain the idea of a suspended sentence. He asked the court to bear in mind the safety of the community and also the age of the defendant, which was "just three years more than juvenile age."

Youth Drowns As Boat Sunk

AGASSIZ — A 19-year-old youth was drowned in Harrison Lake Sunday when a 10-foot outboard motorboat overturned in a squall.

A companion swam to a nearby log boom. RCMP withheld the dead youth's name until his father, on a fishing trip in Alaska, had been notified.

The pair clung to the half-submerged craft for 10 minutes before striking out for a log boom about 60 feet away. Only one made it safely.

Need Co-Operation On Atomic Energy

WASHINGTON — Prime Minister Churchill and President Eisenhower declared today they will "press forward with plans for collective defence" in south-east Asia regardless of whether peace negotiations for Indo-China are successful or not.

In a communique this morning they also expressed the "conviction that further delay" in the creation of a European defence community and granting sovereignty to West Germany "would damage solidarity of Atlantic nations."

They also jointly declared that "both our countries would benefit" from technical co-operation on atomic energy to the fullest extent permitted by United States' law.

Conversations in the White House, the State Department and at the home of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, occupied the four principals and their advisers since Friday morning.

It is reported they reached agreement that time should be given France's Premier Pierre Mendes-France to try his hand at bringing peace in Indo-China and to see if anything may yet be achieved at the Geneva conference.

External Affairs Minister Pearson of Canada is expected here Tuesday in the RCAF plane which Churchill and his party will use on flight to Ottawa.

Newspapermen Visit Rupert

Two prominent newspapermen in town today were Don Cromie, president and publisher of the Vancouver Sun, and Hal Straight, Sun managing editor. The two passed through here on the final leg of a tour in which they have visited all major centres of the province. They said they were particularly impressed by the evidence of progressiveness in the north country.

They are returning by air to Vancouver this afternoon.

Lumber Strike In Second Week

PORTLAND (CP) — A strike by CIO woodworkers and AFL lumber and sawmill workers went into its second week Sunday with the dispute spreading to an allied industry.

Scattered settlements were reported throughout the week — some at no increase and other with increases ranging from 2½ to 12½ cents an hour.

The unions have demanded a 12½-cent hourly increase, but announced earlier in the week it would consider any offer above five cents an hour.

President of B.C. Tories Denies Discord in Party

VANCOUVER — Tom McDonald, president of the British Columbia's Progressive Conservative party, said Saturday his group is in "full accord with the national body" despite reports to the contrary.

McDonald was commenting on reports published in the Victoria Times that a strong faction of the B.C. executive was going to demand a change in party's national leadership.

The story said a faction would propose resolution at the July 17 quarterly meeting of the provincial executive at Vernon, declaring non-confidence in George Drew, national leader.

"I know nothing of such a thing," he said. "As far as I'm concerned the provincial group is in full accord with the national body."

Progressive Trend Upheld

WITH the sailing of the salmon fishing fleet yesterday the spectre of hardship is removed from a goodly proportion of Prince Rupert citizens. At the same time the shadow of a setback to the city's economy is removed and there appears no reason why the town shouldn't enjoy a prosperous summer.

The fishermen didn't receive all the concessions they sought, but then that is the way with bargaining. The operators had to give way on some matters and they stood firm on others, in exactly the same way as you or anyone else does when trying to reach a common ground of agreement.

It is notable that in this year's negotiations, in the fishing industry and many other labor-management negotiations throughout British Columbia, there has been a tendency to bargain to far greater lengths. Means of settlement appear to have been explored from all angles so that hardship on labor and loss of time and money by management could be avoided. In 1954 there has been a remarkable lack of acrimony during discussions between representatives of both the companies and the workers. The mud-slinging, baiting battles of a few years ago seem to be disappearing and it is our hope that they will not reappear.

Since the United Fishermen's and Allied Workers Union upheld this progressive trend as did the Fisheries Association it is only right that they be congratulated on conducting as peaceful and intelligent negotiations as have been carried out in some time. True the union went on strike, but only after taking a strike vote and observing all the procedure called for in the now-defunct Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act. All the time the strike was in effect talks to try to reach a settlement continued. Today the fleet is out after salmon.

