Last Rites Sunday In Civic Centre

Alan McLean Hurst, 56-year-old principal of Booth Memorial High School here for the past six years, died suddenly of a heart attack last night while playing cards with friends.

The civic-minded principal, a teacher in British Columbia for 23 years and secretary for the Pacific Coast area headquarters of the YMCA War Services during the Second World War, had been in apparent good health. However, he is known to have suffered for many years from a wound received while serving overseas during the First World War.

While spending his usual Thursday evening get-together with friends aboard the yacht of Dr. Geddes Large, he complained of a pain and shortly afterwards collapsed. He was rushed to Prince Rupert General Hospital but was dead on arrival.

Educated in B.C.

Mr. Hurst was born in Warrington, Lancashire, England, in 1897. He moved to Vancouver with his family when he was eight years old and received his education there. While at the University of British Columbia he was the first person to take first-class honors in philosophy.

Hundreds Die In Floods; Scores Missing

REGGIO CALABRIA, Italy (AP)—Rescue workers searched frantically today through wrecked homes in a dozen small villages for victims of devastating flash floods that have claimed as many as 100 lives.

Torrential rains continue to pour on the stricken area from Reggio along the Ionian Sea this morning. They stopped abruptly at noon, but heavy clouds still hung over the area, threatening new downpours.

In the Reggio Calabria area alone 53 dead have been accounted for. Scores of persons are missing. Hundreds were injured in the disaster, the worst here since an earthquake levelled the region in 1908. Residents said the damage, estimated in billions of lire, was far greater than that caused by similar inundations just two years ago.

MALELESS HAMLET HIT

Among the hardest-hit hamlets was that of Rosario di Valandri, inhabited almost entirely by women and children whose husbands and fathers have gone to Canada to work. Assunta Condemi, 40, was rescued after her own heroic efforts to save the lives of her three small children were thwarted by a sudden wave of mud and water that tore her smallest child out of her hands.

District News

SMITHERS — Smithers Mid-summer-night Festival group has laid the ground work for its second annual event next June 21.

An effort will be made to arouse interest of the various national groups in the district in preparing items during the winter months, for presentation.

Highlight of the first festival, held July 11 after two previous postponements due to rain, was the Sun Dance. This feature is planned to be enlarged by Mrs. Tim Price, who developed the theme. Encouragement is also to be given development of arts and crafts for display.

A report of this year's festival showed revenue of $316.61. The meeting approved that this money be retained for improvement of next year's show and the grounds. The festival grounds site is a natural amphitheatre overlooking the Bulkley River with the Hudson Bay mountain in the background.

Members decided the group was not ready to accept the invitation to take part in the Prince Rupert drama festival.

Municipal IODE Thanked For Aid To Rupert Child

Skeena Union Board of Health will write a letter to the Municipal Chapter of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, thanking its members and expressing appreciation for making it possible for a crippled Prince Rupert child to receive treatment in Vancouver.

The child, a 10-year-old girl suffering from tuberculosis of the spine, is the daughter of parents unable to afford the necessary hospital care.

Transportation by boat was provided by the Prince Rupert Junior Red Cross and Dr. S. F. Carr, director of the Skeena Health unit, said great credit and thanks are due these organizations which make treatment possible for needy cases.

This summer, he said, tests made at Lakeelse Lake showed that the water there was grossly polluted and that there was no good drinking water in the park. The Forestry department drove an 18-inch pipe and constructed a modern protected well at Lakeelse. Within the next year, he said, acceptable drinking water supply would be installed in all provincial parks in the district.

Dr. Carr said this was the only solution, and he was "very proud" of the forestry department for going ahead with its plans. Signs placed to warn the public of impure water were useless, he said, because people drink the water anyway.

Japan Facing Rice Shortage
TOKYO (AP)—Perennially food-short Japan faces its smallest rice crop in 20 years. The nation's latest official rice yield forecast for 1953 plunged from 290,400,000 bushels to 252,000,000. The shortage has been blamed on cold weather, insect ravages and floods.

Health Unit Reports Progress In Control of Typhoid Here

Considerable progress has been made in the control of typhoid and para-typhoid in the Skeena Health Unit District, Dr. S. F. Carr, director, told the quarterly meeting of the Union Board of Health at which Ald. Kay Smith, a health nurse, sanitary inspector Len Hiebert and the doctor were the only attendants.