When management and workers can sit down and talk things out to a successful conclusion without resorting to harsh words, baiting and degrading propaganda then it is indeed a time for rejoicing. A trend for the better obviously is being established and it is our sincere hope that it continues.

Noted Maine Explorer Sets Out On 30th Expedition to Arctic

BOOTHBAY HARBOR, Maine (AP)—The city's schooner Bowdoin pointed northward Sunday, carrying Rear Admiral Donald B. MacMillan on the famed explorer's 30th and probably final voyage to Arctic waters.

Residents and summer visitors at this little port staged a heartwarming send-off for the 79-year old skipper. Before the 81-foot vessel departed, town manager Ralph Boyd presented a plaque to MacMillan expressing appreciation for 20 years of his expeditions here. Governor Burton M. Cross added to the tributes after a parade to the dock.

Governor Cross said Maine people were proud of MacMillan's contributions to scientific knowledge of a part of the world that is becoming increasingly important to our national defence.

The Bowdoin will journey 8,000 miles before returning home. Its voyage will take it to the east coast of Labrador, Baffin land, Ellesmere land and Rennselaer harbor, which no ship has entered for 100 years.

As I See It

BY

Elmore Philpott

• Dull But Decent

IN THE last hours of the 1954 parliamentary session a cabinet minister and the leader of the opposition agreed that this had been a pretty dull session.

One reason why our House of Commons is not as fiery and exciting as it used to be is because all the MPs of all the parties think too much alike. The things on which they are agreed, and hence take for granted, far outweigh the things on which they disagree. Hence there is less room for furious argument.

INSIDE the parliament of Canada you clearly see the national characteristics of Canada coming out. We are, on the whole, a decent, kindly, but somewhat humdrum people — even a bit dull.

If an American business man hires a young Canadian, as a clerk, salesman, or as a stenographer, what does he expect to find? He expects that that Canadian will be more steady going than most American applicants. But he also expects the Canadian to be a bit more cautious — less inclined to talk big, or take big chances.

I say the American business man expects those qualities in a Canadian, because over the years that is the reputation that Canadians have built up. It is of course, partly a myth, for Canadians vary in their characteristics and capacities just as much as do people of other countries. However, just as it is true that Scots, as a whole, are a thrifty, canny folk, and just as it is true that most Italians have a song in their hearts, so it is also true that there is quite a clear behaviour pattern to Canadians.

An unkind Britisher wrote of Canadians that we are "just Americans, returning empty." But that witty crack was a mere corrective, to the over-fulsome praise that Canadian armed forces received in Britain in two world wars.

AS A newcomer MP to the parliament of Canada the thing that impressed me most was how much the parties all look, think, talk, and act alike.

You can't find anybody, anywhere, who is against the Welfare State. There isn't a single advocate of "Rugged Individualism" in the whole House.

Everybody is in favor of higher allowances of all kinds — but the opposition parties are a bit more vocal in their demands for such, for they know it will be the government which will have to worry about raising the taxes to pay for them. Also, and this is the main cause of the dullness about which some now complain — the Conservative party is really not very conservative, the Liberals are not overwhelmingly liberal, the Socialists are only socialist in tiny bits and spots, and you have to look for the social credit principles of the Social Credit party with a powerful microscope — for they hardly ever appear to the naked eye.

There may be crooks, schemers, and shady characters in the parliament of Canada. But if so, they must work so far underground that you just can't quickly spot them.

Yes — we lean to the dull side. You just can't imagine this parliament chopping off its king's head, or starting a revolution. If some MP called out the American election cry of a hundred odd years ago in the Canadian parliament of today most of us would figure that "Fifty Four Forty, or Fight" was a program, not for the next war, but for higher old age pensions in the next election.

Carpenters Seek Changes In Wage Act

VICTORIA (AP)—Officials of the District Council of Carpenters AFL-TLC will seek changes in the out-dated minimum wage act at a conference with members of the B.C. Industrial Relations Board on July 6.

"We have petitioned for changes in this act which has remained unaltered since 1939-40," said Victor Migdlev, representative of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters.

He said the minimum wage still stands at 90 cents an hour for carpenters.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Canada's parliament prorogued Saturday, which makes it 139 days. The House is tired. The public feels the same.

It may be a bit of a gamble to do any predicting, but it's perfectly safe to feel a shade tired later in the summer.

BOOM NUMBER TWO

It might have seemed natural enough, not long ago, not to anticipate a return of the Yukon. But it's here—flush times and all. Already the CPA's 4-craft has spent $100,000 in creating the rejuvenated river boat Klondike. The tourists might have started to fade, but the boom is back. Anyway, you just can't forget.

Traditional German Rites Unite New Canadians Here

An unusual but charming wedding ceremony, in the German tradition, was held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church here June 19, uniting in marriage two young New Canadians of Prince Rupert.

Exchanging wedding vows before the Rev. H. Olson were Sieglinde Schrader, daughter of Mrs. William Schrader, 1313 First Overlook, and Joachim Runge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Runge of Berlin, Germany.

SCATTER FLOWERS

The pretty double ring ceremony saw bride and groom enter the church together, preceded by little Wulf Schrader and Monica Kowal, who scattered flower petals before the bridal pair.

The bride was gown in white tulle in ballerina length style with a jacket of white velvet, and carried a bouquet of deep red roses with stephanotis.

Witnesses were Adolph Steigleder and Ant Laid and music was by Mrs. I. M. Fenness.

HOME RECEPTION

For the wedding reception, the home of the bride's mother was decked with evergreens and spring flowers. Mr. Siegfried Schoenagel proposed the toast to the bride with the groom responding and assisting with refreshments were Mrs. M. Kowal, Miss Fenna Konzel and Mrs. A. Laid.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion a dress of blue lace with matching accessories.

The newlyweds, who came to this country two and a half years ago are making their home at present at 1313 First Overlook. They plan a honeymoon trip to Vancouver next fall.

Orlon Shirts Upset Balance Of Ship Compass

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (P)—If a ship's compass acts up it may be because someone on the bridge is wearing an orlon shirt.

A ship's officer reported recently that the compasses were oscillating in a queer way. On investigation it was found that they behaved in this manner only when he was in the vicinity.

It was found that he was wearing an orlon shirt. When he wore it the compasses oscillated, but when he changed to a shirt of other material they behaved.

It is considered that static electricity may have been responsible.

Over 24 district art enthusiasts are planning attendance at this summer's outdoor art course at Lake Kathlyn, first of its type in northern British Columbia, and plans for the novel course are well underway, according to Mrs. J. T. Harvey.

Amateurs from Prince George, Telkwa, Smithers, Hazelton and Terrace, as well as Prince Rupert plan to take in the course which will see Fred Amess, head of the Vancouver School of Art, guide the artists in painting scenes throughout the Bulkley Valley.

Mrs. Harvey is still accepting applications for the course, July 5 to 14.

Following the regular Third Pack meeting and presentation ceremony, refreshments were served to visiting parents.

FIRST PACK

At the First Pack's meeting last week, four Golden Hands and five Golden Bars were presented, along with a variety of proficiency badges.

Receiving Golden Hands were Mary Taylor, Judy Hitchcock, Judy Christensen and Sherrill Cook while Golden Bars went to Jennifer Large, Pat Farrell, Anne Sheardown, Barbara McLaren and Marie Ridsdale.

Judy Bird, Jill Weise, Diane Foreman and Leslie McLaren earned skaters' badges; Gail Davidson and Jill Weise, Min-strel badges; Leslie McLaren and Diane Foreman, Collectors' badges and Sherrill Cook, dancer's badge.

"RAINBOW" DANCE

The program also included a dance, "The Rainbow" by Brownies holding dancer's badges and two selections by Gail Davidson.

Many mothers and members of the L.A. attended the presentation ceremony and were served tea from a prettily decorated tea table, centred by miniature Brownies and Elves in a "fairy ring," arranged by Mrs. Lionel Holtby. Serving were Pack Leaders Marnie Anfield, Jean Williams and Lynn Wrathall.

The session also saw presentation of farewell gifts to Margie Forward and Marnie Anfield, both of whom are leaving the city shortly.

Cafe Protest To Be Lodged With Football Association

An official protest will be lodged with the Prince Rupert and District Football Association by the Gondola Cafe following their 3-1 defeat at the hands of the Port Edward Paramounts Saturday night at Roosevelt Park.