Since the meeting could make no decisions, Dr. Carr read reports to Ald. Smith which showed that following an extensive survey by Dr. Carr and Dr. John Nelson of Vancouver, a typhoid carrier had been discovered and treated.

The two doctors had made a 3,000-mile tour covering areas north to Alamyah, up the Naas River including all the Indian villages, the Skeena River canyons, checking on all typhoid and para-typhoid cases and contacts known in the past three and a half years.

Number of known typhoid cases during the 3½-year period was approximately 60, Dr. Carr said, and throughout the survey one woman was found to have been the source of at least a third of the typhoid cases. She had never had the disease and had never been pinned down as a carrier. She had been given

Socreds Endorse Resolution to Keep Elected Representatives Off Executive

VANCOUVER (CP)—Social Crediters moved Thursday to keep elected representatives out of the executive of the B.C. Social Credit League.

The almost 500 delegates to the league's annual convention passed a resolution submitted by eight constituency associations which said all members of the legislature and all members of parliament "should" not hold office in the league.

Thomas Irwin, speaker of the legislature and chairman of the convention, withdrew his name as a presidential candidate shortly after.

Delegates supporting the motion said the elected members did not have time to do both jobs and that the league did not want to be controlled from the legislature.

Noel Murphy, a 49-year-old Vancouver accountant, was elected league president Thursday night. He defeated past-president John Perdue.

During the afternoon session delegates slogged through many resolutions dealing with legislation and league policies.

Greater Victoria and Greater Vancouver constituencies fought it out, through resolutions, over the location of the head office of the league.

Greater Victoria associations moved that the league head offices be moved from Vancouver to Victoria. The motion was defeated without discussion.

After more than half an hour's debate, delegates finally tabled a resolution, backed by Mr. Perdue in his annual report, which called for establishment for a Social Credit newspaper to be put out by the league.

The league will not back any civic or municipal election candidates if the executive accepts another resolution passed by the delegates.

A Burnaby motion that called for abolition of the three per cent sales tax was tabled but two other motions calling for exemption of the three per cent sales tax on children's shoes and clothing and fuel oil were accepted.

Doctor Seeking Court Costs In Libel Action

VANCOUVER (CP)—Dr. William Kemp Wednesday asked the Assize court to award him costs arising from criminal libel charges laid against him by John J. Perdue, president of the B.C. Social Credit League.

The action followed announcement in Victoria Tuesday that Attorney-General Robert Bonner had granted Perdue permission to abandon the action against Kemp, an unsuccessful independent candidate in the June, 1953 election.

Counsel for Mr. Kemp today asked Mr. Justice H. W. Davey to grant his client costs incurred in the proceedings to date before the case was allowed to be dropped.

He also said he would ask court for a statement regarding the institution of criminal proceedings.

Mr. Justice Davey adjourned the case until Monday to allow Mr. Perdue to be present.

Open Season Set On Fishing Union

VANCOUVER (CP)—Trades and Labor Congress president Percy Bengough Wednesday declared "open season" on the jurisdiction of United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union, suspended recently from the TLC for Communist leadership.

Mr. Bengough said in an interview here that "as long as the UFAW is under suspension it is open season on their jurisdiction as far as the Congress is concerned."

Delegates rejected the suggestion of a government-supervised sweepstake to aid hospitals and other charitable organizations.

A resolution calling for hospital insurance premium exemptions for single persons earning $720 or less a year and for married persons receiving $1,200 or less was tabled.

An amendment asking the government to start orderly decontrol of rents as soon as possible was defeated.

LEGAL NOTICE

WAR CLAIMS COMMISSION
NOTICE

To ex-prisoners of war in Europe (including merchant navy personnel), and to surviving dependents of deceased prisoners of war:

NOTICE is hereby given that the War Claims Commission, with the approval of the Government of Canada, has today adopted an amended interpretation of the War Claims Rules applicable to claims for maltreatment of prisoners of war (including merchant seamen) in Europe
during World War II.

Under the amended interpretation there have been established three presumptions of fact, applicable to the majority of cases of this class:

- (1) (rebuttable) that some degree of maltreatment was inflicted, though sporadic and intermittent;
- (2) that some degree of incapacity to work resulted;
- (3) that such incapacity subsisted for some period or time after liberation.