No reason was advanced by Gondola manager Frank Campagnolo for the protest, but league president Maurice Bishop has called a meeting of the league executive and representatives from each team for tomorrow night to hear the case out.

Bill Baxter, chief referee for the league will also be at the meeting, as will Denny Morven who refereed the disputed game.

The game itself saw the Gondola Cafe score the first goal, a corner kick deflected in by team captain Adrian Tamburini. Port Edward evened the score ten minutes later when inside right Percy Tait booted a ball past G. Viteri, Gondola goalie on a penalty kick.

A hard driven ball caught by Viteri started off the first serious hassle of the game, when referee Morven ruled the goalie had taken too many steps before kicking the ball.

Placing the ball for an indirect free kick, the referee attempted to get the Gondola eleven to line up for the shot. Gondola players swarmed around and referee Morven's attempt to place the players in position resulted in Giovanni Nicoli almost being ejected from the game.

The free kick itself, an anticlimax to the colorful preparations, was made by Percy Tait, who failed to score. There was no further scoring in the first half.

Port Edward went ahead 2-1 shortly after the second half began on a goal which came as a result of another disputed play. Referee Morven placed the ball for a penalty shot after Percy Tait was pushed near the Gondola goal. After the whistle was blown and Tait had still not kicked the ball, Tamburini ran out from the Gondola goal and booted the ball up the field.

Tri-City Shades Salem to Vacate WIL Basement

Tri-City shaded Salem 11-10 in 12 innings Sunday and vaulted from the Western International Baseball League's cellar to a berth in the first division.

It was Tri-City's sixth win in the extended series with the Senators and left them in fourth place a single percentage point ahead of Lewiston. Salem replaced the Braves in the league basement.

Yakima took Edmonton's measure 5-1 and 5-2 and Victoria beat Wenatchee 3-2 and 6-3 to round out Sunday's schedule. Vancouver and Lewiston were idle.

Nine pitchers went to the mound before the final putout in the wild affair at Kennewick. Five Salem hurlers gave up a total of 22 hits to the Braves. The Senators collected 17 safe hits off four Tri-City moundsmen.

Tri-City sent the game into overtime with a pair of runs in the ninth. Salem scored once in the 10th and three times in the 11th but Tri-City had an equalizer for each tally. The Braves won the game in the 12th on successive singles by Artie Wilson, Vic Buccola and Len Tran.

It was the second 12 inning contest in two days for the Braves and Senators. Tri-City scored the winning run in the 12th Saturday as the Braves edged the Senators 1-0 in the opening game of a doubleheader. Tri-City won the nightcap too, 4-0.

The referee re-placed the ball this time for an indirect free kick. Tamburini cleared the goal mouth of players and Tait was home free with an unattended goal.

Gondola rallied but could not score, despite a play which saw Tamburini almost put the ball through the posts bodily, the last few feet on his stomach. Although the ball went between the posts, it was ruled no goal.

One faction of spectators was incensed by the call and a partisan fan ran on to the field throwing dirt after referee Morven.

Billy Adams, Paramount outside right, scored the final goal of the game, a drive which Viteri appeared to have little inclination to stop.

A game between General Motors and the Gondola Cafe is scheduled for Wednesday night at Roosevelt Park, but it will probably be played tomorrow evening to allow for the first game of the Rupert-Ketchikan All-Star baseball series Wednesday.

Line-ups:
Port Edward—Cyprian Nisyok, g; Percy Adams, lb; Tom McKay, rb; Bob Morven, ch; Pete Campbell, rh; Willie Mark, lh; Art Gurney, cf; Nelson Morven, il; Cecil Morven, ol; Percy Tait, ir; Billy Adams, or.

Gondola Cafe—V. Viteri, g; Quinto Scatena, lb; Pietro Del Grosso, rb; Albert Karau, ch; Walter Del Ross, lh; Giovanni Nicoli, rh; Adrian Tamburini, cf; Frank Anselmo, il; Bill McKee, ol; Egidio Nordio, ir; Angelo Miehle, or.

No Team Assured Top Spot As Championship Day Nears

By The Associated Press
Five teams are waging a bitter battle to gain first place by the Fourth of July—date that tradition has marked as "Championship Day."

Since turn of century approximately seven out of every 10 major league leaders on July 4 have gone on to win the pennant. With only a week to go no team is assured of top spot on mid-season holiday. New York Giants lead Brooklyn by one game today but the National League pace-setters face a "crucial" three-game series with the Dodgers at the Polo Grounds starting Tuesday.

Cleveland boasts a game-and-a-half advantage over Chicago in the American League; Yankees will engage second division Washington Senators in a four-game set.

Wrathall's Win Loop Finals

The Mixed Spring Bowling championships was taken by Wrathall's Thursday when they downed Tiger Cats by 131 pins in the playoff between loop winners in A and B divisions.

Tiger Cats were given a 705 handicap for the five games and bowled games of 996, 1026, 773, 1131 and 1057. Wrathall's total of 5,819 came on games of 1,244, 1,154, 1,169, 1,105 and 1,147.

Laies' high game for the night went to Helen Sanford of Tiger Cats with 289 while Agnes Pierce, Wrathall's lead-off bowler, rolled 1,121 for high three. Jack Paul, Wrathall's anchor man bowled both high single and high three with 270 and 1,010.

The league will end the season with a banquet in the Valhalla Hall Saturday, July 3, at which all team and individual trophies will be awarded.

Team members:
Wrathall's — Agnes Pierce, Charlie McKinnon, Herdis Hoi-kstad, John Laporte, Margaret Laporte, Armenda De Ra and Jack Paul.

Tiger Cats—John Hamilton, Jane Shamanski, Al Sandford, Rose Cap, Win Gardiner, Helen Sandford, Joe Kurdziel and Jack McInnis.

MARGERY SHARP, 17, of Fredericton, won the award as the outstanding girl performer at the Eastern Canada Track and Field Championship at Montreal. She also won the 100-ard and 60-yard open sprints and topped off the day with a victory in the open broad jump. She will compete in the British Empire Games trials finals at Vancouver next month.

Super Valu in Second Place After 9-3 Win Over Kinsmen

By BOB MORRIS
Super Valu took the game away from the Kinsmen Saturday night by a 9-3 score to move back into a second place tie in a close Little League race.

Going into the third inning with a 1-0 lead, Super Valu stole the game with eight runs off five walks and three hits with one batter hit by the pitcher. Ken Dockendorf, pitching his first game for the Kinsmen, gave up nine walks and four hits and struck out four for Super Valu's nine runs. Kinsmen moved Robert Adams in to finish the third inning. He gave up only one hit to put out the Super Valu flame. Foster who finished the game on the mound for Kinsmen allowed no hits and gave out only three bases on balls striking out five.

Don Love who pitched the entire game for the winners gave up only five hits and one free pass. Kinsmen runs came in the bottom of the third on hits by Erickson and Dockendorf and a Super Valu error. They added two more in the last inning when Foster and Olsen both connected for triples and Voagan hit safely. Love struck out nine of his opponents.

The loss moves Kinsmen to the cellar, one game behind Super Valu and Sea Kings who are tied for second with .500 averages, and two games behind the league leading North Stars who are batting .572.

Hotelmen Leave Cellar; Down Terrace 11-3, 6-1

Commercial Hotel used the Terrace team as their ladder to climb out of the Prince Rupert and District Baseball League cellar yesterday at Roosevelt Park as they took both ends of a twin bill, 11-3 and 6-1.

The hotelmen's twin kill places them in second place in the league, a position they haven't seen all year, five games behind league leading Gordon and Anderson. At the same time, Terrace drops to third place and Esquires to the dungeon, both five and a half games out of the lead.

Sparking the opening win for Commercial was curve balling Vic Carole who was making his first re-appearance in district ball circles in several years. Carole, in town three days and stayed with the hotelmen two of them, held the Terrace nine scoreless for five innings while his team mates racked up 11 runs.

Carole's hopes for a shut-out, were shattered in the top of the sixth when Terrace's right fielder Fisher, missed a third strike and catcher Herb Morgan dropped the ball. Fisher streaked for first and Morgan's throw to first sent the ball out to pasture along the line extending to right field from the stands. Jack Lindsay, Commercial right fielder, figuring on the overthrow being good for one base, moved over for the ball, while Fisher loped around all the sacks to the plate with a ground rule home run.