On the basis of these presumptions, it is anticipated that the very great majority of claims of this class on the strength of documentary evidence provided by the claimants and of corroboration secured by the Commission, from official records, thus relieving most individual claimants from the burden and expense of attending oral hearings.

It should be noted however, that in order to avail themselves of the amended interpretation of the Rules, claimants who have not already given notice of their intention to claim, must forward such notice in writing to the War Claims Commission, Ottawa, Canada, on or before December 31, 1953.

Given at Ottawa this seventh day of October, A.D. 1953.
THANE A. CAMPBELL,
Chief War Claims Commissioner. (1f-c)

Trucks Awarded Comeback Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Virgil
Trucks, who was tagged with 19 defeats in 1952 despite hurling two no-hitters, was voted today as American League baseball's comeback kid of 1953.

The 34-year-old righthander, who began the season with the lowly St. Louis Browns but was sold to Chicago White Sox in June, edged out the great Ted Williams for the honor on the strength of his 20 victories, 15 of them compiled with the White Sox.

Trucks received 55 votes to 50 for Williams, with nine others drawing one or more. Mickey Vernon, Washington's brilliant first-baseman and the circuit's batting king, drew 29 votes to place third.

Grid Dopsters Give Up Trying To Solve Big Four Possibilities

By The Canadian Press

There are so many "ifs" attached to the play-off chances of Big Four and Ontario Rugby Football Union teams that even the experts have given up trying to "dope" out the situation. The teams can decide for themselves on the playing field.

In the Western Conference the only thing to be decided is venue of the opening game between Saskatchewan Roughriders and Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

The Western Conference schedule closes out with Winnipeg meeting the league-leading Eskimos at Edmonton and the last-place Calgary Stampeders at home to Saskatchewan.

In the Big Four here's where the "ifs" start. If Toronto beats Tiger-Cats at Toronto on Saturday and Rough Riders snap their three-game losing streak and knock over the Alouettes at Montreal, eastern Canada fans can look for a tight race to the wire.

If Montreal and Hamilton win, the point spread between the co-leaders and Ottawa and Toronto will be six with three games remaining in the 14-game schedule.

SPECIAL DAY TO HONOR CANADA'S "MR. FOOTBALL"

TORONTO (AP)—The retirement of one of Canada's all-time great football players will be marked Nov. 14 by a Joe Krol day. Krol's playing days after 15 years in senior football ended abruptly last Sunday when he aggravated a knee injury while Toronto Argonauts were playing Montreal Alouettes.

The same two Big Four teams will be in action in Varsity Stadium here Nov. 14 when "King Krol" is honored. It will be the last game of the regular schedule.

Olson's Reign May Only Last Until He Meets Kid Gavilan

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—It is highly improbable that Bobo Olson, the world's new middleweight champion, will ever be compared seriously with such giants of the 160-pound class as Harry Greb, Mickey Walker and Sugar Ray Robinson, to name only three former kings of a great weight division.

The former Honolulu street brawler simply doesn't hit hard enough to belong in such company. It cannot be said, though, that the father of four has not taken fast and complete advantage of a situation made to his order—a comparative shortage of real top-notchers in the class which sometimes boasts two or three of them at once.

The fact that Olson knocked Randy Turpin down twice in their title fight does not necessarily indicate that he has all of a sudden developed a real wallop. The Briton was wide open on each occasion, backed against the ropes and seemingly mesmerized, and Bobo was able to put everything he had into a volley of shots to the jaw. It was the cumulative effect rather than any single blow that put Randy on the canvas.

In fact, some of the experts thought the new champ exposed a serious weakness in not stopping his weary opponent when he had him so badly hurt. However, as Olson did win the fight with something to spare, it perhaps is unfair to look for the flaws.

Our private opinion, which is being widely challenged, is that Bobo will hold the title only up to the night that he takes on the Cuban Whip, Kid Gavilan, who currently rules the next lower weight division, the welterweights.

SERVING CANADA IN THE ARMY YOU SERVE YOURSELF

Today, to keep what we have . . . to remain free—we must have a strong Army manned by trained soldiers. If you share this view, there may be a place for you with the soldiers of the Canadian Army—the men who guard Canada.

To be eligible you must be 17 to 40 years of age, skilled tradesmen to 45, and able to meet Army test requirements. When applying bring birth certificate or other proof of age.