Terrace starter Jack Burton allowed five runs in the first inning and three in the second before he was replaced by George Haugland who was making his debut as a pitcher. Haugland allowed only three runs on three hits and held the hotelmen scoreless from the sixth inning. Terrace scored again in the seventh and again in the eighth but only one of the runs, scored by Burton's double and Keith Williams single was earned.

Carole gave up the three runs on five hits, three walks while striking out 10. Burton allowed eight runs on seven hits and struck out one. Haugland allowed three runs on three hits and struck out four.

In the second game Gordie Cameron allowed only three hits to account for the one run Terrace scored, while losing pitcher Larry Mathews was tagged for 11 hits.

Cameron held the visitors scoreless for five innings while the hotelmen came up with two runs in the first and four in the top of the fifth. Up to this time, Cameron allowed only one hit, a single to Fisher who was left stranded.

Mathews put Terrace into the scoring column when he grounded to Cliff Dahl, who threw to first to catch Mathews allowing Burton who had tripled, to cross the plate.

Cameron walked none and struck out five. Mathews also walked one and struck out three. Terrace left eight men stranded in the first game and seven the second. Commercial left seven on the bases in both games.

They're talking about Canada the world over

Everywhere it has been shown along its 30,000 mile, year-long International route—at brilliant previews attended by governmental, industrial, cultural and professional leaders, and at public showings—the Seagram Collection of Paintings of Canadian Cities has been talked-about headline news.

In the sixteen cities it visited abroad the Collection earned for Canada thousands of columns of newspaper reports, editorials, reviews, and pictures; magazine articles; radio and television broadcasts; newsreel films, widespread public attention—all testifying to the mounting interest and friendliness on the part of people everywhere toward Canada and things Canadian.

Painted especially for The House of Seagram by distinguished Canadian artists, this unique collection of 52 original paintings of 22 Canadian Cities was seen, enjoyed and talked about by a quarter of a million people in 16 cities of two continents.

The Seagram Collection of Paintings of Canadian Cities has won enthusiastic friends for Canada around the world—friends who have gained a new and vivid impression of our country as a land that is vital and growing, a land of tremendous natural and industrial resources, and remarkable human resourcefulness.

The Seagram Collection is now back home, on a two-year trans-Canada tour which will give Canadians the opportunity of seeing for themselves these colourful ambassadors of goodwill... these portrayals of our thriving cities which have excited comment around the world.

Modest Heroine

PERTH, Australia — When the Royal Humane Society awarded its bronze medal to 16-year-old Vanda Lukanavicius that was the first time her parents learned she had saved a swimmer from drowning months before. Vanda explained she kept quiet "because Mom got so upset when I rescued a woman from drowning two years ago."

Bennett Scores Statements About B.C. Civil Service

VICTORIA —Premier Bennett has issued a prepared press in which he scored "wild statements appearing in the newspaper regarding the civil service."

The premier said his government has great confidence in the civil servants, and has "made less changes in personnel than any new government has ever made in Canada."

"The average salaries of government employees is higher than ever before in the history of the province, the average monthly wage being $253.71," he said.

However, the premier made no mention of the root of the civil servants' dispute with the government—the cabinet's refusal to meet with the B.C. Government Employees' Association grievance committee to hear job grievances and wage requests.

Player's Wrong Timing Costs Her The Contract

The dummy in today's deal was quite a disappointment to Mrs. Keen. Not that the expected values weren't there—but they were badly placed. If she could have transferred the king and queen of spades to the club suit or the diamond suit, the contract would have been a laydown. As it was, she played the hand well from a mechanical standpoint. Only her strategy could have been improved.

Mr. Dale's lead of the jack of spades was covered in dummy and won by Mr. Champion with the ace. Back came the queen of diamonds and Mrs. Keen let it hold. Her plan was to eliminate all of the spades and diamonds from her hand and from dummy—and then to put one of the defenders in the lead with a second round of clubs.

Mr. Champion continued with the jack of diamonds and this time Mrs. Keen won with the ace. She entered dummy with the queen of hearts, led the queen of spades and discarded her last diamond.

LAYS DOWN ACE

She ruffed dummy's last spade with the nine of hearts. Dummy was entered again with the jack of hearts, picking up the last of the outstanding trumps. Now dummy's last diamond was played and ruffed in the closed hand.

At this point Mrs. Keen laid down the ace of clubs hoping somebody held the king doubleton. If that were the case, then the opponent who won with the king would have to return either a diamond or a spade and Mrs. Keen would ruff in dummy while discarding her losing club.

NOT NAPPING

She got her wish. Mr. Dale did have the king of clubs guarded only once. But he was not caught napping. On the ace of clubs he promptly dropped the king. Clubs were continued and Mr. Champion won the next two tricks to defeat the contract.

Mrs. Keen would have had a

Canadian Army Pill Pushers To Mark 50th Anniversary of RCAMC July 2

OTTAWA —Army sawbones and pill-pushers in Canada, Europe and the Far East will celebrate the 50th birthday of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps July 2.

Army headquarters said today the principal birthday ceremony will be held at the RCAMC school at Camp Borden, Ont., where there will be a ceremonial parade, historical pageant and parties in the various messes.

A special feature will be the official opening of the new Banting barracks block by Lady Henrietta Banting. The building is named after Lady Banting's husband, the late Sir Frederick Banting, co-discoverer of insulin and former RCAMC officer.

Medical services in the Canadian Army did not become a July 2, 1904, announced that the Canadian militia army medical services would become known as the army medical corps. But origin of the Canadian army medical service goes back to the time of the Northwest Rebellion in 1885.

GRANTED "ROYAL" TITLE

The permanent component of the corps was granted the title "royal" in 1919 and this distinction was granted the reserve component in 1936.

During the Boer War two Canadian military hospitals were sent to South Africa. Their staffs included 16 militia nursing sisters.

During the First World War corps personnel served on all fronts where Canadian troops were in action. Two Victoria Crosses were won by members of the corps. A total of 21,453 served and 1,198 were battle casualties, including 504 killed.

In the Second World War, 34,786 personnel served in the RCAMC and 430 were battle casualties. In addition to Canadian nursing sisters who served on all fronts with Canadian troops, 300 Canadian nurses were loaned to the South African forces and 75 Canadian medical officers served with the British army.

The RCAMC has provided units for service in Korea and Germany. The Queen recently approved appointment of the Queen Mother as colonel-in-chief of the corps.

Bright Future For Hollywood Seen by Steady Van Johnson

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK —It isn't true that to be a Hollywood star you have to own three swimming pools — labelled "his," "hers," and "theirs."

"Haven't even one," said Van Johnson, who has made 50 pictures since 1941.

Johnson, now hitting the peak of his career, is a cheerful relief from the breast-beating type of actor who predicts the west coast film colony will become a ghost town.

"I've never felt more excitement in Hollywood," he said. "They have a new feeling out there. They are concentrating on quality pictures, and they are turning out better pictures all the time."

OSCAR CANDIDATE

Van hit a new top himself recently as Lieut. Steve Markin in "The Caine Mutiny," a role that may make him a candidate for an academy award.

Van has had to surmount three handicaps to gain serious recognition as a film actor: (1) red hair, (2) freckles, and (3) a "face like the boy next door."

"In my first picture, a crime short," he recalled, "they insisted on dyeing my hair black and covering my freckles. Then it started raining, and the dye ran all over my face—and darn near washed me right out of Hollywood."

BOBBY SOX IDOL

As "the boy next door" Van clicked quickly and became a bobbysox idol.

"I still hate that term," he said. "But the bobbysoxers all grew up and became mothers. I had the problem of growing up, too. I got pretty tired of being the boy next door with the apple pie face."

He will team with Deborah Kerr in his next film, "The End of the Affair," to be made in England. One of the staidest workers in the industry, Van doesn't want to become a picture-a-year actor.

"What would I do the rest of the time?" he asked. "I go crazy if I have more than two weeks off."

IWA Will Sign Pact This Week

VANCOUVER —Official signing of the 1954 contract between the International Woodworkers of America (IWA) and Forest Industrial Relations will take place this week.

The settlement, which centered on working conditions and not wages, was approved by the union membership last week.
